All my bones are out of joint.
My heart is like wax;
it is melted within me.
¹⁵My strength is dried up like a potsherd.
My tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.^a
You have brought me into the dust of death.

A company of evildoers have enclosed me.
They have pierced my hands and feet.^b ¹⁷I can count all of my bones.
They look and stare at me.^c ¹⁸They divide my garments among them.

They cast lots for my clothing.^d

¹⁹But do not be far off, LORD.
You are my help: hurry to help me.
²⁰Deliver my soul from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dog.
²¹Save me from the lion's mouth!
Yes, from the horns of the wild oxen, you have answered me.
²²I will declare your name to my brothers.
In the midst of the assembly,
I will praise you.^e ²³You who fear the LORD, praise him!
All you descendants of Jacob, glorify him!
Stand in awe of him, all you descendants of Israel!
²⁴For he has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted, Neither has he hidden his face from him;
but when he cried to him, he heard.^f ²⁵Of you comes my praise in the great assembly.
I will pay my vows before those who fear him.
²⁶The humble shall eat and be satisfied.
They shall praise the LORD who seek after him.
Let your hearts live forever.

that I may dwell in the house

Psalm 28

By David.

¹To you, LORD, I call.

The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.
⁵The voice of the LORD breaks the

Yes, the LORD breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.
⁶He makes them also to skip like a

Psalm 30

A Psalm. A Song for the Dedication of the Temple. By David.

- ¹I will extol you, LORD, for you have raised me up,
and have not made my foes
to rejoice over me.
²LORD my God, I cried to you, and you have healed me.
³LORD, you have brought up my soul from Sheol.
You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.
⁴Sing praise to the LORD, you holy ones of his.
Give thanks to his holy
name.
⁵For his anger is but for a moment.
His favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping may stay for the night, but joy comes in the morning.
⁶As for me, I said in my prosperity,
“I shall never be moved.”
⁷You, LORD, when you favored me, made my mountain stand strong;
but when you hid your face,
I was troubled.
⁸I cried to you, LORD.
To the LORD^a I made supplication:
⁹“What profit is there in my destruction, if I go down to the pit?
Shall the dust praise you?

Psalm 31

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

- ¹In you, LORD, I take refuge.
Let me never be disappointed.
Deliver me in your
righteousness.
²Bow down your ear to me.
Deliver me speedily.
Be to me a strong rock,
a house of defense to save
me.
³For you are my rock and my fortress,
therefore for your name’s sake lead me and guide me.
⁴Pluck me out of the net that they have laid secretly for
me,
for you are my stronghold.
⁵Into your hand I commit my spirit.
You redeem me, LORD, God of truth.

⁶I hate those who regard lying vanities, but I trust in the LORD.
⁷I will be glad and rejoice in your loving kindness, for you have seen my affliction.
You have known my soul in adversities.
⁸You have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy.
You have set my feet in a large place.
⁹Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am in distress.
My eye, my soul, and my body waste away with grief.
¹⁰For my life is spent with sorrow, my years with sighing.
My strength fails because of my iniquity.
My bones are wasted away.
¹¹Because of all my adversaries I have become utterly contemptible to my neighbors,
A fear to my acquaintances.
Those who saw me on the street fled from me.
¹²I am forgotten from their hearts like a dead man.
I am like broken pottery.
¹³For I have heard the slander of many, terror on every side, while they conspire together against me, they plot to take away my life.
¹⁴But I trust in you, LORD.
I said, "You are my God."
¹⁵My times are in your hand.
Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.

¹⁶Make your face to shine on your servant.
Save me in your loving kindness.
¹⁷Let me not be disappointed, LORD, for I have called on you.
Let the wicked be disappointed.
Let them be silent in Sheol.
¹⁸Let the lying lips be mute, which speak against the righteous insolently, with pride and contempt.
¹⁹Oh how great is your goodness, which you have laid up for those who fear you,
which you have worked for those who take refuge in you,
before the sons of men!
²⁰In the shelter of your presence you will hide them from the plotting of man.
You will keep them secretly in a dwelling away from the strife of tongues.
²¹Praise be to the LORD, for he has shown me his marvelous loving kindness in a strong city.
²²As for me, I said in my haste, "I am cut off from before your eyes."
Nevertheless you heard the voice of my petitions when I cried to you.
²³Oh love the LORD, all you his holy ones!

The LORD preserves the faithful, and fully recompenses him who behaves arrogantly.
²⁴Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who hope in the LORD.

Psalm 32

By David. A contemplative psalm.

¹Happy is he whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
²Blessed is the man to whom the LORD doesn't impute iniquity, in whose spirit there is no deceit.^a ³When I kept silence, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.

⁶For this, let everyone who is godly pray to you in a time when you may be found.

Surely when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach to him.
⁷You are my hiding place.
You will preserve me from trouble.
You will surround me with songs of deliverance.
Selah.
⁸I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go.
I will counsel you with my eye on you.
⁹Do not be like the horse, or like the mule, which have no understanding, who are controlled by bit and bridle, or else they will not come near to you.
¹⁰Many sorrows come to the wicked, but loving kindness shall surround him who trusts in the LORD.
¹¹Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, you righteous!
Shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart!

Psalm 33

¹Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous!
Praise is fitting for the upright.
²Give thanks to the LORD with the lyre.
Sing praises to him with the harp of ten strings.
³Sing to him a new song.

desires of your heart.

GIMEL

- ⁵Commit your way to the LORD.
Trust also in him, and he will act.
⁶And he will make your righteousness go forth
as the light,
and your justice as the noonday.

DALET

- ⁷Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him.
Do not fret because of him who prospers in his
way,
because of the man who makes wicked plots happen.

HEY

- ⁸Cease from anger, and forsake
wrath.
Do not fret, it leads only to evildoing.
⁹For evildoers shall be cut off, but those who wait for the LORD shall inherit the land.

VAV

- ¹⁰For yet a little while, and the wicked will be no
more.
Yes, though you look for his place, he isn't there.
¹¹But the humble shall inherit the
land,
and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

ZAYIN

- ¹²The wicked plots against the just,
and gnashes at him with his teeth.
¹³The Lord will laugh at him, for he sees that his day is coming.

HET

Psalm 37

¹⁴The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy,
to kill those who are upright in the way.

¹⁵Their sword shall enter into their own heart.
Their bows shall be broken.

TET

¹⁶Better is a little that the righteous has,
than the abundance of many wicked.

¹⁷For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, but the LORD upholds the righteous.

YOD

¹⁸The LORD knows the days of the perfect.
Their inheritance shall be forever.

¹⁹They shall not be disappointed in the time of evil.
In the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

KAPH

²⁰But the wicked shall perish.
The enemies of the LORD shall be like the beauty of the fields.
They will vanish—
vanish like smoke.

LAMED

²¹The wicked borrow, and do not pay back, but the righteous give generously.

²²For such as are blessed by him shall inherit the land.
Those who are cursed by him shall be cut off.

MEM

²³The steps of a man are established by the LORD, and he delights in his way.

²⁴Though he stumble, he shall not fall,
for the LORD holds him up with his hand.

NUN

²⁵I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken,
nor his children begging for bread.

²⁶All day long he deals graciously, and lends.
His seed is blessed.

SAMEKH

²⁷Depart from evil, and do good.
Live securely forever.

²⁸For the LORD loves justice, and doesn't forsake his holy ones.

They are preserved forever,
but the children of the wicked shall be cut off.

²⁹The righteous shall inherit the land, and live in it forever.

PEY

³⁰The mouth of the righteous talks of wisdom.
His tongue speaks justice.
³¹The law of his God is in his heart.
None of his steps shall slide.

TZADE

³²The wicked watches the
righteous,
and seeks to kill him.
³³The LORD will not leave him in his hand,
nor condemn him when he is judged.

QOPH

³⁴Wait for the LORD, and keep his
way,
and he will exalt you to inherit the land.
When the wicked are cut off,
you shall see it.

RESH

³⁵I have seen the wicked in great power,
spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil.
³⁶But he passed away, and behold, he was not.
Yes, I sought him, but he could not be found.

SHIN

³⁷Mark the perfect man, and see the upright,
for there is a future for the man of peace.
³⁸As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together.

The future of the wicked shall be cut off.

TAV

³⁹But the salvation of the righteous is from the LORD.
He is their stronghold in the time of trouble.
⁴⁰The LORD helps them, and
rescues them.
He rescues them from the wicked, and saves
them,
Because they have taken refuge in him.

Psalm 38

A Psalm by David, for a memorial.

¹LORD, do not rebuke me in your
wrath,
neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.
²For your arrows have pierced me, your hand presses hard on
me.
³There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation,
neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin.
⁴For my iniquities have gone over my head.
As a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me.
⁵My wounds are loathsome and corrupt,
because of my foolishness.
⁶I am pained and bowed down greatly.
I go mourning all day long.

⁷For my waist is filled with burning.
There is no soundness in my flesh.
⁸I am faint and severely bruised.
I have groaned by reason of the anguish of my
heart.
⁹Lord, all my desire is before you.
My groaning is not hidden
from you.
¹⁰My heart throbs.
My strength fails me.
As for the light of my eyes,
it has also left me.
¹¹My loved ones and my friends keep their distance because of my affliction.
My kinsmen stand far away.
¹²They also who seek after my life lay snares.
Those who seek my hurt speak mischievous
things,
and meditate deceits all day long.
¹³But I, as a deaf man, do not hear.
I am as a mute man who doesn't open his
mouth.
¹⁴Yes, I am as a man who doesn't hear,
in whose mouth are no
reproofs.
¹⁵For in you, LORD, do I hope.
You will answer, Lord my
God.
¹⁶For I said, "Do not let them gloat
over me,
or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips."
¹⁷For I am ready to fall.
My pain is continually
before me.
¹⁸For I will declare my iniquity.

I will be sorry for my sin.
¹⁹But my enemies are vigorous and many.
Those who hate me without reason are numerous.
²⁰They who also render evil for good are adversaries to
me,
because I follow what is
good.
²¹Do not forsake me, LORD.
My God, do not be far from
me.
²²Hurry to help me,
Lord, my salvation.

Psalm 39

For the Chief Musician. For Jeduthun. A Psalm by David.

¹I said, "I will watch my ways, so that I do not sin with my tongue.
I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me." ²I was mute with silence.
I held my peace, even from
good.
My sorrow was stirred.
³My heart was hot within me.
While I meditated, the fire burned:
I spoke with my tongue:
⁴"LORD, show me my end, what is the measure of my
days.
Let me know how frail I am." ⁵Behold, you have made my days handbreadths.
My lifetime is as nothing
before you.

Surely every man stands as a breath.”

Selah.

⁶“Surely every man walks like a shadow.

Surely they busy themselves in vain.

He heaps up, and doesn’t know who shall gather.

⁷Now, Lord, what do I wait for?
My hope is in you.

⁸Deliver me from all my transgressions.

Do not make me the reproach of the foolish.

⁹I was mute.

I did not open my mouth,
because you did it.

¹⁰Remove your scourge away from
me.

I am overcome by the blow of your hand.

¹¹When you rebuke and correct man for iniquity,

You consume his wealth like a moth.

Surely every man is but a breath.”

Selah.

¹²“Hear my prayer, LORD, and give ear to my cry.

Do not be silent at my tears.

For I am a stranger with you,
a foreigner, as all my fathers were.

¹³Oh spare me, that I may recover
strength,

before I go away, and exist no more.”

Psalm 40

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

¹I waited patiently for the LORD.
He turned to me, and heard my cry.

²He brought me up also out of a horrible pit,
out of the miry clay.

He set my feet on a rock, and gave me a firm place to stand.

³He has put a new song in my mouth, even praise to our God.

Many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the
LORD.

⁴Happy is the man who makes the LORD his trust,
and doesn’t respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

⁵Many, LORD, my God, are the wonderful works
which you have done,
and your thoughts which are toward us.

They can’t be declared back to
you.

If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

⁶Sacrifice and offering you did not desire,
but a body^a you have prepared for me.

^a40:6 LXX Ethiopic. MT reads “ears” suggesting a copiest error in Hebrew from az gevah “a body” to oznayim “ears”

You have not required burnt offering and sin offering.
⁷Then I said, "Behold, I have come.
It is written about me in the scroll of a book.^a ⁸I delight to do your will, my God. Yes, your Law is within my heart."
⁹I have proclaimed glad news of righteousness in the great assembly.
Behold, I will not seal my lips, LORD, you know.
¹⁰I have not hidden your righteousness within my heart.
I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation.
I have not concealed your loving kindness and your truth from the great assembly.
¹¹Do not withhold your tender mercies from me, LORD.
Let your loving kindness and your truth continually preserve me.
¹²For innumerable evils have surrounded me.
My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up.
They are more than the hairs of my head.
My heart has failed me.
¹³Be pleased, LORD, to deliver me. Hurry to help me, LORD.
¹⁴Let them be disappointed and confounded together who seek after my soul to destroy it.

Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor who delight in my hurt.
¹⁵Let them be desolate by reason of their shame that tell me, "Aha! Aha!" ¹⁶Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you.
Let such as love your salvation say continually, "Let the LORD be exalted!" ¹⁷But I am poor and needy.
May the Lord think about me.
You are my help and my deliverer.
Do not delay, my God.

Psalm 41

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

¹Happy is he who considers the poor.
The LORD will deliver him in the day of evil.
²The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive.
He shall be blessed on the earth, and he will not surrender him to the will of his enemies.
³The LORD will sustain him on his sickbed, and restore him from his bed of illness.
⁴I said, "LORD, have mercy on me!

^a40:6-7 Hebrews 10:5-6

Heal me, for I have sinned against you.”

⁵My enemies speak evil against
me:

“When will he die, and his name perish?”

⁶If he comes to see me, he speaks falsehood.

His heart gathers iniquity to itself.

When he goes abroad, he tells it.

⁷All who hate me whisper together
against me.

They imagine the worst for
me.

⁸“An evil disease,” they say, “has afflicted him.

Now that he lies he shall rise up no more.”

⁹Yes, my own familiar friend, in whom I trusted,
who ate bread with me,
has lifted up his heel against me.^a

¹⁰But you, LORD, have mercy on me, and raise me up,
that I may repay them.

¹¹By this I know that you delight in me, because my enemy doesn’t triumph over me.

¹²As for me, you uphold me in my
integrity,
and set me in your presence
forever.

¹³Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting and to everlasting!

Amen and amen.

^a41:9 John 13:18

BOOK II

Psalm 42

For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by the sons of Korah.

¹As the deer pants for the water brooks,
so my soul pants after you,
God.

²My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.

When shall I come and appear before God?

³My tears have been my food day and night,
while they continually ask me, “Where is your
God?”

⁴These things I remember, and pour out my soul
within me,
how I used to go with the crowd, and led them to the house of God,
with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a holy day.

⁵Why are you in despair, my soul?
Why are you disturbed
within me?

Hope in God!

For I shall still praise him
for the saving help of his presence.

⁶My God, my soul is in despair
within me.

Therefore I remember you from the land of the Jordan,
the heights of Hermon, from the hill Mizar.
⁷Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls.
All your waves and your billows have swept
over me.

⁸The LORD will command his loving kindness in the daytime.
In the night his song shall be
with me:
a prayer to the God of my life.

⁹I will ask God, my rock, “Why have you forgotten
me?
Why do I go mourning
because of the oppression of the enemy?”

¹⁰As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries
reproach me,
while they continually ask
me, “Where is your
God?”

¹¹Why are you in despair, my soul?
Why are you disturbed
within me?
Hope in God! For I shall still praise him,
the saving help of my countenance, and my God.

Psalm 43

¹Vindicate me, God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation.
Oh, deliver me from deceitful and wicked
men.

²For you are the God of my strength. Why have you rejected me?
Why do I go mourning
because of the oppression of the
enemy?

³Oh, send out your light and your truth.
Let them lead me.
Let them bring me to your holy hill,
To your tents.

⁴Then I will go to the altar of God,
to God, my exceeding joy.
I will praise you on the harp, God,
my God.

⁵Why are you in despair, my soul?
Why are you disturbed
within me?
Hope in God!
For I shall still praise him:
my Savior, my helper, and
my God.

Psalm 44

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah. A contemplative
psalm.

¹We have heard with our ears,
God;
our fathers have told us,

what work you did in their
 days,
 in the days of old.
²You drove out the nations with
 your hand,
 but you planted them.
 You afflicted the peoples,
 but you spread them abroad.
³For they did not get the land in possession by their own sword,
 neither did their own arm
 save them;
 but your right hand, and your arm,
 and the light of your face,
 because you were favorable to them.
⁴You are my King, God.
 Command victories for
 Jacob!
⁵Through you we will push back our adversaries.
 Through your name we will trample down those who rise up against us.
⁶For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save
 me.
⁷But you have saved us from our
 adversaries,
 and have shamed those who hate us.
⁸In God we have made our boast
 all day long,
 we will give thanks to your name forever.

Selah.

⁹But now you rejected us, and brought us to
 dishonor,
 and do not go out with our armies.
¹⁰You make us turn back from the adversary.

Those who hate us take spoil for themselves.
¹¹You have made us like sheep for
 food,
 and have scattered us among
 the nations.
¹²You sell your people for nothing, and have gained nothing
 from their sale.
¹³You make us a reproach to our neighbors,
 a scoffing and a derision to those who are around
 us.
¹⁴You make us a byword among
 the nations,
 a shaking of the head among
 the peoples.
¹⁵All day long my dishonor is
 before me,
 and shame covers my face, ¹⁶At the taunt of one who reproaches and verbally abuses,
 because of the enemy and the avenger.
¹⁷All this has come on us, yet have we not forgotten
 you,
 Neither have we been false to your covenant.
¹⁸Our heart has not turned back, neither have our steps strayed from your path, ¹⁹Though you have crushed us in the haunt of jackals,
 and covered us with the shadow of death.
²⁰If we have forgotten the name of
 our God,
 or spread forth our hands to a strange god;
²¹won't God search this out?

Psalm 45

For he knows the secrets of the heart.

²²Yes, for your sake we are killed all day long. We are regarded as sheep for the slaughter.^a ²³Wake up!

Why do you sleep, LORD?^b Arise!

Do not reject us forever.

²⁴Why do you hide your face, and forget our affliction and our oppression?

²⁵For our soul is bowed down to the dust.

Our body cleaves to the
earth.

²⁶Rise up to help us.
Redeem us for your loving kindness' sake.

Psalm 45

For the Chief Musician. Set to
"The Lilies." A contemplation by the sons of Korah. A wedding song.

¹My heart overflows with a noble theme.

I recite my verses for the king.

My tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer.

²You are the most excellent of the sons of men.

Grace has anointed your
lips,
therefore God has blessed you forever.

³Gird your sword on your thigh, mighty one:
your splendor and your majesty.

⁴In your majesty ride on victoriously on behalf of truth, humility, and
righteousness.

Let your right hand display awesome deeds.

⁵Your arrows are sharp.
The nations fall under you,
with arrows in the heart of the king's enemies.

⁶Your throne, God, is forever and ever.

A scepter of equity is the scepter of your kingdom.

⁷You have loved righteousness, and hated wickedness.
Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness
above your fellows.^c

⁸All your garments smell like myrrh, aloes, and cassia.

Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad.

⁹Kings' daughters are among your honorable women.

At your right hand the queen stands in gold of Ophir.

¹⁰Listen, daughter, consider, and turn your ear.

Forget your own people, and also your father's
house.

^a44:22 Romans 8:36

^b44:23 DSS ms. MT reads "Lord"

^c45:6-7 Hebrews 1:8-9

¹¹So the king will desire your beauty,
 honor him, for he is your
 lord.
¹²The daughter of Tyre comes with a gift.
 The rich among the people
 entreat your favor.
¹³The princess inside is all glorious.
 Her clothing is interwoven
 with gold.
¹⁴She shall be led to the king in embroidered work.
 The virgins, her companions who follow her, shall be brought to you.
¹⁵With gladness and rejoicing they shall be led.
 They shall enter into the king's palace.
¹⁶Your sons will take the place of your fathers.
 You shall make them princes
 in all the earth.
¹⁷I will make your name to be remembered in all
 generations.
 Therefore the peoples shall give you thanks
 forever and ever.

Psalm 46

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah. According to Alamoth.^a

¹God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

^a46:0 Alamoth is a musical term

²Therefore we won't be afraid, though the earth
 changes,
 though the mountains are shaken into the heart of the seas;
³though its waters roar and
 are troubled,
 though the mountains
 tremble with their swelling.
 Selah.

⁴There is a river, the streams of which make the city of God glad,
 the holy place of the tents of the Most High.

⁵God is in her midst. She shall not be moved.
 God will help her at dawn.

⁶The nations raged. The kingdoms were moved.
 He lifted his voice, and the earth melted.

⁷The LORD of hosts is with us.
 The God of Jacob is our refuge.
 Selah.

⁸Come, see the LORD's works, what desolations he has made in the earth.

⁹He makes war cease to the end of the earth.
 He breaks the bow, and shatters the spear.
 He burns the chariots in the fire.

¹⁰“Be still, and know that I am
 God.
 I will be exalted among the
 nations.
 I will be exalted in the
 earth.”

¹¹The LORD of hosts is with us.

The God of Jacob is our refuge.

Selah.

Psalm 47

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by the sons of Korah.

- ¹Oh clap your hands, all you
nations.
Shout to God with the voice of triumph!
- ²For the LORD Most High is
awesome.
He is a great King over all
the earth.
- ³He subdues nations under us,
and peoples under our feet.
- ⁴He chooses our inheritance for us,
the glory of Jacob whom he loved.
- Selah.
- ⁵God has gone up with a shout,
the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.
- ⁶Sing praise to God, sing praises.
Sing praises to our King,
sing praises.
- ⁷For God is the King of all the
earth.
Sing praises with
understanding.
- ⁸God reigns over the nations.
God sits on his holy throne.
- ⁹The princes of the peoples are gathered together,
the people of the God of Abraham.
For the shields of the earth belong to God.
He is greatly exalted!

Psalm 48

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

- ¹Great is the LORD, and greatly to
be praised,
in the city of our God, in his holy mountain.
- ²Beautiful in elevation, the joy of
the whole earth,
is Mount Zion, on the north sides,
the city of the great King.
- ³God has shown himself in her citadels as a refuge.
- ⁴For, behold, the kings assembled
themselves,
they passed by together.
- ⁵They saw it, then they were amazed.
They were dismayed.
They hurried away.
- ⁶Trembling took hold of them
there,
pain, as of a woman in
travail.
- ⁷With the east wind, you break the ships of Tarshish.
- ⁸As we have heard, so we have seen,
in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our
God.
God will establish it forever.
- Selah.
- ⁹We have thought about your loving kindness, God,
in the midst of your temple.
- ¹⁰As is your name, God,
so is your praise to the ends
of the earth.
Your right hand is full of
righteousness.
- ¹¹Let Mount Zion be glad!

Let the daughters of Judah
rejoice,
Because of your judgments.
¹²Walk about Zion, and go around her.
Number its towers.
¹³Consider her defenses.
Consider her palaces,
that you may tell it to the next generation.
¹⁴For this God is our God forever and ever.
He will be our guide even to death.

Psalm 49

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by the sons of Korah.

¹Hear this, all you peoples.
Listen, all you inhabitants of the world, ²both low and high,
rich and poor together.
³My mouth will speak words of wisdom.
My heart shall utter
understanding.
⁴I will incline my ear to a proverb.
I will open my riddle on the harp.
⁵Why should I fear in the days of
evil,
when iniquity at my heels surrounds me?
⁶Those who trust in their wealth, and boast in the multitude of their riches—⁷none of them can by any means redeem his brother,
nor give God a ransom for
him.

⁸For the redemption of their life is costly,
no payment is ever enough, ⁹That he should live on
forever,
that he should not see corruption.
¹⁰For he sees that wise men die;
likewise the fool and the senseless perish,
and leave their wealth to others.
¹¹Their inward thought is that their houses will endure
forever,
and their dwelling places to
all generations.
They name their lands after
themselves.
¹²But man, despite his riches, doesn't endure.
He is like the animals that
perish.
¹³This is the destiny of those who are foolish,
and of those who approve their sayings.
Selah.
¹⁴They are appointed as a flock for Sheol.
Death shall be their shepherd.
The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning.
Their beauty shall decay in Sheol,
far from their mansion.
¹⁵But God will redeem my soul from the power of
Sheol,
for he will receive me.
Selah.
¹⁶Do not be afraid when a man is made rich,

when the glory of his house is increased.

¹⁷For when he dies he shall carry nothing away.

His glory shall not descend
after him.

¹⁸Though while he lived he blessed his soul—
and men praise you when you do well for yourself—

¹⁹he shall go to the generation of his fathers.

They shall never see the light.

²⁰A man who has riches without
understanding,
is like the animals that
perish.

Psalm 50

A Psalm by Asaph.

¹The Mighty One, God, the LORD, speaks,
and calls the earth from sunrise to sunset.

²Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God shines forth.

³Our God comes, and does not keep silent.
A fire devours before him.
It is very stormy around him.

⁴He calls to the heavens above, to the earth, that he may judge his people:

⁵“Gather my holy ones together to
me,
those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.”

⁶The heavens shall declare his
righteousness,
for God himself is judge.
Selah.

⁷“Hear, my people, and I will speak;
Israel, and I will testify
against you.

I am God, your God.

⁸I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices.
Your burnt offerings are continually before me.

⁹I have no need for a bull from your stall,
nor male goats from your pens.

¹⁰For every animal of the forest is mine,
and the livestock on a thousand hills.

¹¹I know all the birds of the mountains.
The wild animals of the field
are mine.

¹²If I were hungry, I would not tell
you,
for the world is mine, and all that is in it.

¹³Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

¹⁴Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving.
Pay your vows to the Most High.

¹⁵Call on me in the day of trouble.
I will deliver you, and you will honor me.”

¹⁶But to the wicked God says, “What right do you have to declare my statutes, that you have taken my covenant on your lips, ¹⁷seeing you hate instruction,

and throw my words behind
you?
¹⁸When you saw a thief, you consented with him,
and have participated with adulterers.
¹⁹“You give your mouth to evil.
Your tongue frames deceit.
²⁰You sit and speak against your brother.
You slander your own
mother’s son.
²¹You have done these things, and I kept silent.
You thought that I was just like you.
I will rebuke you, and accuse you in front of your eyes.
²²“Now consider this, you who forget God,
lest I tear you into pieces,
and there be none to deliver.
²³Whoever offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving glorifies
me,
and prepares his way so that I will show God’s salvation to him.”

Psalm 51

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

¹Have mercy on me, God,
according to your
loving kindness.

According to the multitude
of your tender mercies, blot out my
transgressions.
²Wash me thoroughly from my
iniquity.
Cleanse me from my sin.
³For I know my transgressions.
My sin is constantly before
me.
⁴Against you, and you only, have I sinned,
and done that which is evil
in your sight;
that you may be proved right when you speak,
and justified when you judge.^a ⁵Behold, I was brought forth in
iniquity.
In sin my mother conceived
me.
⁶Behold, you desire truth in the inward parts.
You teach me wisdom in the inmost place.
⁷Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean.
Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
⁸Let me hear joy and gladness,
That the bones which you have broken may rejoice.
⁹Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all of my iniquities.
¹⁰Create in me a clean heart, O
God.
Renew a right spirit within
me.
¹¹Do not throw me from your presence,

^a51:4 Romans 3:4

Psalm 52

and do not take your holy Spirit from me.
¹²Restore to me the joy of your salvation.
Uphold me with a willing spirit.
¹³Then I will teach transgressors your ways.
Sinners shall be converted to you.
¹⁴Deliver me from bloodguiltiness,
O God, the God of my salvation.
My tongue shall sing aloud of your righteousness.
¹⁵Lord, open my lips.
My mouth shall declare your praise.
¹⁶For you do not delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it.
You have no pleasure in burnt offering.
¹⁷The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.
A broken and contrite heart,
O God, you will not despise.
¹⁸Do well in your good pleasure to Zion.
Build the walls of Jerusalem.
¹⁹Then you will delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offerings and in whole burnt offerings.
Then they will offer bulls on your altar.

Psalm 52

For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, "David has come to Abimelech's house."

¹Why do you boast of mischief, mighty man?
God's loving kindness endures continually.
²Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
³You love evil more than good, lying rather than speaking the truth.
Selah.
⁴You love all devouring words, you deceitful tongue.
⁵God will likewise destroy you forever.
He will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent,
and root you out of the land of the living.
Selah.
⁶The righteous also will see it, and fear,
and laugh at him, saying, ⁷"Behold, this is the man who did not make God his strength, but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness." ⁸But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God's house.
I trust in God's loving kindness forever and ever.
⁹I will give you thanks forever, because you have done it.
I will hope in your name, for it is good,

in the presence of your holy ones.

Psalm 53

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Mahalath." A contemplation by David.

¹The fool has said in his heart,
 "There is no God."
 They are corrupt, and have done abominable
 iniquity.
 There is no one who does
 good.
²God looks down from heaven on
 the children of men,
 to see if there are any who understood,
 who seek after God.
³Every one of them has gone back.
 They have become filthy
 together.
 There is no one who does good, no, not one.^a ⁴Have the workers of iniquity no
 knowledge,
 who eat up my people as they eat bread,
 and do not call on God?
⁵There they were in great fear, where no fear was,
 for God has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you.
 You have put them to shame, because God has rejected
 them.

^a53:3 Romans 3:10-12

⁶Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of
 Zion!
 When God brings back his people from captivity,
 then Jacob shall rejoice,
 and Israel shall be glad.

Psalm 54

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul,
 "Isn't David hiding himself among
 us?"

¹Save me, God, by your name.
 Vindicate me in your might.
²Hear my prayer, God.
 Listen to the words of my
 mouth.
³For strangers have risen up
 against me.
 Violent men have sought after my soul.
 They haven't set God before
 them.

Selah.

⁴Behold, God is my helper.
 The Lord is the one who sustains my soul.
⁵He will repay the evil to my
 enemies.
 Destroy them in your truth.
⁶With a free will offering, I will sacrifice to you.
 I will give thanks to your name, LORD, for it is
 good.
⁷For he has delivered me out of all
 trouble.
 My eye has seen triumph over my enemies.

Psalm 55

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David.

¹Listen to my prayer, God.
Do not hide yourself from my supplication.

²Attend to me, and answer me.
I am restless in my complaint, and moan, ³Because of the voice of the
enemy,
Because of the oppression of
the wicked.

For they bring suffering on me.
In anger they hold a grudge
against me.

⁴My heart is severely pained
within me.
The terrors of death have fallen on me.

⁵Fearfulness and trembling have come on me.
Horror has overwhelmed
me.

⁶I said, "Oh that I had wings like a dove!
Then I would fly away, and
be at rest.

⁷Behold, then I would wander far off.
I would lodge in the wilderness." Selah.

⁸"I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and storm."

⁹Confuse them, Lord, and confound their language,
for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

¹⁰Day and night they prowl around on its walls.
Malice and abuse are also within her.

¹¹Destructive forces are within her.
Threats and lies do not depart from her streets.

¹²For it was not an enemy who insulted me,
then I could have endured it.
Neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up
against me,
then I would have hid myself from him.

¹³But it was you, a man like me, my companion, and my familiar friend.

¹⁴We took sweet fellowship
together.
We walked in God's house with company.

¹⁵Let death come suddenly on
them.
Let them go down alive into Sheol.
For wickedness is in their dwelling, in the midst
of them.

¹⁶As for me, I will call on God.
The LORD will save me.

¹⁷Evening, morning, and at noon, I will cry out in distress.
He will hear my voice.

¹⁸He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle
that was against me,
although there are many who oppose me.

¹⁹God, who is enthroned forever, will hear, and answer them.
Selah.

They never change,
who do not fear God.

²⁰He raises his hands against his friends.
 He has violated his covenant.
²¹His mouth was smooth as butter,
 but his heart was war.
 His words were softer than oil,
 yet they were drawn swords.
²²Cast your burden on the LORD, and he will sustain you.
 He will never allow the righteous to be moved.
²³But you, God, will bring them down into the pit of destruction.
 Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days, but I will trust in you.

Psalm 56

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Silent Dove in Distant Lands." A poem by David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

¹Be merciful to me, God, for man wants to swallow me up.
 All day long, he attacks and oppresses me.
²My enemies want to swallow me up all day long,
 for they are many who fight proudly against me.
³When I am afraid,
 I will put my trust in you.
⁴In God, I praise his word.
 In God, I put my trust.
 I will not be afraid.
 What can flesh do to me?

⁵All day long they twist my words.
 All their thoughts are against me for evil.
⁶They conspire and lurk,
 watching my steps, they are eager to take my life.
⁷Shall they escape by iniquity?
 In anger cast down the peoples, God.
⁸You number my wanderings.
 You put my tears into your bottle.
 Aren't they in your book?
⁹Then my enemies shall turn back in the day that I call.
 I know this, that God is for me.
¹⁰In God, I will praise his word.
 In the LORD, I will praise his word.
¹¹I have put my trust in God.
 I will not be afraid.
 What can man do to me?
¹²Your vows are on me, God.
 I will give thank offerings to you.
¹³For you have delivered my soul from death, and prevented my feet from falling,
 that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

Psalm 57

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

¹Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me,

Psalm 58

for my soul takes refuge in
you.
Yes, in the shadow of your wings,
I will take refuge,
until disaster has passed.
²I cry out to God Most High, to God who accomplishes my requests for me.
³He will send from heaven, and
save me,
he rebukes the one who is pursuing me.

Selah.

God will send out his loving kindness and his truth.

⁴My soul is among lions.
I lie among those who are set on fire,
even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows,
and their tongue a sharp
sword.

⁵Be exalted, God, above the
heavens!
Let your glory be above all
the earth!

⁶They have prepared a net for my steps.
My soul is bowed down.
They dig a pit before me.
They fall into its midst themselves.

Selah.

⁷My heart is steadfast, God, my heart is steadfast.
I will sing, yes, I will sing
praises.

⁸Wake up, my glory! Wake up, psaltery and harp!
I will wake up the dawn.

⁹I will give thanks to you, Lord,
among the peoples.
I will sing praises to you
among the nations.

¹⁰For your great loving kindness reaches to the heavens,
and your truth to the skies.

¹¹Be exalted, God, above the
heavens.
Let your glory be over all
the earth.

Psalm 58

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of “Do Not Destroy.” A poem
by David.

¹Do you indeed speak righteousness, silent
ones?

Do you judge blamelessly,
you sons of men?

²No, in your heart you plot injustice.

You measure out the violence of your hands
in the earth.

³The wicked go astray from the womb.

They are wayward as soon as they are born,
speaking lies.

⁴Their poison is like the poison of a serpent;
like a deaf viper that stops its ear,

⁵which doesn't listen to the voice of charmers,
no matter how skillful the charmer may be.

⁶Break their teeth, God, in their
mouth.

Break out the great teeth of the young lions,
LORD.

⁷Let them vanish as water that flows away.

When they draw the bow, let their arrows be made blunt.
⁸Let them be like a snail which melts and passes away,
 like the stillborn child, who has not seen the sun.
⁹Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns,
 he will sweep away the green and the burning
 alike.
¹⁰The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance.
 He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked; ¹¹so that men shall say, "Most certainly there is a reward for the
 righteous.
 Most certainly there is a God who judges the earth."

Psalm 59

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

¹Deliver me from my enemies, my
 God.
 Set me on high from those who rise up against
 me.
²Deliver me from the workers of
 iniquity.
 Save me from the
 bloodthirsty men.
³For, behold, they lie in wait for
 my soul.
 The mighty gather themselves together
 against me,

not for my disobedience, nor
 for my sin, LORD.
⁴I have done no wrong, yet they are ready to attack me.
 Rise up, behold, and help
 me!
⁵You, LORD God of hosts, the God
 of Israel,
 rouse yourself to punish the
 nations.
 Show no mercy to the wicked traitors. Selah.
⁶They return at evening, howling like dogs,
 and prowling around the city.
⁷Behold, they spew with their
 mouth.
 Swords are in their lips,
 "For," they say, "who hears
 us?"
⁸But you, LORD, laugh at them.
 You scoff at all the nations.
⁹Oh, my Strength, I watch for you,
 for God is my high tower.
¹⁰My God will go before me with his loving kindness.
 God will let me look at my enemies in triumph.
¹¹Do not kill them, or my people may forget.
 Scatter them by your power,
 and bring them down,
 Lord our shield.
¹²For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips, let them be caught in their pride,
 for the curses and lies which they utter.
¹³Consume them in wrath.
 Consume them, and they will be no more.
 Let them know that God rules in
 Jacob,
 to the ends of the earth.

Psalm 60

Selah.

¹⁴At evening let them return.
Let them howl like a dog,
and go around the city.

¹⁵They shall wander up and down for food,
and wait all night if they aren't satisfied.

¹⁶But I will sing of your strength.
Yes, I will sing aloud of your loving kindness
in the morning.

For you have been my high tower, a refuge in the day of my distress.

¹⁷To you, my strength, I will sing
praises.
For God is my high tower,
the God of my mercy.

Psalm 60

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lily of the Covenant." A teaching poem by David, when he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned, and killed twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

¹God, you have rejected us.
You have broken us down.
You have been angry.
Restore us, again.

²You have made the land tremble.
You have torn it.
Mend its fractures,
for it quakes.

³You have shown your people hard things.

You have made us drink the wine that makes us stagger.

⁴You have given a banner to those who fear you,
that it may be displayed
because of the truth.
Selah.

⁵So that your beloved may be delivered,
save with your right hand,
and answer us.

⁶God has spoken from his
sanctuary:
"I will triumph.
I will divide Shechem,
and measure out the valley of Succoth.

⁷Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is
mine.
Ephraim also is the defense of my head.
Judah is my scepter.

⁸Moab is my wash basin.
I will throw my shoe on Edom.
I shout in triumph over Philistia."

⁹Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who has led me to Edom?
¹⁰Haven't you, God, rejected us?
You do not go out with our armies, God.

¹¹Give us help against the
adversary,
for the help of man is vain.

¹²Through God we shall do
valiantly,
for it is he who will tread down our adversaries.

Psalm 61

For the Chief Musician. For a stringed instrument. By David.

- ¹Hear my cry, God.
Listen to my prayer.
- ²From the end of the earth, I will call to you, when my heart is overwhelmed.
Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
- ³For you have been a refuge for me,
a strong tower from the enemy.
- ⁴I will dwell in your tent forever.
I will take refuge in the shelter of your wings.
Selah.
- ⁵For you, God, have heard my vows.
You have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.
- ⁶You will prolong the king's life;
his years shall be for generations.
- ⁷He shall be enthroned in God's presence forever.
Appoint your loving kindness and truth,
that they may preserve him.
- ⁸So I will sing praise to your name forever,
that I may fulfill my vows day after day.

Psalm 62

For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthan. A Psalm by David.

- ¹My soul rests in God alone.
My salvation is from him.
- ²He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress—
I will never be greatly shaken.
- ³How long will you assault a man, would all of you throw him down,
Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?
- ⁴They fully intend to throw him down from his lofty place.
They delight in lies.
They bless with their mouth,
but they curse inwardly.
Selah.
- ⁵My soul, wait in silence for God alone,
for my expectation is from him.
- ⁶He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress.
I will not be shaken.
- ⁷With God is my salvation and my honor.
The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.
- ⁸Trust in him at all times,
O people.
Pour out your heart before him.
God is a refuge for us.
Selah.
- ⁹Surely men of low degree are just a breath,
and men of high degree are a lie.
In the balances they will go up.
They are together lighter than a breath.
- ¹⁰Do not trust in oppression.

Psalm 63

Do not become vain in robbery.
If riches increase,
do not set your heart on
them.
¹¹God has spoken once;
twice I have heard this,
that power belongs to God.
¹²Also to you, Lord, belongs
loving kindness,
for you reward every man
according to his work.

Psalm 63

A Psalm by David, when he was in the desert of Judah.

¹God, you are my God.
I will earnestly seek you.
My soul thirsts for you.
My flesh longs for you,
in a dry and weary land, where there is no
water.
²So I have seen you in the
sanctuary,
watching your power and
your glory.
³Because your loving kindness is better than life,
my lips shall praise you.
⁴So I will bless you while I live.
I will lift up my hands in
your name.
⁵My soul shall be satisfied as with the richest food.
My mouth shall praise you with joyful lips, ⁶when I remember you on my bed,
and think about you in the night watches.
⁷For you have been my help.

I will rejoice in the shadow of your wings.
⁸My soul stays close to you.
Your right hand holds me
up.
⁹But those who seek my soul, to destroy it,
shall go into the lower parts
of the earth.
¹⁰They shall be given over to the power of the sword.
They shall be jackal food.
¹¹But the king shall rejoice in God.
Everyone who swears by him will praise him,
for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be silenced.

Psalm 64

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

¹Hear my voice, God, in my complaint.
Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
²Hide me from the conspiracy of
the wicked,
from the noisy crowd of the ones doing evil;
³who sharpen their tongue like a
sword,
and aim their arrows, deadly
words, ⁴to shoot innocent men from ambushes.
They shoot at him suddenly and fearlessly.
⁵They encourage themselves in evil plans.
They talk about laying snares secretly.

They say, “Who will see them?”
⁶They plot injustice, saying, “We have made a perfect plan!”
 Surely man’s mind and heart are cunning.
⁷But God will shoot at them.
 They will be suddenly struck down with an arrow.
⁸Their own tongues shall ruin them.
 All who see them will shake their heads.
⁹All mankind shall be afraid.
 They shall declare the work of God,
 and shall wisely ponder what he has done.
¹⁰The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall take refuge in him.
 All the upright in heart shall praise him!

Psalm 65

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song.

¹Praise waits for you, God, in Zion.
 To you shall vows be performed.
²You who hear prayer,
 to you all men will come.
³Sins overwhelmed me,
 but you atoned for our transgressions.
⁴Happy is the one whom you choose, and bring near,
 that he may live in your courts.

We will be filled with the goodness of your house,
 your holy temple.
⁵By awesome deeds of righteousness, you answer us,
 God of our salvation.
 You who are the hope of all the ends of the earth,
 of those who are far away on the sea;
⁶Who by his power forms the mountains, having armed yourself with strength; ⁷who stills the roaring of the seas,
 the roaring of their waves,
 and the turmoil of the nations.
⁸They also who dwell in faraway places are afraid at your wonders.
 You call the morning’s dawn and the evening with songs of joy.
⁹You visit the earth, and water it.
 You greatly enrich it.
 The river of God is full of water.
 You provide them grain, for so you have ordained it.
¹⁰You drench its furrows.
 You level its ridges.
 You soften it with showers.
 You bless it with a crop.
¹¹You crown the year with your bounty.
 Your carts overflow with abundance.
¹²The wilderness grasslands overflow.
 The hills are clothed with gladness.
¹³The pastures are covered with flocks.

The valleys also are clothed with grain.
They shout for joy!
They also sing.

Psalm 66

For the Chief Musician. A song. A
Psalm.

¹Make a joyful shout to God, all
the earth!
²Sing to the glory of his
name!
Offer glory and praise!
³Tell God, “How awesome are your deeds!
Through the greatness of your power, your enemies submit
themselves to you.
⁴All the earth will worship you,
and will sing to you;
they will sing to your name.”
Selah.
⁵Come, and see God’s deeds—awesome work on behalf of
the children of men.
⁶He turned the sea into dry land.
They went through the river on foot.
There, we rejoiced in him.
⁷He rules by his might forever.
His eyes watch the nations.
Do not let the rebellious rise up against him.
Selah.
⁸Praise our God, you peoples!
Make the sound of his praise
heard, ⁹who preserves our life among the living,
and doesn’t allow our feet to
be moved.

¹⁰For you, God, have tested us.
You have refined us, as silver is refined.
¹¹You brought us into prison.
You laid a burden on our backs.
¹²You allowed men to ride over our heads.
We went through fire and through water,
but you brought us to the place of abundance.
¹³I will come into your temple with burnt offerings.
I will pay my vows to you, ¹⁴which my lips
promised,
and my mouth spoke, when I was in distress.
¹⁵I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals,
with the offering of rams,
I will offer bulls with goats.
Selah.
¹⁶Come, and hear, all you who fear
God.
I will declare what he has done for my soul.
¹⁷I cried to him with my mouth.
He was extolled with my tongue.
¹⁸If I cherished sin in my heart, the Lord wouldn’t have listened.
¹⁹But most certainly, God has listened.
He has heard the voice of my prayer.
²⁰Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer,
nor his loving kindness from
me.

Psalm 67

For the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Psalm. A song.

- ¹May God be merciful to us, bless us,
and cause his face to shine on us.
Selah.
- ²That your way may be known on earth,
and your salvation among all nations,
- ³let the peoples praise you, God.
Let all the peoples praise you.
- ⁴Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy,
for you will judge the peoples with equity,
and govern the nations on earth.
Selah.
- ⁵Let the peoples praise you, God.
Let all the peoples praise you.
- ⁶The earth has yielded its increase.
God, even our own God,
will bless us.
- ⁷God will bless us.
All the ends of the earth
shall fear him.

Psalm 68

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song.

- ¹Let God arise!
Let his enemies be scattered!

- Let them who hate him also flee before him.
- ²As smoke is driven away,
so drive them away.
As wax melts before the fire,
so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
- ³But let the righteous be glad.
Let them rejoice before God.
Yes, let them rejoice with gladness.
- ⁴Sing to God! Sing praises to his name!
Extol him who rides on the clouds:
to YAH, his name!
Rejoice before him!
- ⁵A father of the fatherless, and a defender of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.
- ⁶God sets the lonely in families.
He brings out the prisoners with singing,
but the rebellious dwell in a sun-scorched land.
- ⁷God, when you went forth before your people,
when you marched through the wilderness...
Selah.
- ⁸The earth trembled.
The sky also poured down rain at the presence of the God of Sinai—at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
- ⁹You, God, sent a plentiful rain.
You confirmed your inheritance, when it was weary.
- ¹⁰Your congregation lived therein.
You, God, prepared your goodness for the poor.
- ¹¹The Lord announced the word.

The ones who proclaim it are a great company.
¹²“Kings of armies flee! They flee!”
 She who waits at home
divides the spoil, ¹³while you sleep among the campfires,
 the wings of a dove sheathed with silver,
 her feathers with shining
gold.
¹⁴When Shaddai scattered kings in
her,
 it snowed on Zalmon.
¹⁵The mountains of Bashan are majestic mountains.
 The mountains of Bashan are rugged.
¹⁶Why do you look in envy, you rugged mountains,
 at the mountain where God chooses to reign?
 Yes, the LORD will dwell
there forever.
¹⁷The chariots of God are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands.
 The Lord is among them,
 from Sinai, into the
sanctuary.
¹⁸You have ascended on high.
 You have led away captives.
 You have received gifts among men,^a yes, among the rebellious also, that YAH, God, might dwell there.
¹⁹Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears our burdens,

even the God who is our salvation. Selah.
²⁰God is to us a God of deliverance.
 To the LORD, the Lord, belongs escape from
death.
²¹But God will strike through the head of his enemies,
 the hairy scalp of such a one as still continues in his guiltiness.
²²The Lord said, “I will bring you again from Bashan,
 I will bring you again from the depths of the sea;
²³That you may crush them, dipping your foot in
blood,
 that the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies.” ²⁴They have seen your processions, God,
 even the processions of my God, my King, into the
sanctuary.
²⁵The singers went before, the minstrels followed after,
 in the midst of the ladies playing with tambourines, ²⁶“Bless God in the congregations, even the Lord in the assembly of Israel!”
²⁷There is little Benjamin, their ruler,
 the princes of Judah, their council,
 the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

^a68:18 Ephesians 4:8

²⁸Your God has commanded your strength.

Strengthen, God, that which you have done for us.

²⁹Because of your temple at Jerusalem, kings shall bring presents to you.

³⁰Rebuke the wild animal of the reeds, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the peoples.

Being humbled, may it bring bars of silver.

Scatter the nations that delight in war.

³¹Princes shall come out of Egypt. Ethiopia shall hurry to stretch out her hands to God.

³²Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth!

Sing praises to the Lord!

Selah.

³³To him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which are of old; behold, he utters his voice, a mighty voice.

³⁴Ascribe strength to God! His excellency is over Israel, his strength is in the skies.

³⁵You are awesome, God, in your sanctuaries. The God of Israel gives strength and power to his people. Praise be to God!

Psalm 69

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Lilies." By David.

¹Save me, God, for the waters have come up to my neck!

²I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold.

I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

³I am weary with my crying. My throat is dry. My eyes fail, looking for my God.

⁴Those who hate me without a cause^a are more than the hairs of my head. Those who want to cut me off, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty.

I have to restore what I did not take away.

⁵God, you know my foolishness. My sins aren't hidden from you.

⁶Do not let those who wait for you be shamed through me, Lord GOD of hosts.

Do not let those who seek you be brought to dishonor through me, God of Israel.

⁷Because for your sake, I have borne reproach. Shame has covered my face.

⁸I have become a stranger to my brothers,

^a69:4 John 15:25

Psalm 69

a foreigner to my mother's
children.
⁹For the zeal of your house consumes me.^a
The reproaches of those who reproach you have fallen on me.^b ¹⁰When I wept and I fasted, that was to my reproach.
¹¹When I made sackcloth my clothing,
I became a byword to them.
¹²Those who sit in the gate talk about me.
I am the song of the drunkards.
¹³But as for me, my prayer is to you, LORD, in an acceptable time.
God, in the abundance of
your loving kindness,
answer me in the truth
of your salvation.
¹⁴Deliver me out of the mire, and do not let me sink.
Let me be delivered from those who hate me,
and out of the deep
waters.
¹⁵Do not let the flood waters overwhelm me,
neither let the deep swallow me up.
Do not let the pit shut its mouth on me.
¹⁶Answer me, LORD, for your loving kindness is
good.
According to the multitude
of your tender mercies,
turn to me.

¹⁷Do not hide your face from your
servant,
for I am in distress.
Answer me speedily!
¹⁸Draw near to my soul, and redeem it.
Ransom me because of my
enemies.
¹⁹You know my reproach, my shame, and my
dishonor.
My adversaries are all before
you.
²⁰Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness.
I looked for some to take pity, but there was none;
for comforters, but I found
none.
²¹They also gave me gall for my
food.
In my thirst, they gave me vinegar to drink.
²²Let their table before them become a snare.
May it become a retribution
and a trap.
²³Let their eyes be darkened, so that they can't see.
Let their backs be continually bent.^c ²⁴Pour out your indignation on
them.
Let the fierceness of your anger overtake them.
²⁵Let their habitation be desolate.
Let no one dwell in their tents.^d ²⁶For they persecute him whom you have wounded.

^a69:9 John 2:17

^b69:9 Romans 15:3

^d69:25 Acts 1:20

They tell of the sorrow of those whom you have hurt.

²⁷Charge them with crime upon crime.

Do not let them come into your righteousness.

²⁸Let them be blotted out of the book of life,
and not be written with the
righteous.

²⁹But I am in pain and distress.
Let your salvation, God, protect me.

³⁰I will praise the name of God with a song,
and will magnify him with
thanksgiving.

³¹It will please the LORD better than an ox,
or a bull that has horns and hoofs.

³²The humble have seen it, and are glad.

You who seek after God, let your heart live.

³³For the LORD hears the needy, and doesn't despise his captive people.

³⁴Let heaven and earth praise him;
the seas, and everything that moves therein!

³⁵For God will save Zion, and build the cities of Judah.

They shall settle there, and own it.

³⁶The children also of his servants shall inherit it.

Those who love his name shall dwell therein.

Psalm 70

For the Chief Musician. By David.
A reminder.

¹Hurry, God, to deliver me.
Come quickly to help me,
LORD.

²Let them be disappointed and confounded who seek
my soul.

Let those who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace.

³Let them be turned because of their shame
Who say, "Aha! Aha!"

⁴Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you.

Let those who love your salvation continually
say,

"Let God be exalted!"

⁵But I am poor and needy.
Come to me quickly, God.

You are my help and my deliverer.
LORD, do not delay.

Psalm 71

¹In you, LORD, I take refuge.
Never let me be
disappointed.

²Deliver me in your righteousness, and rescue me.

Turn your ear to me, and
save me.

³Be to me a rock of refuge to which I may always go.

Give the command to save
me,

for you are my rock and my
fortress.
⁴Rescue me, my God, from the hand of the wicked,
from the hand of the unrighteous and cruel
man.
⁵For you are my hope, Lord GOD;
my confidence from my youth.
⁶I have relied on you from the womb.
You are he who took me out of my mother's womb.
I will always praise you.
⁷I am a marvel to many,
but you are my strong
refuge.
⁸My mouth shall be filled with your praise,
with your honor all the day.
⁹Do not reject me in my old age.
Do not forsake me when my strength fails.
¹⁰For my enemies talk about me.
Those who watch for my soul conspire together, ¹¹saying, "God has forsaken
him.
Pursue and take him, for no one will rescue him."
¹²God, do not be far from me.
My God, hurry to help me.
¹³Let my accusers be disappointed and consumed.
Let them be covered with disgrace and scorn
who want to harm me.
¹⁴But I will always hope, and will add to all of your praise.
¹⁵My mouth will tell about your
righteousness,
and of your salvation all day, though I do not know its full measure.

¹⁶I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord GOD.
I will make mention of your righteousness, even of yours alone.
¹⁷God, you have taught me from my youth.
Until now, I have declared your wondrous works.
¹⁸Yes, even when I am old and gray-haired, God, do not forsake me,
until I have declared your strength to the next generation,
your might to everyone who is to come.
¹⁹Your righteousness also, God,
reaches to the heavens;
you have done great things.
God, who is like you?
²⁰You, who have shown us many and bitter troubles,
you will let me live.
You will bring us up again from the depths of the
earth.
²¹Increase my honor,
and comfort me again.
²²I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, my God.
I sing praises to you with the lyre, Holy One of Israel.
²³My lips shall shout for joy!
My soul, which you have redeemed, sings
praises to you!
²⁴My tongue will also talk about your righteousness all
day long,
for they are disappointed, and they are confounded,
who want to harm me.

Psalm 72

By Solomon.

- ¹God, give the king your justice;
your righteousness to the royal son.
- ²He will judge your people with
righteousness,
and your poor with justice.
- ³The mountains shall bring prosperity to the
people.
The hills bring the fruit of
righteousness.
- ⁴He will judge the poor of the
people.
He will save the children of the needy,
and will break the oppressor
in pieces.
- ⁵They shall fear you while the sun endures;
and as long as the moon, throughout all
generations.
- ⁶He will come down like rain on the mown grass,
as showers that water the
earth.
- ⁷In his days, the righteous shall flourish,
and abundance of peace,
until the moon is no
more.
- ⁸He shall have dominion also from sea to sea,
from the River to the ends of
the earth.
- ⁹Those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow
before him.

- His enemies shall lick the dust.
- ¹⁰The kings of Tarshish and of the islands will bring tribute.
The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.
- ¹¹Yes, all kings shall fall down
before him.
All nations shall serve him.
- ¹²For he will deliver the needy
when he cries;
the poor, who has no helper.
- ¹³He will have pity on the poor and needy.
He will save the souls of the needy.
- ¹⁴He will redeem their soul from oppression and violence.
Their blood will be precious in his sight.
- ¹⁵They shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba.
Men shall pray for him
continually.
They shall bless him all day
long.
- ¹⁶There shall be abundance of grain throughout the land.
Its fruit sways like Lebanon.
Let it flourish, thriving like the grass of the field.
- ¹⁷His name endures forever.
His name continues as long as the sun.
Men shall be blessed by him.
All nations will call him blessed.
- ¹⁸Praise be to the LORD God, the God of Israel,
who alone does marvelous
deeds.

¹⁹Blessed be his glorious name
forever!

Let the whole earth be filled with his glory!

Amen and amen.

²⁰This ends the prayers by David,
the son of Jesse.

BOOK III

Psalm 73

A Psalm by Asaph.

¹Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in
heart.

²But as for me, my feet were almost gone.
My steps had nearly slipped.

³For I was envious of the arrogant, when I saw the prosperity of
the wicked.

⁴For there are no struggles in their
death,
but their strength is firm.

⁵They are free from burdens of
men,
neither are they plagued like other men.

⁶Therefore pride is like a chain around their neck.
Violence covers them like a garment.

⁷Their eyes bulge with fat.
Their minds pass the limits of conceit.

⁸They scoff and speak with malice.
In arrogance, they threaten oppression.

⁹They have set their mouth in the
heavens.

Their tongue walks through
the earth.

¹⁰Therefore their people return to
them,
and they drink up waters of abundance.

¹¹They say, "How does God know?
Is there knowledge in the Most High?"

¹²Behold, these are the wicked.
Being always at ease, they increase in riches.

¹³Surely in vain I have cleansed
my heart,
and washed my hands in innocence,

¹⁴For all day long have I been plagued,
and punished every morning.

¹⁵If I had said, "I will speak thus;" behold, I would have betrayed the generation of your
children.

¹⁶When I tried to understand this,
it was too painful for me;

¹⁷Until I entered God's sanctuary, and considered their latter end.

¹⁸Surely you set them in slippery places.
You throw them down to destruction.

¹⁹How they are suddenly destroyed!
They are completely swept away with terrors.

²⁰As a dream when one wakes up,
so, Lord, when you awake,
you will despise their fantasies.

²¹For my soul was grieved.

I was embittered in my heart.
²²I was so senseless and ignorant.
 I was a brute beast before you.
²³Nevertheless, I am continually with you.
 You have held my right hand.
²⁴You will guide me with your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.
²⁵Who do I have in heaven?
 There is no one on earth who I desire besides you.
²⁶My flesh and my heart fails, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
²⁷For, behold, those who are far from you shall perish.
 You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to you.
²⁸But it is good for me to come close to God.
 I have made the Lord GOD my refuge, that I may tell of all your works.

Psalm 74

A contemplation by Asaph.

¹God, why have you rejected us forever?
 Why does your anger smolder against the sheep of your pasture?
²Remember your congregation, which you purchased of old,

which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your inheritance;
 Mount Zion, in which you have lived.
³Lift up your feet to the perpetual ruins, all the evil that the enemy has done in the sanctuary.
⁴Your adversaries have roared in the midst of your assembly.
 They have set up their standards as signs.
⁵They behaved like men wielding axes, cutting through a thicket of trees.
⁶Now they break all its carved work down with hatchet and hammers.
⁷They have burned your sanctuary to the ground.
 They have profaned the dwelling place of your Name.
⁸They said in their heart, "We will crush them completely."
 They have burned up all the places in the land where God was worshiped.
⁹We see no miraculous signs.
 There is no longer any prophet, neither is there among us anyone who knows how long.
¹⁰How long, God, shall the adversary reproach?
 Shall the enemy blaspheme your name forever?

¹¹Why do you draw back your hand, even your right
hand?
Take it out of your pocket and consume them!

¹²Yet God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

¹³You divided the sea by your
strength.
You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.

¹⁴You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces.
You gave him as food to people and desert creatures.

¹⁵You opened up spring and stream.
You dried up mighty rivers.

¹⁶The day is yours, the night is also yours.
You have prepared the light and the sun.

¹⁷You have set all the boundaries
of the earth.
You have made summer and winter.

¹⁸Remember this, that the enemy has mocked you,
LORD.
Foolish people have blasphemed your
name.

¹⁹Do not deliver the soul of your dove to wild beasts.
Do not forget the life of your poor forever.

²⁰Honor your covenant,
for haunts of violence fill the dark places of the
earth.

²¹Do not let the oppressed return ashamed.

Let the poor and needy
praise your name.

²²Arise, God! Plead your own cause.
Remember how the foolish man mocks you all
day.

²³Do not forget the voice of your
adversaries.
The tumult of those who rise up against you ascends continually.

Psalm 75

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of “Do Not Destroy.” A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

¹We give thanks to you, God.
We give thanks, for your Name is near.
Men tell about your
wondrous works.

²When I choose the appointed
time,
I will judge blamelessly.

³The earth and all its inhabitants quake.
I firmly hold its pillars.

Selah.

⁴I said to the arrogant, “Do not boast!”
I said to the wicked, “Do not lift up the horn.
Do not lift up your horn on high.
Do not speak with a stiff neck.”

⁶For neither from the east, nor from the west,
nor yet from the south,
comes exaltation.

⁷But God is the judge.

He puts down one, and lifts up another.
⁸For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup,
full of foaming wine mixed with spices.
 He pours it out.
 Indeed the wicked of the earth drink and drink it to its very dregs.
⁹But I will declare this forever:
I will sing praises to the God
of Jacob.
¹⁰I will cut off all the horns of the wicked,
but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

Psalm 76

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

¹In Judah, God is known.
His name is great in Israel.
²His tabernacle is also in Salem;
His dwelling place in Zion.
³There he broke the flaming arrows of the bow,
the shield, and the sword,
and the weapons of
war. Selah.
⁴Glorious are you, and excellent, more than mountains of game.
⁵Valiant men lie plundered, they have slept their last sleep.
None of the men of war can lift their hands.

⁶At your rebuke, God of Jacob, both chariot and horse are cast into a deep sleep.
⁷You, even you, are to be feared.
Who can stand in your sight when you are angry?
⁸You pronounced judgment from heaven.
The earth feared, and was silent, ⁹when God arose to judgment,
to save all the afflicted ones
of the earth. Selah.
¹⁰Surely the wrath of man praises
you.
The survivors of your wrath are restrained.
¹¹Make vows to the LORD your God, and fulfill them!
Let all of his neighbors bring presents to him who is to be feared.
¹²He will cut off the spirit of princes.
He is feared by the kings of
the earth.

Psalm 77

For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm by Asaph.

¹My cry goes to God!
Indeed, I cry to God for
help,
and for him to listen to me.
²In the day of my trouble I sought
the Lord.
My hand was stretched out in the night, and did not get tired.

My soul refused to be comforted.
³I remember God, and I groan.
I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed.
Selah.

⁴You hold my eyelids open.
I am so troubled that I can't speak.
⁵I have considered the days of old,
the years of ancient times.
⁶I remember my song in the night.
I consider in my own heart;
my spirit diligently inquires:
⁷"Will the Lord reject us forever?
Will he be favorable no more?
⁸Has his loving kindness vanished forever?
Does his promise fail for generations?
⁹Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has he, in anger, withheld his compassion?"
Selah.

¹⁰Then I thought, "I will appeal to this:
the years of the right hand of the Most High." ¹¹I will remember the works of YAH;
for I will remember your wonders of old.
¹²I will also meditate on all your work,
and consider your doings.
¹³Your way, God, is in the sanctuary.
What god is great like God?
¹⁴You are the God who does wonders.
You have made your strength known among the peoples.

¹⁵You have redeemed your people with your arm,
the sons of Jacob and Joseph.
Selah.

¹⁶The waters saw you, God.
The waters saw you, and they writhed.
The depths also convulsed.
¹⁷The clouds poured out water.
The skies resounded with thunder.
Your arrows also flashed around.
¹⁸The voice of your thunder was in the whirlwind.
The lightnings lit up the world.
The earth trembled and shook.
¹⁹Your way was through the sea;
your paths through the great waters.
Your footsteps were not known.
²⁰You led your people like a flock,
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

A contemplation by Asaph.

¹Hear my teaching, my people.
Turn your ears to the words of my mouth.
²I will open my mouth in a parable.
I will utter dark sayings of old,^a ³which we have heard and known,

^a78:2 Matthew 13:35

and our fathers have told us.
⁴We will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of the LORD,
 his strength, and his wondrous works that he has done.
⁵For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a teaching in Israel,
 which he commanded our fathers,
 that they should make them known to their children; ⁶that the generation to come might know, even the children who should be born;
 who should arise and tell their children, ⁷that they might set their hope in God,
 and not forget the works of God,
 but keep his commandments, ⁸and might not be as their fathers,
 a stubborn and rebellious generation,
 a generation that did not make their hearts loyal,
 whose spirit was not steadfast with God.
⁹The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.
¹⁰They did not keep God's covenant, and refused to walk by his Law.

¹¹They forgot his doings,
 his wondrous works that he had shown them.
¹²He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
¹³He split the sea, and caused them to pass through.
 He made the waters stand as a heap.
¹⁴In the daytime he also led them with a cloud, and all night with a light of fire.
¹⁵He split rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.
¹⁶He brought streams also out of the rock,
 and caused waters to run down like rivers.
¹⁷Yet they still went on to sin against him,
 to rebel against the Most High in the desert.
¹⁸They tempted God in their heart by asking food according to their desire.
¹⁹Yes, they spoke against God.
 They said, "Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?" ²⁰Behold, he struck the rock, so that waters gushed out, and streams overflowed.
 Can he give bread also?
 Will he provide flesh for his people?"
²¹Therefore the LORD heard, and was angry.
 A fire was kindled against Jacob, anger also went up against Israel,

²²because they did not believe in
God,
and did not trust in his
salvation.

²³Yet he commanded the skies
above,
and opened the doors of heaven.

²⁴He rained down manna on them
to eat,
and gave them bread^a from heaven.^b

²⁵Man ate the bread of angels.^c
He sent them food to the full.

²⁶He caused the east wind to blow in the sky.

By his power he guided the south wind.

²⁷He rained also flesh on them as
the dust;
winged birds as the sand of the seas.

²⁸He let them fall in the midst of their camp,
around their habitations.

²⁹So they ate, and were well filled.
He gave them their own
desire.

³⁰They did not turn from their cravings.
Their food was yet in their mouths,

³¹when the anger of God
went up against them, killed some of the fattest of
them,

and struck down the young men of Israel.

³²For all this they still sinned, and did not believe in his wondrous works.

³³Therefore he consumed their days in vanity,
and their years in terror.

³⁴When he killed them, then they inquired after him.
They returned and sought
God earnestly.

³⁵They remembered that God was their rock,
the Most High God, their redeemer.

³⁶But they flattered him with their
mouth,
and lied to him with their
tongue.

³⁷For their heart was not right with
him,
neither were they faithful in his covenant.

³⁸But he, being merciful, forgave iniquity, and did not destroy them.

Yes, many times he turned his anger away,
and did not stir up all his
wrath.

³⁹He remembered that they were but flesh,
a wind that passes away, and doesn't come again.

⁴⁰How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness, and grieved him in the desert!

⁴¹They turned again and tempted
God,
and gave pain to the Holy
One of Israel.

⁴²They did not remember his hand, nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary;

⁴³how he set his signs in Egypt,

^a78:24 Or, grain

^b78:24 John 6:31

^c78:25 Or, bread of the mighty

his wonders in the field of Zoan, ⁴⁴he turned their rivers into blood, and their streams, so that they could not drink.
⁴⁵He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured
 them;
 and frogs, which destroyed
 them.
⁴⁶He gave also their increase to the caterpillar,
 and their labor to the locust.
⁴⁷He destroyed their vines with hail,
 their sycamore fig trees with frost.
⁴⁸He gave over their livestock also to the hail,
 and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.
⁴⁹He threw on them the fierceness of his anger,
 wrath, indignation, and
 trouble,
 and a band of destroying angels.
⁵⁰He made a path for his anger.
 He did not spare their soul
 from death,
 but gave their life over to the
 pestilence,
⁵¹and struck all the firstborn in Egypt,
 the chief of their strength in the tents of Ham.
⁵²But he led forth his own people
 like sheep,
 and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
⁵³He led them safely, so that they weren't afraid,
 but the sea overwhelmed
 their enemies.
⁵⁴He brought them to the border of his sanctuary,

to this mountain, which his right hand had taken.
⁵⁵He also drove out the nations
 before them,
 allotted them for an inheritance by line,
 and made the tribes of Israel
 to dwell in their tents.
⁵⁶Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High
 God,
 and did not keep his
 testimonies;
⁵⁷but turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers.
 They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.
⁵⁸For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their engraved images.
⁵⁹When God heard this, he was angry,
 and greatly abhorred Israel; ⁶⁰So that he forsook the tent of Shiloh,
 the tent which he placed
 among men;
⁶¹and delivered his strength into captivity,
 his glory into the adversary's
 hand.
⁶²He also gave his people over to the sword,
 and was angry with his inheritance.
⁶³Fire devoured their young men.
 Their virgins had no wedding song.
⁶⁴Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows couldn't weep.
⁶⁵Then the Lord awakened as one out of sleep,

like a mighty man who shouts by reason of wine.
⁶⁶He struck his adversaries backward.
He put them to a perpetual reproach.
⁶⁷Moreover he rejected the tent of Joseph,
and did not choose the tribe of Ephraim, ⁶⁸But chose the tribe of Judah,
Mount Zion which he loved.
⁶⁹He built his sanctuary like the heights,
like the earth which he has established forever.
⁷⁰He also chose David his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds;
⁷¹from following the ewes that have their young,
he brought him to be the shepherd of Jacob, his
people,
and Israel, his inheritance.
⁷²So he was their shepherd according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

Psalm 79

A Psalm by Asaph.

¹God, the nations have come into your inheritance.
They have defiled your holy temple.
They have laid Jerusalem in heaps.

²They have given the dead bodies of your servants to be food for the birds of
the sky,
the flesh of your holy ones
to the animals of the
earth.
³Their blood they have shed like water around
Jerusalem.
There was no one to bury
them.
⁴We have become a reproach to our neighbors,
a scoffing and derision to
those who are around
us.
⁵How long, LORD?
Will you be angry forever?
Will your jealousy burn like
fire?
⁶Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you;
on the kingdoms that do not call on your name;
⁷For they have devoured Jacob,
and destroyed his homeland.
⁸Do not hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us.
Let your tender mercies speedily meet us,
for we are in desperate need.
⁹Help us, God of our salvation, for the glory of your
name.
Deliver us, and forgive our sins, for your name's sake.
¹⁰Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
Let it be known among the nations, before our eyes,

that vengeance for your servants' blood is being poured out.
¹¹Let the sighing of the prisoner come before you.
According to the greatness
of your power,
preserve those who are sentenced to death.
¹²Pay back to our neighbors seven times into their bosom their reproach with which they have reproached
you, Lord.
¹³So we, your people and sheep of your pasture,
will give you thanks forever.
We will praise you forever,
to all generations.

Psalm 80

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lilies of the Covenant." A Psalm by Asaph.

¹Hear us, Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock,
you who sit above the cherubim, shine forth.
²Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your might!
Come to save us!
³Restore us, God.
Cause your face to shine,
and we will be saved.
⁴LORD God of hosts,
How long will you be angry against the prayer of your people?

⁵You have fed them with the bread of tears,
and given them tears to drink in large measure.
⁶You make us a source of contention to our neighbors.
Our enemies laugh among
themselves.
⁷Restore us, God of hosts.
Cause your face to shine,
and we will be saved.
⁸You brought a vine out of Egypt.
You drove out the nations,
and planted it.
⁹You cleared the ground for it.
It took deep root, and filled
the land.
¹⁰The mountains were covered with its shadow.
Its boughs were like God's cedars.
¹¹It sent out its branches to the sea,
Its shoots to the River.
¹²Why have you broken down its walls,
so that all those who pass by the way pluck it?
¹³The boar out of the wood ravages it.
The wild animals of the field
feed on it.
¹⁴Return, we beg you, God of
hosts.
Look down from heaven,
and see, and visit this
vine,
¹⁵the stock which your right hand planted,
the branch that you made strong for yourself.
¹⁶It's burned with fire.
It's cut down.
They perish at your rebuke.
¹⁷Let your hand be on the man of
your right hand,

on the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.

¹⁸So we will not turn away from
you.

Revive us, and we will call on your name.

¹⁹Restore us, LORD God of hosts.
Cause your face to shine,
and we will be saved.

Psalm 81

For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. By Asaph.

¹Sing aloud to God, our strength!
Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob!

²Raise a song, and bring here the tambourine,
the pleasant lyre with the
harp.

³Blow the trumpet at the New Moon,
at the full moon, on our feast
day.

⁴For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.

⁵He appointed it in Joseph for a testimony,
when he went out over the land of Egypt,
I heard a language that I did not know.

⁶“I removed his shoulder from the burden.
His hands were freed from the basket.

⁷You called in trouble, and I delivered you.
I answered you in the secret place of thunder.

I tested you at the waters of Meribah.”

Selah.

⁸“Hear, my people, and I will testify to you,
Israel, if you would listen to
me!

⁹There shall be no strange god in
you,
neither shall you worship
any foreign god.

¹⁰I am the LORD, your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.

¹¹But my people did not listen to my voice.

Israel desired none of me.

¹²So I let them go after the stubbornness of their hearts,
that they might walk in their own counsels.

¹³Oh that my people would listen
to me,
that Israel would walk in my
ways!

¹⁴I would soon subdue their
enemies,
and turn my hand against their adversaries.

¹⁵The haters of the LORD would cringe before him,
and their punishment would last forever.

¹⁶But he would have also fed them with the finest of the wheat.
I will satisfy you with honey out of the rock.”

Psalm 82

A Psalm by Asaph.

- ¹God presides in the great
assembly.
He judges among the gods.
²“How long will you judge unjustly,
and show partiality to the wicked?” Selah.
- ³“Defend the weak, the poor, and the fatherless.
Maintain the rights of the poor and oppressed.
⁴Rescue the weak and needy.
Deliver them out of the hand
of the wicked.”
- ⁵They do not know, neither do they understand.
They walk back and forth in
darkness.
All the foundations of the earth are shaken.
- ⁶I said, “You are gods,^a all of you are sons of the Most High.
⁷Nevertheless you shall die like
men,
and fall like one of the rulers.”
- ⁸Arise, God, judge the earth, for you inherit all of the nations.

^a82:6 John 10:34

Psalm 83

A song. A Psalm by Asaph.

- ¹God, do not keep silent.
Do not keep silent,
and do not be still, God.
²For, behold, your enemies are stirred up.
Those who hate you have lifted up their heads.
³They conspire with cunning against your people.
They plot against your cherished ones.
⁴“Come,” they say, “and let’s destroy them as a nation,
that the name of Israel may be remembered no
more.”
- ⁵For they have conspired together with one mind.
They form an alliance
against you.
- ⁶The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites;
Moab, and the Hagrites;
⁷Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek; Philistia with the inhabitants
of Tyre;
⁸Assyria also is joined with them.
They have helped the children of Lot. Selah.
- ⁹Do to them as you did to Midian, as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the river Kishon; ¹⁰who perished at Endor, who became as dung for the
earth.
¹¹Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb;
yes, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna;

¹²who said, “Let us take possession of God’s pasturelands.”
¹³My God, make them like tumbleweed;
like chaff before the wind.
¹⁴As the fire that burns the forest, as the flame that sets the mountains on fire, ¹⁵so pursue them with your tempest,
and terrify them with your
storm.
¹⁶Fill their faces with confusion, that they may seek your name, LORD.
¹⁷Let them be disappointed and dismayed forever.
Yes, let them be confounded and perish;
¹⁸that they may know that you alone, whose name is
the LORD,
are the Most High over all
the earth.

Psalm 84

For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

¹How lovely are your dwellings,
LORD of hosts!
²My soul longs, and even faints for the courts of the
LORD.
My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.
³Yes, the sparrow has found a home,
and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may have her young,

near your altars, LORD of hosts, my King, and
my God.
⁴Happy are those who dwell in your house.
They are ever praising you!
Selah.
⁵Happy are those whose strength is
in you;
who have set their hearts on a pilgrimage.
⁶Passing through the valley of Weeping, they make it a place of springs.
Yes, the autumn rain covers
it with blessings.
⁷They go from strength to strength.
Everyone of them appears before God in Zion.
⁸LORD, God of hosts, hear my prayer.
Listen, God of Jacob.
Selah.
⁹Behold, God our shield, look at the face of your anointed.
¹⁰For a day in your courts is better than a thousand.
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,
than to dwell in the tents of
wickedness.
¹¹For the LORD God is a sun and a shield.
The LORD will give grace and glory.
He withholds no good thing from those who walk
blamelessly.
¹²LORD of hosts,
happy is the man who trusts
in you!

Psalm 85

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by the sons of Korah.

- ¹LORD, you have been favorable to your land.
You have restored the fortunes of Jacob.
- ²You have forgiven the iniquity of
your people.
You have covered all their sin.
- Selah.
- ³You have taken away all your
wrath.
You have turned from the fierceness of your
anger.
- ⁴Turn us, God of our salvation, and cause your indignation toward us to cease.
- ⁵Will you be angry with us
forever?
Will you draw out your anger to all
generations?
- ⁶Won't you revive us again,
that your people may rejoice
in you?
- ⁷Show us your loving kindness,
LORD.
Grant us your salvation.
- ⁸I will hear what God, the LORD, will speak,
for he will speak peace to his people, his holy ones;
but let them not turn again to
folly.
- ⁹Surely his salvation is near those
who fear him,
that glory may dwell in our
land.
- ¹⁰Mercy and truth meet together.

- Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
- ¹¹Truth springs out of the earth.
Righteousness has looked down from heaven.
- ¹²Yes, the LORD will give that
which is good.
Our land will yield its
increase.
- ¹³Righteousness goes before him,
And prepares the way for his steps.

Psalm 86

A Prayer by David.

- ¹Hear, LORD, and answer me,
for I am poor and needy.
- ²Preserve my soul, for I am godly.
You, my God, save your servant who trusts in
you.
- ³Be merciful to me, Lord,
for I call to you all day long.
- ⁴Bring joy to the soul of your
servant,
for to you, Lord, do I lift up
my soul.
- ⁵For you, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive;
abundant in loving kindness to all those who call on you.
- ⁶Hear, LORD, my prayer.
Listen to the voice of my petitions.
- ⁷In the day of my trouble I will call on you,
for you will answer me.
- ⁸There is no one like you among the gods, Lord,
nor any deeds like your
deeds.

⁹All nations you have made will come and worship
 before you, Lord.
 They shall glorify your
 name.
¹⁰For you are great, and do wondrous things.
 You are God alone.
¹¹Teach me your way, LORD.
 I will walk in your truth.
 Make my heart undivided to fear your name.
¹²I will praise you, Lord my God,
 with my whole heart.
 I will glorify your name
 forevermore.
¹³For your loving kindness is great toward me.
 You have delivered my soul from the lowest Sheol.
¹⁴God, the proud have risen up
 against me.
 A company of violent men have sought after my
 soul,
 and they do not hold regard for you before them.
¹⁵But you, Lord, are a merciful and gracious God,
 slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness and
 truth.
¹⁶Turn to me, and have mercy on
 me!
 Give your strength to your
 servant.
 Save the son of your handmaid.
¹⁷Show me a sign of your goodness,
 that those who hate me may see it, and be shamed, because you, LORD, have helped me, and comforted me.

Psalm 87

A Psalm by the sons of Korah; a Song.

¹His foundation is in the holy
 mountains.
²The LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
³Glorious things are spoken about you, city of God.
 Selah.
⁴I will record Rahab^a and Babylon among those who acknowledge me.
 Behold, Philistia, Tyre, and also Ethiopia:
 “This one was born there.”
⁵Yes, of Zion it will be said, “This one and that one was born in her;”
 the Most High himself will establish her.
⁶The LORD will count, when he writes up the peoples,
 “This one was born there.”
 Selah.
⁷Those who sing as well as those who dance say,
 “All my springs are in you.”

Psalm 88

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah. For the Chief Musician. To the tune of “The Suffering of Affliction.” A contemplation by Heman, the Ezrahite.

^a87:4 Rahab is a reference to Egypt

¹LORD, the God of my salvation,
I have cried day and night
before you.
²Let my prayer enter into your presence.
Turn your ear to my cry.
³For my soul is full of troubles.
My life draws near to Sheol.
⁴I am counted among those who go down into the pit.
I am like a man who has no
help, ⁵set apart among the dead,
like the slain who lie in the grave,
whom you remember no
more.
They are cut off from your
hand.
⁶You have laid me in the lowest
pit,
in the darkest depths.
⁷Your wrath lies heavily on me.
You have afflicted me with all your waves.
Selah.
⁸You have taken my friends from
me.
You have made me an abomination to them.
I am confined, and I can't escape.
⁹My eyes are dim from grief.
I have called on you daily,
LORD.
I have spread out my hands
to you.
¹⁰Do you show wonders to the dead?
Do the dead rise up and praise you?
Selah.
¹¹Is your loving kindness declared in the grave?
Or your faithfulness in Destruction?

¹²Are your wonders made known in the dark?
Or your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
¹³But to you, LORD, I have cried.
In the morning, my prayer comes before you.
¹⁴LORD, why do you reject my
soul?
Why do you hide your face
from me?
¹⁵I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up.
While I suffer your terrors, I am distracted.
¹⁶Your fierce wrath has gone over
me.
Your terrors have cut me off.
¹⁷They came around me like water
all day long.
They completely engulfed
me.
¹⁸You have put lover and friend far
from me,
and my friends into darkness.

Psalm 89

A contemplation by Ethan, the Ezrahite.

¹I will sing of the loving kindness of the LORD forever.
With my mouth I will make known your faithfulness to all
generations.
²I indeed declare, "Love stands firm forever.
You established the heavens.
Your faithfulness is in
them."

³“I have made a covenant with my chosen one,
I have sworn to David, my
servant,
⁴I will establish your seed forever, and build up your throne to
all generations.””
Selah.
⁵The heavens will praise your wonders, LORD;
your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.
⁶For who in the skies can be compared to the
LORD?
Who among the sons of God is like the LORD, ⁷a very awesome God in the council of the holy
ones,
to be feared above all those who are around him?
⁸LORD, God of hosts, who is a mighty one like you, YAH?
Your faithfulness is around
you.
⁹You rule the pride of the sea.
When its waves rise up, you calm them.
¹⁰You have broken Rahab in pieces, like one of the slain.
You have scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.
¹¹The heavens are yours.
The earth also is yours;
the world and its fullness.
You have founded them.
¹²The north and the south, you have created them.
Tabor and Hermon rejoice in
your name.
¹³You have a mighty arm.

Your hand is strong, and your right hand is exalted.
¹⁴Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne.
Loving kindness and truth
go before your face.
¹⁵Happy are the people who know the joyful shout.
They walk in the light of your presence, LORD.
¹⁶In your name they rejoice all
day.
In your righteousness, they are exalted.
¹⁷For you are the glory of their
strength.
In your favor, our horn will be exalted.
¹⁸For our shield belongs to the LORD;
our king to the Holy One of Israel.
¹⁹Then you spoke in vision to your holy ones,
and said, “I have bestowed strength on the warrior.
I have exalted a young man from the people.
²⁰I have found David, my servant.
I have anointed him with my holy oil, ²¹with whom my hand shall be established.
My arm will also strengthen
him.
²²No enemy will tax him.
No wicked man will oppress
him.
²³I will beat down his adversaries
before him,
and strike those who hate
him.

²⁴But my faithfulness and my loving kindness will be with him.
 In my name, his horn will be exalted.
²⁵I will set his hand also on the sea,
 and his right hand on the rivers.
²⁶He will call to me, ‘You are my Father,
 my God, and the rock of my
 salvation!’
²⁷I will also appoint him my firstborn,
 the highest of the kings of
 the earth.
²⁸I will keep my loving kindness for him forevermore.
 My covenant will stand firm
 with him.
²⁹I will also make his seed endure
 forever,
 and his throne as the days of
 heaven.
³⁰If his children forsake my Law, and do not walk in my ordinances;
³¹if they break my statutes, and do not keep my
 commandments;
³²then I will punish their sin with the rod,
 and their iniquity with stripes.
³³But I will not completely take my loving kindness
 from him,
 nor allow my faithfulness to fail.
³⁴I will not break my covenant, nor alter what my lips have uttered.
³⁵Once have I sworn by my holiness,
 I will not lie to David.

³⁶His seed will endure forever, his throne like the sun before
 me.
³⁷It will be established forever like the moon,
 the faithful witness in the sky.”
 Selah.
³⁸But you have rejected and spurned.
 You have been angry with your anointed.
³⁹You have renounced the covenant of your
 servant.
 You have defiled his crown
 in the dust.
⁴⁰You have broken down all his hedges.
 You have brought his strongholds to ruin.
⁴¹All who pass by the way rob
 him.
 He has become a reproach to his neighbors.
⁴²You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries.
 You have made all of his enemies rejoice.
⁴³Yes, you turn back the edge of his sword,
 and haven’t supported him
 in battle.
⁴⁴You have ended his splendor, and thrown his throne down
 to the ground.
⁴⁵You have shortened the days of his youth.
 You have covered him with shame.
 Selah.
⁴⁶How long, LORD?
 Will you hide yourself
 forever?

Will your wrath burn like
fire?

⁴⁷Remember how short my time
is!

For what vanity have you created all the children of men!

⁴⁸What man is he who shall live and not see death,
who shall deliver his soul
from the power of Sheol?

Selah.

⁴⁹Lord, where are your former loving kindnesses,
which you swore to David in your faithfulness?

⁵⁰Remember, Lord, the reproach of your servants,
how I bear in my heart the taunts of all the mighty
peoples,

⁵¹With which your enemies have mocked, LORD,
with which they have mocked the footsteps
of your anointed one.

⁵²Blessed be the LORD
forevermore.

Amen, and Amen.

BOOK IV

Psalm 90

A Prayer by Moses, the man of
God.

¹Lord, you have been our dwelling place for all
generations.

²Before the mountains were brought forth,
before you had formed the earth and the world,
even from everlasting to everlasting, you are
God.

³You turn man to destruction,
saying,
“Return, you children of
men.”

⁴For a thousand years in your sight are just like yesterday when it is past,
like a watch in the night.

⁵You sweep them away as they sleep.
In the morning they sprout like new grass.

⁶In the morning it sprouts and springs up.
By evening, it is withered
and dry.

⁷For we are consumed in your
anger.
We are troubled in your
wrath.

⁸You have set our iniquities before
you,
our secret sins in the light of
your presence.

⁹For all our days have passed away in your wrath.

We bring our years to an end
as a sigh.

¹⁰The days of our years are seventy,
or even by reason of strength
eighty years;
yet their pride is but labor
and sorrow,
for it passes quickly, and we fly away.

¹¹Who knows the power of your
anger,
your wrath according to the fear that is due to you?

¹²So teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of
wisdom.

¹³Relent, LORD!
How long?
Have compassion on your servants!

¹⁴Satisfy us in the morning with
your loving kindness,
that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

¹⁵Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted
us,
for as many years as we have seen evil.

¹⁶Let your work appear to your
servants;
your glory to their children.

¹⁷Let the favor of the Lord our God be on us;
establish the work of our hands for us;
yes, establish the work of our hands.

Psalm 91

¹He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High

will rest in the shadow of Shaddai.

²I will say of the LORD, “He is my refuge and my
fortress;
my God, in whom I trust.”

³For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler,
and from the deadly
pestilence.

⁴He will cover you with his feathers.
Under his wings you will take refuge.
His faithfulness is your shield and rampart.

⁵You shall not be afraid of the terror by night,
nor of the arrow that flies by
day;
⁶nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness,
nor of the destruction that wastes at noonday.

⁷A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your
right hand;
but it will not come near
you.

⁸You will only look with your
eyes,
and see the recompense of
the wicked.

⁹Because you have made LORD your refuge,
and the Most High your dwelling place, ¹⁰no evil shall overtake you;
no plague shall come near your dwelling.

¹¹For he will put his angels in charge of you,
to guard you in all your
ways.

¹²They will bear you up in their
hands,

so that you won't dash your foot against a stone.^a ¹³You will tread upon the lion and the viper.^b
You will trample the young lion and the serpent
underfoot.
^{14c}Because he has set his love on me, therefore I will deliver him.
I will set him on high,
because he has known
my name.
¹⁵He will call on me, and I will answer him.
I will be with him in trouble.
I will deliver him, and honor
him.
¹⁶I will satisfy him with long life, and show him my
salvation."

Psalm 92

A Psalm. A song for the Sabbath
day.

¹It is a good thing to give thanks to
the LORD,
to sing praises to your name,
Most High;
²to proclaim your loving kindness
in the morning,
and your faithfulness every
night,
³with the ten-stringed lute, with the harp,

and with the melody of the lyre.
⁴For you, LORD, have made me glad through your work.
I will triumph in the works of your hands.
⁵How great are your works, LORD!
Your thoughts are very deep.
⁶A senseless man doesn't know, neither does a fool
understand this:
⁷though the wicked spring up as
the grass,
and all the evildoers
flourish,
they will be destroyed
forever.
⁸But you, LORD, are on high
forevermore.
⁹For, behold, your enemies, LORD, for, behold, your enemies shall perish.
All the evildoers will be scattered.
¹⁰But you have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox.
I am anointed with fresh oil.
¹¹My eye has also seen my
enemies.
My ears have heard of the wicked enemies who rise up against me.
¹²The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree.
He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
¹³They are planted in the LORD's
house.
They will flourish in our God's courts.
¹⁴They will still bring forth fruit in old age.
They will be full of sap and green,

^a91:12 Matthew 4:6; Luke 4:10-11

^b91:13 LXX reads "basilisk" meaning "little king of serpents", a high level evil spirit

¹⁵to show that the LORD is upright.
He is my rock,
and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalm 93

¹The LORD reigns!
He is clothed with majesty!
The LORD is armed with strength.
The world also is established.
It can't be moved.
²Your throne is established from long ago.
You are from everlasting.
³The floods have lifted up, LORD,
the floods have lifted up their voice.
The floods lift up their waves.
⁴Above the voices of many waters,
the mighty breakers of the sea,
The LORD on high is mighty.
⁵Your statutes stand firm.
Holiness adorns your house,
LORD, forevermore.

Psalm 94

¹LORD, you God to whom vengeance belongs, you God to whom vengeance belongs, shine forth.
²Rise up, you judge of the earth.
Pay back the proud what they deserve.

³LORD, how long will the wicked, how long will the wicked triumph?
⁴They pour out arrogant words.
All the evildoers boast.
⁵They break your people in pieces,
LORD,
and afflict your heritage.
⁶They kill the widow and the alien,
and murder the fatherless.
⁷They say, "YAH will not see, neither will Jacob's God consider." ⁸Consider, you senseless among the people;
you fools, when will you be wise?
⁹He who implanted the ear, won't he hear?
He who formed the eye,
won't he see?
¹⁰He who disciplines the nations, won't he punish?
He who teaches man knows.
¹¹The LORD knows the thoughts of man, that they are futile.^a ¹²Happy is the man whom you discipline, YAH, and teach out of your Law; ¹³that you may give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit is dug for the wicked.
¹⁴For the LORD won't reject his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.
¹⁵For judgment will return to righteousness.
All the upright in heart shall follow it.

^a94:11 1Corinthians 3:20

Psalm 95

¹⁶Who will rise up for me against
the wicked?
Who will stand up for me
against the evildoers?
¹⁷Unless the LORD had been my
help,
my soul would have soon lived in silence.
¹⁸When I said, “My foot is slipping!”
Your loving kindness,
LORD, held me up.
¹⁹In the multitude of my thoughts
within me,
your comforts delight my
soul.
²⁰Shall the throne of wickedness have fellowship with
you,
which brings about mischief
by statute?
²¹They gather themselves together against the soul of the
righteous,
and condemn the innocent
blood.
²²But the LORD has been my high tower,
my God, the rock of my
refuge.
²³He has brought on them their own iniquity,
and will cut them off in their own wickedness.
The LORD, our God, will cut them off.

Psalm 95

¹Oh come, let’s sing to the LORD.
Let’s shout aloud to the rock of our salvation!
²Let’s come before his presence with thanksgiving.

Let’s extol him with songs!
³For the LORD is a great God,
a great King above all gods.
⁴In his hand are the deep places of
the earth.
The heights of the mountains are also his.
⁵The sea is his, and he made it.
His hands formed the dry
land.
⁶Oh come, let’s worship and bow down.
Let’s kneel before the LORD,
our Maker,
⁷for he is our God.
We are the people of his pasture,
and the sheep in his care.
Today, oh that you would hear his voice!
⁸Do not harden your heart,
as at Meribah,
as in the day of Massah in
the wilderness,
⁹when your fathers tempted me, tested me, and saw my work.
¹⁰Forty long years I was grieved with that generation, and said, “It is a people that
errs in their heart.
They have not known my
ways.”
¹¹Therefore I swore in my wrath, “They won’t enter into my rest.”^a

Psalm 96

¹Sing to the LORD a new song!
Sing to the LORD, all the
earth.

^a95:11 Hebrews 4:3,5

²Sing to the LORD!
 Bless his name!
 Proclaim his salvation from day to day!
³Declare his glory among the
 nations,
 his marvelous works among all the peoples.
⁴For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised!
 He is to be feared above all gods.
⁵For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
 but the LORD made the
 heavens.
⁶Honor and majesty are before
 him.
 Strength and beauty are in
 his sanctuary.
⁷Ascribe to the LORD, you families of nations, ascribe to the LORD glory
 and strength.
⁸Ascribe to the LORD the glory
 due to his name.
 Bring an offering, and come into his courts.
⁹Worship the LORD in holy array.
 Tremble before him, all the
 earth.
¹⁰Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns."
 The world is also
 established.
 It can't be moved.
 He will judge the peoples
 with equity.
¹¹Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice.
 Let the sea roar, and its fullness!
¹²Let the field and all that is in it exult!

Then all the trees of the woods shall sing for joy ¹³before the LORD; for he comes,
 for he comes to judge the
 earth.
 He will judge the world with
 righteousness,
 the peoples with his truth.

Psalm 97

¹The LORD reigns!
 Let the earth rejoice!
 Let the multitude of islands be glad!
²Clouds and darkness are around
 him.
 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
³A fire goes before him,
 and burns up his adversaries on every side.
⁴His lightning lights up the world.
 The earth sees, and trembles.
⁵The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the
 LORD,
 at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
⁶The heavens declare his
 righteousness.
 All the peoples have seen his glory.
⁷Let all them be shamed who serve engraved images,
 who boast in their idols.
 Worship him, all you gods!
⁸Zion heard and was glad.
 The daughters of Judah
 rejoiced,

Psalm 98

because of your judgments,
LORD.
⁹For you, LORD, are most high above all the earth.
You are exalted far above all
gods.
¹⁰You who love the LORD, hate
evil.
He preserves the souls of his
holy ones.
He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
¹¹Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.
¹²Be glad in the LORD, you righteous people!
Give thanks to his holy Name.

Psalm 98

A Psalm.

¹Sing to the LORD a new song,
for he has done marvelous
things!
His right hand, and his holy arm, have worked salvation for him.
²The LORD has made known his
salvation.
He has openly shown his righteousness in the sight of the nations.
³He has remembered his loving kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.
All the ends of the earth
have seen the salvation of our God.
⁴Make a joyful noise to the LORD,
all the earth!

Burst out and sing for joy,
yes, sing praises!
⁵Sing praises to the LORD with the
harp,
with the harp and the voice of melody.
⁶With trumpets and sound of the
ram's horn,
make a joyful noise before the King, the LORD.
⁷Let the sea roar with its fullness;
the world, and those who dwell therein.
⁸Let the rivers clap their hands.
Let the mountains sing for joy together.
⁹Let them sing before the LORD,
for he comes to judge the
earth.
He will judge the world with
righteousness,
and the peoples with equity.

Psalm 99

¹The LORD reigns! Let the peoples tremble.
He sits enthroned among the cherubim.
Let the earth be moved.
²The LORD is great in Zion.
He is high above all the
peoples.
³Let them praise your great and awesome name.
He is Holy!
⁴The King's strength also loves
justice.
You do establish equity.
You execute justice and righteousness in Jacob.
⁵Exalt the LORD our God.
Worship at his footstool.

He is Holy!
⁶Moses and Aaron were among his priests,
 Samuel among those who
 call on his name;
 they called on the LORD,
 and he answered them.
⁷He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud.
 They kept his testimonies,
 the statute that he gave them.
⁸You answered them, LORD our
 God.
 You are a God who forgave
 them,
 although you took vengeance for their doings.
⁹Exalt the LORD, our God.
 Worship at his holy hill, for the LORD, our God, is holy!

Psalm 100

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

¹Shout for joy to the LORD, all you lands!
²Serve the LORD with gladness.
 Come before his presence with singing.
³Know that the LORD, he is God.
 It is he who has made us,
 and not we ourselves.^a We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
⁴Enter into his gates with
 thanksgiving,

^a103:3 Hebrew mss, LXX, Syr, Vg.
 Other Hebrew mss "and we are his"

into his courts with praise.
 Give thanks to him, and
 bless his name.
⁵For the LORD is good.
 His loving kindness endures
 forever,
 his faithfulness to all generations.

Psalm 101

A Psalm by David.

¹I will sing of loving kindness and
 justice.
 To you, LORD, I will sing
 praises.
²I will be careful to live a blameless life.
 When will you come to me?
 I will walk within my house with a blameless heart.
³I will set no vile thing before my
 eyes.
 I hate the deeds of faithless
 men.
 They will not cling to me.
⁴A perverse heart will be far from
 me.
 I will have nothing to do
 with evil.
⁵I will silence whoever secretly
 slanders his neighbor.
 I won't tolerate one who is haughty and conceited.
⁶My eyes will be on the faithful of
 the land,
 that they may dwell with me.
 He who walks in a perfect way,
 he will serve me.
⁷He who practices deceit won't dwell within my
 house.

He who speaks falsehood won't be established before my eyes.

⁸Morning by morning, I will destroy all the wicked
of the land;
to cut off all the workers of iniquity from the LORD's city.

Psalm 102

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before the LORD.

¹Hear my prayer, LORD!

Let my cry come to you.

²Do not hide your face from me in the day of my distress.

Turn your ear to me.

Answer me quickly in the day when I call.

³For my days consume away like smoke.

My bones are burned as a firebrand.

⁴My heart is blighted like grass, and withered,

for I forget to eat my bread.

⁵By reason of the voice of my groaning,

my bones stick to my skin.

⁶I am like a pelican of the wilderness.

I have become as an owl of the waste places.

⁷I watch, and have become like a sparrow that is alone on the housetop.

⁸My enemies reproach me all day.
Those who are mad at me use my name as a curse.

⁹For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mixed my drink with tears,

¹⁰Because of your indignation and your wrath,
for you have taken me up,
and thrown me away.

¹¹My days are like a long shadow.
I have withered like grass.

¹²But you, LORD, will abide
forever;
your renown endures to all
generations.

¹³You will arise and have mercy on Zion;
for it is time to have pity on
her.

Yes, the set time has come.

¹⁴For your servants take pleasure in her stones,
and have pity on her dust.

¹⁵So the nations will fear the name of the LORD;
all the kings of the earth
your glory.

¹⁶For the LORD has built up Zion.
He has appeared in his glory.

¹⁷He has responded to the prayer of the destitute,
and has not despised their prayer.

¹⁸This will be written for the generation to come.
A people which will be created will praise
YAH.

¹⁹For he has looked down from the height of his
sanctuary.

From heaven, the LORD saw
the earth;

²⁰to hear the groans of the prisoner;
to free those who are condemned to death;

²¹that men may declare the name of the LORD in Zion,
and his praise in Jerusalem; ²²when the peoples are gathered together,
the kingdoms, to serve the
LORD.

²³He weakened my strength along the course.
He shortened my days.

²⁴I said, "My God, do not take me away in the midst of my days.
Your years are throughout
all generations.

²⁵Of old, you laid the foundation
of the earth.
The heavens are the work of
your hands.

²⁶They will perish, but you will endure.
Yes, all of them will wear out like a garment.
You will change them like a cloak, and they will be changed.

²⁷But you are the same.
Your years will have no end.^a

²⁸The children of your servants will continue.
Their seed will be established before
you."

Psalm 103

By David.

¹Praise the LORD, my soul!

All that is within me, praise his holy name!
²Praise the LORD, my soul, and do not forget all his benefits;
³who forgives all your sins;
who heals all your diseases; ⁴who redeems your life from
destruction;
who crowns you with loving kindness and tender mercies;
⁵who satisfies your desire with good things,
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.
⁶The LORD executes righteous
acts,
and justice for all who are
oppressed.
⁷He made known his ways to Moses,
his deeds to the children of Israel.
⁸The LORD is merciful and gracious,
slow to anger, and abundant
in loving kindness.
⁹He will not always accuse;
neither will he stay angry
forever.
¹⁰He has not dealt with us
according to our sins,
nor repaid us for our
iniquities.
¹¹For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so great is his loving kindness toward those
who fear him.
¹²As far as the east is from the west,
so far has he removed our transgressions from us.

^a102:25-27 Hebrews 1:10-12

¹³Like a father has compassion on
his children,
so the LORD has compassion
on those who fear him.
¹⁴For he knows how we are made.
He remembers that we are
dust.
¹⁵As for man, his days are like grass.
As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.
¹⁶For the wind passes over it, and it is gone.
Its place remembers it no
more.
¹⁷But the LORD's loving kindness is from everlasting to everlasting with those
who fear him,
his righteousness to children's children;
¹⁸to those who keep his covenant, to those who remember to obey his precepts.
¹⁹The LORD has established his throne in the heavens.
His kingdom rules over all.
²⁰Praise the LORD, you angels of his,
who are mighty in strength,
who fulfill his word,
obeying the voice of his
word.
²¹Praise the LORD, all you armies
of his,
you servants of his, who do his pleasure.
²²Praise the LORD, all you works
of his,
in all places of his dominion.
Praise the LORD, my soul!

Psalm 104

¹Bless the LORD, my soul.
The LORD, my God, you are very great.
You are clothed with honor and majesty.
²He covers himself with light as
with a garment.
He stretches out the heavens
like a curtain.
³He lays the beams of his chambers in the waters.
He makes the clouds his chariot.
He walks on the wings of the wind.
⁴He makes his angels^a winds;
his servants flames of fire.^b ⁵He laid the foundations of the
earth,
that it should not be moved
forever.
⁶You covered it with the deep as
with a cloak.
The waters stood above the
mountains.
⁷At your rebuke they fled.
At the voice of your thunder
they hurried away.
⁸The mountains rose,
the valleys sank down,
to the place which you had assigned to them.
⁹You have set a boundary that they may not pass over;

^a104:4 Or, messengers

^b104:4 Hebrews 1:7

- that they do not turn again to cover the earth.
- ¹⁰He sends forth springs into the valleys.
They run among the
mountains.
- ¹¹They give drink to every animal
of the field.
The wild donkeys quench their thirst.
- ¹²The birds of the sky nest by
them.
They sing among the branches.
- ¹³He waters the mountains from his chambers.
The earth is filled with the fruit of your works.
- ¹⁴He causes the grass to grow for the livestock,
and plants for man to cultivate,
that he may bring forth food
out of the earth:
- ¹⁵wine that makes glad the heart of
man,
oil to make his face to shine,
and bread that strengthens man's heart.
- ¹⁶The LORD's trees are well watered,
the cedars of Lebanon,
which he has planted;
- ¹⁷where the birds make their nests.
The stork makes its home in the fir trees.
- ¹⁸The high mountains are for the wild goats.
The rocks are a refuge for the rock badgers.
- ¹⁹He appointed the moon for seasons.
The sun knows when to set.
- ²⁰You make darkness, and it is
night,
- in which all the animals of the forest prowl.
- ²¹The young lions roar after their
prey,
and seek their food from
God.
- ²²The sun rises, and they steal
away,
and lie down in their dens.
- ²³Man goes forth to his work,
to his labor until the evening.
- ²⁴The LORD, how many are your
works!
In wisdom have you made them all.
The earth is full of your
riches.
- ²⁵There is the sea, great and wide,
in which are innumerable living things,
both small and large
animals.
- ²⁶There the ships go,
and leviathan, whom you formed to play there.
- ²⁷These all wait for you,
that you may give them their food in due season.
- ²⁸You give to them; they gather.
You open your hand; they are satisfied with
good.
- ²⁹You hide your face: they are troubled;
you take away their breath:
they die, and return to
the dust.
- ³⁰You send forth your Spirit: they are created.
You renew the face of the ground.
- ³¹Let the glory of the LORD endure
forever.
Let the LORD rejoice in his
works.

³²He looks at the earth, and it trembles.
He touches the mountains,
and they smoke.
³³I will sing to the LORD as long as I live.
I will sing praise to my God while I have any
being.
³⁴Let your meditation be sweet to
him.
I will rejoice in the LORD.
³⁵Let sinners be consumed out of
the earth.
Let the wicked be no more.
Bless the LORD, my soul.
Praise YAH!

Psalm 105

¹Give thanks to the LORD! Call on his name!
Make his doings known
among the peoples.
²Sing to him, sing praises to him!
Tell of all his marvelous
works.
³Glory in his holy name.
Let the heart of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
⁴Seek the LORD and his strength.
Seek his face forever more.
⁵Remember his marvelous works that he has done;
his wonders, and the judgments of his
mouth,
⁶you seed of Abraham, his servant, you children of Jacob, his chosen ones.
⁷He is the LORD, our God.
His judgments are in all the
earth.

⁸He has remembered his covenant
forever,
the word which he commanded to a thousand generations, ⁹the covenant which he made with Abraham,
his oath to Isaac,
¹⁰and confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute;
to Israel for an everlasting
covenant,
¹¹saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan,
the lot of your inheritance;" ¹²when they were but a few men in number,
yes, very few, and foreigners
in it.
¹³They went about from nation to
nation,
from one kingdom to another people.
¹⁴He allowed no one to do them wrong.
Yes, he reproved kings for their sakes,
¹⁵"Do not touch my anointed ones!
Do my prophets no harm!" ¹⁶He called for a famine on the land.
He destroyed the food supplies.
¹⁷He sent a man before them.
Joseph was sold for a slave.
¹⁸They bruised his feet with shackles.
His neck was locked in irons, ¹⁹until the time that his word happened,
and the LORD's word proved him true.
²⁰The king sent and freed him;
even the ruler of peoples,
and let him go free.

- ²¹He made him lord of his house,
and ruler of all of his possessions;
²²to discipline his princes at his pleasure,
and to teach his elders
wisdom.
- ²³Israel also came into Egypt.
Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
- ²⁴He increased his people greatly,
and made them stronger than
their adversaries.
- ²⁵He turned their heart to hate his
people,
to conspire against his
servants.
- ²⁶He sent Moses, his servant, and Aaron, whom he had chosen.
- ²⁷They performed miracles among
them,
and wonders in the land of Ham.
- ²⁸He sent darkness, and made it
dark.
They did not rebel against his words.
- ²⁹He turned their waters into
blood,
and killed their fish.
- ³⁰Their land swarmed with frogs, even in the chambers of their kings.
- ³¹He spoke, and swarms of flies came,
and lice in all their borders.
- ³²He gave them hail for rain,
with lightning in their land.
- ³³He struck their vines and also their fig trees,
and shattered the trees of their country.
- ³⁴He spoke, and the locusts came,
and the grasshoppers,
without number,
- ³⁵ate up every plant in their land;
and ate up the fruit of their
ground.
- ³⁶He struck also all the firstborn in their land,
the first fruits of all their manhood.
- ³⁷He brought them forth with silver and gold.
There was not one feeble person among his tribes.
- ³⁸Egypt was glad when they departed,
for the fear of them had fallen on them.
- ³⁹He spread a cloud for a covering,
fire to give light in the night.
- ⁴⁰They asked, and he brought quails,
and satisfied them with the bread of the sky.
- ⁴¹He opened the rock, and waters
gushed out.
They ran as a river in the dry
places.
- ⁴²For he remembered his holy
word,
and Abraham, his servant.
- ⁴³He brought forth his people with
joy,
his chosen with singing.
- ⁴⁴He gave them the lands of the
nations.
They took the labor of the peoples in possession, ⁴⁵that they might keep his statutes, and observe his laws.
Praise YAH!

Psalm 106

¹Praise YAH!

Give thanks to the LORD, for
he is good,
for his loving kindness
endures forever.

²Who can utter the mighty acts of
the LORD,
or fully declare all his praise?

³Happy are those who uphold
justice,
who do what is right at all times.

⁴Remember me, LORD, with the favor that you show to
your people.
Visit me with your salvation,

⁵that I may see the prosperity of your chosen,
that I may rejoice in the gladness of your
nation,
that I may glory with your
inheritance.

⁶We have sinned with our fathers.
We have committed iniquity.
We have done wickedly.

⁷Our fathers did not understand your wonders in Egypt.
They did not remember the multitude of your
loving kindnesses,

but were rebellious at the sea, even at the Sea of Suf.^a

⁸Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake,
that he might make his mighty power known.

⁹He rebuked the Sea of Suf also,
and it was dried up;
so he led them through the depths, as through a desert.

¹⁰He saved them from the hand of him who hated them,
and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

¹¹The waters covered their
adversaries.
There was not one of them
left.

¹²Then they believed his words.
They sang his praise.

¹³They soon forgot his works.
They did not wait for his counsel,

¹⁴but gave in to craving in
the desert,
and tested God in the wasteland.

¹⁵He gave them their request, but sent leanness into their
soul.

¹⁶They envied Moses also in the camp,
and Aaron, the LORD's holy
one.

¹⁷The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan,
and covered the company of Abiram.

^a106:7 "Sea of Extinction", "Sea at the End", "Sea of Reeds." LXX: "Red Sea"

- ¹⁸A fire was kindled in their company.
The flame burned up the wicked.
- ¹⁹They made a calf in Horeb, and worshiped a molten image.
- ²⁰Thus they exchanged their glory for an image of a bull that eats grass.
- ²¹They forgot God, their Savior,
who had done great things in Egypt, ²²Wondrous works in the land of Ham,
and awesome things by the Sea of Suf.
- ²³Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had Moses, his chosen, not stood before him in the breach,
to turn away his wrath, so that he wouldn't destroy them.
- ²⁴Yes, they despised the pleasant land.
They did not believe his word, ²⁵but murmured in their tents,
and did not listen to the LORD's voice.
- ²⁶Therefore he swore to them that he would overthrow them in the wilderness, ²⁷that he would overthrow their seed among the nations, and scatter them in the lands.
- ²⁸They joined themselves also to Baal Peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.
- ²⁹Thus they provoked him to anger with their deeds.
- The plague broke in on them.
- ³⁰Then Phinehas stood up, and executed judgment,
so the plague was stopped.
- ³¹That was credited to him as righteousness,
for all generations to come.
- ³²They angered him also at the waters of Meribah,
so that Moses was troubled for their sakes; ³³because they were rebellious against his spirit,
he spoke rashly with his lips.
- ³⁴They did not destroy the peoples,
as the LORD commanded them, ³⁵but mixed themselves with the nations,
and learned their works.
- ³⁶They served their idols,
which became a snare to them.
- ³⁷Yes, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
³⁸They shed innocent blood,
even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan.
The land was polluted with blood.
- ³⁹Thus were they defiled with their works,
and prostituted themselves in their deeds.
- ⁴⁰Therefore the LORD burned with anger against his people.
He abhorred his inheritance.
- ⁴¹He gave them into the hand of the nations.
Those who hated them ruled over them.

⁴²Their enemies also oppressed
them.
They were brought into subjection under their
hand.
⁴³Many times he delivered them, but they were rebellious in their counsel,
and were brought low in their iniquity.
⁴⁴Nevertheless he regarded their
distress,
when he heard their cry.
⁴⁵He remembered for them his
covenant,
and repented according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.
⁴⁶He made them also to be pitied by all those who carried them captive.
⁴⁷Save us, LORD, our God, gather us from among the
nations,
to give thanks to your holy
name,
to triumph in your praise!
⁴⁸Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting even to
everlasting!
Let all the people say, "Amen."
Praise YAH!

BOOK V

Psalm 107

¹Give thanks to the LORD,
for he is good,

for his loving kindness endures
forever.
²Let the redeemed by the LORD say so,
whom he has redeemed from the hand of the adversary,
³And gathered out of the lands,
from the east and from the
west,
from the north and from the south.
⁴They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way.
They found no city to live
in.
⁵Hungry and thirsty,
their soul fainted in them.
⁶Then they cried to the LORD in
their trouble,
and he delivered them out of
their distresses,
⁷he led them also by a straight
way,
that they might go to a city
to live in.
⁸Let them praise the LORD for his
loving kindness,
for his wonderful works to
the children of men!
⁹For he satisfies the longing soul.
He fills the hungry soul with
good.
¹⁰Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,
being bound in affliction and
iron, ¹¹because they rebelled against the words of God,
and condemned the counsel
of the Most High.
¹²Therefore he brought down their heart with labor.

- They fell down, and there was none to help.
- ¹³Then they cried to the LORD in
their trouble,
and he saved them out of
their distresses.
- ¹⁴He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of
death,
and broke their bonds in
sunder.
- ¹⁵Let them praise the LORD for his
loving kindness,
for his wonderful works to
the children of men!
- ¹⁶For he has broken the gates of
brass,
and cut through bars of iron.
- ¹⁷Fools are afflicted because of their disobedience,
and because of their
iniquities.
- ¹⁸Their soul abhors all kinds of
food.
They draw near to the gates of death.
- ¹⁹Then they cry to the LORD in
their trouble,
he saves them out of their distresses.
- ²⁰He sent his word and healed
them,
and delivered them from the
pit.
- ²¹Let them praise the LORD for his
loving kindness,
for his wonderful works to
the children of men!
- ²²Let them offer the sacrifices of
thanksgiving,
and declare his works with singing.
- ²³Those who go down to the sea in ships,
who do business in great
waters;
- ²⁴These see the LORD's
works,
and his wonders in the deep.
- ²⁵For he commands, and raises the stormy wind,
which lifts up its waves.
- ²⁶They mount up to the sky; they go down again to the depths.
Their soul melts away
because of trouble.
- ²⁷They reel back and forth, and stagger like a drunken
man,
and are at their wits' end.
- ²⁸Then they cry to the LORD in
their trouble,
and he brings them out of their distress.
- ²⁹He makes the storm a calm,
so that its waves are still.
- ³⁰Then they are glad because it is calm,
so he brings them to their desired haven.
- ³¹Let them praise the LORD for his
loving kindness,
for his wonderful works for
the children of men!
- ³²Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the
people,
and praise him in the seat of the elders.
- ³³He turns rivers into a desert,
water springs into a thirsty
ground,
- ³⁴and a fruitful land into a salt waste,
for the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
- ³⁵He turns a desert into a pool of
water,

and a dry land into water springs.
³⁶There he makes the hungry live, that they may prepare a city
to live in,
³⁷sow fields, plant vineyards, and reap the fruits of
increase.
³⁸He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied
greatly.
He doesn't allow their livestock to decrease.
³⁹Again, they are diminished and bowed down
through oppression, trouble,
and sorrow.
⁴⁰He pours contempt on princes, and causes them to wander
in a trackless waste.
⁴¹Yet he lifts the needy out of their
affliction,
and increases their families
like a flock.
⁴²The upright will see it, and be glad.
All the wicked will shut
their mouths.
⁴³Whoever is wise will pay attention to these
things.
They will consider the loving kindnesses of
the LORD.

Psalm 108

A Song. A Psalm by David.

¹My heart is steadfast, God.
I will sing and I will make music with my soul.
²Wake up, harp and lyre!
I will wake up the dawn.

³I will give thanks to you, LORD,
among the nations.
I will sing praises to you
among the peoples.
⁴For your loving kindness is great above the heavens.
Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.
⁵Be exalted, God, above the
heavens!
Let your glory be over all
the earth.
⁶That your beloved may be delivered,
save with your right hand,
and answer us.
⁷God has spoken from his sanctuary: "In triumph,
I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley
of Succoth.
⁸Gilead is mine. Manasseh is mine.
Ephraim also is my helmet.
Judah is my scepter.
⁹Moab is my wash pot.
I will toss my sandal on Edom.
I will shout over Philistia." ¹⁰Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who has led me to Edom?
¹¹Haven't you rejected us, God?
You do not go forth, God,
with our armies.
¹²Give us help against the enemy,
for the help of man is vain.
¹³Through God, we will do
valiantly.
For it is he who will trample down our enemies.

Psalm 109

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

¹God of my praise, do not remain silent,
²for they have opened the mouth of the wicked
and the mouth of deceit against me.
They have spoken to me
with a lying tongue.
³They have also surrounded me with words of hatred, and fought against me
without a cause.
⁴In return for my love, they are my
adversaries;
but I am in prayer.
⁵They have rewarded me evil for
good,
and hatred for my love.
⁶Set a wicked man over him.
Let an adversary stand at his
right hand.
⁷When he is judged, let him come forth guilty.
Let his prayer be turned into
sin.
⁸Let his days be few.
Let another take his office.^a ⁹Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.
¹⁰Let his children be wandering beggars.
Let them be sought from their ruins.
¹¹Let the creditor seize all that he has.
Let strangers plunder the fruit of his labor.

¹²Let there be none to extend kindness to him,
neither let there be any to have pity on his fatherless children.
¹³Let his posterity be cut off.
In the generation following let their name be blotted out.
¹⁴Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered by the
LORD.
Do not let the sin of his mother be blotted out.
¹⁵Let them be before the LORD
continually,
that he may cut off the memory of them from
the earth;
¹⁶because he did not remember to show kindness, but persecuted the poor and needy man,
the broken in heart, to kill
them.
¹⁷Yes, he loved cursing, and it came to him.
He did not delight in blessing, and it was far
from him.
¹⁸He clothed himself also with cursing as with his
garment.
It came into his inward parts like water,
like oil into his bones.
¹⁹Let it be to him as the clothing with which he covers
himself,
for the belt that is always around him.
²⁰This is the reward of my adversaries from the LORD,
of those who speak evil against my soul.

^a109:8 Acts 1:20

²¹But deal with me, the LORD the Lord, for your name's
sake,
because your loving kindness is good,
deliver me;
²²for I am poor and needy.
My heart is wounded within
me.
²³I fade away like an evening
shadow.
I am shaken off like a locust.
²⁴My knees are weak through fasting.
My body is thin and lacks
fat.
²⁵I have also become a reproach to
them.
When they see me, they shake their head.
²⁶Help me, LORD, my God.
Save me according to your
loving kindness;
²⁷that they may know that this is
your hand;
that you, LORD, have done
it.
²⁸They may curse, but you bless.
When they arise, they will be shamed,
but your servant shall
rejoice.
²⁹Let my adversaries be clothed with dishonor.
Let them cover themselves with their own shame
as with a robe.
³⁰I will give great thanks to the LORD with my mouth.
Yes, I will praise him among the multitude.
³¹For he will stand at the right hand of the needy,
to save him from those who
judge his soul.

Psalm 110

A Psalm by David.

¹The LORD says to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand,
until I make your enemies your footstool for your feet."^a ²The LORD will send forth the rod of your strength out of
Zion.
Rule in the midst of your
enemies.
³Your people offer themselves willingly in the day of your power, in holy array.^b
Out of the womb of the morning, you have the dew of your youth.
⁴The LORD has sworn, and will not change his mind:
"You are a priest forever^c in the order of Melchizedek."^d
⁵The Lord is at your right hand.
He will crush kings in the day of his wrath.
⁶He will judge among the nations.
He will heap up dead bodies.
He will crush the ruler of the whole earth.
⁷He will drink of the brook in the
way;

^a112:9 2Corinthians 9:9

¹When Israel went forth out of Egypt,
the house of Jacob from a people of foreign language;
²Judah became his sanctuary,
Israel his dominion.
³The sea saw it, and fled.
The Jordan was driven back.
⁴The mountains skipped like rams,
the little hills like lambs.
⁵What was it, you sea, that you

water,
the flint into a spring of waters.

Psalm 115

¹Not to us, LORD, not to us, but to your name give glory,
for your loving kindness, and for your truth's
sake.
²Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God, now?"
³But our God is in the heavens.
He does whatever he pleases.
⁴Their idols are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.
⁵They have mouths, but they do

Psalm 116

¹I love the LORD, because he listens to my voice,
 and my cries for mercy.
²Because he has turned his ear to
 me,
 therefore I will call on him
 as long as I live.
³The cords of death surrounded
 me,
 the pains of Sheol got a hold of me.
 I found trouble and sorrow.
⁴Then I called on the name of the
 LORD:
 "LORD, I beg you, deliver
 my soul."
⁵The LORD is Gracious and
 righteous.
 Yes, our God is merciful.
⁶The LORD preserves the simple.
 I was brought low, and he saved me.
⁷Return to your rest, my soul,
 for the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.
⁸For you have delivered my soul
 from death,
 my eyes from tears,
 and my feet from falling.
⁹I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living.
¹⁰I believed, therefore I said,^a

^a116:10 2Corinthians 4:13

"I am greatly afflicted."
¹¹I said in my haste,
 "All men are liars."
¹²What will I give to the LORD for

Praise YAH!

Psalm 118

¹Give thanks to the LORD, for he
is good,
for his loving kindness
endures forever.
²Let Israel now say
that his loving kindness
endures forever.
³Let the house of Aaron now say
that his loving kindness
endures forever.
⁴Now let those who fear the LORD
say
that his loving kindness
endures forever.
⁵Out of my distress, I called on YAH.
YAH answered me with freedom.
⁶The LORD is on my side. I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?^a ⁷The LORD is on my side among those who help me.
Therefore I will look in triumph at those who hate me.
⁸It is better to take refuge in the LORD,
than to put confidence in
man.
⁹It is better to take refuge in the LORD,
than to put confidence in
princes.
¹⁰All the nations surrounded me,
but in the name of the LORD,
I cut them off.

¹¹They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded me.
In the name of the LORD I
indeed cut them off.
¹²They surrounded me like bees.
They are quenched like the burning thorns.
In the name of the LORD I cut them off.
¹³You pushed me back hard, to make me fall,
but the LORD helped me.
¹⁴YAH is my strength and song.
He has become my
salvation.
¹⁵The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents
of the righteous.
“The right hand of the LORD
does valiantly.
¹⁶The right hand of the LORD is
exalted!
The right hand of the LORD
does valiantly!”
¹⁷I will not die, but live, and declare the works of the
LORD.
¹⁸YAH has punished me severely, but he has not given me over to death.
¹⁹Open to me the gates of
righteousness.
I will enter into them and
praise YAH.
²⁰This is the gate of the LORD;
the righteous will enter into
it.
²¹I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me,
and have become my
salvation.

rejected has become the cornerstone.^a

²³This is the LORD's doing.
It is marvelous in our eyes.

²⁴This is the day that the LORD has made.
We will rejoice and be glad
in it!

²⁵Save us now, we beg you,
LORD!
LORD, we beg you, send prosperity now.

²⁶Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD!^b
We have blessed you out of the house of the
LORD.

²⁷The LORD is God, and he has given us light.
Bind the sacrifice with cords, even to the horns of the altar.

²⁸You are my God, and I will give thanks to you.
You are my God, I will exalt
you.

²⁹Oh give thanks to the LORD, for
he is good,
for his loving kindness
endures forever.

ALEPH

¹Happy are those whose ways are blameless,
who walk according to the law of the LORD!

²Happy are those who keep his
statutes,
who seek him with their
whole heart.

³Yes, they do nothing wrong.
They walk in his ways.

⁴You have commanded your
precepts,
that we should fully obey
them.

⁵Oh that my ways were steadfast to obey your statutes!

⁶Then I wouldn't be disappointed, when I consider all of your
commandments.

⁷I will give thanks to you with uprightness of heart, when I learn your righteous judgments.

⁸I will observe your statutes.
Do not utterly forsake me.

BET

⁹How can a young man keep his way pure?
By living according to your
word.

¹⁰With my whole heart, I have sought you.
Do not let me wander from your commandments.

that I might not sin against
you.

¹²Blessed are you, LORD.
Teach me your statutes.

¹³With my lips,
I have declared all the ordinances of your
mouth.

¹⁴I have rejoiced in the way of your testimonies,
as much as in all riches.

¹⁵I will meditate on your precepts, and consider your ways.

¹⁶I will delight myself in your
statutes.
I will not forget your word.

GIMEL

¹⁷Do good to your servant.
I will live and I will obey
your word.

¹⁸Open my eyes,
that I may see wondrous things out of your Law.

¹⁹I am a stranger on the earth.
Do not hide your commandments from
me.

²⁰My soul is consumed with longing for your ordinances at all times.

²¹You have rebuked the proud who are cursed,
who wander from your
commandments.

²²Take reproach and contempt away from me,
for I have kept your statutes.

²³Though princes sit and slander
me,
your servant will meditate on your statutes.

²⁴Indeed your statutes are my delight,
and my counselors.

DALET

²⁵My soul is laid low in the dust.
Revive me according to your
word!

²⁶I declared my ways, and you answered me.
Teach me your statutes.

²⁷Let me understand the teaching of your precepts!
Then I will meditate on your
wondrous works.

²⁸My soul is weary with sorrow:
strengthen me according to
your word.

²⁹Keep me from the way of deceit.
Grant me your Law graciously!

³⁰I have chosen the way of truth.
I have set your ordinances
before me.

³¹I cling to your statutes, LORD.
Do not let me be
disappointed.

³²I run in the path of your
commandments,
for you have set my heart
free.

HEY

³³Teach me, LORD, the way of
your statutes.
I will keep them to the end.

³⁴Give me understanding, and I will keep your Law.
Yes, I will obey it with my
whole heart.

³⁵Direct me in the path of your
commandments,
for I delight in them.
³⁶Turn my heart toward your
statutes,
not toward selfish gain.
³⁷Turn my eyes away from looking at worthless things.
Revive me in your ways.
³⁸Fulfill your promise to your
servant,
that you may be feared.
³⁹Take away my disgrace that I dread,
for your ordinances are
good.
⁴⁰Behold, I long for your precepts!
Revive me in your
righteousness.

VAV

⁴¹Let your loving kindness also come to me, LORD, your salvation, according to
your word.
⁴²So I will have an answer for him who reproaches me,
for I trust in your word.
⁴³Do not snatch the word of truth out of my mouth,
for I put my hope in your
ordinances.
⁴⁴So I will obey your Law
continually,
forever and ever.
⁴⁵I will walk in liberty, for I have sought your
precepts.
⁴⁶I will also speak of your statutes before kings,
and will not be disappointed.
⁴⁷I will delight myself in your
commandments,
because I love them.

⁴⁸I reach out my hands for your commandments, which I love.
I will meditate on your
statutes.

ZAYIN

⁴⁹Remember your word to your
servant,
because you gave me hope.
⁵⁰This is my comfort in my
affliction,
for your word has revived
me.
⁵¹The arrogant mock me excessively,
but I do not swerve from
your Law.
⁵²I remember your ordinances of old, LORD,
and have comforted myself.
⁵³Indignation has taken hold on
me,
because of the wicked who forsake your Law.
⁵⁴Your statutes have been my songs,
in the house where I live.
⁵⁵I have remembered your name, LORD, in the night,
and I obey your Law.
⁵⁶This is my way,
that I keep your precepts.

HET

⁵⁷The LORD is my portion.
I promised to obey your
words.
⁵⁸I sought your favor with my whole heart.

Be merciful to me according
to your word.

⁵⁹I considered my ways, and turned my steps to your
statutes.

⁶⁰I will hurry, and not delay, to obey your
commandments.

⁶¹The ropes of the wicked bind
me,
but I won't forget your Law.

⁶²At midnight I will rise to give
thanks to you,
because of your righteous
ordinances.

⁶³I am a friend of all those who fear you,
of those who observe your
precepts.

⁶⁴The earth is full of your loving kindness, LORD.
Teach me your statutes.

TET

⁶⁵Do good to your servant,
according to your word,
LORD.

⁶⁶Teach me good judgment and
knowledge,
for I believe in your
commandments.

⁶⁷Before I was afflicted, I went astray;
but now I observe your
word.

⁶⁸You are good, and do good.
Teach me your statutes.

⁶⁹The proud have smeared a lie upon me.
With my whole heart, I will keep your precepts.

⁷⁰Their heart is as callous as the
fat,

but I delight in your Law.

⁷¹It is good for me that I have been afflicted,
that I may learn your
statutes.

⁷²The Law you have spoken is better to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

YOD

⁷³Your hands have made me and formed me.
Give me understanding, that I may learn your
commandments.

⁷⁴Those who fear you will see me
and be glad,
because I have put my hope in your word.

⁷⁵LORD, I know that your judgments are
righteous,
that in faithfulness you have humbled^a me.

⁷⁶Please let your loving kindness be for my comfort,
according to your word to
your servant.

⁷⁷Let your tender mercies come to me, that I may live;
for your Law is my delight.

⁷⁸Let the proud be disappointed, for they have overthrown me wrongfully.

I will meditate on your
precepts.

⁷⁹Let those who fear you turn to
me.

^a119:75 Or, afflicted

They will know your statutes.

⁸⁰Let my heart be blameless toward your decrees, that I may not be disappointed.

KAF

⁸¹My soul faints for your salvation. I hope in your word.

⁸²My eyes fail for your word. I say, "When will you comfort me?"

⁸³For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke. I do not forget your statutes.

⁸⁴How many are the days of your servant? When will you execute judgment on those who persecute me?

⁸⁵The proud have dug pits for me, contrary to your Law.

⁸⁶All of your commandments are faithful. They persecute me wrongfully.

Help me!

⁸⁷They had almost wiped me from the earth, but I did not forsake your precepts.

⁸⁸Preserve my life according to your loving kindness, so I will obey the statutes of your mouth.

LAMED

⁸⁹LORD, your word is settled in heaven forever.

⁹⁰Your faithfulness is to all generations.

You have established the earth, and it remains.

⁹¹Your laws remain to this day, for all things serve you.

⁹²Unless your Law had been my delight, I would have perished in my affliction.

⁹³I will never forget your precepts, for with them, you have revived me.

⁹⁴I am yours. Save me, for I have sought your precepts.

⁹⁵The wicked have waited for me, to destroy me. I will consider your statutes.

⁹⁶I have seen a limit to all perfection, but your commands are boundless.

MEM

⁹⁷How I love your Law! It is my meditation all day.

⁹⁸Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, for your commandments are always with me.

⁹⁹I have more understanding than all my teachers, for your testimonies are my meditation.

¹⁰⁰I understand more than the aged, because I have kept your precepts.

¹⁰¹I have kept my feet from every evil way, that I might observe your word.

¹⁰²I have not turned aside from your ordinances,
for you have taught me.
¹⁰³How sweet are your promises to my taste,
more than honey to my
mouth!
¹⁰⁴Through your precepts, I get
understanding;
therefore I hate every false
way.

NUN

¹⁰⁵Your word is a lamp to my feet, and a light for my path.
¹⁰⁶I have sworn, and have confirmed it,
that I will obey your righteous ordinances.
¹⁰⁷I am afflicted very much.
Revive me, LORD, according
to your word.
¹⁰⁸Accept, I beg you, the willing offerings of my mouth.
LORD, teach me your
ordinances.
¹⁰⁹My soul is continually in my
hand,
yet I won't forget your Law.
¹¹⁰The wicked have laid a snare for
me,
yet I haven't gone astray
from your precepts.
¹¹¹I have taken your testimonies as a heritage forever,
for they are the joy of my
heart.
¹¹²I have set my heart to perform
your statutes forever,
even to the end.

SAMEKH

¹¹³I hate double-minded men, but I love your Law.
¹¹⁴You are my hiding place and my shield.
I hope in your word.
¹¹⁵Depart from me, you evildoers, that I may keep the commandments of my
God.
¹¹⁶Uphold me according to your word, that I may live.
Let me not be ashamed of my hope.
¹¹⁷Hold me up, and I will be safe, and will have respect for
your statutes
continually.
¹¹⁸You reject all those who stray from your statutes,
for their deceit is in vain.
¹¹⁹You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross.
Therefore I love your
testimonies.
¹²⁰My flesh trembles for fear of
you.
I am afraid of your judgments.

AYIN

¹²¹I have done what is just and
righteous.
Do not leave me to my oppressors.
¹²²Ensure your servant's well-being.
Do not let the proud oppress
me.
¹²³My eyes fail looking for your
salvation,
for your righteous word.

¹²⁴Deal with your servant
according to your
loving kindness.
Teach me your statutes.

¹²⁵I am your servant. Give me
understanding,
that I may know your
testimonies.

¹²⁶It is time to act, LORD,
for they break your Law.

¹²⁷Therefore I love your commandments more than gold,
yes, more than pure gold.

¹²⁸Therefore I consider all of your precepts to be right.
I hate every false way.

PEY

¹²⁹Your testimonies are wonderful, therefore my soul keeps
them.

¹³⁰The entrance of your words gives light.
It gives understanding to the simple.

¹³¹I opened my mouth wide and panted,
for I longed for your
commandments.

¹³²Turn to me, and have mercy on
me,
as you always do to those who love your name.

¹³³Establish my footsteps in your
word.
Do not let any iniquity have dominion over me.

¹³⁴Redeem me from the oppression of man,
so I will observe your
precepts.

¹³⁵Make your face shine on your
servant.

Teach me your statutes.

¹³⁶Streams of tears run down my
eyes,
because they do not observe
your Law.

TZADE

¹³⁷You are righteous, LORD.

Your judgments are upright.

¹³⁸You have commanded your statutes in
righteousness.

They are fully trustworthy.

¹³⁹My zeal wears me out, because my enemies ignore your words.

¹⁴⁰Your promises have been thoroughly tested,
and your servant loves them.

¹⁴¹I am small and despised.
I do not forget your precepts.

¹⁴²Your righteousness is an everlasting
righteousness.

Your Law is truth.

¹⁴³Trouble and anguish have taken hold of me.

Your commandments are my delight.

¹⁴⁴Your testimonies are righteous
forever.

Give me understanding, that I may live.

QOPH

¹⁴⁵I have called with my whole
heart.

Answer me, LORD!

I will keep your statutes.

¹⁴⁶I have called to you. Save me!

I will obey your statutes.
¹⁴⁷I rise before dawn and cry for help.
I put my hope in your words.
¹⁴⁸My eyes stay open through the night watches, that I might meditate on your word.
¹⁴⁹Hear my voice according to your loving kindness.
Revive me, LORD, according to your ordinances.
¹⁵⁰They draw near who follow after wickedness.
They are far from your Law.
¹⁵¹You are near, LORD.
All your commandments are truth.
¹⁵²Of old I have known from your testimonies, that you have founded them forever.

RESH

¹⁵³Consider my affliction, and deliver me, for I do not forget your Law.
¹⁵⁴Plead my cause, and redeem me!
Revive me according to your promise.
¹⁵⁵Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek your statutes.
¹⁵⁶Great are your tender mercies, LORD.
Revive me according to your ordinances.
¹⁵⁷Many are my persecutors and my adversaries.
I haven't swerved from your testimonies.

¹⁵⁸I look at the faithless with loathing, because they do not observe your word.
¹⁵⁹Consider how I love your precepts.
Revive me, LORD, according to your loving kindness.
¹⁶⁰All of your words are truth.
Every one of your righteous ordinances endures forever.

SIN and SHIN

¹⁶¹Princes have persecuted me without a cause, but my heart stands in awe of your words.
¹⁶²I rejoice at your word,
as one who finds great spoil.
¹⁶³I hate and abhor falsehood.
I love your Law.
¹⁶⁴Seven times a day, I praise you, because of your righteous ordinances.
¹⁶⁵Those who love your Law have great peace.
Nothing causes them to stumble.
¹⁶⁶I have hoped for your salvation, LORD.
I have done your commandments.
¹⁶⁷My soul has observed your testimonies.
I love them exceedingly.
¹⁶⁸I have obeyed your precepts and your testimonies, for all my ways are before you.

TAV

- ¹⁶⁹Let my cry come before you,
LORD.
Give me understanding
according to your
word.
- ¹⁷⁰Let my supplication come
before you.
Deliver me according to
your word.
- ¹⁷¹Let my lips utter praise, for you teach me your
statutes.
- ¹⁷²Let my tongue sing of your
word,
for all your commandments
are righteousness.
- ¹⁷³Let your hand be ready to help
me,
for I have chosen your
precepts.
- ¹⁷⁴I have longed for your salvation,
LORD.
Your Law is my delight.
- ¹⁷⁵Let my soul live, that I may
praise you.
Let your ordinances help
me.
- ¹⁷⁶I have gone astray like a lost
sheep.
Seek your servant, for I do not forget your commandments.

Psalm 120

A Song of Ascents.

- ¹In my distress, I cried to the
LORD.
He answered me.

- ²Deliver my soul, LORD, from lying lips,
from a deceitful tongue.
- ³What will be given to you, and what will be done
more to you,
you deceitful tongue?
- ⁴Sharp arrows of the mighty,
with coals of juniper.
- ⁵Woe is me, that I live in Meshech,
that I dwell among the tents
of Kedar!
- ⁶My soul has had her dwelling too
long
with him who hates peace.
- ⁷I am for peace,
but when I speak, they are
for war.

Psalm 121

A Song of Ascents.

- ¹I will lift up my eyes to the hills.
Where does my help come from?
- ²My help comes from the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.
- ³He will not allow your foot to be moved.
He who keeps you will not slumber.
- ⁴Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
- ⁵The LORD is your keeper.
The LORD is your shade on
your right hand.
- ⁶The sun will not harm you by
day,
nor the moon by night.
- ⁷The LORD will keep you from all
evil.

He will keep your soul.
⁸The LORD will keep your going out and your coming
in,
from this time forth, and
forevermore.

Psalm 122

A Song of Ascents. By David.

¹I was glad when they said to me, “Let’s go to the LORD’s
house!”
²Our feet are standing within your gates, Jerusalem;
³Jerusalem, that is built as a city that is compact
together;
⁴where the tribes go up, even the tribes of YAH,
according to an ordinance
for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of
the LORD.
⁵For there are set thrones for
judgment,
the thrones of David’s
house.
⁶Pray for the peace of Jerusalem.
Those who love you will prosper.
⁷Peace be within your walls, and prosperity within your
palaces.
⁸For my brothers’ and companions’ sakes,
I will now say, “Peace be within you.”
⁹For the sake of the house of the LORD our God,
I will seek your good.

Psalm 123

A Song of Ascents.

¹To you I do lift up my eyes,
you who sit in the heavens.
²Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master,
as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress;
so our eyes look to the LORD, our God,
until he has mercy on us.
³Have mercy on us, LORD, have mercy on us,
for we have endured much
contempt.
⁴Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scoffing of those who are at ease,
with the contempt of the proud.

Psalm 124

A Song of Ascents. By David.

¹If it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
let Israel now say,
²if it had not been the LORD who
was on our side,
when men rose up against
us;
³then they would have swallowed us up alive,
when their wrath was kindled against us;
⁴then the waters would have overwhelmed us,
the stream would have gone
over our soul;

⁵then the proud waters would have gone over our soul.
⁶Blessed be the LORD,
who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.
⁷Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the fowler's
snare.
The snare is broken, and we have escaped.
⁸Our help is in the name of the
LORD,
who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A Song of Ascents.

¹Those who trust in the LORD are as Mount Zion,
which cannot be moved, but remains forever.
²As the mountains surround
Jerusalem,
so the LORD surrounds his people from this time
forth and forevermore.
³For the scepter of wickedness won't remain over the allotment of the
righteous;
so that the righteous won't use their hands to do
evil.
⁴Do good, LORD, to those who are
good,
to those who are upright in their hearts.
⁵But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways,
The LORD will lead them away with the workers
of iniquity.
Peace be on Israel.

Psalm 126

A Song of Ascents.

¹When the LORD brought back those who returned to
Zion,
we were like those who dream.
²Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with singing.
Then they said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things for them."
³The LORD has done great things for us,
and we are glad.
⁴Restore our fortunes again,
LORD,
like the streams in the Negev.
⁵Those who sow in tears will reap in joy.
⁶He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing,
will certainly come again with joy, carrying his sheaves.

Psalm 127

A Song of Ascents. By Solomon.

¹Unless the LORD builds the
house,
they labor in vain who build
it.
Unless the LORD watches over the
city,

the watchman guards it in vain.

²It is vain for you to rise up early,
to stay up late,
eating the bread of toil;
for he gives sleep to his loved ones.

³Behold, children are a heritage of
the LORD.

The fruit of the womb is his reward.

⁴As arrows in the hand of a mighty
man,
so are the children of youth.

⁵Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them.
They won't be disappointed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128

A Song of Ascents.

¹Happy is everyone who fears the
LORD,
who walks in his ways!

²For you will eat the labor of your
hands.

You will be happy, and it will be well with you.

³Your wife will be as a fruitful
vine,
in the innermost parts of
your house;
your children like olive plants,
around your table.

⁴Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD.

⁵May the LORD bless you out of Zion,

and may you see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life.

⁶Yes, may you see your children's
children.

Peace be upon Israel.

Psalm 129

A Song of Ascents.

¹Many times they have afflicted
me from my youth up.

Let Israel now say,

²many times they have afflicted
me from my youth up,
yet they have not prevailed
against me.

³The plowers plowed on my back.
They made their furrows
long.

⁴The LORD is righteous.
He has cut apart the cords of
the wicked.

⁵Let them be disappointed and turned backward,
all those who hate Zion.

⁶Let them be as the grass on the housetops,
which withers before it grows up;

⁷with which the reaper doesn't fill
his hand,
nor he who binds sheaves,
his bosom.

⁸Neither do those who go by say,
"The blessing of the LORD be on you.

We bless you in the name of
the LORD."

Psalm 130

A Song of Ascents.

- ¹Out of the depths I have cried to
you, LORD.
²Lord, hear my voice.
Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my
petitions.
³If you, YAH, kept a record of sins,
Lord, who could stand?
⁴But there is forgiveness with you, therefore you are feared.
⁵I wait for the LORD.
My soul waits.
I hope in his word.
⁶My soul longs for the Lord more than watchmen long
for the morning;
more than watchmen for the
morning.
⁷Israel, hope in the LORD, for with the LORD there is
loving kindness.
With him is abundant
redemption.
⁸He will redeem Israel from all their sins.

Psalm 131

A Song of Ascents. By David.

- ¹LORD, my heart isn't haughty, nor my eyes lofty;
nor do I concern myself with great matters,
or things too wonderful for
me.
²Surely I have stilled and quieted
my soul,

like a weaned child with his mother,

like a weaned child is my soul within me.

- ³Israel, hope in the LORD,
from this time forth and
forevermore.

Psalm 132

A Song of Ascents.

- ¹LORD, remember David and all his affliction, ²how he swore to the LORD, and vowed to the Mighty
One of Jacob:
³"Surely I will not come into the structure of my house,
nor go up into my bed;
⁴I will not give sleep to my eyes,
or slumber to my eyelids; ⁵until I find out a place for the LORD,
a dwelling for the Mighty
One of Jacob."
⁶Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah.
We found it in the field of Jaar:
⁷"We will go into his dwelling
place.
We will worship at his footstool.
⁸Arise, LORD, into your resting
place;
you, and the ark of your
strength.
⁹Let your priest be clothed with
righteousness.
Let your holy ones shout for
joy!"
¹⁰For your servant David's sake,

Psalm 133

do not turn away the face of your anointed one.

¹¹The LORD has sworn to David in
truth.

He will not turn from it:
“I will set the fruit of your body on your throne.

¹²If your children will keep my
covenant,
my testimony that I will teach them,
their children also will sit on your throne
forevermore.”

¹³For the LORD has chosen Zion.
He has desired it for his habitation.

¹⁴“This is my resting place forever.
Here I will live, for I have desired it.

¹⁵I will abundantly bless her provision.
I will satisfy her poor with bread.

¹⁶Her priests I will also clothe with
salvation.

Her holy ones will shout aloud for joy.

¹⁷There I will make the horn of David to bud.

I have ordained a lamp for my anointed.

¹⁸I will clothe his enemies with
shame,
but on himself, his crown will be resplendent.”

Psalm 133

A Song of Ascents. By David.

¹See how good and how pleasant it
is

for brothers to live together in unity!

²It is like the precious oil on the head,
that ran down on the beard,
even Aaron’s beard;
that came down on the edge of his robes;

³like the dew of Hermon, that comes down on the hills of Zion:
for there the LORD gives the blessing,
even life forevermore.

Psalm 134

A Song of Ascents.

¹Look! Praise the LORD, all you servants of the LORD, who stand by night in the LORD’s house!

²Lift up your hands in the
sanctuary.

Praise the LORD!

³May the LORD bless you from
Zion;
even he who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 135

¹Praise YAH!

Praise the name of the
LORD!

Praise him, you servants of
the LORD,

²you who stand in the house of the LORD,
in the courts of our God’s
house.

³Praise YAH, for the LORD is good.
Sing praises to his name, for that is pleasant.

⁴For YAH has chosen Jacob for himself;
Israel for his own possession.

⁵For I know that the LORD is great, that our Lord is above all gods.

⁶Whatever the LORD pleased, that he has done, in heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps;

⁷who causes the clouds to rise from the ends of the earth;
who makes lightnings with the rain;
who brings forth the wind out of his treasuries;

⁸Who struck the firstborn of Egypt,
both of man and animal;

⁹Who sent signs and wonders into the midst of you,
Egypt,
on Pharaoh, and on all his servants;

¹⁰who struck many nations,
and killed mighty kings,

¹¹Sihon king of the Amorites, Og king of Bashan,
and all the kingdoms of Canaan,

¹²and gave their land for a heritage,
a heritage to Israel, his people.

¹³Your name, LORD, endures forever;
your renown, LORD,
throughout all generations.

¹⁴For the LORD will judge his people, and have compassion on his servants.

¹⁵The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.

¹⁶They have mouths, but they can't speak.
They have eyes, but they can't see.

¹⁷They have ears, but they can't hear;
neither is there any breath in their mouths.

¹⁸Those who make them will be like them;
yes, everyone who trusts in them.

¹⁹House of Israel, praise the LORD!
House of Aaron, praise the LORD!

²⁰House of Levi, praise the LORD!
You who fear the LORD,
praise the LORD!

²¹Blessed be the LORD from Zion, who dwells at Jerusalem.
Praise YAH!

Psalm 136

¹Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
for his loving kindness endures forever.

²Give thanks to the God of gods;
for his loving kindness endures forever.

³Give thanks to the Lord of lords;
for his loving kindness endures forever:

⁴To him who alone does great wonders;

- for his loving kindness
endures forever:
- ⁵To him who by understanding made the heavens;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
- ⁶To him who spread out the earth
above the waters;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
- ⁷To him who made the great lights;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
- ⁸The sun to rule by day;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
- ⁹The moon and stars to rule by
night;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
- ¹⁰To him who struck down the Egyptian firstborn;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
- ¹¹And brought out Israel from
among them;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
- ¹²With a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
- ¹³To him who divided the Sea of Suf apart;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
- ¹⁴And made Israel to pass through its midst;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
- ¹⁵But overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Sea of Suf;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
- ¹⁶To him who led his people through the
wilderness;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
- ¹⁷To him who struck great kings;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
- ¹⁸And killed mighty kings;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
- ¹⁹Sihon king of the Amorites;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
- ²⁰Og king of Bashan;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
- ²¹And gave their land as an
inheritance;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
- ²²Even a heritage to Israel his
servant;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
- ²³Who remembered us in our low estate;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
- ²⁴And has delivered us from our
adversaries;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
- ²⁵Who gives food to every creature;
for his loving kindness
endures forever.
- ²⁶Oh give thanks to the God of
heaven;
for his loving kindness
endures forever.

Psalm 137

¹By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down.
Yes, we wept, when we remembered Zion.
²On the willows in its midst,
we hung up our harps.
³For there, those who led us captive asked us for songs.
Those who tormented us demanded songs of
joy:
“Sing us one of the songs of Zion!”
⁴How can we sing the LORD’s song in a foreign land?
⁵If I forget you, Jerusalem, let my right hand forget its skill.
⁶Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I do not remember you;
if I do not prefer Jerusalem above my chief joy.
⁷Remember, LORD, against the children of Edom,
the day of Jerusalem;
who said, “Raze it!
Raze it even to its foundation!”
⁸Daughter of Babylon, doomed to
destruction,
he will be happy who rewards you,
as you have served us.
⁹Happy shall he be,
who takes and dashes your little ones against the rock.

Psalm 138

By David.

¹I will give you thanks with my whole heart.
Before the angels,^a I will sing praises to you.
²I will bow down toward your holy temple,
and give thanks to your Name for your loving kindness and for your
truth;
for you have exalted your Name and your Word
above all.
³In the day that I called, you
answered me.
You encouraged me with strength in my soul.
⁴All the kings of the earth will give you thanks,
LORD,
for they have heard the words of your mouth.
⁵Yes, they will sing of the ways of
the LORD;
for great is the LORD’s
glory.
⁶For though the LORD is high, yet he looks after the lowly;
but the proud, he knows
from afar.
⁷Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you will revive me.

^a138:1 Or, “gods.” MT Hebrew “elohim.” The word elohim, used here, usually means “God,” but can also mean “gods,” “angels,” or “princes.” LXX: “angels”

You will stretch forth your hand against the wrath of my enemies.

Your right hand will save
me.

⁸The LORD will fulfill that which concerns me;
your loving kindness, LORD,
endures forever.

Do not forsake the works of your own hands.

Psalm 139

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

¹LORD, you have searched me,
and you know me.

²You know my sitting down and my rising up.

You perceive my thoughts
from afar.

³You search out my path and my lying down,
and are acquainted with all my ways.

⁴For there is not a word on my tongue,
but, behold, LORD, you know it altogether.

⁵You hem me in behind and before.

You laid your hand on me.

⁶This knowledge is beyond me.
It's lofty.
I can't attain it.

⁷Where could I go from your Spirit?

Or where could I flee from
your presence?

⁸If I ascend up into heaven, you are there.

If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, you are there!

⁹If I take the wings of the dawn, and settle in the uttermost parts of the sea;

¹⁰Even there your hand will lead
me,
and your right hand will hold me.

¹¹If I say, "Surely the darkness will overwhelm me;
the light around me will be
night,"

¹²even the darkness doesn't hide
from you,
but the night shines as the
day.

The darkness is like light to
you.

¹³For you formed my inmost
being.

You knit me together in my mother's womb.

¹⁴I will give thanks to you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.

Your works are wonderful.
My soul knows that very well.

¹⁵My frame wasn't hidden from
you,
when I was made in secret, woven together in the depths
of the earth.

¹⁶Your eyes saw my body.

In your book they were all written,
the days that were ordained
for me,
when as yet there were none
of them.

¹⁷How precious to me are your thoughts, God!
How vast is the sum of
them!

¹⁸If I would count them, they are more in number than the sand.

When I wake up, I am still
with you.

¹⁹If only you, God, would kill the
wicked.

Get away from me, you
bloodthirsty men!

²⁰For they speak against you wickedly.

Your enemies take your name in vain.

²¹LORD, do I not hate those who hate you?

Am I not grieved with those who rise up against
you?

²²I hate them with perfect hatred.

They have become my
enemies.

²³Search me, God, and know my
heart.

Try me, and know my thoughts.

²⁴See if there is any wicked way in
me,

and lead me in the everlasting way.

Psalm 140

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

¹Deliver me, LORD, from the evil
man.

Preserve me from the violent
man;

²those who devise mischief in their hearts.

They continually gather themselves together
for war.

³They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent.
Viper's poison is under their lips.

Selah.

⁴LORD, keep me from the hands of
the wicked.

Preserve me from the violent men who have determined to trip my feet.

⁵The proud have hidden a snare for
me,

they have spread the cords of a net by the path.

They have set traps for me.

Selah.

⁶I said to the LORD, "You are my
God."

Listen to the cry of my petitions, LORD.

⁷LORD, the Lord, the strength of
my salvation,

you have covered my head
in the day of battle.

⁸LORD, do not grant the desires of
the wicked.

Do not let their evil plans succeed, or they will become proud.

Selah.

⁹As for the head of those who surround me,

let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

¹⁰Let burning coals fall on them.

Let them be thrown into the
fire,

into miry pits, from where they never rise.

¹¹An evil speaker won't be established in the
earth.

Evil will hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

¹²I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted,
and justice for the needy.
¹³Surely the righteous will give thanks to your name.
The upright will dwell in
your presence.

Psalm 141

A Psalm by David.

¹LORD, I have called on you.
Come to me quickly!
Listen to my voice when I call to you.
²Let my prayer be set before you like incense;
the lifting up of my hands
like the evening
sacrifice.
³Set a watch, LORD, before my
mouth.
Keep the door of my lips.
⁴Do not incline my heart to any evil thing,
to practice deeds of wickedness with men
who work iniquity.
Do not let me eat of their delicacies.
⁵Let the righteous strike me, it is
kindness;
let him reprove me, it is like oil on the head;
do not let my head refuse it; Yet my prayer is always against evil deeds.
⁶Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock.
They will hear my words,
for they are well
spoken.

⁷“As when one plows and breaks up the earth,
our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol.” ⁸For my eyes are on you, LORD,
the Lord.
In you, I take refuge.
Do not leave my soul
destitute.
⁹Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me,
from the traps of the workers
of iniquity.
¹⁰Let the wicked fall together into their own nets,
while I pass by.

Psalm 142

A contemplation by David, when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

¹I cry with my voice to the LORD.
With my voice, I ask the LORD for mercy.
²I pour out my complaint before
him.
I tell him my troubles.
³When my spirit was overwhelmed
within me,
you knew my path.
In the way in which I walk, they have hidden a snare for
me.
⁴Look on my right, and see;
for there is no one who is concerned for me.
Refuge has fled from me.
No one cares for my soul.
⁵I cried to you, LORD.
I said, “You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.” ⁶Listen to my cry,

for I am in desperate need.
 Deliver me from my persecutors, for they are stronger than
 me.
⁷Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks to
 your name.
 The righteous will surround me,
 for you will be good to me.

Psalm 143

A Psalm by David.

¹Hear my prayer, LORD.
 Listen to my petitions.
 In your faithfulness and righteousness, relieve
 me.
²Do not enter into judgment with
 your servant,
 for in your sight no man living is righteous.
³For the enemy pursues my soul.
 He has struck my life down
 to the ground.
 He has made me live in dark places, as those who have been long dead.
⁴Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within
 me.
 My heart within me is
 desolate.
⁵I remember the days of old.
 I meditate on all your doings.
 I contemplate the work of
 your hands.
⁶I spread forth my hands to you.
 My soul thirsts for you, like a parched land. Selah.
⁷Hurry to answer me, LORD.

My spirit fails.
 Do not hide your face from me,
 so that I do not become like those who go down into the pit.
⁸Cause me to hear your loving kindness in the
 morning,
 for I trust in you.
 Cause me to know the way in which I should walk,
 for I lift up my soul to you.
⁹Deliver me, LORD, from my
 enemies.
 I flee to you to hide me.
¹⁰Teach me to do your will,
 for you are my God.
 Your Spirit is good.
 Lead me in the land of uprightness.
¹¹Revive me, LORD, for your name's sake.
 In your righteousness, bring my soul out of trouble.
¹²In your loving kindness, cut off my enemies,
 and destroy all those who afflict my soul,
 For I am your servant.

Psalm 144

By David.

¹Blessed be the LORD, my rock, who teaches my hands to war,
 and my fingers to battle: ²my loving kindness, my fortress,
 my high tower, my deliverer, my shield, and he in whom I
 take refuge;
 who subdues my people
 under me.

³LORD, what is man, that you care for him?

Or the son of man, that you think of him?

⁴Man is like a breath.

His days are like a shadow that passes away.

⁵Part your heavens, LORD, and
come down.

Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.

⁶Throw out lightning, and scatter
them.

Send out your arrows, and rout them.

⁷Stretch out your hand from above, rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters,
out of the hands of foreigners;

⁸whose mouths speak deceit,
Whose right hand is a right
hand of falsehood.

⁹I will sing a new song to you,
God.

On a ten-stringed lyre, I will
sing praises to you.

¹⁰You are he who gives salvation to kings,

who rescues David, his servant, from the deadly sword.

¹¹Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hands of foreigners,

whose mouths speak deceit,
whose right hand is a right
hand of falsehood.

¹²Then our sons will be like well-nurtured plants,
our daughters like pillars carved to adorn a palace.

¹³Our barns are full, filled with all kinds of provision.

Our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields.

¹⁴Our oxen will pull heavy loads.
There is no breaking in, and no going away,

and no outcry in our streets.

¹⁵Happy are the people who are in such a situation.

Happy are the people whose
God is the LORD.

Psalm 145

A praise psalm by David.

ALEPH

¹I will exalt you, my God, the King.

I will praise your name
forever and ever.

BET

²Every day I will praise you.
I will extol your name
forever and ever.

GIMEL

³Great is the LORD, and greatly to
be praised!
His greatness is unsearchable.

DALET

⁴One generation will commend your works to another,
and will declare your mighty
acts.

HEY

⁵Of the glorious majesty of your honor, of your wondrous works, I will meditate.

VAV

⁶Men will speak of the might of your awesome acts.
I will declare your greatness.

ZAYIN

⁷They will utter the memory of your great goodness, and will sing of your righteousness.

HET

⁸The LORD is gracious, merciful, slow to anger, and of great loving kindness.

TET

⁹The LORD is good to all.
His tender mercies are over all his works.

YOD

¹⁰All your works will give thanks to you, LORD.
Your holy ones will extol you.

KAPH

¹¹They will speak of the glory of your kingdom, and talk about your power;

LAMED

¹²to make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, the glory of the majesty of his kingdom.

MEM

¹³Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom.
Your dominion endures throughout all generations.

NUN

the LORD is faithful in all his words, and loving in all his deeds.^a

SAMEKH

¹⁴The LORD upholds all who fall, and raises up all those who are bowed down.

AYIN

¹⁵The eyes of all wait for you.
You give them their food in due season.

PEY

¹⁶You open your hand,
and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

TZADE

¹⁷The LORD is righteous in all his ways,

^a145:13 Some manuscripts omit these last two lines

Psalm 146

and gracious in all his works.

QOPH

¹⁸The LORD is near to all those who call on him,
to all who call on him in truth.

RESH

¹⁹He will fulfill the desire of those
who fear him.
He also will hear their cry,
and will save them.

SHIN

²⁰The LORD preserves all those who love him,
but all the wicked he will destroy.

TAV

²¹My mouth will speak the praise
of the LORD.
Let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

Psalm 146

¹Praise YAH!
Praise the LORD, my soul.
²While I live, I will praise the
LORD.
I will sing praises to my God
as long as I exist.
³Do not put your trust in princes, each a son of man in whom there is no help.
⁴His spirit departs, and he returns to the earth.

In that very day, his thoughts
perish.

⁵Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help,
whose hope is in the LORD
his God,

⁶who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in
them;

who keeps truth forever;

⁷who executes justice for the
oppressed;
who gives food to the hungry.

The LORD frees the prisoners.

⁸The LORD opens the eyes of the blind.

The LORD raises up those who are bowed down.

The LORD loves the
righteous.

⁹The LORD preserves the foreigners.

He upholds the fatherless
and widow,

but the way of the wicked he turns upside down.

¹⁰The LORD will reign forever;
your God, O Zion, to all generations.

Praise YAH!

Psalm 147

¹Praise YAH,
for it is good to sing praises
to our God;
for it is pleasant and fitting to praise him.
²The LORD builds up Jerusalem.
He gathers together the outcasts of Israel.
³He heals the broken in heart,
and binds up their wounds.

⁴He counts the number of the stars.
 He calls them all by their names.
⁵Great is our Lord, and mighty in power.
 His understanding is infinite.
⁶The LORD upholds the humble.
 He brings the wicked down
 to the ground.
⁷Sing to the LORD with
 thanksgiving.
 Sing praises on the harp to
 our God,
⁸who covers the sky with clouds, who prepares rain for the
 earth,
 who makes grass grow on the mountains.
⁹He provides food for the livestock,
 and for the young ravens
 when they call.
¹⁰He doesn't delight in the strength of the horse.
 He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man.
¹¹The LORD takes pleasure in those who fear him,
 in those who hope in his
 loving kindness.
¹²Praise the LORD, Jerusalem!
 Praise your God, Zion!
¹³For he has strengthened the bars of your gates.
 He has blessed your children
 within you.
¹⁴He makes peace in your borders.
 He fills you with the finest of the wheat.
¹⁵He sends out his commandment
 to the earth.
 His word runs very swiftly.
¹⁶He gives snow like wool, and scatters frost like ashes.
¹⁷He hurls down his hail like pebbles.

Who can stand before his cold?
¹⁸He sends out his word, and melts
 them.
 He causes his wind to blow,
 and the waters flow.
¹⁹He shows his word to Jacob;
 his statutes and his ordinances to Israel.
²⁰He has not done this for just any
 nation.
 They do not know his
 ordinances.
 Praise YAH!

Psalm 148

¹Praise YAH!
 Praise the LORD from the
 heavens!
 Praise him in the heights!
²Praise him, all his angels!
 Praise him, all his army!
³Praise him, sun and moon!
 Praise him, all you shining stars!
⁴Praise him, you heavens of
 heavens,
 You waters that are above
 the heavens.
⁵Let them praise the name of the
 LORD,
 For he commanded, and they were created.
⁶He has also established them
 forever and ever.
 He has made a decree which will not pass away.
⁷Praise the LORD from the earth, you great sea creatures, and all depths!
⁸Lightning and hail, snow and clouds;

Psalm 149

stormy wind, fulfilling his
word; ⁹mountains and all hills;
fruit trees and all cedars; ¹⁰wild animals and all livestock;
small creatures and flying birds;
¹¹kings of the earth and all
peoples;
princes and all judges of the
earth;
¹²both young men and maidens;
old men and children:
¹³let them praise the name of the LORD,
for his name alone is
exalted.
His glory is above the earth and the heavens.
¹⁴He has lifted up the horn of his
people,
the praise of all his holy
ones;
even of the children of Israel, a people near to
him.

Praise YAH!

Psalm 149

¹Praise YAH!
Sing to the LORD a new
song,
his praise in the assembly of the holy ones.
²Let Israel rejoice in him who made them.
Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
³Let them praise his name in the dance!
Let them sing praises to him with tambourine and
harp!

⁴For the LORD takes pleasure in his people.
He crowns the humble with
salvation.
⁵Let the holy ones rejoice in honor.
Let them sing for joy on their beds.
⁶May the high praises of God be in
their mouths,
and a two-edged sword in
their hand;
⁷To execute vengeance on the
nations,
and punishments on the
peoples;
⁸To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters
of iron;
⁹to execute on them the written
judgment.
All his holy ones have this honor.
Praise YAH!

Psalm 150

¹Praise YAH!
Praise God in his sanctuary!
Praise him in his heavens for his acts of power!
²Praise him for his mighty acts!
Praise him according to his excellent greatness!
³Praise him with the sounding of
the trumpet!
Praise him with harp and
lyre!
⁴Praise him with tambourine and dancing!
Praise him with stringed instruments and flute!
⁵Praise him with loud cymbals!

Praise him with resounding cymbals!

⁶Let everything that has breath
praise YAH!

Praise YAH!

Proverbs

1 The proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel:

²to know wisdom and instruction;
to discern the words of
understanding;

³to receive instruction in wise dealing,
in righteousness, justice, and equity;

⁴to give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the young man:

⁵that the wise man may hear, and increase in learning;
that the man of understanding may attain to sound
counsel:

⁶to understand a proverb, and
parables,
the words and riddles of the wise.

⁷The fear of the LORD is the beginning of
knowledge;
but the foolish despise wisdom and
instruction.

⁸My son, listen to your father's
instruction,
and do not forsake your
mother's teaching:

⁹for they will be a garland to grace your head,
and a necklace around your
neck.

¹⁰My son, if sinners entice you, do not consent.

¹¹If they say, "Come with us,
Let's lie in wait for blood;
let's lurk secretly for the innocent without
cause;

¹²let's swallow them up alive like Sheol,
and whole, like those who
go down into the pit.

¹³We'll find all valuable wealth.
We'll fill our houses with spoil.

¹⁴You shall cast your lot among
us.
We'll all have one purse."

¹⁵My son, do not walk in the way with them.
Keep your foot from their
path,

¹⁶for their feet run to evil.
They hurry to shed blood.

¹⁷For in vain is the net spread in the sight of any bird:

¹⁸but these lie in wait for their own
blood.
They lurk secretly for their own lives.

¹⁹So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain.
It takes away the life of its owners.

²⁰Wisdom calls aloud in the street.
She utters her voice in the public squares.

²¹She calls at the head of noisy
places.
At the entrance of the city gates, she utters her
words:

Proverbs 2

²²How long, you simple ones, will you love
simplicity?
How long will mockers delight themselves in mockery,
and fools hate knowledge?
²³Turn at my reproof.
Behold, I will pour out my spirit on you.
I will make known my words to you.
²⁴Because I have called, and you have refused;
I have stretched out my hand, and no one has paid attention;
²⁵but you have ignored all my
counsel,
and wanted none of my
reproof;
²⁶I also will laugh at your disaster.
I will mock when calamity overtakes you;
²⁷when calamity overtakes you like a storm,
when your disaster comes on
like a whirlwind;
when distress and anguish
come on you.
²⁸Then will they call on me, but I will not answer.
They will seek me
diligently, but they will not find me;
²⁹because they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear
of the LORD.
³⁰They wanted none of my
counsel.
They despised all my
reproof.
³¹Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own schemes.

³²For the backsliding of the simple will kill them.
The careless ease of fools will destroy them.
³³But whoever listens to me will dwell securely,
and will be at ease, without fear of harm.”

2 My son, if you will receive my words,
and store up my commandments within
you;

²So as to turn your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to
understanding;

³Yes, if you call out for discernment,
and lift up your voice for
understanding;

⁴If you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures:

⁵then you will understand the fear
of the LORD,
and find the knowledge of
God.

⁶For the LORD gives wisdom.
Out of his mouth comes knowledge and
understanding.

⁷He lays up sound wisdom for the upright.

He is a shield to those who walk in integrity;

⁸that he may guard the paths of
justice,
and preserve the way of his
holy ones.

⁹Then you will understand righteousness and
justice,
equity and every good path.

¹⁰For wisdom will enter into your heart.
 Knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.

¹¹Discretion will watch over you.
 Understanding will keep you, ¹²to deliver you from the way of evil,
 from the men who speak perverse things; ¹³who forsake the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness; ¹⁴who rejoice to do evil,
 and delight in the perverseness of evil; ¹⁵who are crooked in their ways,
 and wayward in their paths:
¹⁶To deliver you from the strange woman, even from the foreigner who flatters with her words; ¹⁷who forsakes the friend of her youth,
 and forgets the covenant of her God:
¹⁸for her house leads down to death,
 her paths to the dead.

¹⁹None who go to her return again, neither do they attain to the paths of life:
²⁰that you may walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

²¹For the upright will dwell in the land.
 The perfect will remain in it.

²²But the wicked will be cut off from the land.
 The treacherous will be rooted out of it.

3 My son, do not forget my teaching;
 but let your heart keep my commandments:
²for length of days, and years of life, and peace, will they add to you.

³Do not let kindness and truth forsake you.
 Bind them around your neck.
 Write them on the tablet of your heart.

⁴So you will find favor, and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

⁵Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.

⁶In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight.

⁷Do not be wise in your own eyes.
 Fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

⁸It will be health to your body, and nourishment to your bones.

⁹Honor the LORD with your substance, with the first fruits of all your increase: ¹⁰so your barns will be filled with plenty,
 and your vats will overflow with new wine.

¹¹My son, do not despise the LORD's discipline, neither be weary of his reproof:
¹²for whom the LORD loves, he reproves;

Proverbs 3

even as a father reproveth the son in whom he delights.^a

- ¹³Happy is the man who finds
wisdom,
the man who gets
understanding.
- ¹⁴For her good profit is better than getting silver,
and her return is better than fine gold.
- ¹⁵She is more precious than rubies.
None of the things you can desire are to be compared to her.
- ¹⁶Length of days is in her right
hand.
In her left hand are riches and honor.
- ¹⁷Her ways are ways of
pleasantness.
All her paths are peace.
- ¹⁸She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her.
Happy is everyone who retains her.
- ¹⁹By wisdom the LORD founded the
earth.
By understanding, he established the
heavens.
- ²⁰By his knowledge, the depths
were broken up,
and the skies drop down the dew.
- ²¹My son, let them not depart from
your eyes.
Keep sound wisdom and
discretion:
- ²²so they will be life to your soul,
and grace for your neck.

- ²³Then you shall walk in your way securely.
Your foot won't stumble.
- ²⁴When you lie down, you will not be afraid.
Yes, you will lie down, and your sleep will be sweet.
- ²⁵Do not be afraid of sudden fear, or of the storm of the wicked
when it comes:
- ²⁶for the LORD will be your
confidence,
and will keep your foot from being taken.
- ²⁷Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due,
when it is in the power of your hand to do it.
- ²⁸Do not say to your neighbor,
"Go, and come again;
tomorrow I will give it to
you,"
when you have it by you.
- ²⁹Do not devise evil against your
neighbor,
seeing he dwells securely by
you.
- ³⁰Do not strive with a man without
cause,
if he has done you no harm.
- ³¹Do not envy the man of violence.
Choose none of his ways.
- ³²For the perverse is an abomination to the
LORD,
but his friendship is with the
upright.
- ³³The LORD's curse is in the house
of the wicked,
but he blesses the habitation
of the righteous.

^a3:11-12 Hebrews 12:5-6

³⁴Surely he is scornful to scoffers,^a but he gives grace to the humble.^b

³⁵The wise will inherit glory, but shame will be the promotion of fools.

4 Listen, sons, to a father's instruction.
Pay attention and know
understanding;

²for I give you sound learning.
Do not forsake my law.

³For I was a son to my father, tender and an only child in the sight of my mother.

⁴He taught me, and said to me:
"Let your heart retain my
words.
Keep my commandments,
and live.

⁵Get wisdom.
Get understanding.
Do not forget, neither swerve from the words
of my mouth.

⁶Do not forsake her, and she will preserve you.
Love her, and she will keep
you.

⁷Wisdom is supreme.
Get wisdom.
Yes, though it costs all your possessions, get
understanding.

⁸Esteem her, and she will exalt
you.
She will bring you to honor,
when you embrace
her.

⁹She will give to your head a garland of grace.
She will deliver a crown of splendor to you."

¹⁰Listen, my son, and receive my sayings.
The years of your life will be many.

¹¹I have taught you in the way of wisdom.

I have led you in straight
paths.

¹²When you go, your steps will not be hampered.

When you run, you will not stumble.

¹³Take firm hold of instruction.
Do not let her go.
Keep her, for she is your
life.

¹⁴Do not enter into the path of the wicked.

Do not walk in the way of evil men.

¹⁵Avoid it, and do not pass by it.
Turn from it, and pass on.

¹⁶For they do not sleep, unless they do evil.

Their sleep is taken away, unless they make someone fall.

¹⁷For they eat the bread of
wickedness,
and drink the wine of
violence.

¹⁸But the path of the righteous is like the dawning light, that shines more and more until the perfect day.

¹⁹The way of the wicked is like
darkness.

They do not know what they stumble over.

²⁰My son, attend to my words.

^a3:34 LXX: "The Lord resists the proud." Compare Proverbs 21:24

^b3:34 James 4:6; 1Peter 5:5

Turn your ear to my sayings.
²¹Let them not depart from your eyes.
Keep them in the midst of your heart.
²²For they are life to him who finds them,
and health to all of his body.
²³Guard your heart with all diligence, for out of it is the wellspring of life.
²⁴Put away from yourself a perverse mouth.
Put corrupt lips far from you.
²⁵Let your eyes look straight ahead.
Fix your gaze directly before you.
²⁶Make the path of your feet level.^a Let all of your ways be established.
²⁷Do not turn to the right hand nor to the left.
Remove your foot from evil.

5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom.
Turn your ear to my understanding:

²that you may maintain discretion, that your lips may preserve knowledge.
³For the lips of an adulteress drip honey.
Her mouth is smoother than oil, ⁴But in the end she is as bitter as wormwood, and as sharp as a two-edged sword.

⁵Her feet go down to death.
Her steps lead straight to Sheol.
⁶She gives no thought to the way of life.
Her ways are crooked, and she doesn't know it.
⁷Now therefore, my sons, listen to me.
Do not depart from the words of my mouth.
⁸Remove your way far from her.
Do not come near the door of her house, ⁹lest you give your honor to others, and your years to the cruel one; ¹⁰lest strangers feast on your wealth, and your labors enrich another man's house.
¹¹You will groan at your latter end, when your flesh and your body are consumed, ¹²and say, "How I have hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof; ¹³neither have I obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor turned my ear to those who instructed me!
¹⁴I have come to the brink of utter ruin, in the midst of the gathered assembly." ¹⁵Drink water out of your own cistern, running water out of your own well.
¹⁶Should your springs overflow in the streets,

^a4:26 Hebrews 12:13

- streams of water in the
public squares?
¹⁷Let them be for yourself alone,
not for strangers with you.
¹⁸Let your spring be blessed.
Rejoice in the wife of your youth.
¹⁹A loving doe and a graceful deer—
let her breasts satisfy you at all times.
Be captivated always with her love.
²⁰For why should you, my son, be captivated with an adulteress?
Why embrace the bosom of
another?
²¹For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD.
He examines all his paths.
²²The evil deeds of the wicked ensnare him.
The cords of his sin hold him firmly.
²³He will die for lack of
instruction.
In the greatness of his folly,
he will go astray.

- 6 My son, if you have become collateral for your neighbor,
if you have struck your hands in pledge for a stranger;
²You are trapped by the words of
your mouth.
You are ensnared with the words of your mouth.
³Do this now, my son, and deliver
yourself,
seeing you have come into the hand of your
neighbor.

- Go, humble yourself.
Press your plea with your
neighbor.
⁴Give no sleep to your eyes,
nor slumber to your eyelids.
⁵Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, like a bird from the snare of the fowler.
⁶Go to the ant, you sluggard.
Consider her ways, and be
wise;
⁷which having no chief, overseer,
or ruler,
⁸provides her bread in the summer,
and gathers her food in the harvest.
⁹How long will you sleep,
sluggard?
When will you arise out of your sleep?
¹⁰A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands
to sleep:
¹¹so your poverty will come as a robber,
and your scarcity as an armed man.
¹²A worthless person, a man of
iniquity,
is he who walks with a perverse mouth;
¹³who winks with his eyes, who signals with his feet, who motions with his fingers;
¹⁴in whose heart is perverseness, who devises evil continually,
who always sows discord.
¹⁵Therefore his calamity will come suddenly.

- He will be broken suddenly,
and that without remedy.
- ¹⁶There are six things which the LORD hates;
yes, seven which are an abomination to him:
¹⁷haughty eyes, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent
blood;
¹⁸a heart that devises wicked
schemes,
feet that are swift in running to mischief, ¹⁹a false witness who utters lies,
and he who sows discord among brothers.
- ²⁰My son, keep your father's commandment,
and do not forsake your
mother's teaching.
- ²¹Bind them continually on your
heart.
Tie them around your neck.
- ²²When you walk, it will lead you.
When you sleep, it will watch over you.
When you awake, it will talk
with you.
- ²³For the commandment is a lamp,
and the Law is light.
Reproofs of instruction are
the way of life,
- ²⁴to keep you from the immoral
woman,
from the flattery of the wayward wife's
tongue.
- ²⁵Do not lust after her beauty in
your heart,
neither let her captivate you with her eyelids.
- ²⁶For a prostitute reduces you to a piece of bread.
- The adulteress hunts for your precious life.
- ²⁷Can a man scoop fire into his lap,
and his clothes not be
burned?
- ²⁸Or can one walk on hot coals,
and his feet not be scorched?
- ²⁹So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife.
Whoever touches her will not be unpunished.
- ³⁰Men do not despise a thief,
if he steals to satisfy himself
when he is hungry:
³¹but if he is found, he shall restore seven times.
He shall give all the wealth of his house.
- ³²He who commits adultery with a woman is void of
understanding.
He who does it destroys his own soul.
- ³³He will get wounds and
dishonor.
His reproach will not be wiped away.
- ³⁴For jealousy arouses the fury of the husband.
He won't spare in the day of vengeance.
- ³⁵He won't regard any ransom, neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.
- 7 My son, keep my
words.
Lay up my commandments within
you.
- ²Keep my commandments and
live!

Guard my teaching as the apple of your eye.
³Bind them on your fingers.
Write them on the tablet of
your heart.
⁴Tell wisdom, "You are my sister."
Call understanding your relative,
⁵that they may keep you from the strange woman,
from the foreigner who flatters with her words.
⁶For at the window of my house,
I looked out through my lattice.
⁷I saw among the simple ones.
I discerned among the youths a young man
void of understanding, ⁸passing through the street near her corner,
he went the way to her
house,
⁹in the twilight, in the evening of the day,
in the middle of the night
and in the darkness.
¹⁰Behold, there a woman met him with the attire of a prostitute,
and with crafty intent.
¹¹She is loud and defiant.
Her feet do not stay in her
house.
¹²Now she is in the streets, now in the squares,
and lurking at every corner.
¹³So she caught him, and kissed
him.
With an impudent face she said to him:
¹⁴"Sacrifices of peace offerings are
with me.
This day I have paid my vows.

¹⁵Therefore I came out to meet
you,
to diligently seek your face,
and I have found you.
¹⁶I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry, with striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt.
¹⁷I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
¹⁸Come, let's take our fill of loving until the morning.
Let's solace ourselves with loving.
¹⁹For my husband isn't at home.
He has gone on a long journey.
²⁰He has taken a bag of money
with him.
He will come home at the full moon."
²¹With persuasive words, she led him astray.
With the flattering of her lips, she seduced him.
²²He followed her immediately, as an ox goes to the slaughter,
as a fool stepping into a noose.
²³Until an arrow strikes through his liver,
as a bird hurries to the snare,
and doesn't know that it will cost his life.
²⁴Now therefore, sons, listen to
me.
Pay attention to the words of my mouth.
²⁵Do not let your heart turn to her
ways.
Do not go astray in her
paths,

²⁶For she has thrown down many wounded.
Yes, all her slain are a mighty army.
²⁷Her house is the way to Sheol, going down to the chambers
of death.

8 Doesn't wisdom cry
out?
Doesn't understanding
raise her voice?
²On the top of high places by the
way,
where the paths meet, she stands.
³Beside the gates, at the entry of
the city,
at the entry doors, she cries aloud:
⁴"To you men, I call!
I send my voice to the sons of mankind.
⁵You simple, understand prudence.
You fools, be of an understanding heart.
⁶Hear, for I will speak excellent
things.
The opening of my lips is for right things.
⁷For my mouth speaks truth.
Wickedness is an abomination to my
lips.
⁸All the words of my mouth are in
righteousness.
There is nothing crooked or perverse in them.
⁹They are all plain to him who understands,
right to those who find
knowledge.
¹⁰Receive my instruction rather than silver;

knowledge rather than
choice gold.
¹¹For wisdom is better than rubies.
All the things that may be desired can't be compared to it.

¹²"I, wisdom, have made prudence
my dwelling.
Find out knowledge and
discretion.
¹³The fear of the LORD is to hate
evil.
I hate pride, arrogance, the evil way, and the perverse mouth.
¹⁴Counsel and sound knowledge
are mine.
I have understanding and
power.
¹⁵By me kings reign,
and princes decree justice.
¹⁶By me princes rule;
nobles, and all the righteous rulers of the earth.
¹⁷I love those who love me.
Those who seek me
diligently will find me.
¹⁸With me are riches, honor, enduring wealth, and
prosperity.
¹⁹My fruit is better than gold, yes,
than fine gold;
my yield than choice silver.
²⁰I walk in the way of
righteousness,
in the midst of the paths of
justice;
²¹That I may give wealth to those who love me.
I fill their treasuries.

²²"The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his work,
before his deeds of old.

²³I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning,
 before the earth existed.
²⁴When there were no depths, I was brought forth,
 when there were no springs abounding with water.
²⁵Before the mountains were settled in place,
 before the hills, I was brought forth;
²⁶while as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields,
 nor the beginning of the dust of the world.
²⁷When he established the heavens, I was there;
 when he set a circle on the surface of the deep, ²⁸when he established the clouds
 above,
 when the springs of the deep became strong,
²⁹when he gave to the sea its boundary,
 that the waters should not violate his
 commandment,
 when he marked out the foundations of the
 earth;
³⁰then I was the craftsman by his side.
 I was a delight day by day,
 always rejoicing before him, ³¹Rejoicing in his whole world.
 My delight was with the sons of men.
³²“Now therefore, my sons, listen
 to me,
 for happy are those who keep my ways!
³³Hear instruction, and be wise.
 Do not refuse it.

³⁴Blessed is the man who hears
 me,
 watching daily at my gates,
 waiting at my door posts!
³⁵For whoever finds me, finds life, and will obtain favor from
 the LORD.
³⁶But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul.
 All those who hate me love
 death.”

9 Wisdom has built her
 house.
 She has carved out her
 seven pillars.

²She has prepared her meat.
 She has mixed her wine.
 She has also set her table.
³She has sent out her maidens.
 She cries from the highest places of the city:
⁴“Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!”
 As for him who is void of understanding, she
 says to him,
⁵“Come, eat some of my bread, Drink some of the wine
 which I have mixed!
⁶Leave your simple ways, and live.
 Walk in the way of
 understanding.”
⁷He who corrects a mocker invites insult.
 He who reproves a wicked man invites abuse.
⁸Do not reprove a scoffer, lest he hate you.
 Reprove a wise man, and he will love you.
⁹Instruct a wise man, and he will be still wiser.

Proverbs 10

- Teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning.
- ¹⁰The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom.
The knowledge of the Holy
One is understanding.
- ¹¹For by me your days will be multiplied.
The years of your life will be increased.
- ¹²If you are wise, you are wise for
yourself.
If you mock, you alone will bear it.
- ¹³The foolish woman is loud, Undisciplined, and knows
nothing.
- ¹⁴She sits at the door of her house,
on a seat in the high places
of the city,
- ¹⁵To call to those who pass by,
who go straight on their
ways,
- ¹⁶“Whoever is simple, let him turn
in here.”
as for him who is void of
understanding, she
says to him,
- ¹⁷“Stolen water is sweet.
Food eaten in secret is pleasant.”
- ¹⁸But he doesn’t know that the dead are there,
that her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

10 The proverbs of Solomon.
A wise son makes a glad father;
but a foolish son brings grief
to his mother.

- ²Treasures of wickedness profit
nothing,
but righteousness delivers
from death.
- ³The LORD will not allow the soul of the righteous to go
hungry,
but he thrusts away the desire of the wicked.
- ⁴He becomes poor who works with a lazy hand,
but the hand of the diligent brings wealth.
- ⁵He who gathers in summer is a wise son,
but he who sleeps during the harvest is a son who causes shame.
- ⁶Blessings are on the head of the
righteous,
but violence covers the
mouth of the wicked.
- ⁷The memory of the righteous is
blessed,
but the name of the wicked will rot.
- ⁸The wise in heart accept
commandments,
but a chattering fool will
fall.
- ⁹He who walks blamelessly walks surely,
but he who perverts his ways
will be found out.
- ¹⁰One winking with the eye causes sorrow,
but a chattering fool will
fall.
- ¹¹The mouth of the righteous is a
spring of life,
but violence covers the
mouth of the wicked.
- ¹²Hatred stirs up strife,
but love covers all wrongs.

- ¹³Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has
discernment,
but a rod is for the back of him who is void of
understanding.
- ¹⁴Wise men lay up knowledge, but the mouth of the foolish is near ruin.
- ¹⁵The rich man's wealth is his
strong city.
The destruction of the poor is their poverty.
- ¹⁶The labor of the righteous leads to life.
The increase of the wicked leads to sin.
- ¹⁷He is in the way of life who
heeds correction,
but he who forsakes reproof leads others astray.
- ¹⁸He who hides hatred has lying
lips.
He who utters a slander is a fool.
- ¹⁹In the multitude of words there is no lack of
disobedience,
but he who restrains his lips
does wisely.
- ²⁰The tongue of the righteous is like choice silver.
The heart of the wicked is of little worth.
- ²¹The lips of the righteous feed
many,
but the foolish die for lack of
understanding.
- ²²The LORD's blessing brings wealth,
and he adds no trouble to it.
- ²³It is a fool's pleasure to do
wickedness,
but wisdom is a man of understanding's
pleasure.
- ²⁴What the wicked fear, will overtake them,
but the desire of the righteous will be granted.
- ²⁵When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more;
but the righteous stand firm
forever.
- ²⁶As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes,
so is the sluggard to those who send him.
- ²⁷The fear of the LORD prolongs
days,
but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.
- ²⁸The prospect of the righteous is
joy,
but the hope of the wicked
will perish.
- ²⁹The way of the LORD is a stronghold to the upright,
but it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.
- ³⁰The righteous will never be removed,
but the wicked will not dwell in the land.
- ³¹The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom,
but the perverse tongue will
be cut off.
- ³²The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable,
but the mouth of the wicked
is perverse.
- 11 A false balance is an abomination to
the LORD,
but accurate weights are his
delight.

- ²When pride comes, then comes
shame,
but with humility comes
wisdom.
- ³The integrity of the upright shall guide them,
but the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them.
- ⁴Riches do not profit in the day of
wrath,
but righteousness delivers
from death.
- ⁵The righteousness of the blameless will direct
his way,
but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.
- ⁶The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them, but the unfaithful will be trapped by evil desires.
- ⁷When a wicked man dies, hope perishes,
and expectation of power
comes to nothing.
- ⁸A righteous person is delivered
out of trouble,
and the wicked takes his
place.
- ⁹With his mouth the godless man destroys his neighbor, but the righteous will be delivered through
knowledge.
- ¹⁰When it goes well with the righteous, the city
rejoices.
When the wicked perish,
there is shouting.
- ¹¹By the blessing of the upright,
the city is exalted,
but it is overthrown by the
mouth of the wicked.
- ¹²One who despises his neighbor is void of wisdom,
but a man of understanding
holds his peace.
- ¹³One who brings gossip betrays a confidence,
but one who is of a trustworthy spirit is one who keeps a secret.
- ¹⁴Where there is no wise guidance,
the nation falls,
but in the multitude of counselors there is victory.
- ¹⁵He who is collateral for a stranger will suffer for
it,
but he who refuses pledges
of collateral is secure.
- ¹⁶A gracious woman obtains
honor,
but violent men obtain
riches.
- ¹⁷The merciful man does good to his own soul,
but he who is cruel troubles
his own flesh.
- ¹⁸Wicked people earn deceitful wages,
but one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward.
- ¹⁹He who is truly righteous gets
life.
He who pursues evil gets
death.
- ²⁰Those who are perverse in heart are an abomination to
the LORD,
but those whose ways are blameless are his
delight.
- ²¹Most certainly, the evil man will
not be unpunished,
but the seed of the righteous will be delivered.
- ²²Like a gold ring in a pig's snout,

- is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion.
- ²³The desire of the righteous is only good.
The expectation of the wicked is wrath.
- ²⁴There is one who scatters, and increases yet more.
There is one who withholds more than is appropriate, but gains
poverty.
- ²⁵The liberal soul shall be made
fat.
He who waters shall be watered also himself.
- ²⁶People curse someone who
withholds grain,
but blessing will be on the head of him who sells
it.
- ²⁷He who diligently seeks good seeks favor,
but he who searches after evil, it shall come to
him.
- ²⁸He who trusts in his riches will
fall,
but the righteous shall flourish as the green leaf.
- ²⁹He who troubles his own house
shall inherit the wind.
The foolish shall be servant
to the wise of heart.
- ³⁰The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life.
He who is wise wins souls.
- ³¹Behold, the righteous shall be repaid in the earth;
how much more the wicked
and the sinner!
- knowledge,
but he who hates reproof is stupid.
- ²A good man shall obtain favor
from the LORD,
but he will condemn a man of wicked devices.
- ³A man shall not be established by
wickedness,
but the root of the righteous
shall not be moved.
- ⁴A worthy woman is the crown of her husband,
but a disgraceful wife is as rottenness in his bones.
- ⁵The thoughts of the righteous are just,
but the advice of the wicked is deceitful.
- ⁶The words of the wicked are about lying in wait for
blood,
but the speech of the upright
rescues them.
- ⁷The wicked are overthrown, and
are no more,
but the house of the righteous shall stand.
- ⁸A man shall be commended
according to his
wisdom,
but he who has a warped mind shall be
despised.
- ⁹Better is he who is lightly esteemed, and has a
servant,
than he who honors himself,
and lacks bread.
- ¹⁰A righteous man regards the life of his animal,
but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.
- ¹¹He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread,

12 Whoever loves
 correction loves

but he who chases fantasies is void of
understanding.
¹²The wicked desires the plunder of evil men,
but the root of the righteous flourishes.
¹³An evil man is trapped by sinfulness of lips,
but the righteous shall come
out of trouble.
¹⁴A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth.
The work of a man's hands shall be rewarded to
him.
¹⁵The way of a fool is right in his own eyes,
but he who is wise listens to
counsel.
¹⁶A fool shows his annoyance the same day,
but one who overlooks an insult is prudent.
¹⁷He who is truthful testifies honestly,
but a false witness lies.
¹⁸There is one who speaks rashly like the piercing of a
sword,
but the tongue of the wise heals.
¹⁹Truth's lips will be established
forever,
but a lying tongue is only momentary.
²⁰Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil,
but joy comes to the promoters of peace.
²¹No mischief shall happen to the
righteous,
but the wicked shall be filled
with evil.

²²Lying lips are an abomination to
the LORD,
but those who do the truth
are his delight.
²³A prudent man keeps his
knowledge,
but the hearts of fools proclaim foolishness.
²⁴The hands of the diligent ones shall rule, but laziness ends in slave labor.
²⁵Anxiety in a man's heart weighs
it down,
but a kind word makes it
glad.
²⁶A righteous person is cautious in friendship,
but the way of the wicked leads them astray.
²⁷The slothful man doesn't roast his game,
but the possessions of diligent men are prized.
²⁸In the way of righteousness is
life;
in its path there is no death.

13 A wise son listens to his father's
instruction,
but a scoffer doesn't listen to rebuke.

²By the fruit of his lips, a man enjoys good things;
but the unfaithful crave
violence.
³He who guards his mouth guards his soul.
One who opens wide his lips comes to ruin.
⁴The soul of the sluggard desires,
and has nothing,

- but the desire of the diligent shall be fully satisfied.
- ⁵A righteous man hates lies,
but a wicked man brings shame and disgrace.
- ⁶Righteousness guards the way of
integrity,
but wickedness overthrows
the sinner.
- ⁷There are some who pretend to be rich, yet have nothing.
There are some who pretend to be poor, yet have great wealth.
- ⁸The ransom of a man's life is his
riches,
but the poor hear no threats.
- ⁹The light of the righteous shines brightly,
but the lamp of the wicked is snuffed out.
- ¹⁰Pride only breeds quarrels,
but with ones who take advice is wisdom.
- ¹¹Wealth gained dishonestly
dwindles away,
but he who gathers by hand
makes it grow.
- ¹²Hope deferred makes the heart
sick,
but when longing is fulfilled,
it is a tree of life.
- ¹³Whoever despises instruction
will pay for it,
but he who respects a command will be rewarded.
- ¹⁴The teaching of the wise is a
spring of life,
to turn from the snares of
death.
- ¹⁵Good understanding wins favor;
but the way of the unfaithful is hard.
- ¹⁶Every prudent man acts from
knowledge,
- but a fool exposes folly.
- ¹⁷A wicked messenger falls into
trouble,
but a trustworthy envoy gains healing.
- ¹⁸Poverty and shame come to him who refuses discipline, but he who heeds correction shall be honored.
- ¹⁹Longing fulfilled is sweet to the
soul,
but fools detest turning from
evil.
- ²⁰One who walks with wise men grows wise,
but a companion of fools
suffers harm.
- ²¹Misfortune pursues sinners, but prosperity rewards the
righteous.
- ²²A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children,
but the wealth of the sinner is stored for the
righteous.
- ²³An abundance of food is in poor people's fields,
but injustice sweeps it away.
- ²⁴One who spares the rod hates his son,
but one who loves him is careful to discipline
him.
- ²⁵The righteous one eats to the satisfying of his soul, but the belly of the wicked goes hungry.

14 Every wise woman
builds her house,
but the foolish one tears it down with her own hands.

Proverbs 14

- ²He who walks in his uprightness
fears the LORD,
but he who is perverse in his ways despises him.
- ³The fool's talk brings a rod to his back,
but the lips of the wise
protect them.
- ⁴Where no oxen are, the crib is clean,
but much increase is by the strength of the ox.
- ⁵A truthful witness will not lie, but a false witness pours out lies.
- ⁶A scoffer seeks wisdom, and doesn't find it,
but knowledge comes easily
to a discerning person.
- ⁷Stay away from a foolish man,
for you won't find
knowledge on his lips.
- ⁸The wisdom of the prudent is to think about his way,
but the folly of fools is
deceit.
- ⁹Fools mock at making atonement
for sins,
but among the upright there is good will.
- ¹⁰The heart knows its own bitterness and joy;
he will not share these with a
stranger.
- ¹¹The house of the wicked will be
overthrown,
but the tent of the upright will flourish.
- ¹²There is a way which seems right
to a man,
but in the end it leads to
death.
- ¹³Even in laughter the heart may be sorrowful,
and mirth may end in
heaviness.
- ¹⁴The unfaithful will be repaid for his own ways;
likewise a good man will be rewarded for his ways.
- ¹⁵A simple man believes everything,
but the prudent man
carefully considers his
ways.
- ¹⁶A wise man fears, and shuns
evil,
but the fool is hotheaded and reckless.
- ¹⁷He who is quick to become angry will commit
folly,
and a crafty man is hated.
- ¹⁸The simple inherit folly, but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.
- ¹⁹The evil bow down before the
good,
and the wicked at the gates
of the righteous.
- ²⁰The poor person is shunned even
by his own neighbor, but the rich person has many
friends.
- ²¹He who despises his neighbor
sins,
but happy is he who shows kindness to the poor.
- ²²Do they not go astray who plot
evil?
But love and faithfulness belong to those who plan good.
- ²³In all hard work there is profit, but the talk of the lips leads only to poverty.
- ²⁴The crown of the wise is their
riches,
but the folly of fools crowns
them with folly.
- ²⁵A truthful witness saves souls,

but a false witness is deceitful.

²⁶In the fear of the LORD is a secure fortress,
and he will be a refuge for
his children.

²⁷The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life,
turning people from the snares of death.

²⁸In the multitude of people is the king's glory,
but in the lack of people is the destruction of the prince.

²⁹He who is slow to anger has great understanding, but he who has a quick temper displays folly.

³⁰The life of the body is a heart at
peace,
but envy rots the bones.

³¹He who oppresses the poor shows contempt for his Maker,
but he who is kind to the needy honors him.

³²The wicked is brought down in his calamity,
but in death, the righteous has a refuge.

³³Wisdom rests in the heart of one who has
understanding,
and is even made known in the inward part of fools.

³⁴Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any
people.

³⁵The king's favor is toward a servant who deals wisely,
but his wrath is toward one who causes shame.

15 A gentle answer
turns away wrath,
but a harsh word
stirs up anger.

²The tongue of the wise commends knowledge,
but the mouth of fools gush out folly.

³The eyes of the LORD are everywhere,
keeping watch on the evil
and the good.

⁴A gentle tongue is a tree of life, but deceit in it crushes the
spirit.

⁵A fool despises his father's correction,
but he who heeds reproof shows prudence.

⁶In the house of the righteous is much treasure,
but the income of the wicked brings trouble.

⁷The lips of the wise spread
knowledge;
not so with the heart of
fools.

⁸The sacrifice made by the wicked is an abomination to
the LORD,
but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

⁹The way of the wicked is an abomination to the
LORD,
but he loves him who follows after
righteousness.

¹⁰There is stern discipline for one who forsakes the way:
whoever hates reproof shall die.

¹¹Sheol and Abaddon are before
the LORD—

- how much more than the hearts of the children
of men!
- ¹²A scoffer doesn't love to be reproved;
he will not go to the wise.
- ¹³A glad heart makes a cheerful
face;
but an aching heart breaks
the spirit.
- ¹⁴The heart of one who has understanding seeks
knowledge,
but the mouths of fools feed
on folly.
- ¹⁵All the days of the afflicted are wretched,
but one who has a cheerful heart enjoys a continual feast.
- ¹⁶Better is little, with the fear of
the LORD,
than great treasure with
trouble.
- ¹⁷Better is a dinner of herbs, where love is,
than a fattened calf with hatred.
- ¹⁸A wrathful man stirs up contention,
but one who is slow to anger appeases strife.
- ¹⁹The way of the sluggard is like a thorn patch,
but the path of the upright is a highway.
- ²⁰A wise son makes a father glad,
but a foolish man despises his mother.
- ²¹Folly is joy to one who is void of
wisdom,
but a man of understanding
keeps his way straight.
- ²²Where there is no counsel, plans
fail;
- but in a multitude of counselors they are established.
- ²³Joy comes to a man with the reply of his mouth.
How good is a word at the right time!
- ²⁴The path of life leads upward for
the wise,
to keep him from going
downward to Sheol.
- ²⁵The LORD will uproot the house of the proud,
but he will keep the widow's borders intact.
- ²⁶The LORD detests the thoughts
of the wicked,
but the thoughts of the pure are pleasing.
- ²⁷He who is greedy for gain troubles his own
house,
but he who hates bribes will
live.
- ²⁸The heart of the righteous weighs answers,
but the mouth of the wicked
gushes out evil.
- ²⁹The LORD is far from the
wicked,
but he hears the prayer of the
righteous.
- ³⁰The light of the eyes rejoices the
heart.
Good news gives health to
the bones.
- ³¹The ear that listens to reproof
lives,
and will be at home among
the wise.
- ³²He who refuses correction
despises his own soul,
but he who listens to reproof gets understanding.
- ³³The fear of the LORD teaches
wisdom.

Before honor is humility.

- 16 The plans of the heart belong to man,
but the answer of the tongue is from the LORD.
- ²All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes;
but the LORD weighs the motives.
- ³Commit your deeds to the LORD, and your plans shall succeed.
- ⁴The LORD has made everything for its own end—
yes, even the wicked for the day of evil.
- ⁵Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD:
they shall certainly not be unpunished.
- ⁶By mercy and truth iniquity is atoned for.
By the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.
- ⁷When a man's ways please the LORD,
he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.
- ⁸Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues with injustice.
- ⁹A man's heart plans his course,
but the LORD directs his steps.
- ¹⁰Inspired judgments are on the lips of the king.
He shall not betray his mouth.
- ¹¹Honest balances and scales are the LORD's;

- all the weights in the bag are his work.
- ¹²It is an abomination for kings to do wrong,
for the throne is established by righteousness.
- ¹³Righteous lips are the delight of kings.
They value one who speaks the truth.
- ¹⁴The king's wrath is a messenger of death,
but a wise man will pacify it.
- ¹⁵In the light of the king's face is life.
His favor is like a cloud of the spring rain.
- ¹⁶How much better it is to get wisdom than gold!
Yes, to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.
- ¹⁷The highway of the upright is to depart from evil.
He who keeps his way preserves his soul.
- ¹⁸Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.
- ¹⁹It is better to be of a lowly spirit with the poor, than to divide the plunder with the proud.
- ²⁰He who heeds the Word finds prosperity, and happy is he who trusts in the LORD!
- ²¹The wise in heart shall be called prudent.
Pleasantness of the lips promotes instruction.
- ²²Understanding is a fountain of life to one who has it, but the punishment of fools is their folly.

Proverbs 17

- ²³The heart of the wise instructs
his mouth,
and adds learning to his lips.
- ²⁴Pleasant words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.
- ²⁵There is a way which seems right
to a man,
but in the end it leads to
death.
- ²⁶The appetite of the laboring man labors for him;
for his mouth urges him on.
- ²⁷A worthless man devises mischief.
His speech is like a scorching fire.
- ²⁸A perverse man stirs up strife.
A whisperer separates close
friends.
- ²⁹A man of violence entices his
neighbor,
and leads him in a way that is not good.
- ³⁰One who winks his eyes to plot
perversities,
one who compresses his lips,
is bent on evil.
- ³¹Gray hair is a crown of glory.
It is attained by a life of
righteousness.
- ³²One who is slow to anger is better than the mighty;
one who rules his spirit, than he who takes a city.
- ³³The lot is cast into the lap, but its every decision is from
the LORD.

17 Better is a dry morsel with quietness,
than a house full of feasting with strife.

- ²A servant who deals wisely will rule over a son who causes shame,
and shall have a part in the inheritance among the brothers.
- ³The refining pot is for silver, and
the furnace for gold,
but the LORD tests the
hearts.
- ⁴An evildoer heeds wicked lips.
A liar gives ear to a mischievous tongue.
- ⁵Whoever mocks the poor
reproaches his Maker.
He who is glad at calamity shall not be
unpunished.
- ⁶Children's children are the crown of old men;
the glory of children are
their parents.
- ⁷Arrogant speech isn't fitting for a
fool,
much less do lying lips fit a prince.
- ⁸A bribe is a precious stone in the eyes of him who gives
it;
wherever he turns, he
prosper.
- ⁹He who covers an offense promotes love;
but he who repeats a matter separates best friends.
- ¹⁰A rebuke enters deeper into one who has understanding than a hundred lashes into a fool.
- ¹¹An evil man seeks only rebellion;
therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against
him.
- ¹²Let a bear robbed of her cubs
meet a man,

- rather than a fool in his folly.
- ¹³Whoever rewards evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.
- ¹⁴The beginning of strife is like breaching a dam, therefore stop contention before quarreling breaks out.
- ¹⁵He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous, both of them alike are an abomination to the LORD.
- ¹⁶Why is there money in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, seeing he has no understanding?
- ¹⁷A friend loves at all times; and a brother is born for adversity.
- ¹⁸A man void of understanding strikes hands, and becomes collateral in the presence of his neighbor.
- ¹⁹He who loves disobedience loves strife.
One who builds a high gate seeks destruction.
- ²⁰One who has a perverse heart doesn't find prosperity, and one who has a deceitful tongue falls into trouble.
- ²¹He who becomes the father of a fool grieves.
The father of a fool has no joy.
- ²²A cheerful heart makes good medicine,
- but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.
- ²³A wicked man receives a bribe in secret, to pervert the ways of justice.
- ²⁴Wisdom is before the face of one who has understanding, but the eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the earth.
- ²⁵A foolish son brings grief to his father, and bitterness to her who bore him.
- ²⁶Also to punish the righteous is not good, nor to flog officials for their integrity.
- ²⁷He who spares his words has knowledge.
He who is even tempered is a man of understanding.
- ²⁸Even a fool, when he keeps silent, is counted wise.
When he shuts his lips, he is thought to be discerning.
- 18 An unfriendly man pursues selfishness, and defies all sound judgment.
- ²A fool has no delight in understanding, but only in revealing his own opinion.
- ³When wickedness comes, contempt also comes, and with shame comes disgrace.
- ⁴The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters.

The fountain of wisdom is like a flowing brook.
⁵To be partial to the faces of the wicked is not good,
nor to deprive the innocent of justice.
⁶A fool's lips come into strife, and his mouth invites beatings.
⁷A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are a snare to his
soul.
⁸The words of a gossip are like dainty morsels:
they go down into a person's innermost parts.
⁹One who is slack in his work is brother to him who is a master of destruction.
¹⁰The name of the LORD is a strong tower;
the righteous run to it and
are safe.
¹¹The rich man's wealth is his
strong city,
like an unscalable wall in his own imagination.
¹²Before destruction the heart of man is proud,
but before honor is humility.
¹³He who gives answer before he hears,
that is folly and shame to
him.
¹⁴A man's spirit will sustain him in sickness,
but a crushed spirit, who can bear?
¹⁵The heart of the discerning gets
knowledge.
The ear of the wise seeks
knowledge.
¹⁶A man's gift makes room for
him,
and brings him before great
men.

¹⁷He who pleads his cause first seems right;
until another comes and
questions him.
¹⁸The lot settles disputes, and keeps strong ones apart.
¹⁹A brother offended is more difficult than a
fortified city;
and disputes are like the bars of a castle.
²⁰A man's stomach is filled with the fruit of his mouth.
With the harvest of his lips
he is satisfied.
²¹Death and life are in the power of the tongue;
those who love it will eat its fruit.
²²Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing,
and obtains favor of the
LORD.
²³The poor plead for mercy,
but the rich answer harshly.
²⁴A man of many companions may be ruined,
but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

19 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity

than he who is perverse in his lips and is a fool.

²It isn't good to have zeal without
knowledge;
nor being hasty with one's feet and missing the
way.

³The foolishness of man subverts
his way;
his heart rages against the
LORD.

- ⁴Wealth adds many friends, but the poor is separated from his friend.
- ⁵A false witness shall not be
unpunished.
He who pours out lies shall not go free.
- ⁶Many will entreat the favor of a
ruler,
and everyone is a friend to a man who gives gifts.
- ⁷All the relatives of the poor shun
him:
how much more do his friends avoid him!
He pursues them with pleas,
but they are gone.
- ⁸He who gets wisdom loves his
own soul.
He who keeps understanding shall find good.
- ⁹A false witness shall not be
unpunished.
He who utters lies shall
perish.
- ¹⁰Delicate living is not appropriate for a fool,
much less for a servant to have rule over princes.
- ¹¹The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger.
It is his glory to overlook an offense.
- ¹²The king's wrath is like the
roaring of a lion,
but his favor is like dew on
the grass.
- ¹³A foolish son is the calamity of his father.
A wife's quarrels are a continual dripping.
- ¹⁴House and riches are an inheritance from
fathers,
but a prudent wife is from
the LORD.
- ¹⁵Slothfulness casts into a deep
sleep.
The idle soul shall suffer hunger.
- ¹⁶He who keeps the commandment
keeps his soul,
but he who is contemptuous
in his ways shall die.
- ¹⁷He who has pity on the poor lends to the LORD;
he will reward him.
- ¹⁸Discipline your son, for there is hope;
do not be a willing party to his death.
- ¹⁹A hot-tempered man must pay
the penalty,
for if you rescue him, you must do it again.
- ²⁰Listen to counsel and receive
instruction,
that you may be wise in your latter end.
- ²¹There are many plans in a man's
heart,
but the LORD's counsel will prevail.
- ²²That which makes a man to be desired is his kindness.
A poor man is better than a liar.
- ²³The fear of the LORD leads to life, then contentment;
he rests and will not be touched by trouble.
- ²⁴The sluggard buries his hand in the dish;
he will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.
- ²⁵Flog a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence;
rebuke one who has understanding, and he will gain knowledge.

- ²⁶He who robs his father and drives away his
mother,
is a son who causes shame
and brings reproach.
- ²⁷If you stop listening to instruction, my son,
you will stray from the words of knowledge.
- ²⁸A corrupt witness mocks justice, and the mouth of the wicked gulps down iniquity.
- ²⁹Penalties are prepared for
scoffers,
and beatings for the backs of
fools.

20 Wine is a mocker, and beer is a brawler.

- Whoever is led astray by them is not wise.
- ²The terror of a king is like the
roaring of a lion.
He who provokes him to anger forfeits his own
life.
- ³It is an honor for a man to keep
aloof from strife;
but every fool will be quarreling.
- ⁴The sluggard will not plow by reason of the winter;
therefore he shall beg in harvest, and have
nothing.
- ⁵Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water;
but a man of understanding
will draw it out.
- ⁶Many men claim to be men of unfailing love,
but who can find a faithful
man?

- ⁷A righteous man walks in
integrity;
happy are his children after
him!
- ⁸A king who sits on the throne of
judgment
scatters away all evil with
his eyes.
- ⁹Who can say, "I have made my heart pure.
I am clean and without sin?"
- ¹⁰Differing weights and differing measures,
both of them alike are an abomination to the
LORD.
- ¹¹Even a child makes himself
known by his doings,
whether his work is pure,
and whether it is right.
- ¹²The hearing ear, and the seeing eye,
The LORD has made even
both of them.
- ¹³Do not love sleep, lest you come to poverty.
Open your eyes, and you shall be satisfied with
bread.
- ¹⁴"It's no good, it's no good," says
the buyer;
but when he is gone his way,
then he boasts.
- ¹⁵There is gold and abundance of
rubies;
but the lips of knowledge are a rare jewel.
- ¹⁶Take the garment of one who puts up collateral for a stranger;
and hold him in pledge for a wayward woman.
- ¹⁷Fraudulent food is sweet to a
man,
but afterwards his mouth is filled with gravel.

¹⁸Plans are established by advice;
by wise guidance you wage
war!

¹⁹He who goes about as a tale-bearer reveals secrets; therefore do not keep company with him
who opens wide his
lips.

²⁰Whoever curses his father or his
mother,
his lamp shall be put out in blackness of darkness.

²¹An inheritance quickly gained at
the beginning,
won't be blessed in the end.

²²Do not say, "I will pay back
evil."
Wait for the LORD, and he will save you.

²³The LORD detests differing weights,
and dishonest scales are not pleasing.

²⁴A man's steps are from the LORD;
how then can man
understand his way?

²⁵It is a snare to a man to make a rash dedication,
then later to consider his
vows.

²⁶A wise king winnows out the
wicked,
and drives the threshing wheel over them.

²⁷The spirit of man is the LORD's lamp,
searching all his innermost parts.

²⁸Love and faithfulness keep the king safe.
His throne is sustained by love.

²⁹The glory of young men is their strength.

The splendor of old men is their gray hair.

³⁰Wounding blows cleanse away
evil,
and beatings purge the
innermost parts.

21 The king's heart is in the LORD's hand
like the watercourses.

He turns it wherever he desires.

²Every way of a man is right in his own eyes,
but the LORD weighs the
hearts.

³To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

⁴A high look, and a proud heart, the lamp of the wicked, is
sin.

⁵The plans of the diligent surely lead to profit;
and everyone who is hasty surely rushes to poverty.

⁶Getting treasures by a lying tongue
is a fleeting vapor for those who seek death.

⁷The violence of the wicked will drive them away,
because they refuse to do what is right.

⁸The way of the guilty is devious, but the conduct of the innocent is upright.

⁹It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop,
than to share a house with a contentious woman.

¹⁰The soul of the wicked desires
evil;

- his neighbor finds no mercy
in his eyes.
- ¹¹When the mocker is punished,
the simple gains
wisdom.
When the wise is instructed,
he receives
knowledge.
- ¹²The Righteous One considers the house of the wicked,
and brings the wicked to
ruin.
- ¹³Whoever stops his ears at the cry
of the poor,
he will also cry out, but shall not be heard.
- ¹⁴A gift in secret pacifies anger;
and a bribe in the cloak,
strong wrath.
- ¹⁵It is joy to the righteous to do
justice;
but it is a destruction to the
workers of iniquity.
- ¹⁶The man who wanders out of the way of understanding shall rest in the assembly of the dead.
- ¹⁷He who loves pleasure shall be a poor man.
He who loves wine and oil shall not be rich.
- ¹⁸The wicked is a ransom for the
righteous;
the treacherous for the
upright.
- ¹⁹It is better to dwell in a desert
land,
than with a contentious and fretful woman.
- ²⁰There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise;
but a foolish man swallows it up.
- ²¹He who follows after righteousness and
kindness
finds life, righteousness, and
honor.
- ²²A wise man scales the city of the mighty,
and brings down the strength of its confidence.
- ²³Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue
keeps his soul from troubles.
- ²⁴The proud and haughty man, “scoffer” is his name;
he works in the arrogance of
pride.
- ²⁵The desire of the sluggard kills
him,
for his hands refuse to labor.
- ²⁶There are those who covet greedily all day long;
but the righteous give and do not withhold.
- ²⁷The sacrifice of the wicked is an
abomination:
how much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind!
- ²⁸A false witness will perish, and a man who listens
speaks to eternity.
- ²⁹A wicked man hardens his face;
but as for the upright, he establishes his ways.
- ³⁰There is no wisdom nor
understanding
nor counsel against the
LORD.
- ³¹The horse is prepared for the day
of battle;
but victory is with the
LORD.

22 A good name is more desirable than

- great riches,
and loving favor is better than silver and gold.
- ²The rich and the poor have this in common:
The LORD is the maker of
them all.
- ³A prudent man sees danger, and hides himself;
but the simple pass on, and
suffer for it.
- ⁴The result of humility and the fear
of the LORD
is wealth, honor, and life.
- ⁵Thorns and snares are in the path
of the wicked:
whoever guards his soul
stays from them.
- ⁶Train up a child in the way he should go,
and when he is old he will not depart from it.
- ⁷The rich rule over the poor.
The borrower is servant to the lender.
- ⁸He who sows wickedness reaps
trouble,
and the rod of his fury will be destroyed.
- ⁹He who has a generous eye will be blessed;
for he shares his food with
the poor.
- ¹⁰Drive out the mocker, and strife
will go out;
yes, quarrels and insults will stop.
- ¹¹He who loves purity of heart and speaks gracefully
is the king's friend.
- ¹²The eyes of the LORD watch over knowledge;
but he frustrates the words of the unfaithful.
- ¹³The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside!
I will be killed in the streets!"
- ¹⁴The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit:
he who is under the LORD's wrath will fall into it.
- ¹⁵Folly is bound up in the heart of a child:
the rod of discipline drives it far from him.
- ¹⁶Whoever oppresses the poor for his own increase and whoever gives to the rich,
both come to poverty.
- ¹⁷Turn your ear, and listen to the words of the wise.
Apply your heart to my teaching.
- ¹⁸For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you,
if all of them are ready on
your lips.
- ¹⁹That your trust may be in the
LORD,
I teach you today, even you.
- ²⁰Haven't I written to you thirty excellent things
of counsel and knowledge, ²¹To teach you truth, reliable
words,
to give sound answers to the ones who sent you?
- ²²Do not exploit the poor, because he is poor;
and do not crush the needy
in court;
²³for the LORD will plead their
case,
and plunder the life of those who plunder them.
- ²⁴Do not befriend a hot-tempered
man,

- and do not associate with one who harbors
anger:
²⁵lest you learn his ways,
and ensnare your soul.
- ²⁶Do not be one of those who strike hands,
of those who are collateral for debts.
- ²⁷If you do not have means to pay,
why should he take away your bed from under
you?
- ²⁸Do not move the ancient boundary stone,
which your fathers have set
up.
- ²⁹Do you see a man skilled in his
work?
He will serve kings.
He won't serve obscure
men.

23 When you sit to eat
with a ruler,
consider diligently
what is before you;

- ²put a knife to your throat,
if you are a man given to appetite.
- ³Do not be desirous of his dainties, seeing they are deceitful
food.
- ⁴Do not weary yourself to be rich.
In your wisdom, show
restraint.
- ⁵Why do you set your eyes on that which is not?
For it certainly sprouts wings like an eagle
and flies in the sky.

- ⁶Do not eat the food of him who has a stingy eye,
and do not crave his
delicacies:
⁷for as he thinks about the cost, so he is.
“Eat and drink!” he says to
you,
but his heart is not with you.
- ⁸The morsel which you have eaten
you shall vomit up,
and lose your good words.
- ⁹Do not speak in the ears of a fool,
for he will despise the wisdom of your words.
- ¹⁰Do not move the ancient
boundary stone.
Do not encroach on the fields of the fatherless:
¹¹for their Defender is strong.
He will plead their case
against you.
- ¹²Apply your heart to instruction, and your ears to the words of
knowledge.
- ¹³Do not withhold correction from
a child.
If you punish him with the rod, he will not die.
- ¹⁴Punish him with the rod, and save his soul from Sheol.
- ¹⁵My son, if your heart is wise,
then my heart will be glad,
even mine:
¹⁶yes, my heart will rejoice, when your lips speak what is right.
- ¹⁷Do not let your heart envy sinners;
but rather fear the LORD all the day long.

¹⁸Indeed surely there is a future hope,
and your hope will not be cut off.

¹⁹Listen, my son, and be wise, and keep your heart on the right path!

²⁰Do not be among ones drinking too much wine, or those who gorge themselves on meat:

²¹for the drunkard and the glutton shall become poor;
and drowsiness clothes them in rags.

²²Listen to your father who gave you life, and do not despise your mother when she is old.

²³Buy the truth, and do not sell it.
Get wisdom, discipline, and understanding.

²⁴The father of the righteous has great joy.
Whoever fathers a wise child delights in him.

²⁵Let your father and your mother be glad!
Let her who bore you rejoice!

²⁶My son, give me your heart;
and let your eyes keep in my ways.

²⁷For a prostitute is a deep pit;
and a wayward wife is a narrow well.

²⁸Yes, she lies in wait like a robber, and increases the unfaithful among men.

²⁹Who has woe?
Who has sorrow?
Who has strife?
Who has complaints?

Who has needless bruises?
Who has bloodshot eyes?

³⁰Those who stay long at the wine;
those who go to seek out mixed wine.

³¹Do not look at the wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup,
when it goes down smoothly.

³²In the end, it bites like a serpent, and poisons like a viper.

³³Your eyes will see strange things, and your mind will imagine confusing things.

³⁴Yes, you will be as he who lies down in the midst of the sea, or as he who lies on top of the rigging:

³⁵“They hit me, and I was not hurt!
They beat me, and I do not feel it!
When will I wake up? I can do it again.
I can find another.”

24 Do not be envious of evil men;
neither desire to be with them:

²for their hearts plot violence, and their lips talk about mischief.

³Through wisdom a house is built;
by understanding it is established;

⁴by knowledge the rooms are filled with all rare and beautiful treasure.

⁵A wise man has great power;
and a knowledgeable man increases strength;

⁶for by wise guidance you wage your war;
and victory is in many advisors.
⁷Wisdom is too high for a fool:
he doesn't open his mouth in
the gate.
⁸One who plots to do evil will be called a schemer.
⁹The schemes of folly are sin.
The mocker is detested by
men.
¹⁰If you falter in the time of
trouble,
your strength is small.
¹¹Rescue those who are being led away to death!
Indeed, hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter!
¹²If you say, "Behold, we did not know this;"
doesn't he who weighs the hearts consider it?
He who keeps your soul, doesn't he know it?
Shall he not render to every man according to his work?^a ¹³My son, eat honey, for it is good;
the droppings of the honeycomb, which are sweet to your taste:
¹⁴so you shall know wisdom to be
to your soul;
if you have found it, then
there will be a reward, your hope will not be cut
off.
¹⁵Do not lie in wait, wicked man, against the habitation
of the righteous.

Do not destroy his resting
place:
¹⁶for a righteous man falls seven times, and rises up again;
but the wicked are overthrown by calamity.
¹⁷Do not rejoice when your enemy falls.
Do not let your heart be glad when he is
overthrown;
¹⁸lest the LORD see it, and it displease him,
and he turn away his wrath
from him.
¹⁹Do not fret yourself because of evildoers;
neither be envious of the
wicked:
²⁰for there will be no reward to the evil man;
and the lamp of the wicked shall be snuffed out.
²¹My son, fear the LORD and the
king.
Do not join those who are rebellious:
²²for their calamity will rise
suddenly;
the destruction from them
both—who knows?
²³These also are sayings of
the wise.
To show partiality in judgment is not good.
²⁴He who says to the wicked,
"You are righteous;"
peoples shall curse him, and nations shall abhor
him—

^a24:12 Romans 2:6

²⁵but it will go well with those who convict the guilty, and a rich blessing will come on them.

²⁶An honest answer
is like a kiss on the lips.

²⁷Prepare your work outside, and get your fields ready.
Afterwards, build your
house.

²⁸Do not be a witness against your neighbor without
cause.
Do not deceive with your
lips.

²⁹Do not say, "I will do to him as he has done to me;
I will render to the man
according to his
work."

³⁰I went by the field of the
sluggard,
by the vineyard of the man
void of understanding;

³¹Behold, it was all grown over with thorns.
Its surface was covered with nettles,
and its stone wall was broken down.

³²Then I saw, and considered well.
I saw, and received
instruction:

³³a little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands
to sleep;

³⁴so your poverty will come as a robber,
and your want as an armed
man.

25 These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

²It is the glory of God to conceal a thing,
but the glory of kings is to search out a matter.

³As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth,
so the hearts of kings are
unsearchable.

⁴Take away the dross from the silver,
and material comes out for the refiner;

⁵Take away the wicked from the king's presence,
and his throne will be established in
righteousness.

⁶Do not exalt yourself in the presence of the king, or claim a place among great
men;

⁷for it is better that it be said to you, "Come up here," than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince,
whom your eyes have seen.

⁸Do not be hasty in bringing charges to court.
What will you do in the end when your neighbor
shames you?

⁹Debate your case with your
neighbor,
and do not betray the confidence of another;

¹⁰lest one who hears it put you to shame,
and your bad reputation never depart.

¹¹A word fitly spoken
is like apples of gold in settings of silver.

- ¹²As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold,
so is a wise reprov-er to an obedient ear.
- ¹³As the cold of snow in the time of harvest,
so is a faithful messenger to those who send him;
for he refreshes the soul of his masters.
- ¹⁴As clouds and wind without rain,
so is he who boasts of gifts deceptively.
- ¹⁵By patience a ruler is persuaded.
A soft tongue breaks the bone.
- ¹⁶Have you found honey?
Eat as much as is sufficient for you,
lest you eat too much, and vomit it.
- ¹⁷Let your foot be seldom in your neighbor's house,
lest he be weary of you, and hate you.
- ¹⁸A man who gives false testimony against his neighbor is like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow.
- ¹⁹Confidence in someone unfaithful in time of trouble is like a bad tooth, or a lame foot.
- ²⁰As one who takes away a garment in cold weather,
or vinegar on soda,
so is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.
- ²¹If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat.

- If he is thirsty, give him water to drink: ²²for you will heap coals of fire on his head,^a and the LORD will reward you.
- ²³The north wind brings forth rain:
so a backbiting tongue brings an angry face.
- ²⁴It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than to share a house with a contentious woman.
- ²⁵Like cold water to a thirsty soul,
so is good news from a far country.
- ²⁶Like a muddied spring, and a polluted well, so is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.
- ²⁷It is not good to eat much honey;
nor is it honorable to seek one's own honor.
- ²⁸Like a city that is broken down and without walls is a man whose spirit is without restraint.

26 Like snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool.

- ²Like a fluttering sparrow,
like a darting swallow,
so the undeserved curse doesn't come to rest.
- ³A whip is for the horse,
a bridle for the donkey,
and a rod for the back of fools!

^a25:21-22 Romans 12:20

- ⁴Do not answer a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like him.
- ⁵Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes.
- ⁶One who sends a message by the hand of a fool is cutting off feet and drinking violence.
- ⁷Like the legs of the lame that hang loose:
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.
- ⁸As one who binds a stone in a sling,
so is he who gives honor to a fool.
- ⁹Like a thornbush that goes into the hand of a drunkard,
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.
- ¹⁰As an archer who wounds all, so is he who hires a fool or he who hires those who pass by.
- ¹¹As a dog that returns to his vomit,^a so is a fool who repeats his folly.
- ¹²Do you see a man wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
- ¹³The sluggard says, "There is a lion in the road!
A fierce lion roams the streets!"
- ¹⁴As the door turns on its hinges, so does the sluggard on his bed.
- ¹⁵The sluggard buries his hand in the dish.
He is too lazy to bring it back to his mouth.
- ¹⁶The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who answer with discretion.
- ¹⁷Like one who grabs a dog's ears is one who passes by and meddles in a quarrel not his own.
- ¹⁸Like a madman who shoots firebrands, arrows, and death, ¹⁹is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, "Am I not joking?"
- ²⁰Without wood a fire goes out.
Without gossip, contention ceases.
- ²¹As coals are to hot embers,
and wood to fire,
so is a contentious man to kindling strife.
- ²²The words of a whisperer are as dainty morsels,
they go down into the innermost parts.
- ²³Like silver dross on an earthen vessel are the lips of a fervent one with an evil heart.
- ²⁴A malicious man disguises himself with his lips,
but he harbors evil in his heart.
- ²⁵When his speech is charming, do not believe him;
for there are seven abominations in his heart.
- ²⁶His malice may be concealed by deception,

^a26:11 2Peter 2:22

but his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.

²⁷Whoever digs a pit shall fall into
it.

Whoever rolls a stone, it will come back on him.

²⁸A lying tongue hates those it hurts;
and a flattering mouth works
ruin.

27 Do not boast about tomorrow;
for you do not know what a day may bring forth.

²Let another man praise you,
and not your own mouth;
a stranger, and not your own
lips.

³A stone is heavy,
and sand is a burden;
but a fool's provocation is heavier than both.

⁴Wrath is cruel,
and anger is overwhelming;
but who is able to stand before jealousy?

⁵Better is open rebuke than hidden love.

⁶Faithful are the wounds of a friend;
although the kisses of an enemy are profuse.

⁷A full soul loathes a honeycomb;
but to a hungry soul, every bitter thing is sweet.

⁸As a bird that wanders from her nest,
so is a man who wanders
from his home.

⁹Perfume and incense bring joy to
the heart;

so does earnest counsel from a man's friend.

¹⁰Do not forsake your friend and your father's friend.
Do not go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster:
better is a neighbor who is near than a distant
brother.

¹¹Be wise, my son,
and bring joy to my heart,
then I can answer my tormentor.

¹²A prudent man sees danger and takes refuge;
but the simple pass on, and
suffer for it.

¹³Take his garment when he puts up collateral for a stranger.

Hold it for a wayward
woman!

¹⁴He who blesses his neighbor with a loud voice early
in the morning,
it will be taken as a curse by
him.

¹⁵A continual dropping on a rainy
day
and a contentious wife are
alike:

¹⁶restraining her is like restraining the wind,
or like grasping oil in his right hand.

¹⁷Iron sharpens iron;
so a man sharpens his friend's countenance.

¹⁸Whoever tends the fig tree shall eat its fruit.
He who looks after his master shall be honored.

¹⁹As water reflects a face,

- so a man's heart reflects the man.
- ²⁰Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied;
and a man's eyes are never satisfied.
- ²¹The crucible is for silver,
and the furnace for gold;
but man is refined by his praise.
- ²²Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with grain,
yet his foolishness will not be removed from him.
- ²³Know well the state of your flocks,
and pay attention to your herds:
- ²⁴For riches are not forever,
nor does even the crown endure to all generations.
- ²⁵The hay is removed, and the new growth appears,
the grasses of the hills are gathered in.
- ²⁶The lambs are for your clothing,
and the goats are the price of a field.
- ²⁷There will be plenty of goats' milk for your food,
for your family's food,
and for the nourishment of your servant girls.
- 28 The wicked flee when no one pursues;
but the righteous are as bold as a lion.
- ²In rebellion, a land has many rulers, but order is maintained by a man of understanding and knowledge.
- ³A needy man who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain which leaves no crops.
- ⁴Those who forsake the Law praise the wicked;
but those who keep the Law contend with them.
- ⁵Evil men do not understand justice;
but those who seek the LORD understand it fully.
- ⁶Better is the poor who walks in his integrity, than he who is perverse in his ways, and he is rich.
- ⁷Whoever keeps the Law is a wise son;
but he who is a companion of gluttons shames his father.
- ⁸He who increases his wealth by excessive interest gathers it for one who has pity on the poor.
- ⁹He who turns away his ear from hearing the Law,
even his prayer is an abomination.
- ¹⁰Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way, he will fall into his own trap;
but the blameless will inherit good.
- ¹¹The rich man is wise in his own eyes;
but the poor who has understanding sees through him.

- ¹²When the righteous triumph,
 there is great glory;
 but when the wicked rise,
 men hide themselves.
- ¹³He who conceals his sins doesn't prosper,
 but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy.
- ¹⁴Happy is the man who is always reverent;
 but the one who hardens his heart will fall into evil.
- ¹⁵As a roaring lion or a charging
 bear,
 so is a wicked ruler over helpless people.
- ¹⁶A tyrannical ruler lacks
 judgment.
 One who hates ill-gotten gain will have long
 days.
- ¹⁷A man who is tormented by life blood will be a fugitive until death;
 no one will support him.
- ¹⁸Whoever walks blamelessly is kept safe;
 but one with perverse ways
 will fall suddenly.
- ¹⁹One who works his land will have an abundance of
 food;
 but one who chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.
- ²⁰A faithful man is rich with blessings;
 but one who is eager to be rich will not go
 unpunished.
- ²¹To show partiality is not good;
 yet a man will do wrong for a piece of bread.
- ²²A stingy man hurries after riches,

- and doesn't know that poverty waits for him.
- ²³One who rebukes a man will afterward find more favor
 than one who flatters with the tongue.
- ²⁴Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says, "It's not wrong."
 He is a partner with a destroyer.
- ²⁵One who is greedy stirs up strife;
 but one who trusts in the LORD will prosper.
- ²⁶One who trusts in himself is a
 fool;
 but one who walks in wisdom is kept safe.
- ²⁷One who gives to the poor has no lack;
 but one who closes his eyes
 will have many curses.
- ²⁸When the wicked rise, men hide
 themselves;
 but when they perish, the righteous thrive.

29 He who is often rebuked and stiffens
 his neck
 will be destroyed suddenly,
 with no remedy.

- ²When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice;
 but when the wicked rule,
 the people groan.
- ³Whoever loves wisdom brings joy
 to his father;
 but a companion of prostitutes squanders
 his wealth.
- ⁴The king by justice makes the land stable,

- but he who takes bribes tears
it down.
- ⁵A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.
- ⁶An evil man is snared by his sin, but the righteous can sing
and be glad.
- ⁷The righteous care about justice
for the poor.
The wicked aren't concerned about knowledge.
- ⁸Mockers stir up a city,
but wise men turn away
anger.
- ⁹If a wise man goes to court with a foolish man,
the fool rages or scoffs, and there is no peace.
- ¹⁰The bloodthirsty hate a man of
integrity;
and they seek the life of the
upright.
- ¹¹A fool vents all of his anger, but a wise man brings himself under control.
- ¹²If a ruler listens to lies,
all of his officials are
wicked.
- ¹³The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:
The LORD gives sight to the eyes of both.
- ¹⁴The king who fairly judges the poor,
his throne shall be established forever.
- ¹⁵The rod of correction gives
wisdom,
but a child left to himself causes shame to his mother.
- ¹⁶When the wicked increase, sin increases;
but the righteous will see their downfall.
- ¹⁷Correct your son, and he will give you peace;
yes, he will bring delight to your soul.
- ¹⁸Where there is no revelation, the people cast off
restraint;
but he who keeps the law is happy!
- ¹⁹A servant can't be corrected by
words.
Though he understands, yet
he will not respond.
- ²⁰Do you see a man who is hasty
in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
- ²¹He who pampers his servant
from youth
will have him become a son
in the end.
- ²²An angry man stirs up strife, and a wrathful man abounds in sin.
- ²³A man's pride brings him low, but one of lowly spirit gains
honor.
- ²⁴Whoever is an accomplice of a thief is an enemy of his own soul.
He takes an oath, but dares not testify.
- ²⁵The fear of man proves to be a
snare,
but whoever puts his trust in the LORD is kept safe.
- ²⁶Many seek the ruler's favor, but a man's justice comes from the LORD.
- ²⁷A dishonest man detests the
righteous,
and the upright in their ways
detest the wicked.

30 The words of Agur
the son of Jakeh, the oracle:

the man says to Ithiel,
to Ithiel and Ucal:

²“Surely I am the most ignorant
man,
and do not have a man’s
understanding.

³I have not learned wisdom, neither do I have the knowledge of the Holy
One.

⁴Who has ascended up into heaven, and descended?
Who has gathered the wind
in his fists?
Who has bound the waters in his garment?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is his name, and what is his son’s name, if you know?

⁵“Every word of God is flawless.
He is a shield to those who take refuge in him.

⁶Do not add to his words, lest he reprove you, and you be found a liar.

⁷“Two things I have asked of you;
do not deny me before I die:

⁸Remove far from me falsehood and lies.
Give me neither poverty nor
riches.
Feed me with the food that is needful for me;
⁹lest I be full, deny you, and say,
‘Who is the LORD?’
or lest I be poor, and steal, and so dishonor the name of
my God.

¹⁰“Do not slander a servant to his master,
lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.

¹¹There is a generation that curses their father,
and doesn’t bless their
mother.

¹²There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes,
yet are not washed from their filthiness.

¹³There is a generation, oh how lofty are their eyes!
Their eyelids are lifted up.

¹⁴There is a generation whose teeth are like swords,
and their jaws like knives,
to devour the poor from the earth, and the needy
from among men.

¹⁵“The leach has two daughters:
‘Give, give.’

“There are three things that are never satisfied;
four that do not say,
‘Enough:’

¹⁶Sheol, the barren womb;
the earth that is not satisfied with water;
and the fire that doesn’t say, ‘Enough.’

¹⁷“The eye that mocks at his father,
and scorns obedience to his
mother:
the ravens of the valley shall pick it out,
the young eagles shall eat it.

¹⁸“There are three things which are too amazing for me,

four which I do not understand:
¹⁹The way of an eagle in the air;
the way of a serpent on a
rock;
the way of a ship in the midst of the sea;
and the way of a man with a maiden.

²⁰“So is the way of an adulterous
woman:
she eats and wipes her
mouth,
and says, ‘I have done nothing wrong.’

²¹“For three things the earth tremble,
and under four, it can’t bear
up:
²²For a servant when he is
king;
a fool when he is filled with
food;
²³for an unloved woman
when she is married;
and a handmaid who is heir
to her mistress.

²⁴“There are four things which are little on the earth, but they are exceedingly
wise:
²⁵the ants are not a strong
people,
yet they provide their food
in the summer.
²⁶The conies are but a feeble folk,
yet make they their houses
in the rocks.
²⁷The locusts have no king, yet they advance in ranks.

²⁸You can catch a lizard with
your hands,
yet it is in kings’ palaces.

²⁹“There are three things which are stately in their march, four which are stately in going:

³⁰The lion, which is mightiest among
animals,
and doesn’t turn away for any;
³¹the greyhound,
the male goat also;
and the king against whom
there is no rising up.

³²“If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself,
or if you have thought evil,
put your hand over your mouth.

³³For as the churning of milk brings forth butter,
and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood;
so the forcing of wrath brings forth strife.”

31 The words of king Lemuel; the oracle
which his mother

taught him.

²“Oh, my son!
Oh, son of my womb!
Oh, son of my vows!

³Do not give your strength to women,
nor your ways to that which destroys kings.

⁴It is not for kings, Lemuel;
it is not for kings to drink
wine;

Proverbs 31

nor for princes to say, ‘Where is strong drink?’

⁵lest they drink, and forget the decree,
and pervert the justice due to anyone who is afflicted.

⁶Give strong drink to him who is ready to perish;
and wine to the bitter in
soul:

⁷Let him drink, and forget his
poverty,
and remember his misery no
more.

⁸Open your mouth for the mute, in the cause of all who are left desolate.

⁹Open your mouth, judge righteously,
and serve justice to the poor and needy.”

ALEPH

¹⁰Who can find a worthy woman?
For her price is far above rubies.

BET

¹¹The heart of her husband trusts
in her.
He shall have no lack of gain.

GIMEL

¹²She does him good, and not harm,
all the days of her life.

DALET

¹³She seeks wool and flax, and works eagerly with her hands.

HEY

¹⁴She is like the merchant ships.
She brings her bread from afar.

VAV

¹⁵She rises also while it is yet
night,
gives food to her household,
and portions for her servant girls.

Let her works praise her in the gates!

Ecclesiastes

1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in
Jerusalem:

²“Vanity of vanities,” says the Preacher; “Vanity of vanities, all is vanity.” ³What does man gain from all his labor in which he labors under the sun? ⁴One generation goes, and another generation comes; but the earth remains forever. ⁵The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hurries to its place where it rises. ⁶The wind goes toward the south, and turns around to the north. It turns around continually as it goes, and the wind returns again to its courses. ⁷All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full. To the place where the rivers flow, there they flow again. ⁸All things are full of weariness beyond uttering. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. ⁹That which has been is that which shall be; and that which has been done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. ¹⁰Is there a thing of which it may be said, “Behold, this is new?” It has been long ago, in the ages which were before us. ¹¹There is no memory of the former; neither shall there be any memory of the latter that are to come, among those that shall come after.

¹²I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under the sky. It is a heavy burden that God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. ¹⁴I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and behold, all is vanity and a chasing after wind. ¹⁵That which is crooked can’t be made straight; and that which is lacking can’t be counted. ¹⁶I said to myself, “Behold, I have obtained for myself great wisdom above all who were before me in Jerusalem. Yes, my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.” ¹⁷I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also was a chasing after wind. ¹⁸For in much wisdom is much grief; and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

2 I said in my heart, “Come now, I will test you with mirth: therefore enjoy pleasure;” and behold, this also was vanity. ²I said of laughter, “It is foolishness;” and of mirth, “What does it accomplish?”

³I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold of folly, until I might see what it was good for the sons of men that they should do under heaven all the days of their lives. ⁴I made myself great works. I built myself houses. I planted myself vineyards. ⁵I made myself gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit. ⁶I made myself pools of water, to water from it the forest where trees were reared. ⁷I bought male servants and female servants, and had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all who were before me in Jerusalem; ⁸I also gathered silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces. I got myself male and female singers, and the delights of the sons of men—musical instruments, and that of all sorts. ⁹So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me. ¹⁰Whatever my eyes desired, I did not keep from them. I did not withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor, and this was my portion from all my labor. ¹¹Then I looked at all the works that my hands had worked, and at the labor that I had labored to do; and behold, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

¹²I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness, and folly: for what can the king's successor do? Just that which has been done long ago. ¹³Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. ¹⁴The wise man's eyes are in his head, and the fool walks in darkness—and yet I perceived that one event happens to them all. ¹⁵Then said I in my heart, "As it happens to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise?" Then said I in my heart that this also is vanity. ¹⁶For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no memory for ever, seeing that in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. Indeed, the wise man must die just like the fool!

¹⁷So I hated life, because the work that is worked under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a chasing after wind. ¹⁸I hated all my labor in which I labored under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the man who comes after me. ¹⁹Who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all of my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.

²⁰Therefore I began to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor in which I had labored under the sun. ²¹For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, with knowledge, and with skillfulness; yet he shall leave it for his portion to a man who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. ²²For what has a man of all his labor, and of the striving of his heart, in which he labors under the sun? ²³For all his days are sorrows, and his travail is grief; yes, even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity. ²⁴There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God. ²⁵For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I? ²⁶For to the man who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him who pleases God. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

3 For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under

heaven:

- ²a time to be born,
and a time to die;
a time to plant,
and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
³a time to kill,
and a time to heal;
a time to break down,
and a time to build up; ⁴a time to weep,
and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn,
and a time to dance;
⁵a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones
together;
a time to embrace,
and a time to refrain from embracing;
⁶a time to seek,
and a time to lose;
a time to keep,
and a time to cast away; ⁷a time to tear,
and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence,
and a time to speak;
⁸a time to love,
and a time to hate;
a time for war,
and a time for peace.

⁹What profit has he who works in that in which he labors?

¹⁰I have seen the burden which God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. ¹¹He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in their hearts, yet so that man can't find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end. ¹²I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good as long as they live. ¹³Also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labor, is the gift of God. ¹⁴I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and God has done it, that men should fear before him. ¹⁵That which is has been long ago, and that which is to be has been long ago: and God seeks again that which is passed away.

¹⁶Moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of justice, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there. ¹⁷I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work." ¹⁸I said in my heart, "As for the sons of men, God tests them, so that they may see that they themselves are like animals. ¹⁹For that which happens to the sons of men happens to animals. Even one thing happens to them. As the one dies, so the other dies. Yes, they have all one breath; and man has no advantage over the animals: for all is vanity.
²⁰All go to one place. All are from the dust, and all turn to dust again.
²¹Who knows the spirit of man, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, whether it goes downward to the earth?"

²²Therefore I saw that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion: for who can bring him to see what will be after him?

4 Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. ²Therefore I praised the dead who have been long dead more than the living who are yet alive. ³Yes, better than them both is him who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. ⁴Then I saw all the labor and achievement that is the envy of a man's neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

⁵The fool folds his hands together and ruins himself. ⁶Better is a handful, with quietness, than two handfuls with labor and chasing after wind.

⁷Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. ⁸There is one who is alone, and he has neither son nor brother. There is no end to all of his labor, neither are his eyes satisfied with wealth. For whom then, do I labor, and deprive my soul of enjoyment? This also is vanity, yes, it is a miserable business.

⁹Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. ¹⁰For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but

woe to him who is alone when he falls, and doesn't have another to lift him up. ¹¹Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one keep warm alone? ¹²If a man prevails against one who is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

¹³Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who doesn't know how to receive admonition any more. ¹⁴For out of prison he came forth to be king; yes, even in his kingdom he was born poor. ¹⁵I saw all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the other, who succeeded him. ¹⁶There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was—yet those who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

5 Guard your steps when you go to God's house; for to draw near to listen is better than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they do evil. ²Do not be rash with your mouth, and do not let your heart be hasty to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and you on earth. Therefore let your words be few. ³For as a dream comes with a multitude of cares, so a fool's speech with a multitude of words. ⁴When you vow a vow to God, do not defer to pay it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you vow. ⁵It is better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay. ⁶Do not allow your mouth to lead you into sin. Do not protest before the messenger that this was a mistake. Why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands? ⁷For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, as well as in many words: but you must fear God.

⁸If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of justice and righteousness in a district, do not marvel at the matter: for one official is eyed by a higher one; and there are officials over them. ⁹Moreover the profit of the earth is for all. The king profits from the field.

¹⁰He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loves abundance, with increase: this also is vanity. ¹¹When goods increase, those who eat them are increased; and what advantage is there to its owner, except to feast on them with his eyes?

¹²The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep.

¹³There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun: wealth kept by its owner to his harm. ¹⁴Those riches perish by misfortune, and if he has fathered a son, there is nothing in his hand. ¹⁵As he came forth from his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his labor, which he may carry away in his hand. ¹⁶This also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go. And what profit does he have who labors for the wind? ¹⁷All his days he also eats in darkness, he is frustrated, and has sickness and wrath.

¹⁸Behold, that which I have seen to be good and proper is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labor, in which he labors under the sun, all the days of his life which God has given him; for this is his portion. ¹⁹Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God. ²⁰For he shall not often reflect on the days of his life; because God occupies him with the joy of his heart.

6 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy on men: ²a man to whom God gives riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God gives him no power to eat of it, but a foreigner eats it. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

³If a man fathers a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not filled with good, and moreover he has no burial; I say, that a stillborn child is better than he: ⁴for it comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. ⁵Moreover it has not seen the sun nor known it. This has rest rather than the other. ⁶Yes, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet fails to enjoy good, do not all go to one place? ⁷All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. ⁸For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? What has the poor man, that knows how to walk before the living? ⁹Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind. ¹⁰Whatever has been, its name was given long ago; and it is known what man is; neither can he contend with him who is mightier than he. ¹¹For there are many words that create vanity. What does that profit man? ¹²For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he spends like a shadow? For who can tell a man what will be after him under the sun?

7 A good name is better than fine perfume; and the day of death better than the day of one's birth. ²It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men, and the living should take this to heart. ³Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made good. ⁴The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. ⁵It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. ⁶For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity. ⁷Surely extortion makes the wise man foolish; and a bribe destroys the understanding. ⁸Better is the end of a thing than its beginning.

The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. ⁹Do not be hasty in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools. ¹⁰Do not say, "Why were the former days better than these?" For you do not ask wisely about this.

¹¹Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. Yes, it is more excellent for those who see the sun. ¹²For wisdom is a defense, even as money is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it.

¹³Consider the work of God, for who can make that straight, which he has made crooked? ¹⁴In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, God has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything after him.

¹⁵All this have I seen in my days of vanity: there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives long in his evil-doing. ¹⁶Do not be overly righteous, neither make yourself overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself? ¹⁷Do not be too wicked, neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time? ¹⁸It is good that you should take hold of this. Yes, also from that do not withdraw your hand; for he who fears God will come forth from them all. ¹⁹Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city. ²⁰Surely there is not a righteous man on earth, who does good and doesn't sin. ²¹Also do not take heed to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you; ²²for often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others. ²³All this have I proved in wisdom. I said, "I will be wise;" but it was far from me. ²⁴That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out? ²⁵I turned around, and my heart sought to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the scheme of things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity, and that foolishness is madness.

²⁶I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and traps, whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases God shall escape from her; but the sinner will be ensnared by her.

²⁷Behold, this have I found, says the Preacher, one to another, to find out the scheme; ²⁸which my soul still seeks; but I have not found: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found. ²⁹Behold, this only have I found:

that God made man upright; but they search for many schemes.

8 Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his face is changed. ²I say, "Keep the king's command!" because of the oath to God. ³Do not be hasty to go out of his presence. Do not persist in an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him, ⁴for the king's word is supreme. Who can say to him, "What are you doing?" ⁵Whoever keeps the commandment shall not come to harm, and his wise heart will know the time and procedure. ⁶For there is a time and procedure for every purpose, although the misery of man is heavy on him. ⁷For he doesn't know that which will be; for who can tell him how it will be? ⁸There is no man who has power over the spirit to contain the spirit; neither does he have power over the day of death. There is no discharge in war; neither shall wickedness deliver those who practice it.

⁹All this have I seen, and applied my mind to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man has power over another to his hurt. ¹⁰So I saw the wicked buried. Indeed they came also from holiness. They went and were forgotten in the city where they did this. This also is vanity. ¹¹Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.¹² Though a sinner commits crimes a hundred times, and lives long, yet surely I know that it will be better with those who fear God, who are reverent before him.¹³ But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he lengthen days like a shadow; because he doesn't fear God.

¹⁴There is a vanity which is done on the earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked. Again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity.¹⁵ Then I commended mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful: for that will accompany him in his labor all the days of his life which God has given him under the sun.

¹⁶When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (for also there is that neither day nor night sees sleep with his eyes),¹⁷ then I saw all the work of God, that man can't find out the work that is done under the sun, because however much a man labors to seek it out, yet he won't find it. Yes even though a wise man thinks he can comprehend it, he won't be able to find it.

9 For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hatred, man doesn't know it; all is before them.² All things come alike to all. There is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, to the clean, to the unclean, to him who sacrifices, and to him who doesn't sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner; he who takes an oath, as he who fears an oath.³ This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.⁴ For to him who is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion.⁵ For the living know that they will die, but the dead do not know anything, neither do they have any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.⁶ Also their love, their hatred, and their envy has perished long ago; neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun.

⁷Go your way—eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already accepted your works.⁸ Let your garments be always white, and do not let your head lack oil.⁹ Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your life of vanity, which he has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity: for that is your portion in life, and in your labor in which you labor under the sun.

¹¹I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all. ¹²For man also doesn't know his time. As the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly on them.

¹³I have also seen wisdom under the sun in this way, and it seemed great to me. ¹⁴There was a little city, and few men within it; and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great siege works against it. ¹⁵Now a poor wise man was found in it, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man. ¹⁶Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength. Nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. ¹⁷The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the cry of him who rules among fools. ¹⁸Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

10 Dead flies cause the oil of the perfumer to send forth an evil odor; so does a little folly outweigh wisdom and honor. ²A wise man's heart is at his right hand, but a fool's heart at his left. ³Yes also, when the fool walks by the way, his understanding fails him, and he says to everyone that he is a fool. ⁴If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, do not leave your place; for gentleness lays great offenses to rest.

⁵There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, the sort of error which proceeds from the ruler. ⁶Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in a low place. ⁷I have seen servants on horses, and princes walking like servants on the earth. ⁸He who digs a pit may fall into it; and whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a serpent. ⁹Whoever carves out stones may be injured by them. Whoever splits wood may be endangered thereby. ¹⁰If the axe is blunt, and one doesn't sharpen the edge, then he must use more strength; but skill brings success.

¹¹If the serpent bites before it is charmed, then is there no profit for the charmer's tongue. ¹²The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but a fool is swallowed by his own lips. ¹³The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness. ¹⁴A fool also multiplies words.

Man doesn't know what will be; and that which will be after him, who can tell him? ¹⁵The labor of fools wearies every one of them; for he doesn't know how to go to the city.

¹⁶Woe to you, land, when your king is a child, and your princes eat in the morning!
¹⁷Happy are you, land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat in due season,
for strength, and not for drunkenness!

¹⁸By slothfulness the roof sinks in;
and through idleness of the hands the house leaks.

¹⁹A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes the life glad;
and money is the answer for all things.

²⁰Do not curse the king, no, not in your thoughts;
and do not curse the rich in your bedchamber:
for a bird of the sky may carry your voice,
and that which has wings may tell the matter.

11 Cast your bread on the waters;
for you shall find it after many days.

²Give a portion to seven, yes, even to eight;
for you do not know what evil will be on the earth.

³If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth; and if a tree falls toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there shall it be.

⁴He who observes the wind won't sow;
and he who regards the clouds won't reap.

⁵As you do not know what is the way of the wind, nor how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child;
even so you do not know the work of God who does all.

⁶In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening do not withhold your hand;
for you do not know which will prosper, whether this or that,
or whether they both will be equally good.

⁷Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to see the sun.

⁸Yes, if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all;
but let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many.
All that comes is vanity.

⁹Rejoice, young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth,
and walk in the ways of your heart,
and in the sight of your eyes;
but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.

¹⁰Therefore remove sorrow from
your heart,
and put away evil from your
flesh;
for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

12 Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth,
before the evil days come,
and the years draw near,

when you will say, "I have no pleasure in them;"

²Before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars are darkened,
and the clouds return after
the rain;

³in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble,
and the strong men shall bow themselves,
and the grinders cease
because they are few,
and those who look out of the windows are
darkened,

⁴and the doors shall be shut in the street;
when the sound of the grinding is low,
and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird,
and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;

⁵yes, they shall be afraid of
heights,
and terrors will be in the
way;
and the almond tree shall
blossom,

and the grasshopper shall be a burden,
and desire shall fail;
because man goes to his everlasting home,
and the mourners go about
the streets:

⁶before the silver cord is severed, or the golden bowl is broken,
or the pitcher is broken at
the spring,
or the wheel broken at the cistern,

⁷and the dust returns to the earth as it was,
and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

⁸Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher.
All is vanity!

⁹Further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. ¹⁰The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written blamelessly, words of truth. ¹¹The words of the wise are like goads; and like nails well fastened are words from the masters of collections, which are given from one shepherd.

¹²Furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

¹³This is the end of the matter. All has been heard. Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. ¹⁴For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

Song of Solomon

1 The Song of songs, which is Solomon's.

Beloved

²Let him kiss me with the kisses of
his mouth;
for your love is better than
wine.

³Your oils have a pleasing fragrance.
Your name is oil poured forth,
therefore the virgins love
you.

⁴Take me away with you.
Let us hurry.
The king has brought me into his chambers.

Friends

We will be glad and rejoice in you.
We will praise your love more than wine!

Beloved

They are right to love you.
⁵I am dark, but lovely,
you daughters of Jerusalem,
like Kedar's tents,
like Solomon's curtains.
⁶Do not stare at me because I am
dark,
because the sun has scorched
me.
My mother's sons were angry with
me.
They made me keeper of the
vineyards.

I haven't kept my own
vineyard.

⁷Tell me, you whom my soul loves,
where you graze your flock,
where you rest them at noon;
For why should I be as one who is veiled
beside the flocks of your companions?

Lover

⁸If you do not know, most beautiful among women,
follow the tracks of the sheep.
Graze your young goats
beside the shepherds'
tents.

⁹I have compared you, my love, to a steed in Pharaoh's
chariots.

¹⁰Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings,
your neck with strings of jewels.

¹¹We will make you earrings of
gold,
with studs of silver.

Beloved

¹²While the king sat at his table, my perfume spread its
fragrance.
¹³My beloved is to me a sachet of
myrrh,
that lies between my breasts.
¹⁴My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms
from the vineyards of En Gedi.

Lover

Song of Solomon 2

¹⁵Behold, you are beautiful, my
love.
Behold, you are beautiful.
Your eyes are doves.

Beloved

¹⁶Behold, you are beautiful, my beloved, yes, pleasant;
and our couch is verdant.

Lover

¹⁷The beams of our house are cedars.
Our rafters are firs.

Beloved

2 I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

Lover

²As a lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

Beloved

³As the apple tree among the trees of the wood,
so is my beloved among the sons.

I sat down under his shadow with great delight,
his fruit was sweet to my taste.

⁴He brought me to the banquet hall.
His banner over me is love.

⁵Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples;
For I am faint with love.

⁶His left hand is under my head.
His right hand embraces me.

⁷I adjure you, daughters of
Jerusalem,

by the roes, or by the hinds
of the field,
that you not stir up, nor
awaken love,
until it so desires.

⁸The voice of my beloved!
Behold, he comes,
leaping on the mountains,
skipping on the hills.

⁹My beloved is like a roe or a young hart.
Behold, he stands behind our
wall!
He looks in at the windows.
He glances through the lattice.

¹⁰My beloved spoke, and said to
me, “Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.

¹¹For, behold, the winter is past.
The rain is over and gone.

¹²The flowers appear on the earth.
The time of the singing has come,
and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.

¹³The fig tree ripens her green figs.
The vines are in blossom.
They give forth their fragrance.

Arise, my love, my beautiful one,
and come away.”

Lover

¹⁴My dove in the clefts of the rock,
In the hiding places of the mountainside,
Let me see your face.
Let me hear your voice;
for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.

¹⁵Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes that spoil the
vineyards;
for our vineyards are in blossom.

Beloved

¹⁶My beloved is mine, and I am
his.
He browses among the lilies.
¹⁷Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away,
turn, my beloved,
and be like a roe or a young hart on the mountains of Bether.

3 By night on my bed,
I sought him whom my soul loves.

I sought him, but I did not find him.

²I will get up now, and go about
the city;
in the streets and in the squares I will seek him whom my soul loves.

I sought him, but I did not
find him.

³The watchmen who go about the city found me;
“Have you seen him whom my soul loves?”

⁴I had scarcely passed from them, when I found him whom my soul loves.

I held him, and would not let him
go,
until I had brought him into my mother’s house,
into the chamber of her who conceived me.

⁵I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
by the roes, or by the hinds
of the field,
that you not stir up, nor
awaken love,
until it so desires.

⁶Who is this who comes up from the wilderness like pillars of smoke,
perfumed with myrrh and
frankincense,
with all spices of the merchant?

⁷Behold, it is Solomon’s carriage!
Sixty mighty men are around
it,
of the mighty men of Israel.

⁸They all handle the sword, and are expert in war.
Every man has his sword on his thigh,
because of fear in the night.

⁹King Solomon made himself a carriage
of the wood of Lebanon.

¹⁰He made its pillars of silver, its bottom of gold, its seat of purple,
its midst being paved with
love,
from the daughters of
Jerusalem.

¹¹Go forth, you daughters of Zion, and see king Solomon,
with the crown with which his mother has crowned him,
in the day of his weddings,
in the day of the gladness of his heart.

Song of Solomon 4

Lover

4 Behold, you are beautiful, my love.
Behold, you are beautiful.
Your eyes are doves behind your veil.
Your hair is as a flock of goats, that descend from Mount Gilead.
²Your teeth are like a newly shorn flock, which have come up from the washing, where every one of them has twins.
None is bereaved among them.
³Your lips are like scarlet thread.
Your mouth is lovely.
Your temples are like a pomegranate behind your veil.
⁴Your neck is like David's tower built for an armory, whereon a thousand shields hang,
all the shields of the mighty men.
⁵Your two breasts are like two fawns
that are twins of a roe,
which feed among the lilies.
⁶Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away,
I will go to the mountain of myrrh,
to the hill of frankincense.
⁷You are all beautiful, my love.
There is no spot in you.

⁸Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, with me from Lebanon.
Look from the top of Amana,
from the top of Senir and Hermon,
from the lions' dens,
from the mountains of the leopards.
⁹You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride.
You have ravished my heart with one of your eyes,
with one chain of your neck.
¹⁰How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride!
How much better is your love than wine!
The fragrance of your perfumes than all manner of spices!
¹¹Your lips, my bride, drip like the honeycomb.
Honey and milk are under your tongue.
The smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon.
¹²A locked up garden is my sister, my bride;
a locked up spring,
a sealed fountain.
¹³Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits:
henna with spikenard plants, ¹⁴spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense tree;
myrrh and aloes, with all the best spices, ¹⁵a fountain of gardens,
a well of living waters, flowing streams from Lebanon.

Beloved

¹⁶Awake, north wind; and come, you south!

Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow out.

Let my beloved come into his garden,
and taste his precious fruits.

Lover

5 I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride.

I have gathered my myrrh
with my spice;

I have eaten my honeycomb
with my honey;

I have drunk my wine with my milk.

Friends

Eat, friends!

Drink, yes, drink abundantly, beloved.

Beloved

²I was asleep, but my heart was awake.

It is the voice of my beloved who knocks:

“Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled;

for my head is filled with
dew,

and my hair with the dampness of the
night.”

³I have taken off my robe. Indeed, must I put it on?

I have washed my feet.
Indeed, must I soil
them?

⁴My beloved thrust his hand in through the latch
opening.

My heart pounded for him.

⁵I rose up to open for my beloved.

My hands dripped with
myrrh,

my fingers with liquid
myrrh,

on the handles of the lock.

⁶I opened to my beloved;
but my beloved left; and had gone away.

My heart went out when he spoke.

I looked for him, but I did not find him.

I called him, but he did not answer.

⁷The watchmen who go about the city found me.

They beat me.

They bruised me.

The keepers of the walls took my cloak away
from me.

⁸I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,

If you find my beloved,
that you tell him that I am faint with love.

Friends

⁹How is your beloved better than another beloved,

you fairest among women?

How is your beloved better than
another beloved,

that you do so adjure us?

Beloved

¹⁰My beloved is white and ruddy.
The best among ten thousand.

Song of Solomon 6

- ¹¹His head is like the purest gold.
His hair is bushy, black as a raven.
- ¹²His eyes are like doves beside the water brooks,
washed with milk, mounted like jewels.
- ¹³His cheeks are like a bed of spices with towers of perfumes.
His lips are like lilies,
dropping liquid myrrh.
- ¹⁴His hands are like rings of gold set with beryl.
His body is like ivory work overlaid with sapphires.
- ¹⁵His legs are like pillars of marble set on sockets of fine
gold.
His appearance is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.
- ¹⁶His mouth is sweetness;
yes, he is altogether lovely.
This is my beloved, and this is my friend,
daughters of Jerusalem.

Friends

6 Where has your beloved gone, you
fairest among women?
Where has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?

Beloved

²My beloved has gone down to his garden,
to the beds of spices,
to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

- ³I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine.
He browses among the lilies,
- ⁴You are beautiful, my love, as Tirzah,
lovely as Jerusalem,
awesome as an army with banners.
- ⁵Turn away your eyes from me,
for they have overcome me.
Your hair is like a flock of goats, that lie along the side of Gilead.
- ⁶Your teeth are like a flock of ewes,
which have come up from the washing;
of which every one has twins;
none is bereaved among
them.
- ⁷Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind
your veil.
- ⁸There are sixty queens, eighty concubines,
and virgins without number.
- ⁹My dove, my perfect one, is unique.
She is her mother's only daughter.
She is the favorite one of her who bore her.
The daughters saw her, and called her blessed;
the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.
- ¹⁰Who is she who looks forth as
the morning,
beautiful as the moon,
clear as the sun,
and awesome as an army
with banners?

¹¹I went down into the nut tree grove,
to see the green plants of the valley,
to see whether the vine budded,
and the pomegranates were in flower.

¹²Without realizing it, my desire set me with my royal people's chariots.

Friends

¹³Return, return, Shulammitte!
Return, return, that we may gaze at you.

Lover

Why do you desire to gaze at the Shulammitte,
as at the dance of Mahanaim?

7 How beautiful are your feet in sandals, prince's daughter!

Your rounded thighs are like
jewels,
the work of the hands of a skillful workman.

²Your body is like a round goblet, no mixed wine is wanting.
Your waist is like a heap of wheat, set about with lilies.

³Your two breasts are like two fawns,
that are twins of a roe.

⁴Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bathrabbim.

Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.

⁵Your head on you is like Carmel.

The hair of your head like
purple.

The king is held captive in its tresses.

⁶How beautiful and how pleasant you are,
love, for delights!

⁷This, your stature, is like a palm tree,
your breasts like its fruit.

⁸I said, "I will climb up into the palm tree.

I will take hold of its fruit."

Let your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
the smell of your breath like apples,

Beloved

⁹Your mouth like the best wine, that goes down smoothly for my beloved,
gliding through the lips of those who are asleep.

¹⁰I am my beloved's.

His desire is toward me.

¹¹Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field.

Let us lodge in the villages.

¹²Let's go early up to the
vineyards.

Let's see whether the vine
has budded,

its blossom is open,
and the pomegranates are in flower.

There I will give you my
love.

¹³The mandrakes give forth
fragrance.

At our doors are all kinds of precious fruits, new and old,
which I have stored up for you, my beloved.

8 Oh that you were like my brother,
who sucked the breasts
of my mother!

If I found you outside, I would kiss you;
yes, and no one would despise me.

²I would lead you, bringing you into my mother's
house,
who would instruct me.

I would have you drink spiced
wine,
of the juice of my pomegranate.

³His left hand would be under my head.
His right hand would embrace me.

⁴I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
that you not stir up, nor
awaken love,
until it so desires.

Friends

⁵Who is this who comes up from
the wilderness,
leaning on her beloved?

Under the apple tree I aroused you.
There your mother
conceived you.
There she was in labor and bore you.

⁶Set me as a seal on your heart,

as a seal on your arm;
for love is strong as death.
Jealousy is as cruel as Sheol.
Its flashes are flashes of fire,
a very flame of the LORD.

⁷Many waters can't quench love, neither can floods drown it.
If a man would give all the wealth of his house for love,
he would be utterly scorned.

Friends

⁸We have a little sister.
She has no breasts.
What shall we do for our sister in the day when she is to be spoken for?

⁹If she is a wall,
we will build on her a turret of silver.

If she is a door,
we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

Beloved

¹⁰I am a wall, and my breasts like towers,
then I was in his eyes like one who found peace.

¹¹Solomon had a vineyard at Baal
Hamon.
He leased out the vineyard to keepers.

Each was to bring a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit.

¹²My own vineyard is before me.
The thousand are for you,
Solomon;
two hundred for those who tend its fruit.

Lover

¹³You who dwell in the gardens, with friends in attendance,
let me hear your voice!

Beloved

¹⁴Come away, my beloved!
Be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices!

Isaiah

1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

²Hear, heavens,
and listen, earth; for the LORD has spoken:
I have nourished and brought up
children,
and they have rebelled
against me.
³The ox knows his owner, and the donkey his master's crib;
but Israel doesn't know,
my people do not consider.
⁴Ah sinful nation,
a people loaded with
iniquity,
a seed of evildoers,
children who deal corruptly!
They have forsaken the LORD.
They have despised the Holy
One of Israel.

They are estranged and backward.

⁵Why should you be beaten more,
that you revolt more and
more?

The whole head is sick,
and the whole heart faint.

⁶From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it:
wounds, welts, and open sores.

They haven't been closed,
neither bandaged,
neither soothed with
oil.

⁷Your country is desolate.

Your cities are burned with fire.

Strangers devour your land
in your presence,
and it is desolate,
as overthrown by strangers.

⁸The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard,
like a hut in a field of melons,
like a besieged city.

⁹Unless the LORD of hosts had left to us a very small remnant,
we would have been as Sodom;
we would have been like Gomorrah.

¹⁰Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom!

Listen to the law of our God,
you people of Gomorrah!

¹¹“What are the multitude of your sacrifices to me?,”
says the LORD.

“I have had enough of the burnt offerings of
rams,

- and the fat of fed animals.
I do not delight in the blood of bulls,
or of lambs,
or of male goats.
- ¹²When you come to appear before
me,
who has required this at your hand, to trample my courts?
- ¹³Bring no more vain offerings.
Incense is an abomination to
me;
new moons, Sabbaths, and convocations:
I can't bear with evil
assemblies.
- ¹⁴My soul hates your New Moons and your appointed feasts.
They are a burden to me.
I am weary of bearing them.
- ¹⁵When you spread forth your hands, I will hide my eyes from you.
Yes, when you make many prayers, I will not hear.
Your hands are full of blood.
- ¹⁶Wash yourselves, make yourself
clean.
Put away the evil of your doings from before my
eyes.
Cease to do evil.
- ¹⁷Learn to do well.
Seek justice.
Relieve the oppressed.
Judge the fatherless.
Plead for the widow.”
- ¹⁸“Come now, and let us reason together,” says the
LORD:
- “Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow.
Though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool.
- ¹⁹If you are willing and obedient,
you shall eat the good of the
land;
²⁰but if you refuse and rebel,
you shall be devoured
with the sword;
for the mouth of the LORD
has spoken it.”
- ²¹How the faithful city has become a prostitute!
She was full of justice;
righteousness lodged
in her,
but now murderers.
- ²²Your silver has become dross,
your wine mixed with water.
- ²³Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves.
Everyone loves bribes, and follows after rewards.
They do not judge the fatherless,
neither does the cause of the widow come to them.
- ²⁴Therefore the Lord, the LORD of
hosts,
the Mighty One of Israel,
says:
“Ah, I will get relief from my
adversaries,
and avenge myself of my
enemies;
²⁵and I will turn my hand on you, thoroughly purge away your dross,
and will take away all your tin.
- ²⁶I will restore your judges as at the first,

and your counselors as at the beginning.
 Afterward you shall be called ‘The city of righteousness, a faithful town.’ ²⁷Zion shall be redeemed with justice, and her converts with righteousness.
²⁸But the destruction of transgressors and sinners shall be together, and those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed.
²⁹For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired, and you shall be confounded for the gardens that you have chosen.
³⁰For you shall be as an oak whose leaf fades, and as a garden that has no water.
³¹The strong will be like tinder, and his work like a spark.
 They will both burn together,
 and no one will quench them.”

2 This is what Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

²It shall happen in the latter days, that the mountain of the LORD’s house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills;

and all nations shall flow to it.
³Many peoples shall go and say,
 “Come, let’s go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob;
 and he will teach us of his ways,
 and we will walk in his paths.”
 For out of Zion the law shall go forth, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
⁴He will judge between the nations,
 and will decide concerning many peoples;
 and they shall beat their swords into plowshares,
 and their spears into pruning hooks.
 Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
 neither shall they learn war any more.
⁵House of Jacob, come, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.
⁶For you have forsaken your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled from the east,
 with those who practice divination like the Philistines,
 and they clasp hands with the children of foreigners.
⁷Their land is full of silver and gold,

neither is there any end of their treasures.
 Their land also is full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots.
⁸Their land also is full of idols.
 They worship the work of their own hands,
 that which their own fingers
 have made.
⁹Man is brought low,
 and mankind is humbled;
 therefore do not forgive
 them.
¹⁰Enter into the rock,
 and hide in the dust,
 from before the terror of the
 LORD,
 and from the glory of his
 majesty.
¹¹The lofty looks of man will be brought low,
 the haughtiness of men will be bowed down,
 and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.
¹²For there will be a day of the LORD of hosts for all that is proud and
 haughty,
 and for all that is lifted up;
 and it shall be brought low:
¹³For all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high
 and lifted up,
 for all the oaks of Bashan, ¹⁴For all the high mountains, for all the hills that are lifted
 up, ¹⁵For every lofty tower,
 for every fortified wall, ¹⁶For all the ships of Tarshish,
 and for all pleasant imagery.
¹⁷The loftiness of man shall be
 bowed down,

and the haughtiness of men shall be brought low;
 and the LORD alone shall be
 exalted in that day.
¹⁸The idols shall utterly pass away.
¹⁹Men shall go into the caves of
 the rocks,
 and into the holes of the
 earth,
 from before the terror of the
 LORD,
 and from the glory of his
 majesty,
 when he arises to shake the
 earth mightily.
²⁰In that day, men shall cast away their idols of silver,
 and their idols of gold,
 which have been made for themselves to worship,
 to the moles and to the bats; ²¹To go into the caverns of
 the rocks,
 and into the clefts of the ragged rocks,
 from before the terror of the
 LORD,
 and from the glory of his
 majesty,
 when he arises to shake the
 earth mightily.
²²Stop trusting in man, whose breath is in his nostrils;
 for of what account is he?

3 For behold, the Lord,
 the LORD of hosts,
 takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah supply and support,
 the whole supply of bread,
 and the whole supply of
 water;
²the mighty man,

- the man of war,
 the judge,
 the prophet,
 the diviner,
 the elder,
³the captain of fifty,
 the honorable man,
 the counselor,
 the skilled craftsman,
 and the clever enchanter.
- ⁴I will give boys to be their
 princes,
 and children shall rule over
 them.
- ⁵The people will be oppressed,
 everyone by another,
 and everyone by his
 neighbor.
 The child will behave himself proudly against the old
 man,
 and the base against the honorable.
- ⁶Indeed a man shall take hold of his brother in the house of his father,
 saying,
 “You have clothing, you be our ruler,
 and let this ruin be under
 your hand.”
- ⁷In that day he will cry out, saying,
 I will not be a healer;
 for in my house is neither bread nor clothing.
 You shall not make me ruler of the people.
- ⁸For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen;
 because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD,
 to provoke the eyes of his glory.
- ⁹The look of their faces testify against them.
- They parade their sin like Sodom.
 They do not hide it.
 Woe to their soul!
 For they have brought disaster upon
 themselves.
- ¹⁰Tell the righteous “Good!”
 For they shall eat the fruit of their deeds.
- ¹¹Woe to the wicked!
 Disaster is upon them;
 for the deeds of his hands will be paid back to
 him.
- ¹²As for my people, children are their oppressors,
 and women rule over them.
 My people, those who lead
 you cause you to err,
 and destroy the way of your
 paths.
- ¹³The LORD stands up to contend, and stands to judge the
 peoples.
- ¹⁴The LORD will enter into judgment with the elders of his people,
 and their leaders:
 “It is you who have eaten up the vineyard.
 The spoil of the poor is in your houses.
- ¹⁵What do you mean that you crush my people,
 and grind the face of the poor?” says the Lord,
 the LORD of hosts.
- ¹⁶Moreover the LORD said, “Because the daughters of Zion are haughty,
 and walk with outstretched
 necks and flirting eyes, walking to trip as they go,

jingling ornaments on their feet;

¹⁷therefore the Lord brings sores on the crown of the head of the women of Zion, and the LORD will make their scalps bald.”

¹⁸In that day the Lord will take away the beauty of their anklets, the headbands, the crescent necklaces, ¹⁹the earrings, the bracelets, the veils, ²⁰the headdresses, the ankle chains, the sashes, the perfume bottles, the charms, ²¹the signet rings, the nose rings, ²²the fine robes, the capes, the cloaks, the purses, ²³the hand mirrors, the fine linen garments, the tiaras, and the shawls.

²⁴It shall happen that instead of sweet spices, there shall be rottenness; instead of a belt, a rope; instead of well set hair, baldness; instead of a robe, a girding of sackcloth; and branding instead of beauty.

²⁵Your men shall fall by the sword, and your mighty in the war.

²⁶Her gates shall lament and mourn; and she shall be desolate and sit on the ground.

4 Seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, saying, “We will eat our own bread, and wear our own clothing: only let us be called by your name. Take away our reproach.”

²In that day, the LORD’s branch will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the beauty and glory of the survivors of Israel. ³It will happen, that he who is left in Zion, and he who remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem; ⁴when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from its midst, by the spirit of justice, and by the spirit of burning. ⁵The LORD will create over the whole habitation of Mount Zion, and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory will be a canopy. ⁶There will be a pavilion for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a refuge and for a shelter from storm and from rain.

5 Let me sing for my well beloved a song of my beloved about his vineyard.

My beloved had a vineyard on a very fruitful hill.

²He dug it up, gathered out its stones, planted it with the choicest vine, built a tower in its midst, and also cut out a winepress therein.

He looked for it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes.

³Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah,
please judge between me and my vineyard.
⁴What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it?
Why, when I looked for it to yield grapes, did it yield wild grapes?
⁵Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard.
I will take away its hedge,
and it will be eaten up.
I will break down its wall of it, and it will be trampled down.
⁶I will lay it a wasteland.
It won't be pruned nor hoed, but it will grow briars and thorns.
I will also command the clouds that they rain
no rain on it."
⁷For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel,
and the men of Judah his pleasant plant:
and he looked for justice,
but, behold,
oppression;
for righteousness, but,
behold, a cry of
distress.
⁸Woe to those who join house to
house,
who lay field to field, until there is no room,
and you are made to dwell alone in the midst of the land!
⁹In my ears, the LORD of hosts says: "Surely many houses will be
desolate,

even great and beautiful,
unoccupied.
¹⁰For ten acres^a of vineyard shall yield one bath,^b and a homer^c of seed shall yield an ephah.^d ¹¹Woe to those who rise up early in the morning, that they may follow
strong drink;
who stay late into the night,
until wine inflames
them!
¹²The harp, lyre, tambourine, and flute, with wine, are at their feasts;
but they do not regard the work of the LORD,
neither have they considered the operation of his
hands.
¹³Therefore my people go into captivity for lack of
knowledge.
Their honorable men are famished,
and their multitudes are parched with thirst.
¹⁴Therefore Sheol^e has enlarged its
desire,
and opened its mouth
without measure;

^a5:10 literally, ten yokes, or the amount of land that ten yokes of oxen can plow in one day, which is about 10 acres or 4 hectares

^b5:10 1 bath is about 22 litres, 5.8 U. S. gallons, or 4.8 imperial gallons

^c5:10 1 homer is about 220 litres or 6 bushels

^d5:10 1 ephah is about 22 litres or 0.6 bushels or about 2 pecks)—only one tenth of what was sown

^e5:14 Sheol is the place of the dead

- and their glory, their multitude, their pomp,
and he who rejoices
among them, descend
into it.
- ¹⁵So man is brought low, mankind is humbled,
and the eyes of the arrogant
ones are humbled;
- ¹⁶but the LORD of hosts is exalted
in justice,
and God the Holy One is sanctified in
righteousness.
- ¹⁷Then the lambs will graze as in their pasture,
and strangers will eat the ruins of the rich.
- ¹⁸Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of
falsehood,
and wickedness as with cart rope;
- ¹⁹Who say, "Let him make speed, let him hasten his work, that we may see
it;
and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel
draw near and come,
that we may know it!"
- ²⁰Woe to those who call evil good,
and good evil;
who put darkness for light,
and light for darkness;
who put bitter for sweet,
and sweet for bitter!
- ²¹Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes,
and prudent in their own sight!
- ²²Woe to those who are mighty to drink wine,
and champions at mixing
strong drink;
- ²³who acquit the guilty for a bribe,
but deny justice for the innocent!
- ²⁴Therefore as the tongue of fire devours the stubble,
and as the dry grass sinks down in the flame,
so their root shall be as rottenness,
and their blossom shall go up as dust;
because they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts,
and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.
- ²⁵Therefore the LORD's anger burns against his
people,
and he has stretched out his hand against them, and has struck them.
The mountains tremble,
and their dead bodies are as refuse in the midst of
the streets.
For all this, his anger is not turned
away,
but his hand is still stretched
out.
- ²⁶He will lift up a banner to the nations from far,
and he will whistle for them from the end of the
earth.
Behold, they will come speedily and swiftly.
- ²⁷None shall be weary nor stumble
among them;
none shall slumber nor
sleep;
neither shall the belt of their waist be untied,
nor the latchet of their shoes
be broken:
- ²⁸whose arrows are sharp,
and all their bows bent.

Their horses' hoofs will be like flint,
and their wheels like a whirlwind.

²⁹Their roaring will be like a lioness.
They will roar like young lions.

Yes, they shall roar,
and seize their prey and carry it off,
and there will be no one to
deliver.

³⁰They will roar against them in that day like the roaring of the sea.
If one looks to the land behold, darkness and
distress.
The light is darkened in its
clouds.

6 In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple. ²Above him stood the seraphim. Each one had six wings. With two he covered his face. With two he covered his feet. With two he flew. ³One called to another, and said, “Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of
hosts!

The whole earth is full of his glory!”

⁴The foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. ⁵Then I said, “Woe is me! For I am undone, because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of

hosts!”

⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar. ⁷He touched my mouth with it, and said, “Behold, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin forgiven.”

⁸I heard the Lord's voice, saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?”

Then I said, “Here I am.
Send me!”

⁹He said, “Go, and tell this
people,

‘You hear indeed,
but do not understand;
and you see indeed,

but do not perceive.’^a ¹⁰Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn again, and be healed.”^b ¹¹Then I said, “Lord, how long?”

He answered,

^a6:9 Luke 8:10

^b6:9-10 LXX: “and I should heal them.” Targum: “and be forgiven.” Matthew 13:14-15; John 12:40; Acts 28:26-27

“Until cities are waste without inhabitant, and houses without man,
 and the land becomes utterly waste, ¹²And the LORD has removed men far away, and the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land.
¹³If there is a tenth left in it,
 that also will in turn be consumed:
 as a terebinth, and as an oak,
 whose stock remains when they are felled;
 so the holy seed is its stock.”

7 It happened in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. ²It was told the house of David, saying, “Syria is allied with Ephraim.” His heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest tremble with the wind. ³Then the LORD said to Isaiah, “Go out now to meet Ahaz, you, and Shearjashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the highway of the Launderers’ Field. ⁴Tell him, ‘Be careful, and keep calm. Do not be afraid, neither let your heart be faint because of these two tails of smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. ⁵Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have plotted evil against you, saying, ⁶“Let’s go up against Judah, and tear it apart, and let’s divide it among ourselves, and set up a king in its midst, even the son of Tabeel.” ⁷This is what the Lord GOD says: “It shall not stand, neither shall it happen.” ⁸For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within sixty-five years Ephraim shall be broken in pieces, so that it shall not be a people; ⁹and the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah’s son. If you will not believe, surely you shall not be established.”

¹⁰The LORD spoke again to Ahaz, saying, ¹¹“Ask a sign of the LORD your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.”

¹²But Ahaz said, “I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.”

¹³He said, “Listen now, house of David: Is it not enough for you to try the patience of men, that you will try the patience of my God also? ¹⁴Therefore the Lord^a himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin will conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.^b ¹⁵He shall eat butter and honey when he knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good. ¹⁶For before the child knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land whose two kings you abhor shall be forsaken.¹⁷The LORD will bring on you, on your people, and on your father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.¹⁸It will happen in that day that the LORD will whistle for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.¹⁹They shall come, and shall all rest in the desolate valleys, in the clefts of the rocks, on all thorn hedges, and on all pastures.²⁰In that day the Lord^a will shave with a razor that is hired in the parts beyond the River, even with the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard.²¹It shall happen in that day that a man shall keep alive a young cow, and two sheep;²²and it shall happen, that because of the abundance of milk which they shall give he shall eat butter: for everyone will eat butter and honey that is left in the midst of the land.²³It will happen in that day that every place where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silver shekels, shall be for briers and thorns.²⁴People will go there with arrows and with bow, because all the land will be briers and thorns.²⁵All the hills that were cultivated with the hoe, you shall not come there for fear of briers and thorns; but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of sheep."

^a7:20 MT. DSS P "LORD"

8 The LORD said to me, "Take a large tablet, and write on it with a man's pen, 'For Maher Shalal Hash Baz;^b'² and I will take for myself faithful witnesses to testify: Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah."

³I went to the prophetess, and she conceived, and bore a son. Then said the LORD to me, "Call his name 'Maher Shalal Hash Baz.'⁴For before the child knows how to say, 'My father,' and, 'My mother,' the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria."

⁵The LORD spoke to me yet again, saying, ⁶"Because this people have refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son; ⁷now therefore, behold, the LORD^c brings upon them the mighty flood waters of the River: the king of Assyria and all his glory. It will come up over all its channels, and go over all its banks. ⁸It will sweep onward into Judah. It will overflow and pass through; it will reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of its wings will fill the breadth of your land, Immanuel. ⁹Make an uproar, you peoples, and be broken in pieces! Listen, all you from far countries: dress for battle, and be shattered!

^b8:1 "Maher Shalal Hash Baz" means "quick to the plunder, swift to the spoil"

^c8:7 See DSS P. MT: "Lord"

Dress for battle, and be shattered!
¹⁰Take counsel together, and it will be brought to nothing; speak the word, and it will not stand: for God is with us.” ¹¹For the LORD spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people, saying, ¹²“Do not say, ‘A conspiracy!’ concerning all about which this people say, ‘A conspiracy!’ neither fear their threats, nor be in dread.” ¹³The LORD of hosts is who you must regard as holy. He is the one you must fear. He is the one you must dread. ¹⁴And he will be a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock that makes them fall^b to both the houses of Israel, for a trap and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁵Many will stumble over it, fall, be broken, be snared, and be captured.” ¹⁶Wrap up the testimony. Seal the law among my disciples. ¹⁷I will wait for the LORD, who hides his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. ¹⁸Behold, I and the children whom the LORD has given me^c are for signs and wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who dwells in Mount Zion.

¹⁹When they tell you, “Consult with those who have familiar spirits and with the wizards, who chirp and who mutter:” shouldn’t a people consult with their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living?²⁰ Turn to the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, surely there is no morning for them. ²¹They will pass through it, greatly distressed and hungry; and it will happen that when they are hungry, they will worry, and curse by their king and by their God. They will turn their faces upward,²² and look to the earth, and see distress, darkness, and the gloom of anguish. They will be driven into thick darkness.

9 But there shall be no more gloom for her who was in anguish. In the former time, he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the latter time he has made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

²The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.

Those who lived in the land of the shadow of death, on them the light has shined.^d ³You have multiplied the nation.

You have increased their joy.

They rejoice before you according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. ⁴For the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have broken as in the day of Midian.

⁵For all the armor of the armed man in the noisy battle, and the garments rolled in blood, will be for burning, fuel for the fire. ⁶For to us a child is born. To us a son is given; and the government will be on his shoulders. His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God,^a Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. ⁷Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, on the throne of David, and on his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from that time on, even forever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

⁸The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it falls on Israel.

⁹All the people will know, including Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and in arrogance of heart,

¹⁰“The bricks have fallen,
 but we will build with cut stone.

The sycamore fig trees have been cut down,
 but we will put cedars in their place.”

¹¹Therefore the LORD will set up on high against him
 the adversaries of Rezin,

and will stir up his enemies, ¹²The Syrians in front, and the Philistines behind;

 and they will devour Israel with open mouth.
 For all this, his anger is not turned
 away,
 but his hand is stretched out
 still.

¹³Yet the people have not turned to him who struck them, neither have they sought the LORD of hosts.

¹⁴Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail,
 palm branch and reed, in one
 day.

¹⁵The elder and the honorable man is the head,
 and the prophet who teaches lies is the tail.

¹⁶For those who lead this people lead them astray;
 and those who are led by them are destroyed.

¹⁷Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their
 young men,
 neither will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows;
 for everyone is profane and an evildoer,
 and every mouth speaks
 folly.

For all this his anger is not turned
 away,
 but his hand is stretched out
 still.

¹⁸For wickedness burns like a fire.
 It devours the briars and
 thorns;
 yes, it kindles in the thickets of the forest,
 and they roll upward in a column of smoke.

^a9:6 Hebrew “El Gibbor.” Cf. Jeremiah 32:18

¹⁹Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts, the land is burnt up;
and the people are the fuel for the fire.
No one spares his brother.
²⁰One will devour on the right hand, and be hungry;
and he will eat on the left hand, and they will not be satisfied.
Everyone will eat the flesh of his own arm:
²¹Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh;
and they together shall be against Judah.
For all this his anger is not turned
away,
but his hand is stretched out
still.

10 Woe to those who decree unrighteous
decrees, and to the writers who write oppressive decrees; ²to deprive the needy from justice, and to rob the poor among my people of their rights, that widows may be their spoil, and that they may make the fatherless their prey! ³What will you do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which will come from afar? To whom will you flee for help? Where will you leave your wealth?

⁴They will only bow down under the prisoners,
and will fall under the slain.
For all this his anger is not turned
away,
but his hand is stretched out
still.

⁵Alas Assyrian, the rod of my anger, the staff in whose hand is my indignation! ⁶I will send him against a profane nation, and against the people who anger me will I give him a command to take the spoil and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. ⁷However he doesn't mean so, neither does his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off not a few nations. ⁸For he says, "Aren't all of my princes kings? ⁹Isn't Calno like Carchemish? Isn't Hamath like Arpad? Isn't Samaria like Damascus?" ¹⁰As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols, whose engraved images exceeded those of Jerusalem and of Samaria; ¹¹shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?
¹²Therefore it will happen that, when the Lord has performed his whole work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the willful proud heart of the king of Assyria, and the insolence of his haughty looks. ¹³For he has said, "By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom;
for I have understanding: and I have removed the boundaries of the peoples, and have robbed their treasures. Like a valiant man I have brought down their rulers.
¹⁴My hand has found the riches of the peoples like a nest, and like one gathers eggs that are abandoned, have I gathered all the earth. There was no one who moved their wing, or that opened their mouth, or chirped."

¹⁵Should an axe brag against him who chops with it? Should a saw exalt itself above him who saws with it? As if a rod should lift those who lift it up, or as if a staff should lift up someone who is not wood. ¹⁶Therefore the Lord, the LORD of hosts, will send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory a burning will be kindled like the burning of fire. ¹⁷The light of Israel will be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame; and it will burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day. ¹⁸He will consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body. It will be as when a standard bearer faints. ¹⁹The remnant of the trees of his forest shall be few, so that a child could write their number.

²⁰It will come to pass in that day that the remnant of Israel, and those who have escaped from the house of Jacob will no more again lean on him who struck them, but shall lean on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. ²¹A remnant will return, even the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. ²²For though your people, Israel, are like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. A destruction is determined, overflowing with righteousness. ²³For the Lord, the LORD of hosts, will make a full end, and that determined, in the midst of all the earth. ²⁴Therefore the Lord, the LORD of hosts, says "My people who dwell in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrian, though he strike you with the rod, and lift up his staff against you, as Egypt did. ²⁵For yet a very little while, and the indignation against you will be accomplished, and my anger will be directed to his destruction." ²⁶The LORD of hosts will stir up a scourge against him, as in the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb. His rod will be over the sea, and he will lift it up like he did against Egypt. ²⁷It will happen in that day, that his burden will depart from off your shoulder, and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.

²⁸He has come to Aiath. He has passed through Migron. At Michmash he stores his baggage. ²⁹They have gone over the pass. They have taken up their lodging at Geba. Ramah trembles. Gibeah of Saul has fled. ³⁰Cry aloud with your voice, daughter of Gallim! Listen, Laishah! You poor Anathoth! ³¹Madmenah is a fugitive. The inhabitants of Gebim flee for safety. ³²This very day he will halt at Nob. He shakes his hand at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. ³³Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, will lop the boughs with terror. The tall will be cut down, and the lofty will be brought low. ³⁴He will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon will fall by the Mighty One.

11 A shoot will come out of the stock of ^a10:23 Romans 9:27-28

Jesse,
and a branch out of his roots will bear fruit.
²The Spirit of the LORD will rest
on him:
the spirit of wisdom and
understanding,
the spirit of counsel and
might,
the spirit of knowledge and
of the fear of the
LORD.
³His delight will be in the fear of
the LORD.
He will not judge by the sight of
his eyes,
neither decide by the hearing of his ears;
⁴but with righteousness he will judge the poor,
and decide with equity for the humble of the
earth.
He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth;
and with the breath of his lips he will kill the
wicked.
⁵Righteousness will be the belt of
his waist,
and faithfulness the belt of
his waist.
⁶The wolf will live with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat;
The calf, the young lion, and the fattened calf
together;
and a little child will lead
them.
⁷The cow and the bear will graze.
Their young ones will lie down together.
The lion will eat straw like the ox.

⁸The nursing child will play near a cobra's hole,
and the weaned child will put his hand on the viper's den.
⁹They will not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain;
for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the
LORD,
as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁰And it shall come to pass in that day that the root of Jesse, that stands for a banner of the peoples; to him shall the nations seek,^a and his resting place shall be glorious. ¹¹It will happen in that day that the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.
¹²He will set up a banner for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.
¹³The envy also of Ephraim will depart, and those who persecute Judah will be cut off. Ephraim won't envy Judah, and Judah won't persecute Ephraim. ¹⁴They will fly down on the shoulders of the Philistines on the west.
Together they will plunder the children of the east. They will extend their power over Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon

^a11:10 LXX reads "hope" instead of "seek." Romans 15:12

will obey them. ¹⁵The LORD will utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his scorching wind he will wave his hand over the River, and will split it into seven streams, and cause men to march over in sandals.

¹⁶There will be a highway for the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, like there was for Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

12 In that day you will say, “I will give thanks to you, the LORD; for though you were angry with me, your anger has turned away and you comfort me. ²Behold, God is my salvation. I will trust, and will not be afraid; for YAH, the LORD, is my strength and song; and he has become my salvation.” ³Therefore with joy you will draw water out of the wells of salvation. ⁴In that day you will say, “Give thanks to the LORD! Call on his name. Declare his doings among the peoples. Proclaim that his name is exalted! ⁵Sing to the LORD, for he has done excellent things! Let this be known in all the earth! ⁶Cry aloud and shout, you inhabitant of Zion; for the Holy One of Israel is great in the midst of you!”

13 The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw: ²Set up a banner on the bare mountain! Lift up your voice to them! Wave your hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. ³I have commanded my consecrated ones; yes, I have called my mighty men for my anger, even my proudly exulting ones. ⁴The noise of a multitude is in the mountains, as of a great people; the noise of an uproar of the kingdoms of the nations gathered together! The LORD of hosts is mustering the army for the battle. ⁵They come from a far country, from the uttermost part of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land. ⁶Wail; for the day of the LORD is at hand! It will come as destruction from Shaddai. ⁷Therefore all hands will be feeble, and everyone’s heart will melt. ⁸They will be dismayed. Pangs and sorrows will seize them. They will be in pain like a woman in labor. They will look in amazement one at another. Their faces will be faces of flame. ⁹Behold, the day of the LORD comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger; to make the land a desolation, and to destroy its sinners out of it. ¹⁰For the stars of the sky and its constellations will not give their light. The sun will be darkened in its going forth, and the moon will not cause its light to shine. ¹¹I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity. I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will humble the haughtiness of the terrible. ¹²I will make people more rare than fine gold, even a person than the pure gold of Ophir. ¹³Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.¹⁴It will happen that like a hunted gazelle, and like sheep that no one gathers, they will each turn to their own people, and will each flee to their own land.¹⁵Everyone who is found will be thrust through. Everyone who is captured will fall by the sword.¹⁶Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes. Their houses will be ransacked, and their wives raped.¹⁷Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who will not value silver, and as for gold, they will not delight in it.¹⁸Their bows will dash the young men in pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb. Their eyes will not spare children.¹⁹Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' pride, will be like when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.²⁰It will never be inhabited, neither will it be lived in from generation to generation. The Arabian will not pitch a tent there, neither will shepherds make their flocks lie down there.²¹But wild animals of the desert will lie there, and their houses will be full of jackals. Ostriches will dwell there, and wild goats will frolic there.²²Wolves will cry in their castles, and jackals in the pleasant palaces. Her time is near to come, and her days will not be prolonged.

14 For the LORD will have compassion on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land. The foreigner will join himself with them, and they will unite with the house of Jacob.²The peoples will take them, and bring them to their place. The house of Israel will possess them in the LORD's land for servants and for handmaids. They will take as captives those whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.³It will happen in the day that the LORD will give you rest from your sorrow, from your trouble, and from the hard service in which you were made to serve,⁴that you will take up this parable against the king of Babylon, and say, "How the oppressor has ceased! How the attacker^a has ceased!"⁵The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers,⁶who struck the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, who ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution that none restrained.⁷The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet. They break out song.⁸Yes, the fir trees rejoice with you, with the cedars of Lebanon, saying, "Since you are humbled, no lumberjack has come up against us."⁹Sheol from beneath has moved for you to meet you at your coming. It stirs up the dead for you, even all the rulers of the earth. It has raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.¹⁰They all will answer and ask you, "Have you also become as weak as we are? Have you become like us?"¹¹Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, with the sound of your stringed instruments. Maggots are spread out under you, and worms cover you.

¹²How you have fallen from heaven, morning star, son of the dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, who laid the nations low! ¹³You said in your heart, "I will ascend into heaven! I will exalt my throne above the stars of God! I will sit on the mountain of assembly, in the far north! ¹⁴I will ascend above the heights of the clouds! I will make myself like the Most High!" ¹⁵Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the Pit.^a ¹⁶Those who see you will stare at you. They will ponder you, saying, "Is this the man who made the earth to tremble, who shook kingdoms; ¹⁷who made the world like a wilderness, and overthrew its cities; who did not release his prisoners to their home?"

¹⁸All the kings of the nations, sleep in glory, everyone in his own house. ¹⁹But you are cast away from your tomb like an abominable branch, clothed with the slain, who are thrust through with the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit; like a dead body trodden under foot. ²⁰You will not join them in burial, because you have destroyed your land. You have killed your people. The seed of evildoers will not be named forever. ²¹Prepare for slaughter of his children because of the iniquity of their fathers, that they not rise up and possess the earth, and fill the surface of the world with cities. ²²"I will rise up against them," says the LORD of hosts, "and cut off from Babylon name and remnant, and son and son's son," says the LORD. ²³"I will also make it a possession for the porcupine, and pools of water. I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," says the LORD of hosts. ²⁴The LORD of hosts has sworn, saying, "Surely, as I have thought, so shall it happen; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand: ²⁵that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and tread him under foot on my mountains. Then his yoke will leave them, and his burden leave their shoulders. ²⁶This is the plan that is determined for the whole earth. This is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations. ²⁷For the LORD of hosts has planned, and who can stop it? His hand is stretched out, and who can turn it back?"

²⁸This burden was in the year that king Ahaz died. ²⁹Do not rejoice, O Philistia, all of you, because the rod that struck you is broken; for out of the serpent's root an adder will emerge, and his fruit will be a fiery flying serpent. ³⁰The firstborn of the poor will eat, and the needy will lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine, and your remnant will be killed.

^a14:15 "depths of the Pit" Hebrew: "yarkete bor"

³¹Howl, gate! Cry, city! You are melted away, Philistia, all of you; for smoke comes out of the north, and there is no straggler in his ranks. ³²What will they answer the messengers of the nation? That the LORD has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people will take refuge.

15 The burden of Moab: for in a night, Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing; for in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing. ²They have gone up to Bayith, and to Dibon, to the high places, to weep. Moab wails over Nebo and over Medeba. Baldness is on all of their heads. Every beard is cut off. ³In their streets, they dress themselves in sackcloth. In their streets and on their housetops, everyone wails, weeping abundantly. ⁴Heshbon cries out with Elealeh. Their voice is heard even to Jahaz. Therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud. Their souls tremble within them. ⁵My heart cries out for Moab! Her Nazirites flee to Zoar, to Eglath Shelishiyah; for they go up by the ascent of Luhith with weeping; for in the way of Horonaim, they raise up a cry of destruction. ⁶For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate; for the grass has withered away, the tender grass fails, there is no green thing. ⁷Therefore they will carry away the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have stored up, over the brook of the willows. ⁸For the cry has gone around the borders of Moab; its wailing to Eglaim, and its wailing to Beer Elim. ⁹For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; for I will bring yet more on Dimon, a lion on those of Moab who escape, and on the remnant of the land.

16 Send the lambs for the ruler of the land from Selah to the wilderness, to the mountain of the daughter of Zion. ²For it will be that as wandering birds, as a scattered nest, so will the daughters of Moab be at the fords of the Arnon. ³Give counsel! Execute justice! Make your shade like the night in the midst of the noonday! Hide the outcasts! Do not betray the fugitive! ⁴Let my outcasts dwell with you! As for Moab, be a hiding place for him from the face of the destroyer. For the extortioner is brought to nothing. Destruction ceases. The oppressors are consumed out of the land. ⁵A throne will be established in loving kindness. One will sit on it in truth, in the tent of David, judging, seeking justice, and swift to do righteousness.

⁶We have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud; even of his arrogance, his pride, and his wrath. His boastings are nothing. ⁷Therefore Moab will wail for Moab. Everyone will wail. You will mourn for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth, utterly stricken. ⁸For the fields of Heshbon languish with the vine of Sibmah. The lords of the nations have broken down its choice branches, which reached even to Jazer, which wandered into the wilderness. Its shoots were spread abroad. They passed over the sea.⁹Therefore I will weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah. I will water you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh: for on your summer fruits and on your harvest the battle shout has fallen.¹⁰Gladness is taken away, and joy out of the fruitful field; and in the vineyards there will be no singing, neither joyful noise. Nobody will tread out wine in the presses. I have made the shouting stop.¹¹Therefore my heart sounds like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir Heres.¹²It will happen that when Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself on the high place, and comes to his sanctuary to pray, that he will not prevail.¹³This is the word that the LORD spoke concerning Moab in time past.¹⁴But now the LORD has spoken, saying, "Within three years, as a worker bound by contract would count them, the glory of Moab shall be brought into contempt, with all his great multitude; and the remnant will be very small and feeble."

17 The burden of Damascus: "Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it will be a ruinous heap.²The cities of Aroer are forsaken. They will be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid.³The fortress shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria. They will be as the glory of the children of Israel," says the LORD of hosts.⁴"It will happen in that day that the glory of Jacob will be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh will become lean.⁵It will be like when the harvester gathers the wheat, and his arm reaps the grain. Yes, it will be like when one gleanes grain in the valley of Rephaim.⁶Yet gleanings will be left there, like the shaking of an olive tree, two or three olives in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outermost branches of a fruitful tree," says the LORD, the God of Israel.⁷In that day, people will look to their Maker, and their eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel.⁸They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands; neither shall they respect that which their fingers have made, either the Asherim, or the incense altars.⁹In that day, their strong cities will be like the forsaken places in the woods and on the mountain top, which were forsaken from before the children of Israel; and it will be a desolation.¹⁰For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the rock of your strength. Therefore you plant pleasant plants, and set out foreign seedlings.¹¹In the day of your planting, you hedge it in. In the morning, you make your seed blossom, but the harvest flees away in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.¹²Ah, the uproar of many peoples, who roar like the roaring of the seas; and the rushing of nations, that rush like the rushing of mighty waters!¹³The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters: but he will rebuke them, and they will flee far off, and will be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm. ¹⁴At evening, behold, terror! Before the morning, they are no more. This is the portion of those who plunder us, and the lot of those who rob us.

18 Ah, the land of the rustling of wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia; ²that sends ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of papyrus on the waters, saying, “Go, you swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide!” ³All you inhabitants of the world, and you dwellers on the earth, when a banner is lifted up on the mountains, look! When the trumpet is blown, listen! ⁴For the LORD said to me, “I will be still, and I will see from my dwelling place, like the clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.” ⁵For before the harvest, when the blossom is over, and the flower becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and he will cut down and take away the spreading branches. ⁶They will be left together for the ravenous birds of the mountains, and for the animals of the earth. The ravenous birds will summer on them, and all the animals of the earth will winter on them. ⁷In that time, a present will be brought to the LORD of hosts from a people tall and smooth, even from a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, Mount Zion.

19 The burden of Egypt: “Behold, the LORD rides on a swift cloud, and comes to Egypt. The idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence; and the heart of Egypt will melt in its midst. ²I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians, and they will fight everyone against his brother, and everyone against his neighbor; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. ³The spirit of Egypt will fail in its midst. I will destroy its counsel. They will seek the idols, spirits of the dead, mediums, and spiritists. ⁴I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord. A fierce king will rule over them,” says the Lord, the LORD of hosts. ⁵The waters will fail from the sea, and the river will be wasted and become dry. ⁶The rivers will become foul. The streams of Egypt will be diminished and dried up. The reeds and flags will wither away. ⁷The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all the sown fields of the Nile, will become dry, be driven away, and be no more. ⁸The fishermen will lament, and all those who fish in the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will languish.⁹ Moreover those who work in combed flax, and those who weave white cloth, will be confounded.¹⁰ The pillars will be broken in pieces. All those who work for hire will be grieved in soul.¹¹ The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish. The counsel of the wisest counselors of Pharaoh has become stupid. How do you say to Pharaoh, "I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?"¹² Where then are your wise men? Let them tell you now; and let them know what the LORD of hosts has purposed concerning Egypt.¹³ The princes of Zoan have become fools. The princes of Memphis are deceived. They have caused Egypt to go astray, who are the cornerstone of her tribes.¹⁴ The LORD has mixed a spirit of perverseness in the midst of her; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in all of its works, like a drunken man staggers in his vomit.¹⁵ Neither shall there be for Egypt any work, which head or tail, palm branch or rush, may do.¹⁶ In that day the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shakes over them.¹⁷ The land of Judah will become a terror to Egypt. Everyone to whom mention is made of it will be afraid, because of the plans of the LORD of hosts, which he determines against it.¹⁸ In that day, there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear loyalty to the LORD of hosts. One will be called "The City of the Sun."¹⁹ In that day, there will be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD at its border.²⁰ It will be for a sign and for a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to the LORD because of oppressors, and he will send them a savior and a defender, and he will deliver them.²¹ The LORD will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know the LORD in that day. Yes, they will worship with sacrifice and offering, and will make vows to the LORD, and will perform them.²² The LORD will strike Egypt, striking and healing. They will return to the LORD, and he will listen to their pleas, and will heal them.²³ In that day there will be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.²⁴ In that day, Israel will be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth;²⁵ because the LORD of hosts has blessed them, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance."

¹⁹19:18 DSS (two mss. Hebrew: ir hacheres) Vg Symmachus MT mss. MT reads "city of destruction" (Hebrew: ir haheres). LXX reads "city of righteousness"

20 In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it; ²at that time the LORD spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, “Go, and loosen the sackcloth from off your waist, and take your shoes from off your feet.” He did so, walking naked and barefoot. ³The LORD said, “As my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder concerning Egypt and concerning Ethiopia, ⁴so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. ⁵They will be dismayed and confounded, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. ⁶The inhabitants of this coast land will say in that day, ‘Behold, this is our expectation, where we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria. And we, how will we escape?’”

21 The oracle of the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the Negev sweep through, it comes from the wilderness, from an awesome land. ²A grievous vision is declared to me. The treacherous man deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, Elam; attack! I have stopped all of Media’s sighing. ³Therefore my thighs are filled with anguish. Pains have taken hold on me, like the pains of a woman in labor. I am in so much pain that I can’t hear. I so am dismayed that I can’t see. ⁴My heart flutters. Horror has frightened me. The twilight that I desired has been turned into trembling for me. ⁵They prepare the table. They set the watch. They eat. They drink. Rise up, you princes, oil the shield! ⁶For the Lord said to me, “Go, set a watchman. Let him declare what he sees. ⁷When he sees a troop, horsemen in pairs, a troop of donkeys, a troop of camels, he shall listen diligently with great attentiveness.” ⁸Then the lookout^a shouted: “Lord, I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime, and every night I stay at my post. ⁹Behold, here comes a troop of men, horsemen in pairs.” He answered, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the engraved images of her gods are broken to the ground. ¹⁰You are my threshing, and the grain of my floor!” That which I have heard from the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I have declared to you.

¹¹The burden of Dumah. One calls to me out of Seir, “Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?” ¹²The watchman said, “The morning comes, and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire. Come back again.”

^a21:8 DSS Syriac. MT “the lion”

¹³The burden on Arabia. In the forest in Arabia you will lodge, you caravans of Dedanites. ¹⁴They brought water to him who was thirsty. The inhabitants of the land of Tema met the fugitives with their bread. ¹⁵For they fled away from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the heat of battle. ¹⁶For the Lord said to me, "Within a year, as a worker bound by contract would count it, all the glory of Kedar will fail, ¹⁷and the residue of the number of the archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, will be few; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken it."

22 The burden of the valley of vision.

What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops? ²You that are full of shouting, a tumultuous city, a joyous town; your slain are not slain with the sword, neither are they dead in battle. ³All your rulers fled away together. They were bound by the archers. All who were found by you were bound together. They fled far away. ⁴Therefore I said, "Look away from me. I will weep bitterly. Do not labor to comfort me for the destruction of the daughter of my people. ⁵For it is a day of confusion, and of treading down, and of perplexity, from the Lord, the LORD of hosts, in the valley of vision; a breaking down of the walls, and a crying to the mountains." ⁶Elam carried his quiver, with chariots of men and horsemen; and Kir uncovered the shield. ⁷It happened that your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set themselves in array at the gate. ⁸He took away the covering of Judah; and you looked in that day to the armor in the house of the forest. ⁹You saw the breaches of the city of David, that they were many; and you gathered together the waters of the lower pool. ¹⁰You numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall. ¹¹You also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you did not look to him who had done this, neither did you have respect for him who purposed it long ago. ¹²In that day, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, called to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to dressing in sackcloth: ¹³and behold, joy and gladness, killing cattle and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die."^a ¹⁴The LORD of hosts revealed himself in my ears, "Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you until you die," says the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

¹⁵Thus says the Lord, the LORD of hosts, "Go, get yourself to this treasurer, even to Shebna, who is over the house, and say, ¹⁶"What are you doing here? Who has you here, that you have dug out a tomb here?" Cutting himself out a tomb on high, chiseling a habitation for himself in the rock!"

¹⁷Behold, the LORD will overcome you and hurl you away violently. Yes, he will grasp you firmly. ¹⁸He will surely wind you around and around, and throw you like a ball into a large country. There you will die, and there the chariots of your glory will be, you shame of your lord's house. ¹⁹I will thrust you from your office. You will be pulled down from your station.

²⁰It will happen in that day that I will call my servant Eliakim^a the son of Hilkiah, ²¹and I will clothe him with your robe, and strengthen him with your belt. I will commit your government into his hand; and he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. ²²I will lay the key of the house of David on his shoulder. He will open, and no one will shut. He will shut, and no one will open. ²³I will fasten him like a nail in a sure place. He will be for a throne of glory to his father's house. ²⁴They will hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, every small vessel, from the cups even to all the pitchers. ²⁵"In that day," says the LORD of hosts, "the nail that was fastened in a sure place will give way. It will be cut down, and fall. The burden that was on it will be cut off, for the LORD has spoken it."

^a22:20 Eliakim means "God will promote"

23 The burden of Tyre.

Howl, you ships of Tarshish! For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in. From the land of Kittim it is revealed to them. ²Be still, you inhabitants of the coast, you whom the merchants of Sidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. ³On great waters, the seed of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue. She was the market of nations. ⁴Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, "I have not travailed, nor brought forth, neither have I nourished young men, nor brought up virgins." ⁵When the report comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish at the report of Tyre. ⁶Pass over to Tarshish! Wail, you inhabitants of the coast! ⁷Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days, whose feet carried her far away to travel? ⁸Who has planned this against Tyre, the giver of crowns, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honorable of the earth? ⁹The LORD of hosts has planned it, to stain the pride of all glory, to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth. ¹⁰Pass through your land like the Nile, daughter of Tarshish. There is no restraint any more. ¹¹He has stretched out his hand over the sea. He has shaken the kingdoms. The LORD has ordered the destruction of Canaan's strongholds. ¹²He said, "You shall rejoice no more, you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, pass over to Kittim. Even there you will have no rest."

¹³Behold, the land of the Chaldeans. This people was not. The Assyrians founded it for those who dwell in the wilderness. They set up their towers. They overthrew its palaces. They made it a ruin. ¹⁴Howl, you ships of Tarshish, for your stronghold is laid waste! ¹⁵It will come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. After the end of seventy years it will be to Tyre like in the song of the prostitute. ¹⁶Take a harp; go about the city, you prostitute that has been forgotten. Make sweet melody. Sing many songs, that you may be remembered. ¹⁷It will happen after the end of seventy years that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall return to her wages, and will play the prostitute with all the kingdoms of the world on the surface of the earth. ¹⁸Her merchandise and her wages will be holiness to the LORD. It will not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise will be for those who dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

24 Behold, the LORD makes the earth empty, makes it waste, turns it upside down, and scatters its inhabitants. ²It will be as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest. ³The earth will be utterly emptied and utterly laid waste; for the LORD has spoken this word. ⁴The earth mourns and fades away. The world languishes and fades away. The lofty people of the earth languish. ⁵The earth also is polluted under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant. ⁶Therefore the curse has devoured the earth, and those who dwell therein are found guilty. Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left. ⁷The new wine mourns. The vine languishes. All the merry-hearted sigh. ⁸The mirth of tambourines ceases. The sound of those who rejoice ends. The joy of the harp ceases. ⁹They will not drink wine with a song. Strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it. ¹⁰The confused city is broken down. Every house is shut up, that no man may come in. ¹¹There is a crying in the streets because of the wine. All joy is darkened. The mirth of the land is gone. ¹²The city is left in desolation, and the gate is struck with destruction. ¹³For it will be so in the midst of the earth among the peoples, as the shaking of an olive tree, as the gleanings when the vintage is done. ¹⁴These shall lift up their voice. They will shout for the majesty of the LORD. They cry aloud from the sea. ¹⁵Therefore glorify the LORD in the east, even the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea! ¹⁶From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs. Glory to the righteous! But I said, "I pine away! I pine away! Woe is me!" The treacherous have dealt treacherously. Yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously. ¹⁷Fear, the pit, and the snare, are on you who inhabitant the earth. ¹⁸It will happen that he who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and he who comes up out of the midst of the pit will be taken in the snare; for the windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble. ¹⁹The earth is utterly broken. The earth is torn apart. The earth is shaken violently. ²⁰The earth will stagger like a drunken man, and will sway back and forth like a hammock. Its disobedience will be heavy on it, and it will fall and not rise again. ²¹It shall happen in that day that the LORD will punish the army of the high ones on high, and the kings of the earth on the earth. ²²They shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison; and after many days shall they be visited. ²³Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for the LORD of hosts will reign on Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem; and before his elders will be glory.

25 The LORD, you are my God. I will exalt you! I will praise your name, for you have done wonderful things, things planned long ago, in complete faithfulness and truth. ²For you have made a city into a heap, a fortified city into a ruin, a palace of strangers to be no city. It will never be built. ³Therefore a strong people will glorify you. A city of awesome nations will fear you. ⁴For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the dreaded ones is like a storm against the wall. ⁵As the heat in a dry place will you bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shade of a cloud, the song of the dreaded ones will be brought low. ⁶In this mountain, the LORD of hosts will make all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of choice wines, of fat things full of marrow, of well refined choice wines. ⁷He will destroy in this mountain the surface of the covering that covers all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all nations. ⁸He has swallowed up death forever! ⁹The Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces. He will take the reproach of his people away from off all the earth, for the LORD has spoken it. ⁹It shall be said in that day, "Behold, this is our God! We have waited for him, and he will save us! This is the LORD! We have waited for him. We will be glad and rejoice in his salvation!" ¹⁰For in this mountain the hand of the LORD will rest.

Moab will be trodden down in his place, even like straw is trodden down in the water of the dunghill. ¹¹He will spread out his hands in its midst, like one who swims spreads out hands to swim,

but his pride will be humbled together with the craft of his hands. ¹²He has brought the high fortress of your walls down, laid low, and brought to the ground, even to the dust.

26 In that day, this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

“We have a strong city.
He appoints salvation for walls and ramparts.
²Open the gates, that the righteous nation may enter:
the one which keeps faith.
³You will keep him in peace, in peace whose thoughts are fixed on you,
because he trusts in you.
⁴Trust in the LORD forever;
for in YAH, the LORD, is an everlasting Rock.
⁵For he has brought down those who dwell on high, the lofty city.
He lays it low.
He lays it low even to the
ground.
He brings it even to the dust.
⁶The foot shall tread it down;
Even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.”
⁷The way of the righteous is level.
O Just One, you make the path of the righteous
smooth.
⁸Yes, in the path of your judgments, O LORD, have we waited for you. Your name and your renown are the desire of our soul. ⁹With my soul have I desired you in the night. Yes, with my spirit within me will I seek you earnestly; for when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness. ¹⁰Let favor be shown to the wicked, yet he will not learn righteousness. In the land of uprightness he will deal wrongfully, and will not see the LORD's majesty. ¹¹The LORD, your hand is lifted up, yet they do not see; but they will see your zeal for the people, and be disappointed. Yes, fire will consume your adversaries. ¹²The LORD, you will ordain peace for us, for you have also worked all our works for us. ¹³The LORD our God, other lords besides you have had dominion over us, but by you only will we make mention of your name. ¹⁴The dead shall not live. The deceased shall not rise. Therefore have you visited and destroyed them, and caused all memory of them to perish. ¹⁵You have increased the nation, O LORD. You have increased the nation! You are glorified! You have enlarged all the borders of the land. ¹⁶LORD, in trouble they have visited you. They poured out a prayer when your chastening was on them. ¹⁷Like as a woman with child, who draws near the time of her delivery, is in pain and cries out in her pangs; so we have been before you, LORD. ¹⁸We have been with child. We have been in pain. We gave birth, it seems, only to wind. We have not worked any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen. ¹⁹Your dead shall live. My dead bodies shall arise. Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust; for your dew is like the dew of herbs, and the earth will cast forth the dead.

²⁰Come, my people, enter into your chambers, and shut your doors behind you. Hide yourself for a little moment, until the indignation is past. ²¹For, behold, the LORD comes forth out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity. The earth also will disclose her blood, and will no longer cover her slain.

27 In that day, the LORD with his fierce and great and mighty sword will punish leviathan, the fleeing serpent, and leviathan the twisted serpent; and he will kill the dragon that is in the sea. ²In that day, sing to her, "A pleasant vineyard! ³I, the LORD, am its keeper. I will water it every moment. Lest anyone damage it, I will keep it night and day. ⁴Wrath is not in me, but if I should find briars and thorns, I would do battle! I would march on them and I would burn them together. ⁵Or else let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me. Let him make peace with me."

⁶In days to come, Jacob will take root. Israel will blossom and bud. They will fill the surface of the world with fruit. ⁷Has he struck them as he struck those who struck them? Or are they killed like those who killed them were killed? ⁸In measure, when you send them away, you contend with them. He has removed them with his rough blast in the day of the east wind. ⁹Therefore, by this the iniquity of Jacob will be forgiven, and this is all the fruit of taking away his sin:^a that he makes all the stones of the altar as chalk stones that are beaten in pieces, so that the Asherim and the incense altars shall rise no more. ¹⁰For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness. The calf will feed there, and there he will lie down, and consume its branches. ¹¹When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off. The women will come and set them on fire, for they are a people of no understanding. Therefore he who made them will not have compassion on them, and he who formed them will show them no favor. ¹²It will happen in that day, that the LORD will thresh from the flowing stream of the Euphrates to the brook of Egypt; and you will be gathered one by one, children of Israel. ¹³It will happen in that day that a great trumpet will be blown; and those who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and those who were outcasts in the land of Egypt, shall come; and they will worship the LORD in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

28 Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley of those who are overcome with wine! ²Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one. Like a storm of hail, a destroying storm, and like a storm of mighty waters overflowing, he will cast them down to the earth with his hand. ³The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden under foot. ⁴The fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley, shall be like the first-ripe fig before the summer; which someone picks and eats as soon as he sees it. ⁵In that day, the LORD of hosts will become a crown of glory, and a diadem of beauty, to the residue of his people; ⁶and a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate. ⁷They also reel with wine, and stagger with strong drink. The priest and the prophet reel with strong drink. They are swallowed up by wine. They stagger with strong drink. They err in vision. They stumble in judgment. ⁸For all tables are completely full of filthy vomit and filthiness. ⁹Whom will he teach knowledge? To whom will he explain the message? Those who are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts? ¹⁰For it is precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little. ¹¹But he will speak to this nation with stammering lips and a strange language;^a ¹²to whom he said, "This is the resting place. Give rest to weary;" and "This is the refreshing;" yet they would not hear. ¹³Therefore the word of the LORD will be to them precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, fall backward, be broken, be snared, and be taken. ¹⁴Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scoffers, that rule this people in Jerusalem: ¹⁵"Because you have said, 'We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol are we in agreement. When the overflowing scourge passes through, it won't come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and we have hidden ourselves under falsehood.'" ¹⁶Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, "Behold, I lay in Zion a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone of a sure foundation. He who believes shall not be in fear."^b ¹⁷I will make justice the measuring line, and righteousness the plumb line. The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters will overflow the hiding place. ¹⁸Your covenant with death shall be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol shall not stand. When the overflowing scourge passes through, then you will be trampled down by it. ¹⁹As often as it passes through, it will seize you; for morning by morning it will pass through, by day and by night; and it will be nothing but terror to understand the message."²⁰For the bed is too short to stretch out on, and the blanket is too

narrow to wrap oneself in. ²¹For the LORD will rise up as on Mount Perazim. He will be angry as in the valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his unusual work, and bring to pass his act, his extraordinary act. ²²Now therefore do not be scoffers, lest your bonds be made strong; for I have heard a decree of destruction from the Lord, the LORD of hosts, on the whole earth.

²³Give ear, and hear my voice! Listen, and hear my speech! ²⁴Does he who plows to sow plow continually? Does he keep turning the soil and breaking the clods? ²⁵When he has leveled its surface, doesn't he plant the dill, and scatter the cumin seed, and put in the wheat in rows, the barley in the appointed place, and the spelt in its place? ²⁶For his God instructs him in right judgment, and teaches him. ²⁷For the dill are not threshed with a sharp instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned over the cumin; but the dill is beaten out with a stick, and the cumin with a rod. ²⁸Bread flour must be ground; so he will not always be threshing it. Although he drives the wheel of his threshing cart over it, his horses do not grind it. ²⁹This also comes forth from the LORD of hosts, who is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.

29 Woe to Ariel! Ariel, the city where
David encamped!

Add year to year; let the feasts come around; ²then I will distress Ariel, and there will be mourning and lamentation. She shall be to me as an altar hearth^a. ³I will encamp against you all around you, and will lay siege against you with posted troops. I will raise siege works against you. ⁴You will be brought down, and will speak out of the ground. Your speech will mumble out of the dust. Your voice will be as of one who has a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and your speech will whisper out of the dust. ⁵But the multitude of your foes will be like fine dust, and the multitude of the ruthless ones like chaff that blows away. Yes, it will be in an instant, suddenly. ⁶She will be visited by the LORD of hosts with thunder, with earthquake, with great noise, with whirlwind and storm, and with the flame of a devouring fire. ⁷The multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all who fight against her and her stronghold, and who distress her, will be like a dream, a vision of the night. ⁸It will be like when a hungry man dreams, and behold, he eats; but he awakes, and his hunger isn't satisfied; or like when a thirsty man dreams, and behold, he drinks; but he awakes, and behold, he is faint, and he is still thirsty. The multitude of all the nations that fight against Mount Zion will be like that. ⁹Pause and wonder! Blind yourselves and be blind! They are drunk, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. ¹⁰For the LORD has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes (the prophets), and he has covered your heads (the seers).¹¹All vision has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is educated, saying, "Read this, please;" and he says, "I can't, for it is sealed."¹²and the book is delivered to one who is not educated, saying, "Read this, please;" and he says, "I can't read."¹³The Lord said, "Because this people draws near with their mouth and with their lips to honor me, but they have removed their heart far from me, but in vain do they worship me, teaching the commandments and doctrines of men.^a ¹⁴Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder; and the wisdom of their wise men will perish, and the understanding of their prudent men will be hidden."

¹⁵Woe to those who deeply hide their counsel from the LORD, and whose works are in the dark, and who say, "Who sees us?" and "Who knows us?"¹⁶You turn things upside down! Should the potter be thought to be like clay; that the thing made should say about him who made it, "He did not make me;" or the thing formed say of him who formed it, "He has no understanding?"^b

¹⁷Isn't it yet a very little while, and Lebanon will be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field will be regarded as a forest?¹⁸In that day, the deaf will hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of obscurity and out of darkness.¹⁹The humble also will increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.²⁰For the ruthless is brought to nothing, and the scoffer ceases, and all those who are alert to do evil are cut off—²¹who cause a person to be indicted by a word, and lay a snare for the arbiter in the gate, and who deprive the innocent of justice with false testimony.²²Therefore thus says the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: "Jacob shall no longer be ashamed, neither shall his face grow pale.²³But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in the midst of him, they will sanctify my name. Yes, they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.²⁴They also who err in spirit will come to understanding, and those who grumble will receive instruction."

30 "Woe to the rebellious children," says the LORD, "who take counsel, but not from me; and who make an alliance, but not with my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin,² who set out to go down into Egypt, and have not asked my advice; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt! ³Therefore the strength of Pharaoh will be your shame, and the refuge in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. ⁴For their princes are at Zoan, and their ambassadors have come to Hanes. ⁵They shall all be ashamed because of a people that can't profit them, that are not a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach."

⁶The oracle of the animals of the Negev. Through the land of trouble and anguish, of the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their riches on the shoulders of young donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to an unprofitable people. ⁷For Egypt helps in vain, and to no purpose; therefore have I called her Rahab who sits still. ⁸Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time to come forever and ever. ⁹For it is a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear the law of the LORD; ¹⁰who tell the seers, "Do not see!" and to the prophets, "Do not prophesy to us right things. Tell us pleasant things. Prophecy deceits. ¹¹Get out of the way. Turn aside from the path. Cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us." ¹²Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel, "Because you despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and rely on it; ¹³therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly in an instant. ¹⁴He will break it as a potter's vessel is broken, breaking it in pieces without sparing, so that there won't be found among the broken piece a piece good enough to take fire from the hearth, or to dip up water out of the cistern." ¹⁵For thus said the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, "You will be saved in returning and rest. Your strength will be in quietness and in confidence." You refused, ¹⁶but you said, "No, for we will flee on horses;" therefore you will flee; and, "We will ride on the swift;" therefore those who pursue you will be swift. ¹⁷One thousand will flee at the threat of one. At the threat of five, you will flee until you are left like a beacon on the top of a mountain, and like a banner on a hill. ¹⁸Therefore the LORD will wait, that he may be gracious to you; and therefore he will be exalted, that he may have mercy on you, for the LORD is a God of justice. Happy are all those who wait for him! ¹⁹For the people will dwell in Zion at Jerusalem. You will weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the voice of your cry. When he hears you, he will answer you. ²⁰Though the Lord may give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers won't be hidden anymore, but your eyes will see your teachers; ²¹and when you turn to the right hand, and when you turn to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way. Walk in it." ²²You shall defile the overlaying of your engraved images of silver, and the plating of your molten images of gold. You shall cast them away as an unclean thing. You shall tell it, "Go away!"²³He will give the rain for your seed, with which you will sow the ground; and bread of the increase of the ground will be rich and plentiful. In that day, your livestock will feed in large pastures.²⁴The oxen likewise and the young donkeys that till the ground will eat savory provender, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fork.²⁵There shall be brooks and streams of water on every lofty mountain and on every high hill in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.²⁶Moreover the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD binds up the fracture of his people, and heals the wound they were struck with.

²⁷Behold, the name of the LORD comes from far away, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke. His lips are full of indignation, and his tongue is as a devouring fire.²⁸His breath is as an overflowing stream that reaches even to the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction; and a bridle that leads to ruin will be in the jaws of the peoples.²⁹You will have a song, as in the night when a holy feast is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a flute to come to the LORD's mountain, to Israel's Rock.³⁰The LORD will cause his glorious voice to be heard, and will show the descent of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and the flame of a devouring fire, with a blast, storm, and hailstones.³¹For through the voice of the LORD the Assyrian will be dismayed. He will strike him with his rod.³²Every stroke of the rod of punishment, which the LORD will lay on him, will be with the sound of tambourines and harps. He will fight with them in battles, brandishing weapons.³³For his burning place has long been ready. Yes, for the king it is made ready. He has made its pyre deep and large with fire and much wood. The LORD's breath, like a stream of sulfur, kindles it.

31 Woe to those who go down to Egypt
for help,
and rely on horses,
and trust in chariots because they are many,
and in horsemen because they are very strong,
but they do not look to the Holy One of Israel,
and they do not seek the
LORD!

²Yet he also is wise, and will bring disaster,
and will not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evildoers,
and against the help of those
who work iniquity.

³Now the Egyptians are men, and not God;
and their horses flesh, and not spirit.

When the LORD stretches out his hand, both he who helps shall stumble,
and he who is helped shall
fall,
and they all shall be consumed together.

⁴For thus says the LORD to me, “As the lion and the young lion growling over his
prey,
if a multitude of shepherds is called together against
him,
will not be dismayed at their
voice,
nor abase himself for the noise of them,
so the LORD of hosts will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its
heights.

⁵As birds hovering, so the LORD of hosts will protect
Jerusalem.
He will protect and deliver
it.
He will pass over and preserve it.”

⁶Return to him from whom you have deeply revolted, children of Israel. ⁷For
in that day everyone shall cast away his idols of silver and his idols of gold—sin
which your own hands
have made for you.

⁸“The Assyrian will fall by the sword, not of man;
and the sword, not of mankind, shall devour
him.

He will flee from the sword,

and his young men will become subject to forced labor.

⁹His rock will pass away by reason of terror,
and his princes will be afraid of the banner.”
says the LORD, whose fire is in
Zion,
and his furnace in Jerusalem.

32 Behold, a king shall reign in
righteousness,
and princes shall rule in
justice.

²A man shall be as a hiding place from the wind,
and a shelter from the storm,
as streams of water in a dry
place,
as the shade of a large rock
in a weary land.

³The eyes of those who see will not be dim,
and the ears of those who hear will listen.

⁴The heart of the rash will understand knowledge,
and the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly.

⁵The fool will no longer be called noble,
nor the scoundrel be highly respected.

⁶For the fool will speak folly, and his heart will work
iniquity,
to practice profanity,
and to utter error against the
LORD,
To make empty the soul of the hungry,

and to cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.
⁷The ways of the scoundrel are
evil.
 He devises wicked devices to destroy the humble
with lying words,
even when the needy speaks
right.
⁸But the noble devises noble
things;
and he will continue in noble
things.
⁹Rise up, you women who are at ease! Hear my voice!
 You careless daughters, give ear to my speech!
¹⁰For days beyond a year you will be troubled, you
careless women;
for the vintage shall fail.
The harvest won't come.
¹¹Tremble, you women who are at ease!
 Be troubled, you careless
ones!
 Strip yourselves, make yourselves naked,
and put sackcloth on your waist.
¹²Beat your breasts for the pleasant
fields,
for the fruitful vine.
¹³Thorns and briars will come up on my people's land;
yes, on all the houses of joy
in the joyous city.
¹⁴For the palace will be forsaken.
The populous city will be deserted.
 The hill and the watchtower will be for dens
forever,
a delight for wild donkeys,
a pasture of flocks;

¹⁵Until the Spirit is poured on us from on high,
and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field,
and the fruitful field is considered a forest.
¹⁶Then justice will dwell in the
wilderness;
and righteousness will remain in the fruitful
field.
¹⁷The work of righteousness will be peace;
and the effect of
righteousness,
quietness and confidence forever.
¹⁸My people will abide in a peaceful habitation,
in safe dwellings,
and in quiet resting places.
¹⁹Though hail flattens the forest, and the city is leveled completely.
²⁰Happy are you who sow beside all waters,
who set free the foot of the ox and the donkey.

33 Woe to you who destroy, but you
weren't destroyed;
and who betray, but nobody betrayed you!

When you have finished destroying, you will be destroyed;
and when you have made an end of betrayal, you will be betrayed.

²LORD, be gracious to us. We have waited for you.
Be our strength every
morning,

our salvation also in the time of trouble.

³At the noise of the thunder, the peoples have fled.
When you lift yourself up,
the nations are scattered.

⁴Your spoil will be gathered as the caterpillar gathers.
Men will leap on it as locusts leap.

⁵The LORD is exalted, for he dwells on high.
He has filled Zion with justice and
righteousness.

⁶There will be stability in your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and
knowledge.
The fear of the LORD is your treasure.

⁷Behold, their valiant ones cry outside;
the ambassadors of peace
weep bitterly.

⁸The highways are desolate.
The traveling man ceases.
The covenant is broken.
He has despised the cities.^a
He doesn't regard man.

⁹The land mourns and languishes.
Lebanon is confounded and wITHERS AWAY.
Sharon is like a desert, and Bashan and Carmel
are stripped bare.

¹⁰"Now I will arise," says the
LORD;
"Now I will lift myself up.
Now I will be exalted.

¹¹You will conceive chaff.
You will bring forth stubble.

Your breath is a fire that will devour you.

¹²The peoples will be like the burning of lime,
like thorns that are cut down
and burned in the fire.

¹³Hear, you who are far off, what I have done;
and, you who are near,
acknowledge my
might."

¹⁴The sinners in Zion are afraid.
Trembling has seized the godless ones.
Who among us can live with the devouring fire?
Who among us can live with everlasting burning?

¹⁵He who walks righteously, and speaks blamelessly;
He who despises the gain of oppressions,
who gestures with his hands, refusing to take a bribe,
who stops his ears from hearing of blood,
and shuts his eyes from looking at evil—

¹⁶he will dwell on high.
His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks.
His bread will be supplied.
His waters will be sure.

¹⁷Your eyes will see the king in his beauty.
They will see a distant land.

¹⁸Your heart will meditate on the terror.
Where is he who counted?
Where is he who weighed?
Where is he who counted the towers?

¹⁹You will no longer see the fierce
people,

^a33:8 DSS "the witnesses"

a people of a deep speech that you can't comprehend,
 with a strange language that you can't understand.

²⁰Look at Zion, the city of our appointed festivals.
 Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet
 habitation,
 a tent that won't be
 removed.
 Its stakes will never be plucked
 up,
 nor will any of its cords be broken.

²¹But there the LORD will be with us in majesty,
 a place of broad rivers and streams,
 in which no galley with oars
 will go,
 neither will any gallant ship pass by there.

²²For the LORD is our judge.
 The LORD is our lawgiver.
 The LORD is our king.
 He will save us.

²³Your rigging is untied.
 They couldn't strengthen the foot of their mast.
 They couldn't spread the sail.
 Then the prey of a great spoil was divided.
 The lame took the prey.

²⁴The inhabitant won't say, "I am sick."
 The people who dwell therein will be forgiven their iniquity.

34 Come near, you
 nations, to hear!
 Listen, you peoples.
 Let the earth and all it contains hear;
 the world, and everything that comes from it.

²For the LORD is enraged against all the nations,
 and angry with all their
 armies.
 He has utterly destroyed them.
 He has given them over for
 slaughter.

³Their slain will also be cast out, and the stench of their dead bodies will come up;
 and the mountains will melt
 in their blood.

⁴All of the army of the sky will be dissolved.
 The sky will be rolled up
 like a scroll,
 and all its armies will fade
 away,
 as a leaf fades from off a vine or a fig tree.

⁵For my sword has drunk its fill in the sky.
 Behold, it will come down on Edom,
 and on the people of my curse, for judgment.

⁶The LORD's sword is filled with
 blood.
 It is covered with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats,
 with the fat of the kidneys of
 rams;
 for the LORD has a sacrifice
 in Bozrah,
 And a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

⁷The wild oxen will come down
 with them,

and the young bulls with the mighty bulls;
and their land will be soaked with blood,
and their dust made greasy with fat.

⁸For the LORD has a day of
vengeance,
a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.

⁹Its streams will be turned into pitch,
its dust into sulfur,
And its land will become burning pitch.

¹⁰It won't be quenched night nor
day.
Its smoke will go up forever.
From generation to generation, it will lie waste.
No one will pass through it
forever and ever.

¹¹But the pelican and the porcupine will possess
it.
The owl and the raven will dwell in it.
He will stretch the line of confusion over it,
and the plumb line of emptiness.

¹²They shall call its nobles to the kingdom, but none
shall be there;
and all its princes shall be
nothing.

¹³Thorns will come up in its
palaces,
nettles and thistles in its fortresses;
and it will be a habitation of
jackals,
a court for ostriches.

¹⁴The wild animals of the desert will meet with the wolves,
and the wild goat will cry to his fellow.
Yes, the night creature^a shall settle
there,
and shall find herself a place of rest.

¹⁵The owl will make her nest
there,
and lay, hatch, and gather under her shade.
Yes, the vultures will be gathered there, every one with her mate.

¹⁶Search in the book of the LORD,
and read:
not one of these will be missing.
none will lack her mate.
For my mouth has commanded,
and his Spirit has gathered
them.

¹⁷He has cast the lot for them, and his hand has divided it to them with a measuring line.
They shall possess it forever.
From generation to generation they will dwell in it.

35 The wilderness and the dry land will be glad.

The desert will rejoice and blossom like a rose.

²It will blossom abundantly,

^a34:14 literally, lilit, which could also be a night demon or night monster and rejoice even with joy and singing.

Lebanon's glory Lebanon
will be given to it,
the excellence of Carmel and Sharon.
They will see the LORD's
glory,
the excellence of our God.
³Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees.
⁴Tell those who have a fearful heart, "Be strong.
Do not be afraid.
Behold, your God will come with vengeance, God's retribution.
He will come and save you.
⁵Then the eyes of the blind will be opened,
and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped.
⁶Then the lame man will leap like a deer,
and the tongue of the mute
will sing;
for waters will break out in
the wilderness,
and streams in the desert.
⁷The burning sand will become a pool,
and the thirsty ground
springs of water.
Grass with reeds and rushes will be in the habitation of jackals,
where they lay.
⁸And a highway will be there, and
a way,
and it will be called the Highway of Holiness.^a

The unclean shall not pass over it, but it will be for those who walk in the Way.
Wicked fools will not go
there.
⁹No lion will be there, nor will any ravenous animal go up on it.
They will not be found
there;
but the redeemed will walk
there.
¹⁰The LORD's ransomed ones will return,
and come with singing to Zion;
and everlasting joy will be on their heads.
They will obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing will flee away."

36 Now it happened in the fourteenth year
of king Hezekiah,
that Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all of the fortified cities of Judah, and captured them.²The king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to king Hezekiah with a large army. He stood by the aqueduct from the upper pool on the highway to the Launderers' Field.³Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder came out to him.
⁴Rabshakeh said to them, "Now tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, "What confidence is this in which you trust? ⁵I say that your counsel and strength for the war are only vain words. Now in whom do you trust, ^a35:8 1 Thessalonians 4:7; Hebrews 12:14

that you have rebelled against me? ⁶Behold, you trust in the staff of this bruised reed, even in Egypt, which if a man leans on it, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. ⁷But if you tell me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' isn't that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar?'" ⁸Now therefore, please make a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. ⁹How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? ¹⁰Have I come up now without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, "Go up against this land, and destroy it."'"

¹¹Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; and do not speak to us in the Jews' language in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

¹²But Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you, to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?" ¹³Then Rabshakeh stood, and called out with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria!" ¹⁴Thus says the king, 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you. ¹⁵Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us. This city won't be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'" ¹⁶Do not listen to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria, 'Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and each of you eat from his vine, and each one from his fig tree, and each one of you drink the waters of his own cistern; ¹⁷until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. ¹⁸Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us." Have any of the gods of the nations delivered their lands from the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand? ²⁰Who are they among all the gods of these countries that have delivered their country out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?'"

²¹But they remained silent, and said nothing in reply, for the king's commandment was, "Do not answer him."

²²Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

37 It happened, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the LORD's house. ²He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. ³They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, 'This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth. ⁴It may be the LORD your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.'" ⁵So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

⁶Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master, 'Thus says the LORD, "Do not be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. ⁷Behold, I will put a spirit in him and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'""

⁸So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

⁹He heard news concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "He has come out to fight against you." When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰"Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem won't be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'" ¹¹Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. Shall you be delivered? ¹²Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden who were in Telassar? ¹³Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?"

¹⁴Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the LORD's house, and spread it before the LORD. ¹⁵Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying, ¹⁶"LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, who is enthroned among the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. ¹⁷Turn your ear, LORD, and hear. Open your eyes, LORD, and behold. Hear all of the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to defy the living God. ¹⁸Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed all the countries and their land, ¹⁹and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them. ²⁰Now therefore, LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you are the LORD, even you only."

²¹Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Because you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, ²²this is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him. The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. ²³Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel. ²⁴By your servants, have you defied the Lord, and have said, "With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon. I will cut down its tall cedars and its choice fir trees. I will enter into its farthest height, the forest of its fruitful field. ²⁵I have dug and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet I will dry up all the rivers of Egypt." ²⁶Have you not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it in ancient times? Now I have brought it to pass, that it should be yours to destroy fortified cities, turning them into ruinous heaps. ²⁷Therefore their inhabitants had little power. They were dismayed and confounded. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the housetops, and like a field before its crop has grown. ²⁸But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against me. ²⁹Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in your nose and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came. ³⁰This shall be the sign to you. You will eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs from the same; and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. ³¹The remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah will again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. ³²For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go forth, and survivors will escape from Mount Zion. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.' ³³Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, 'He will not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither will he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. ³⁴By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and he shall not come to this city,' says the LORD. ³⁵For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake, and for my servant David's sake."

³⁶The angel of the LORD went out and struck one hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the camp of the Assyrians. When men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. ³⁷So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, went away, returned to Nineveh, and stayed there. ³⁸It happened, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esar Haddon his son reigned in his place.

38 In those days was Hezekiah sick and near death. Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him, and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Set your house in order, for you will die, and not live.’”

²Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, ³and said, “Remember now, the LORD, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight.” Hezekiah wept bitterly.

⁴Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah, saying, ⁵“Go, and tell Hezekiah, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father, “I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add fifteen years to your life. ⁶I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city. ⁷This shall be the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he has spoken. ⁸Behold, I will cause the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down on the sundial of Ahaz with the sun, to return backward ten steps. So the sun returned ten steps on the sundial on which it had gone down.’”

⁹The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and had recovered of his sickness.

¹⁰I said, “In the middle of my life I go into the gates of Sheol.

I am deprived of the residue of my years.”

¹¹I said, “I won’t see YAH, YAH in the land of the living.

I will see man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

¹²My dwelling is removed, and is carried away from me like a shepherd’s tent.

I have rolled up, like a weaver, my life.

He will cut me off from the loom.

From day even to night you will make an end of me.

¹³I waited patiently until morning. He breaks all my bones like a lion.

From day even to night you will make an end of me.

¹⁴I chattered like a swallow or a crane.

I moaned like a dove. My eyes weaken looking upward.

Lord, I am oppressed.

Be my security.”

¹⁵What will I say?

He has both spoken to me,
and himself has done
it.

I will walk carefully all my years because of the anguish of my soul.

¹⁶Lord, men live by these things; and my spirit finds life in all
of them:

you restore me, and cause
me to live.

¹⁷Behold, for peace I had great anguish,

but you have in love for my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption;
for you have cast all my sins behind your back.

¹⁸For Sheol can't praise you.

Death can't celebrate you.
Those who go down into the pit can't hope for your
truth.

¹⁹The living, the living, he shall praise you, as I do this
day.

The father shall make known your truth to the children.

²⁰The LORD will save me.

Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD.

²¹Now Isaiah had said, “Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it for a poultice on the boil, and he shall recover.” ²²Hezekiah also had said, “What is the sign that I will go up to the house of the LORD?”

39 At that time,
Merodach Baladan

the son of Baladan,
king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he heard that he had been sick, and had recovered. ²Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, the spices, and the precious oil, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not show them. ³Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah, and asked him, “What did these men say? Where did they come from to you?”

Hezekiah said, “They have come from a country far from me, even from Babylon.”

⁴Then he asked, “What have they seen in your house?”

Hezekiah answered, “They have seen all that is in my house.
There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown
them.”

⁵Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: ⁶“Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left,” says the LORD.
⁷“They will take away your sons who will issue from you, whom you shall father, and they will be eunuchs in the king of Babylon's palace."⁷

⁸Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The LORD's word which you have spoken is good." He said moreover, "For there will be peace and truth in my days."

40 "Comfort, comfort my people," says your God.² "Speak tenderly to Jerusalem; and call out to her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins."

³The voice of one who calls out,

"Prepare the way of the LORD in the wilderness!

Make a level highway in the desert for our God.^a ⁴Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low. The uneven shall be made level, and the rough places a plain.

⁵The glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see the salvation of God;^b for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it."⁶ The voice of one saying, "Cry!"

One said, "What shall I cry?"

"All flesh is like grass, and all its glory^c is like the flower of the field.

⁷The grass withers, the flower fades, because the LORD's breath blows on it.

Surely the people are like grass.

⁸The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God stands forever."^d ⁹You who tell good news to Zion, go up on a high mountain.

You who tell good news to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with strength.

Lift it up. Do not be afraid. Say to the cities of Judah, "Behold, your God!"

¹⁰Behold, the Lord GOD will come as a mighty one, and his arm will rule for him.

Behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.

¹¹He will feed his flock like a shepherd.

He will gather the lambs in his arm, and carry them in his bosom.

^a40:3 Matthew 3:3; Mark 1:3; John 1:23

^b40:5 LXX. MT omits "the salvation of God." Luke 3:5-6

^c40:6 LXX. MT reads "all its goodness"

^d40:8 1Peter 1:24

He will gently lead those who have their young.

¹²Who has measured the waters of the sea^a in the hollow of his hand,
and marked off the sky with his span,
and calculated the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains
in scales,
and the hills in a balance?

¹³Who has known the mind^b of the LORD,
or has taught him as his counselor?^c

¹⁴Who did he take counsel with,
and who instructed him,
and taught him in the path of
justice,
and taught him knowledge,
and showed him the way of
understanding?

¹⁵Behold, the nations are like a drop in a bucket,
and are regarded as a speck
of dust on a balance.
Behold, he lifts up the islands like a very little thing.

¹⁶Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor its animals sufficient for a burnt offering.

¹⁷All the nations are like nothing
before him.
They are regarded by him as less than nothing, and vanity.

¹⁸To whom then will you liken
God?

Or what likeness will you compare to him?

¹⁹A workman has cast an image, and the goldsmith overlays it
with gold,
and casts silver chains for it.

²⁰He who is too impoverished for such an offering chooses a tree that will not rot.

He seeks a skillful workman to set up an engraved image for him that will not be moved.

²¹Haven't you known?
Haven't you heard, yet?
Haven't you been told from
the beginning?
Haven't you understood
from the foundations
of the earth?

²²It is he who sits above the circle
of the earth,
and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers;
who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in;

²³who brings princes to
nothing;
who makes the judges of the earth like meaningless.

²⁴They are planted scarcely.
They are sown scarcely.
Their stock has scarcely taken root in the ground.

He merely blows on them,
and they wither,
and the whirlwind takes them away as stubble.

^a40:12 DSS. MT omits "of the sea"

^b40:13 Or, "Spirit." Hebrew: "ruach"
(see LXX)

^c40:13 Romans 11:34; 1 Corinthians 2:16

²⁵“To whom then will you liken me?
 Who is my equal?” says the Holy One.
²⁶Lift up your eyes on high,
 and see who has created these,
 who brings out their host by number.
 He calls them all by name;
 by the greatness of his might,
 and because he is strong in power,
 Not one is lacking.
²⁷Why do you say, Jacob,
 and speak, Israel,
 “My way is hidden from the LORD, and the justice due me is disregarded by my God?” ²⁸Haven’t you known?
 Haven’t you heard?
 The everlasting God, the LORD,
 The Creator of the ends of the earth, doesn’t faint.
 He isn’t weary.
 His understanding is unsearchable.
²⁹He gives power to the weak.
 He increases the strength of him who has no might.
³⁰Even the youths faint and get weary, and the young men utterly fall; ³¹But those who wait for the LORD will renew their strength.
 They will mount up with wings like eagles.
 They will run, and not be weary.

They will walk, and not faint.

41 “Keep silent before me, islands, and let the peoples renew their strength.

Let them come near,
 then let them speak.
 Let’s meet together for judgment.

²Who has raised up one from the east?
 Whom he called to his foot in righteousness?
 He hands over nations to him,
 and makes him rule over kings.
 He gives them like the dust to his sword,
 like the driven stubble to his bow.

³He pursues them,
 and passes by safely,
 Even by a way that he had not gone with his feet.

⁴Who has worked and done it, calling the generations from the beginning?
 I, the LORD, the first, and with the last, I am he.”

⁵The islands have seen, and fear.
 The ends of the earth tremble.

They approach, and come.

⁶Everyone helps his neighbor.
 They say to their brothers,
 “Be strong!”

⁷So the carpenter encourages the goldsmith.
 He who smoothes with the hammer encourages

- him who strikes the anvil,
 saying of the soldering, "It is
 good;"
 and he fastens it with nails,
 that it might not totter.
- ⁸But you, Israel, my servant,
 Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my
 friend,
- ⁹You whom I have taken hold of from the ends
 of the earth,
 and called from its corners,
 and said to you, 'You are my servant, I have chosen
 you and not cast you
 away,'
- ¹⁰Do not be afraid, for I am with
 you.
 Do not be dismayed, for I am your God.
 I will strengthen you.
 Yes, I will help you.
 Yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of my
 righteousness.
- ¹¹Behold, all those who are incensed against you will be disappointed
 and confounded.
 Those who strive with you will be like nothing,
 and shall perish.
- ¹²You will seek them, and won't find them,
 even those who contend with
 you.
 Those who war against you will be as nothing,
 as a non-existent thing.
- ¹³For I, the LORD your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Do not be afraid.
 I will help you.'
- ¹⁴Do not be afraid, you worm
 Jacob,
 and you men of Israel.
 I will help you," says the
 LORD,
 "and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.
- ¹⁵Behold, I have made you into a new sharp threshing instrument with teeth.
 You will thresh the
 mountains,
 and beat them small,
 and will make the hills like chaff.
- ¹⁶You will winnow them,
 and the wind will carry them
 away,
 and the whirlwind will scatter them.
 You will rejoice in the LORD.
 You will glory in the Holy
 One of Israel.
- ¹⁷The poor and needy seek water,
 and there is none.
 Their tongue fails for thirst.
 I, the LORD, will answer them.
 I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.
- ¹⁸I will open rivers on the bare
 heights,
 and springs in the midst of the valleys.
 I will make the wilderness a pool of water,
 and the dry land springs of
 water.
- ¹⁹I will put cedar, acacia, myrtle,
 and oil trees in the
 wilderness.
 I will set fir trees, pine, and box trees together in
 the desert;
- ²⁰that they may see, know, consider, and understand together,

that the hand of the LORD has done this,
and the Holy One of Israel has created it.

²¹Produce your cause," says the
LORD.
"Bring forth your strong reasons," says the King of Jacob.

²²"Let them announce, and declare to us what shall happen.
Declare the former things,
what they are,
that we may consider them,
and know the latter
end of them;
or show us things to come.

²³Declare the things that are to come hereafter,
that we may know that you are gods.
Yes, do good, or do evil,
that we may be dismayed,
and see it together.

²⁴Behold, you are of nothing, and your work is of nothing.
He who chooses you is an abomination.

²⁵"I have raised up one from the north, and he has come;
from the rising of the sun,
one who calls on my
name;
and he shall come on rulers
as on mortar,
and as the potter treads clay.

²⁶Who has declared it from the beginning, that we may know?
And before, that we may say, 'He is right?'

Surely, there is no one who declares.

Surely, there is no one who shows.
Surely, there is no one who hears your words.

²⁷I am the first to say to Zion, 'Behold, look at
them;'
and I will give one who brings good news to
Jerusalem.

²⁸When I look, there is no man; even among them there is no counselor who, when I ask of them, can answer a word.

²⁹Behold, all of them, their works are vanity and nothing.
Their molten images are wind and confusion.

42 "Behold my servant, whom I uphold,
my chosen one in whom my soul delights.

I have put my Spirit on him.
He will bring justice to the
nations.

²He will not shout,
nor raise his voice,
nor cause it to be heard in the street.

³He won't break a bruised reed.
And he won't extinguish a dimly burning wick.
He will faithfully bring
justice.

⁴He will not fail nor be discouraged,
until he has set justice in the
earth,

and for his law the coastlands will hope.^a

⁵Thus says God the LORD, he who created the heavens and stretched them
out,

he who spread out the earth and that which comes out of it,

he who gives breath to its people and spirit to those who walk in it.

⁶“I, the LORD, have called you in
righteousness,
and will hold your hand,
and will keep you,
and make you a covenant for the people,
as a light for the nations; ⁷to open the blind eyes, to bring the prisoners out of the dungeon,
and those who sit in darkness out of the prison.

⁸“I am the LORD.
That is my name.
I will not give my glory to
another,
nor my praise to engraved
images.

⁹Behold, the former things have happened,
and I declare new things.
I tell you about them before they come up.”

¹⁰Sing to the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end
of the earth,
you who go down to the sea,

and all that is therein,
the islands and their inhabitants.

¹¹Let the wilderness and its cities raise their voices,
with the villages that Kedar inhabits.

Let the inhabitants of Sela sing.

Let them shout from the top of the mountains!

¹²Let them give glory to the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

¹³The LORD will go out like a mighty man.
He will stir up zeal like a man of war.
He will raise a war cry.
Yes, he will shout aloud.
He will triumph over his
enemies.

¹⁴“I have been silent a long time.
I have been quiet and restrained myself.
Now I will cry out like a travailing woman. I will both gasp and pant.

¹⁵I will destroy mountains and hills,
and dry up all their herbs.
I will make the rivers
islands,
and will dry up the pools.

¹⁶I will bring the blind by a way that they do not know.
I will lead them in paths that they do not know.
I will make darkness light
before them,
and crooked places straight.
I will do these things,
and I will not forsake them.

^a42:1-4 Matthew 12:18-21

¹⁷“Those who trust in engraved
 images,
 who tell molten images, ‘You are our gods’
 will be turned back.
 They will be utterly
 disappointed.

¹⁸“Hear, you deaf,
 and look, you blind,
 that you may see.

¹⁹Who is blind, but my servant?
 Or who is as deaf as my messenger whom I send?
 Who is as blind as he who is
 at peace,
 and as blind as the LORD’s
 servant?

²⁰You see many things, but do not observe.
 His ears are open, but he doesn’t listen.

²¹It pleased the LORD, for his righteousness’ sake, to magnify the law,
 and make it honorable.

²²But this is a robbed and plundered people.
 All of them are snared in holes,
 and they are hidden in prisons.
 They have become a prey, and no one delivers;
 and a spoil, and no one says, ‘Restore them!’

²³Who is there among you who will give ear to this?
 Who will listen and hear for the time to come?

²⁴Who gave Jacob as plunder, and Israel to the robbers?
 Did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned?

For they would not walk in
 his ways,
 and they disobeyed his law.

²⁵Therefore he poured the fierceness of his anger
 on him,
 and the strength of battle;
 and it set him on fire all around, but he did not know;
 and it burned him, but he did not take it to heart.”

43 But now thus says
 the LORD who created you, Jacob,
 and he who formed you,
 Israel:

“Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you.
 I have called you by your
 name.
 You are mine.

²When you pass through the waters, I will be with
 you;
 and through the rivers, they will not overflow you.
 When you walk through the fire,
 you will not be
 burned,
 and the flame will not scorch
 you.

³For I am the LORD your God,
 the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.
 I have given Egypt as your ransom,
 Ethiopia and Seba in your
 place.

⁴Since you have been precious and honored in my sight,
 and I have loved you;
 therefore I will give people
 in your place,

and nations instead of your
 life.
⁵Do not be afraid; for I am with
 you.
 I will bring your seed from
 the east,
 and gather you from the
 west.
⁶I will tell the north, ‘Give them
 up!’
 and tell the south, ‘Do not hold them back!
 Bring my sons from far,
 and my daughters from the ends of the earth—
⁷everyone who is called by my
 name,
 and whom I have created for my glory,
 whom I have formed,
 yes, whom I have made.’” ⁸Bring out the blind people who have eyes,
 and the deaf who have ears.
⁹Let all the nations be gathered
 together,
 and let the peoples be assembled.
 Who among them can declare this,
 and show us former things?
 Let them bring their witnesses, that they may be justified;
 or let them hear, and say,
 “That is true.”
¹⁰“You are my witnesses,” says the
 LORD,
 “With my servant whom I have chosen;
 that you may know and
 believe me,
 and understand that I am he.
 Before me there was no God formed,

neither will there be after
 me.
¹¹I myself am the LORD;
 and besides me there is no
 savior.
¹²I have declared, I have saved,
 and I have shown;
 and there was no strange god
 among you.
 Therefore you are my witnesses,” says the LORD, “and I am
 God.
¹³Yes, since the day was I am he;
 and there is no one who can deliver out of my
 hand.
 I will work, and who can hinder it?”
¹⁴Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: “For your sake, I have sent to Babylon, and I will bring all of them down as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships of their rejoicing. ¹⁵I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.”
¹⁶Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty
 waters;
¹⁷who brings forth the chariot and horse,
 the army and the mighty
 man (they lie down together, they shall not rise;
 they are extinct, they are quenched like a wick):
¹⁸“Do not remember the former
 things,
 and do not consider the things of old.

¹⁹Behold, I will do a new thing.
 It springs forth now.
 Do you not know it?
 I will even make a way in the
 wilderness,
 and rivers in the desert.
²⁰The animals of the field shall honor me,
 the jackals and the ostriches;
 because I give water in the wilderness and rivers
 in the desert,
 to give drink to my people,
 my chosen,
²¹the people which I formed for myself,
 that they might set forth my
 praise.
²²Yet you have not called on me,
 Jacob;
 but you have been weary of me, Israel.
²³You have not brought me of your sheep for burnt
 offerings;
 neither have you honored me
 with your sacrifices.
 I have not burdened you with
 offerings,
 nor wearied you with
 frankincense.
²⁴You have bought me no sweet cane with money,
 nor have you filled me with the fat of your
 sacrifices;
 but you have burdened me with
 your sins.
 You have wearied me with your iniquities.
²⁵I, even I, am he who blots out your transgressions for my own sake;
 and I will not remember
 your sins.
²⁶Put me in remembrance.

Let us plead together.
 Set forth your case,
 that you may be justified.
²⁷Your first father sinned, and your teachers have transgressed against
 me.
²⁸Therefore I will profane the princes of the
 sanctuary;
 and I will make Jacob a curse,
 and Israel a reviling.”

44 Yet listen now,
 Jacob my servant,
 and Israel, whom I
 have chosen.

²This is what the LORD who made
 you,
 and formed you from the
 womb,
 who will help you says:
 “Do not be afraid, Jacob my
 servant;
 and you, Jeshurun, whom I
 have chosen.
³For I will pour water upon the thirsty,
 and streams on the dry
 ground.
 I will pour my Spirit on your seed, and my blessing on your offspring:
⁴and they will spring up among the grass,
 as willows by the
 watercourses.
⁵One will say, ‘I am the LORD’s;’ and another will be called by the name of Jacob;
 and another will write with his hand ‘to the LORD.’”

and honor the name of Israel.”

⁶This is what the LORD, the King
of Israel,
and his Redeemer, the LORD
of hosts, says:

“I am the first, and I am the last;
and besides me there is no
God.

⁷Who is like me?
Who will call,
and will declare it,
and set it in order for me, since I established the ancient people?

Let them declare the things that are coming,
and that will happen.

⁸Do not fear,
neither be afraid.
Haven't I declared it to you long ago,

and shown it?
You are my witnesses.
Is there a God besides me?
Indeed, there is not.
I do not know any other
Rock.”

⁹Everyone who makes an engraved image is vain.
The things that they delight in will not profit.
Their own witnesses do not see, nor know, that they may be
disappointed.

¹⁰Who has fashioned a god, or molds an image that is profitable for nothing?

¹¹Behold, all his fellows will be disappointed;
and the workmen are mere
men.

Let them all be gathered together.

Let them stand up.
They will fear.
They will be put to shame
together.

¹²The blacksmith takes an axe, works in the coals,
fashions it with hammers,
and works it with his strong arm.

He is hungry,
and his strength fails;
he drinks no water,
and is faint.

¹³The carpenter stretches out a line.
He marks it out with a pencil.
He shapes it with planes.
He marks it out with compasses,
and shapes it like the figure of a man,
with the beauty of a man,
to reside in a house.

¹⁴He cuts down cedars for himself, and takes the cypress and the oak,
and strengthens for himself one among the trees of the forest.

He plants a fir tree,
and the rain nourishes it.

¹⁵Then it will be for a man to burn;
and he takes some of it, and warms himself.
Yes, he burns it, and bakes
bread.

Yes, he makes a god, and worships
it;
he makes it an engraved image, and falls down
to it.

¹⁶He burns part of it in the fire.
With part of it, he eats meat.
He roasts a roast, and is satisfied.

Yes, he warms himself,
 and says, "Aha! I am warm.
 I have seen the fire."
¹⁷The rest of it he makes into a
 god,
 even his engraved image.
 He bows down to it and worships,
 and prays to it, and says,
 "Deliver me; for you are my god!"
¹⁸They do not know, neither do they consider:
 for he has shut their eyes,
 that they can't see;
 and their hearts, that they can't understand.
¹⁹No one thinks,
 neither is there knowledge nor understanding to
 say,
 "I have burned part of it in
 the fire.
 Yes, I have also baked bread
 on its coals.
 I have roasted meat and eaten it.
 Shall I make the rest of it into an abomination?
 Shall I bow down to a tree trunk?"
²⁰He feeds on ashes.
 A deceived heart has turned him aside;
 and he can't deliver his soul,
 nor say, "Isn't there a lie in my right hand?"
²¹Remember these things, Jacob and Israel;
 for you are my servant.
 I have formed you.
 You are my servant.
 Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.
²²I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, your
 transgressions,

and, as a cloud, your sins.
 Return to me, for I have
 redeemed you.

²³Sing, you heavens, for the LORD has done it!
 Shout, you lower parts of the
 earth!
 Break out into singing, you mountains, O forest,
 all of your trees,
 for the LORD has redeemed
 Jacob,
 and will glorify himself in Israel.
²⁴Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer,
 and he who formed you
 from the womb:
 "I am the LORD, who makes all
 things;
 who alone stretches out the
 heavens;
 who spreads out the earth by myself;
²⁵who foils the omens of the empty talkers,
 and makes fools of diviners;
 who turns wise men backward, and makes their knowledge foolish;^a ²⁶who confirms the word of his
 servant,
 and performs the counsel of
 his messengers;
 who says of Jerusalem, "She will be inhabited;"
 and of the cities of Judah,
 "They will be built,"
 and "I will raise up its waste
 places;"
²⁷who says to the deep, "Be dry,"

^a44:25 DSS (three mss) LXX. MT reads "wise" instead of "foolish"

and 'I will dry up your rivers;'

²⁸Who says of Cyrus, 'He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure,'

even saying of Jerusalem,
'She will be built;'

and of the temple, 'Your foundation will be laid.'"

45 Thus says the LORD
to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have held, to subdue nations before him, and strip kings of their armor; to open the doors before him, and the gates shall not be shut:

²"I will go before you,
and make the rough places
smooth.

I will break the doors of brass in pieces,
and cut apart the bars of
iron.

³I will give you the treasures of
darkness,
and hidden riches of secret
places,

that you may know that it is I, the LORD, who call you
by your name,
even the God of Israel.

⁴For Jacob my servant's sake,
and Israel my chosen,
I have called you by your name.
I have surnamed you,
though you have not known
me.

⁵I am the LORD, and there is no other.
Besides me, there is no God.
I will strengthen you,

though you have not known
me;

⁶that they may know from the rising of the sun,
and from the west,
that there is none besides me.

I am the LORD, and there is no one else.

⁷I form the light,
and create darkness.

I make peace,
and create calamity.

I am the LORD,
who does all these things.

⁸Distil, you heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down
righteousness.

Let the earth open, that it may bring forth salvation, and let it cause righteousness to spring up with it.

I, the LORD, have created it.

⁹Woe to him who strives with his Maker—
a clay pot among the clay pots of the earth!

Shall the clay ask him who fashions it, 'What are you making?'^a
or your work, 'He has no
hands?'

¹⁰Woe to him who says to a father,
'What have you become the father of?'
or to a mother, 'To what have you given birth?'"

¹¹Thus says the LORD, the Holy
One of Israel,
and his Maker:

"You ask me about the things that are to come,
concerning my sons,

^a45:9 Romans 9:20

and you command me concerning the work
of my hands!
¹²I have made the earth, and created man on it.
I, even my hands, have stretched out the
heavens;
and I have commanded all their army.
¹³I have raised him up in
righteousness,
and I will make straight all
his ways.
He shall build my city,
and he shall let my exiles go
free,
not for price nor reward,” says the LORD of
hosts.
¹⁴Thus says the LORD: “The labor
of Egypt,
and the merchandise of Ethiopia,
and the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over to you,
and they shall be yours.
They will go after you.
They shall come over in chains;
and they will bow down to
you.
They will make supplication to
you:
‘Surely God is in you; and there is no other.
There is no other god.
¹⁵Most certainly you are a God who hid yourself,
God of Israel, the Savior.’” ¹⁶They will be disappointed, yes, confounded, all of them.
Those who are makers of idols will go into confusion together.

¹⁷Israel will be saved by the LORD with an everlasting
salvation.
You will not be disappointed nor confounded to ages everlasting.
¹⁸For thus says the LORD who created the heavens,
the God who formed the earth and made it,
who established it and did not create it a waste, who formed it to be inhabited:
“I am the LORD,
and there is no other.
¹⁹I have not spoken in secret, in a place of the land of
darkness.
I did not say to the seed of Jacob, ‘Seek me in vain.’
I, the LORD, speak
righteousness.
I declare things that are
right.
²⁰Assemble yourselves and come.
Draw near together, you who have escaped
from the nations.
Those have no knowledge who carry the wood of their engraved image,
and pray to a god that can’t save.
²¹Declare and bring it forth.
Yes, let them take counsel together: who has shown this from ancient time? Who has declared it of old? Haven’t I, the LORD? and there is no God else besides me, a just God and a Savior; there is no one besides me. ²²Look to me, and be you saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is no other. ²³By myself have I sworn, the word is gone forth from my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, that to me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.^a ²⁴Only in the LORD, it is said of me, is righteousness and strength; even to him shall men come; and all those who were incensed against him shall be disappointed. ²⁵In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

46 Bel bows down, Nebo stoops; their idols are on the animals, and on the livestock: the things that you carried about are made a load, a burden to the weary. ²They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but they have gone into captivity.

³“Listen to me, house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, that have been borne from their birth, that have been carried from the womb; ⁴and even to old age I am he, and even to gray hairs will I carry you. I have made, and I will bear; yes, I will carry, and will deliver.

⁵“To whom will you liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like? ⁶Some pour out gold from the bag, and weigh silver in the balance. They hire a goldsmith, and he makes it a god. They fall down—yes, they worship. ⁷They bear it on the shoulder, they carry it, and set it in its place, and it stands, from its place it shall not move: yes, one may cry to it, yet it can not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

⁸“Remember this, and show yourselves men; bring it again to mind, you transgressors. ⁹Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like me; ¹⁰declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done; saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure; ¹¹calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man of my counsel from a far country; yes, I have spoken, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed, I will also do it. ¹²Listen to me, you stout-hearted, who are far from righteousness: ¹³I bring near my righteousness, it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not wait; and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

47 “Come down, and sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, daughter of the Chaldeans: for you shall no more be called tender and delicate. ²Take the millstones, and grind meal; remove your veil, strip off the train, uncover the leg, pass through the rivers. ³Your nakedness shall be uncovered, yes, your shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and will spare no man.”

⁴Our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

⁵“Sit in silence, and go into darkness, daughter of the Chaldeans; for you shall no more be called the mistress of kingdoms. ⁶I was angry with my people, I profaned my inheritance, and gave them into your hand: you showed them no mercy; on the aged you have very heavily laid your yoke. ⁷You said, ‘I shall be a mistress forever;’ so that you did not lay these things to your heart, nor did you remember the latter end of it.

⁸“Now therefore hear this, you who are given to pleasures, who sit securely, who say in your heart, ‘I am, and there is no other besides me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children.’ ⁹but these two things shall come to you in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood; in their full measure shall they come on you, in spite of your many sorceries and the potency of your spells. ¹⁰For you have trusted in your wickedness; you have said, No one sees me; your wisdom and your knowledge, it has perverted you, and you have said in your heart, ‘I am, and there is no other besides me.’ ¹¹Therefore disaster will come on you; you won’t know when it dawns: and calamity will fall on you; you will not be able to put it away: and desolation shall come on you suddenly and unexpectedly.

¹²“Stand now with your enchantments, and with the multitude of your sorceries, in which you have labored from your youth; if so be you shall be able to profit, if so be you may prevail. ¹³You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels: let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save you from the things that shall come on you. ¹⁴Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: it shall not be a coal to warm at, nor a fire to sit before. ¹⁵Thus shall the things be to you in which you have labored: those who have trafficked with you from your youth shall wander everyone to his quarter; there shall be none to save you.

48 “Hear this, house of Jacob, you who are called by the name of Israel, and have come forth out of the waters of Judah; who swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness ²(for they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves on the God of Israel; the LORD of hosts is his name): ³I have declared the former things from of old; yes, they went forth out of my mouth, and I showed them: suddenly I did them, and they happened. ⁴Because I knew that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew, and your brow brass; ⁵therefore I have declared it to you from of old; before it came to pass I showed it to you; lest you should say, 'My idol has done them, and my engraved image, and my molten image, has commanded them.'⁶You have heard it; see all this; and you, will you not declare it?

'I have shown you new things from this time, even hidden things, which you have not known.⁷They are created now, and not from of old; and before this day you did not hear them; lest you should say, 'Behold, I knew them.'

⁸Yes, you did not hear; yes, you did not know; yes, from of old your ear was not opened: for I knew that you dealt very treacherously, and was called a transgressor from the womb.⁹For my name's sake will I defer my anger, and for my praise will I refrain for you, that I not cut you off.¹⁰Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction.

¹¹For my own sake, for my own sake, will I do it; for how should my name be profaned? I will not give my glory to another.

¹²Listen to me, O Jacob, and Israel my called: I am he; I am the first, I also am the last.¹³Yes, my hand has laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand has spread out the heavens: when I call to them, they stand up together.

¹⁴Assemble yourselves, all you, and hear; who among them has declared these things? He whom the LORD loves shall perform his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.¹⁵I, even I, have spoken; yes, I have called him; I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

¹⁶Come near to me and hear this:

"From the beginning I have not spoken in secret; from the time that it was, there am I." Now the Lord GOD has sent me, with his Spirit.

¹⁷Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am the LORD your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you by the way that you should go.

¹⁸Oh that you had listened to my commandments! Then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea:¹⁹your seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of your body like its grains: his name would not be cut off nor destroyed from before me.²⁰Go forth from Babylon, flee from the Chaldeans; with a voice of singing declare, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth: say, the LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob.

²¹They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts; he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them; he split the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

²²"There is no peace," says the LORD, "for the wicked."

49 Listen, islands, to me; and listen, you peoples, from far: the LORD has called me from the womb; from the body of my mother has he made mention of my name: ²and he has made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand, he has hidden me: and he has made me a polished shaft; in his quiver has he kept me close: ³and he said to me, "You are my servant; Israel, in whom I will be glorified." ⁴But I said, "I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely the justice due to me is with the LORD, and my reward with my God."

⁵Now says the LORD who formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, and that Israel be gathered to him (for I am honorable in the eyes of the LORD, and my God has become my strength); ⁶yes, he says, "It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give you for a light to the nations, that you may be my salvation to the end of the earth."^a

⁷Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despises, to him whom the nation abhors, to a servant of rulers: "Kings shall see and arise; princes, and they shall worship; because of the LORD who is faithful, even the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

⁸Thus says the LORD, "In an acceptable time have I answered you, and in a day of salvation have I helped you;^b and I will preserve you, and give you for a covenant of the people, to raise up the land, to make them inherit the desolate heritage: ⁹saying to those who are bound, 'Come out!'; to those who are in darkness, 'Show yourselves!'

"They shall feed in the ways, and on all bare heights shall be their pasture. ¹⁰They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun strike them: for he who has mercy on them will lead them, even by springs of water he will guide them. ¹¹I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted. ¹²Behold, these shall come from far; and behold, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim."

¹³Sing, heavens; and be joyful, earth; and break forth into singing, mountains: for the LORD has comforted his people, and will have compassion on his afflicted.

¹⁴But Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me, and the Lord has forgotten me."

¹⁵"Can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yes, these may forget, yet I will not forget you! ¹⁶Behold, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands; your walls are continually before me. ¹⁷Your children make haste; your destroyers and those who made you waste shall go forth from you.

¹⁸Lift up your eyes all around, and see: all these gather themselves together, and come to you. As I live," says the LORD, "you shall surely clothe yourself with them all as with an ornament, and dress yourself with them, like a bride.

¹⁹"For, as for your waste and your desolate places, and your land that has been destroyed, surely now you shall be too small for the inhabitants, and those who swallowed you up shall be far away. ²⁰The children of your bereavement shall yet say in your ears, The place is too small for me; give place to me that I may dwell.

²¹Then you will say in your heart, 'Who has conceived these for me, since I have been bereaved of my children, and am solitary, an exile, and wandering back and forth? Who has brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where were they?'"

²²Thus says the Lord GOD, "Behold, I will lift up my hand to the nations, and set up my banner to the peoples; and they shall bring your sons in their bosom, and your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders. ²³Kings shall be your nursing fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers: they shall bow down to you with their faces to the earth, and lick the dust of your feet; and you shall know that I am the LORD; and those who wait for me shall not be disappointed."

²⁴Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the captives of a tyrant be delivered?

²⁵But thus says the LORD, "Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered; for I will contend with him who contends with you, and I will save your children. ²⁶I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh; and they shall be drunk with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I, the LORD, am your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob."

50 Thus says the LORD, "Where is the bill of your mother's divorce, with which I have put her away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities were you sold, and for your transgressions was your mother put away. ²Why, when I came, was there no man? When I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it can't redeem? or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stink, because there is no water, and die for thirst. ³I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering."

⁴The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of those who are taught, that I may know how to sustain with a word him who is weary: he wakens morning by morning, he wakens my ear to hear as those who are taught. ⁵The Lord GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away backward. ⁶I gave my back to those who strike, and my cheeks to those who tore out my beard; I did not cover my face from insults and spitting. ⁷For the Lord GOD will help me; therefore I have not been confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be disappointed. ⁸He is near who justifies me; who will bring charges against me? Let us stand up together: who is my adversary? Let him come near to me. ⁹Behold, the Lord GOD will help me; who is he who shall condemn me? Behold, all they shall wax old as a garment, the moth shall eat them up. ¹⁰Who is among you who fears the LORD, who obeys the voice of his servant? He who walks in darkness, and has no light, let him trust in the name of the LORD, and rely on his God. ¹¹Behold, all you who kindle a fire, who adorn yourselves with torches around yourselves; walk in the flame of your fire, and among the brands that you have kindled.^a You shall have this of my hand; you shall lie down in sorrow.

^a50:11 Targum: "Behold, all you who kindle a fire, who grasp a sword. Fall in the fire which you kindled and on the sword which you grasped"

51 "Listen to me, you who follow after righteousness, you who seek the LORD: look to the rock you were cut from, and to the hold of the pit you were dug from. ²Look to Abraham your father, and to Sarah who bore you; for when he was but one I called him, and I blessed him, and made him many. ³For the LORD has comforted Zion; he has comforted all her waste places, and has made her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

⁴"Attend to me, my people; and give ear to me, my nation: for a law shall go forth from me, and I will establish my justice for a light of the peoples. ⁵My righteousness is near, my salvation is gone forth, and my arms shall judge the peoples; the islands shall wait for me, and on my arm shall they trust. ⁶Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look on the earth beneath; for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment; and those who dwell therein shall die in the same way: but my salvation shall be forever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

⁷"Listen to me, you who know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; do not fear the reproach of men, neither be dismayed at their insults. ⁸For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool; but my righteousness shall be forever, and my salvation to all generations.”

⁹Awake, awake, put on strength, arm of the LORD; awake, as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times. Isn't it you who cut Rahab in pieces, who pierced the monster? ¹⁰Isn't it you who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep; who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over? ¹¹The ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy shall be on their heads. They shall obtain gladness and joy. Sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

¹²“I, even I, am he who comforts you: who are you, that you are afraid of man who shall die, and of the son of man who shall be made as grass; ¹³and have forgotten the LORD your Maker, who stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and fear continually all the day because of the fury of the oppressor, when he makes ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor? ¹⁴The captive exile shall speedily be freed; and he shall not die and go down into the pit, neither shall his bread fail. ¹⁵For I am the LORD your God, who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar: the LORD of hosts is his name. ¹⁶I have put my words in your mouth, and have covered you in the shadow of my hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and tell Zion, ‘You are my people.’”

¹⁷Awake, awake, stand up, Jerusalem, that have drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his wrath; you have drunk from the bowl, of the cup of staggering, and drained it. ¹⁸There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she has brought forth; neither is there any who takes her by the hand among all the sons who she has brought up. ¹⁹These two things have happened to you. Who will bemoan you? Desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword; how shall I comfort you? ²⁰Your sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as an antelope in a net; they are full of the wrath of the LORD, the rebuke of your God. ²¹Therefore hear now this, you afflicted, and drunk, but not with wine: ²²Thus says your Lord GOD, and your God who pleads the cause of his people, “Behold, I have taken out of your hand the cup of staggering, even the bowl of the cup of my wrath; you shall no more drink it again: ²³and I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you, who have said to your soul, ‘Bow down, that we may walk over you;’ and you have laid your back as the ground, and as the street, to those who walk over.”

52 Awake, awake, put on your strength, Zion; put on your beautiful garments, Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into you the uncircumcised and the unclean. ²Shake yourself from the dust!

Arise, sit up, Jerusalem! Release yourself from the bonds of your neck, captive daughter of Zion! ³For thus says the LORD, “You were sold for nothing; and you shall be redeemed without money.”

⁴For thus says the Lord GOD, “My people went down at the first into Egypt to live there; and the Assyrian has oppressed them without cause.

⁵“Now therefore, what do I do here,” says the LORD, “seeing that my people are taken away for nothing? Those who rule over them mock,” says the LORD, “and my name continually all the day is blasphemed.^a ⁶Therefore my people shall know my name. Therefore they shall know in that day that I am he who speaks; behold, it is I.”

⁷How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of good, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, “Your God reigns!” ⁸The voice of your watchmen! they lift up the voice, together do they sing; for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD returns to Zion. ⁹Break forth into joy, sing together, you waste places of Jerusalem; for the LORD has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem. ¹⁰The LORD has made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

¹¹Depart, depart, go out from there, touch no unclean thing!^b Go out of the midst of her! Cleanse yourselves, you who bear the vessels of the LORD. ¹²For you shall not depart in haste, nor shall you leave in flight; for the LORD will go before you, and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

¹³Behold, my servant shall deal wisely, he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high.

¹⁴Just as many were astonished at you^c (his appearance was marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men),

¹⁵so shall he sprinkle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they understand.^d

53 Who has believed our message?^e To whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

²For he grew up before him as a tender plant,
and as a root out of dry
ground.

He has no form nor comeliness.

your children shall be taught by the LORD;^a and great shall be the peace of your children. ¹⁴In righteousness you shall be established: you shall be far from oppression, for you shall not be afraid; and from terror, for it shall not come near you. ¹⁵Behold, they may gather together, but not by me: whoever shall gather together against you shall fall because of you.

¹⁶“Behold, I have created the smith who blows the fire of coals, and brings forth a weapon for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.

¹⁷No weapon that is formed against you will prosper; and you will condemn every tongue that rises against you in judgment. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness which is of me,” says the LORD.

55 “Come, everyone who thirsts, to the waters! Come, he who has no money, buy, and eat! Yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. ²Why do you spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which doesn’t satisfy? Listen diligently to me, and eat you that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. ³Turn your ear, and come to me; hear, and your soul shall live: and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. ⁴Behold, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander to the peoples. ⁵Behold, you shall call a nation that you do not know; and a nation that did not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he has glorified you.”

⁶Seek the LORD while he may be found; call you on him while he is near: ⁷let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return to the LORD, and he will have mercy on him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

^a54:13 LXX: “taught by God.” John 6:45

and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing; and all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands. ¹³Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree; and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.”

56 Thus says the LORD, “Keep justice, and do righteousness; for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed. ²Happy is the man who does this, and the son of man who holds it fast; who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil.”

³Neither let the foreigner, who has joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, “The LORD will surely separate me from his people”; neither let the eunuch say, “Behold, I am a dry tree.”

⁴For thus says the LORD, “To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and hold fast my covenant: ⁵to them I will give in my house and within my walls a memorial and a name better than of sons and of daughters; I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off. ⁶Also the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, everyone who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and holds fast my covenant; ⁷even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted on my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.”^a

⁸The Lord GOD, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, says, “Yet will I gather others to him, besides his own who are gathered.”

⁹All you animals of the field, come to devour, all you animals in the forest. ¹⁰His watchmen are blind, they are all without knowledge; they are all mute dogs, they can’t bark; dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber. ¹¹Yes, the dogs are greedy, they can never have enough; and these are shepherds who can’t understand: they have all turned to their own way, each one to his gain, from every quarter. ¹²“Come,” say they, “I will get wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be as this day, great beyond measure.”

57 The righteous perishes, and no man lays it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil. ²He enters into peace; they rest in their beds, each one who walks in his uprightness.

^a56:7 Matthew 21:13; Luke 19:46; Mark 11:17

³“But draw near here, you sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the prostitute.

⁴Against whom do you sport yourselves? Against whom do you make a wide mouth, and stick out your tongue? Aren’t you children of disobedience, a seed of falsehood, ⁵you who inflame yourselves among the oaks, under every green tree; who kill the children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks? ⁶Among the smooth stones of the valley is your portion; they, they are your lot; you have even poured a drink offering to them. You have offered an offering. Shall I be appeased for these things? ⁷On a high and lofty mountain you have set your bed; there also you went up to offer sacrifice. ⁸Behind the doors and the posts you have set up your memorial:

for you have uncovered to someone besides me,
and have gone up;
you have enlarged your bed,
and made you a covenant with them:
you loved their bed where you saw it.

⁹You went to the king with oil, and increased your perfumes, and sent your ambassadors far off, and debased yourself even to Sheol^a.

¹⁰You were wearied with the length of your way; yet you did not say, ‘It is in vain.’ You found a reviving of your strength; therefore you weren’t faint.

¹¹“Of whom have you been afraid and in fear, that you lie, and have not remembered me, nor laid it to your heart? Haven’t I held my peace even of long time, and you do not fear me? ¹²I will declare your righteousness; and as for your works, they shall not profit you. ¹³When you cry, let those who you have gathered deliver you; but the wind shall take them, a breath shall carry them all away: but he who takes refuge in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain.”

¹⁴He will say, “Build up, build up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people.”

¹⁵For thus says the high and lofty One who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy:

“I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also who is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite.

¹⁶For I will not contend forever, neither will I be always angry; for the spirit would faint before me, and the souls who I have made.

¹⁷For the iniquity of his covetousness was I angry, and struck him; I hid myself and was angry; and he went on backsliding in the way of his heart. ¹⁸I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts to him and to his mourners. ¹⁹I create the fruit of the lips: Peace, peace, to him who is far off and to him who is near,” says the LORD; “and I will heal them.” ²⁰But the wicked are like the troubled sea; for it can’t rest, ^a57:9 Sheol is the place of the dead.

and its waters cast up mire and dirt. ²¹“There is no peace,” says my God, “for the wicked.”

58 “Cry aloud, do not spare, lift up your voice like a trumpet, and declare to my people their disobedience, and to the house of Jacob their sins. ²Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways: as a nation that did righteousness, and did not forsake the ordinance of their God, they ask of me righteous judgments; they delight to draw near to God. ³Why have we fasted,’ say they, ‘and you do not see? Why have we afflicted our soul, and you take no knowledge?’

“Behold, in the day of your fast you find pleasure, and exact all your labors. ⁴Behold, you fast for strife and contention, and to strike with the fist of wickedness: you do not fast this day so as to make your voice to be heard on high. ⁵Is such the fast that I have chosen? the day for a man to afflict his soul? Is it to bow down his head as a rush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Will you call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

⁶“Isn’t this the fast that I have chosen: to release the bonds of wickedness, to undo the bands of the yoke, and to let the oppressed go free, and that you break every yoke? ⁷Isn’t it to distribute your bread to the hungry, and that you bring the poor who are cast out to your house? When you see the naked, that you cover him; and that you not hide yourself from your own flesh? ⁸Then your light shall break forth as the morning, and your healing shall spring forth speedily; and your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. ⁹Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry, and he will say, ‘Here I am.’

“If you take away from the midst of you the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking wickedly; ¹⁰and if you draw out your soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul: then your light shall rise in darkness, and your obscurity be as the noonday; ¹¹and the LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in dry places, and make strong your bones; and you shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail. ¹²Those who shall be of you shall build the old waste places; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; and you shall be called The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

¹³“If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on my holy day; and call the Sabbath a delight, and the holy of the LORD honorable; and shall honor it, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words: ¹⁴then you shall delight yourself in the LORD; and I will make you to ride on the high places of the earth; and I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father:” for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it.

59 Behold, the LORD’s hand is not shortened, that it can’t save; neither his ear heavy, that it can’t hear: ²but your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hidden his face from you, so that he will not hear. ³For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue mutters wickedness. ⁴None sues in righteousness, and none pleads in truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. ⁵They hatch adders’ eggs, and weave the spider’s web: he who eats of their eggs dies; and that which is crushed breaks out into a viper. ⁶Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands. ⁷Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; desolation and destruction are in their paths. ^a ⁸The way of peace they do not know; and there is no justice in their goings: they have made them crooked paths; whoever goes therein does not know peace. ⁹Therefore is justice far from us, neither does righteousness overtake us: we look for light, but,

behold, darkness; for brightness, but we walk in obscurity. ¹⁰We grope for the wall like the blind; yes, we grope as those who have no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the twilight; among those who are lusty we are as dead men. ¹¹We roar all like bears, and moan bitterly like doves: we look for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

¹²For our transgressions are multiplied before you, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know them: ¹³transgressing and denying the LORD, and turning away from following our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood. ¹⁴Justice is turned away backward, and righteousness stands afar off; for truth is fallen in the street, and uprightness can’t enter. ¹⁵Yes, truth is lacking; and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey. The LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no justice. ¹⁶He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his own arm brought salvation to him; and his righteousness, it upheld him. ¹⁷He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head; and he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a mantle. ¹⁸According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, wrath to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompense. ¹⁹So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun; for he will come as a rushing stream, which the breath of the LORD drives.

²⁰“A Redeemer will come to Zion, and to those who turn from disobedience in Jacob,”^a says the LORD.

²¹“As for me, this is my covenant with them,” says the LORD. “My Spirit who is on you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your seed, nor out of the mouth of your seed’s seed,” says the LORD, “from henceforth and forever.”

60 “Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you. ²For, behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise on you, and his glory shall be seen on you. ³Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.

⁴“Lift up your eyes all around, and see: they all gather themselves together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far, and your daughters shall be carried in the arms. ⁵Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart shall thrill and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. ⁶The multitude of camels shall cover you, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come; they shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praises of the LORD. ⁷All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you; they shall come up with acceptance on my altar; and I will glorify the house of my glory.

⁸“Who are these who fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? ⁹Surely the islands shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of the LORD your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has glorified you.

¹⁰“Foreigners shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister to you: for in my wrath I struck you, but in my favor have I had mercy on you.

¹¹Your gates also shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring to you the wealth of the nations, and their kings led captive.

¹²For that nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; yes, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

¹³“The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the fir tree, the pine, and the box tree together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary;

and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

¹⁴The sons of those who afflicted you shall come bending to you; and all those who despised you shall bow themselves down at the soles of your feet; and they shall call you The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

^{15c}Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, so that no man passed through you, I will make you an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations. ¹⁶You shall also drink the milk of the nations, and shall nurse from royal breasts; and you shall know that I, the LORD, am your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. ¹⁷For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron. I will also make your officers peace, and righteousness your ruler. ¹⁸Violence shall no more be heard in your land, desolation nor destruction within your borders; but you shall call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise. ¹⁹The sun shall be no more your light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light to you: but the LORD will be to you an everlasting light, and your God your glory. ²⁰Your sun shall no more go down, neither shall your moon withdraw itself; for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning shall be ended. ²¹Your people also shall be all righteous; they shall inherit the land forever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified. ²²The little one shall become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation; I, the LORD, will hasten it in its time.”

61 The Spirit of the LORD^a is on me; because the LORD has anointed me to preach good news to the humble. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and an opening of the eyes to those who are bound;^b ²to proclaim the year of the LORD’s favor,^c and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; ³to appoint to those who mourn in Zion, to give to them a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he may be glorified.

⁴They shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. ⁵Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and foreigners shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers. ⁶But you shall be named the priests of the LORD; men will call you the ministers of our God: you will eat the wealth of the nations, and you will boast in their glory.

⁷Instead of your shame you shall have double; and instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess double; everlasting joy shall be to them.

⁸“For I, the LORD, love justice, I hate robbery with iniquity; and I will give them their recompense in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

⁹Their seed shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD has blessed.”

¹⁰I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. ¹¹For as the earth brings forth its bud, and as the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

62 For Zion’s sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem’s sake I will not rest, until her righteousness go forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burns. ²The nations shall see your righteousness, and all kings your glory, and you shall be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

³You shall also be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. ⁴You shall no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall your land any more be termed Desolate: but you shall be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah; for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married. ⁵For as a young man marries a virgin, so your sons shall marry you; and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so your God will rejoice over you. ⁶I have set watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem; they shall never hold their peace day nor night: you who call on the LORD, take no rest, ⁷and give him no rest, until he establishes, and until he makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

⁸The LORD has sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength,

“Surely I will no more give your grain to be food for your enemies; and foreigners shall not drink your new wine, for which you have labored: ⁹but those who have garnered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and those who have gathered it shall drink it in the courts of my sanctuary.”

¹⁰Go through, go through the gates! Prepare the way of the people! Cast up, cast up the highway! Gather out the stones! Lift up a banner for the peoples.

¹¹Behold, the LORD has proclaimed to the end of the earth, "Say to the daughter of Zion, 'Behold, your salvation comes. Behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.'" ¹²They shall call them The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and you shall be called Sought out, A city not forsaken.

63 Who is this who comes from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this who is glorious in his clothing, marching in the greatness of his strength?

"It is I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save."

²Why are you red in your clothing, and your garments like him who treads in the wine vat?

³"I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the peoples there was no man with me: yes, I trod them in my anger, and trampled them in my wrath; and their lifeblood is sprinkled on my garments, and I have stained all my clothing. ⁴For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year of my redeemed has come. ⁵I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore my own arm brought salvation to me; and my wrath, it upheld me. ⁶I trod down the peoples in my anger, and made them drunk in my wrath, and I poured out their lifeblood on the earth."

⁷I will make mention of the loving kindnesses of the LORD and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD has bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he has bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.

⁸For he said, "Surely, they are my people, children who will not deal falsely:" so he was their Savior.

⁹In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bore them, and carried them all the days of old. ¹⁰But they rebelled, and grieved his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he himself fought against them.

¹¹Then he remembered the days of old, Moses and his people, saying, Where is he who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? Where is he who put his holy Spirit in their midst? ¹²who caused his glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses? who divided the waters before them, to make himself an everlasting name? ¹³who led them through the depths, as a horse in the wilderness, so that they did not stumble? ¹⁴As the livestock that go down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused them to rest; so you led your people, to make yourself a glorious name.

¹⁵Look down from heaven, and see from the habitation of your holiness and of your glory: where are your zeal and your mighty acts? the yearning of your heart and your compassion is restrained toward me. ¹⁶For you are our Father, though Abraham doesn't know us, and Israel does not acknowledge us: you, LORD, are our Father; our Redeemer from everlasting is your name. ¹⁷O LORD, why do you make us to stray from your ways, and harden our heart from your fear? Return for your servants' sake, the tribes of your inheritance. ¹⁸Your holy people possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down your sanctuary. ¹⁹We have become as they over whom you never bear rule, as those who were not called by your name.

64 Oh that you would tear the heavens, that you would come down, that the mountains might quake at your presence, ²as when fire kindles the brushwood, and the fire causes the waters to boil; to make your name known to your adversaries, that the nations may tremble at your presence! ³When you did awesome things which we did not look for, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence. ⁴For from of old men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither has the eye seen a God besides you, who works for him who waits for him.^a ⁵You meet him who rejoices and works righteousness, those who remember you in your ways. Behold, you were angry, and we sinned. We have been in sin for a long time; and shall we be saved? ⁶For we have all become as one who is unclean, and all our righteousness is as a polluted garment: and we all fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. ⁷There is none who calls on your name, who stirs up himself to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have consumed us by means of our iniquities.

⁸But now, LORD, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. ⁹Do not be furious, LORD, neither remember iniquity forever: see, look, we beg you, we are all your people. ¹⁰Your holy cities are become a wilderness, Zion has become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation. ¹¹Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised you, is burned with fire; and all our pleasant places are laid waste. ¹²Will you refrain yourself for these things, LORD? Will you hold your peace, and afflict us very severely?

65 "I have shown myself to those who did not ask for me. I was near to those who did not seek me.^b I said, 'Here I am! Here I am!' to a nation that did not call on my name. ²I have spread out my hands all the day to a disobedient^c and obstinate people,^a who walk in a way that is not good, after their own thoughts; ³a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens, and burning incense on bricks; ⁴who sit among the graves, and lodge in the secret places; who eat pig's flesh, and the broth of abominable things is in their vessels; ⁵who say, Stand by yourself, do not come near to me, for I am holier than you. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burns all the day.

⁶“Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, yes, I will recompense into their bosom, ⁷your own iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together,” says the LORD, “who have burned incense on the mountains, and blasphemed me on the hills; therefore I will first measure their work into their bosom.”

⁸Thus says the LORD, “As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one says, ‘Do not destroy it, for a blessing is in it:’ so will I do for my servants’ sake, that I may not destroy them all. ⁹I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains; and my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there. ¹⁰Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down in, for my people who have sought me.

¹¹“But you who forsake the LORD, who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune, and who fill up mixed wine to Destiny; ¹²I will destine you to the sword, and you shall all bow down to the slaughter; because when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not listen; but you did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I did not delight.”

¹³Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, my servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry; behold, my servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty; behold, my servants shall rejoice, but you shall be disappointed; ¹⁴behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but you shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall wail for anguish of spirit.

¹⁵You shall leave your name for a curse to my chosen; and the Lord GOD will kill you; and he will call his servants by another name: ¹⁶so that he who blesses himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he who swears in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hidden from my eyes.

¹⁷“For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former things shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.

¹⁸But be you glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. ¹⁹I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people; and there shall be heard in her no more the voice of weeping and the voice of crying.

²⁰“There shall be no more there an infant of days, nor an old man who has not filled his days; for the child shall die one hundred years old, and the sinner being one hundred years old shall be accursed. ²¹They shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. ²²They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree shall be the days of my people, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. ²³They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for calamity; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them. ²⁴It shall happen that, before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. ²⁵The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the ox; and dust shall be the serpent’s food. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain,” says the LORD.

66 Thus says the LORD, “Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: what kind of house will you build to me? And what place shall be my rest? ²For all these things has my hand made, and so all these things came to be,”^a says the LORD: “but to this man will I look, even to him who is poor and of a contrite spirit, and who trembles at my word.

³He who kills an ox is as he who kills a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, as he who breaks a dog’s neck; he who offers an offering, as he who offers pig’s blood; he who burns frankincense, as he who blesses an idol. Yes, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations: ⁴I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears on them; because when I called, no one answered; when I spoke, they did not listen; but they did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I did not delight.”

⁵Hear the word of the LORD, you who tremble at his word: “Your brothers who hate you, who cast you out for my name’s sake, have said, ‘Let the LORD be glorified, that we may see your joy;’ but it is those who shall be disappointed.

⁶A voice of tumult from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that renders recompense to his enemies.

⁷“Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she delivered a son.

⁸Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall a land be born in one day? Shall a nation be brought forth at once? For as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. ⁹Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth?" says the LORD: "Shall I who cause to bring forth shut the womb?" says your God. ¹⁰"Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her: rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn over her; ¹¹that you may nurse and be satisfied at the comforting breasts; that you may drink deeply, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory."

¹²For thus says the LORD, "Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream: and you will nurse. You will be carried on her side, and will be dandled on her knees.

¹³As one whom his mother comforts, so will I comfort you; and you will be comforted in Jerusalem."

¹⁴You will see it, and your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like the tender grass: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants; and he will have indignation against his enemies. ¹⁵For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and his chariots shall be like the whirlwind; to render his anger with fierceness, and his rebuke with flames of fire. ¹⁶For by fire will the LORD execute judgment, and by his sword, on all flesh; and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

¹⁷"Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves to go to the gardens, behind one in the midst, eating pig's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, they shall come to an end together," says the LORD.

¹⁸"For I know their works and their thoughts: the time comes, that I will gather all nations and languages; and they shall come, and shall see my glory.

¹⁹"I will set a sign among them, and I will send such as escape of them to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the islands afar off, who have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations.

²⁰They shall bring all your brothers out of all the nations for an offering to the LORD, on horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and on mules, and on dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says the LORD, as the children of Israel bring their offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD. ²¹Of them also will I take for priests and for Levites," says the LORD.

²²"For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me," says the LORD, "so your seed and your name shall remain. ²³It shall happen, that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me," says the LORD. ^{24c}“They shall go forth, and look on the dead bodies of the men who have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they will be loathsome to all mankind.”^a

Jeremiah

1 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: ²to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. ³It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. ⁴Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ^{5c}“Before I formed you in the belly, I knew you. Before you came forth out of the womb, I sanctified you. I have appointed you a prophet to the nations.” ⁶Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, I do not know how to speak; for I am a child.”

^a66:24 Targum: “. . . be quenched, and the wicked shall be judged in Gehenna”

⁷But the LORD said to me, “Do not say, ‘I am a child;’ for to whoever I shall send you, you shall go, and whatever I shall command you, you shall speak. ⁸Do not be afraid because of them; for I am with you to deliver you,” says the LORD. ⁹Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth; and the LORD said to me, “Behold, I have put my words in your mouth. ¹⁰Behold, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.” ¹¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, “Jeremiah, what do you see?”

I said, “I see a branch of an almond tree.”

¹²Then the LORD said to me, “You have seen well; for I watch over my word to perform it.”

¹³The word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, “What do you see?”

I said, “I see a boiling caldron; and it is tipping away from the north.”

¹⁴Then the LORD said to me, “Out of the north evil will break out on all the inhabitants of the land. ¹⁵For, behold, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north,” says the LORD; “and they shall come, and they shall each set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its walls all around, and against all the cities of Judah. ¹⁶I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands.

¹⁷“You therefore put your belt on your waist, arise, and speak to them all that I command you. Do not be dismayed at them, lest I dismay you before them. ¹⁸For, behold, I have made you this day a fortified city, and an iron pillar, and bronze walls, against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against its princes, against its priests, and against the people of the land. ¹⁹They will fight against you; but they will not prevail against you; for I am with you,” says the LORD, “to deliver you.”

2 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD, “I remember you, the devotion of your youth, the love of your weddings; how you went after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. ³Israel was holiness to the LORD, the first fruits of his increase. All who devour him shall be held guilty. Evil shall come on them,”’” says the LORD.”

⁴Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel! ⁵Thus says the LORD, “What unrighteousness have your fathers found in me, that they have gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain? ⁶Neither did they say, ‘Where is the LORD who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that none passed through, and where no man lived?’ ⁷I brought you into a plentiful land, to eat its fruit and its goodness; but when you entered, you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination. ⁸The priests did not say, ‘Where is the LORD?’ And those who handle the law did not know me. The rulers also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

⁹“Therefore I will yet contend with you,” says the LORD, “and I will contend with your children’s children. ¹⁰For pass over to the islands of Kittim, and see; and send to Kedar, and consider diligently; and see if there has been such a thing. ¹¹Has a nation changed its gods, which really are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for that which does not profit.

¹²“Be astonished, you heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid. Be very desolate,” says the LORD. ¹³“For my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the spring of living waters, and cut them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. ¹⁴Is Israel a servant? Is he a native-born slave? Why has he become a prey? ¹⁵The young lions have roared at him, and yelled. They have made his land waste. His cities are burned up, without inhabitant. ¹⁶The children also of Memphis and Tahpanhes have broken the crown of your head.

¹⁷“Haven’t you brought this on yourself, in that you have forsaken the LORD your God, when he led you by the way? ¹⁸Now what have you to do in the way to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Shihor? Or what have you to do in the way to Assyria, to drink the waters of the River?

¹⁹“Your own wickedness shall correct you, and your backsliding shall reprove you. Know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter that you have forsaken the LORD your God, and that my fear is not in you,” says the Lord, GOD of hosts. ²⁰“For of old time I have broken your yoke, and burst your bonds; and you said, ‘I will not serve;’ for on every high hill and under every green tree you bowed yourself, playing the prostitute. ²¹Yet I had planted you a noble vine, wholly a right seed. How then have you turned into the degenerate branches of a foreign vine to me? ²²For though you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap, yet your iniquity is marked before me,” says the Lord GOD.

²⁵“Withhold your foot from being unshod, and your throat from thirst. But you said, ‘It is in vain. No, for I have loved strangers, and I will go after them.’ ²⁶As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets; ²⁷who tell wood, ‘You are my father;’ and a stone, ‘You have brought me out.’ for they have turned their back to me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, ‘Arise, and save us.’

²⁸“But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves? Let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble: for according to the number of your cities are your gods, Judah.

²⁹“Why will you contend with me? You all have transgressed against me,” says the LORD.

³⁰“I have struck your children in vain. They received no correction. Your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion. ³¹Generation, consider the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness to Israel? Or a land of thick darkness? Why do my people say, 'We have broken loose. We will come to you no more?'

³²"Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number. ³³How well you prepare your way to seek love! Therefore you have taught even the wicked women your ways. ³⁴Also the blood of the souls of the innocent poor is found in your skirts. You did not find them breaking in; but it is because of all these things.

³⁵"Yet you said, 'I am innocent. Surely his anger has turned away from me.'

"Behold, I will judge you, because you say, 'I have not sinned.'³⁶Why do you go about so much to change your way? You will be ashamed of Egypt also, as you were ashamed of Assyria. ³⁷From there also you shall go forth, with your hands on your head; for the LORD has rejected those in whom you trust, and you shall not prosper with them.

3 "They say, 'If a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him, and become another man's, will he return to her again?' Wouldn't that land be greatly polluted? But you have played the prostitute with many lovers; yet return again to me," says the LORD.

²"Lift up your eyes to the bare heights, and see! Where have you not been lain with? You have sat for them by the ways, as an Arabian in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with your prostitution and with your wickedness. ³Therefore the showers have been withheld, and there has been no latter rain; yet you have a prostitute's forehead, you refused to be ashamed. ⁴Will you not from this time cry to me, 'My Father, you are the guide of my youth?'

⁵"Will he retain his anger forever? Will he keep it to the end? Behold, you have spoken and have done evil things, and have had your way."

⁶Moreover, the LORD said to me in the days of Josiah the king, "Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there has played the prostitute. ⁷I said after she had done all these things, 'She will return to me;' but she did not return; and her treacherous sister Judah saw it. ⁸I saw, when, for this very cause that backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorce, yet treacherous Judah, her sister, did not fear; but she also went and played the prostitute. ⁹It happened through the lightness of her prostitution, that the land was polluted, and she committed adultery with stones and with stocks. ¹⁰Yet for all this her treacherous sister, Judah, has not returned to me with her whole heart, but only in pretense," says the LORD.

¹¹The LORD said to me, "Backsliding Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. ¹²Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, 'Return, you backsliding Israel,' says the LORD; 'I will not look in anger on you; for I am merciful,' says the LORD. 'I will not keep anger forever. ¹³Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have transgressed against the LORD your God, and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed my voice,'" says the LORD. ¹⁴"Return, backsliding children," says the LORD; "for I am a husband to you. I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion. ¹⁵I will give you shepherds according to my heart, who shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. ¹⁶It shall come to pass, when you are multiplied and increased in the land, in those days," says the LORD, "they shall say no more, 'The ark of the covenant of the LORD!' neither shall it come to mind; neither shall they remember it; neither shall they miss it; neither shall it be made any more. ¹⁷At that time they shall call Jerusalem 'The throne of the LORD;' and all the nations shall be gathered to it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem. Neither shall they walk any more after the stubbornness of their evil heart. ¹⁸In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave for an inheritance to your fathers.

¹⁹"But I said, 'How I would put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the armies of the nations!' and I said, 'You shall call me "My Father," and shall not turn away from following me.'

²⁰"Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, so you have dealt treacherously with me, house of Israel," says the LORD. ²¹A voice is heard on the bare heights, the weeping and the petitions of the children of Israel; because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten the LORD their God. ²²"Return, you backsliding children, I will heal your backsliding."

"Behold, we have come to you; for you are the LORD our God. ²³Truly in vain is help from the hills, the tumult on the mountains. Truly the salvation of Israel is in the LORD our God. ²⁴But the shameful thing has devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. ²⁵Let us lie down in our shame, and let our confusion cover us; for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day. We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.”

4 “If you will return, Israel,” says the LORD, “if you will return to me, and if you will put away your abominations out of my sight; then you shall not be removed; ²and you shall swear, ‘As the LORD lives,’ in truth, in justice, and in righteousness. The nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.”

³For thus says the LORD to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, “Break up your fallow ground, and do not sow among thorns. ⁴Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, you men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn so that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. ⁵Declare in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, ‘Blow the trumpet in the land!’ Cry aloud and say, ‘Assemble yourselves! Let us go into the fortified cities!’ ⁶Set up a standard toward Zion. Flee for safety! Do not wait; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.”

⁷A lion is gone up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations; he is on his way, he is gone forth from his place, to make your land desolate, that your cities be laid waste, without inhabitant. ⁸For this clothe yourself with sackcloth, lament and wail; for the fierce anger of the LORD hasn’t turned back from us. ⁹“It shall happen at that day,” says the LORD, “that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.”

¹⁰Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Surely you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, ‘You shall have peace;’ whereas the sword reaches to the heart.”

¹¹At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, “A hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow, nor to cleanse; ¹²a full wind from these shall come for me. Now I will also utter judgments against them.”

¹³Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as the whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us! For we are ruined. ¹⁴Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long shall your evil thoughts lodge within you? ¹⁵For a voice declares from Dan, and publishes evil from the hills of Ephraim: ¹⁶“Tell the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, ‘Watchers come from a far country, and raise their voice against the cities of Judah. ¹⁷As keepers of a field, they are against her all around, because she has been rebellious against me,’” says the LORD. ¹⁸“Your way and your doings have brought these things to you. This is your wickedness; for it is bitter, for it reaches to your heart.”

¹⁹My anguish, my anguish! I am pained at my very heart; my heart is disquieted in me; I can't hold my peace; because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. ²⁰Destruction on destruction is proclaimed; for the whole land is laid waste: suddenly are my tents destroyed, and my curtains in a moment. ²¹How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

²²“For my people are foolish, they do not know me. They are foolish children, and they have no understanding. They are skillful in doing evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.” ²³I saw the earth, and, behold, it was waste and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. ²⁴I saw the mountains, and behold, they trembled, and all the hills moved back and forth. ²⁵I saw, and behold, there was no man, and all the birds of the sky had fled. ²⁶I saw, and behold, the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of the LORD, before his fierce anger. ²⁷For thus says the LORD, “The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end. ²⁸For this the earth will mourn, and the heavens above be black; because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and I have not relented, neither will I turn back from it.”

²⁹Every city flees for the noise of the horsemen and archers; they go into the thickets, and climb up on the rocks: every city is forsaken, and not a man dwells therein. ³⁰You, when you are made desolate, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with scarlet, though you dress yourselves with ornaments of gold, though you enlarge your eyes with paint, in vain do you make yourself beautiful; your lovers despise you, they seek your life. ³¹For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, the anguish as of her who brings forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, who gasps for breath, who spreads her hands, saying, “Woe is me now! For my soul faints before the murderers.”

5 “Run back and forth through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places of it, if you can find a man, if there are any who does justly, who seeks truth; and I will pardon her. ²Though they say, ‘As the LORD lives;’ surely they swear falsely.”

³O LORD, do your eyes not look on truth? You have stricken them, but they were not grieved. You have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction. They have made their faces harder than a rock. They have refused to return.

⁴Then I said, “Surely these are poor. They are foolish; for they do not know the way of the LORD, nor the law of their God. ⁵I will go to the great men, and will speak to them; for they know the way of the LORD, and the law of their God.” But these with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the bonds. ⁶Therefore a lion out of the forest shall kill them, a wolf of the evenings shall destroy them, a leopard shall watch against their cities; everyone who goes out there shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backsliding is increased.

⁷“How can I pardon you? Your children have forsaken me, and sworn by what are no gods. When I had fed them to the full, they committed adultery, and assembled themselves in troops at the prostitutes’ houses. ⁸They were as fed horses roaming at large: everyone neighed after his neighbor’s wife. ⁹Shouldn’t I punish them for these things?” says the LORD; “and shouldn’t my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?”

¹⁰“Go up on her walls, and destroy; but do not make a full end. Take away her branches; for they are not the LORD’s. ¹¹For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me,” says the LORD.

¹²They have denied the LORD, and said, “It is not he;

neither shall evil come on us; neither shall we see sword nor famine. ¹³The prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them. Thus shall it be done to them.”

¹⁴Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, “Because you speak this word, behold, I will make my words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. ¹⁵Behold, I will bring a nation on you from far, house of Israel,” says the LORD. “It is a mighty nation. It is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know, neither understand what they say. ¹⁶Their quiver is an open tomb, they are all mighty men. ¹⁷They shall eat up your harvest, and your bread, which your sons and your daughters should eat. They shall eat up your flocks and your herds. They shall eat up your vines and your fig trees. They shall beat down your fortified cities, in which you trust, with the sword.

¹⁸“But even in those days,” says the LORD, “I will not make a full end with you. ¹⁹It will happen, when you say, ‘Why has the LORD our God done all these things to us?’ Then you shall say to them, ‘Just like you have forsaken me, and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours.’”

²⁰“Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, ²¹Hear now this, foolish people, and without understanding; who have eyes, and do not see; who have ears, and do not hear: ²²Do you not fear me?’ says the LORD ‘Won’t you tremble at my presence, who have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it can’t pass it? And though its waves toss themselves, yet they can’t prevail; though they roar, yet they can’t pass over it.’

²³“But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart; they have revolted and gone. ²⁴Neither do they say in their heart, ‘Let us now fear the LORD our God, who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season; who preserves to us the appointed weeks of the harvest.’

²⁵“Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good from you. ²⁶For among my people are found wicked men. They watch, as fowlers lie in wait. They set a trap. They catch men. ²⁷As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit. Therefore they have become great, and grew rich. ²⁸They have grown fat. They shine; yes, they excel in deeds of wickedness. They do not plead the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they may prosper; and they do not judge the right of the needy.

²⁹“Shall I not punish for these things?” says the LORD. “Shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?”

³⁰“An astonishing and horrible thing has happened in the land. ³¹The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule by their own authority; and my people love to have it so. What will you do in the end of it?”

6 “Flee for safety, you children of Benjamin, out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and raise up a signal on Beth Haccherem; for evil looks forth from the north, and a great destruction. ²The comely and delicate one, the daughter of Zion, will I cut off. ³Shepherds with their flocks shall come to her; they shall pitch their tents against her all around; they shall feed everyone in his place.”

⁴“Prepare war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe to us! For the day declines, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. ⁵Arise, and let us go up by night, and let us destroy her palaces.” ⁶For the LORD of hosts said, “Cut down trees, and cast up a mound against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her. ⁷As a well casts forth its waters, so she casts forth her wickedness: violence and destruction is heard in her; before me continually is sickness and wounds. ⁸Be instructed, Jerusalem, lest my soul be alienated from you; lest I make you a desolation, a land not inhabited.”

⁹Thus says the LORD of hosts, "They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a vine. Pass your hand again as a grape gatherer into the baskets."

¹⁰To whom shall I speak and testify, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they can't listen. Behold, the word of the LORD has become a reproach to them. They have no delight in it. ¹¹Therefore I am full of the wrath of the LORD. I am weary with holding in.

"Pour it out on the children in the street, and on the assembly of young men together;
for even the husband with the wife shall be taken,
the aged with him who is full of days.

¹²Their houses shall be turned to others, their fields and their wives together;
for I will stretch out my hand on the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD.

¹³"For from their least even to their greatest,
everyone is given to covetousness;
and from the prophet even to the priest, everyone deals falsely.

¹⁴They have healed also the hurt of my people superficially, saying, 'Peace, peace!' when there is no peace.

¹⁵Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination?
No, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush.
Therefore they shall fall among those who fall;
at the time that I visit them, they shall be cast down," says the LORD.

¹⁶Thus says the LORD, "Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, 'Where is the good way?' and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls." But they said, "We will not walk in it." ¹⁷I set watchmen over you, saying, 'Listen to the sound of the trumpet!'" But they said, "We will not listen!" ¹⁸Therefore hear, you nations, and know, congregation, what is among them. ¹⁹Hear, earth! 'Behold, I will bring disaster on this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it. ²⁰To what purpose comes there to me frankincense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices pleasing to me.'

²¹Therefore thus says the LORD, 'Behold, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people. The fathers and the sons together shall stumble against them. The neighbor and his friend shall perish.' ²²Thus says the LORD, 'Behold, a people comes from the north country. A great nation shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. ²³They take hold of bow and spear. They are cruel, and have no mercy. Their voice roars like the sea, and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Zion.”

²⁴“We have heard its report; our hands become feeble: anguish has taken hold of us, and pains as of a woman in labor. ²⁵Do not go forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and terror, are on every side.” ²⁶“Daughter of my people, clothe yourself with sackcloth, and wallow in ashes! Mourn, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation; for the destroyer shall suddenly come on us.”

²⁷“I have made you a tester of metals and a fortress among my people; that you may know and try their way.” ²⁸“They are all grievous rebels, going about with slanders; they are brass and iron: they all of them deal corruptly. ²⁹The bellows blow fiercely; the lead is consumed of the fire: in vain do they go on refining; for the wicked are not plucked away. ³⁰Men will call them ‘rejected silver,’ because the LORD has rejected them.”

7 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ²“Stand in the gate of the LORD’s house, and proclaim there this word, and say, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship the LORD. ³Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. ⁴Do not trust in lying words, saying, “The LORD’s temple, The LORD’s temple, The LORD’s temple, are these.” ⁵For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if you thoroughly execute justice between a man and his neighbor; ⁶if you do not oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your own hurt: ⁷then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, from of old even forevermore. ⁸Behold, you trust in lying words, that can’t profit. ⁹Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods that you have not known, ¹⁰and come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, “We are delivered”; that you may do all these abominations? ¹¹Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it, says the LORD. ¹²But go now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I caused my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. ¹³Now, because you have done all these works, says the LORD, and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you did not hear; and I called you, but you did not answer: ¹⁴therefore I will do to the house which is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh. ¹⁵I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brothers, even the whole seed of Ephraim. ¹⁶Therefore do not pray for this people, neither lift up a cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me; for I will not hear you. ¹⁷Do you not see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke me to anger. ¹⁹Do they provoke me to anger?" says the LORD. "Do they not provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?" ²⁰Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, my anger and my wrath shall be poured out on this place, on man, and on animal, and on the trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched." ²¹Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat meat. ²²For I did not speak to your fathers, nor command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices: ²³but this thing I commanded them, saying, 'Listen to my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people; and walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you.' ²⁴But they did not listen nor turn their ear, but walked in their own counsels and in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. ²⁵Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: ²⁶yet they did not listen to me, nor inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff: they did worse than their fathers." ²⁷You shall speak all these words to them; but they will not listen to you: you shall also call to them; but they will not answer you. ²⁸You shall tell them, 'This is the nation that has not listened to the voice of the LORD their God, nor received instruction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth. ²⁹Cut off your hair, and throw it away, and take up a lamentation on the bare heights; for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.'" ³⁰For the children of Judah have done that which is evil in my sight," says the LORD: "they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. ³¹They have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I did not command, nor did it come into my mind. ³²Therefore behold, the days come," says the LORD, "that it shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter: for they shall bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury. ³³The dead bodies of this people shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth; and none shall frighten them away. ³⁴Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land shall become a waste.”

8 “At that time,” says the LORD, “they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves; ²and they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the army of the sky, which they have loved, and which they have served, and after which they have walked, and which they have sought, and which they have worshiped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried, they shall be for dung on the surface of the earth. ³Death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue that remain of this evil family, that remain in all the places where I have driven them,” says the LORD of hosts. ⁴Moreover you shall tell them, ‘Thus says the LORD: Shall men fall, and not rise up again? Shall one turn away, and not return? ⁵Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? They hold fast deceit, they refuse to return. ⁶I listened and heard, but they did not speak what is right: no man repents him of his wickedness, saying, “What have I done?” Everyone turns to his course, as a horse that rushes headlong in the battle. ⁷Yes, the stork in the sky knows her appointed times; and the turtledove and the swallow and the crane observe the time of their coming; but my people do not know the LORD’s law. ⁸How can you say, “We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us?” But, behold, the false pen of the scribes has worked falsely. ⁹The wise men are disappointed, they are dismayed and taken: behold, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and what kind of wisdom is in them? ¹⁰Therefore I will give their wives to others, and their fields to those who shall possess them: for everyone from the least even to the greatest is given to covetousness; from the prophet even to the priest every one deals falsely. ¹¹They have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, “Peace, peace;” when there is no peace. ¹²Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? No! They were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among those who fall; in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, says the LORD. ¹³I will utterly consume them, says the LORD: no grapes shall be on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.” ¹⁴Why do we sit still? Assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the fortified cities, and let us be silent there; for the LORD our God has put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD. ¹⁵We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay! ¹⁶The snorting of his horses is heard from Dan: at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones the whole land trembles; for they have come, and have devoured the land and all that is in it; the city and those who dwell therein. ¹⁷For, behold, I will send serpents, adders, among you, which will not be charmed; and they shall bite you," says the LORD. ¹⁸"Oh that I could comfort myself against sorrow! My heart is faint within me. ¹⁹Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people from a land that is very far off: 'Isn't the LORD in Zion? Isn't her King in her?'" "Why have they provoked me to anger with their engraved images, and with foreign vanities?" ²⁰"The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.' ²¹For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt: I mourn; dismay has taken hold on me. ²²Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then isn't the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

9 Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a spring of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! ²Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! For they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men." ³"They bend their tongue, as their bow, for falsehood; and they are grown strong in the land, but not for truth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they do not know me," says the LORD. ⁴"Take heed everyone of his neighbor, and do not trust in any brother; for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbor will go about with slanders. ⁵They will deceive everyone his neighbor, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies; they weary themselves to commit iniquity. ⁶Your habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me," says the LORD. ⁷Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, "Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how should I deal with the daughter of my people? ⁸Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaks deceit: one speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, but in his heart he lies in wait for him. ⁹Shall I not visit them for these things?" says the LORD; "shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?" ¹⁰For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the pastures of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none passes through; neither can men hear the voice of the livestock; both the birds of the sky and the animals are fled, they are gone." ¹¹I will make Jerusalem heaps, a dwelling place of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant." ¹²"Who is the wise man, that may understand this? Who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken, that he may declare it? Why is the land perished and burned up like a wilderness, so that none passes through?" ¹³The LORD says, "Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein, ¹⁴but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart, and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them; ¹⁵therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, 'Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. ¹⁶I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them.'" ¹⁷Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Consider, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for the skillful women, that they may come;" ¹⁸and let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters. ¹⁹For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, 'How are we ruined! We are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because they have cast down our dwellings.'" ²⁰Yet hear the word of the LORD, you women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth; and teach your daughters wailing, and everyone her neighbor lamentation. ²¹For death has come up into our windows, it is entered into our palaces; to cut off the children from outside, and the young men from the streets.' ²²Speak, 'Thus says the LORD, "The dead bodies of men shall fall as dung on the open field, and as the handful after the harvester; and none shall gather them.'" ²³Thus says the LORD, "Do not let the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, do not let the rich man glory in his riches; ²⁴but let him who glories glory in this, that he has understanding, and knows me, that I am the LORD who exercises loving kindness, justice, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight," says the LORD. ²⁵'Behold, the days come," says the LORD, "that I will punish all those who are circumcised in uncircumcision: ²⁶Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that have the corners of their hair cut off, who dwell in the wilderness; for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart."

10 Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, house of Israel! ²Thus says the LORD, "Do not learn the way of the nations, and do not be dismayed at the signs of the sky; for the nations are dismayed at them. ³For the customs of the peoples are vanity; for one cuts a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman with the axe. ⁴They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it not move. ⁵They are like a palm tree, of turned work, and do not speak: they must be carried, because they can't go. Do not be afraid of them; for they can't do evil, neither is it in them to do good." ⁶There is none like you, LORD; you are great, and your name is great in might. ⁷Who should not fear you, King of the nations? For it appertains to you; because among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their royal estate, there is none like you. ⁸But they are together brutish and foolish: the instruction of idols! it is but a stock. ⁹There is silver beaten into plates, which is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the artificer and of the hands of the goldsmith; blue and purple for their clothing; they are all the work of skillful men. ¹⁰But the LORD is the true God; he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth trembles, and the nations are not able to withstand his indignation. ¹¹You shall say this to them: 'The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, these shall perish from the earth, and from under the heavens.' ¹²He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens: ¹³when he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he makes lightnings for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of his treasures. ¹⁴Every man has become brutish and without knowledge; every goldsmith is disappointed by his engraved image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. ¹⁵They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. ¹⁶The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; the LORD of hosts is his name." ¹⁷'Gather up your wares out of the land, you who live under siege. ¹⁸For thus says the LORD, 'Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and will distress them, that they may feel it.' ¹⁹Woe is me because of my hurt! My wound is grievous: but I said, 'Truly this is my grief, and I must bear it.' ²⁰My tent is destroyed, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth from me, and they are no more: there is none to spread my tent any more, and to set up my curtains. ²¹For the shepherds are become brutish, and have not inquired of the LORD: therefore they have not prospered, and all their flocks are scattered. ²²The voice of news, behold, it comes, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a dwelling place of jackals. ²³LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man who walks to direct his steps. ²⁴LORD, correct me, but in measure: not in your anger, lest you bring me to nothing. ²⁵Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you, and on the families that do not call on your name: for they have devoured Jacob, yes, they have devoured him and consumed him, and have laid waste his habitation.”

11 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ²Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; ³and say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: “Cursed is the man who doesn’t hear the words of this covenant, ⁴which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace, saying, “Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so you shall be my people, and I will be your God; ⁵that I may establish the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey,” as at this day.”’ Then I answered, and said, “Amen, LORD.” ⁶The LORD said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, ‘Hear the words of this covenant, and do them. ⁷For I earnestly protested to your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. ⁸Yet they did not obey, nor turn their ear, but walked everyone in the stubbornness of their evil heart: therefore I brought on them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they did not do them.”’ ⁹The LORD said to me, “A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear my words; and they are gone after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. ¹¹Therefore thus says the LORD, ‘Behold, I will bring disaster on them, which they shall not be able to escape; and they shall cry to me, but I will not listen to them. ¹²Then shall the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem go and cry to the gods to which they offer incense: but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble. ¹³For according to the number of your cities are your gods, Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have you set up altars to the shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal.’ ¹⁴Therefore do not pray for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry to me because of their trouble.” ¹⁵What has my beloved to do in my house, since she has worked lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from you? When you do evil, then you rejoice. ¹⁶The LORD called your name, “A green olive tree, beautiful with goodly fruit.” With the noise of a great tumult he has kindled fire on it, and its branches are broken. ¹⁷For the LORD of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have worked for themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense to Baal.”

¹⁸The LORD gave me knowledge of it, and I knew it: then you showed me their doings. ¹⁹But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter; and I did not know that they had devised devices against me, saying, “Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.”

²⁰But, the LORD of hosts, who judges righteously, who tests the heart and the mind, I shall see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause.”

²¹Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the men of Anathoth, who seek your life, saying, “You shall not prophesy in the name of the LORD, that you not die by our hand;” ²²therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, “Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine; ²³and there shall be no remnant to them: for I will bring disaster on the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.”

12 You are righteous, LORD, when I contend with you; yet I would reason the cause with you: why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why are they all at ease who deal very treacherously? ²You have planted them, yes, they have taken root; they grow, yes, they bring forth fruit: you are near in their mouth, and far from their heart. ³But you, LORD, know me; you see me, and try my heart toward you: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter. ⁴How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of the whole country wither? For the wickedness of those who dwell therein, the animals are consumed, and the birds; because they said, “He shall not see our latter end.”

⁵“If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? And though in a land of peace you are secure, yet how will you do in the pride of the Jordan? ⁶For even your brothers, and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you; even they have cried aloud after you: do not believe them, though they speak beautiful words to you. ⁷I have forsaken my house, I have cast off my heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

⁸My heritage has become to me as a lion in the forest: she has uttered her voice against me; therefore I have hated her. ⁹Is my heritage to me as a speckled bird of prey? Are the birds of prey against her all around? Go, assemble all the animals of the field, bring them to devour. ¹⁰Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

¹¹They have made it a desolation; it mourns to me, being desolate; the whole land is made desolate, because no man lays it to heart.

¹²Destroyers have come on all the bare heights in the wilderness; for the sword of the LORD devours from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh has peace. ¹³They have sown wheat, and have reaped thorns; they have put themselves to pain, and profit nothing; and you shall be ashamed of your fruits, because of the fierce anger of the LORD. ¹⁴Thus says the LORD against all my evil neighbors, who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: 'behold, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from among them. ¹⁵It shall happen, after that I have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them; and I will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. ¹⁶It shall happen, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, "As the LORD lives;" even as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built up in the midst of my people. ¹⁷But if they will not hear, then will I pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it," says the LORD.

13 Thus says the LORD to me, "Go, and buy yourself a linen belt, and put it on your waist, and do not put it in water." ²So I bought a belt according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my waist. ³The word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, ⁴"Take the belt that you have bought, which is on your waist, and arise, go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock." ⁵So I went, and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me. ⁶It happened after many days, that the LORD said to me, "Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take the belt from there, which I commanded you to hide there." ⁷Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and took the belt from the place where I had hidden it; and behold, the belt was marred, it was profitable for nothing. ⁸Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁹"Thus says the LORD, 'In this way I will mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. ¹⁰This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and are gone after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this belt, which is profitable for nothing. ¹¹For as the belt clings to the waist of a man, so have I caused to cling to me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah,' says the LORD; 'that they might be my people, for a name, for praise, and for glory. But they would not listen. ¹²Therefore you shall speak to them this word: 'Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, "Every bottle shall be filled with wine:" and they shall tell you, 'Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?' ¹³Then you shall tell them, 'Thus says the LORD, "Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings who sit on David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. ¹⁴I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, says the LORD. I will not pity, nor spare, nor have compassion, that I should not destroy them.””” 15” Hear, and give ear; do not be proud; for the LORD has spoken. 16” Give glory to the LORD your God, before he causes darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains, and, while you look for light, he turns it into the shadow of death, and makes it gross darkness. 17” But if you will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret for your pride; and my eye shall weep bitterly, and run down with tears, because the LORD’s flock is taken captive.” 18” Say to the king and to the queen mother, ‘Humble yourselves, sit down; for your headdresses have come down, even the crown of your glory. 19” The cities toward the Negev are shut, and there is no one to open them: Judah is carried away into exile, all of it; it is wholly carried away into exile.”” 20” Lift up your eyes, and see those who come from the north: where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock? 21” What will you say, when he shall set over you as head those whom you have yourself taught to be friends to you? Shall not sorrows take hold of you, as of a woman in travail? 22” If you say in your heart, ‘Why are these things come on me?’ for the greatness of your iniquity are your skirts uncovered, and your heels suffer violence. 23” Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? Then may you also do good, who are accustomed to do evil. 24” Therefore I will scatter them, as the stubble that passes away, by the wind of the wilderness. 25” This is your lot, the portion measured to you from me,’ says the LORD; ‘because you have forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood. 26” Therefore I will also uncover your skirts on your face, and your shame shall appear. 27” I have seen your abominations, even your adulteries, and your neighing, the lewdness of your prostitution, on the hills in the field. Woe to you, Jerusalem! You will not be made clean; how long shall it yet be?’””

14 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought. 2” Judah mourns, and its gates languish, they sit in black on the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up. 3” Their nobles send their little ones to the waters: they come to the cisterns, and find no water; they return with their vessels empty; they are disappointed and confounded, and cover their heads. 4” Because of the ground which is cracked, because no rain has been in the land, the plowmen are disappointed, they cover their heads. 5” Yes, the hind also in the field calves, and forsakes her young, because there is no grass. 6” The wild donkeys stand on the bare heights, they pant for air like jackals; their eyes fail, because there is no herbage.”” 7” Though our iniquities testify against us, work for your name’s sake, LORD; for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against you. 8” You hope of Israel, its Savior in the time of trouble, why should you be as a foreigner in the land, and as a wayfaring man who turns aside to stay for a night? ⁹Why should you be like a scared man, as a mighty man who can't save? Yet you, LORD, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; do not leave us.” ¹⁰Thus says the LORD to this people, “Even so have they loved to wander; they have not refrained their feet: therefore the LORD does not accept them; now he will remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.” ¹¹The LORD said to me, “Do not pray for this people for their good. ¹²When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and meal offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.” ¹³Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, the prophets tell them, ‘You shall not see the sword, neither shall you have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.’” ¹⁴Then the LORD said to me, “The prophets prophesy lies in my name; I did not send them, neither have I commanded them, neither spoke I to them: they prophesy to you a lying vision, and divination, and a thing of nothing, and the deceit of their own heart. ¹⁵Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, and I did not send them, yet they say, ‘Sword and famine shall not be in this land.’ ‘By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.’ ¹⁶The people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them—they, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness on them.” ¹⁷You shall say this word to them, ‘Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease; for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous wound. ¹⁸If I go forth into the field, then, behold, the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then, behold, those who are sick with famine! For both the prophet and the priest go about in the land, and have no knowledge.’” ¹⁹Have you utterly rejected Judah? Has your soul loathed Zion? Why have you struck us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay! ²⁰We acknowledge, LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against you. ²¹Do not abhor us, for your name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of your glory: remember, do not break your covenant with us. ²²Are there any among the vanities of the nations that can cause rain? Or can the sky give showers? Aren't you he, LORD our God? Therefore we will wait for you; for you have made all these things.”

15 Then the LORD said to me, “Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind would not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth. ²It shall happen, when they tell you, 'Where shall we go forth?' Then you shall tell them, 'Thus says the LORD: "Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for captivity, to captivity. ³I will appoint over them four kinds, says the LORD: the sword to kill, and the dogs to tear, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the earth, to devour and to destroy. ⁴I will cause them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem. ⁵For who will have pity on you, Jerusalem? Or who will bemoan you? Or who will turn aside to ask of your welfare?' ⁶You have rejected me,' says the LORD, 'you have gone backward:' therefore have I stretched out my hand against you, and destroyed you; I am weary with repenting. ⁷I have winnowed them with a fan in the gates of the land; I have bereaved them of children, I have destroyed my people; they did not return from their ways. ⁸Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas; I have brought on them against the mother of the young men a destroyer at noonday: I have caused anguish and terrors to fall on her suddenly. ⁹She who has borne seven languishes; she has given up the spirit; her sun is gone down while it was yet day; she has been disappointed and confounded: and their residue will I deliver to the sword before their enemies," says the LORD. ¹⁰Woe is me, my mother, that you have borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have not lent, neither have men lent to me; yet everyone of them curses me." ¹¹The LORD said, "Most certainly I will strengthen you for good; most certainly I will cause the enemy to make supplication to you in the time of evil and in the time of distress. ¹²Can one break iron, even iron from the north, and bronze? ¹³Your substance and your treasures will I give for a spoil without price, and that for all your sins, even in all your borders. ¹⁴I will make them to pass with your enemies into a land which you do not know; for a fire is kindled in my anger, which shall burn on you." ¹⁵LORD, you know; remember me, and visit me, and avenge me of my persecutors; do not take me away in your longsuffering: know that for your sake I have suffered reproach. ¹⁶Your words were found, and I ate them; and your words were to me a joy and the rejoicing of my heart: for I am called by your name, LORD, God of hosts. ¹⁷I did not sit in the assembly of those who make merry, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of your hand; for you have filled me with indignation. ¹⁸Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuses to be healed? Will you indeed be to me as a deceitful brook, as waters that fail?" ¹⁹Therefore thus says the LORD, "If you return, then will I bring you again, that you may stand before me; and if you take forth the precious from the vile, you shall be as my mouth; they shall return to you, but you shall not return to them. ²⁰I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall; and they shall fight against you, but they shall not prevail against you; for I am with you to save you and to deliver you," says the LORD. ²¹"I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the terrible."

16 The word of the LORD came also to me, saying, ²"You shall not take a wife, neither shall you have sons or daughters, in this place. ³For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who became their father in this land: ⁴They shall die grievous deaths: they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; they shall be as dung on the surface of the ground; and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their dead bodies shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth. ⁵For thus says the LORD, 'Do not enter into the house of mourning, neither go to lament, neither bemoan them; for I have taken away my peace from this people,' says the LORD, even loving kindness and tender mercies. ⁶Both great and small shall die in this land; they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them; ⁷neither shall men break bread for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother. ⁸You shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and to drink. ⁹For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride. ¹⁰It shall happen, when you shall show this people all these words, and they shall tell you, 'Why has the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? Or what is our iniquity? Or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?' ¹¹Then you shall tell them, 'Because your fathers have forsaken me, says the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshiped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law; ¹²and you have done evil more than your fathers; for, behold, you walk every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart, so that you do not listen to me: ¹³therefore I will cast you forth out of this land into the land that you have not known, neither you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods day and night; for I will show you no favor.' ¹⁴Therefore behold, the days come," says the LORD, "that it shall no more be said, 'As the LORD lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;' ¹⁵but, 'As the LORD lives, who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the countries where he had driven them.' I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their fathers. ¹⁶Behold, I will send for many fishermen," says the LORD, "and they shall fish them up; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks. ¹⁷For my eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from my face, neither is their iniquity concealed from my eyes. ¹⁸First I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable things, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations." ¹⁹"LORD, my strength, and my stronghold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, to you shall the nations come from the ends of the earth, and shall say, 'Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies, vanity and things in which there is no profit. ²⁰Shall a man make to himself gods, which yet are no gods?'" ²¹"Therefore behold, I will cause them to know, this once will I cause them to know my hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is the LORD.

17 "The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is engraved on the tablet of their heart, and on the horns of your altars; ²while their children remember their altars and their Asherim by the green trees on the high hills. ³My mountain in the field, I will give your substance and all your treasures for a spoil, and your high places, because of sin, throughout all your borders. ⁴You, even of yourself, shall discontinue from your heritage that I gave you; and I will cause you to serve your enemies in the land which you do not know: for you have kindled a fire in my anger which shall burn forever." ⁵Thus says the LORD: "Cursed is the man who trusts in man, and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from the LORD. ⁶For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good comes, but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, a salt land and not inhabited. ⁷Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, and whose trust the LORD is. ⁸For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, who spreads out its roots by the river, and shall not fear when heat comes, but its leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. ⁹The heart is deceitful above all things, and it is exceedingly corrupt: who can know it? ¹⁰I, the LORD, search the mind, I try the heart, even to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings. ¹¹As the partridge that sits on eggs which she has not laid, so is he who gets riches, and not by right; in the midst of his days they shall leave him, and at his end he shall be a fool.”¹² A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary.¹³ LORD, the hope of Israel, all who forsake you shall be disappointed. Those who depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the spring of living waters.¹⁴ Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for you are my praise.¹⁵ Behold, they tell me, ‘Where is the word of the LORD? Let it come now.’¹⁶ As for me, I have not hurried from being a shepherd after you; neither have I desired the woeful day; you know: that which came out of my lips was before your face.¹⁷ Do not be a terror to me: you are my refuge in the day of evil.¹⁸ Let them be disappointed who persecute me, but let not me be disappointed; let them be dismayed, but do not let me be dismayed; bring on them the day of disaster, and destroy them with double destruction.”¹⁹ Thus said the LORD to me: “Go, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, through which the kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;²⁰ and tell them, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:’²¹ Thus says the LORD, “Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;²² neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day holy, neither do any work: but make the Sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.²³ But they did not listen, neither turn their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, and might not receive instruction.²⁴ It shall happen, if you diligently listen to me,” says the LORD, “to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but to make the Sabbath day holy, to do no work therein;²⁵ then shall there enter in by the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain forever.²⁶ They shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places around Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the lowland, and from the hill country, and from the Negev, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meal offerings, and frankincense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving, to the house of the LORD.²⁷ But if you will not listen to me to make the Sabbath day holy, and not to bear a burden and enter in at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in its gates, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.””

18 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,² Arise, and go down to the potter’s house, and there I will cause you to hear my words.”

³Then I went down to the potter's house, and behold, he was making a work on the wheels. ⁴When the vessel that he made of the clay was marred in the hand of the potter, he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. ⁵Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁶"House of Israel, can't I do with you as this potter?" says the LORD. 'Behold, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, house of Israel.' ⁷At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy it; ⁸if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to them. ⁹At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; ¹⁰if they do that which is evil in my sight, that they not obey my voice, then I will repent of the good, with which I said I would benefit them. ¹¹Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return now everyone from his evil way, and amend your ways and your doings.' ¹²But they say, 'It is in vain; for we will walk after our own devices, and we will do everyone after the stubbornness of his evil heart.'" ¹³Therefore thus says the LORD: "Ask now among the nations, who has heard such things; the virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing. ¹⁴Shall the snow of Lebanon fail from the rock of the field? Shall the cold waters that flow down from afar be dried up? ¹⁵For my people have forgotten me, they have burned incense to false gods; and they have been made to stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in byways, in a way not built up; ¹⁶to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished, and shake his head. ¹⁷I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity." ¹⁸Then they said, "Come, and let us make plans against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words." ¹⁹Give heed to me, LORD, and listen to the voice of those who contend with me. ²⁰Shall evil be recompensed for good? For they have dug a pit for my soul. Remember how I stood before you to speak good for them, to turn away your wrath from them. ²¹Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword; and let their wives become childless, and widows; and let their men be slain of death, and their young men struck of the sword in battle. ²²Let a cry be heard from their houses, when you shall bring a troop suddenly on them; for they have dug a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet. ²³Yet, LORD, you know all their counsel against me to kill me; do not forgive their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from your sight; but let them be overthrown before you; deal you with them in the time of your anger.”

19 Thus said the LORD, “Go, and buy a potter’s earthen bottle, and take some of the elders of the people, and of the elders of the priests; ²and go forth to the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the gate Harsith, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell you; ³and say, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Behold, I will bring evil on this place, which whoever hears, his ears shall tingle. ⁴Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods, that they did not know, they and their fathers and the kings of Judah; and have filled this place with the blood of innocents, ⁵and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons in the fire for burnt offerings to Baal; which I did not command, nor spoke it, neither came it into my mind: ⁶therefore, behold, the days come,” says the LORD, “that this place shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter. ⁷I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life: and their dead bodies will I give to be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth. ⁸I will make this city an astonishment, and a hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues. ⁹I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters; and they shall eat everyone the flesh of his friend, in the siege and in the distress, with which their enemies, and those who seek their life, shall distress them.”” ¹⁰Then you shall break the bottle in the sight of the men who go with you, ¹¹and shall tell them, “Thus says the LORD of hosts: “Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter’s vessel, that can’t be made whole again; and they shall bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury. ¹²Thus will I do to this place,” says the LORD, “and to its inhabitants, even making this city as Topheth: ¹³and the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which are defiled, shall be as the place of Topheth, even all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the army of the sky, and have poured out drink offerings to other gods.””” ¹⁴Then came Jeremiah from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the LORD’s house, and said to all the people: ¹⁵”Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘Behold, I will bring on this city and on all its towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it; because they have made their neck stiff, that they may not hear my words.”

20 Now Pashhur, the son of Immer the priest, who was chief officer in the house of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things. ²Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper gate of Benjamin, which was in the house of the LORD. ³It happened on the next day, that Pashhur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, “The LORD has not called your name ‘Pashhur,’ but ‘Magormissabib.’ ⁴For thus says the LORD, ‘Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall see it; and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive to Babylon, and shall kill them with the sword. ⁵Moreover I will give all the riches of this city, and all its gains, and all the precious things of it, yes, all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies; and they shall make them a prey, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. ⁶You, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house shall go into captivity; and you shall come to Babylon, and there you shall die, and there you shall be buried, you, and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied falsely.’” ⁷LORD, you have persuaded me, and I was persuaded; you are stronger than I,

and have prevailed: I am become a laughing-stock all the day, every one mocks me. ⁸For as often as I speak, I cry out; I cry, “Violence and destruction!” because the word of the LORD is made a reproach to me, and a derision, all the day. ⁹If I say, “I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name,” then there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with forbearing, and I can’t contain it. ¹⁰For I have heard the defaming of many, terror on every side. “Denounce, and we will denounce him,” say all my familiar friends, those who watch for my fall; “perhaps he will be persuaded, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.” ¹¹But the LORD is with me as an awesome mighty one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail; they shall be utterly disappointed, because they have not dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonor which shall never be forgotten. ¹²But, the LORD of hosts, who tests the righteous, who sees the heart and the mind, let me see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause. ¹³Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD; for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evildoers. ¹⁴Cursed is the day in which I was born: do not let the day in which my mother bore me be blessed. ¹⁵Cursed is the man who brought news to my father, saying, A boy is born to you; making him very glad. ¹⁶Let that man be as the cities which the LORD overthrew, and did not repent: and let him hear a cry in the morning, and shouting at noontime; ¹⁷because he did not kill me from the womb; and so my mother would have been my grave, and her womb always great. ¹⁸Why came I forth out of the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

21 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying, ²Please inquire of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon makes war against us: perhaps the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.” ³Then Jeremiah said to them, “You shall tell Zedekiah: ⁴Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, “Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans who besiege you, without the walls; and I will gather them into the midst of this city. ⁵I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation. ⁶I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and animal: they shall die of a great pestilence. ⁷Afterward,” says the LORD, “I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, even such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life: and he shall strike them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.” ⁸To this people you shall say, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. ⁹He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes out, and passes over to the Chaldeans who besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey. ¹⁰For I have set my face on this city for evil, and not for good,’ says the LORD: ‘it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.’ ¹¹Touching the house of the king of Judah, hear the word of the LORD: ¹²House of David, thus says the LORD, “Execute justice in the morning, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn so that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. ¹³Behold, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, and of the rock of the plain,” says the LORD; “you that say, ‘Who shall come down against us? Or who shall enter into our habitations?’ ¹⁴I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings,” says the LORD; “and I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it shall devour all that is around her.””

22 Thus said the LORD: "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, ²Say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, king of Judah, who sits on the throne of David, you, and your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates. ³Thus says the LORD: "Execute justice and righteousness, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence, to the foreigner, the fatherless, nor the widow; neither shed innocent blood in this place. ⁴For if you do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. ⁵But if you will not hear these words, I swear by myself, says the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation." ⁶For thus says the LORD concerning the house of the king of Judah: "You are Gilead to me, the head of Lebanon. Yet surely I will make you a wilderness, cities which are not inhabited. ⁷I will prepare destroyers against you, everyone with his weapons; and they shall cut down your choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. ⁸Many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbor, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this great city?' ⁹Then they shall answer, 'Because they forsook the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshiped other gods, and served them.' ¹⁰Do not weep for the dead, neither bemoan him; but weep bitterly for him who goes away; for he shall return no more, nor see his native country." ¹¹For thus says the LORD touching Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, and who went forth out of this place: "He shall not return there any more. ¹²But in the place where they have led him captive, there shall he die, and he shall see this land no more." ¹³Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his rooms by injustice; who uses his neighbor's service without wages, and doesn't give him his hire; ¹⁴who says, "I will build me a wide house and spacious rooms," and cuts him out windows; and it is ceiling with cedar, and painted with vermilion. ¹⁵Shall you reign, because you strive to excel in cedar? Did not your father eat and drink, and do justice and righteousness? Then it was well with him. ¹⁶He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Wasn't this to know me?" says the LORD. ¹⁷But your eyes and your heart are not but for your covetousness, and for shedding innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it. ¹⁸Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: "they shall not lament for him, saying, 'Ah my brother! or, Ah sister!' They shall not lament for him, saying, 'Ah lord!' or, 'Ah his glory!' ¹⁹He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem. ²⁰Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from Abarim; for all your lovers are destroyed. ²¹I spoke to you in your prosperity; but you said, 'I will not hear.' This has been your way from your youth, that you did not obey my voice. ²²The wind shall feed all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity: surely then you will be ashamed and confounded for all your wickedness. ²³Inhabitant of Lebanon, who makes your nest in the cedars, how greatly to be pitied you will be when pangs come on you, the pain as of a woman in travail! ²⁴As I live," says the LORD, "though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet on my right hand, yet would I pluck you there; ²⁵and I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of them of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. ²⁶I will cast you out, and your mother who bore you, into another country, where you were not born; and there you will die. ²⁷But to the land whereunto their soul longs to return, there shall they not return." ²⁸Is this man Coniah a despised broken vessel? Is he a vessel in which none delights? Why are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into the land which they do not know? ²⁹O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD. ³⁰Thus says the LORD, "Write this man childless, a man who shall not prosper in his days; for no more shall a man of his seed prosper, sitting on the throne of David, and ruling in Judah.

23 "Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture!" says the LORD. ²Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who feed my people: "You have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, I will visit on you the evil of your doings," says the LORD. ³I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and multiply. ⁴I will set up shepherds over them, who shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be lacking," says the LORD. ⁵"Behold, the days come," says the LORD, "that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. ⁶In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name by which he shall be called: 'The LORD our righteousness.'^a ⁷Therefore behold, the days come," says the LORD, "that they shall no more say, 'As the LORD lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt'; ⁸but, 'As the LORD lives, who brought up and who led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries where I had driven them.' They shall dwell in their own land."⁹ Concerning the prophets: My heart within me is broken, all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine has overcome, because of the LORD, and because of his holy words. ¹⁰For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourns; the pastures of the wilderness are dried up. "Their course is evil, and their might is not right; ¹¹for both prophet and priest are profane; yes, in my house have I found their wickedness," says the LORD. ¹²"Therefore their way shall be to them as slippery places in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein; for I will bring evil on them, even the year of their visitation," says the LORD. ¹³I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. ¹⁴In the prophets of Jerusalem also I have seen a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies; and they strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that none does return from his wickedness: they are all of them become to me as Sodom, and its inhabitants as Gomorrah. ¹⁵Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets: "Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall; for from the prophets of Jerusalem is ungodliness gone forth into all the land." ¹⁶Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you: they teach you vanity; they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD. ¹⁷They say continually to those who despise me, "The LORD has said, 'You shall have peace'"; and to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart they say, "No evil shall come on you." ¹⁸For who has stood in the council of the LORD, that he should perceive and hear his word? Who has marked my word, and heard it? ¹⁹Behold, the storm of the LORD, his wrath, has gone forth. Yes, a whirling storm. It shall burst on the head of the wicked. ²⁰The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he has executed, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days you shall understand it perfectly. ²¹I sent not these prophets, yet they ran: I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied. ²²But if they had stood in my council, then had they caused my people to hear my words, and had turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings. ²³Am I a God at hand,' says the LORD, 'and not a God afar off? ²⁴Can any hide himself in secret places so that I shall not see him?' says the LORD. 'Do I not fill heaven and earth?' says the LORD. ²⁵I have heard what the prophets have said, who prophesy lies in my name, saying, "I have dreamed, I have dreamed." ²⁶How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart, ²⁷who think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbor, as their fathers forgot my name for Baal. ²⁸The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he who has my word, let him speak my word faithfully.

What is the straw to the wheat?" says the LORD. ²⁹Isn't my word like fire?" says the LORD; "and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?" ³⁰Therefore behold, I am against the prophets," says the LORD, "who steal my words everyone from his neighbor. ³¹Behold, I am against the prophets," says the LORD, "who use their tongues, and say, "He says." ³²Behold, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams," says the LORD, "and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting: yet I did not send them, nor commanded them; neither do they profit this people at all," says the LORD. ³³When this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask you, saying, "What is the burden of the LORD?" Then you shall tell them, "What burden! I will cast you off," says the LORD. ³⁴As for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, who shall say, "The burden of the LORD," I will even punish that man and his house. ³⁵You shall say everyone to his neighbor, and everyone to his brother, "What has the LORD answered?" and, "What has the LORD spoken?" ³⁶You shall mention the burden of the LORD no more: for every man's own word shall be his burden; for you have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God. ³⁷You shall say to the prophet, "What has the LORD answered you?" and, "What has the LORD spoken?" ³⁸But if you say, "The burden of the LORD"; therefore thus says the LORD: Because you say this word, "The burden of the LORD," and I have sent to you, saying, "You shall not say, 'The burden of the LORD'"; ³⁹therefore, behold, I will utterly forget you, and I will cast you off, and the city that I gave to you and to your fathers, away from my presence: ⁴⁰and I will bring an everlasting reproach on you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten."

24 The LORD showed me, and behold, two baskets of figs set before the LORD's temple, after that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. ²One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first-ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. ³Then the LORD said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" I said, "Figs; the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, that can't be eaten, they are so bad." ⁴The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁵Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: "Like these good figs, so will I regard the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans, for good. ⁶For I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up. ⁷I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God; for they shall return to me with their whole heart.’⁸ As the bad figs, which can’t be eaten, they are so bad, surely thus says the LORD, ‘So will I give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt, ⁹I will even give them up to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil; to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them. ¹⁰I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, until they be consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.’”

25 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (the same was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), ²which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: ³“From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, these twenty-three years, the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; but you have not listened. ⁴The LORD has sent to you all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them (but you have not listened, nor inclined your ear to hear) ⁵saying, ‘Return now everyone from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD has given to you and to your fathers, from of old and even forevermore; ⁶and do not go after other gods to serve them or worship them, and do not provoke me to anger with the work of your hands; and I will do you no harm. ⁷Yet you have not listened to me,’ says the LORD; ‘that you may provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own hurt.’⁸ Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘Because you have not heard my words, ⁹behold, I will send and take all the families of the north,’ says the LORD, ‘and I will send to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these nations around; and I will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations. ¹⁰Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp. ¹¹This whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. ¹²It shall happen, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, says the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans; and I will make it desolate forever. ¹³I will bring on that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. ¹⁴For many nations and great kings shall make bondservants of them, even of them; and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their hands.”

¹⁵For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to me: “Take this cup of the wine of wrath at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it. ¹⁶They shall drink, and reel back and forth, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.”

¹⁷Then took I the cup at the LORD’s hand, and made all the nations to drink, to whom the LORD had sent me: ¹⁸Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and its kings, and its princes, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is this day; ¹⁹Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people; ²⁰and all the mixed people, and all the kings of the land of the Uz, and all the kings of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod; ²¹Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon; ²²and all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the isle which is beyond the sea; ²³Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all who have the corners of their beard cut off; ²⁴and all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mixed people who dwell in the wilderness; ²⁵and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; ²⁶and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are on the surface of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

²⁷“You shall tell them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Drink, and be drunk, vomit, fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.”’ ²⁸It shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then you shall tell them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “You shall surely drink. ²⁹For, behold, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name; and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished; for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth,”’ says the LORD of hosts. ³⁰Therefore prophesy you against them all these words, and tell them, ‘The LORD will roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he will mightily roar against his fold; he will give a shout, as those who tread grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth. ³¹A noise shall come even to the end of the earth; for the LORD has a controversy with the nations; he will enter into judgment with all flesh: as for the wicked, he will give them to the sword,’ says the LORD. ³²Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great storm shall be raised up from the uttermost parts of the earth.' ³³The slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung on the surface of the ground. ³⁴Wail, you shepherds, and cry; and wallow in dust, you principal of the flock; for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are fully come, and you shall fall like a goodly vessel. ³⁵The shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape. ³⁶A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and the wailing of the principal of the flock! For the LORD lays waste their pasture. ³⁷The peaceable folds are brought to silence because of the fierce anger of the LORD. ³⁸He has left his covert, as the lion; for their land has become an astonishment because of the fierceness of the oppression, and because of his fierce anger."

26 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word from the LORD, saying, ²"Thus says the LORD: Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command you to speak to them; do not diminish a word. ³It may be they will listen, and turn every man from his evil way; that I may relent of the evil which I purpose to do to them because of the evil of their doings. ⁴You shall tell them, 'Thus says the LORD: If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you, ⁵to listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send to you, even rising up early and sending them, but you have not listened; ⁶then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.'" ⁷The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. ⁸It happened, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold on him, saying, "You shall surely die. ⁹Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, 'This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant?'" All the people were gathered to Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

¹⁰When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD; and they sat in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house. ¹¹Then spoke the priests and the prophets to the princes and to all the people, saying, "This man is worthy of death; for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears."

¹²Then spoke Jeremiah to all the princes and to all the people, saying, “The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. ¹³Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will relent of the disaster that he has pronounced against you. ¹⁴But as for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as is good and right in your eyes. ¹⁵Only know for certain that, if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on its inhabitants; for of a truth the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears.”

¹⁶Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets: “This man is not worthy of death; for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.” ¹⁷Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, ¹⁸“Micah the Morashtite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.”’^a ¹⁹Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD, and entreat the favor of the LORD, and the LORD relented of the disaster which he had pronounced against them? Thus should we commit great evil against our own souls.

²⁰There was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath Jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah: ²¹and when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt: ²²and Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt; ²³and they fetched forth Uriah out of Egypt, and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.” ²⁴But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

27 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ²⁷Thus says the LORD to me: Make bonds and bars, and put them on your neck; ³and send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the children of Ammon, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah; ⁴and give them a command to their masters, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, You shall tell your masters: ⁵I have made the earth, the men and the animals that are on the surface of the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm; and I give it to whom it seems right to me. ⁶Now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the animals of the field also have I given him to serve him. ⁷All the nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son’s son, until the time of his own land come: and then many nations and great kings shall make him their bondservant. ⁸It shall happen, that the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, says the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. ⁹But as for you, do not listen to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreams, nor to your soothsayers, nor to your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, ‘You shall not serve the king of Babylon’: ¹⁰for they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and you should perish. ¹¹But the nation that shall bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, that nation will I let remain in their own land, says the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.’”

^a26:18 Micah 3:12

¹²I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, “Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. ¹³Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD has spoken concerning the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴Do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, ‘You shall not serve the king of Babylon’; for they prophesy a lie to you. ¹⁵For I have not sent them,’ says the LORD, ‘but they prophesy falsely in my name; that I may drive you out, and that you may perish, you, and the prophets who prophesy to you.’”

¹⁶Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD’s house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you. ¹⁷Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: why should this city become a desolation?’ ¹⁸But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, do not go to Babylon.¹⁹For thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that are left in this city,²⁰which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;²¹yes, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem:²²They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be, until the day that I visit them,' says the LORD; 'then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.'"

28 It happened the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,^{2c}Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, 'I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.³Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried to Babylon:⁴and I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, who went to Babylon,' says the LORD; 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"

⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of the LORD,⁶even the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen: LORD do so; the LORD perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring back the vessels of the LORD's house, and all them of the captivity, from Babylon to this place.⁷Nevertheless hear you now this word that I speak in your ears, and in the ears of all the people:⁸The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.⁹The prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet shall happen, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD has truly sent him."

¹⁰Then Hananiah the prophet took the bar from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and broke it.¹¹Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon within two full years from off the neck of all the nations.”” The prophet Jeremiah went his way.

¹²Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the bar from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ¹³”Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD: You have broken the bars of wood; but you have made in their place bars of iron. ¹⁴For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the animals of the field also.””” ¹⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, “Hear now, Hananiah: the LORD has not sent you; but you make this people to trust in a lie. ¹⁶Therefore thus says the LORD, ‘Behold, I will send you away from off the surface of the earth: this year you shall die, because you have spoken rebellion against the LORD.””” ¹⁷So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

29 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon, ²(after that Jeconiah the king, the queen mother, the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the smiths, had departed from Jerusalem), ³by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), saying, ⁴”Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the captivity, whom I have caused to be carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵”Build houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat their fruit. ⁶Take wives, and father sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; and multiply there, and do not be diminished. ⁷Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to the LORD for it; for in its peace you shall have peace.’ ⁸For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Do not let your prophets who are in the midst of you, and your diviners, deceive you; neither listen to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed. ⁹For they prophesy falsely to you in my name: I have not sent them,’ says the LORD.

¹⁰”For thus says the LORD, ‘After seventy years are accomplished for Babylon, I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. ¹¹For I know the plans that I have for you,’ says the LORD, ‘plans for your welfare, and not for calamity, to give you hope and a future.

¹²You shall call on me, and you shall go and pray to me, and I will listen to you. ¹³You shall seek me, and find me, when you shall search for me with all your heart. ¹⁴I will be found by you,' says the LORD, 'and I will turn again your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you,' says the LORD; 'and I will bring you again to the place from where I caused you to be carried away captive.'

¹⁵'Because you have said, 'The LORD has raised us up prophets in Babylon'; ¹⁶thus says the LORD concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, and concerning all the people who dwell in this city, your brothers who haven't gone forth with you into captivity; ¹⁷thus says the LORD of hosts; 'Behold, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that can't be eaten, they are so bad. ¹⁸I will pursue after them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations where I have driven them; ¹⁹because they have not listened to my words,' says the LORD, 'with which I sent to them my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but you would not hear,' says the LORD. ²⁰Hear therefore the word of the LORD, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.'

²¹'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in my name: 'Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall kill them before your eyes; ²²and of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captives of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, "The LORD make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire"; ²³because they have worked folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I did not command them; and I am he who knows, and am witness,' says the LORD."

²⁴'Concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite you shall speak, saying, ²⁵'Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, "Because you have sent letters in your own name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying, ²⁶'The LORD has made you priest in the place of Jehoiada the priest, that there may be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man who is mad, and makes himself a prophet, that you should put him in the stocks and in shackles. ²⁷Now therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself a prophet to you, ²⁸because he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, “The captivity is long: build houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat their fruit?””

²⁹Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. ³⁰Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying, ³¹“Send to all them of the captivity, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: “Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I did not send him, and he has caused you to trust in a lie; ³²therefore,” thus says the LORD, “Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed; he shall not have a man to dwell among this people, neither shall he see the good that I will do to my people, says the LORD, because he has spoken rebellion against the LORD.””

30 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ²“Thus speaks the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, ‘Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a book. ³For, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will turn again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah,’ says the LORD; ‘and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.”

⁴These are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah. ⁵For thus says the LORD: “We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. ⁶Ask now, and see whether a man does travail with child: why do I see every man with his hands on his waist, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness? ⁷Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob’s trouble; but he shall be saved out of it. ⁸It shall come to pass in that day,” says the LORD of hosts, “that I will break his yoke from off your neck, and will burst your bonds; and strangers shall no more make him their bondservant; ⁹but they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up to them. ¹⁰Therefore do not be afraid, O Jacob my servant, says the LORD; neither be dismayed, Israel: for, behold, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. ¹¹For I am with you, says the LORD, to save you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have scattered you, but I will not make a full end of you; but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished.” ¹²For thus says the LORD, “Your hurt is incurable, and your wound grievous. ¹³There is none to plead your cause, that you may be bound up: you have no healing medicines. ¹⁴All your lovers have forgotten you; they do not seek you: for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased.¹⁵ Why do you cry for your hurt? Your pain is incurable: for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased, I have done these things to you.¹⁶ Therefore all those who devour you shall be devoured; and all your adversaries, everyone of them, shall go into captivity; and those who plunder you shall be plundered, and all who prey on you I will make a prey.¹⁷ For I will restore health to you, and I will heal you of your wounds,” says the LORD; “because they have called you an outcast, saying, ‘It is Zion, whom no man seeks after.’”¹⁸ Thus says the LORD: “Behold, I will turn again the captivity of Jacob’s tents, and have compassion on his dwelling places; and the city shall be built on its own hill, and the palace shall be inhabited in its own way.¹⁹ Out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of those who make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.²⁰ Their children also shall be as before, and their congregation shall be established before me; and I will punish all who oppress them.²¹ Their prince shall be of themselves, and their ruler shall proceed from their midst; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach to me: for who is he who has had boldness to approach to me? says the LORD.²² You shall be my people, and I will be your God.²³ Behold, the storm of the LORD, his wrath, has gone forth, a sweeping storm: it shall burst on the head of the wicked.²⁴ The fierce anger of the LORD will not return, until he has executed, and until he has performed the intentions of his heart. In the latter days you will understand it.

31 “At that time,” says the LORD, “will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.”² Thus says the LORD, “The people who were left of the sword found favor in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest.³ The LORD appeared of old to me, saying, ‘Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love: therefore with loving kindness have I drawn you.⁴ Again will I build you, and you shall be built, O virgin of Israel: again you shall be adorned with your tambourines, and shall go forth in the dances of those who make merry.⁵ Again you shall plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy its fruit.⁶ For there shall be a day, that the watchmen on the hills of Ephraim shall cry, ‘Arise, and let us go up to Zion to the LORD our God.’”⁷ For thus says the LORD, “Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the chief of the nations: publish, praise, and say, ‘LORD, save your people, the remnant of Israel.’⁸ Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the uttermost parts of the earth, along with the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her who travails with child together: a great company shall they return here. ⁹They shall come with weeping; and with petitions will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a straight way in which they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.” ¹⁰Hear the word of the LORD, you nations, and declare it in the islands afar off; and say, “He who scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as shepherd does his flock.” ¹¹For the LORD has ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he. ¹²They shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow to the goodness of the LORD, to the grain, and to the new wine, and to the oil, and to the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all. ¹³”Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow. ¹⁴I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness,” says the LORD. ¹⁵Thus says the LORD: “A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping, Rachel weeping for her children; she refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are no more.” ¹⁶Thus says the LORD: “Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears; for your work shall be rewarded,” says the LORD; “and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. ¹⁷There is hope for your latter end,” says the LORD; “and your children shall come again to their own border. ¹⁸I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus, ‘You have chastised me, and I was chastised, as an untrained calf: turn me, and I shall be turned; for you are the LORD my God. ¹⁹Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I struck on my thigh: I was ashamed, yes, even confounded, because I bore the reproach of my youth.’ ²⁰Is Ephraim my dear son? Is he a darling child? For as often as I speak against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my heart yearns for him; I will surely have mercy on him,” says the LORD. ²¹”Set up road signs, make guideposts; set your heart toward the highway, even the way by which you went: turn again, virgin of Israel, turn again to these your cities. ²²How long will you go here and there, you backsliding daughter? For the LORD has created a new thing in the earth: a woman shall encompass a man.” ²³Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Yet again shall they use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I shall bring again their captivity: ‘The LORD bless you, habitation of righteousness, mountain of holiness.’ ²⁴Judah and all its cities shall dwell therein together, the farmers, and those who go about with flocks. ²⁵For I have satiated the weary soul, and every sorrowful soul have I replenished.”

²⁶On this I awakened, and saw; and my sleep was sweet to me. ²⁷Behold, the days come, ” says the LORD, ”that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of animal. ²⁸It shall happen that, like as I have watched over them to pluck up and to break down and to overthrow and to destroy and to afflict, so will I watch over them to build and to plant,” says the LORD. ²⁹”In those days they shall say no more, ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge.’ ³⁰But everyone shall die for his own iniquity: every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge. ³¹Behold, the days come,” says the LORD, “when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: ³²not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they broke, although I was a husband to them,” says the LORD. ³³”But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days,” says the LORD: “I will put my law in their inward parts, and in their heart will I write it; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people: ³⁴and they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, ‘Know the LORD’; for they shall all know me, from their least to their greatest,” says the LORD: “for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin will I remember no more.”

³⁵Thus says the LORD, who gives the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar; the LORD of hosts is his name: ³⁶”If these ordinances depart from before me,” says the LORD, “then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me forever.” ³⁷Thus says the LORD: “If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then will I also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done,” says the LORD.

32 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. ²Now at that time the king of Babylon's army was besieging Jerusalem; and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the king of Judah's house.³ For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, "Why do you prophesy, and say, 'Thus says the LORD, "Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall see his eyes; and he shall bring Zedekiah to Babylon, and he shall be there until I visit him," says the LORD: "though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not prosper?"'"

⁶Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to me, saying,⁷ Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle shall come to you, saying, "Buy my field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is yours to buy it.'" ⁸So Hanamel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the guard according to the word of the LORD, and said to me, "Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin, for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours; buy it for yourself." Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. ⁹I bought the field that was in Anathoth of Hanamel my uncle's son, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.

¹⁰I subscribed the deed, and sealed it, and called witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances. ¹¹So I took the deed of the purchase, both that which was sealed, containing the terms and conditions, and that which was open; ¹²and I delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses who subscribed the deed of the purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the guard. ¹³I commanded Baruch before them, saying, ¹⁴"Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Take these deeds, this deed of the purchase which is sealed, and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel; that they may continue many days.'" ¹⁵For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Houses and fields and vineyards shall yet again be bought in this land." ¹⁶Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying, ¹⁷Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm; there is nothing too hard for you, ¹⁸who show loving kindness to thousands, and recompense the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them; the Great, the Mighty God,^a the LORD of hosts is his name; ¹⁹great in counsel, and mighty in work;

whose eyes are open on all the ways of the sons of men, to give everyone according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings: ²⁰who performed signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even to this day, both in Israel and among other men; and made yourself a name, as in this day; ²¹and brought forth your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror; ²²and gave them this land, which you swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey; ²³and they came in, and possessed it, but they did not obey your voice, neither walked in your law; they have done nothing of all that you commanded them to do: therefore you have caused all this evil to come on them. ²⁴Behold, the mounds, they have come to the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence; and what you have spoken has happened; and behold, you see it. ²⁵You have said to me, Lord GOD, "Buy the field for money, and call witnesses"; whereas the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans."

²⁶Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁷"Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there anything too difficult for me? ²⁸Therefore thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it: ²⁹and the Chaldeans, who fight against this city, shall come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses, on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger. ³⁰For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only that which was evil in my sight from their youth; for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, says the LORD. ³¹For this city has been to me a provocation of my anger and of my wrath from the day that they built it even to this day; that I should remove it from before my face, ³²because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ³³They have turned to me the back, and not the face: and though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. ³⁴But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. ³⁵They built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through fire to Molech; which I did not command them, neither did it come into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.'

³⁶Now therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, about which you say, 'It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence': ³⁷Behold, I will gather them out of all the countries, where I have driven them in my anger, and in my wrath, and in great indignation; and I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely: ³⁸and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: ³⁹and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their good, and of their children after them: ⁴⁰and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from following them, to do them good; and I will put my fear in their hearts, that they may not depart from me. ⁴¹Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.'

⁴²For thus says the LORD: 'Just as I have brought all this great disaster on this people, so will I bring on them all the good that I have promised them. ⁴³Fields shall be bought in this land, about which you say, "It is desolate, without man or animal; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans." ⁴⁴Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe the deeds, and seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the hill country, and in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the Negev: for I will cause their captivity to return,' says the LORD.'

33 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the guard, saying, ²Thus says the LORD who made the earth, ^a the LORD who forms it to establish it; the LORD is his name: ³Call to me, and I will answer you, and will show you great and hidden things, which you do not know.' ⁴For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to make a defense against the mounds and against the sword; ⁵while men come to fight with the Chaldeans, and to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have killed in my anger and in my wrath, and for all whose wickedness I have hidden my face from this city: ⁶Behold, I will bring it health and healing, and I will heal them; and I will reveal to them abundance of peace and truth. ⁷I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. ⁸I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, by which they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, by which they have sinned against me, and by which they have transgressed against me. ⁹This city shall be to me for a name of joy, for a praise and for a glory, before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do to them, and shall fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I procure to it.’

¹⁰”Thus says the LORD: ‘Yet again there shall be heard in this place, about which you say, “It is waste, without man and without animal,” even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without animal, ¹¹the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who say, “Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his loving kindness endures forever; who bring thanksgiving into the house of the LORD.” For I will cause the captivity of the land to return as at the first,’ says the LORD. ¹²Thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘Yet again shall there be in this place, which is waste, without man and without animal, and in all its cities, a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. ¹³In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the Negev, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks again pass under the hands of him who numbers them,’ says the LORD. ¹⁴Behold, the days come,’ says the LORD, ‘that I will perform that good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah. ¹⁵In those days, and at that time, will I cause a Branch of righteousness to grow up to David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. ¹⁶In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely; and this is the name by which she shall be called: “The LORD our righteousness.” ¹⁷For thus says the LORD: “David shall never want a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel; ¹⁸neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to burn meal offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.”’”

¹⁹The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁰”Thus says the LORD: ‘If you can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, so that there shall not be day and night in their season; ²¹then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he shall not have a son to reign on his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. ²²As the army of the sky can’t be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites who minister to me.’”

²³The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁴”Do not consider what this people has spoken, saying, ‘The two families which the LORD chose, he has cast them off?’ Thus do they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. ²⁵Thus says the LORD: ‘If my covenant of day and night fails, if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; ²⁶then will I also cast away the seed of Jacob, and of David my servant, so that I will not take of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and will have mercy on them.’”

34 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his dominion, and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of it, saying: ²⁵Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: ³and you shall not escape out of his hand, but shall surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and your eyes shall see the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with you mouth to mouth, and you shall go to Babylon.’ ⁴Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah: thus says the LORD concerning you, ‘You shall not die by the sword; ⁵you shall die in peace; and with the burnings of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so shall they make a burning for you; and they shall lament you, saying, “Ah Lord!” for I have spoken the word,’ says the LORD.””

⁶Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, ⁷when the king of Babylon’s army was fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these alone remained of the cities of Judah as fortified cities.

⁸The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them; ⁹that every man should let his male servant, and every man his female servant, who is a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, go free; that none should make bondservants of them, of a Jew his brother. ¹⁰All the princes and all the people obeyed, who had entered into the covenant, that everyone should let his male servant, and everyone his female servant, go free, that none should make bondservants of them any more; they obeyed, and let them go: ¹¹but afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids. ¹²Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ¹³”Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel:

‘I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, ¹⁴“At the end of seven years you shall let go every man his brother who is a Hebrew, who has been sold to you, and has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you”: but your fathers did not listen to me, neither inclined their ear. ¹⁵You had now turned, and had done that which is right in my eyes, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbor; and you had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name: ¹⁶but you turned and profaned my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom you had let go free at their pleasure, to return; and you brought them into subjection, to be to you for servants and for handmaids. ¹⁷Therefore thus says the LORD: “You have not listened to me, to proclaim liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his neighbor: behold, I proclaim to you a liberty, says the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth. ¹⁸I will give the men who have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts; ¹⁹the princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf; ²⁰I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life; and their dead bodies shall be for food to the birds of the sky, and to the animals of the earth. ²¹Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon’s army, who have gone away from you. ²²Behold, I will command, says the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.”””

35 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, ²“Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the rooms, and give them wine to drink.” ³Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; ⁴and I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the room of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, the man of God, which was by the room of the princes, which was above the room of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the threshold. ⁵I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, “Drink wine!” ⁶But they said, "We will drink no wine; for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, 'You shall drink no wine, neither you, nor your sons, forever: ⁷neither shall you build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any; but all your days you shall dwell in tents; that you may live many days in the land in which you live.' ⁸We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters; ⁹nor to build houses for us to dwell in; neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: ¹⁰but we have lived in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. ¹¹But it happened, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, 'Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians'; so we dwell at Jerusalem."

¹²Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying, ¹³"Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Go, and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, "Will you not receive instruction to listen to my words?" says the LORD. ¹⁴"The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; and to this day they drink none, for they obey their father's commandment: but I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; and you have not listened to me. ¹⁵I have sent also to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, 'Return now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and you shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers': but you have not inclined your ear, nor listened to me. ¹⁶Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not listened to me; ¹⁷therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the disaster that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them, but they have not listened; and I have called to them, but they have not answered.'"

¹⁸Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he commanded you'; ¹⁹therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me forever.'"

36 It happened in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ²"Take a scroll, and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day. ³It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do to them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.”

⁴Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken to him, on a scroll. ⁵Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, “I am shut up; I can’t go into the house of the LORD: ⁶therefore you go, and read from the scroll, which you have written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD’s house on the fast day; and also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah who come out of their cities. ⁷It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return everyone from his evil way; for great is the anger and the wrath that the LORD has pronounced against this people.”

⁸Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading from the scroll the words of the LORD in the LORD’s house. ⁹Now it happened in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before the LORD. ¹⁰Then Baruch read from the scroll the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the room of Gemariah the son of Shaphan, the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD’s house, in the ears of all the people.

¹¹When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard from the scroll all the words of the LORD, ¹²he went down into the king’s house, into the scribe’s room: and behold, all the princes were sitting there, Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. ¹³Then Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the scroll in the hearing of the people. ¹⁴Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, “Take in your hand the scroll in which you have read in the ears of the people, and come.” So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand, and came to them. ¹⁵They said to him, “Sit down now, and read it in our ears.” So Baruch read it in their ears. ¹⁶Now it happened, when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said to Baruch, “We will surely tell the king of all these words.” ¹⁷They asked Baruch, saying, "Tell us now, How did you write all these words at his mouth?" ¹⁸Then Baruch answered them, "He pronounced all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink on the scroll."¹⁹Then the princes said to Baruch, "Go, hide, you and Jeremiah; and let no man know where you are."

²⁰They went in to the king into the court; but they had put the scroll in the room of Elishama the scribe; and they told all the words in the ears of the king. ²¹So the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll; and he took it out of the room of Elishama the scribe. Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes who stood beside the king. ²²Now the king was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month; and there was a fire in the brazier burning before him. ²³It happened, when Jehudi had read three or four columns, that the king cut it with a knife, and cast it into the fire that was in the brazier, until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier. ²⁴They were not afraid, nor tore their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants who heard all these words. ²⁵Moreover Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the scroll; but he would not hear them. ²⁶The king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but the LORD hid them.

²⁷Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the scroll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, ²⁸"Take again another scroll, and write on it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. ²⁹Concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you shall say, 'Thus says the LORD: "You have burned this scroll, saying, 'Why have you written therein, saying, "The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from there man and animal?"'"'" ³⁰Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: "He shall have none to sit on the throne of David; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. ³¹I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring on them, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they did not listen."'"'"

³²Then Jeremiah took another scroll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the scroll which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and there were added besides to them many like words.

37 Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. ²But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, listened to the words of the LORD, which he spoke by the prophet Jeremiah.

³Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, "Pray now to the LORD our God for us."

⁴Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison. ⁵Pharaoh's army had come forth out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they broke up from Jerusalem. ⁶Then came the word of the LORD to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ⁷"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'You shall tell the king of Judah, who sent you to me to inquire of me: "Behold, Pharaoh's army, which has come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. ⁸The Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city; and they shall take it, and burn it with fire." ⁹Thus says the LORD, "Do not deceive yourselves, saying, 'The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us'; for they shall not depart. ¹⁰For though you had struck the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet would they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.'"

¹¹It happened that, when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, ¹²then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive his portion there, in the midst of the people. ¹³When he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he laid hold on Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "You are falling away to the Chaldeans." ¹⁴Then Jeremiah said, "It is false; I am not falling away to the Chaldeans." But he did not listen to him; so Irijah laid hold on Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. ¹⁵The princes were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

¹⁶When Jeremiah had come into the dungeon house, and into the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; ¹⁷Then Zedekiah the king sent, and fetched him: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, "Is there any word from the LORD?" Jeremiah said, "There is." He said also, "You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon." ¹⁸Moreover Jeremiah said to king Zedekiah, "Wherein have I sinned against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison? ¹⁹Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? ²⁰Now please hear, my lord the king: please let my supplication be presented before you, that you not cause me to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.” ²¹Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard; and they gave him daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers’ street, until all the bread in the city was spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

38 Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchijah, heard the words that Jeremiah spoke to all the people, saying, ²”Thus says the LORD, ‘He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes forth to the Chaldeans shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey, and he shall live.’ ³Thus says the LORD, ‘This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it.’” ⁴Then the princes said to the king, “Please let this man be put to death; because he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them: for this man doesn’t seek the welfare of this people, but the hurt.”

⁵Zedekiah the king said, “Behold, he is in your hand; for the king is not he who can do anything against you.” ⁶Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchijah the king’s son, that was in the court of the guard: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. In the dungeon there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah sank in the mire. ⁷Now when Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, who was in the king’s house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin), ⁸Ebedmelech went forth out of the king’s house, and spoke to the king, saying, ⁹”My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is likely to die in the place where he is, because of the famine; for there is no more bread in the city.” ¹⁰Then the king commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, “Take from here thirty men with you, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he dies.” ¹¹So Ebedmelech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took there rags and worn-out garments, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. ¹²Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, “Put now these rags and worn-out garments under your armpits under the cords.” Jeremiah did so. ¹³So they drew up Jeremiah with the cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

¹⁴Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet to him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said to Jeremiah, "I will ask you something. Hide nothing from me."¹⁵Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me."¹⁶So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, "As the LORD lives, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life."

¹⁷Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'If you will go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and you shall live, and your house.'¹⁸But if you will not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape out of their hand."¹⁹Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who are fallen away to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me."²⁰But Jeremiah said, "They shall not deliver you. Obey, I beg you, the voice of the LORD, in that which I speak to you: so it shall be well with you, and your soul shall live."²¹But if you refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD has shown me:²²behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, 'Your familiar friends have set you on, and have prevailed over you. Your feet are sunk in the mire, they have turned away back.'²³They shall bring out all your wives and your children to the Chaldeans; and you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and you shall cause this city to be burned with fire."

²⁴Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Let no man know of these words, and you shall not die."²⁵But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you, and tell you, 'Declare to us now what you have said to the king; do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death; also what the king said to you':²⁶then you shall tell them, 'I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.'" ²⁷Then came all the princes to Jeremiah, and asked him; and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.²⁸So Jeremiah stayed in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

39 It happened when Jerusalem was taken, (in the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and besieged it; ²in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city), ³that all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, Nergal Sharezer the Samgar, Nebo Sarsekim the Rabsaris, Nergal Sharezer the Rabmag, with all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon. ⁴It happened that, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls; and he went out toward the Arabah. ⁵But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him. ⁶Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon killed all the nobles of Judah. ⁷Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. ⁸The Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. ⁹Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into

Babylon the residue of the people who remained in the city, the deserters also who fell away to him, and the residue of the people who remained. ¹⁰But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

¹¹Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon commanded Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard concerning Jeremiah, saying, ¹²,"Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do to him even as he shall tell you." ¹³So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushazban, Rabsaris, and Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon; ¹⁴they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he lived among the people.

¹⁵Now the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the guard, saying, ¹⁶,"Go, and speak to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will bring my words on this city for disaster, and not for prosperity; and they shall be fulfilled before you in that day. ¹⁷But I will deliver you in that day, says the LORD; and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. ¹⁸For I will surely save you, and you shall not fall by the sword, but your life will be given to you as a reward; because you have put your trust in me,” says the LORD.”

40 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon. ²The captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said to him, “The LORD your God pronounced this evil on this place; ³and the LORD has brought it, and done according as he spoke: because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing has come on you. ⁴Now, behold, I release you this day from the chains which are on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will take care of you; but if it seems bad to you to come with me into Babylon, do not: behold, all the land is before you; where it seems good and right to you to go, there go.” ⁵Now while he had not yet gone back, “Go back then,” he said, “to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wherever it seems right to you to go.” So the captain of the guard gave him food and a present, and let him go. ⁶Then went Jeremiah to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and lived with him among the people who were left in the land.

⁷Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, and women, and children, and of the poorest of the land, of those who were not carried away captive to Babylon; ⁸then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. ⁹Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying, “Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. ¹⁰As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans who shall come to us: but you, gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken.”

¹¹Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab, and among the children of Ammon, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; ¹²then all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

¹³Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, ¹⁴and said to him, "Do you know that Baalis the king of the children of Ammon has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your life?" But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them. ¹⁵Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, "Please let me go, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: why should he take your life, that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish?" ¹⁶But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, "You shall not do this thing; for you speak falsely of Ishmael."

41 Now it happened in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family and one of the chief officers of the king, and ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they ate bread together in Mizpah. ²Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him, and struck

Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and killed him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. ³Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with him, with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war. ⁴It happened the second day after he had killed Gedaliah, and no man knew it, ⁵that there came men from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even eighty men, having their beards shaved and their clothes torn, and having cut themselves, with meal offerings and frankincense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD. ⁶Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it happened, as he met them, he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam." ⁷It was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah killed them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men who were with him. ⁸But ten men were found among those who said to Ishmael, "Do not kill us; for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he stopped, and did not kill them among their brothers. ⁹Now the pit in which Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had killed, by the side of Gedaliah (the same was who which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel), Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with those who were killed. ¹⁰Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people who were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the children of Ammon.

¹¹But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, ¹²then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. ¹³Now it happened that, when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, then they were glad. ¹⁴So all the people who Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. ¹⁵But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon.

¹⁶Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon: ¹⁷and they departed, and lived in Geruth Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt, ¹⁸because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.

42 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near, ²and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Please let our supplication be presented before you, and pray for us to the LORD your God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes do see us: ³that the LORD your God may show us the way in which we should walk, and the thing that we should do." ⁴Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard you; behold, I will pray to the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall happen that whatever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it to you; I will keep nothing back from you." ⁵Then they said to Jeremiah, "The LORD be a true and faithful witness among us, if we do not do according to all the word with which the LORD your God shall send you to us. ⁶Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send you; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.”

⁷It happened after ten days, that the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. ⁸Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, ⁹and said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before him: ¹⁰‘If you will still live in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I grieve over the distress that I have brought on you. ¹¹Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; do not be afraid of him, says the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. ¹²I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy on you, and cause you to return to your own land.’ ¹³But if you say, ‘We will not dwell in this land’; so that you do not obey the voice of the LORD your God, ¹⁴saying, ‘No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell’: ¹⁵now therefore hear the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah: Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘If you indeed set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to live there; ¹⁶then it shall happen, that the sword, which you fear, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, about which you are afraid, shall follow close behind you there in Egypt; and there you shall die. ¹⁷So shall it be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to live there: they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring on them.’ ¹⁸For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘As my anger and my wrath has been poured forth on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so shall my wrath be poured forth on you, when you shall enter into Egypt; and you shall be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more.’ ¹⁹The LORD has spoken concerning you, remnant of Judah, ‘Do not go into Egypt’: know certainly that I have testified to you this day. ²⁰For you have dealt deceitfully against your own souls; for you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, ‘Pray for us to the LORD our God; and according to all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it’: ²¹and I have this day declared it to you; but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God in anything for which he has sent me to you. ²²Now therefore know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place where you desire to go to live there.”

43 It happened that, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God, with which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words, ²then spoke Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying to Jeremiah, “You speak falsely. The LORD our God has not sent you to say, ‘You shall not go into Egypt to live there’; ³but Baruch the son of Neriah sets you on against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death, and carry us away captive to Babylon.” ⁴So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, did not obey the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah. ⁵But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, who were returned from all the nations where they had been driven, to live in the land of Judah; ⁶the men, and the women, and the children, and the king’s daughters, and every person who Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah; ⁷and they came into the land of Egypt; for they did not obey the voice of the LORD: and they came to Tahpanhes.

⁸Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, ⁹”Take great stones in your hand, and hide them in mortar in the brick work, which is at the entry of Pharaoh’s house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah; ¹⁰and tell them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne on these stones that I have hidden; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. ¹¹He shall come, and shall strike the land of Egypt; such as are for death shall be put to death, and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword to the sword. ¹²I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captive: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment; and he shall go forth from there in peace. ¹³He shall also break the pillars of Beth Shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt shall he burn with fire.”’”

44 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who lived in the land of Egypt, who lived at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Memphis, and in the country of Pathros, saying, ²”Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘You have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwells therein, ³because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, to serve other gods, that they did not know, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. ⁴However I sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ‘Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate.’ ⁵But they did not listen, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods. ⁶Therefore my wrath and my anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is this day.’ ⁷Therefore now thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Why do you commit great evil against your own souls, to cut off from yourselves man and woman, infant and nursing child out of the midst of Judah, to leave yourselves none remaining; ⁸in that you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to live; that you may be cut off, and that you may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? ⁹Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives which they committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰They are not humbled even to this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.’ ¹¹Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, even to cut off all Judah. ¹²I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to live there, and they shall all be consumed; in the land of Egypt shall they fall; they shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine; they shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be an object of horror, an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. ¹³For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; ¹⁴so that none of the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall escape or be left, to return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return save such as shall escape.’”

¹⁵Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, even all the people who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, ¹⁶“As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you. ¹⁷But we will certainly perform every word that is gone forth out of our mouth, to burn incense to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then had

we plenty of food, and were well, and saw no evil. ¹⁸But since we left off burning incense to the queen of the sky, and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. ¹⁹When we burned incense to the queen of the sky, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her, without our husbands?"

²⁰Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men, and to the women, even to all the people who had given him an answer, saying, ²¹"The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land. Did not the LORD remember them, and did not it come into his mind, ²²so that the LORD could no longer bear because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which you have committed? Therefore your land has become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day. ²³Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil has happened to you, as it is this day."

²⁴Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people, and to all the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt: ²⁵Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, 'You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have fulfilled it, saying, "We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her": establish then your vows, and perform your vows.' ²⁶Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: 'Behold, I have sworn by my great name,' says the LORD, 'that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, "As the Lord GOD lives."' ²⁷Behold, I watch over them for disaster, and not for good; and all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until they are all gone. ²⁸Those who escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall know whose word shall stand, mine, or theirs. ²⁹This shall be the sign to you,' says the LORD, 'that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil': ³⁰Thus says the LORD, 'Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy, and sought his life.”

45 The message that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, ²”Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, Baruch: ³”You said, “Woe is me now! For the LORD has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest.””

⁴”You shall tell him, “Thus says the LORD: “Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up; and this in the whole land. ⁵Do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for, behold, I will bring disaster on all flesh, says the LORD; but your life will I give to you for a reward in all places where you go.””

46 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations. ²Of Egypt: concerning the army of Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah. ³”Prepare the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle! ⁴Harness the horses, and get up, you horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, put on the coats of mail. ⁵Why have I seen it? They are dismayed and are turned backward; and their mighty ones are beaten down, and have fled in haste, and do not look back: terror is on every side,” says the LORD. ⁶”Do not let the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; in the north by the river Euphrates have they stumbled and fallen. ⁷Who is this who rises up like the Nile, whose waters toss themselves like the rivers? ⁸Egypt rises up like the Nile, and his waters toss themselves like the rivers: and he says, ‘I will rise up, I will cover the earth; I will destroy cities and its inhabitants.’ ⁹Go up, you horses; and rage, you chariots; and let the mighty men go forth: Cush and Put, who handle the shield; and the Ludim, who handle and bend the bow. ¹⁰For that day is of the Lord, the LORD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour and be satiate, and shall drink its fill of their blood; for the Lord, the LORD of hosts, has a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates. ¹¹Go up into Gilead, and take balm, virgin daughter of Egypt: in vain do you use many medicines; there is no healing for you. ¹²The nations have heard of your shame, and the earth is full of your cry; for the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty, they are fallen both of them together.”

¹³The word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon should come and strike the land of Egypt. ¹⁴“Declare in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Memphis and in Tahpanhes: say, ‘Stand forth, and prepare; for the sword has devoured around you.’ ¹⁵Why are your strong ones swept away? They did not stand, because the LORD pushed them. ¹⁶He made many to stumble, yes, they fell one on another: and they said, ‘Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our birth, from the oppressing sword.’ ¹⁷They cried there, ‘Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he has let the appointed time pass by.’”

¹⁸“As I live,” says the King, “whose name is the LORD of hosts, surely like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea, so shall he come. ¹⁹You daughter who dwells in Egypt, furnish yourself to go into captivity; for Memphis shall become a desolation, and shall be burnt up, without inhabitant. ²⁰Egypt is a very beautiful heifer; but destruction out of the north has come, it has come. ²¹Also her hired men in the midst of her are like calves of the stall; for they also are turned back, they are fled away together, they did not stand: for the day of their calamity has come on them, the time of their visitation. ²²The sound of it shall go like the serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as wood cutters. ²³They shall cut down her forest, says the LORD, though it can’t be searched; because they are more than the locusts, and are innumerable. ²⁴The daughter of Egypt shall be disappointed; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.”

²⁵The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘Behold, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods, and her kings; even Pharaoh, and those who trust in him: ²⁶and I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants; and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old,’ says the LORD. ²⁷“But do not be afraid, Jacob my servant, neither be dismayed, Israel: for, behold, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. ²⁸Do not be afraid, O Jacob my servant,’ says the LORD; ‘for I am with you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have driven you; but I will not make a full end of you, but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished.’”

47 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before that Pharaoh struck Gaza. ²⁹Thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall become an overflowing stream, and shall overflow the land and all that is therein, the city and those who dwell therein; and the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall wail.

48 Of Moab. “Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Woe to Nebo! for it is laid waste; Kiriathaim is disappointed, it is taken; Misgab is put to shame and broken down. ²The praise of Moab is no more; in Heshbon they have devised evil against her: “Come, and let us cut her off from being a nation.” You also, Madmen, shall be brought to silence: the sword shall pursue you. ³The sound of a cry from

Horonaim, “desolation and great destruction!” ⁴Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. ⁵For by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping shall they go up; for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction. ⁶“Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness.” ⁷For, because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you also shall be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity, his priests and his princes together. ⁸The destroyer shall come on every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed; as the LORD has spoken. ⁹Give wings to Moab, that she may fly and get her away: and her cities shall become a desolation, without any to dwell therein.’ ¹⁰Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD negligently; and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood. ¹¹Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his lees, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed. ¹²Therefore behold, the days come,’ says the LORD, ‘that I will send to him those who pour off, and they shall pour him off; and they shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles in pieces. ¹³Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence. ¹⁴How can you say, “We are mighty men, and valiant men for the war?”’ ¹⁵Moab is laid waste, and they are gone up into his cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter,' says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts. ¹⁶The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hurries fast. ¹⁷All you who are around him, bemoan him, and all you who know his name; say, "How is the strong staff broken, the beautiful rod!" ¹⁸You daughter who dwells in Dibon, come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the destroyer of Moab has come up against you, he has destroyed your strongholds. ¹⁹Inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and watch: ask him who flees, and her who escapes; say, "What has been done?" ²⁰Moab is disappointed; for it is broken down: wail and cry; tell it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste." ²¹Judgment has come on the plain country, on Holon, and on Jahzah, and on Mephaath, ²²and on Dibon, and on Nebo, and on Beth Diblathaim, ²³and on Kiriathaim, and on Beth Gamul, and on Beth Meon, ²⁴and on Kerioth, and on Bozrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. ²⁵The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken,' says the LORD. ²⁶Make him drunk; for he magnified himself against the LORD: and Moab shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision. ²⁷For wasn't Israel a derision to you? Was he found among thieves? For as often as you speak of him, you shake your head. ²⁸You inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock; and be like the dove that makes her nest over the mouth of the abyss. ²⁹We have heard of the pride of Moab. He is very proud; his loftiness, and his pride, and his arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart. ³⁰I know his wrath,' says the LORD, 'that it is nothing; his boastings have worked nothing. ³¹Therefore I will wail for Moab; yes, I will cry out for all Moab: for the men of Kir Heres shall they mourn. ³²With more than the weeping of Jazer will I weep for you, vine of Sibmah: your branches passed over the sea, they reached even to the sea of Jazer: on your summer fruits and on your vintage the destroyer is fallen. ³³Gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to cease from the wine presses: none shall tread with shouting; the shouting shall be no shouting. ³⁴From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Jahaz have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim, to Eglath Shelishiyah: for the waters of Nimrim also shall become desolate. ³⁵Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab,' says the LORD, 'him who offers in the high place, and him who burns incense to his gods. ³⁶Therefore my heart sounds for Moab like pipes, and my heart sounds like pipes for the men of Kir Heres: therefore the abundance that he has gotten is perished. ³⁷For every head is bald, and every beard clipped: on all the hands are cuttings, and on the waist sackcloth. ³⁸On all the housetops of Moab and in its streets there is lamentation every where; for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which none delights,' says the LORD. ³⁹How it is broken down! How they wail! How Moab has turned the back with shame! So shall Moab become a derision and a terror to all who are around him.’

⁴⁰For thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread out his wings against Moab. ⁴¹Kerioth is taken, and the strongholds are seized, and the heart of the mighty men of Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. ⁴²Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against the LORD. ⁴³Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are on you, inhabitant of Moab, says the LORD. ⁴⁴He who flees from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he who gets up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring on him, even on Moab, the year of their visitation,’ says the LORD. ⁴⁵‘Those who fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon; for a fire is gone forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and has devoured the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones. ⁴⁶Woe to you, O Moab! The people of Chemosh is undone; for your sons are taken away captive, and your daughters into captivity. ⁴⁷Yet will I bring back the captivity of Moab in the latter days,’ says the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.”

49 Of the children of Ammon. “Thus says the LORD: ‘Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why then does Malcam possess Gad, and his people dwell in its cities?’ ²Therefore behold, the days come,’ says the LORD, ‘that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon; and it shall become a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel possess those who possessed him,’ says the LORD. ³Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste; cry, you daughters of Rabbah, clothe yourself in sackcloth: lament, and run back and forth among the fences; for Malcam shall go into captivity, his priests and his princes together. ⁴Why do you glory in the valleys, your flowing valley, backsliding daughter? You who trusted in her treasures, saying, “Who shall come to me?” ⁵Behold, I will bring a fear on you,’ says the Lord, the LORD of hosts, ‘from all who are around you; and you shall be driven out every man right forth, and there shall be none to gather together the fugitives. ⁶But afterward I will bring back the captivity of the children of Ammon,’ says the LORD.”

⁷Of Edom. “Thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘Is wisdom no more in Teman? Is counsel perished from the prudent? Is their wisdom vanished?’ ⁸Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau on him, the time that I shall visit him. ⁹If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? If thieves by night, wouldn’t they destroy until they had enough? ¹⁰But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is destroyed, and his brothers, and his neighbors; and he is no more.

¹¹Leave your fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let your widows trust in me.' ¹²For thus says the LORD: 'Behold, they to whom it did not pertain to drink of the cup shall certainly drink; and are you he who shall altogether go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink. ¹³For I have sworn by myself,' says the LORD, 'that Bozrah shall become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all its cities shall be perpetual wastes.'"

¹⁴I have heard news from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, "Gather yourselves together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle."

¹⁵"For, behold, I have made you small among the nations, and despised among men. ¹⁶As for your terror, the pride of your heart has deceived you, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill: though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there," says the LORD.

¹⁷"Edom shall become an astonishment: everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all its plagues.

¹⁸As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities of it," says the LORD, "no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein.

¹⁹Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me? And who will appoint me a time? And who is the shepherd who will stand before me? ²⁰Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he has taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely they shall drag them away, the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them. ²¹The earth trembles at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise which is heard in the Sea of Suf.^a ²²Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out his wings against Bozrah: and the heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs."

²³Of Damascus. "Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil news, they are melted away: there is sorrow on the sea; it can't be quiet.

²⁴Damascus has grown feeble, she turns herself to flee, and trembling has seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail. ²⁵How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of my joy? ²⁶Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be brought to silence in that day," says the LORD of hosts. ²⁷"I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben Hadad."

²⁸Of Kedar, and of the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck. "Thus says the LORD: 'Arise, go up to Kedar, and destroy the children of the east.' ²⁹Their tents and their flocks shall they take; they shall carry away for themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry to them, 'Terror on every side!' ³⁰Flee, wander far off, dwell in the depths, you inhabitants of Hazor," says the LORD; "for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you, and has conceived a purpose against you." ³¹"Arise, go up to a nation that is at ease, that dwells without care, says the LORD; that have neither gates nor bars, that dwell alone. ³²Their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their livestock a spoil: and I will scatter to all winds those who have the corners of their beards cut off; and I will bring their calamity from every side of them," says the LORD. ³³"Hazor shall be a dwelling place of jackals, a desolation forever: no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein."

³⁴The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, ³⁵"Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. ³⁶On Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of the sky, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation where the outcasts of Elam shall not come. ³⁷I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before those who seek their life; and I will bring evil on them, even my fierce anger,' says the LORD; 'and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them; ³⁸and I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from there king and princes,' says the LORD. ³⁹'But it shall happen in the latter days, that I will bring back the captivity of Elam,' says the LORD."

The word that the LORD spoke concerning

Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet. ²"Declare among the nations and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and do not conceal: say, 'Babylon is taken, Bel is disappointed, Merodach is dismayed; her images are disappointed, her idols are dismayed. ³For out of the north there comes up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they are fled, they are gone, both man and animal. ⁴In those days, and in that time,' says the LORD, 'the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together; they shall go on their way weeping, and shall seek the LORD their God. ⁵They shall inquire concerning Zion with their faces turned toward it, saying, "Come, and join yourselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that shall not be forgotten." ⁶My people have been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray; they have turned them away on the mountains; they have gone from mountain to hill; they have forgotten their resting place. ⁷All who found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, "We are not guilty, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of righteousness, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers." ⁸Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the male goats before the flocks. ⁹For, behold, I will stir up and cause to come up against Babylon a company of great nations from the north country; and they shall set themselves in array against her; from there she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of an expert mighty man; none shall return in vain. ¹⁰Chaldea shall be a prey: all who prey on her shall be satisfied,' says the LORD.' ¹¹Because you are glad, because you rejoice, O you who plunder my heritage, because you are wanton as a heifer that treads out the grain, and neigh as strong horses; ¹²your mother shall be utterly disappointed; she who bore you shall be confounded: behold, she shall be the least of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. ¹³Because of the wrath of the LORD she shall not be inhabited, but she shall be wholly desolate: everyone who goes by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. ¹⁴"Set yourselves in array against Babylon all around, all you who bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she has sinned against the LORD. ¹⁵Shout against her all around: she has submitted herself; her towers are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance on her; as she has done, do to her. ¹⁶Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him who handles the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn everyone to his people, and they shall flee everyone to his own land."

¹⁷Israel is a hunted sheep; the lions have driven him away: first, the king of Assyria devoured him; and now at last Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones. ¹⁸Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. ¹⁹I will bring Israel again to his pasture, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead. ²⁰In those days, and in that time, says the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant."'"

²¹”Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: kill and utterly destroy after them,” says the LORD, “and do according to all that I have commanded you. ²²A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. ²³How is the hammer of the whole earth cut apart and broken! How is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! ²⁴I have laid a snare for you, and you are also taken, Babylon, and you weren’t aware: you are found, and also caught, because you have striven against the LORD. ²⁵The LORD has opened his armory, and has brought forth the weapons of his indignation; for the Lord, the LORD of hosts, has a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans. ²⁶Come against her from the utmost border; open her storehouses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly; let nothing of her be left. ²⁷Kill all her bulls; let them go down to the slaughter: woe to them! For their day has come, the time of their visitation.”

²⁸The voice of those who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple. ²⁹”Call together the archers against Babylon, all those who bend the bow; encamp against her all around; let none of it escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she has done, do to her; for she has been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel. ³⁰Therefore her young men will fall in her streets, and all her men of war will be brought to silence in that day,” says the LORD. ³¹”Behold, I am against you, you proud one,” says the Lord, the LORD of hosts; for your day has come, the time that I will visit you. ³²The proud one shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up; and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all who are around him.”

³³Thus says the LORD of hosts: “The children of Israel and the children of Judah are oppressed together; and all who took them captive hold them fast; they refuse to let them go. ³⁴Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is his name: he will thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. ³⁵A sword is on the Chaldeans,” says the LORD, “and on the inhabitants of Babylon, and on her princes, and on her wise men. ³⁶A sword is on the boasters, and they shall become fools; a sword is on her mighty men, and they shall be dismayed. ³⁷A sword is on their horses, and on their chariots, and on all the mixed people who are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is on her treasures, and they shall be robbed. ³⁸A drought is on her waters, and they shall be dried up; for it is a land of engraved images, and they glory over idols. ³⁹Therefore the wild animals of the desert with the wolves shall dwell there, and the ostriches shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited forever; neither shall it be lived in from generation to generation. ⁴⁰As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities of it," says the LORD, "so shall no man dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein."

⁴¹"Behold, a people comes from the north; and a great nation and many kings shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. ⁴²They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea; and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Babylon. ⁴³The king of Babylon has heard the news of them, and his hands wax feeble: anguish has taken hold of him, pains as of a woman in labor. ⁴⁴Behold, the enemy shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me? And who will appoint me a time? And who is the shepherd who can stand before me?"

⁴⁵Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he has taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: "Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them. ⁴⁶At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles, and the cry is heard among the nations."

51 Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against those who dwell in Lebkamai, a destroying wind. ²I will send to Babylon foreigners who shall winnow her; and they shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her around. ³Against him who bends let the archer bend his bow, and against him who lifts himself up in his coat of mail: and do not spare her young men; utterly destroy all her army. ⁴They shall fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and thrust through in her streets.

⁵"For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah, of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel. ⁶Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and save every man his life; do not be cut off in her iniquity: for it is the time of the LORD's vengeance; he will render to her a recompense. ⁷Babylon has been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, who made all the earth drunk: the nations have drunk of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. ⁸Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: wail for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. ⁹"We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go everyone into his own country; for her judgment reaches to heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.’

¹⁰The LORD has brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.’

¹¹Make sharp the arrows; hold firm the shields: the LORD has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes; because his purpose is against Babylon, to destroy it: for it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple. ¹²Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set the watchmen, prepare the ambushes; for the LORD has both purposed and done that which he spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon. ¹³You who dwell on many waters, abundant in treasures, your end has come, the measure of your covetousness. ¹⁴The LORD of hosts has sworn by himself, saying, “Surely I will fill you with men, as with the canker worm; and they shall lift up a shout against you.” ¹⁵He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens. ¹⁶When he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he makes lightning for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of his treasuries. ¹⁷Every man has become brutish without knowledge. Every goldsmith is disappointed by his image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. ¹⁸They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. ¹⁹The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and is the tribe of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name. ²⁰“You are my battle axe and weapons of war: and with you will I break in pieces the nations; and with you will I destroy kingdoms; ²¹and with you will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; ²²and with you will I break in pieces the chariot and him who rides therein; and with you will I break in pieces man and woman; and with you will I break in pieces the old man and the youth; and with you will I break in pieces the young man and the virgin; ²³and with you will I break in pieces the shepherd and his flock; and with you will I break in pieces the farmer and his yoke; and with you will I break in pieces governors and deputies. ²⁴I will render to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight,” says the LORD. ²⁵“Behold, I am against you, destroying mountain,” says the LORD, “which destroys all the earth; and I will stretch out my hand on you, and roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burnt mountain. ²⁶They shall not take of you a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but you shall be desolate for ever,” says the LORD.

²⁷Set up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz: appoint a marshal against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough canker worm. ²⁸Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, its governors, and all its deputies, and all the land of their dominion. ²⁹The land trembles and is in pain; for the purposes of the LORD against Babylon do stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant. ³⁰The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they remain in their strongholds; their might has failed; they are become as women: her dwelling places are set on fire; her bars are broken. ³¹One runner will run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every quarter: ³²and the passages are seized, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are frightened.

³³For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while, and the time of harvest shall come for her. ³⁴Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me, he has made me an empty vessel, he has, like a monster, swallowed me up, he has filled his maw with my delicacies; he has cast me out. ³⁵The violence done to me and to my flesh be on Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and, 'My blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea,' shall Jerusalem say.

³⁶Therefore thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will plead your cause, and take vengeance for you; and I will dry up her sea, and make her fountain dry. ³⁷Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling place for jackals, an astonishment, and a hissing, without inhabitant. ³⁸They shall roar together like young lions; they shall growl as lions' cubs. ³⁹When they are heated, I will make their feast, and I will make them drunk, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake," says the LORD. ⁴⁰"I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats. ⁴¹How is Sheshach taken! and the praise of the whole earth seized! How is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! ⁴²The sea has come up on Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of its waves. ⁴³Her cities are become a desolation, a dry land, and a desert, a land in which no man dwells, neither does any son of man pass thereby. ⁴⁴I will execute judgment on Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up; and the nations shall not flow any more to him: yes, the wall of Babylon shall fall."

⁴⁵"My people, go away from the midst of her, and save yourselves every man from the fierce anger of the LORD. ⁴⁶Do not let your heart faint, neither fear for the news that shall be heard in the land; for news shall come one year, and after that in another year shall come news, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. ⁴⁷Therefore behold, the days come, that I will execute judgment on the engraved images of Babylon; and her whole land shall be confounded; and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her. ⁴⁸Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers shall come to her from the north," says the LORD.

⁴⁹As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the land. ⁵⁰You who have escaped the sword, go, do not stand still; remember the LORD from afar, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. ⁵¹"We are confounded, because we have heard reproach; confusion has covered our faces: for strangers have come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house."

⁵²"Therefore behold, the days come," says the LORD, "that I will execute judgment on her engraved images; and through all her land the wounded shall groan. ⁵³Though Babylon should mount up to the sky, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall destroyers come to her," says the LORD. ⁵⁴"The sound of a cry from Babylon, and of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans!" ⁵⁵For the LORD lays Babylon waste, and destroys out of her the great voice; and their waves roar like many waters; the noise of their voice is uttered: ⁵⁶for the destroyer has come on her, even on Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, their bows are broken in pieces; for the LORD is a God of recompenses, he will surely requite. ⁵⁷"I will make drunk her princes and her wise men, her governors and her deputies, and her mighty men; and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake up," says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

⁵⁸Thus says the LORD of hosts: "The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly overthrown, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the peoples shall labor for vanity, and the nations for the fire; and they shall be weary."

⁵⁹The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was chief quartermaster. ⁶⁰Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come on Babylon, even all these words that are written concerning Babylon. ⁶¹Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you come to Babylon, then see that you read all these words, ⁶²and say, 'LORD, you have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that none shall dwell therein, neither man nor animal, but that it shall be desolate forever.' ⁶³It shall be, when you have made an end of reading this book, that you shall bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of the Euphrates: ⁶⁴and you shall say, 'Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise again because of the evil that I will bring on her; and they shall be weary.'" Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

52 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ²He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. ³For through the anger of the LORD it happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. ⁴It happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about. ⁵So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. ⁶In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. ⁷Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were against the city all around;) and they went toward the Arabah. ⁸But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. ⁹Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him. ¹⁰The king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he killed also all the princes of Judah in Riblah. ¹¹He put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death. ¹²Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, who stood before the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem: ¹³and he burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burned he with fire. ¹⁴All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around. ¹⁵Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest of the people, and the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude. ¹⁶But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vineyard keepers and farmers. ¹⁷The Chaldeans broke the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD in pieces, and carried all their bronze to Babylon. ¹⁸They also took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered. ¹⁹The captain of the guard took away the cups, the fire pans, the basins, the pots, the lampstands, the spoons, and the bowls; that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver. ²⁰They took the two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made for the house of the LORD. The brass of all these vessels was without weight. ²¹As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a line of twelve cubits encircled it; and its thickness was four fingers. It was hollow. ²²A capital of brass was on it; and the height of the one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of brass: and the second pillar also had like these, and pomegranates. ²³There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were one hundred on the network all around. ²⁴The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold: ²⁵and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and seven men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the midst of the city. ²⁶Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. ²⁷The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. ²⁸This is the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand twenty-three Jews; ²⁹in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty-two persons; ³⁰in the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty-five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

³¹It happened in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison; ³²and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, ³³and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life: ³⁴and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

of affliction and harsh servitude;
she dwells among the nations, she finds no rest:
all her persecutors overtook her in the midst of her
distress.

DALET

⁴The roads to Zion mourn, because no one comes to the solemn assembly;
all her gates are desolate, her priests groan:
her virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in bitterness.

HEY

⁵Her adversaries have become the head, her enemies
prosper;
for the LORD has afflicted her for the multitude of her
transgressions:
her young children have gone into captivity before the adversary.

VAV

⁶All majesty has departed from the daughter of Zion:
her leaders have become like deer
that find no pasture,
they fled exhausted before the pursuer.

ZAYIN

⁷Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and wandering all her precious things that were from the days of old:
when her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and no one helped her.
The adversaries saw her, they mocked at her desolations.

HET

Lamentations 1

⁸Jerusalem has grievously sinned;
therefore she has become as an unclean
thing;
all who honored her despise her,
because they have seen her nakedness:
yes, she groans, and turns away.

TET

⁹Her filthiness was in her skirts;
she did not remember
her latter end;
therefore her fall was astonishing;
she has no comforter.
“Look, LORD, on my affliction, for the enemy has magnified himself.”

YOD

¹⁰The adversary has spread out his hand on all her precious things:
for she has seen that the nations have entered into her
sanctuary,
concerning whom you
commanded that they should not enter into your assembly.

KAPH

¹¹All her people sigh, they seek
bread;
they have given their precious things for food to refresh the soul.
“Look, LORD, and see, for I am despised.”

LAMED

¹²Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look, and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which is brought on me,
with which the LORD has afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

MEM

¹³From on high he has sent fire into my bones, and it overcame them.
He has spread a net for my feet, he has turned me back.
He has made me desolate and faint
all the day.

NUN

¹⁴My transgressions are bound into a yoke; by his hand
they are fastened together, they are set upon my neck; he has made my strength
to fail.
The Lord has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand.

SAMEKH

¹⁵The Lord has rejected all my mighty men in my
midst;
he has called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men.

The Lord has trodden as in a winepress the virgin daughter of Judah.

AYIN

¹⁶For these things I weep; my eyes, my eyes flow
with tears;
because the comforter who should refresh my soul is far
from me.
My children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed.

PEY

¹⁷Zion spreads forth her hands;
there is none to comfort her.
The LORD has commanded concerning Jacob, that those who are around
him should be his
adversaries.
Jerusalem is among them as an unclean thing.

TZADE

¹⁸The LORD is righteous, for I have rebelled against his commandment.
Please listen all you people, and see my suffering.
My virgins and my young men have gone into captivity.

QOPH

¹⁹I called for my lovers, but they deceived me.
My priests and my elders perished
in the city,

while they searched for food to refresh their souls.

RESH

²⁰See, LORD, for I am in distress;
my stomach churns;
my heart is turned within me; for I have grievously
rebelled.
Outside the sword bereaves, inside
there is death.

SHIN

²¹They have heard that I groan;
there is none to
comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that you have done it.
Bring the day that you have proclaimed, so that they shall end up like
me.

TAV

²²Let all their wickedness come
before you.
Do to them, as you have done to me for all my
transgressions.
For my groans are many, and my heart is faint.

2 ALEPH

How the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger!

Lamentations 2

He has cast down from heaven to the earth the splendor
of Israel,
and hasn't remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

BET

²The Lord has swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and has not pitied.

He has thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah.

He has brought them down to the ground; he has humiliated the kingdom and its princes.

GIMEL

³He has cut off in fierce anger all the strength of Israel.

He has drawn back his right hand before the enemy.

He has blazed in Jacob like a flaming fire, which devours all around.

DALET

⁴He has bent his bow like an enemy; his right hand
he has positioned like an adversary.

He killed all that were pleasant to the eye.

In the tent of the daughter of Zion he has poured out his wrath like fire.

HEY

⁵The Lord has become as an enemy; he has swallowed up Israel;
he has swallowed up all her palaces and has destroyed its strongholds.

He has multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

VAV

⁶He has done violence to his temple, as if it were a garden; he has destroyed his place of assembly.

The LORD has caused solemn assembly and Sabbath to be forgotten in
Zion.

He has spurned in his fierce anger
the king and the priest.

ZAYIN

⁷The Lord has rejected his altar, he has disowned his sanctuary, and has given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her
palaces.

They have made a shout in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn assembly.

HET

⁸The LORD has determined to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion.

He has stretched out the line, he has not withdrawn his hand from destroying.

He has made the rampart and wall to lament; they languish together.

TET

⁹Her gates are sunk into the ground; he has destroyed and broken
her bars.
Her king and her princes are
among the nations
where the law is no more, and her prophets find no vision from
the LORD.

YOD

¹⁰The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground
in silence.
They have cast up dust on their heads; they have clothed themselves
with sackcloth.
The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

KAPH

¹¹My eyes are worn out from weeping, my stomach
is churning.
My heart is poured on the earth,
because of the destruction of the
daughter of my people,
because the young children and the infants faint in the streets of the city.

LAMED

¹²They tell their mothers, "Where is grain and wine?"

When they faint as the wounded in the streets of the city, as their lives fade away in their mothers' bosom.

MEM

¹³What shall I testify of you? What shall I liken to you,
daughter of Jerusalem?
What shall I compare to you, that I may comfort you,
virgin daughter of
Zion?
For your ruin is great like the sea.
Who can heal you?

NUN

¹⁴Your prophets have seen for you false and deceptive
visions.
They have not uncovered your iniquity, to bring back your captivity,
but have seen for you false and misleading oracles.

SAMEKH

¹⁵All that pass by clap their hands at you,
they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem,
saying,
"Is this the city that men called
'The perfection of beauty,' 'The joy of the whole earth'?"

AYIN

¹⁶All your enemies have opened wide their mouth
against you.

Lamentations 3

They hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, "We have swallowed her up.
Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen
it."

PEY

¹⁷The LORD has done that which he purposed, he has fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old.

He has thrown down, and has not
pitied.

He has caused the enemy to gloat over you and exalted the horn of your adversaries.

TZADE

¹⁸Their heart cried to the Lord.
O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night.
Give yourself no respite; do not let your tears cease.

QOPH

¹⁹Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches.

Pour out your heart like water before the face of the
Lord.

Lift up your hands toward him for the life of your young children, that faint for hunger at the head of every street.

RESH

²⁰Look, LORD, and see to whom you have done like this!

Shall the women eat their fruit, the children that are dandled in the hands?

Shall the priest and the prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

SHIN

²¹The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets;

my virgins and my young men have fallen by the
sword.

You have killed them in the day of your anger; you have slaughtered, without pity.

TAV

²²You have called, as in the day of a solemn assembly,
my terrors on every
side.

There was none that escaped or remained in the day of the LORD's anger.

Those that I have borne and brought up has my enemy destroyed.

3 ALEPH

I am the man that has seen affliction by the rod of his
wrath.

²He has led me and caused me to walk in darkness, and not in light.

³Surely against me he turns his hand again and again all the day.

BET

⁴My flesh and my skin he has made old; he has broken my bones.

⁵He has built against me, and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.

⁶He has made me to dwell in dark places, like those that have been long dead.

GIMEL

⁷He has walled me in, so I can't escape; he has made my chains heavy.

⁸Yes, when I cry, and call for help, he shuts out my prayer.

⁹He has walled up my ways with cut stone; he has made my paths crooked.

DALET

¹⁰He is to me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion in hiding.

¹¹He has obstructed my path, and torn me in pieces; he has made me desolate.

¹²He has bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

HEY

¹³He has caused the arrows of his quiver to pierce my inward parts.^a ¹⁴I have become a laughingstock to all my people, and their song all the day.

¹⁵He has filled me with bitterness, he has given me in full measure wormwood.

VAV

¹⁶He has also broken my teeth with gravel; he has pressed me down in the dust.

¹⁷You have removed my soul far away from peace; I have forgotten what prosperity is.

¹⁸And I said, "My strength and my hope has perished from the LORD."

ZAYIN

¹⁹Remember my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

²⁰My soul considers them, and is depressed.

²¹But this I call to my mind; therefore I have hope:

Lamentations 3

²³They are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.

²⁴“The LORD is my portion,” says my soul, “therefore I will hope in him.”

TET

²⁵The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.

²⁶It is good that a man should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the
LORD.

²⁷It is good for a man that he bear the yoke while he is young.

YOD

²⁸Let him sit alone and keep silence when he is disciplining him.

²⁹Let him put his mouth to the dust, there may yet be
hope.

³⁰Let him give his cheek to him who strikes him; let him be filled with insults.

KAPH

³¹For the Lord will not reject
forever.

³²For though he may cause grief, yet he will have compassion according to the abundance of his
loving kindness.

³³For he is not predisposed to bring affliction or suffering to the children of men.

LAMED

³⁴To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth; ³⁵to deprive a man of justice
before the face of the Most High,

³⁶to subvert a man in his cause, the Lord does not approve.

MEM

³⁷Who can speak a thing and have it come to pass, unless the Lord has

³⁸Doesn't both calamity and good come out of the mouth
of the Most High?

³⁹Why does a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?

NUN

⁴⁰Let us examine and search our ways, and return to the
LORD.

⁴¹Let us lift up our heart with our hands to God in the heavens.

⁴²We have transgressed and have rebelled, and you have not forgiven.

SAMEKH

⁴³You have covered yourself with anger and pursued us;
you killed without sparing.

⁴⁴You have covered yourself with a cloud, so that no

prayer can pass through.

⁴⁵You have made us rubbish and refuse in the midst of the peoples.

PEY

⁴⁶All our enemies have opened their mouth wide
against us.

⁴⁷Fear and the pit have come on us, devastation and
destruction.

⁴⁸Streams of tears run down from my eyes because of the destruction of the daughter of my people.

AYIN

⁴⁹My tears flow and do not cease, without respite,

⁵⁰until the LORD looks down and sees from heaven.

⁵¹My eyes bring my soul grief, because of all the daughters of my city.

TZADE

⁵²They have chased me relentlessly like a bird, those who are my enemies without
cause.

⁵³They have cut off my life in a pit, and have cast a stone on me.

⁵⁴Waters flowed over my head; I said, 'I am finished.'

QOPH

⁵⁵I called on your name, LORD, out of the depths of the pit.

⁵⁶You heard my voice; do not hide your ear at my sighs,
to my cry.

⁵⁷You drew near in the day that I called on you; you said, "Do not be afraid."

RESH

⁵⁸Lord, you have taken up the case for my soul; you have redeemed my life.

⁵⁹LORD, you have seen the wrong done to me; judge my case.

⁶⁰You have seen all their vengeance and all their plots against me.

SHIN

⁶¹You have heard their insults, LORD, and all their
plots against me.

⁶²The lips of those that rose up against me, and their plots against me all
day long.

⁶³Behold their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their mocking song.

TAV

⁶⁴You will render to them what they deserve, LORD,
according to the work
of their hands.

⁶⁵You will give them hardness of heart as your curse to
them.

Lamentations 4

⁶You will pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens of
the LORD.

Ezekiel

1 Now it happened in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. ²In the fifth of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, ³the word of the LORD came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of the LORD was there on him. ⁴I looked, and behold, a stormy wind came out of the north, a great cloud, with flashing lightning, and a brightness around it, and out of its midst as it were glowing metal, out of the midst of the fire. ⁵Out of its midst came the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man. ⁶Everyone had four faces, and each one of them had four wings. ⁷Their legs were straight, and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot;

and they sparkled like burnished bronze. ⁸They had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and the four of them had their faces and their wings thus: ⁹their wings were joined one to another; they didn't turn when they went; each one went straight forward. ¹⁰As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man; and the four of them had the face of a lion on the right side; and the four of them had the face of an ox on the left side; the four of them also had the face of an eagle.

¹¹Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above. Two wings of each one touched another, and two covered their bodies. ¹²Each one went straight forward: where the spirit would go, they went; they didn't turn when they went. ¹³As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches: the fire went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. ¹⁴The living creatures darted back and forth, like the appearance of a flash of lightning. ¹⁵Now as I saw the living creatures, behold, there was a wheel on the ground beside each living creature with its four faces. ¹⁶The appearance of the wheels and their work was like a beryl: and the four of them had the same likeness; and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel.

¹⁷When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn when they went. ¹⁸As for their rims, they were high and awesome; and the four of them had their rims full of eyes all around. ¹⁹When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures rose from the ground, the wheels also rose. ²⁰Wherever the spirit would go, they went, in the direction the spirit would go; and the wheels rose alongside them because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. ²¹When [the living creatures] moved, [the wheels] moved; and when [the living creatures] stood still, [the wheels] stood still; and when [the living creatures] rose from the ground, the wheels rose alongside them because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. ²²Over the heads of the living creatures there was the likeness of an expanse, like glittering ice, it was awesome to look upon, stretched out over their heads above. ²³Under the expanse their wings were straight, the one toward the other: each one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side, their bodies. ²⁴When they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of Shaddai, a noise of tumult like the noise of an army: when they stood, they let down their wings. ²⁵There was a voice above the expanse that was over their heads: when they stood, they let down their wings. ²⁶Above the expanse that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire^a stone; and on the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man on it above. ²⁷I saw as it were glowing metal, as the appearance of fire within it all around, from the appearance of his waist and upward; and from the appearance of his waist and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness around him. ²⁸As the appearance of the rainbow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice speaking.

2 He said to me, "Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you." ²The Spirit entered into me when he spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard him who spoke to me. ³He said to me, "Son of man, I send you to the children of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me. They and their fathers have transgressed against me even to this very day. ⁴The children are obstinate and hardhearted. I am sending you to them, and you shall tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.' ⁵They, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house), yet shall know that there has been a prophet among them. ⁶You, son of man, do not be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with you, and you do dwell among scorpions: do not be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. ⁷You shall speak my words to them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious. ⁸But you, son of man, hear what I tell you; do not be rebellious like that rebellious house: open your mouth, and eat that which I give you.”

⁹When I looked, behold, a hand was put forth to me; and, behold, a scroll of a book was in it. ¹⁰He spread it before me: and it was written within and without; and there were written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

3 He said to me, “Son of man, eat that which you find. Eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.” ²So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat the scroll. ³He said to me, “Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your belly with this scroll that I give you.” Then I ate it; and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. ⁴He said to me, “Son of man, go to the house of Israel, and speak my words to them. ⁵For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel; ⁶not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you can not understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. ⁷But the house of Israel will not listen to you; for they will not listen to me: for all the house of Israel are obstinate^a and hard-hearted. ⁸Behold, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads. ⁹As an adamant harder than flint have I made your forehead: do not be afraid of them, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house.”

¹⁰Moreover he said to me, “Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears. ¹¹Go to them of the captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD’; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear. ¹²Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, ‘Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place.’ ¹³I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing. ¹⁴So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the anger of my spirit; and the hand of the LORD was strong on me. ¹⁵Then I came to them of the exiles at Tel Aviv, that lived by the river Chebar, and to where they lived; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days. ¹⁶It happened at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁷“Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel: therefore hear the word from my mouth, and give them warning from me. ¹⁸When I tell the wicked, ‘You shall surely die’; and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at your hand. ¹⁹Yet if you warn the wicked, and he doesn’t turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.

²²The hand of the LORD was there on me; and he said to me, “Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with you.” ²³Then I arose, and went forth into the plain; and behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. ²⁴Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet; and he spoke with me, and said to me, “Go, shut yourself inside your house. ²⁵But you, son of man, behold, they shall lay bands on you, and shall bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them: ²⁶and I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, that you shall be mute, and shall not be to them a reprover; for they are a rebellious house. ²⁷But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD’: He who hears, let him hear; and he who forbears, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

4 “You also, son of man, take a tile, and lay it before yourself, and portray on it a city, even Jerusalem: ²and lay siege against it, and build forts against it, and cast up a mound against it; and set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it all around. ³Take for yourself an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city: and set your face toward it, and it shall be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

⁴“Moreover lie on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel on it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity. ⁵For I have appointed the years of their iniquity to be to you a number of days, even three hundred ninety days: so you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

⁶“Again, when you have accomplished these, you shall lie on your right side, and shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah: forty days, each day for a year, have I appointed it to you. ⁷You shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm uncovered; and you shall prophesy against it. ⁸Behold, I lay bands on you, and you shall not turn you from one side to the other, until you have accomplished the days of your siege.

⁹“Take for yourself also wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make bread of it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on your side, even three hundred ninety days, you shall eat of it. ¹⁰Your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time you shall eat it. ¹¹You shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: from time to time you shall drink. ¹²You shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of man.” ¹³The LORD said, “Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations where I will drive them.”

¹⁴Then I said, “Ah Lord GOD! Behold, my soul has not been polluted; for from my youth up even until now have I not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn of animals; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.”

¹⁵Then he said to me, “Behold, I have given you cow’s dung for man’s dung, and you shall prepare your bread thereon.”

¹⁶Moreover he said to me, “Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure, and in dismay: ¹⁷that they may want bread and water, and be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their iniquity.

5 “You, son of man, take a sharp sword; You shall take it as a barber’s razor to you, and shall cause it to pass on your head and on your beard: then take balances to weigh, and divide the hair. ²A third part you shall burn in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and you shall take a third part, and strike with the sword around it; and a third part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. ³You shall take of it a few in number, and bind them in your skirts. ⁴Of these again you shall take, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; from it shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.”

⁵”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the midst of the nations, and countries are around her. ⁶She has rebelled against my ordinances in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are around her; for they have rejected my ordinances, and as for my statutes, they have not walked in them.’

⁷”Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Because you are turbulent more than the nations that are around you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my ordinances, neither have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you’; ⁸therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Behold, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgments in the midst of you in the sight of the nations. ⁹I will do in you that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all your abominations. ¹⁰Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of you, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments on you; and the whole remnant of you will I scatter to all the winds.’

¹¹”‘Therefore as I live,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you; neither shall my eye spare, and I also will have no pity. ¹²A third part of you shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of you; and a third part shall fall by the sword around you; and a third part I will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them. ¹³Thus shall my anger be accomplished, and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I shall be comforted; and they shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath on them. ¹⁴Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are around you, in the sight of all that pass by. ¹⁵So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the nations that are around you, when I shall execute judgments on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes; (I, the LORD, have spoken it;) ¹⁶when I shall send on them the evil arrows of famine, that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine on you, and will break your staff of bread; ¹⁷and I will send on you famine and evil animals, and they shall bereave you; and pestilence and blood shall pass through you; and I will bring the sword on you: I, the LORD, have spoken it.”

6 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²”Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy to them, ³and say, ‘You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys: “Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high places. ⁴Your altars shall become desolate, and your incense altars shall be broken; and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. ⁵I will lay the dead bodies of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones around your altars. ⁶In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your incense altars may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. ⁷The slain shall fall in the midst of you, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

⁸””””Yet will I leave a remnant, in that you shall have some that escape the sword among the nations, when you shall be scattered through the countries. ⁹Those of you that escape shall remember me among the nations where they shall be carried captive, how that I have been broken with their lewd heart, which has departed from me, and with their eyes, which play the prostitute after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. ¹⁰They shall know that I am the LORD: I have not said in vain that I would bring this disaster on them.””””

¹¹””””Thus says the Lord GOD: “Strike with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, “Alas!” because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel; for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. ¹²He who is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he who is near shall fall by the sword; and he who remains and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my wrath on them. ¹³You shall know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the places where they offered pleasant aroma to all their idols. ¹⁴I will stretch out my hand on them, and make the land desolate and waste, from the wilderness toward Diblah, throughout all their habitations: and they shall know that I am the LORD.””””

7 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²”You, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel, ‘An end: the end has come on the four corners of the land. ³Now is the end on you, and I will send my anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your abominations. ⁴My eye shall not spare you, neither will I have pity; but I will bring your ways on you, and your abominations shall be in the midst of you: and you shall know that I am the LORD.”

⁵”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘A disaster, a unique disaster; behold, it comes. ⁶An end has come, the end has come; it awakes against you; behold, it comes. ⁷Your doom has come to you, inhabitant of the land: the time has come, the day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting, on the mountains. ⁸Now will I shortly pour out my wrath on you, and accomplish my anger against you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your abominations. ⁹My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will bring on you according to your ways; and your abominations shall be in the midst of you; and you shall know that I, the LORD, do strike. ¹⁰Behold, the day, behold, it comes: your doom is gone forth; the rod has blossomed, pride has budded.’

himself in the iniquity of his life. ¹⁴They have blown the trumpet, and have made all ready; but none goes to the battle; for my wrath is on all its multitude. ¹⁵The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine within: he who is in the field shall die with the sword: and he who is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him. ¹⁶But those of those who escape shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, every one in his iniquity. ¹⁷All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water. ¹⁸They shall also clothe themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be on all faces, and baldness on all their heads. ¹⁹They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be as an unclean thing; their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it has been the stumbling block of their iniquity. ²⁰As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things therein: therefore have I made it to them as an unclean thing. ²¹I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall profane it. ²²My face will I turn also from them, and they shall profane my secret place; and robbers shall enter into it, and profane it.

²³Make the chain; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence. ²⁴Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pride of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be profaned. ²⁵Destruction comes; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none. ²⁶Disaster shall come upon disaster, and rumor shall follow rumor; and they shall seek a vision from a prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders. ²⁷The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do to them after their way, and according to their own judgments will I judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.”

8 It happened in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there on me. ²Then I saw, and behold, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his waist and downward, fire; and from his waist and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal. ³He put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and the sky, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north; where there was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. ⁴Behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain. ⁵Then he said to me, “Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north.” So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and see, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. ⁶He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they do? Even the great abominations that the house of Israel do commit here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? But you shall again see yet other great abominations.”

⁷He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall. ⁸Then he said to me, “Son of man, dig now in the wall”: and when I had dug in the wall, behold, a door. ⁹He said to me, “Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here.” ¹⁰So I went in and saw; and see, every form of creeping things, and abominable animals, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed around on the wall. ¹¹There stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel; and in their midst stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, every man with his censer in his hand; and the odor of the cloud of incense went up.

¹²Then he said to me, “Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his rooms of imagery? For they say, 'The LORD doesn't see us. The LORD has forsaken the land.'

¹³He said also to me, "You shall again see yet other great abominations which they do."

¹⁴Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and see, there sat the women weeping for Tammuz. ¹⁵Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? You shall again see yet greater abominations than these."

¹⁶He brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house; and see, at the door of the LORD's temple, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs toward the LORD's temple, and their faces toward the east; and they were worshipping the sun toward the east. ¹⁷Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger: and behold, they put the branch to their nose. ¹⁸Therefore I will also deal in wrath; my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them."

9 Then he cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, "Cause those who are in charge of the city to draw near, every man with his destroying weapon in his hand." ²Behold, six men came from the way of the upper gate, which lies toward the north, every man with his slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man in their midst clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. They went in, and stood beside the bronze altar. ³The glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side. ⁴The LORD said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark on the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry over all the abominations that are done in its midst." ⁵To the others he said in my hearing, "Go through the city after him, and strike: do not let your eye spare, neither have pity; ⁶kill utterly the old man, the young man and the virgin, and little children and women; but do not come near any man on whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary." Then they began at the old men that were before the house.

⁷He said to them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go forth!" They went forth, and struck in the city. ⁸It happened, while they were smiting, and I was left, that I fell on my face, and cried, and said, “Ah Lord GOD! Will you destroy all the residue of Israel in your pouring out of your wrath on Jerusalem?”⁹ Then he said to me, “The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perversion: for they say, ‘The LORD has forsaken the land, and the LORD doesn’t see.’¹⁰ As for me also, my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way on their head.”

¹¹Behold, the man clothed in linen, who had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, “I have done as you have commanded me.”

10 Then I looked, and saw, in the expanse that was over the head of the cherubim there appeared above them as it were a sapphire^a stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.² He spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, “Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the cherub, and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city.” He went in as I watched.

³Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.⁴ The glory of the LORD mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD’s glory.⁵ The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of El Shaddai when he speaks.

⁶It came to pass, when he commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, “Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim,” that he went in, and stood beside a wheel.⁷ The cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took of it, and put it into the hands of him who was clothed in linen, who took it and went out.⁸ There appeared in the cherubim the form of a man’s hand under their wings.

⁹I looked, and behold, four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and another wheel beside another cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone.¹⁰ As for their appearance, the four of them had the same likeness, like a wheel within a wheel.¹¹ When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn’t turn as they went, but to the place where the head looked they followed it; they didn’t turn as they went.¹² Their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes all around, even the wheels that the four of them had.¹³ As for the wheels, they were called in my

hearing, “the whirling wheels.”

¹⁴Every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third face the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

¹⁵The cherubim mounted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar. ¹⁶When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also didn't turn from beside them. ¹⁷When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

¹⁸The glory of the LORD went forth from over the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim. ¹⁹The cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went forth, and the wheels beside them: and they stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

²⁰These were the living creatures that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim. ²¹Every one had four faces, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. ²²As for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves; they went every one straight forward.

11 Moreover the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of the LORD's house, which looks eastward: and see, at the door of the gate twenty-five men; and I saw in their midst Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. ²He said to me, “Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity, and who give wicked counsel in this city; ³who say, ‘The time is not near to build houses: this is the caldron, and we are the meat.’ ⁴Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, son of man.”

⁵The Spirit of the LORD fell on me, and he said to me, “Speak, Thus says the LORD: ‘Thus you have said, house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind. ⁶You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain.’ ⁷Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Your slain whom you have laid in its midst, they are the meat, and this is the caldron; but you shall be brought out of its midst. ⁸You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword on you,’ says the Lord GOD. ⁹I will bring you forth out of its midst, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. ¹⁰You shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and you shall know that I am the LORD. ¹¹This shall not be your caldron, neither shall you be the meat in its midst; I will judge you in the border of Israel; ¹²and you shall know that I am the LORD: for you have not walked in my statutes, neither have you executed my ordinances, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you.”

¹³It happened, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down on my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, “Ah Lord GOD! Will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?”

¹⁴The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁵“Son of man, your brothers, even your brothers, the men of your relatives, and all the house of Israel, all of them, to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, ‘Go far away from the LORD. This land has been given to us for a possession.’ ¹⁶Therefore say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they have come.”’

¹⁷Therefore say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.”

¹⁸They shall come there, and they shall take away all the detestable things of it and all its abominations from there. ¹⁹I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh; ²⁰that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. ²¹But as for them whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way on their own heads,’ says the Lord GOD.”

²²Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, and the wheels were beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. ²³The glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. ²⁴The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. ²⁵Then I spoke to them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shown me.

12 The word of the LORD also came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, you dwell in the midst of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and do not see, who have ears to hear, and do not hear; for they are a rebellious house. ³Therefore, you son of man, prepare your stuff for moving, and move by day in their sight; and you shall move from your place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. ⁴You shall bring forth your stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for moving; and you shall go forth yourself at even in their sight, as when men go forth into exile. ⁵Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry your stuff out that way. ⁶In their sight you shall bear it on your shoulder, and carry it forth in the dark; you shall cover your face, so that you do not see the land: for I have set you for a sign to the house of Israel.”

⁷I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for removing, and in the even I dug through the wall with my hand; I brought it forth in the dark, and bore it on my shoulder in their sight. ⁸In the morning came the word of the LORD to me, saying, ⁹“Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, ‘What are you doing?’ ¹⁰Say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel among whom they are.’ ¹¹Say, ‘I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall go into exile, into captivity.’

land with his eyes. ¹³My net also will I spread on him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. ¹⁴I will scatter toward every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. ¹⁵They shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall disperse them among the nations, and scatter them through the countries. ¹⁶But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD.”

¹⁷Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁸“Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness; ¹⁹and tell the people of the land, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, that her land may be desolate, and all that is therein, because of the violence of all those who dwell therein. ²⁰The cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be a desolation; and you shall know that I am the LORD.’”

²¹The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²²“Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel, saying, 'The days are prolonged, and every vision fails?' ²³Tell them therefore, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel'; but tell them, 'The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. ²⁴For there shall be no more any false vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. ²⁵For I am the LORD; I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall be performed; it shall be no more deferred: for in your days, rebellious house, will I speak the word, and will perform it,' says the Lord GOD."

²⁶Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²⁷"Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, 'The vision that he sees is for many day to come, and he prophesies of times that are far off.' ²⁸Therefore tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: None of my words shall be deferred any more, but the word which I shall speak shall be performed, says the Lord GOD.'"

13 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, 'Hear the word of the LORD: ³Thus says the Lord GOD, "Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! ⁴Israel, your prophets have been like foxes in the waste places. ⁵You have not gone up into the gaps, neither built up the wall for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD."⁶They have seen falsehood and lying divination, who say, "The LORD says"; but the LORD has not sent them: and they have made men to hope that the word would be confirmed. ⁷"Haven't you seen a false vision, and haven't you spoken a lying divination, in that you say, "The LORD says"; but I have not spoken? ⁸Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have spoken falsehood, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, says the Lord GOD. ⁹My hand shall be against the prophets who see false visions, and who divine lies: they shall not be in the council of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD. ¹⁰Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, 'Peace'; and there is no peace; and when one builds up a wall, behold, they plaster it with whitewash: ¹¹tell those who plaster it with whitewash, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and you, great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall tear it. ¹²Behold, when the wall has fallen, shall it not be said to you, 'Where is the plaster with which you have plastered it?'

¹³""Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I will even tear it with a stormy wind in my wrath; and there shall be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it. ¹⁴So will I break down the wall that you have plastered with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation shall be uncovered; and it shall fall, and you shall be consumed in its midst: and you shall know that I am the LORD. ¹⁵Thus will I accomplish my wrath on the wall, and on those who have plastered it with whitewash; and I will tell you, 'The wall is no more, neither those who plastered it; ¹⁶to wit, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace,'” says the Lord GOD.”

¹⁷”You, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy against them, ¹⁸and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Woe to the women who sew pillows on all elbows, and make kerchiefs for the head of persons of every stature to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of my people, and save souls alive for yourselves? ¹⁹You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to kill the souls who should not die, and to save the souls alive who should not live, by your lying to my people who listen to lies.”

²⁰”Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I am against your pillows, with which you there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls go, even the souls whom you hunt to make them fly. ²¹Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and you shall know that I am the LORD. ²²Because with lies you have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, and be saved alive: ²³Therefore you shall no more see false visions, nor practice divination. I will deliver my people out of your hand; and you shall know that I am the LORD.””

14 Then came certain of the elders of Israel to me, and sat before me. ²The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ³”Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their heart, and put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their face: should I be inquired of at all by them? ⁴Therefore speak to them, and tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Every man of the house of Israel who takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him therein according to the multitude of his idols; ⁵that I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.”

⁶”Therefore tell the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Return, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. ⁷For everyone of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who live in Israel, who separates himself from me, and takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet to inquire for himself of me; I the LORD will answer him by myself: ⁸and I will set my face against that man, and will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

⁹””If the prophet is deceived and speaks a word, I, the LORD, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand on him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. ¹⁰They shall bear their iniquity: the iniquity of the prophet shall be even as the iniquity of him who seeks him; ¹¹that the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God,” says the Lord GOD.”

¹²The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹³”Son of man, when a land sins against me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out my hand on it, and break the staff of its bread, and send famine on it, and cut off from it man and animal; ¹⁴though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, says the Lord GOD.”

¹⁵”If I cause evil animals to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it be made desolate, so that no man may pass through because of the animals; ¹⁶though these three men were in it, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “they should deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only should be delivered, but the land should be desolate.

¹⁷”Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, ‘Sword, go through the land’; so that I cut off from it man and animal; ¹⁸though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only should be delivered themselves.

¹⁹”Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath on it in blood, to cut off from it man and animal; ²⁰though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they could not save either son nor daughter; they would save only their own souls by their righteousness.

15 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²”Son of man, what is the vine tree more than any tree, the vine-branch which is among the trees of the forest? ³Shall wood be taken of it to make any work? Or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon? ⁴Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire has devoured both its ends, and its midst is burned: is it profitable for any work? ⁵Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less, when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned, shall it yet be meet for any work!

⁶”Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ⁷I will set my face against them; they shall go forth from the fire, but the fire shall devour them; and you shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them. ⁸I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass,’ says the Lord GOD.”

16 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²”Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations; ³and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem: Your birth and your birth is of the land of the Canaanite; the Amorite was your father, and your mother was a Hittite. ⁴As for your birth, in the day you were born your navel was not cut, neither were you washed in water to cleanse you; you weren’t salted at all, nor swaddled at all. ⁵No eye pitied you, to do any of these things to you, to have compassion on you; but you were cast out in the open field, for that your person was abhorred, in the day that you were born.

⁶”When I passed by you, and saw you wallowing in your blood, I said to you, ‘Though you are in your blood, live; yes, I said to you, “Though you are in your blood, live.”’ ⁷I caused you to multiply as that which grows in the field, and you increased and grew great, and you attained to excellent ornament; your breasts were fashioned, and your hair was grown; yet you were naked and bare.

⁸”Now when I passed by you, and looked at you, behold, your time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over you, and covered your nakedness: yes, I swore to you, and entered into a covenant with you,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘and you became mine.

⁹”Then I washed you with water; yes, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. ¹⁰I clothed you also with embroidered work, and shod you with sealskin, and I dressed you about with fine linen, and covered you with silk. ¹¹I decked you with ornaments, and I put bracelets on your hands, and a chain on your neck. ¹²I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. ¹³Thus you were decked with gold and silver; and your clothing was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered work; you ate fine flour, and honey, and oil; and you were exceeding beautiful, and you prospered to royal estate. ¹⁴Your renown went forth among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put on you,’ says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵”But you trusted in your beauty, and played the prostitute because of your renown, and poured out your prostitution on everyone who passed by; his it was. ¹⁶You took of your garments, and made for yourselves high places decked with various colors, and played the prostitute on them: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so. ¹⁷You also took your beautiful jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men, and played the prostitute with them; ¹⁸and you took your embroidered garments, and covered them, and set my oil and my incense before them. ¹⁹My bread also which I gave you, fine flour, and oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you even set it before them for a pleasant aroma; and thus it was,’ says the Lord GOD.

²⁰”Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to me, and you have sacrificed these to them to be devoured. Was your prostitution a small matter, ²¹that you have slain my children, and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through the fire to them? ²²In all your abominations and your prostitution you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and were wallowing in your blood.

²³”It has happened after all your wickedness, (“Woe, woe to you!” says the Lord GOD), ²⁴that you have built for yourselves a vaulted place, and have made yourselves a lofty place in every street. ²⁵You have built your lofty place at the head of every way, and have made your beauty an abomination, and have opened your feet to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your prostitution. ²⁶You have also committed sexual immorality with the Egyptians, your neighbors, great of flesh; and have multiplied your prostitution, to provoke me to anger. ²⁷See therefore, I have stretched out my hand over you, and have diminished your ordinary food, and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd way. ²⁸You have played the prostitute also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yes, you have played the prostitute with them, and yet you weren't satisfied. ²⁹You have moreover multiplied your prostitution to the land of merchants, to Chaldea; and yet you weren't satisfied with this.

³⁰“How weak is your heart, says the Lord GOD, since you do all these things, the work of an impudent prostitute; ³¹in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a prostitute, in that you scorn pay.

³²“A wife who commits adultery! who takes strangers instead of her husband! ³³They give gifts to all prostitutes; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them, that they may come to you on every side for your prostitution. ³⁴You are different from other women in your prostitution, in that no one follows you to play the prostitute; and

whereas you give hire, and no hire is given to you, therefore you are different.’

³⁵“Therefore, prostitute, hear the word of the LORD: ³⁶Thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your prostitution with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your abominations, and for the blood of your children, that you gave to them; ³⁷therefore see, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those who you have loved, with all those who you have hated; I will even gather them against you on every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. ³⁸I will judge you, as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy. ³⁹I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your vaulted place, and break down your lofty places; and they shall strip you of your clothes, and take your beautiful jewels; and they shall leave you naked and bare. ⁴⁰They shall also bring up a company against you, and they shall stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords. ⁴¹They shall burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women; and I will cause you to cease from playing the prostitute, and you shall also give no hire any more. ⁴²So will I cause my wrath toward you to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from you, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

⁴³”Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have raged against me in all these things; therefore, behold, I also will bring your way on your head,” says the Lord GOD: “and you shall not commit this lewdness with all your abominations.

strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.⁵⁰They were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good.⁵¹Neither has Samaria committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all your abominations which you have done.⁵²You also, bear you your own shame, in that you have given judgment for your sisters; through your sins that you have committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous than you: yes, be also confounded, and bear your shame, in that you have justified your sisters.

⁵³”I will turn again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives in their midst;⁵⁴that you may bear your own shame, and may be ashamed because of all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them.⁵⁵Your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate; and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate; and you and your daughters shall return to your former estate.⁵⁶For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride,⁵⁷before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria, and of all who are around her, the daughters of the Philistines, who do despite to you all around.⁵⁸You have borne your lewdness and your abominations, says the LORD.’

⁵⁹”For thus says the Lord GOD: ‘I will also deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant.

⁶⁰Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish to you an everlasting covenant.

⁶¹Then you shall remember your ways, and be ashamed, when you shall receive your sisters, your elder sisters and your younger; and I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant. ⁶²I will establish my covenant with you; and you shall know that I am the LORD; ⁶³that you may remember, and be confounded, and never open your mouth any more, because of your shame, when I have forgiven you all that you have done, says the Lord GOD.”

17 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²”Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel; ³and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “A great eagle with great wings and long feathers, full of feathers, which had various colors, came to Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar: ⁴he cropped off the topmost of the young twigs of it, and carried it to a land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants. ⁵He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful soil; he placed it beside many waters; he set it as a willow tree. ⁶It grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and its roots were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

⁷”There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and behold, this vine bent its roots toward him, and shot forth its branches toward him, from the beds of its plantation, that he might water it. ⁸It was planted in a good soil by many waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.”

⁹”Say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Shall it prosper? Shall he not pull up its roots, and cut off its fruit, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? And not by a strong arm or many people can it be raised from its roots. ¹⁰Yes, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? Shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind touches it? It shall wither in the beds where it grew.””

¹¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹²”Say now to the rebellious house, ‘Do you not know what these things mean?’ Tell them, ‘Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took its king, and its princes, and brought them to him to Babylon: ¹³and he took of the royal family, and made a covenant with him; he also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land;

¹⁹”Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘As I live, surely my oath that he has despised, and my covenant that he has broken, I will even bring it on his own head. ²⁰I will spread my net on him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against me. ²¹All his fugitives in all his bands shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered toward every wind; and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it.’

²²”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘I will also take of the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain: ²³in the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all birds of every wing; in the shade of its branches shall they dwell. ²⁴All the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish; I, the LORD, have spoken and have done it.’”

18 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying,

²”What do you mean, that you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge?’

³As I live, says the Lord GOD, you shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel. ⁴Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul who sins, he shall die.

⁵”But if a man is just, and does that which is lawful and right, ⁶and has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither has defiled his neighbor’s wife, neither has come near to a woman in her impurity, ⁷and has not wronged any, but has restored to the debtor his pledge, has taken nothing by robbery, has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; ⁸he who has not given forth on interest, neither has taken any increase, who has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true justice between man and man, ⁹has walked in my statutes, and has kept my ordinances, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live,” says the Lord GOD.

¹⁰”If he fathers a son who is a robber, a shedder of blood, and who does any one of these things, ¹¹and who does not any of those duties, but even has eaten on the mountains, and defiled his neighbor’s wife, ¹²has wronged the poor and needy, has taken by robbery, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination, ¹³has given forth on interest, and has taken increase; shall he then live? He shall not live: he has done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be on him.

¹⁴”Now, behold, if he fathers a son, who sees all his father’s sins, which he has done, and fears, and does not such like; ¹⁵who has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, has not defiled his neighbor’s wife, ¹⁶neither has wronged any, has not taken anything to pledge, neither has taken by robbery, but has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; ¹⁷who has withdrawn his hand from the poor, who has not received interest nor increase, has executed my ordinances, has walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live. ¹⁸As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, he shall die in his iniquity.

¹⁹”Yet you say, ‘Why doesn’t the son bear the iniquity of the father?’ When the son has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live. ²⁰The soul who sins, he shall die: the son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on him.

²¹”But if the wicked turn from all his sins that he has committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. ²²None of his transgressions that he has committed shall be remembered against him: in his righteousness that he has done he shall live. ²³Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked?” says the Lord GOD; “and not rather that he should return from his way, and live? ²⁴But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered: in his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them shall he die.

²⁵”Yet you say, “The way of the Lord is not equal.” Hear now, house of Israel: “Is my way not equal? Aren’t your ways unequal?” ²⁶When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and dies therein; in his iniquity that he has done shall he die. ²⁷Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. ²⁸Because he considers, and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. ²⁹Yet the house of Israel says, “The way of the Lord is not fair.” “House of Israel, aren’t my ways fair? Aren’t your ways unfair?”

³⁰”Therefore I will judge you, house of Israel, everyone according to his ways,” says the Lord GOD. “Return, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. ³¹Cast away from you all your transgressions, in which you have transgressed; and make yourself a new heart and a new spirit: for why will you die, house of Israel? ³²For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies,” says the Lord GOD: “therefore turn yourselves, and live.””

19 “Moreover, take up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, ²and say, ‘What was your mother? A lioness: she couched among lions, in the midst of the young lions she nourished her cubs. ³She brought up one of her cubs: he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men. ⁴The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit; and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

⁵”Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her cubs, and made him a young lion. ⁶He went up and down among the lions; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men. ⁷He knew their palaces, and laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and its fullness, because of the noise of his roaring. ⁸Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces; and they spread their net over him; he was taken in their pit. ⁹They put him in a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into strongholds, that his voice should no more be heard on the mountains of Israel.

¹⁰”Your mother was like a vine, in your blood, planted by the waters: it was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. ¹¹It had strong rods for the scepters of those who bore rule, and their stature was exalted among the thick boughs, and they were seen in their height with the multitude of their branches. ¹²But it was plucked up in fury, it was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up its fruit: its strong rods were broken off and withered; the fire consumed them. ¹³Now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land. ¹⁴Fire is gone out of the rods of its branches, it has devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong rod to be a scepter to rule.' This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation."

20 It happened in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me. ²The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ³"Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Is it to inquire of me that you have come? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you.'" ⁴Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers; ⁵and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In the day when I chose Israel, and swore to the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, 'I am the LORD your God'; ⁶in that day I swore to them, to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. ⁷I said to them, 'Cast away every man the abominations of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.' ⁸But they rebelled against me, and would not listen to me; they each didn't throw away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. ⁹But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁰""So I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. ¹¹I gave them my statutes, and showed them my ordinances, which if a man does, he shall live in them. ¹²Moreover also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them. ¹³But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they didn't walk in my statutes, and they rejected my ordinances, which if a man keep, he shall live in them; and my Sabbaths they greatly profaned.

Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them in the wilderness, to consume them. ¹⁴But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out.

¹⁵Moreover also I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; ¹⁶because they rejected my ordinances, and didn't walk in my statutes, and profaned my Sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols. ¹⁷Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I didn't destroy them, neither did I make a full end of them in the wilderness.

¹⁸I said to their children in the wilderness, 'Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols. ¹⁹I am the LORD your God: walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them; ²⁰and make my Sabbaths holy; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.' ²¹But the children rebelled against me; they didn't walk in my statutes, neither kept my ordinances to do them, which if a man do, he shall live in them; they profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. ²²Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them forth. ²³Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; ²⁴because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. ²⁵Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and ordinances in which they should not live; ²⁶and I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that opens the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD."

²⁷Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In this moreover have your fathers blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. ²⁸For when I had brought them into the land, which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering; there also they made their pleasant aroma, and they poured out there their drink offerings. ²⁹Then I said to them, 'What does the high place where you go mean?' So its name is called Bamah to this day."

³⁰Therefore tell the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord

GOD: "Do you pollute yourselves in the way of your fathers? And do you play the prostitute after their abominations? ³¹And when you offer your gifts, when you make your sons to pass through the fire, do you pollute yourselves with all your idols to this day? And shall I be inquired of by you, house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you; ³²and that which comes into your mind shall not be at all, in that you say, 'We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.' ³³As I live," says the Lord GOD, "surely with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, will I be king over you: ³⁴and I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries in which you are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out; ³⁵and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there will I enter into judgment with you face to face. ³⁶Like as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I enter into judgment with you," says the Lord GOD. ³⁷"I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant; ³⁸and I will purge out from among you the rebels, and those who disobey against me; I will bring them forth out of the land where they live, but they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and you shall know that I am the LORD."

³⁹,"As for you, house of Israel, thus says the Lord GOD: "Go, serve everyone his idols, and hereafter also, if you will not listen to me; but my holy name you shall no more profane with your gifts, and with your idols. ⁴⁰For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel," says the Lord GOD, "there shall all the house of Israel, all of them, serve me in the land: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first fruits of your offerings, with all your holy things. ⁴¹As a pleasant aroma will I accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations. ⁴²You shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country which I swore to give to your fathers. ⁴³There you shall remember your ways, and all your doings, in which you have polluted yourselves; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed. ⁴⁴You shall know that I am the LORD, when I have dealt with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, you house of Israel," says the Lord GOD. ""

⁴⁵The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁴⁶"Son of man, set your face toward the south, and drop your word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the field in the South;

⁴⁷and tell the forest of the South, ‘Hear the word of the LORD: Thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree in you, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt thereby. ⁴⁸All flesh shall see that I, the LORD, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched.””

⁴⁹Then I said, “Ah Lord GOD! They say of me, ‘Isn’t he a speaker of parables?’”

21 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and drop your word toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel; ³and tell the land of Israel, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Behold, I am against you, and will draw forth my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. ⁴Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of its sheath against all flesh from the Negev to the north: ⁵and all flesh shall know that I, the LORD, have drawn forth my sword out of its sheath; it shall not return any more.””

⁶“Sigh therefore, you son of man; with the breaking of your thighs and with bitterness you will sigh before their eyes. ⁷It shall be, when they tell you, ‘Why do you sigh?’ that you shall say, ‘Because of the news, for it comes; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Lord GOD.””

⁸The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁹“Son of man, prophesy, and say, ‘Thus says the LORD: Say, “A sword, a sword, it is sharpened, and also furbished; ¹⁰it is sharpened that it may make a slaughter; it is furbished that it may be as lightning: shall we then make mirth? The rod of my son, it condemns every tree. ¹¹It is given to be furbished, that it may be handled: the sword, it is sharpened, yes, it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the killer.”” ¹²Cry and wail, son of man; for it is on my people, it is on all the princes of Israel: they are delivered over to the sword with my people; strike therefore on your thigh. ¹³For there is a trial; and what if even the rod that condemns shall be no more?” says the Lord GOD.

¹⁴“You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and strike your hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the deadly wounded: it is the sword of the great one who is deadly wounded, which enters into their rooms. ¹⁵I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied: Ah! It is made as lightning, it is pointed for slaughter. ¹⁶Gather yourselves together, go to the right, set yourselves in array, go to the left, wherever your face is set.’

¹⁷I will also strike my hands together, and I will cause my wrath to rest: I, the LORD, have spoken it.”

¹⁸The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, ¹⁹’Also, you son of man, appoint two ways that the sword of the king of Babylon may come; they both shall come forth out of one land: and mark out a place, mark it out at the head of the way to the city.

²⁰You shall appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem, the fortified. ²¹For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he shook the arrows back and forth, he consulted the teraphim, he looked in the liver. ²²In his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, to build forts. ²³It shall be to them as a false divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but he brings iniquity to memory, that they may be taken.

²⁴”Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear, because you have come to memory, you shall be taken with the hand.

²⁵”You, deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day has come, in the time of the iniquity of the end, ²⁶thus says the Lord GOD: “Remove the turban, and take off the crown; this shall be no more the same; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high.” ²⁷I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: this also shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.’

²⁸”You, son of man, prophesy, and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach; and say, “A sword, a sword is drawn, for the slaughter it is furbished, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning; ²⁹while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies to you, to lay you on the necks of the wicked who are deadly wounded, whose day has come in the time of the iniquity of the end. ³⁰Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your birth, will I judge you. ³¹I will pour out my indignation on you; I will blow on you with the fire of my wrath; and I will deliver you into the hand of brutish men, skillful to destroy. ³²You shall be for fuel to the fire; your blood shall be in the midst of the land; you shall be remembered no more: for I, the LORD, have spoken it.””

22 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

²You, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Then cause her to know all her abominations. ³You shall say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "A city that sheds blood in the midst of her, that her time may come, and that makes idols against herself to defile her! ⁴You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed, and are defiled in your idols which you have made; and you have caused your days to draw near, and have come even to your years: therefore have I made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries. ⁵Those who are near, and those who are far from you, shall mock you, you infamous one and full of tumult.

⁶Behold, the princes of Israel, everyone according to his power, have been in you to shed blood. ⁷In you have they set light by father and mother; in the midst of you have they dealt by oppression with the foreigner; in you have they wronged the fatherless and the widow. ⁸You have despised my holy things, and have profaned my Sabbaths. ⁹Slandorous men have been in you to shed blood; and in you they have eaten on the mountains: in the midst of you they have committed lewdness. ¹⁰In you have they uncovered their fathers' nakedness; in you have they humbled her who was unclean in her impurity. ¹¹One has committed abomination with his neighbor's wife; and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in you has humbled his sister, his father's daughter. ¹²In you have they taken bribes to shed blood; you have taken interest and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbors by oppression, and have forgotten me,' says the Lord GOD.

¹³Behold, therefore, I have struck my hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been in the midst of you. ¹⁴Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken it, and will do it. ¹⁵I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries; and I will consume your filthiness out of you. ¹⁶You shall be profaned in yourself, in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am the LORD. ¹⁷

¹⁷The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁸Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me: all of them are brass and tin and iron and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are the dross of silver. ¹⁹Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. ²⁰As they gather silver and brass and iron and lead and tin into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire on it, to melt it; so will I gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you there, and melt you.

²¹Yes, I will gather you, and blow on you with the fire of my wrath, and you shall be melted in its midst. ²²As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so you will be melted in its midst; and you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out my wrath on you.”

²³The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²⁴“Son of man, tell her, ‘You are a land that is not cleansed, nor rained on in the day of indignation.’ ²⁵There is a conspiracy of her prophets in its midst, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they take treasure and precious things; they have made her widows many in its midst. ²⁶Her priests have done violence to my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hidden their eyes from my Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. ²⁷Her princes in its midst are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, that they may get dishonest gain. ²⁸Her prophets have plastered for them with whitewash, seeing false visions, and divining lies to them, saying, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD,’ when the LORD has not spoken. ²⁹The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery; yes, they have troubled the poor and needy, and have oppressed the foreigner wrongfully.

23 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, ²“Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother: ³and they played the prostitute in Egypt; they played the prostitute in their youth; there were their breasts pressed, and there was handled the bosom of their virginity. ⁴Their names were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister: and they became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem Oholibah.

⁵“Oholah played the prostitute when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors, ⁶who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses. ⁷She bestowed her prostitution on them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them; and on whoever she doted, with all their idols she defiled herself. ⁸Neither has she left her prostitution since the days of Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her, and they handled the bosom of her virginity; and they poured out their prostitution on her. ⁹Therefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, on whom she doted. ¹⁰These uncovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters; and her they killed with the sword: and she became a byword among women; for they executed judgments on her.

¹¹Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet was she more corrupt in her doting than she, and in her prostitution which were more than the prostitution of her sister. ¹²She doted on the Assyrians, governors and rulers, her neighbors, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men. ¹³I saw that she was defiled; they both took one way. ¹⁴She increased her prostitution; for she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed with vermilion, ¹⁵dressed with girdles on their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them princes to look on, after the likeness of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their birth. ¹⁶As soon as she saw them she doted on them, and sent messengers to them into Chaldea. ¹⁷The Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their prostitution, and she was polluted with them, and her soul was alienated from them. ¹⁸So she uncovered her prostitution, and uncovered her nakedness: then my soul was alienated from her, like as my soul was alienated from her sister.

¹⁹Yet she multiplied her prostitution, remembering the days of her youth, in which she had played the prostitute in the land of Egypt. ²⁰She doted on their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. ²¹Thus you called to memory the lewdness of your youth, in the handling of your bosom by the Egyptians for the breasts of your youth.

²²Therefore, Oholibah, thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Behold, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your soul is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side: ²³the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; desirable young men, governors and rulers all of them, princes and men of renown, all of them riding on horses. ²⁴They shall come against you with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a company of peoples; they shall set themselves against you with buckler and shield and helmet all around; and I will commit the judgment to them, and they shall judge you according to their judgments. ²⁵I will set my jealousy against you, and they shall deal with you in fury; they shall take away your nose and your ears; and your residue shall fall by the sword: they shall take your sons and your daughters; and your residue shall be devoured by the fire. ²⁶They shall also strip you of your clothes, and take away your beautiful jewels. ²⁷Thus will I make your lewdness to cease from you, and your prostitution brought from the land of Egypt; so that you shall not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt any more.

²⁸”For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your soul is alienated; ²⁹and they shall deal with you in hatred, and shall take away all your labor, and shall leave you naked and bare; and the nakedness of your prostitution shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your prostitution. ³⁰These things shall be done to you, because you have played the prostitute after the nations, and because you are polluted with their idols. ³¹You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will give her cup into your hand.’

³²”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘You will drink of your sister’s cup, which is deep and large; you will be ridiculed and held in derision; it contains much. ³³You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Samaria. ³⁴You shall even drink it and drain it out, and you shall gnaw the broken pieces of it, and shall tear your breasts; for I have spoken it,’ says the Lord GOD.

³⁵”Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Because you have forgotten me, and cast me behind your back, therefore you also bear your lewdness and your prostitution.’”

³⁶The LORD said moreover to me: “Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominations. ³⁷For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands; and with their idols have they committed adultery; and they have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass through the fire to them to be devoured. ³⁸Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my Sabbaths. ³⁹For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and behold, thus have they done in the midst of my house.

⁴⁰”Furthermore you have sent for men who come from far, to whom a messenger was sent, and behold, they came; for whom you did wash yourself, paint your eyes, and decorate yourself with ornaments, ⁴¹and sit on a stately bed, with a table prepared before it, whereupon you set my incense and my oil.’ ⁴²The voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with men of the common sort were brought drunkards from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on their hands twain, and beautiful crowns on their heads. ⁴³Then I said of her who was old in adulteries, ‘Now will they play the prostitute with her, and she with them.’ ⁴⁴They went in to her,

as they go in to a prostitute: so went they in to Oholibah and to Oholibah, the lewd women. ⁴⁵Righteous men, they shall judge them with the judgment of adulteresses, and with the judgment of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

⁴⁶For thus says the Lord GOD: 'I will bring up a company against them, and will give them to be tossed back and forth and robbed. ⁴⁷The company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire. ⁴⁸Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. ⁴⁹They shall recompense your lewdness on you, and you shall bear the sins of your idols; and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.'"

24 Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, write the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon drew close to Jerusalem this same day. ³Utter a parable to the rebellious house, and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD, "Set on the caldron, set it on, and also pour water into it: ⁴gather its pieces into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. ⁵Take the choice of the flock, and also a pile of wood for the bones under the caldron; make it boil well; yes, let its bones be boiled in its midst.'"

⁶"Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Woe to the bloody city, to the caldron whose rust is therein, and whose rust is not gone out of it! Take out of it piece after piece; No lot is fallen on it. ⁷For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it on the bare rock; she didn't pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust. ⁸That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have set her blood on the bare rock, that it should not be covered.'

⁹"Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pile great. ¹⁰Heap on the wood, make the fire hot, boil well the flesh, and make thick the broth, and let the bones be burned. ¹¹Then set it empty on its coals, that it may be hot, and its brass may burn, and that its filthiness may be molten in it, that its rust may be consumed. ¹²She has wearied herself with toil; yet her great rust doesn't go forth out of her; her rust doesn't go forth by fire. ¹³In your filthiness is lewdness: because I have cleansed you and you weren't cleansed, you shall not be cleansed from your filthiness any more, until I have caused my wrath toward you to rest. ¹⁴I, the LORD, have spoken it: it shall happen, and I will do it: I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to your ways, and according to your doings, shall they judge you,' says the Lord GOD."

¹⁵Also the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁶"Son of man, behold, I will take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke: yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down. ¹⁷Sigh, but not aloud, make no mourning for the dead; bind your headress on you, and put your shoes on your feet, and do not cover your lips, and do not eat men's bread."

¹⁸So I spoke to the people in the morning; and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. ¹⁹The people said to me, "Won't you tell us what these things are to us, that you do so?"

²⁰Then I said to them, "The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²¹'Speak to the house of Israel, "Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind shall fall by the sword. ²²You shall do as I have done: you shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. ²³Your turbans shall be on your heads, and your shoes on your feet: you shall not mourn nor weep; but you shall pine away in your iniquities, and moan one toward another. ²⁴Thus Ezekiel shall be a sign to you; according to all that he has done, you will do. When this comes, then you will know that I am the Lord GOD.'"

²⁵"You, son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their heart, their sons and their daughters, ²⁶that in that day he who escapes shall come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears? ²⁷In that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped, and you shall speak, and be no more mute: so you will be a sign to them; and they shall know that I am the LORD."

25 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, set your face toward the children of Ammon, and prophesy against them: ³and tell the children of Ammon, 'Hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD, "Because you said, 'Aha,' against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was made desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity: ⁴therefore, behold, I will deliver you to the children of the east for a possession, and they shall set their encampments in you, and make their dwellings in you; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. ⁵I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the children of Ammon a resting place for flocks: and you shall know that I am the LORD.'" ⁶For thus says the Lord GOD: “Because you have clapped your hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with all the despite of your soul against the land of Israel; ⁷therefore, behold, I have stretched out my hand on you, and will deliver you for a spoil to the nations; and I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries: I will destroy you; and you shall know that I am the LORD.””

⁸”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Because Moab and Seir say, “Behold, the house of Judah is like all the nations”; ⁹therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim, ¹⁰to the children of the east, to go against the children of Ammon; and I will give them for a possession, that the children of Ammon may not be remembered among the nations. ¹¹and I will execute judgments on Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD.”’

¹²”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Because Edom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and revenged himself on them’; ¹³therefore thus says the Lord GOD, ‘I will stretch out my hand on Edom, and will cut off man and animal from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; even to Dedan shall they fall by the sword. ¹⁴I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance, says the Lord GOD.”’

¹⁵”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with despite of soul to destroy with perpetual enmity; ¹⁶therefore thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I will stretch out my hand on the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. ¹⁷I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance on them.”’

26 It happened in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²”Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, ‘Aha, she is broken: the gate of the peoples; she is turned to me; I shall be replenished, now that she is laid waste’; ³therefore thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Behold, I am against you, Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up.’ ⁴They shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock. ⁵She shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea; for I have spoken it,” says the Lord GOD; “and she shall become a spoil to the nations. ⁶Her daughters who are in the field shall be slain with the sword: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

⁷For thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Behold, I will bring on Tyre Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and a company, and many people. ⁸He shall kill your daughters in the field with the sword; and he shall make forts against you, and cast up a mound against you, and raise up the buckler against you. ⁹He shall set his battering engines against your walls, and with his axes he shall break down your towers. ¹⁰By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover you: your walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wagons, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into your gates, as men enter into a city in which is made a breach. ¹¹With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all your streets; he shall kill your people with the sword; and the pillars of your strength shall go down to the ground. ¹²They shall make a spoil of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise; and they shall break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses; and they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the midst of the waters. ¹³I will cause the noise of your songs to cease; and the sound of your harps shall be no more heard. ¹⁴I will make you a bare rock; you shall be a place for the spreading of nets; you shall be built no more: for I the LORD have spoken it,’ says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵”Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre: ‘Shall not the islands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made in the midst of you? ¹⁶Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit on the ground, and shall tremble every moment, and be astonished at you. ¹⁷They shall take up a lamentation over you, and tell you, “How you are destroyed, who were inhabited by seafaring men, the renowned city, who was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, who caused their terror to be on all who lived there! ¹⁸Now shall the islands tremble in the day of your fall; yes, the islands that are in the sea shall be dismayed at your departure.”’

¹⁹”For thus says the Lord GOD: ‘When I shall make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep on you, and the great waters shall cover you; ²⁰then will I bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make you to dwell in the lower parts of the earth, in the places that are desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit, that you be not inhabited; and I will set glory in the land of the living: ²¹I will make you a terror, and you shall no more have any being; though you are sought for, yet you will never be found again,' says the Lord GOD."

27 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, ²"You, son of man, take up a lamentation over Tyre; ³and tell Tyre, 'You who dwell at the entry of the sea, who are the merchant of the peoples to many islands, thus says the Lord GOD: "You, Tyre, have said, 'I am perfect in beauty.' ⁴Your borders are in the heart of the seas; your builders have perfected your beauty. ⁵They have made all your planks of fir trees from Senir; they have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you. ⁶Of the oaks of Bashan have they made your oars; they have made your benches of ivory inlaid in boxwood, from the islands of Kittim. ⁷Of fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt was your sail, that it might be to you for a banner; blue and purple from the islands of Elishah was your awning. ⁸The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers: your wise men, Tyre, were in you, they were your pilots. ⁹The old men of Gebal and the wise men of it were in you your repairers of ship seams: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to deal in your merchandise. ¹⁰Persia and Lud and Put were in your army, your men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in you; they set forth your comeliness. ¹¹The men of Arvad with your army were on your walls all around, and valorous men were in your towers; they hanged their shields on your walls all around; they have perfected your beauty. ¹²Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded for your wares. ¹³Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were your traffickers; they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass for your merchandise. ¹⁴They of the house of Togarmah traded for your wares with horses and war horses and mules. ¹⁵The men of Dedan were your traffickers; many islands were the market of your hand: they brought you in exchange horns of ivory and ebony. ¹⁶Syria was your merchant by reason of the multitude of your handiworks: they traded for your wares with emeralds, purple, and embroidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies. ¹⁷Judah, and the land of Israel, they were your traffickers: they traded for your merchandise wheat of Minnith, and confections, and honey, and oil, and balm. ¹⁸Damascus was your merchant for the multitude of your handiworks, by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with the wine of Helbon, and white wool. ¹⁹Vedan and Javan traded with yarn for your wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were among your merchandise. ²⁰Dedan was your trafficker in precious cloths for riding. ²¹Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they were the merchants of your hand; in lambs, and rams, and goats, in these were they your merchants. ²²The traffickers of Sheba and Raamah, they were your traffickers; they traded for your wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. ²³Haran and Canneh and Eden, the traffickers of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad, were your traffickers. ²⁴These were your traffickers in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and embroidered work, and in chests of rich clothing, bound with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise. ²⁵The ships of Tarshish were your caravans for your merchandise: and you were replenished, and made very glorious in the heart of the seas.

²⁶””””Your rowers have brought you into great waters: the east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas. ²⁷Your riches, and your wares, your merchandise, your mariners, and your pilots, your repairers of ship seams, and the dealers in your merchandise, and all your men of war, who are in you, with all your company which is in the midst of you, shall fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin. ²⁸At the sound of the cry of your pilots the suburbs shall shake. ²⁹All who handled the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships; they shall stand on the land, ³⁰and shall cause their voice to be heard over you, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust on their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: ³¹and they shall make themselves bald for you, and clothe them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for you in bitterness of soul with bitter mourning. ³²In their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, saying, ‘Who is there like Tyre, like her who is brought to silence in the midst of the sea?’ ³³When your wares went forth out of the seas, you filled many peoples; you enriched the kings of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise. ³⁴In the time that you were broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your company fell in your midst. ³⁵All the inhabitants of the islands are astonished at you, and their kings are horribly afraid; they are troubled in their face. ³⁶The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you are become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.”””

28 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, ²”Son of man, tell the prince of Tyre, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, ‘I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas’; yet you are man, and not God, though you set your heart as the heart of God—³behold, you are wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that is hidden from you; ⁴by your wisdom and by your understanding you have gotten yourself riches, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures; ⁵by your great wisdom and by your traffic you have increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches”—⁶therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “Because you have set your heart as the heart of God, ⁷therefore, behold, I will bring strangers on you, the terrible of the nations; and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they shall defile your brightness. ⁸They shall bring you down to the pit; and you shall die the death of those who are slain, in the heart of the seas. ⁹Will you yet say before him who kills you, ‘I am God?’ But you are man, and not God, in the hand of him who wounds you. ¹⁰You shall die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it,” says the Lord GOD.””

¹¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹²“Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and tell him, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “You seal up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. ¹³You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone adorned you: ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper, sapphire^a, turquoise, and beryl. Gold work of tambourines and of pipes was in you. In the day that you were created they were prepared. ¹⁴You were the anointed cherub who covers: and I set you, so that you were on the holy mountain of God; you have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. ¹⁵You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until unrighteousness was found in you. ¹⁶By the abundance of your traffic they filled the midst of you with violence, and you have sinned: therefore I have cast you as profane out of the mountain of God; and I have destroyed you, covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. ¹⁷Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness: I have cast you to the ground; I have laid you before kings, that they may see you. ¹⁸By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your traffic, you have profaned your sanctuaries; therefore have I brought forth a fire from the midst of you; it has devoured you, and I have turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all those who see you. ¹⁹All those who know you among the peoples shall be astonished at you: you have become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.””

²⁰The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²¹“Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it, ²²and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I am against you, Sidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of you;” and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her. ²³For I will send pestilence into her, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall fall in the midst of her, with the sword on her on every side; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

²⁴”There shall be no more a pricking brier to the house of Israel, nor a hurting thorn of any that are around them, that scorned them; and they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.’

²⁵”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then shall they dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob. ²⁶They shall dwell securely therein; yes, they shall build houses, and plant vineyards, and shall dwell securely, when I have executed judgments on all those who do them despite all around them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God.’”

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. ³Speak and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great monster that lies in the midst of his rivers, that has said, ‘My river is my own, and I have made it for myself.’ ⁴I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will make the fish of your rivers stick to your scales; and I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers, with all the fish of your rivers which stick to your scales. ⁵I’ll cast you forth into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers. You’ll fall on the open field. You won’t be brought together, nor gathered. I have given you for food to the animals of the earth and to the birds of the sky. ⁶All the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. ⁷When they took hold of you by your hand, you broke, and tore all their shoulders; and when they leaned on you, you broke, and paralyzed all of their thighs.”

⁸”Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I will bring a sword on you, and will cut off man and animal from you. ⁹The land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD. Because he has said, ‘The river is mine, and I have made it;’ ¹⁰therefore, behold, I am against you, and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from the tower of Sevehneh even to the border of Ethiopia. ¹¹No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of animal shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. ¹²I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be a desolation forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.”

¹³”For thus says the Lord GOD: “At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were scattered; ¹⁴and I will bring back the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their birth; and they shall be there a base kingdom. ¹⁵It shall be the base of the kingdoms; neither shall it any more lift itself up above the nations: and I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. ¹⁶It shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to memory, when they turn to look after them: and they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.””

¹⁷It came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁸”Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet had he no wages, nor his army, from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it. ¹⁹Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall carry off her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. ²⁰I have given him the land of Egypt as his recompense for which he served, because they worked for me,’ says the Lord GOD. ²¹”In that day will I cause a horn to bud forth to the house of Israel, and I will give you the opening of the mouth in their midst; and they shall know that I am the LORD.””

30 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, ²²”Son of man, prophesy, and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Wail, ‘Alas for the day!’ ³For the day is near, even the day of the LORD is near; it shall be a day of clouds, a time of the nations. ⁴A sword shall come on Egypt, and anguish shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt; and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down. ⁵Ethiopia, and Put, and Lud, and all the mixed people, and Cub, and the children of the land that is allied with them, shall fall with them by the sword.””

⁶”Thus says the LORD: ‘They also who uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Seveneh shall they fall in it by the sword,’ says the Lord GOD. ⁷”They shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted. ⁸They shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and all her helpers are destroyed. ⁹”In that day shall messengers go forth from before me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid; and there shall be anguish on them, as in the day of Egypt; for, behold, it comes.’

¹⁰”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

¹¹He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain. ¹²I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men; and I will make the land desolate, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I, the LORD, have spoken it.’

¹³”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Memphis; and there shall be no more a prince from the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. ¹⁴I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments on No. ¹⁵I will pour my wrath on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No. ¹⁶I will set a fire in Egypt: Sin shall be in great anguish, and No shall be broken up; and Memphis shall have adversaries in the daytime. ¹⁷The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword; and these cities shall go into captivity. ¹⁸At Tehaphnehes also the day shall withdraw itself, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt, and the pride of her power shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

¹⁹Thus will I execute judgments on Egypt; and they shall know that I am the LORD.’”

²⁰It happened in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²¹”Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and behold, it has not been bound up, to apply healing medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it be strong to hold the sword. ²²Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong arm, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. ²³I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. ²⁴I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand; but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man. ²⁵I will hold up the arms of the king of Babylon; and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out on the land of Egypt. ²⁶I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD.’”

31 It happened in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude: ‘Whom are you like in your greatness?’ ³Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, and with a forest-like shade, and of high stature; and its top was among the thick boughs. ⁴The waters nourished it, the deep made it to grow: its rivers ran all around its plantation; and it sent out its channels to all the trees of the field. ⁵Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and its boughs were multiplied, and its branches became long by reason of many waters, when it shot them forth. ⁶All the birds of the sky made their nests in its boughs; and under its branches all the animals of the field brought forth their young; and all great nations lived under its shadow. ⁷Thus was it beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its root was by many waters. ⁸The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it; the fir trees were not like its boughs, and the plane trees were not as its branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like it in its beauty. ⁹I made it beautiful by the multitude of its branches, so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied it.’

¹⁰“Therefore thus said the Lord GOD: ‘Because you are exalted in stature, and he has set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; ¹¹I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations; he shall surely deal with him; I have driven him out for his wickedness. ¹²Strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: on the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him. ¹³On his ruin all the birds of the sky shall dwell, and all the animals of the field shall be on his branches; ¹⁴to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, neither set their top among the thick boughs, nor that their mighty ones stand up on their height, even all who drink water: for they are all delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with those who go down to the pit.’

¹⁵“Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘In the day when he went down to Sheol^a I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained its rivers; and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. ¹⁶I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to Sheol with those who descend into the pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the lower parts of the earth. ¹⁷They also went down into Sheol with him to those who are slain by the sword; yes, those who were his arm, that lived under his shadow in the midst of the nations. ¹⁸To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth: you shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude,' says the Lord GOD."

32 It happened in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and tell him, 'You were likened to a young lion of the nations: yet you are as a monster in the seas; and you broke out with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers.'

³"Thus says the Lord GOD: 'I will spread out my net on you with a company of many peoples; and they shall bring you up in my net. ⁴I will leave you on the land, I will cast you forth on the open field, and will cause all the birds of the sky to settle on you, and I will satisfy the animals of the whole earth with you. ⁵I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. ⁶I will also water with your blood the land in which you swim, even to the mountains; and the watercourses shall be full of you. ⁷When I shall extinguish you, I will cover the heavens, and make its stars dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light. ⁸All the bright lights of the sky will I make dark over you, and set darkness on your land, says the Lord GOD. ⁹I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I shall bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. ¹⁰Yes, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for you, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall.'

¹¹"For thus says the Lord GOD: 'The sword of the king of Babylon shall come on you. ¹²By the swords of the mighty will I cause your multitude to fall; the terrible of the nations are they all: and they shall bring to nothing the pride of Egypt, and all its multitude shall be destroyed. ¹³I will destroy also all its animals from beside many waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of animals trouble them. ¹⁴Then will I make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil,' says the Lord GOD. ¹⁵'When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate and waste, a land destitute of that of which it was full, when I shall strike all those who dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the LORD. ¹⁶This is the lamentation with which they shall lament; the daughters of the nations shall lament therewith; over Egypt, and over all her multitude, shall they lament therewith,' says the Lord GOD."

¹⁷It happened also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁸"Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. ¹⁹"Whom do you pass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised.' ²⁰They shall fall in the midst of those who are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword; draw her away and all her multitudes. ²¹The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of Sheol^a with those who help him: 'They are gone down, they lie still, even the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.'

²²"Asshur is there and all her company; her graves are all around her; all of them slain, fallen by the sword; ²³whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the pit, and her company is around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living.

²⁴"There is Elam and all her multitude around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who are gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. ²⁵They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude; her graves are around her; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of those who are slain.

²⁸"But you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shall lie with those who are slain by the sword.

²⁹"There is Edom, her kings and all her princes, who in their

might are laid with those who are slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down to the pit.

³⁰”There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who are gone down with the slain; in the terror which they caused by their might they are put to shame; and they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

33 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and tell them, ‘When I bring the sword on a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman; ³if, when he sees the sword come on the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people; ⁴then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet, and doesn’t take warning, if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be on his own head. ⁵He heard the sound of the trumpet, and didn’t take warning; his blood shall be on him; whereas if he had taken warning, he would have delivered his soul. ⁶But if the watchman sees the sword come, and doesn’t blow the trumpet, and the people aren’t warned, and the sword comes, and take any person from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at the watchman’s hand.’

⁷”So you, son of man, I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. ⁸When I tell the wicked, ‘O wicked man, you shall surely die,’ and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at your hand. ⁹Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he doesn’t turn from his way; he shall die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul.

¹⁰”You, son of man, tell the house of Israel: ‘Thus you speak, saying, “Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we pine away in them; how then can we live?”’ ¹¹Tell them, ‘As I live,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn, turn from your evil ways; for why will you die, house of Israel?’

¹²”You, son of man, tell the children of your people, ‘The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his disobedience; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither shall he who is righteous be able to live thereby in the day that he sins.' ¹³When I tell the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his righteousness, and commit iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but in his iniquity that he has committed, therein shall he die. ¹⁴Again, when I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die'; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right; ¹⁵if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that which he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. ¹⁶None of his sins that he has committed shall be remembered against him: he has done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

¹⁷Yet the children of your people say, 'The way of the Lord is not equal': but as for them, their way is not equal. ¹⁸When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, he shall even die therein. ¹⁹When the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. ²⁰Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not equal.' House of Israel, I will judge every one of you after his ways."

²¹It happened in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, "The city has been struck."²²Now the hand of the LORD had been on me in the evening, before he who was escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more mute. ²³The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²⁴"Son of man, they who inhabit those waste places in the land of Israel speak, saying, 'Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.' ²⁵Therefore tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood: and shall you possess the land? ²⁶You stand on your sword, you work abomination, and every one of you defiles his neighbor's wife: and shall you possess the land?"'"

²⁷"You shall tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "As I live, surely those who are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and him who is in the open field will I give to the animals to be devoured; and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves shall die of the pestilence. ²⁸I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment; and the pride of her power shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, so that none shall pass through. ²⁹Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed.”

³⁰”As for you, son of man, the children of your people talk of you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, everyone to his brother, saying, ‘Please come and hear what is the word that comes forth from the LORD.’ ³¹They come to you as the people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but do not do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain. ³²Behold, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they do not do them. ³³When this comes to pass, (behold, it comes), then shall they know that a prophet has been among them.”

34 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²”Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and tell them, even to the shepherds, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Shouldn’t the shepherds feed the sheep? ³You eat the fat, and you clothe yourself with the wool, you kill the fatlings; but you do not feed the sheep. ⁴You haven’t strengthened the diseased, neither have you healed that which was sick, neither have you bound up that which was broken, neither have you brought back that which was driven away, neither have you sought that which was lost; but with force and with rigor you have ruled over them. ⁵They were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became food to all the animals of the field, and were scattered. ⁶My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill: yes, my sheep were scattered on all the surface of the earth; and there was none who searched or sought.”

⁷”Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: ⁸’As I live,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘surely because my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became food to all the animals of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and didn’t feed my sheep’; ⁹therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: ¹⁰Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; and I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not be food for them.”

¹¹”For thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. ¹²As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. ¹³I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country. ¹⁴I will feed them with good pasture; and on the mountains of the height of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie down in a good fold; and on fat pasture shall they feed on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down," says the Lord GOD. ¹⁶"I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but the fat and the strong I will destroy; I will feed them in justice."

¹⁷"As for you, O my flock, thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the male goats. ¹⁸Does it seem a small thing to you to have fed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? And to have drunk of the clear waters, but you must foul the residue with your feet? ¹⁹As for my sheep, they eat that which you have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet."

²⁰"Therefore thus says the Lord GOD to them: "Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. ²¹Because you thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, until you have scattered them abroad; ²²therefore I will save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. ²³I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. ²⁴I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David prince among them;" I, the LORD, have spoken it.

²⁵"I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil animals to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. ²⁶I will make them and the places around my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season; there shall be showers of blessing. ²⁷The tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who made slaves of them. ²⁸They shall no more be a prey to the nations, neither shall the animals of the earth devour them; but they shall dwell securely, and none shall make them afraid. ²⁹I will raise up to them a plantation for renown, and they shall be no more consumed with famine in the land, neither bear the shame of the nations any more.³⁰ They shall know that I, the LORD, their God am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people,” says the Lord GOD.³¹ “You my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are men, and I am your God,” says the Lord GOD.”

35 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,² “Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it,³ and tell it, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make you a desolation and an astonishment.⁴ I will lay your cities waste, and you shall be desolate; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

⁵”” “Because you have had a perpetual enmity, and have given over the children of Israel to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the iniquity of the end;⁶ therefore, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “I will prepare you for blood, and blood shall pursue you: since you have not hated blood, therefore blood shall pursue you.⁷ Thus will I make Mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation; and I will cut off from it him who passes through and him who returns.⁸ I will fill its mountains with its slain: in your hills and in your valleys and in all your watercourses shall they fall who are slain with the sword.⁹ I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities shall not be inhabited; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

¹⁰”” “Because you have said, ‘These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it’; whereas the LORD was there:¹¹ therefore, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “I will do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I shall judge you.¹² You shall know that I, the LORD, have heard all your insults which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they have been given us to devour.¹³ You have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard it.”¹⁴ Thus says the Lord GOD: “When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate.¹⁵ As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do to you: you shall be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it; and they shall know that I am the LORD.””

36 “You, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, ‘You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD.² Thus says the Lord GOD: “Because the enemy has said against you, ‘Aha!’ and, ‘The ancient high places are ours in possession’²”; ³therefore prophesy, and say,

 ‘Thus says the Lord GOD:
 “Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that you might be a possession to the residue of the nations, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people”;
⁴therefore, you mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD: “Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which are become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are all around;
⁵therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey.’”

⁶”Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and tell the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you have borne the shame of the nations: ⁷therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘I have sworn, saying, “Surely the nations that are around you, they shall bear their shame.”

⁸””But you, mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come. ⁹For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn into you, and you shall be tilled and sown; ¹⁰and I will multiply men on you, all the house of Israel, even all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built; ¹¹and I will multiply on you man and animal; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited after your former estate, and will do better to you than at your beginnings: and you shall know that I am the LORD. ¹²Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no more henceforth bereave them of children.”

¹³”Thus says the Lord GOD: “Because they say to you, ‘You are a devourer of men, and have been a bereaver of your nation’; ¹⁴therefore you shall devour men no more, neither bereave your nation any more,” says the Lord GOD; ¹⁵neither will I let you hear any more the shame of the nations, neither shall you bear the reproach of the peoples any more, neither shall you cause your nation to stumble any more,” says the Lord GOD.”

¹⁶Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁷”Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their doings: their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity. ¹⁸Therefore I poured out my wrath on them for the blood which they had poured out on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols; ¹⁹and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. ²⁰When they came to the nations, where they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, ‘These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.’ ²¹But I had respect for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, where they went.

²²”Therefore tell the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “I do not do this for your sake, house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations, where you went. ²³I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned in their midst; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD,” says the Lord GOD, “when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. ²⁴For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. ²⁵I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. ²⁶I will also give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and you shall keep my ordinances, and do them. ²⁸You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. ²⁹I will save you from all your uncleanness: and I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine on you. ³⁰I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that you may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations. ³¹Then you shall remember your evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. ³²Nor for your sake do I this,” says the Lord GOD, “be it known to you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, house of Israel.””

³³”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built. ³⁴The land that was desolate shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all who passed by. ³⁵They shall say, “This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited.” ³⁶Then the nations that are left around you shall know that I, the LORD, have built the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I, the LORD, have spoken it, and I will do it.”

³⁷Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘For this, moreover, will I be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock. ³⁸As the flock for sacrifice, as the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am the LORD.’”

37 The hand of the LORD was on me, and he brought me out in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones. ²He caused me to pass by them all around: and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and behold, they were very dry. ³He said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live?” I answered, “Lord GOD, you know.”

⁴Again he said to me, “Prophesy over these bones, and tell them, ‘You dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.’” ⁵Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: ‘Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. ⁶I will lay sinews on you, and will bring up flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the LORD.’”

⁷So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, an earthquake; and the bones came together, bone to its bone. ⁸I saw, and, behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them.

⁹Then he said to me, “Prophesy to the wind, prophesy, son of man, and tell the wind, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live.’” ¹⁰So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly great army.

¹¹Then he said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, ‘Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are completely cut off.’” ¹²Therefore prophesy, and tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, my people; and I will bring you into the land of Israel. ¹³You shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, my people. ¹⁴I will put my Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land: and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it and performed it,’ says the LORD.”

¹⁵The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, ¹⁶“You, son of man, take one stick, and write on it, ‘For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions': then take another stick, and write on it, 'For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions': ¹⁷and join them for you one to another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand. ¹⁸When the children of your people shall speak to you, saying, 'Will you not show us what you mean by these?' ¹⁹tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his companions; and I will put them with it, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in my hand."' ²⁰The sticks whereon you write shall be in your hand before their eyes.

²¹"Say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, where they are gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: ²²and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all; and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all; ²³neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

²⁴""My servant David shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my ordinances, and observe my statutes, and do them. ²⁵They shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob my servant, in which your fathers lived; and they shall dwell therein, they, and their children, and their children's children, forever: and David my servant shall be their prince for ever. ²⁶Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in their midst forevermore. ²⁷My tent also shall be with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. ²⁸The nations shall know that I am the LORD who sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in their midst forevermore."""

38 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him, ³and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: ⁴and I will turn you around, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you forth, with all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords; ⁵Persia, Cush, and Put with them,

 all of them with shield and helmet; ⁶Gomer, and all his hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes; even many peoples
 with you.

⁷”Be prepared, yes, prepare yourself, you, and all your companies who are assembled to you, and be a guard to them.
⁸After many days you shall be visited: in the latter years you shall come into the land that is brought back from the sword, that is gathered out of many peoples, on the mountains of Israel, which have been a continual waste; but it is brought forth out of the peoples, and they shall dwell securely, all of them. ⁹You shall ascend, you shall come like a storm, you shall be like a cloud to cover the land, you, and all your hordes, and many peoples with you.”

¹⁰”Thus says the Lord GOD:
 “It shall happen in that day, that things shall come into your mind, and you shall devise an evil device: ¹¹and you shall say, ‘I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to those who are at rest, who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates; ¹²to take the spoil and to take the prey;
 to turn your hand against the waste places that are now inhabited, and against the people who are gathered out of the nations, who have gotten livestock and goods, who dwell in the middle of the earth.’ ¹³Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions of it, shall tell you, ‘Have you come to take the spoil?

 Have you assembled your company to take the prey, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great spoil?’”

¹⁴”Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and tell Gog, ‘Thus says
 the Lord GOD: “In that day when my people Israel dwells securely, shall you not know it? ¹⁵You shall come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you, and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army; ¹⁶and you shall come up against my people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: it shall happen in the latter days, that I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me, when I shall be sanctified in you, Gog, before their eyes.”

¹⁷”Thus says the Lord GOD: “Are you he of whom I spoke in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for many years that I would bring you against them?” ¹⁸It shall happen in that day, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘that my wrath shall come up into my nostrils. ¹⁹For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel; ²⁰so that the fish of the sea, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the field, and all creeping things who creep on the earth, and all the men who are on the surface of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. ²¹I will call for a sword against him to all my mountains,' says the Lord GOD: 'every man's sword shall be against his brother. ²²With pestilence and with blood will I enter into judgment with him; and I will rain on him, and on his hordes, and on the many peoples who are with him, an overflowing shower, and great hailstones, fire, and sulfur. ²³I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am the LORD.'

39 "You, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: ²and I will turn you around, and will lead you on, and will cause you to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring you on the mountains of Israel; ³and I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. ⁴You shall fall on the mountains of Israel, you, and all your hordes, and the peoples who are with you: I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the animals of the field to be devoured. ⁵You shall fall on the open field; for I have spoken it," says the Lord GOD. ⁶I will send a fire on Magog, and on those who dwell securely in the islands; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

⁷"My holy name will I make known in the midst of my people Israel; neither will I allow my holy name to be profaned any more: and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. ⁸Behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Lord GOD; this is the day about which I have spoken.

⁹"Those who dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the war clubs, and the spears, and they shall make fires of them seven years; ¹⁰so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall make fires of the weapons; and they shall plunder those who plundered them, and rob those who robbed them, says the Lord GOD.

¹¹"It shall happen in that day, that I will give to Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of those who pass through on the east of the sea; and it shall stop those who pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude; and they shall call it The valley of Hamon Gog. ¹²Seven months shall the house of Israel be burying them, that they may cleanse the land. ¹³Yes, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown in the day that I shall be glorified, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁴They shall set apart men of continual employment, who shall pass through the land, and, with those who pass through, those who bury those who remain on the surface of the land, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. ¹⁵Those who pass through the land shall pass through; and when any sees a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, until the undertakers have buried it in the valley of Hamon Gog. ¹⁶Hamonah shall also be the name of a city. Thus shall they cleanse the land.'

¹⁷'You, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: Speak to the birds of every sort, and to every animal of the field, 'Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, that you may eat flesh and drink blood. ¹⁸You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan. ¹⁹You shall eat fat until you be full, and drink blood until you are drunk, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. ²⁰You shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war,' says the Lord GOD.

²¹'I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them. ²²So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God, from that day and forward. ²³The nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of them by the sword. ²⁴According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions did I to them; and I hid my face from them.'

²⁵'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Now will I bring back the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name. ²⁶They shall bear their shame, and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against me, when they shall dwell securely in their land, and none shall make them afraid; ²⁷when I have brought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations. ²⁸They shall know that I am the LORD their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them to their own land; and I will leave none of them any more there; ²⁹neither will I hide my face any more from them; for I have poured out my Spirit on the house of Israel,' says the Lord GOD.'

40 In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was struck, in the same day, the hand of the LORD was on me, and he brought me there. ²In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, whereon was as it were the frame of a city on the south. ³He brought me there; and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. ⁴The man said to me, "Son of man, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I shall show you; for, to the intent that I may show them to you, you are brought here: declare all that you see to the house of Israel."

⁵Behold, a wall on the outside of the house all around, and in the man's hand a measuring reed six cubits long, of a cubit and a handbreadth each: so he measured the thickness of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. ⁶Then came he to the gate which looks toward the east, and went up its steps: and he measured the threshold of the gate, one reed broad; and the other threshold, one reed broad. ⁷Every lodge was one reed long, and one reed broad; and the space between the lodges was five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch

of the gate toward the house was one reed. ⁸He measured also the porch of the gate toward the house, one reed. ⁹Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its posts, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house. ¹⁰The lodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. ¹¹He measured the breadth of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits; ¹²and a border before the lodges, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. ¹³He measured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a breadth of twenty-five cubits; door against door. ¹⁴He made also posts, sixty cubits; and the court reached to the posts, around the gate. ¹⁵From the forefront of the gate at the entrance to the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits. ¹⁶There were closed windows to the lodges, and to their posts within the gate all around, and likewise to the arches; and windows were around inward; and on each post were palm trees.

¹⁷Then brought he me into the outer court; and behold, there were rooms and a pavement, made for the court all around: thirty rooms were on the pavement. ¹⁸The pavement was by the side of the gates, answerable to the length of the gates, even the lower pavement. ¹⁹Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate to the forefront of the inner court outside, one hundred cubits, both on the east and on the north. ²⁰The gate of the outer court whose prospect is toward the north, he measured its length and its breadth. ²¹The lodges of it were three on this side and three on that side; and its posts and its arches were after the measure of the first gate: its length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits. ²²The windows of it, and its arches, and the palm trees of it, were after the measure of the gate whose prospect is toward the east; and they went up to it by seven steps; and its arches were before them. ²³There was a gate to the inner court over against the other gate, both on the north and on the east; and he measured from gate to gate one hundred cubits.

²⁴He led me toward the south; and behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured its posts and its arches according to these measures. ²⁵There were windows in it and in its arches all around, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits. ²⁶There were seven steps to go up to it, and its arches were before them; and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, on its posts. ²⁷There was a gate to the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits.

²⁸Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures; ²⁹and its lodges, and its posts, and its arches, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in its arches all around; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits broad. ³⁰There were arches all around, twenty-five cubits long, and five cubits broad. ³¹The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts: and the ascent to it had eight steps.

³⁵He brought me to the north gate: and he measured it according to these measures; ³⁶its lodges, its posts, and its arches: and there were windows therein all around; the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits. ³⁷The posts of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps.

³⁸A room with its door was by the posts at the gates; there they washed the burnt offering. ³⁹In the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to kill thereon the burnt offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering. ⁴⁰On the one side outside, as one goes up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables. ⁴¹Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they killed the sacrifices. ⁴²There were four tables for the burnt offering, of cut stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high; whereupon they laid the instruments with which they killed the burnt offering and the sacrifice. ⁴³The hooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened within all around: and on the tables was the flesh of the offering.

⁴⁴Outside of the inner gate were rooms for the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north. ⁴⁵He said to me, "This room, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the duty of the house; ⁴⁶and the room whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the duty of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok, who from among the sons of Levi come near to the LORD to minister to him." ⁴⁷He measured the court, one hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar was before the house.

⁴⁸Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. ⁴⁹The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; even by the steps by which they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

41 He brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tent. ²The breadth of the entrance was ten cubits; and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured its length, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits.

³Then went he inward, and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the breadth of the entrance, seven cubits. ⁴He measured its length, twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said to me, "This is the most holy place."

⁵Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side room, four cubits, all around the house on every side. ⁶The side rooms were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side rooms all around, that they might have hold therein, and not have hold in the wall of the house. ⁷The side rooms were broader as they encompassed the house higher and higher; for the encompassing of the house went higher and higher around the house: therefore the breadth of the house continued upward; and so one went up from the lowest room to the highest by the middle room.

⁸I saw also that the house had a raised base all around: the foundations of the side rooms were a full reed of six great cubits. ⁹The thickness of the wall, which was for the side rooms, on the outside, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side rooms that belonged to the house. ¹⁰Between the rooms was a breadth of twenty cubits around the house on every side. ¹¹The doors of the side rooms were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits all around.

¹²The building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits.

¹⁵He measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at its back, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the porches of the court; ¹⁶the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries around on their three stories, over against the threshold, with wood ceilings all around, and from the ground up to the windows, (now the windows were covered), ¹⁷to the space above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall all around inside and outside, by measure. ¹⁸It was made with cherubim and palm trees; and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces; ¹⁹so that there was the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. Thus was it made through all the house all around: ²⁰from the ground to above the door were cherubim and palm trees made: thus was the wall of the temple. ²¹As for the temple, the door posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance of it was as the appearance of the temple. ²²The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits; and its corners, and its length, and its walls, were of wood; and he said to me, This is the table that is before the LORD. ²³The temple and the sanctuary had two doors. ²⁴The doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves: two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other. ²⁵There were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, like as were made on the walls; and there was a threshold of wood on the face of the porch outside. ²⁶There were closed windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side rooms of the house, and the thresholds.

42 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the room that was over against the separate place, and which was over against the building toward the north. ²Before the length of one hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. ³Over against the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and over against the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in the third story. ⁴Before the rooms was a walk of ten cubits' breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors were toward the north. ⁵Now the upper rooms were shorter; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middle, in the building. ⁶For they were in three stories, and they didn't have pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the uppermost was straitened more than the lowest and the middle from the ground. ⁷The wall that was outside by the side of the rooms, toward the outer court before the rooms, its length was fifty cubits. ⁸For the length of the rooms that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and behold, before the temple were one hundred cubits. ⁹From under these rooms was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.

¹⁰In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were rooms. ¹¹The way before them was like the appearance of the way of the rooms which were toward the north; according to their length so was their breadth: and all their exits were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. ¹²According to the doors of the rooms that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.

¹³Then he said to me, "The north rooms and the south rooms, which are before the separate place, they are the holy rooms, where the priests who are near to the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy. ¹⁴When the priests enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments in which they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which pertains to the people.”

¹⁵Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it all around. ¹⁶He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed all around. ¹⁷He measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed all around. ¹⁸He measured on the south side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. ¹⁹He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. ²⁰He measured it on the four sides: it had a wall around it, the length five hundred, and the breadth five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looks toward the east. ²Behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shined with his glory. ³It was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. ⁴The glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east. ⁵The Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

⁶I heard one speaking to me out of the house; and a man stood by me. ⁷He said to me, “Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever. The house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their prostitution, and by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places; ⁸in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their doorpost beside my doorpost, and there was but the wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed: therefore I have consumed them in my anger. ⁹Now let them put away their prostitution, and the dead bodies of their kings, far from me; and I will dwell in their midst forever.

¹⁰”You, son of man, show the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. ¹¹If they be ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the form of the house, and its fashion, and its exits, and its entrances, and all its forms, and all its ordinances, and all its forms, and all its laws; and write it in their sight; that they may keep the whole form of it, and all its ordinances, and do them.

¹²”This is the law of the house: on the top of the mountain the whole limit around it shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

¹⁸He said to me, “Son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon. ¹⁹You shall give to the priests the Levites who are of the seed of Zadok, who are near to me, to minister to me, says the Lord GOD, a young bull for a sin offering. ²⁰You shall take of its blood, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around: thus you shall cleanse it and make atonement for it. ²¹You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burnt in the appointed place of the house, outside of the sanctuary.

²²”On the second day you shall offer a male goat without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. ²³When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish. ²⁴You shall bring them near to the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt on them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering to the LORD.

²⁵”Seven days you shall prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bull, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. ²⁶Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they consecrate it. ²⁷When they have accomplished the days, it shall be that on the eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, says the Lord GOD.”

44 Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looks toward the east; and it was shut. ²The LORD said to me, “This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, neither shall any man enter in by it; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered in by it; therefore it shall be shut. ³As for the prince, he shall sit therein as prince to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.”

⁴Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell on my face. ⁵The LORD said to me, “Son of man, mark well, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I tell you concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all its laws; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every exit of the sanctuary. ⁶You shall tell the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: you house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, ⁷in that you have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when you offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, to add to all your abominations. ⁸You have not performed the duty of my holy things; but you have set performers of my duty in my sanctuary for yourselves.’

⁹”Thus says the Lord GOD, ‘No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigners who are among the children of Israel. ¹⁰But the Levites who went far from me, when Israel went astray, who went astray from me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity. ¹¹Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house: they shall kill the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. ¹²Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, says the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity. ¹³They shall not come near to me, to execute the office of priest to me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. ¹⁴Yet will I make them performers of the duty of the house, for all its service, and for all that shall be done therein.

¹⁵”But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who performed the duty of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister to me; and they shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood, says the Lord GOD: ¹⁶they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my instruction.

²⁰”Neither shall they shave their heads, nor allow their locks to grow long; they shall only cut off the hair of their heads. ²¹Neither shall any of the priests drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. ²²Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her who is put away; but they shall take virgins of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest. ²³They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

²⁴”In a controversy they shall stand to judge; according to my ordinances shall they judge it: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts; and they shall make my Sabbaths holy.

²⁵”They shall go in to no dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband, they may defile themselves. ²⁶After he is cleansed, they shall reckon to him seven days. ²⁷In the day that he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord GOD.

²⁸”They shall have an inheritance: I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession. ²⁹They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs. ³⁰The first of all the first fruits of every thing, and every offering of everything, of all your offerings, shall be for the priest: you shall also give to the priests the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house. ³¹The priests shall not eat of anything that dies of itself, or is torn, whether it be bird or animal.

45 ¹“Moreover, when you shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an offering to the LORD, a holy portion of the land; the length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand: it shall be holy in all its border all around. ²Of this there shall be for the holy place five hundred in length by five hundred in breadth, square all around; and fifty cubits for its suburbs all around. ³Of this measure you shall measure a length of twenty-five thousand, and a breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy. ⁴It is a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to the LORD; and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary. ⁵Twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth, shall be to the Levites, the ministers of the house, for a possession to themselves, for twenty rooms.

⁶“You shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and twenty-five thousand long, side by side with the offering of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

⁷“Whatever is for the prince shall be on the one side and on the other side of the holy offering and of the possession of the city, in front of the holy offering and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward; and in length answerable to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border. ⁸In the land it shall be to him for a possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; but they shall give the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.’

⁹“Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Let it suffice you, princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute justice and righteousness; dispossessing my people, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁰You shall have just balances, and a just ephah,^a and a just bath. ¹¹The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer^b, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer: its measure shall be after the homer. ¹²The shekel shall be twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels plus twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels shall be your mina.

¹³“This is the offering that you shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of wheat; and you shall give the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of barley; ¹⁴and the set portion of oil, of the bath of oil, the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is ten baths, even a homer; (for ten baths are a homer;) ¹⁵and one lamb of the flock, out of two hundred, from the well-watered pastures of Israel—for a meal offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁶All the people of the land shall give to this offering for the prince in Israel. ¹⁷It shall be the prince's part to give the burnt offerings, and the meal offerings, and the drink offerings, in the feasts, and on the new moons, and on the Sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meal offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

^a45:10 1 ephah is about 22 litres or about 2/3 of a bushel

¹⁸”Thus says the Lord GOD: In the first month, in the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish; and you shall cleanse the sanctuary. ¹⁹The priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it on the door posts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court. ²⁰So you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who errs, and for him who is simple: so you shall make atonement for the house.

²¹”In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. ²²On that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering. ²³The seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a male goat daily for a sin offering. ²⁴He shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an ephah. ²⁵In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, shall he do the like the seven days; according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meal offering, and according to the oil.’

46 “Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘The gate of the inner court that looks toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the Sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. ²The prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate outside, and shall stand by the post of the gate; and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. ³The people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before the LORD on the Sabbaths and on the new moons. ⁴The burnt offering that the prince shall offer to the LORD shall be on the Sabbath day six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish; ⁵and the meal offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. ⁶On the day of the new moon it shall be a young bull without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish: ⁷and he shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for the bull, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as he is able, and a hin of oil to an ephah. ⁸When the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go forth by its way.

⁹”But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the appointed feasts, he who enters by the way of the north gate to worship shall go forth by the way of the south gate; and he who enters by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but shall go forth straight before him. ¹⁰The prince, when they go in, shall go in with of them; and when they go out, he shall go out.

¹¹”In the feasts and in the solemnities the meal offering shall be an ephah^a for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. ¹²When the prince shall prepare a freewill offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a freewill offering to the LORD, one shall open for him the gate that looks toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he does on the Sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

¹³”You shall prepare a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering to the LORD daily: morning by morning you shall prepare it. ¹⁴You shall prepare a meal offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour; a meal offering to the LORD continually by a perpetual ordinance. ¹⁵Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering.’

¹⁶”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘If the prince give a gift to any of his sons, it is his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance. ¹⁷But if he give of his inheritance a gift to one of his servants, it shall be his to the year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as for his inheritance, it shall be for his sons. ¹⁸Moreover the prince shall not take of the people’s inheritance, to thrust them out of their possession; he shall give inheritance to his sons out of his own possession, that my people not be scattered every man from his possession.’”

¹⁹Then he brought me through the entry, which was at

the side of the gate, into the holy rooms for the priests, which looked toward the north: and behold, there was a place on the hinder part westward. ²⁰He said to me, "This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the meal offering; that they not bring them forth into the outer court, to sanctify the people."

²¹Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. ²²In the four corners of the court there were courts enclosed, forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four in the corners were of one measure. ²³There was a wall around in them, around the four, and boiling places were made under the walls all around. ²⁴Then he said to me, "These are the boiling houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people."

47 He brought me back to the door of the house; and behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward; (for the forefront of the house was toward the east;) and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar. ²Then he brought me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me round by the way outside to the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looks toward the east; and behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

³When the man went forth eastward with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. ⁴Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the waist. ⁵Afterward he measured one thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed through. ⁶He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?"

Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river. ⁷Now when I had returned, behold, on the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other. ⁸Then he said to me, "These waters issue forth toward the eastern region, and shall go down into the Arabah; and they shall go toward the sea; into the sea shall the waters go which were made to issue forth; and the waters shall be healed. ⁹It shall happen, that every living creature which swarms, in every place where the rivers come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters have come there, and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and everything shall live wherever the river comes. ¹⁰It shall happen, that fishermen shall stand by it: from En Gedi even to En Eglaim shall be a place for the spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many. ¹¹But the miry places of it, and its marshes, shall not be healed; they shall be given up to salt. ¹²By the river on its bank, on this side and on that side, shall grow every tree for food, whose leaf shall not wither, neither shall its fruit fail: it shall bring forth new fruit every month, because its waters issue out of the sanctuary; and its fruit shall be for food, and its leaf for healing.”

¹³”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘This shall be the border, by which you shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. ¹⁴You shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I swore to give it to your fathers: and this land shall fall to you for inheritance.

¹⁵”This shall be the border of the land: On the north side, from the great sea, by the way of Hethlon, to the entrance of Zedad; ¹⁶Hamath, Berothah, Sibram, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazer Hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran. ¹⁷The border from the sea, shall be Hazar Enon at the border of Damascus; and on the north northward is the border of Hamath. This is the north side. ¹⁸The east side, between Hauran and Damascus and Gilead, and the land of Israel, shall be the Jordan; from the north border to the east sea you shall measure. This is the east side. ¹⁹The south side southward shall be from Tamar as far as the waters of Meriboth Kadesh, to the brook [of Egypt], to the great sea. This is the south side southward. ²⁰The west side shall be the great sea, from the south border as far as over against the entrance of Hamath. This is the west side.

²¹”So you shall divide this land to you according to the tribes of Israel. ²²It shall happen, that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you and to the aliens who live among you, who shall father children among you; and they shall be to you as the native-born among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. ²³It shall happen, that in what tribe the stranger lives, there you shall give him his inheritance,’ says the Lord GOD.”

48 “Now these are the names of the tribes:

From the north end, beside the way of Hethlon to the entrance of Hamath, Hazar Enan at the border of Damascus, northward beside Hamath (and they shall have their sides east and west), Dan, one portion. ²By the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, Asher, one portion. ³By the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, Naphtali, one portion. ⁴By the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, Manasseh, one portion. ⁵By the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, Ephraim, one portion. ⁶By the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, Reuben, one portion. ⁷By the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, Judah, one portion.

⁸By the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the offering which you shall offer, twenty-five thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the portions, from the east side to the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in its midst. ⁹The offering that you shall offer to the LORD shall be twenty-five thousand reeds in length, and ten thousand in breadth. ¹⁰For these, even for the priests, shall be the holy offering: toward the north twenty-five thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south twenty-five thousand in length: and the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in its midst. ¹¹It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, who have kept my instruction, who didn't go astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. ¹²It shall be to them an offering from the offering of the land, a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites.

¹³Answerable to the border of the priests, the Levites shall have twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be twenty-five thousand, and the breadth ten thousand. ¹⁴They shall sell none of it, nor exchange it, nor shall the first fruits of the land be alienated; for it is holy to the LORD.

¹⁵The five thousand that are left in the breadth, in front of the twenty-five thousand, shall be for common use, for the city, for dwelling and for suburbs; and the city shall be in its midst. ¹⁶These shall be its measures: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. ¹⁷The city shall have suburbs: toward the north two hundred fifty, and toward the south two hundred fifty, and toward the east two hundred fifty, and toward the west two hundred fifty. ¹⁸The remainder in the length, answerable to the holy offering, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be answerable to the holy offering; and its increase shall be for food to those who labor in the city. ¹⁹Those who labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it. ²⁰All the offering shall be twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand: you shall offer the holy offering foursquare, with the possession of the city.

²¹The residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy offering and of the possession of the city; in front of the twenty-five thousand of the offering toward the east border, and westward in front of the twenty-five thousand toward the west border, answerable to the portions, it shall be for the prince: and the holy offering and the sanctuary of the house shall be in its midst. ²²Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, it shall be for the prince.

³⁰These are the exits of the city: On the north side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure; ³¹and the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one. ³²At the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one. ³³At the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one. ³⁴At the west side four thousand and five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one. ³⁵It shall be eighteen thousand reeds around: and the name of the city from that day shall be, 'The LORD is there.'"^a

Daniel

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Jerusalem, and besieged it. ²The Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god:

^a48:35 Hebrew "Jehovah Shammah"

Daniel 1

and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god. ³The king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in some of the children of Israel, even of the royal family and of the nobles; ⁴youths in whom was no blemish, but well-favored, and skillful in all wisdom, and endowed with knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the language of the Chaldeans. ⁵The king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's royal food, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years; that at its end they should stand before the king. ⁶Now among these were, of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. ⁷The prince of the eunuchs gave names to them: to Daniel he gave the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abednego. ⁸But Daniel determined in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's royal food, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. ⁹Now God gave Daniel favor and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. ¹⁰The prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths who are of your own age? So would you endanger my head with the king." ¹¹Then said Daniel to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: ¹²"Test your servants for ten days; and let them give us vegetables to eat, and water to drink. ¹³Then let our faces be looked on before you, and the face of the youths who eat of the king's royal food; and as you see, deal with your servants." ¹⁴So he listened to them in this matter, and tested them ten days. ¹⁵At the end of ten days their faces appeared better and fatter than all the youths who ate of the king's royal food. ¹⁶So the steward took away their royal food, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them vegetables. ¹⁷Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. ¹⁸At the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹The king talked with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore they entered the king's service. ²⁰In every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters who were in all his realm. ²¹Daniel continued even to the first year of king Cyrus.

2 In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him. ²Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. ³The king said to them, "I have had a dream, and my spirit is anxious to understand the dream." ⁴Then spoke the Chaldeans to the king in the Syrian language, "O king, live forever: tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation." ⁵The king answered the Chaldeans, "The thing is gone from me: if you do not make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a rubbish heap. ⁶But if you show the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor: therefore show me the dream and its interpretation." ⁷They answered the second time and said, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation." ⁸The king answered, "I know of a certainty that you would gain time, because you see the thing is gone from me. ⁹But if you do not make known to me the dream, there is but one law for you; for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until such time that things might change. Therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me its interpretation." ¹⁰The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, "There is not a man on the earth who can show the king's matter, because no king, lord, or ruler, has asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean. ¹¹It is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no other who can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh." ¹²For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. ¹³So the decree went forth, and the wise men were to be killed; and they sought Daniel and his companions to be killed. ¹⁴Then Daniel returned an answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who was gone forth to kill the wise men of Babylon; ¹⁵he answered Arioch the king's captain, "Why is the decree so urgent from the king?" Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. ¹⁶Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the king the interpretation. ¹⁷Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: ¹⁸that they would seek mercy from the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁹Then was the secret revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. ²⁰Daniel answered, "Blessed be the name of God forever and ever;

for wisdom and might are his.

²¹He changes the times and the seasons; he removes kings, and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who have understanding; ²²he reveals the deep and secret things; he knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him. ²³I thank you, and praise you, God of my fathers, who has given me wisdom and might, and has now made known to me what we desired of you; for you have made known to us the king's matter."

²⁴Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said this to him: "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation."

²⁵Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said this to him, "I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Judah, who will make known to the king the interpretation."

²⁶The king answered Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?" ²⁷Daniel answered before the king, and said, "The secret which the king has demanded is such that no wise men, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, can show to the king; ²⁸but there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and he has made known to king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head on your bed, are these:

²⁹as for you, O king, your thoughts came into your mind on your bed, what should happen hereafter; and he who reveals secrets has made known to you what shall happen.

³⁰But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than all the living, but in order that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart. ³¹You, O king, saw, and behold, a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was extraordinary, stood before you; and its appearance was awesome.

³²As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass, ³³its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay. ³⁴You saw until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. ³⁵Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them: and the stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. ³⁶This is the dream; and we will tell its interpretation before the king. ³⁷You, O king, are king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory; ³⁸and wherever the children of men dwell, the animals of the field and the birds of the sky has he given into your hand, and has made you to rule over them all: you are the head of gold. ³⁹After

you shall arise another kingdom inferior to yours; and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. ⁴⁰The fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron, because iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes all these, shall it break in pieces and crush. ⁴¹Whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with miry clay. ⁴²As the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. ⁴³Whereas you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mix with one another but they shall not hold together, even as iron does not mix with clay. ⁴⁴In the days of those kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall its sovereignty be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume all those kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. ⁴⁵Because you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the king what shall happen hereafter: and the dream is certain, and its interpretation sure. ⁴⁶Then king Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, and worshiped Daniel, and commanded that they should present an offering and incense to him. ⁴⁷The king answered to Daniel, and said, "Surely your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing you have been able to reveal this secret." ⁴⁸Then the king made Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him to rule over the whole province of Babylon, and to be chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon. ⁴⁹Daniel requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel was in the gate of the king.

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits, and its breadth six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. ²Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. ³Then the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ⁴Then the herald cried aloud, "To you it is commanded, peoples, nations, and languages, ⁵that whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up; ⁶and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace." ⁷Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. ⁸Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and brought accusation against the Jews. ⁹They answered Nebuchadnezzar the king, "O king, live for ever. ¹⁰You, O king, have made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image; ¹¹and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. ¹²There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, have not regarded you: they do not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up." ¹³Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. ¹⁴Nebuchadnezzar answered them, "Is it on purpose, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? ¹⁵Now if you are ready whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music to fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if you do not worship, you shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands?" ¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, "Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. ¹⁷If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. ¹⁸But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up." ¹⁹Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the expression of his face was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Therefore he spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. ²⁰He commanded certain mighty men who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. ²¹Then these men were bound in their cloaks, trousers, their turbans, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. ²²Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. ²³These three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. ²⁴Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up quickly. He spoke and said to his ministers, "Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?" They answered the king, "True, O king." ²⁵He answered, "Look, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they are unharmed; and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the gods." ²⁶Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace. He spoke and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most High God, come forth, and come here." Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came forth out of the midst of the fire. ²⁷The satraps, the prefects, and the governors, and the king's ministers, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power on their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their trousers changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them. ²⁸Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel, and delivered his servants who trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. ²⁹Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything evil against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be reduced to rubble; because there is no other god who is able to deliver in this way." ³⁰Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

4 "Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. ²It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has worked toward me. ³How great are his signs and how mighty are his wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation. ⁴I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. ⁵I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. ⁶Therefore I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. ⁷Then came in the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the diviners; and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me its interpretation. ⁸But finally Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and I told the dream before him, saying, ⁹"Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation.

¹⁰Thus were the visions of my head on my bed: I saw, and behold, a tree in the midst of the earth; and its height was great.

¹¹The tree grew, and was strong, and its height reached to the sky, and its sight to the end of all the earth.

¹²The leaves of it were beautiful, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all. The animals of the field had shadow under it, and the birds of the sky lived in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it.

¹³I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from the sky.

¹⁴He cried aloud, and said this, "Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit. Let the animals get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches.

¹⁵Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth.

¹⁶Let his mind be changed from man's, and let an animal's mind be given to him; and let seven times pass over him.

¹⁷The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whoever he will, and sets up over it the lowest of men.

¹⁸This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and you, Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation. But you are able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

¹⁹Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken mute for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered, Belteshazzar, "Do not let the dream, or the interpretation, trouble you."

Belteshazzar answered, "My lord, the dream concerns those who hate you, and its interpretation to your adversaries.

²⁰The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to the sky, and its sight to all the earth;

²¹whose leaves were beautiful, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all; under which the animals of the field lived, and on whose branches the birds of the sky had their habitation.

²²It is you, O king, that are grown and become strong; for your greatness is grown, and reaches to the sky, and your dominion to the end of the earth.

²⁴This is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of the Most High, which is come on my lord the king: ²⁵that you shall be driven from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field, and you shall be made to eat grass as oxen, and shall be wet with the dew of the sky, and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will. ²⁶Whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom shall be restored to you. After that you shall have known that the heavens do rule. ²⁷Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if there may be a lengthening of your prosperity.” ²⁸All this came on the king Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁹At the end of twelve months he was walking in the royal palace of Babylon. ³⁰The king spoke and said, “Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the royal dwelling place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?” ³¹While the word was in the king’s mouth, there fell a voice from the sky, saying, “O king Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken. The kingdom has departed from you, ³²and you shall be driven from men; and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field; you shall be made to eat grass as oxen; and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he wants.” ³³The same hour was the thing fulfilled on Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky, until his hair was grown like eagles’ feathers, and his nails like birds’ claws. ³⁴At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored him who lives forever. For his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation. ³⁵All the inhabitants of the earth are regarded as nothing; and he does according to his will in the host of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or tell him, “What have you done?” ³⁶At the same time my understanding returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and splendor returned to me; and my counselors and my lords sought me out; and I was established in my kingdom, and even more greatness was added to me. ³⁷Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those who walk in pride he is able to humble.”

5 Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. ²Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink from them. ³Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them. ⁴They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone. ⁵In the same hour came forth the fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the lampstand on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. ⁶Then the king's face was turned pale, and his thoughts troubled him; and the joints of his thighs gave way, and his knees began knocking together. ⁷The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the diviners. The king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever shall read this writing, and show me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom." ⁸Then came in all the king's wise men; but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation. ⁹Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his face turned pale, and his lords were perplexed. ¹⁰Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house. The queen spoke and said, "O king, live forever; do not let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your face be changed. ¹¹There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and king Nebuchadnezzar your father, the king, I say, your father, made him chief of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and diviners; ¹²because an extraordinary spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and explaining riddles, and solving problems, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation." ¹³Then was Daniel brought in before the king. The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Are you that Daniel, who are of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah?" ¹⁴I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and extraordinary wisdom are found in you. ¹⁵Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. ¹⁶But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and solve problems. Now if you can read the writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom." ¹⁷Then Daniel answered before the king, "Keep your gifts for yourself, and give your rewards to another; Nevertheless I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation. ¹⁸You king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty.¹⁹ And because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. Whom he would he killed, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down.²⁰ But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was removed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him.²¹ And he was driven from the sons of men, and his mind was made like the animals', and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. He was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky; until he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he sets up over it whomever he wants.²² You his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this,²³ but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven. And they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see, nor hear, nor know. And the God in whose hand your breath is, and whose are all your ways, you have not glorified.²⁴ Then was the part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed.²⁵ This is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.²⁶ This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God has numbered your kingdom, and brought it to an end;²⁷ TEKEL; you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting.²⁸ PERES; your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians."²⁹ Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.³⁰ In that night Belshazzar the Chaldean King was slain.³¹ Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

6 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred twenty satraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom;² and over them three administrators, of whom Daniel was one; that these satraps might give account to them, and that the king might not suffer loss.³ Then this Daniel was distinguished above the administrators and the satraps, because an extraordinary spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.⁴ Then the administrators and the satraps sought to find a charge against Daniel regarding the kingdom; but they could find no charge or fault, because he was faithful. Neither was there any error or fault found in him.⁵ Then these men said, "We will not find any charge against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God."

⁶Then these administrators and satraps assembled together to the king, and said this to him, “King Darius, live forever. ⁷All the administrators of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong decree, that whoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except of you, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. ⁸Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be changed.” ⁹Therefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree. ¹⁰When Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his chamber toward Jerusalem) and he kneeled on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did before. ¹¹Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. ¹²Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king’s decree. “Haven’t you signed a decree, that every man who shall make petition to any god or man within thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?” The king answered, “The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be changed.” ¹³Then they answered and said before the king, “That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, doesn’t regard you, O king, nor the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day.” ¹⁴Then the king, when he heard these words, was very displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him. And he labored until the going down of the sun to rescue him. ¹⁵Then these men assembled together to the king, and said to the king, “Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no decree nor statute which the king establishes may be changed.” ¹⁶Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spoke and said to Daniel, “Your God whom you serve continually, he will deliver you.” ¹⁷A stone was brought, and placed on the opening of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. ¹⁸Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting; neither were instruments of music brought before him. And his sleep fled from him. ¹⁹Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions. ²⁰When he came near to the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice. The king spoke and said to Daniel, “Daniel, servant of the living God. Is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions?” ²¹Then said Daniel to the king, “O king, live forever. ²²My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions’ mouths, and they have not hurt me; because before him innocence was found in me; and also before you, O king, have I done no wrong.”²³ Then was the king exceedingly glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.²⁴ The king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions overpowered them, and broke all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den.²⁵ Then king Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: “Peace be multiplied to you.²⁶ I make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the living God, and steadfast forever. His kingdom shall not be destroyed; and his dominion shall be to the end.²⁷ He delivers and rescues, and he works signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.”²⁸ So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions in his mind on his bed. Then he wrote the dream and told the summary of it.² Daniel spoke and said, “I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the sky broke forth on the great sea.³ Four great animals came up from the sea, different from one another.⁴ The first was like a lion, and had eagle’s wings. I saw until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand on two feet as a man; and a man’s mind was given to it.⁵ And behold, another animal, a second one, like a bear; and it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth. And they said this to it, ‘Arise, devour much flesh.’⁶ After this I saw, and behold, another one, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird. The animal also had four heads; and dominion was given to it.⁷ After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth animal, awesome and powerful, and extremely strong. And it had great iron teeth. It devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped what was left with its feet. And it was diverse from all the animals that were before it; and it had ten horns.⁸ I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots. And behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking arrogant things.⁹ I saw until thrones were placed, and the Ancient of Days took his seat. His clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool. His throne was fiery flames, and its wheels burning fire.¹⁰ A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him. Thousands of thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him. The court sat in judgment, and the books were opened. ¹¹I saw at that time because of the voice of the arrogant words which the horn spoke. I was watching until the animal was killed and its body destroyed and was given to be burned with fire. ¹²As for the rest of the animals, their dominion was taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. ¹³I saw in the night visions, and behold, there came with the clouds of the sky one like a son of man,^a and he came even to the Ancient of Days, and they brought him near before him. ¹⁴There was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. ¹⁵As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved in the midst of my body, and the visions of my mind troubled me. ¹⁶I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the true meaning concerning all this. So he told me, and revealed to me the interpretation of these things. ¹⁷These great animals, which are four, are four kings, who shall arise out of the earth. ¹⁸But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, forever and ever. ¹⁹Then I desired to know the true meaning concerning the fourth animal, which was different from all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its claws of bronze; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped what was left with its feet. ²⁰And concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke arrogant things, whose look was larger than the others. ²¹I saw, and the same horn made war with the holy ones, and prevailed against them, ²²until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was given to the holy ones of the Most High, and the time came that the holy ones possessed the kingdom. ²³This he said, 'The fourth animal shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. ²⁴As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise, and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former, and he shall put down three kings. ²⁵He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall oppress the holy ones of the Most High; and he shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given over to him until a time and times and half a time. ²⁶And the court shall sit in judgment, and they shall take away his dominion, consumed and completely destroyed forever. ²⁷The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the holy ones of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.’²⁸ Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts troubled me greatly, and my face turned pale. I kept the matter to myself.”

8 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me previously.² And I saw in the vision, and when I looked, I was in the citadel of Susa, which is in the province of Elam. And I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai.³ Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns. And the two horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one came up last.⁴ I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no animals could stand before him, neither was there any who could deliver out of his hand. But he did according to his will, and became great.⁵ As I was considering, behold, a male goat came from the west over the surface of the whole earth, and did not touch the ground. And the goat had a prominent horn between his eyes.⁶ He came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and rushed at him in the fury of his power.⁷ I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns. And there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he threw him down to the ground and trampled on him, and there was no one who could deliver the ram from his power.⁸ The male goat became very strong. But when he was strong, the large horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four prominent horns toward the four winds of heaven.⁹ Out of one of them came forth a little horn, which grew exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the beautiful land.¹⁰ It grew so great that it reached to the host of heaven, and some of the host and of the stars it cast down to the ground, and trampled on them.¹¹ And it magnified itself, even against the Prince of the host; and it took away from him the daily sacrifice, and the place of his sanctuary was thrown down.¹² The host was given over to it together with the daily sacrifice because of transgression. And it cast down truth to the ground, and kept prospering.¹³ Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who spoke, “How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled?”¹⁴ He said to me, “To two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be restored to its rightful state.”¹⁵ It came about when I, Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought to understand it. And behold, there stood before me someone who appeared to be a man. ¹⁶I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, and called out and said, "Gabriel, make this man understand the vision."¹⁷So he came near where I stood, and when he came I was frightened, and fell prostrate. But he said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision belongs to the time of the end."¹⁸Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and stood me upright. ¹⁹He said, "Behold, I will make you know what shall be in the latter time of wrath, for it belongs to the appointed time of the end."²⁰The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. ²¹The male goat is the king of Greece, and the large horn that is between his eyes is the first king. ²²As for that which was broken, in the place where four stood up, four kingdoms shall arise out of his nation, but not with his power. ²³In the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have reached their full measure, a rash and deceitful king shall arise. ²⁴His power shall be great, but not by his own strength; and he shall cause terrible destruction, and shall succeed in whatever he does. And he shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. ²⁵Through his cunning he shall cause deceit to prosper by his influence, and he shall be great in his own mind, and without warning he shall destroy many. He shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be shattered, but not by human hands. ²⁶The vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true; but seal up the vision because it refers to many days from now."²⁷I, Daniel, was overcome, and was ill for days. Then I rose up, and carried out the king's business. And I was astonished by the vision, but there was no one to explain it.

9 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of Median descent, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans-- ²in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood from the books the number of the years about which the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, for the completion of the desolation of Jerusalem, seventy years. ³And I turned to the Lord God, to seek by prayer and petitions, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. ⁴I prayed to the LORD my God, and made this confession, "O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps his covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments. ⁵We have sinned, and have done what is wrong and wicked, and have rebelled, even turning aside from your commandments and from your ordinances. ⁶Neither have we listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. ⁷Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but to us open shame, as at this day, to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries where you have driven them, because of their unfaithful deeds that they have committed against you. ⁸ LORD, to us belongs open shame, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you. ⁹To the Lord our God belong compassion and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against him. ¹⁰And have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. ¹¹Yes, all Israel has transgressed your law, and turned away, refusing to obey your voice. Therefore has the curse been poured out on us, and the oath that is written in the Law of Moses the servant of God, for we have sinned against you. ¹²He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us, and against our rulers who ruled us, by bringing on us a great calamity; for under the whole heaven such has not been done as has been done on Jerusalem. ¹³As it is written in the Law of Moses, all this calamity has come on us. Yet have we not tried to gain the favor of the LORD our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and have discernment in your truth. ¹⁴Therefore has the LORD watched over the calamity, and brought it on us, for the LORD our God is just in all he has done, and we have not obeyed his voice. ¹⁵And now, Lord our God, who has brought your people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have made a name for yourself, even to this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. ¹⁶Lord, according to all your righteousness, let your anger and please let your wrath be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become a reproach to all who are around us. ¹⁷Now therefore, our God, listen to the prayer of your servant, and to his petitions, and cause your face to shine on your sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. ¹⁸My God, turn your ear, and hear; open your eyes, and see our desolation, and the city which is called by your name. For we do not present our petitions before you for our righteousness, but for your great mercy. ¹⁹Lord, hear! Lord, forgive! Lord, listen and take action! Do not delay, for your own sake, my God, because your city and your people are called by your name." ²⁰While I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my petition before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God, ²¹while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, came to me in my weariness about the time of the evening sacrifice. ²²He instructed me, and talked with me, and said, "Daniel, I have now come forth to give you wisdom and understanding. ²³At the beginning of your petitions the commandment went forth, and I have come to tell you, for you are greatly loved. Therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision. ²⁴Seventy weeks are decreed on your people and on your holy city, to put an end to the transgression, and to make an end to sin, and to atone for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy place. ²⁵Know therefore and understand that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem until the time of an anointed prince, there shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks. It shall be built again, with open spaces and a moat, but in times of distress. ²⁶After the sixty-two weeks an anointed one shall be cut off, and shall have nothing: and the people of the prince who shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and his end shall come with a flood, and until the end there shall be war; desolations are decreed. ²⁷He shall make a firm covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease. And on the wing of abominations shall come one who destroys, and even until a complete destruction, until the decreed end is poured out on the one who destroys.”

10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a word was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the word was true: a great war. And he understood the word, and had understanding of the vision. ²In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three whole weeks. ³I had no pleasing food, neither meat nor wine came into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled. ⁴In the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is the Tigris, ⁵I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, a man clothed in linen, around his waist a belt made of pure gold from Uphaz. ⁶His body was like beryl, and his face like the appearance of lightning, and his eyes like flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like burnished bronze, and the sound of his words like the sound of a multitude. ⁷I, Daniel, alone saw the vision; for the men who were with me did not see the vision; but a great trembling fell on them, and they fled to hide themselves. ⁸So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me; for my natural appearance grew deathly pale, and I retained no strength. ⁹Yet I heard the sound of his words, and when I heard the sound of his words, then I fell into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground. ¹⁰Behold, a hand touched me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my hands. ¹¹He said to me, “Daniel, man greatly loved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for I have now been sent to you.” And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. ¹²Then said he to me, “Do not be afraid, Daniel; for from the first day that you did set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard. And I have come because of your words. ¹³But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; but, behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was left there with the kings of Persia. ¹⁴Now I have come to make you understand what shall happen to your people in the latter days; for the vision refers to future days.” ¹⁵And when he had spoken to me according to these words, I turned my face toward the ground, and could not speak. ¹⁶And behold, one in the likeness of a human touched my lips. Then I opened my mouth and spoke and said to him who stood before me, “My lord, it is because of the vision anguish has come upon me, and I have no strength. ¹⁷For how can this servant of my lord talk with my lord? As for me, no strength remains, and I am breathless.” ¹⁸Then one like the appearance of a man touched me again and strengthened me. ¹⁹And he said, “Greatly loved man, do not be afraid, peace be to you; be strong, be strong!”

When he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, “Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me.”

²⁰Then he said, “Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia. When I go forth, behold, the prince of Greece shall come. ²¹But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the Book of Truth. And there is no one who contends with me against them except Michael, your prince.”

11 “And as for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to support and strengthen him. ²And now what I show you is true. Behold, there shall arise three more kings in Persia, and the fourth shall be far richer than all of them; and when he has grown strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the kingdom of Greece. ³And a powerful king shall arise, who shall rule an extensive empire, and do as he pleases. ⁴When he shall arise, his kingdom shall be broken up, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to his authority with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be uprooted, and will go to others besides these. ⁵The king of the south shall grow strong, and one of his officers shall grow more powerful, and shall have a greater kingdom than his. ⁶At the end of years they shall join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain her power; neither shall his strength endure; but she shall be surrendered, and her attendants, and he who became the father of her, and he who supported her in those times. ⁷But out of a shoot from her roots shall arise in his place, who shall come against the army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail. ⁸Also their gods, with their molten images, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive into Egypt; and he shall withdraw for some years from the king of the north. ⁹And he shall come into the realm of the king of the south, but he shall return into his own land. ¹⁰And his sons shall wage war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall advance and overflow, and pass through, and they shall return and wage war, as far as his fortress. ¹¹The king of the south shall be moved with rage and shall come forth and fight against him, even with the king of the north; and he shall raise a great multitude, and the multitude shall be given into his hand. ¹²The multitude shall be taken away, and his heart shall be exalted; and he shall cast down tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail. ¹³The king of the north shall return, and shall raise a multitude greater than the former; and he shall advance after some years with a great army and with abundant supplies. ¹⁴And in those times many shall rise up against the king of the south: also the violent ones among your people shall rise up in confirmation of the vision; but they shall fail. ¹⁵So the king of the north shall come, and build up a siege mound and take a well-fortified city. And the forces of the south shall not prevail, neither his best troops, neither shall there be any strength to resist. ¹⁶But he who comes against him shall do as he pleases, and no one shall be able to withstand him. And he shall stand in the beautiful land, and destruction will be within his power. ¹⁷He shall set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and will reach an agreement with him which he shall put into effect. And he shall give him a daughter of women to send destruction on him; but it will not last or be to his advantage. ¹⁸After this shall he turn his face to the coastal regions, and shall capture many. But a commander shall bring his insolence to an end. In addition, he shall repay him for his insolence. ¹⁹Then he shall turn his attention toward the fortresses of his own land, but he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found again. ²⁰Then shall arise in his place one who shall send an exactor of tribute to pass through the kingdom to maintain its glory; but within few days he shall be destroyed, though not in anger nor in battle. ²¹In his place shall arise a despicable person, to whom the honor of kingship had not been given, but he shall come in a time of prosperity, and shall obtain the kingdom through deceit. ²²And large armies shall be swept away and shattered before him, as well as the prince of the covenant. ²³And after an alliance is made with him he shall work deceitfully; for he shall become strong with a small force. ²⁴In a time of prosperity he shall come even on the richest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor their fathers; he shall distribute among them plunder, and spoil, and property. He shall devise plans against their strongholds, but only for a time. ²⁵And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall wage war in battle with an extremely large and powerful army; but he shall not stand; for they shall devise plans against him. ²⁶Yes, those who eat of his royal food shall seek to destroy him, and his army shall be swept away; and many shall fall slain. ²⁷As for both these kings, their minds shall be fixed on evil, and they shall speak lies at the table; but it shall not succeed; for still the end shall be at the appointed time. ²⁸Then shall he return into his land with great property; and his mind shall be against the holy covenant. And he shall take action, and then return to his own land. ²⁹At the appointed time he shall return, and come into the south; but this time the outcome shall not be as it was before. ³⁰For ships from Kittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be intimidated, and shall turn back, and be enraged against the holy covenant, and shall take action. He shall turn back, and show regard to those who forsake the holy covenant. ³¹Forces shall come at his order, and they shall profane the sanctuary and the fortress, and shall take away the daily burnt offering, and they shall set up the abomination that causes desolation.^a ³²And those who act wickedly toward the covenant he shall corrupt by smooth words; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and take action.

³³And those who are wise among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by plunder for some time. ³⁴Now when they shall fall, they shall receive a little help. And many shall join with them insincerely. ³⁵Some of those who are wise shall fall, to be refined, purified and cleansed until the time of the end; for the appointed time is still to come. ³⁶And the king shall do as he pleases. And he shall exalt and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak outrageous things against the God of gods. And he shall prosper until the indignation is accomplished; for that which is decreed shall be done. ³⁷Neither shall he regard the gods of his fathers, nor the one desired by women, nor show regard to any other god, because he shall magnify himself above all. ³⁸But instead he shall honor the god of fortresses; a god whom his fathers did not know shall he honor with gold and silver, and with valuable stones, and costly gifts. ³⁹And he shall deal with the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign god. Whoever acknowledges him he shall grant considerable honor; and he shall make them rulers over many, and shall divide the land for a price. ⁴⁰And at the time of the end shall the king of the south attack him. And the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall invade countries, and pass through like a flood. ⁴¹He shall enter also into the beautiful

land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall be delivered out of his hand: Edom, and Moab, and the foremost of the sons of Ammon. ⁴²He shall reach out his hand also on other countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. ⁴³But he shall have control over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the riches of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his feet. ⁴⁴But news out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; and he shall go out with tremendous rage to destroy and utterly sweep away many. ⁴⁵And he shall pitch his royal tents between the sea and the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he shall come to his end, with no one to help him.

12 “At that time shall Michael arise, the great prince who watches over the children of your people. And there shall be a time of distress unparalleled since the beginning of the nation until that time. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who shall be found written in the book. ²Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. ³And those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who turn many to righteousness like the stars forever and ever. ⁴But you, Daniel, close up these words, and seal the book, until the time of the end.

Many shall roam here and there, and knowledge shall increase.”

⁵Then I, Daniel, looked, and behold, two others stood, one on this bank of the river, and one on the other bank of the river. ⁶And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long shall it be till these wonders take place?” ⁷I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him who lives forever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when they have made an end of breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. ⁸And I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said, “My lord, what shall be the outcome of these things?” ⁹And he said, “Go your way, Daniel, for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end. ¹⁰Many shall be purified, cleansed and refined; but the wicked shall act wickedly. And none of the wicked shall understand, but those who are wise shall understand. ¹¹From the time that the daily sacrifice is taken away, and the abomination that causes desolation^a is set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred ninety days. ¹²Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred thirty-five days. ¹³But go your way until the end. For you shall rest, and shall rise to receive your reward at the end of the days.

Hosea

1 The word of the LORD that came to Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel. ²When the LORD spoke at the first by Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea, “Go, take for yourself a wife of prostitution and children of unfaithfulness; for the land commits great adultery, forsaking the LORD.”

³So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and bore him a son.

⁴The LORD said to him, “Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. ⁵It will happen in that day that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.”

⁶She conceived again, and bore a daughter.

Then he said to him, “Call her name Lo-Ruhamah^a; for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel, that I should in any way pardon them. ⁷But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen.”

⁸Now when she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived, and bore a son.

⁹He said, “Call his name Lo-Ammi^b; for you are not my people, and I will not be yours. ¹⁰Yet the number of the children of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, which can’t be measured nor numbered; and it will come to pass that, in the place where it was said to them, ‘You are not my people,’ they will be called ‘sons of the living God.’^c ¹¹The children of Judah and the children of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint themselves one head, and will go up from the land; for great will be the day of Jezreel.

2 “Say to your brothers, ‘My people!’^d and to your sisters, ‘My loved one!’^e ²Contend with your mother!

^a1:6 Lo-Ruhamah means “not loved”

^b1:9 Lo-Ammi means “not my people”

^c1:10 Romans 9:26

^d2:1 ‘Ammi’ in Hebrew

^e2:1 ‘Ruhamah’ in Hebrew

Contend, for she is not my wife,
neither am I her husband;
and let her put away her prostitution from her
face,
and her adulteries from between her breasts; ³Lest I strip her naked, and make her bare as in the day that she was born,
and make her like a wilderness,
and set her like a dry land,
and kill her with thirst.
⁴Indeed, on her children I will have no mercy;
for they are children of unfaithfulness;
⁵For their mother has played the
prostitute.
She who conceived them has done shamefully;
for she said, 'I will go after my lovers,
who give me my bread and
my water,
my wool and my flax,
my oil and my drink.'
⁶Therefore, behold, I will hedge up your way with thorns, and I will build a wall against her,
that she can't find her way.
⁷She will follow after her lovers, but she won't overtake them;
and she will seek them,
but won't find them.
Then she will say, 'I will go and return to my first husband;
for then was it better with me than now.'
⁸For she did not know that I gave her the grain, the new wine, and the oil,

and multiplied to her silver and gold, which they used for Baal.
⁹Therefore I will take back my grain in its time,
and my new wine in its season,
and will pluck away my wool and my flax
which should have covered her
nakedness.
¹⁰Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her
lovers,
and no one will deliver her out of my hand.
¹¹I will also cause all her celebrations to cease:
her feasts, her new moons,
her Sabbaths, and all her solemn assemblies.
¹²I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees,
about which she has said,
'These are my wages
that my lovers have given me;
and I will make them a forest,'
and the animals of the field
shall eat them.
¹³I will visit on her the days of the Baals,
to which she burned incense, when she decked herself with her earrings and her
jewels,
and went after her lovers,
and forgot me," says the
LORD.
¹⁴Therefore, behold, I will allure
her,
and bring her into the
wilderness,
and speak tenderly to her.

¹⁵I will give her vineyards from there, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope;
and she will respond there,
as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁶It will be in that day," says the LORD,
"that you will call me 'my husband,'
and no longer call me 'my master.'

¹⁷For I will take away the names of the Baals out of her mouth, and they will no longer be mentioned by name.

¹⁸In that day I will make a covenant for them with the animals of the field, and with the birds of the sky,
and with the creeping things of the ground.

I will break the bow, the sword,
and the battle out of the land,
and will make them lie down safely.

¹⁹I will betroth you to me forever.
Yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, in justice, in loving kindness, and in compassion.

²⁰I will even betroth you to me in faithfulness;
and you shall know the LORD.

²¹It will happen in that day, I will respond," says the LORD,

"I will respond to the heavens, and they will respond to the earth;

²²and the earth will respond to the grain, and the new wine, and the oil;
and they will respond to Jezreel.

²³I will sow her to me in the earth;
and I will have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy;
and I will tell those who were not my people,
'You are my people;'
and they will say, 'My God!'"^a

3 The LORD said to me, "Go again, love a woman loved by another, and an adulteress, even as the LORD loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods, and love cakes of raisins."

²So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer and a half of barley. ³I said to her, "You shall stay with me many days. You shall not play the prostitute, and you shall not be with any other man. I will also be so toward you."

⁴For the children of Israel shall abide many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without sacred stone, and without ephod or idols. ⁵Afterward the children of

^a2:23 Romans 9:25

Israel shall return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king, and shall come with trembling to the LORD and to his blessings in the last days.

4 Hear the word of the LORD, you children of Israel; for the LORD has a charge against the inhabitants of the land:
“Indeed there is no truth, nor goodness, nor knowledge of God in the land.
²There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery; they break boundaries, and bloodshed causes bloodshed.
³Therefore the land will mourn, and everyone who dwells therein will waste away, all living things in her, even the animals of the field and the birds of the sky;
yes, the fish of the sea also die.
⁴“Yet let no man bring a charge, neither let any man accuse; For your people are like those who bring charges against a priest.
⁵You will stumble in the day, and the prophet will also stumble with you in the night;
and I will destroy your mother.

⁶My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, that you may be no priest to me.
Because you have forgotten your God’s law,
I will also forget your children.
⁷As they were multiplied, so they sinned against me.
I will change their glory into shame.
⁸They feed on the sin of my people, and set their heart on their iniquity.
⁹It will be, like people, like priest; and I will punish them for their ways, and will repay them for their deeds.
¹⁰They will eat, and not have enough.
They will play the prostitute, and will not increase;
because they have abandoned giving to the LORD.
¹¹Prostitution, wine, and new wine take away understanding.
¹²My people consult with their wooden idol, and answer to a stick of wood.
Indeed the spirit of prostitution has led them astray,
and they have been unfaithful to their God.
¹³They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, and burn incense on the hills, under oaks and poplars and terebinths, because its shade is good.

 Therefore your daughters play the
 prostitute,
 and your brides commit
 adultery.

¹⁴I will not punish your daughters when they play the
 prostitute,
 nor your brides when they commit adultery;
 because the men consort with prostitutes,
 and they sacrifice with the shrine prostitutes;
 so the people without understanding will come to ruin.

¹⁵“Though you, Israel, play the
 prostitute,
 yet do not let Judah offend;
 and do not come to Gilgal, neither go up to Beth Aven, nor swear, ‘As the LORD
 lives.’”

¹⁶For Israel has behaved extremely stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer.
 Then how will the LORD
 feed them like a lamb
 in a meadow.

¹⁷Ephraim is joined to idols.
 Leave him alone!

¹⁸Their drink has become sour.
 They play the prostitute
 continually.
 Her rulers dearly love their shameful way.

¹⁹The wind has wrapped her up in its wings;
 and they shall be disappointed because of their sacrifices.

5 “Listen to this, you
 priests!
 Listen, house of Israel,
 and give ear, house of the
 king!
 For the judgment is against you;
 for you have been a snare at Mizpah,
 and a net spread on Tabor.

²The rebels are deep in slaughter;
 but I discipline all of them.

³I know Ephraim,
 and Israel is not hidden from
 me;
 for now, Ephraim, you have played the prostitute.
 Israel is defiled.

⁴Their deeds won’t allow them to turn to their God;
 for the spirit of prostitution is within them,
 and they do not know the
 LORD.

⁵The pride of Israel testifies to his face.
 Therefore Israel and Ephraim will stumble
 in their iniquity.
 Judah also will stumble with
 them.

⁶They will go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD;
 but they won’t find him.
 He has withdrawn himself
 from them.

⁷They are unfaithful to the LORD;
 for they have borne illegitimate children.
 Now the new moon will devour them with their fields.

⁸“Blow the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah!
Sound a battle cry at Beth Aven, behind you,
Benjamin!
⁹Ephraim will become a desolation in the day of rebuke.
Among the tribes of Israel, I have made known that which will surely be.
¹⁰The princes of Judah are like those who remove a landmark.
I will pour out my wrath on them like water.
¹¹Ephraim is oppressed,
he is crushed in judgment;
Because he is intent in his pursuit of idols.
¹²Therefore I am to Ephraim like a moth,
and to the house of Judah
like rotteness.
¹³“When Ephraim saw his sickness,
and Judah his wound,
Then Ephraim went to Assyria,
and sent to king Jareb:
but he is not able to heal you, neither will he cure you of your wound.
¹⁴For I will be to Ephraim like a lion,
and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I myself will tear in pieces and go
away.
I will carry off, and there will be no one to deliver.
¹⁵I will go and return to my place, until they acknowledge their offense,
and seek my face.

In their affliction they will seek me earnestly.”

6 “Come, and let us return to the LORD;
for he has torn us to
pieces,
and he will heal us;
he has injured us,
and he will bind up our wounds.
²After two days he will revive us.
On the third day he will raise us up,
and we will live before him.
³Let us acknowledge the LORD.
Let us press on to know the
LORD.
As surely as the sun rises,
The LORD will appear.
He will come to us like the rain,
like the spring rain that waters the earth.”

⁴“Ephraim, what shall I do to you?
Judah, what shall I do to
you?
For your love is like a morning cloud,
and like the dew that disappears early.
⁵Therefore I have cut them to pieces with the prophets;
I killed them with the words
of my mouth.
Your judgments are like a flash of lightning.
⁶For I desire mercy,^a and not
sacrifice;

^a6:6 LXX Vg P. MT (Hebrew: chesed) “goodness, love, kindness.” Matthew 9:13, 12:7

and the knowledge of God more than burnt
 offerings.
⁷But they, like Adam,^a have broken the covenant.
 They were unfaithful to me,
 there.
⁸Gilead is a city of those who work iniquity;
 it is stained with blood.
⁹As gangs of robbers wait to ambush a man,
 so the company of priests murder in the way toward Shechem, committing shameful
 crimes.
¹⁰In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing.
 There is prostitution in Ephraim.
 Israel is defiled.
¹¹“Also, Judah, there is a harvest appointed for you,
 when I restore the fortunes
 of my people.

7 When I would heal
 Israel,
 then the iniquity of Ephraim is uncovered,
 also the wickedness of Samaria;
 for they commit falsehood,
 and the thief enters in,
 and the gang of robbers ravages outside.
²They do not consider in their hearts that I remember
 all their wickedness.

Now their own deeds have engulfed them.
 They are before my face.
³They make the king glad with their wickedness,
 and the princes with their
 lies.
⁴They are all adulterers.
 They are burning like an oven that the baker stops stirring,
 from the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened.
⁵On the day of our king, the princes made themselves sick with the heat of wine.
 He joined his hand with mockers.
⁶For they have made ready their heart like an oven,
 while they lie in wait.
 Their baker sleeps all the
 night.
 In the morning it burns as a flaming fire.
⁷They are all hot as an oven,
 and devour their judges.
 All their kings have fallen.
 There is no one among them who calls to me.
⁸Ephraim, he mixes himself
 among the nations.
 Ephraim is a pancake not turned over.
⁹Strangers have devoured his
 strength,
 and he doesn't realize it.
 Indeed, gray hairs are here and there on him,
 and he doesn't realize it.
¹⁰The pride of Israel testifies to his face;
 yet they haven't returned to the LORD their God,

^a6:7 Or, “But they, at Adam.”

nor sought him, for all this.

¹¹“Ephraim is like an easily deceived dove,
without understanding.

They call to Egypt.

They go to Assyria.

¹²When they go, I will spread my net on them.

I will bring them down like the birds of the sky.

I will chastise them, as their congregation has heard.

¹³Woe to them!

For they have wandered
from me.

Destruction to them!

For they have trespassed
against me.

Though I would redeem them, yet they have spoken lies
against me.

¹⁴They haven’t cried to me with
their heart,
but they howl on their beds.

They assemble themselves for grain and new wine.

They turn away from me.

¹⁵Though I have taught and strengthened their arms,

yet they plot evil against me.

¹⁶They return, but not to the Most High.

They are like a faulty bow.
Their princes will fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue.

This will be their derision in
the land of Egypt.

8 “Put the trumpet to
your lips!
Something like an

eagle is over the

LORD’s house,

because they have broken
my covenant,

and rebelled against my law.

²They cry to me, ‘My God, we Israel acknowledge
you!’

³Israel has cast off that which is good.

The enemy will pursue him.

⁴They have set up kings, but not by me.

They have made princes,
and I did not approve.

Of their silver and their gold
they have made themselves idols,
that they may be cut off.

⁵Let Samaria throw out his calf idol!

My anger burns against
them!

How long will it be until they are capable of purity?

⁶For this is even from Israel!

The workman made it, and it is no God;

indeed, the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

⁷For they sow the wind, and they will reap the
whirlwind.

He has no standing grain.

The stalk will yield no head.
If it does yield, strangers will swallow it up.

⁸Israel is swallowed up.

Now they are among the nations like a worthless thing.

⁹For they have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey
wandering alone.

Ephraim has hired lovers for himself.
¹⁰But although they sold themselves among the nations,
 I will now gather them;
 and they begin to waste away because of the oppression of the king of mighty ones.
¹¹Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sinning, they became for him altars for sinning.
¹²I wrote for him the many things of my law;
 but they were regarded as a strange thing.
¹³As for the sacrifices of my offerings, they sacrifice flesh and eat it;
 But the LORD doesn't accept them.
 Now he will remember their iniquity, and punish their sins.
 They will return to Egypt.
¹⁴For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces;
 and Judah has multiplied fortified cities;
 but I will send a fire on his cities,
 and it will devour its fortresses."

9 Do not rejoice, Israel, to jubilation like the nations;
 for you were unfaithful to your God.

You love the wages of a prostitute at every grain threshing floor.
²The threshing floor and the winepress won't feed them, and the new wine will fail her.
³They won't dwell in the LORD's land;
 but Ephraim will return to Egypt,
 and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.
⁴They won't pour out wine offerings to the LORD, neither will they be pleasing to him.
 Their sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners;
 all who eat of it will be polluted;
 for their bread will be for their appetite.
 It will not come into the house of the LORD.
⁵What will you do in the day of solemn assembly, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?
⁶For, behold, they have gone away from destruction.
 Egypt will gather them up.
 Memphis will bury them.
 Nettles will possess their pleasant things of silver.
 Thorns will be in their tents.
⁷The days of visitation have come.
 The days of reckoning have come.
 Israel will consider the prophet to be a fool,
 and the man who is inspired to be insane,

because of the abundance of
your sins,
and because your hostility is great.

⁸A prophet watches over Ephraim with my God.

A fowler's snare is on all of his paths,
and hostility in the house of
his God.

⁹They have deeply corrupted
themselves,
as in the days of Gibeah.
He will remember their
iniquity.

He will punish them for their
sins.

¹⁰I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness.

I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig tree at its first season;
but they came to Baal Peor, and consecrated themselves to the shameful thing,

and became abominable like that which they loved.

¹¹As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird.

There will be no birth, none with child, and no conception.

¹²Though they bring up their
children,

yet I will bereave them, so that not a man shall be left.

Indeed, woe also to them when I depart from
them!

¹³I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant
place;

but Ephraim will bring out his children to the murderer.

¹⁴Give them—LORD what will you give?

Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

¹⁵“All their wickedness is in Gilgal;

for there I hated them.
Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of my
house!

I will love them no more.
All their princes are rebels.

¹⁶Ephraim is struck.

Their root has dried up.
They will bear no fruit.
Even though they bring forth, yet I will kill the beloved ones of their womb.”

¹⁷My God will cast them away, because they did not listen to him;
and they will be wanderers
among the nations.

10 Israel is a luxuriant vine that puts forth
his fruit.

According to the abundance of his fruit he has multiplied his altars.

As their land has prospered,
they have adorned
their sacred stones.

²Their heart is divided.

Now they will be found guilty.

He will demolish their altars.

- He will destroy their sacred stones.
- ³Surely now they will say, “We have no king; for we do not fear the LORD; and the king, what can he do for us?”
- ⁴They make promises, swearing falsely in making covenants.
Therefore judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.
- ⁵The inhabitants of Samaria will be in terror for the calves of Beth Aven; for its people will mourn over it, Along with its priests who rejoiced over it,
for its glory, because it has departed from it.
- ⁶It also will be carried to Assyria for a present to a great king.
Ephraim will receive shame, and Israel will be ashamed of his own counsel.
- ⁷Samaria and her king float away, like a twig on the water.
- ⁸The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed.
The thorn and the thistle will come up on their altars.
They will tell the mountains, “Cover us!” and the hills, “Fall on us!”^a
- ⁹“Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah.
- There they remained.
The battle against the children of iniquity doesn’t overtake them in Gibeah.
- ¹⁰When it is my desire, I will chastise them;
and the nations will be gathered against them, when they are bound to their two transgressions.
- ¹¹Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh;
so I will put a yoke on her beautiful neck.
I will set a rider on Ephraim.
Judah will plow.
Jacob will break his clods.
- ¹²Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap according to kindness.
Break up your fallow ground;
for it is time to seek the LORD,
until he comes and rains righteousness on you.
- ¹³You have plowed wickedness.
You have reaped iniquity.
You have eaten the fruit of lies,
for you trusted in your way,
in the multitude of your mighty men.
- ¹⁴Therefore a battle roar will arise among your people,
and all your fortresses will be destroyed,
as Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel in the day of battle.
The mother was dashed in pieces with her children.
- ¹⁵So Bethel will do to you because of your great wickedness.

^a10:8 Luke 23:30

At daybreak the king of Israel will be destroyed.

11 “When Israel was a child, then I loved
him,
and out of Egypt I called my son.^a

²They called to them, so they went
from them.

They sacrificed to the Baals, and burned incense to engraved images.

³Yet I taught Ephraim to walk.
I took them by his arms;
but they did not know that I healed them.

⁴I drew them with cords of a man, with ties of love;
and I was to them like those who lift up the yoke
on their necks;
and I bent down to him and I fed him.

⁵“They won’t return into the land
of Egypt;
but the Assyrian will be their
king,
because they refused to repent.

⁶The sword will fall on their cities, and will destroy the bars of their gates,
and will put an end to their plans.

⁷My people are determined to turn
from me.
Though they call to the Most High,

he certainly won’t exalt
them.

⁸“How can I give you up,
Ephraim?

How can I hand you over,
Israel?

How can I make you like Admah?

How can I make you like Zebaiim?

My heart is turned within me,
my compassion is aroused.

⁹I will not execute the fierceness of my anger.

I will not return to destroy Ephraim:

for I am God, and not man;
the Holy One in the midst of you;

and I will not come in wrath.

¹⁰They will walk after the LORD, who will roar like a lion;

for he will roar, and the children will come trembling from the west.

¹¹They will come trembling like a bird out of Egypt,

and like a dove out of the land of Assyria;

and I will settle them in their houses,” says the
LORD.

¹²Ephraim surrounds me with
falsehood,

and the house of Israel with deceit.

Judah still strays from God,
and is unfaithful to the Holy
One.

12 Ephraim feeds on
wind,

^a11:1 Matthew 2:15

and chases the east wind.
 He continually multiplies lies and desolation.
 They make a covenant with Assyria,
 and oil is carried into Egypt.
²The LORD also has a controversy with Judah,
 and will punish Jacob
 according to his ways;
 according to his deeds he will repay him.
³In the womb he took his brother
 by the heel;
 and in his manhood he contended with God.
⁴Indeed, he struggled with the angel, and prevailed;
 he wept, and made
 supplication to him.
 He found him at Bethel, and
 there he spoke with us, ⁵even the LORD, the God of
 hosts;
 The LORD is his name of renown!
⁶Therefore turn to your God.
 Keep kindness and justice, and wait continually for your
 God.
⁷A merchant has dishonest scales in his hand.
 He loves to defraud.
⁸Ephraim said, "Surely I have become rich,
 I have found myself wealth.
 In all my wealth they won't find in me any iniquity that is sin."
⁹"But I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt.
 I will yet again make you dwell in tents,

as in the days of the solemn feast.
¹⁰I have also spoken to the prophets,
 and I have multiplied
 visions;
 and by the ministry of the prophets I have used
 parables.
¹¹If Gilead is wicked,
 surely they are worthless.
 In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls.
 Indeed, their altars are like heaps in the furrows of the field.
¹²Jacob fled into the country of Aram,
 and Israel served to get a
 wife,
 and for a wife he tended flocks and herds.
¹³By a prophet the LORD brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was preserved.
¹⁴Ephraim has bitterly provoked
 anger.
 Therefore his blood will be left on him,
 and his Lord will repay his contempt.

13 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling.
 He exalted himself in Israel, but when he became guilty in Baal, he died.

²Now they sin more and more,
 and have made themselves molten images of their silver,
 even idols according to their own understanding,

all of them the work of the craftsmen.

They say of them, 'They offer human sacrifice
and kiss the calves.'

³Therefore they will be like the morning mist,
and like the dew that passes away early,
like the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing floor,
and like the smoke out of the chimney.

⁴'Yet I am the LORD your God^a from the land of Egypt;
and you shall acknowledge no god but me,
and besides me there is no
savior.

⁵I knew you in the wilderness,
in the land of great drought.

⁶According to their pasture, so were they filled;
they were filled, and their heart was exalted.

Therefore they have forgotten me.

⁷Therefore I am like a lion to
them.

Like a leopard, I will lurk by the path.

⁸I will meet them like a bear that is bereaved of her cubs,
and will tear the covering of
their heart.

There I will devour them like a lioness.

The wild animal will tear
them.

⁹You are destroyed, Israel, because you are against me,
against your help.

¹⁰Where is your king now, that he may save you in all your cities?

And your judges, of whom you said, 'Give me a king and princes?'

¹¹I have given you a king in my
anger,
and have taken him away in my wrath.

¹²The guilt of Ephraim is stored
up.

His sin is stored up.

¹³The sorrows of a travailing woman will come on
him.

He is an unwise son;
for when it is time, he doesn't come to the opening of the womb.

¹⁴I will ransom them from the power of Sheol.

I will redeem them from
death!

Death, where are your plagues?

Sheol, where is your sting^b?

'Compassion will be hidden from my eyes.

¹⁵Though he is fruitful among his brothers, an east wind will come,

^a13:4 DSS LXX add "that establishes the heaven, and creates the earth, whose hands have framed the whole host of heaven. But I did not show them to you that you should go after them, but I brought you up"

^b13:14 Or, destruction. 1 Corinthians 15:55

the breath of the LORD
 coming up from the
 wilderness;
 and his spring will become dry,
 and his fountain will be dried up.
 He will plunder the storehouse of treasure.
¹⁶Samaria will bear her guilt; for she has rebelled against her God.
 They will fall by the sword.
 Their infants will be dashed
 in pieces,
 and their pregnant women will be ripped open.”

14 Israel, return to the LORD your God;

for you have fallen
 because of your sin.

²Take words with you, and return to the LORD.

Tell him, “Forgive all our
 sins,
 and accept that which is
 good:
 so we offer our lips like bulls.

³Assyria can’t save us.

We won’t ride on horses;
 neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, ‘Our gods!’
 for in you the fatherless finds mercy.”

⁴“I will heal their waywardness.
 I will love them freely;
 for my anger is turned away
 from him.

⁵I will be like the dew to Israel.
 He will blossom like the lily,

and send down his roots like Lebanon.

⁶His branches will spread, and his beauty will be like the olive tree,
 and his fragrance like
 Lebanon.

⁷Men will dwell in his shade.
 They will revive like the grain,
 and blossom like the vine.
 Their fragrance will be like the wine of Lebanon.

⁸Ephraim, what have I to do any more with idols?
 I answer, and will take care of him.

I am like a green fir tree;
 from me your fruit is found.”

⁹Who is wise, that he may understand these
 things?

Who is prudent, that he may know them?

For the ways of the LORD
 are right,
 and the righteous walk in
 them;

But the rebellious stumble in
 them.

Joel

1 The Word of the LORD
 that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel.

²Hear this, you elders,
 And listen, all you
 inhabitants of the land.

Has this ever happened in your days,
or in the days of your fathers?
³Tell your children about it, and have your children tell their children,
and their children, another generation.
⁴What the swarming locust has left, the great locust has eaten.
What the great locust has left, the grasshopper has eaten.
What the grasshopper has left, the caterpillar has eaten.
⁵Wake up, you drunkards, and weep!
Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine;
for it is cut off from your mouth.
⁶For a nation has come up on my land, strong, and without number.
His teeth are the teeth of a lion,
and he has the fangs of a lioness.
⁷He has laid my vine waste, and stripped my fig tree.
He has stripped its bark, and thrown it away.
Its branches are made white.
⁸Mourn like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth!
⁹The meal offering and the drink offering are cut off from the LORD's house.
The priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.

¹⁰The field is laid waste.
The land mourns, for the grain is destroyed,
The new wine has dried up, and the oil languishes.
¹¹Be confounded, you farmers!
Wail, you vineyard keepers; for the wheat and for the barley;
for the harvest of the field has perished.
¹²The vine has dried up, and the fig tree withered;
the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all of the trees of the field are withered;
for joy has withered away from the sons of men.
¹³Put on sackcloth and mourn, you priests!
Wail, you ministers of the altar.
Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you ministers of my God, for the meal offering and the drink offering are withheld from your God's house.
¹⁴Sanctify a fast.
Call a solemn assembly.
Gather the elders, and all the inhabitants of the land, to the house of the LORD, your God, and cry to the LORD.
¹⁵Alas for the day!
For the day of the LORD is at hand,
and it will come as destruction from Shaddai.
¹⁶Isn't the food cut off before our eyes;

joy and gladness from the house of our God?
¹⁷The seeds rot under their clods.
The granaries are laid
desolate.
The barns are broken down, for the grain has withered.
¹⁸How the animals groan!
The herds of livestock are perplexed, because they have no pasture.
Yes, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.
¹⁹The LORD, I cry to you,
For the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness,
and the flame has burned all
the trees of the field.
²⁰Yes, the animals of the field pant
to you,
for the water brooks have
dried up,
And the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

2 Blow the trumpet in
Zion,
and sound an alarm in
my holy mountain!
Let all the inhabitants of the land
tremble,
for the day of the LORD
comes,
for it is close at hand:
²A day of darkness and gloominess,
a day of clouds and thick
darkness.
As the dawn spreading on the
mountains,
a great and strong people;
there has never been the like,

neither will there be any more after them,
even to the years of many
generations.
³A fire devours before them,
and behind them, a flame burns.
The land is as the garden of Eden
before them,
and behind them, a desolate
wilderness.
Yes, and no one has escaped them.
⁴The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses,
and as horsemen, so do they run.
⁵Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains
do they leap,
like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble,
as a strong people set in battle array.
⁶At their presence the peoples are in anguish.
All faces have grown pale.
⁷They run like mighty men.
They climb the wall like warriors.
They each march in his line,
and they do not swerve
off course.
⁸Neither does one jostle another;
they march everyone in his
path,
and they burst through the defenses,
and do not break ranks.
⁹They rush on the city.
They run on the wall.
They climb up into the houses.
They enter in at the windows like thieves.
¹⁰The earth quakes before them.

The heavens tremble.
The sun and the moon are
darkened,
and the stars withdraw their
shining.

¹¹The LORD thunders his voice
before his army;
for his forces are very great;
for he is strong who obeys
his command;
for the day of the LORD is great and very awesome,
and who can endure it?

¹²“Yet even now,” says the LORD, “turn to me with all
your heart,
and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning.”

¹³Tear your heart, and not your garments,
and turn to the LORD, your
God;
for he is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger, and abundant
in loving kindness,
and relents from sending
calamity.

¹⁴Who knows? He may turn and relent,
and leave a blessing behind
him,
even a meal offering and a drink offering to the LORD, your God.

¹⁵Blow the trumpet in Zion!
Sanctify a fast.
Call a solemn assembly.

¹⁶Gather the people.
Sanctify the assembly.
Assemble the elders.
Gather the children, and those who suck the breasts.

Let the bridegroom go forth from his room,
and the bride out of her chamber.

¹⁷Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep
between the porch and
the altar,
and let them say, “Spare
your people, LORD,
and do not give your heritage to reproach,
that the nations should rule
over them.

Why should they say among the
peoples,
“Where is their God?”

¹⁸Then the LORD was jealous for his land,
And had pity on his people.

¹⁹The LORD answered his people, “Behold, I will send you grain, new wine, and
oil,
and you will be satisfied
with them;
and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations.

²⁰But I will remove the northern army far away from
you,
and will drive it into a barren
and desolate land,
its front into the eastern sea,
and its back into the western
sea;
and its stench will come up,
and its bad smell will rise.”

Surely he has done great things.

²¹Land, do not be afraid.
Be glad and rejoice, for the LORD has done great
things.

²²Do not be afraid, you animals of
the field;

- for the pastures of the wilderness spring up,
for the tree bears its fruit.
The fig tree and the vine yield their strength.
- ²³“Be glad then, you children of
Zion,
and rejoice in the LORD,
your God;
for he gives you the former rain in just measure,
and he causes the rain to come down for you,
the former rain and the latter rain,
as before.
- ²⁴The threshing floors will be full of wheat,
and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.
- ²⁵I will restore to you the years that the swarming
locust has eaten,
the great locust, the grasshopper, and the
caterpillar,
my great army, which I sent
among you.
- ²⁶You will have plenty to eat, and
be satisfied,
and will praise the name of the LORD, your God,
who has dealt wondrously
with you;
and my people will never
again be disappointed.
- ²⁷You will know that I am in the midst of Israel,
and that I am the LORD, your God, and there is
no one else;
and my people will never
again be disappointed.
- ²⁸“It will happen afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh;
and your sons and your daughters will prophesy.
Your old men will dream dreams.
Your young men will see
visions.
- ²⁹And also on the servants and on the handmaids in those
days,
I will pour out my Spirit.
- ³⁰I will show wonders in the heavens and in the
earth:
blood, fire, and pillars of
smoke.
- ³¹The sun will be turned into
darkness,
and the moon into blood,
before the great and terrible day of the LORD
comes.
- ³²It will happen that whoever will call on the name of the LORD shall be saved;^a for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be those who escape,
as the LORD has said,
and among the remnant,
those whom the LORD
calls.
- 3 “For, behold, in those
days,
and in that time,
when I restore the fortunes
of Judah and
Jerusalem,

^a2:28-32 Acts 2:17-21; Romans 10:13

²I will gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat;
and I will execute judgment on them there for my
people,
and for my heritage, Israel, whom they have scattered among the
nations.
They have divided my land, ³and have cast lots for my
people,
and have given a boy for a
prostitute,
and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink.

⁴“Yes, and what are you to me,
Tyre, and Sidon,
and all the regions of Philistia?
Will you repay me?
And if you repay me,
I will swiftly and speedily return your repayment
on your own head.
⁵Because you have taken my silver and my gold,
and have carried my finest treasures into your temples,
⁶and have sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem to the sons of the Greeks,
that you may remove them
far from their border.
⁷Behold, I will stir them up out of the place where you have sold them,
and will return your repayment on your own head;

⁸and I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hands of the children
of Judah,
and they will sell them to the men of Sheba,
to a faraway nation,
for the LORD has spoken it.”

⁹Proclaim this among the nations:
“Prepare for war!
Stir up the mighty men.
Let all the warriors draw near.
Let them come up. ¹⁰Beat your plowshares into swords,
and your pruning hooks into spears.
Let the weak say, ‘I am strong.’”

¹¹Hurry and come, all you surrounding nations,
and gather yourselves
together.”
Cause your mighty ones to come down there, LORD.

¹²“Let the nations arouse
themselves,
and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat;
for there will I sit to judge all the surrounding
nations.

¹³Put in the sickle;
for the harvest is ripe.
Come, tread, for the winepress is full,
the vats overflow, for their wickedness is great.”

¹⁴Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision!
For the day of the LORD is near, in the valley of decision.

¹⁵The sun and the moon are
darkened,

and the stars withdraw their
shining.

¹⁶The LORD will roar from Zion, and thunder from Jerusalem;
and the heavens and the earth will shake;
but the LORD will be a refuge to his people,
and a stronghold to the children of Israel.

¹⁷“So you will know that I am the LORD, your God,
dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain.

Then Jerusalem will be holy,
and no strangers will pass through her any more.

¹⁸It will happen in that day, that the mountains will drop down sweet wine,
the hills will flow with milk,
all the brooks of Judah will flow with waters,
and a fountain will come forth from the house of
the LORD,
and will water the valley of Shittim.

¹⁹Egypt will be a desolation, and Edom will be a desolate
wilderness,
for the violence done to the children of Judah,
because they have shed innocent blood in their
land.

²⁰But Judah will be inhabited
forever,
and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

²¹I will cleanse their blood,
that I have not cleansed:
for the LORD dwells in Zion.”

Amos

1 The words of Amos,
who was among the
herdsmen of Tekoa,
which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. ²He said:

“The LORD will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from
Jerusalem;
and the pastures of the shepherds will mourn,
and the top of Carmel will wither.”

³Thus says the LORD:
“For three transgressions of Damascus, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron;

⁴but I will send a fire into the house of Hazael,
and it will devour the
palaces of Ben Hadad.

⁵I will break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven,
and him who holds the scepter from the house of Eden;
and the people of Syria shall go into captivity to Kir,”
says the LORD.

⁶Thus says the LORD:
“For three transgressions of Gaza,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because they carried away captive the whole community,
to deliver them up to Edom; ⁷but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza,
and it will devour its
palaces.
⁸I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod,
and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon;
and I will turn my hand against Ekron;
and the remnant of the Philistines will
perish,”
says the Lord GOD.

⁹Thus says the LORD:
“For three transgressions of Tyre,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because they delivered up the whole community
to Edom,
and did not remember the brotherly covenant;
¹⁰but I will send a fire on the wall
of Tyre,
and it will devour its
palaces.”

¹¹Thus says the LORD:
“For three transgressions of Edom,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;

because he pursued his brother with the
sword,
and cast off all pity,
and his anger raged
continually,
and he kept his wrath
forever;

¹²but I will send a fire on Teman,
and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah.”

¹³Thus says the LORD:
“For three transgressions of the children of Ammon,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because they have ripped open the pregnant
women of Gilead,
that they may enlarge their border.

¹⁴But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah,
and it will devour its
palaces,
with shouting in the day of battle,
with a storm in the day of the whirlwind;
¹⁵and their king will go into
captivity,
he and his princes together,”
says the LORD.

2 Thus says the LORD:
“For three transgressions of Moab, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because he burned the bones of the king of Edom
into lime;

²but I will send a fire on Moab,
and it will devour the palaces of Kerioth;
and Moab will die with tumult, with shouting,
and with the sound of
the trumpet;
³and I will cut off the judge from their midst,
and will kill all its princes
with him,”
says the LORD.

⁴Thus says the LORD:
“For three transgressions of Judah,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because they have rejected
the LORD’s law,
and have not kept his
statutes,
and their lies have led them
astray,
after which their fathers walked;

⁵But I will send a fire on Judah,
and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem.”

⁶Thus says the LORD:
“For three transgressions of Israel,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because they have sold the righteous for silver,
and the needy for a pair of shoes;

⁷They trample on the dust of the earth on the head
of the poor,
and deny justice to the
oppressed;

and a man and his father use the same maiden, to profane my holy
name;

⁸and they lay themselves down beside every altar on clothes taken
in pledge;
and in the house of their God they drink the wine of those who have been fined.

⁹Yet I destroyed the Amorite
before them,
whose height was like the height of the cedars,
and he was strong as the oaks;
yet I destroyed his fruit from
above,
and his roots from beneath.

¹⁰Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt,
and led you forty years in
the wilderness,
to possess the land of the Amorite.

¹¹I raised up some of your sons for
prophets,
and some of your young men for Nazirites.

Isn’t this true,
you children of Israel?” says
the LORD.

¹²“But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink,
and commanded the prophets, saying, ‘Do not prophesy!’

¹³Behold, I will crush you in your
place,
as a cart crushes that is full of grain.

¹⁴Flight will perish from the swift;
and the strong won’t strengthen his force;

neither shall the mighty deliver himself;
¹⁵neither shall he stand who handles the bow;
and he who is swift of foot
won't escape;
neither shall he who rides
the horse deliver
himself;

¹⁶and he who is courageous among the mighty will flee away naked on that
day,"
says the LORD.

3 Hear this word that the LORD has spoken
against you, children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saying:

²"You only have I chosen of all the families of the
earth.

Therefore I will punish you for all of your sins."

³Do two walk together,
unless they have agreed?

⁴Will a lion roar in the thicket, when he has no prey?

Does a young lion cry out of his den,
if he has caught nothing?

⁵Can a bird fall in a trap on the
earth,
where no snare is set for
him?

Does a snare spring up from the
ground,
when there is nothing to catch?

⁶Does the trumpet alarm sound in a city,
without the people being
afraid?

Does disaster happen to a city, unless the LORD has done it?

⁷Surely the Lord GOD will do
nothing,
unless he reveals his secret to his servants the prophets.

⁸The lion has roared.
Who will not fear?
The Lord GOD has spoken.

Who can but prophesy?
⁹Proclaim in the palaces at Ashdod,
and in the palaces in the land
of Egypt,
and say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria,
and see what unrest is in her,
and what oppression is
among them."

¹⁰"Indeed they do not know to do right," says the LORD,
"Who hoard plunder and loot in their palaces."

¹¹Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"An adversary will overrun the
land;
and he will pull down your
strongholds,
and your fortresses will be plundered."

¹²Thus says the LORD:
"As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion
two legs,
or a piece of an ear,
so shall the children of Israel be rescued who sit in Samaria on the corner
of a couch,

and on the silken cushions of a bed.”

¹³“Listen, and testify against the house of Jacob,” says the Lord GOD, the God of hosts.

¹⁴“For in the day that I visit the transgressions of Israel
on him,

I will also visit the altars of Bethel;
and the horns of the altar
will be cut off,
and fall to the ground.

¹⁵I will strike the winter house with the summer
house;
and the houses of ivory will
perish,
and the great houses will have an end,”
says the LORD.

4 Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who tell their husbands, “Bring us drinks!”

²The Lord GOD has sworn by his holiness that behold,
“The days shall come on you that they will take you away with hooks,
and the last of you with fish
hooks.

³You will go out at the breaks in the wall,
everyone straight before her;
and you will cast yourselves into Harmon,” says the LORD.

⁴“Go to Bethel, and sin;
to Gilgal, and sin more.

Bring your sacrifices every
morning,
your tithes every three days, ⁵offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened,
and proclaim free will offerings and brag
about them:
for this pleases you, you
children of Israel,”
says the Lord GOD.

⁶“I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities,
and lack of bread in every town;
yet you haven’t returned to
me,” says the LORD.

⁷“I also have withheld the rain
from you,
when there were yet three months to the harvest;
and I caused it to rain on one
city,
and caused it not to rain on another city.

One place was rained on,
and the piece where it did not rain withered.

⁸So two or three cities staggered to one city to drink
water,
and were not satisfied:
yet you haven’t returned to
me,” says the LORD.

⁹“I struck you with blight and mildew many times in your gardens and your
vineyards;
and your fig trees and your olive trees have the swarming locust
devoured:
yet you haven’t returned to
me,” says the LORD.

¹⁰“I sent plagues among you like I did Egypt.
I have slain your young men
with the sword,
and have carried away your horses;
and I filled your nostrils with the stench of your
camp,
yet you haven’t returned to
me,” says the LORD.
¹¹“I have overthrown some of you,
as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah,
and you were like a burning stick plucked out of
the fire;
yet you haven’t returned to
me,” says the LORD.
¹²“Therefore thus will I do to you,
Israel;
because I will do this to you,
prepare to meet your God,
Israel.
¹³For, behold, he who forms the
mountains,
and creates the wind,
and declares to man what is
his thought;
who makes the morning
darkness,
and treads on the high places
of the earth:
The LORD, the God of hosts, is his name.”

5 Listen to this word which I take up for a lamentation over you,

O house of Israel.

²“The virgin of Israel has fallen;
She shall rise no more.
She is cast down on her land;
there is no one to raise her
up.”

³For thus says the Lord
GOD:
“The city that went forth a thousand shall have a hundred left,
and that which went forth one hundred shall have ten left to the house of Israel.”

⁴For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel:

“Seek me, and you will live;
⁵but do not seek Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal,
and do not pass to Beersheba:
for Gilgal shall surely go into
captivity,
and Bethel shall come to
nothing.

⁶Seek the LORD, and you will live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph,
and it devour, and there be no one to quench it in Bethel.

⁷You who turn justice to wormwood,
and cast down righteousness
to the earth:

⁸seek him who made the Pleiades and Orion,
and turns the shadow of death into the
morning,
and makes the day dark with
night;

who calls for the waters of
the sea,
and pours them out on the surface of the earth,
the LORD is his name,

⁹who brings sudden destruction on the strong,

so that destruction comes on the fortress.

¹⁰They hate him who reproves in
the gate,
and they abhor him who speaks blamelessly.

¹¹Forasmuch therefore as you trample on the poor,
and take taxes from him of
wheat:
You have built houses of cut
stone,
but you will not dwell in
them.
You have planted pleasant
vineyards,
but you shall not drink their
wine.

¹²For I know how many your offenses,
and how great are your sins—
you who afflict the just,
who take a bribe,
and who turn aside the needy in the courts.

¹³Therefore a prudent person keeps silent in such a time,
for it is an evil time.

¹⁴Seek good, and not evil, that you may live;
and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with
you,
as you say.

¹⁵Hate evil, love good,
and establish justice in the courts.
It may be that the LORD, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.”

¹⁶Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord:

“Wailing will be in all the broad
ways;
and they will say in all the streets, ‘Alas! Alas!’ and they will call the farmer to mourning,
and those who are skillful in lamentation to wailing.

¹⁷In all vineyards there will be wailing;
for I will pass through the midst of you,” says the
LORD.

¹⁸“Woe to you who desire the day
of the LORD!
Why do you long for the day
of the LORD?
It is darkness,
and not light.

¹⁹As if a man fled from a lion,
and a bear met him;
Or he went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall,
and a serpent bit him.

²⁰Won’t the day of the LORD be darkness, and not
light?
Even very dark, and no brightness in it?

²¹I hate, I despise your feasts, and I can’t stand your solemn assemblies.

²²Yes, though you offer me your burnt offerings and meal offerings,
I will not accept them;
neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat animals.

²³Take away from me the noise of your songs!
I will not listen to the music of your harps.

²⁴But let justice roll on like rivers, and righteousness like a mighty stream.

²⁵“Did you bring to me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, house of Israel? ²⁶You also carried along Sikkuth^a your king^b and Kiyyun^c, the star of your god, your images that you made for yourselves. ²⁷Therefore I will cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus,” says the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts.^d

6 Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who are secure on the mountain of Samaria, the notable men of the chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel come!

²Go to Calneh, and see; and from there go to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines.

Are they better than these kingdoms?

Or is their border greater than your border?

³Those who put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;

⁴Who lie on beds of ivory, and stretch themselves on their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

⁵who strum on the strings of a harp; who invent for themselves instruments of music, like David;

⁶who drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the best oils; but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

⁷Therefore they will now go captive with the first who go captive; and the feasting and lounging will end.

⁸“The Lord GOD has sworn by himself,” says the LORD, the God of hosts:

“I abhor the pride of Jacob, and detest his fortresses. Therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it.

⁹It will happen, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

¹⁰“When a man’s relative carries him, even he who burns him, to bring bodies out of the house, and asks him who is in the innermost parts of the house, ‘Is there yet any with you?’ And he says, ‘No;’ then he will say,

^a5:26 LXX Symmachus P Vg read “tabernacle”

^b5:26 LXX Vg read “Moloch”

^c5:26 LXX reads “Rephan,” a Coptic Egyptian word (Repha) which along with the MT Hebrew “Kiyyun” are names for the planet Saturn.

^d5:27 Acts 7:42-43

‘Hush! Indeed we must not mention the name of the LORD.’

¹¹“For, behold, the LORD commands, and the great house will be smashed to pieces, and the little house into bits.

¹²Do horses run on the rocky crags?
Does one plow there with oxen?

But you have turned justice into poison,
and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness;

¹³you who rejoice in a thing of nothing, who say, ‘Haven’t we taken for ourselves horns by our own strength?’

¹⁴For, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, house of Israel,” says the LORD, the God of hosts;

“and they will afflict you from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of the Arabah.”

7 Thus the Lord GOD showed me: and behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and behold, it was the latter growth after the king’s harvest. ²It happened that, when they made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, “Lord GOD, forgive, I beg you! How could Jacob stand? For he is small.”

³The LORD relented concerning this. “It shall not be,” says the LORD.

⁴Thus the Lord GOD showed me and behold, the Lord GOD called for judgment by fire; and it dried up the great deep, and would have devoured the land. ⁵Then I said, “Lord GOD, stop, I beg you! How could Jacob stand? For he is small.”

⁶The LORD relented concerning this. “This also shall not be,” says the Lord GOD.

⁷Thus he showed me and behold, the Lord stood beside a wall made by a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. ⁸The LORD said to me, “Amos, what do you see?”

I said, “A plumb line.”

Then the Lord said, “Behold, I will set a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more. ⁹The high places of Isaac will be desolate, the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.”

¹⁰Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, “Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words. ¹¹For Amos says, ‘Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.”

¹²Amaziah also said to Amos, “You seer, go, flee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: ¹³but do not prophesy again any more at Bethel; for it is the king’s sanctuary, and it is a royal house!”

¹⁴Then Amos answered Amaziah, “I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet’s son; but I was a herdsman, and a farmer of sycamore figs; ¹⁵and the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, ‘Go, prophesy to my people Israel.’ ¹⁶Now therefore listen to the word of the LORD: ‘You say, Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not proclaim against the house of Isaac.’ ¹⁷Therefore thus says the LORD: ‘Your wife shall be a prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line; and you yourself shall die in a land that is unclean, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.’”

8 Thus the Lord GOD showed me: behold, a basket of summer fruit.

²He said, “Amos, what do you see?”

I said, “A basket of summer fruit.”

Then the LORD said to me,

“The end has come on my people Israel.

I will not again pass by them any more.

³The songs of the temple will be wailings in that day,” says the Lord GOD.

“The dead bodies will be many. In every place they will throw them out with silence.

⁴Hear this, you who desire to swallow up the needy, and cause the poor of the land to fail, ⁵Saying, ‘When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell grain?

And the Sabbath, that we may market wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel large, and dealing falsely with balances of deceit;

⁶that we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes, and sell the sweepings with the wheat?”

⁷The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob,

“Surely I will never forget any of their works.

⁸Won’t the land tremble for this, and everyone mourn who dwells in it?

Yes, it will rise up wholly like the River;

and it will be stirred up and sink again, like the River of Egypt.

⁹It will happen in that day,” says the Lord GOD,

“that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day.

¹⁰I will turn your feasts into
mourning,
and all your songs into lamentation;
and I will make you wear sackcloth on all your bodies,
and baldness on every head.
I will make it like the mourning for an only son,
and its end like a bitter day.
¹¹Behold, the days come," says the Lord GOD,
"that I will send a famine in
the land,
not a famine of bread,
nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of
the LORD.
¹²They will wander from sea to
sea,
and from the north even to
the east;
they will run back and forth to seek the word of the LORD,
and will not find it.
¹³In that day the beautiful virgins and the young men will faint for thirst.
¹⁴Those who swear by the sin of Samaria,
and say, 'As your god, Dan,
lives;'
and, 'As the way of Beersheba lives;'
they will fall, and never rise up again."

9 I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and he said, "Strike the tops of the pillars, that the thresholds may shake; and break them in pieces on the head of all of them; and I will kill the last of them with the sword: there shall not one of them flee away, and there shall not one of them escape. ²Though they dig into Sheol, there my hand will take them; and though they climb up to heaven, there I will bring them down. ³Though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out there; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent, and it will bite them. ⁴Though they go into captivity before their enemies, there I will command the sword, and it will kill them. I will set my eyes on them for disaster, and not for good. ⁵For the Lord,

the LORD of hosts, is he who touches the land and it melts, and all who dwell in it will mourn; and it will rise up wholly like the River, and will sink again, like the River of Egypt. ⁶It is he who builds his chambers in the heavens, and has founded his vault on the earth; he who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth; the LORD is his name. ⁷Are you not like the children of the Ethiopians to me, children of Israel?" says the LORD. "Haven't I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir? ⁸Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the surface of the earth; except that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob," says the LORD. ⁹"For, behold, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all the nations, as grain is sifted in a sieve, yet not the least kernel will fall on the earth.¹⁰ All the sinners of my people will die by the sword, who say, ‘Evil won’t overtake nor meet us.’¹¹ In that day I will raise up the tent of David who is fallen, and close up its breaches, and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old;¹² that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations who are called by my name,”^a says the LORD who does this.

^{13c}“Behold, the days come,” says the LORD,

“that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the one treading grapes him who sows seed; and sweet wine will drip from the mountains, and flow from the hills.

¹⁴I will bring my people Israel back from captivity, and they will rebuild the ruined cities, and inhabit them; and they will plant vineyards, and drink wine from them.

They shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

¹⁵I will plant them on their land, and they will no more be plucked up out of their land which I have given them,” says the LORD your God.

^a9:12 LXX reads “that the remnant of men, and all the Gentiles/nations upon whom my name is called, may earnestly seek me” Acts 15:16-17

Obadiah

1 The vision of Obadiah. This is what the Lord GOD says about Edom.

We have heard news from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, “Arise, and let’s rise up against her in battle.”² Behold, I have made you small among the nations. You are greatly despised.³ The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high, who says in his heart, ‘Who will bring me down to the ground?’⁴ Though you mount on high as the eagle, and though your nest is set among the stars, I will bring you down from there,” says the LORD.⁵ “If thieves came to you, if robbers by night— oh, what disaster awaits you— wouldn’t they only steal until they had enough? If grape pickers came to you, wouldn’t they leave some gleaning grapes?”⁶ How Esau will be ransacked! How his hidden treasures are sought out!⁷ All the men of your alliance have brought you on your way, even to the border. The men who were at peace with you have deceived you, and prevailed against you. Friends who eat your bread lay a snare under you. There is no understanding in him.”

⁸“Won’t I in that day,” says the LORD, “destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mountain of Esau?”

⁹Your mighty men, Teman, will be dismayed, to the end that everyone may be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter. ¹⁰For the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever. ¹¹In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his substance, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots for Jerusalem, even you were like one of them. ¹²But do not look down on your brother in the day of his disaster, and do not rejoice over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction. Do not speak proudly in the day of distress. ¹³Do not enter into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity. Do not look down on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither seize their wealth on the day of their calamity. ¹⁴Do not stand in the crossroads to cut off those of his who escape. Do not deliver up those of his who remain in the day of distress. ¹⁵For the day of the LORD is near all the nations! As you have done, it will be done to you. Your deeds will return upon your own head. ¹⁶For as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so will all the nations drink continually. Yes, they will drink, swallow down, and will be as though they had not been. ¹⁷But in Mount Zion, there will be those who escape, and it will be holy. The house of Jacob will possess their possessions. ¹⁸The house of Jacob will be a fire, the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble. They will burn among them, and devour them.

There will not be any remaining to the house of Esau.” Indeed, the LORD has spoken.

¹⁹Those of the Negev will possess the mountain of Esau, and those of the lowland, the Philistines. They will possess the field of Ephraim, and the field of Samaria. Benjamin will possess Gilead. ²⁰The captives of this army of the children of Israel, who are among the Canaanites, will possess even to Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev. ²¹Saviors will go up on Mount Zion to judge the mountains of Esau, and the kingdom will be the LORD’s.

Jonah

1 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, ²“Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim against it, for their wickedness has come up before me.”

³But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid its fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. ⁴But the LORD sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty storm on the sea, so that the ship was likely to break up. ⁵Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man to his god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten it. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and he was laying down, and was fast asleep. ⁶So the shipmaster came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your God^a! Maybe your God^b will notice us, so that we won't perish."

⁷They all said to each other, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is on us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. ⁸Then they asked him, "Tell us, please, for whose cause this evil is on us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? Of what people are you?"

⁹He said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land."

¹⁰Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "What is this that you have done?" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them. ¹¹Then said they to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm to us?" For the sea grew more and more stormy. ¹²He said to them, "Take me up, and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you; for I know that because of me this great storm is on you."

¹³Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they could not, for the sea grew more and more stormy against them. ¹⁴Therefore they cried to the LORD, and said, "We beg you, LORD, we beg you, let us not perish for this man's life, and do not lay on us innocent blood; for you, LORD, have done as it pleased you." ¹⁵So they took up Jonah, and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased its raging. ¹⁶Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD, and made vows.

¹⁷The LORD prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2 Then Jonah prayed to the LORD, his God, out of the fish's belly. ²He said,
 "I called because of my affliction to the LORD.
 He answered me.
 Out of the belly of Sheol I cried.
 You heard my voice.
³For you threw me into the depths,
 in the heart of the seas.
 The flood was all around me.
 All your waves and your billows passed over me.

^a1:6 Or, gods

^b1:6 Or, gods

⁴I said, ‘I have been banished from your sight;
yet I will look again toward
your holy temple.’

⁵The waters surrounded me, even to the soul.
The deep was around me.

The weeds were wrapped around my head.

⁶I went down to the bottoms of the mountains.
The earth barred me in
forever:
yet have you brought up my life from the pit, LORD
my God.

⁷“When my soul fainted within me, I remembered the
LORD.

My prayer came in to you,
into your holy temple.

⁸Those who regard worthless things forsake their faithfulness.

⁹But I will sacrifice to you with the voice of
thanksgiving.

I will pay that which I have vowed.

Salvation belongs to the LORD.”

¹⁰The LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah on the dry land.

3 The word of the LORD
came to Jonah the second time, saying,

²“Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I give you.”

³So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days’ journey across. ⁴Jonah began to enter into the city a day’s journey, and he cried out, and said, “Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!”

⁵The people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. ⁶The news reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and took off his royal robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. ⁷He made a proclamation and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, “Let neither man nor animal, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water; ⁸but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and animal, and let them cry mightily to God. Yes, let them turn everyone from his evil way, and from the violence that is in his hands. ⁹Who knows whether God will not turn and relent, and turn away from his fierce anger, so that we might not perish?”

¹⁰God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way.
God relented of the disaster which he said he would do to them, and he did not do it.

4 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry. ²He prayed
to the LORD, and said, “Please, LORD, wasn’t this what I said

Micah 1

when I was still in my own country? Therefore I hurried to flee to Tarshish, for I knew that you are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and you relent of doing harm. ³Therefore now, LORD, take, I beg you, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.”

⁴The LORD said, “Is it right for you to be angry?”

⁵Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made himself a booth, and sat under it in the shade, until he might see what would become of the city. ⁶The LORD God prepared a vine, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the vine. ⁷But God prepared a worm at dawn the next day, and it chewed on the vine, so that it withered. ⁸It happened, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah’s head, so that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

⁹God said to Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry about the vine?”

He said, “I am right to be angry, even to death.”

¹⁰The LORD said, “You have been concerned for the vine, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night. ¹¹Shouldn’t I be concerned for Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred twenty thousand persons who can’t discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much livestock?”

Micah

1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

²Hear, you peoples, all of you.

Listen, O earth, and all that is therein:

and let the Lord GOD be witness against you,
the Lord from his holy temple.

³For, behold, the LORD comes forth out of his place, and will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.

⁴The mountains melt under him, and the valleys split apart, like wax before the fire, like waters that are poured down a steep place.

⁵“All this is for the disobedience
of Jacob,
and for the sins of the house
of Israel.
What is the disobedience of Jacob?
Isn't it Samaria?
And what are the high places of Judah?
Aren't they Jerusalem?
⁶Therefore I will make Samaria like a rubble heap of
the field,
like places for planting
vineyards;
and I will pour down its stones
into the valley,
and I will uncover its foundations.
⁷All her idols will be beaten to
pieces,
and all her temple gifts will be burned with fire,
and all her images I will destroy;
for of the hire of a prostitute has
she gathered them,
and to the hire of a prostitute shall they return.”
⁸For this I will lament and wail;
I will go stripped and naked;
I will howl like the jackals, and moan like the daughters of owls.
⁹For her wounds are incurable;
for it has come even to Judah.
It reaches to the gate of my people,
even to Jerusalem.
¹⁰Do not tell it in Gath.
Do not weep at all.

At Beth Ophrah^a I have rolled myself in the dust.
¹¹Pass on, inhabitant of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame.
The inhabitant of Zaanan won't come out.
The wailing of Beth Ezel will take from you his protection.
¹²For the inhabitant of Maroth waits anxiously for
good,
because evil has come down from the LORD to the gate of Jerusalem.
¹³Harness the chariot to the swift steed, inhabitant of Lachish.
She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of
Zion;
For the transgressions of Israel were found in
you.
¹⁴Therefore you will give a parting gift to Moresheth Gath.
The houses of Achzib will be a deceitful thing to the kings of Israel.
¹⁵I will yet bring to you, inhabitant of Mareshah.
He who is the glory of Israel will come to Adullam.
¹⁶Shave your heads,
and cut off your hair for the children of your delight.
Enlarge your baldness like the vulture;

^a1:10 Beth Ophrah means literally “House of Dust”

for they have gone into captivity from you!

2 Woe to those who
devise iniquity
and work evil on their beds!

When the morning is light, they practice it,
because it is in the power of
their hand.

²They covet fields, and seize them;
and houses, and take them
away:

and they oppress a man and his house,
even a man and his heritage.

³Therefore thus says the LORD: “Behold, I am planning against these people a disaster, from which you will not remove your necks,
neither will you walk
haughtily;
for it is an evil time.

⁴In that day they will take up a parable against you,
and lament with a doleful lamentation, saying, “We are utterly ruined!
My people’s possession is divided up.

Indeed he takes it from me and assigns our fields to traitors!”

⁵Therefore you will have no one who divides the land
by lot in the assembly
of the LORD.

⁶“Do not prophesy!”
They prophesy.

“Do not prophesy about these things.

Disgrace won’t overtake us.”

⁷Shall it be said, O house of Jacob:

“Is the Spirit of the LORD angry?

Are these his doings?
Do not my words do good to him who walks
blamelessly?”

⁸But lately my people have risen up as an enemy.

You strip the robe and clothing from those who pass by without a care, returning from battle.

⁹You drive the women of my people out from their pleasant houses;
from their young children you take away my blessing forever.

¹⁰Arise, and depart!
For this is not your resting
place,
because of uncleanness that destroys,
even with a grievous
destruction.

¹¹If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood lies:

“I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink;”
he would be the prophet of this people.

¹²I will surely assemble, Jacob, all of you;

I will surely gather the remnant of Israel;

I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah,
as a flock in the midst of
their pasture;

they will swarm with people.

¹³The breaker goes up before
them.

They break through the gate,
and go out.

And their king passes on
before them,
with the LORD at their head.

3 I said,
“Please listen, you
heads of Jacob,
and rulers of the house of
Israel:

Isn't it for you to know
justice?

²You who hate the good,
and love the evil;
who tear off their skin,
and their flesh from off their
bones;

³who also eat the flesh of my
people,
and flay their skin from off
them,
and break their bones,
and chop them in pieces, as for the pot,
and as flesh within the caldron.

⁴Then they will cry to the LORD,
but he will not answer them.
Yes, he will hide his face from them at that time,
because they made their deeds evil.”

⁵Thus says the LORD
concerning the prophets who lead my people astray; for those who feed their teeth, they proclaim, “Peace!” and whoever doesn't provide for their mouths, they prepare war against him:

⁶“Therefore night is over you, with no vision,
and it is dark to you, that you may not divine;
and the sun will go down on the prophets,

and the day will be black
over them.

⁷The seers shall be disappointed, and the diviners confounded.
Yes, they shall all cover their lips;
for there is no answer from
God.”

⁸But as for me, I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD,
and of judgment, and of
might,
to declare to Jacob his
disobedience,
and to Israel his sin.

⁹Please listen to this, you heads of the house of Jacob,
and rulers of the house of
Israel,
who abhor justice,
and pervert all equity.

¹⁰They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

¹¹Her leaders judge for bribes, and her priests teach for a price,
and her prophets of it tell fortunes for money:
yet they lean on the LORD, and
say, “Isn't the LORD in the midst of us?

No disaster will come on
us.”

¹²Therefore Zion for your sake will be plowed like a
field,
and Jerusalem will become heaps of rubble,
and the mountain of the temple like the high places of a forest.

4 But in the latter days, it will happen that the mountain of the LORD's temple will be established on the top

of the mountains,
and it will be exalted above
the hills;
and peoples will stream to it.
²Many nations will go and say,
"Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the
LORD,
and to the house of the God
of Jacob;
and he will teach us of his
ways,
and we will walk in his
paths."
For out of Zion will go forth the
law,
and the word of the LORD
from Jerusalem;
³and he will judge between many
peoples,
and will decide concerning strong nations afar off.
They will beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning
hooks.
Nation will not lift up sword against nation,
neither will they learn war
any more.
⁴But they will sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree;
and no one will make them
afraid:
For the mouth of the LORD
of hosts has spoken.
⁵Indeed all the nations may walk in the name
of their gods;
but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God
forever and ever.

⁶"In that day," says the LORD,
"I will assemble that which is lame,
and I will gather that which is driven away,
and that which I have
afflicted;
⁷and I will make that which was lame a remnant,
and that which was cast far off a strong nation:
and the LORD will reign over them on Mount Zion from then on,
even forever."
⁸You, tower of the flock, the hill of the daughter of
Zion,
to you it will come,
yes, the former dominion will come,
the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.
⁹Now why do you cry out aloud?
Is there no king in you?
Has your counselor perished, that pains have taken hold of you as of a woman in travail?
¹⁰Be in pain, and labor to bring forth, daughter of
Zion,
like a woman in travail;
for now you will go forth out
of the city,
and will dwell in the field,
and will come even to Babylon.
There you will be rescued.
There the LORD will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.
¹¹Now many nations have assembled against you,
that say,
"Let her be defiled,

and let our eye gloat over
Zion.”

¹²But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD, neither do they understand his counsel;
for he has gathered them like the sheaves to the threshing floor.
¹³Arise and thresh, daughter of
Zion;
for I will make your horn
iron,
and I will make your hoofs
brass;
and you will beat in pieces many
peoples:
and I will devote their gain to the LORD,
and their substance to the Lord of the whole
earth.

5 Now you shall gather yourself in troops,
daughter of troops.

He has laid siege against us.
They will strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek.

²But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, being small among the clans
of Judah,
out of you one will come forth to me that is to be ruler in Israel;
whose goings forth are from of old, from everlasting.^a

³Therefore he will abandon them until the time that she who is in labor gives birth.

Then the rest of his brothers will return to the children of Israel.

⁴He shall stand, and shall shepherd in the strength of the LORD,

in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God:

and they will live, for then he will be great to the ends of the earth.

⁵He will be our peace when Assyria invades our
land,

and when he marches
through our fortresses, then we will raise against him seven shepherds,
and eight leaders of men.

⁶They will rule the land of Assyria
with the sword,
and the land of Nimrod in its gates.

He will deliver us from the Assyrian,
when he invades our land,
and when he marches within our border.

⁷The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many
peoples,
like dew from the LORD,
like showers on the grass,
that do not wait for man,
nor wait for the sons of men.

⁸The remnant of Jacob will be
among the nations,
in the midst of many
peoples,
like a lion among the animals of the forest,
like a young lion among the flocks of sheep;

^aMatthew 2:6

Micah 6

who, if he goes through, treads down and tears
in pieces,
and there is no one to deliver.

⁹Let your hand be lifted up above your adversaries,
and let all of your enemies
be cut off.

¹⁰“It will happen in that day,” says
the LORD,
“That I will cut off your horses out of the midst
of you,
and will destroy your
chariots.

¹¹I will cut off the cities of your
land,
and will tear down all your
strongholds.

¹²I will destroy witchcraft from
your hand;
and you shall have no
soothsayers.

¹³I will cut off your engraved images and your pillars out of your
midst;
and you shall no more worship the work of
your hands.

¹⁴I will uproot your Asherim out of your midst;
and I will destroy your cities.

¹⁵I will execute vengeance in
anger,
and wrath on the nations that did not listen.”

6 Listen now to what the LORD says:
“Arise, plead your case before the mountains,

and let the hills hear what you have to say.

²Hear, you mountains, the LORD’s controversy,
and you enduring
foundations of the
earth;
for the LORD has a controversy with his
people,
and he will contend with
Israel.

³My people, what have I done to
you?
How have I burdened you?
Answer me!

⁴For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt,
and redeemed you out of the house of bondage.
I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

⁵My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised,
and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him
from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of the LORD.”

⁶How shall I come before the LORD,
and bow myself before the exalted God?
Shall I come before him with burnt
offerings,
with calves a year old?

⁷Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams?
With tens of thousands of rivers of oil?
Shall I give my firstborn for my disobedience?

The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

⁸He has shown you, O man, what
is good.

What does the LORD require of you, but to act justly,
to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your
God?

⁹The LORD's voice calls to the
city,
and wisdom sees your name:

“Listen to the rod,
and he who appointed it.

¹⁰Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked,
and a short ephah^a that is accursed?

¹¹Shall I be pure with dishonest scales,
and with a bag of deceitful
weights?

¹²Her rich men are full of violence, her inhabitants speak lies,
and their tongue is deceitful
in their speech.

¹³Therefore I also have struck you with a grievous wound.

I have made you desolate
because of your sins.

¹⁴You shall eat, but not be satisfied.

Your humiliation will be in
your midst.

You will store up, but not
save;

and that which you save I will give up to the
sword.

¹⁵You will sow, but won't reap.

You will tread the olives, but won't anoint yourself
with oil;
and crush grapes, but won't drink the wine.

¹⁶For the statutes of Omri are kept,
and all the works of the house of Ahab.

You walk in their counsels,
that I may make you a ruin,
and her inhabitants a hissing;
And you will bear the reproach of my
people.”

7 Misery is mine!
Indeed, I am like one who gathers the summer fruits, as gleanings of the
vineyard:

There is no cluster of grapes
to eat.

My soul desires to eat the early fig.

²The godly man has perished out
of the earth,
and there is no one upright
among men.

They all lie in wait for
blood;
every man hunts his brother with a net.

³Their hands are on that which is evil to do it diligently.
The ruler and judge ask for a bribe;

and the powerful man
dictates the evil desire of his soul.

^a6:10 An ephah is a measure of volume, and a short ephah is made smaller than a full ephah for the purpose of cheating customers

Micah 7

Thus they conspire together.
⁴The best of them is like a brier.
The most upright is worse than a thorn hedge.
The day of your watchmen, even your visitation, has
come;
now is the time of their confusion.
⁵Do not trust in a neighbor.
Do not put confidence in a friend.
With the woman lying in your embrace,
be careful of the words of
your mouth!
⁶For the son dishonors the father, the daughter rises up against her mother,
the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
a man's enemies are the men of his own house.
⁷But as for me, I will look to the
LORD.
I will wait for the God of my
salvation.
My God will hear me.
⁸Do not rejoice against me, my
enemy.
When I fall, I will arise.
When I sit in darkness, the LORD will be a light to
me.
⁹I will bear the indignation of the LORD,
because I have sinned
against him,
until he pleads my case, and executes judgment for
me.
He will bring me forth to the light.
I will see his righteousness.
¹⁰Then my enemy will see it, and shame will cover her who said to me,

where is the LORD your
God?
Then my enemy will see me and will cover her shame.
Now she will be trodden down like the mire of
the streets.
¹¹A day to build your walls—
In that day, he will extend your boundary.
¹²In that day they will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt,
and from Egypt even to the River,
and from sea to sea,
and mountain to mountain.
¹³Yet the land will be desolate because of those who
dwell therein,
for the fruit of their doings.
¹⁴Shepherd your people with your staff,
the flock of your heritage, who dwell by themselves in a forest,
in the midst of fertile pasture land, let them feed;
in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.
¹⁵“As in the days of your coming forth out of the land of Egypt,
I will show them marvelous
things.”
¹⁶The nations will see and be ashamed of all their
might.
They will lay their hand on their mouth.
Their ears will be deaf.
¹⁷They will lick the dust like a serpent.

Like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their dens.

They will come with fear to the LORD our God,
and will be afraid because of
you.

¹⁸Who is a God like you, who pardons iniquity,
and passes over the disobedience of the remnant of his heritage?

He doesn't retain his anger
forever,
because he delights in loving
kindness.

¹⁹He will again have compassion on us.
He will tread our iniquities
under foot;
and you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

²⁰You will give truth to Jacob, and mercy to Abraham,
as you have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

adversaries, and he maintains wrath against his enemies. ³The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. The LORD has his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

⁴He rebukes the sea, and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers.
Bashan languishes, and Carmel;
and the flower of Lebanon languishes. ⁵The mountains quake before him, and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at his presence, yes, the world, and all who dwell in it. ⁶Who can stand before his indignation? Who can endure the fierceness of his anger?

His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by
him. ⁷The LORD is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knows those who take refuge in him. ⁸But with an overflowing flood, he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into darkness.

⁹What do you plot against the LORD? He will make a full end.
Affliction won't rise up the second time. ¹⁰For entangled like thorns, and drunk as with their drink, they are consumed utterly like dry stubble. ¹¹There is one gone forth out of you, who devises evil against the LORD, who counsels wickedness. ¹²Thus says the LORD: "Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so they will be cut down, and he shall pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more. ¹³Now will I break his yoke from off you, and will burst your bonds apart." ¹⁴The LORD has

Nahum

1 An oracle about Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum
the Elkoshite. ²The LORD is a jealous God and avenges. The LORD avenges and is full of wrath.
The LORD takes vengeance on his commanded concerning you: “No more descendants will bear your name. Out of the house of your gods, will I cut off the engraved image and the molten image. I will make your grave, for you are vile.”

¹⁵Behold, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace! Keep your feasts, Judah! Perform your vows, for the wicked one will no more pass through you. He is utterly cut off.

2 He who dashes in pieces has come up against you. Keep the fortress! Watch the way! Strengthen your waist! Fortify your power mightily! ²For the LORD restores the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel; for the destroyers have destroyed them, and ruined their vine branches. ³The shield of his mighty men is made red. The valiant men are in scarlet. The chariots flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the pine spears are brandished. ⁴The chariots rage in the streets. They rush back and forth in the broad ways. Their appearance is like torches. They run like the lightnings. ⁵He summons his picked troops. They stumble on their way. They dash to its wall, and the protective shield is put in place. ⁶The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved. ⁷It is decreed: she is uncovered, she is carried away; and her handmaids moan as with the voice of doves, beating on their breasts. ⁸But Nineveh has been from of old like a pool of water, yet they flee away. “Stop! Stop!” they cry, but no one looks back. ⁹Take the spoil of silver. Take the spoil of gold, for there is no end of the store, the glory of all goodly furniture. ¹⁰She is empty, void, and waste. The heart melts, the knees knock together, their bodies and faces have grown pale. ¹¹Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion’s cubs, and no one made them afraid? ¹²The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with the kill, and his dens with prey. ¹³“Behold, I am against you,” says the LORD of hosts, “and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions; and I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard.”

3 Woe to the bloody city! It is all full of lies and robbery. The prey doesn’t depart. ²The noise of the whip, the noise of the rattling of wheels, prancing horses, and bounding chariots, ³the horseman mounting, and the flashing sword, the glittering spear, and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is no end of the bodies. They stumble on their bodies, ⁴because of the multitude of the prostitution of the alluring prostitute, the mistress of witchcraft, who sells nations through her prostitution, and families through her witchcraft. ⁵“Behold, I am against you,” says the LORD of hosts, “and I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame. ⁶I will throw abominable filth on you, and make you vile, and will set you a spectacle. ⁷It will happen that all those who look at you will flee from you, and say, ‘Nineveh is laid waste! Who will mourn for her?’ Where will I seek comforters for you?”

⁸Are you better than No-Amon,^a who was situated among the rivers, who had the waters around her; whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was of the sea? ⁹Cush and Egypt were her boundless strength. Put and Libya were her helpers. ¹⁰Yet was she carried away. She went into captivity. Her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets, and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains. ¹¹You also will be drunk. You will be hidden. You also will seek a stronghold because of the enemy. ¹²All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the first-ripe figs: if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. ¹³Behold, your troops in your midst are women. The gates of your land are set wide open to your enemies. The fire has devoured your bars. ¹⁴Draw water for the siege. Strengthen your fortresses. Go into the clay, and tread the mortar. Make the brick kiln strong. ¹⁵There the fire will devour you. The sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the grasshopper. Multiply like grasshoppers. Multiply like the locust. ¹⁶You have increased your merchants more than the stars of the skies. The grasshopper strips, and flees away. ¹⁷Your guards are like the locusts, and your officials like the swarms of locusts, which settle on the walls on a cold day, but when the sun appears, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are. ¹⁸Your shepherds slumber, king of Assyria. Your nobles lie down. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them. ¹⁹There is no healing your wound, for your injury is fatal. All who hear the report of you clap their hands over you; for who hasn’t felt your endless cruelty?

Habakkuk

1 The oracle which Habakkuk the prophet saw. ²LORD, how long will I cry, and you will not hear? I cry out to you “Violence!” and will you not save? ³Why do you show me iniquity, and look at perversity? For destruction and violence are before me. There is strife, and contention rises up.

^a3:8 Or, Thebes

⁴Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice never goes forth; for the wicked surround the righteous; therefore justice goes forth perverted.

⁵“Look among the nations,^a watch, and wonder marvelously;^b for I am working a work in your days, which you will not believe though it is told you.^c ⁶For, behold, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the breadth of the earth, to possess dwelling places that are not theirs. ⁷They are feared and dreaded. Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. ⁸Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves. Their horsemen press proudly on. Yes, their horsemen come from afar. They fly as an eagle that hurries to devour. ⁹All of them come for violence. Their hordes face the desert. He gathers prisoners like sand. ¹⁰Yes, he scoffs at kings, and princes are a derision to him. He laughs at every stronghold, for he builds up an earthen ramp, and takes it. ¹¹Then he sweeps by like the wind, and goes on. He is indeed guilty, whose strength is his god.”

¹²Aren't you from everlasting, LORD my God, my Holy One? We will not die. LORD, you have appointed him for judgment. You, Rock, have established him to punish. ¹³You who have purer eyes than to see evil, and who cannot look on perversity, why do you tolerate those who deal treacherously, and keep silent when the wicked swallows up the man who is more righteous than he, ¹⁴and make men like the fish of the sea, like the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? ¹⁵He takes up all of them with the hook. He catches them in his net, and gathers them in his dragnet. Therefore he rejoices and is glad. ¹⁶Therefore he sacrifices to his net, and burns incense to his dragnet, because by them his life is luxurious, and his food is good. ¹⁷Will he therefore continually empty his net, and kill the nations without mercy?

2 I will stand at my watch, and set myself on the ramparts, and will look out to see what he will say to me, and what I will answer concerning my complaint.

²The LORD answered me, “Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that he who runs may read it. ³For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hurries toward the end, and won't prove false. Though it takes time, wait for it; because it will surely come. It won't delay. ⁴Behold, his soul is puffed up. It is not upright in him, but the righteous will live by his faith. ⁵Yes, moreover, wine is treacherous. A haughty man who doesn't stay at home, who enlarges his desire as Sheol, and he is like death, and can't be satisfied, but gathers to himself all nations, and heaps to himself all peoples. ⁶Won't all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, 'Woe to him who increases that which is not his, and who enriches himself by extortion! How long?' ⁷Won't your debtors rise up suddenly, and wake up those who make you tremble, and you will be their victim? ⁸Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you, because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all who dwell in it. ⁹Woe to him who gets an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! ¹⁰You have devised shame to your house, by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your soul. ¹¹For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the woodwork will answer it. ¹²Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by iniquity! ¹³Behold, isn't it of the LORD of hosts that the peoples labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for vanity? ¹⁴For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

^a1:5 DSS LXX P read “Look, you treacherous”

^b1:5 LXX adds “and vanish”

^c1:5 Acts 13:41

¹⁵Woe to him who gives his neighbor drink, pouring your inflaming wine until they are drunk, so that you may gaze at their naked bodies! ¹⁶You are filled with shame, and not glory. You will also drink, and be exposed! The cup of the LORD's right hand will come around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory. ¹⁷For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction of the animals, which made them afraid; because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to every city and to those who dwell in them.

¹⁸What value does the engraved image have, that its maker has engraved it; the molten image, even the teacher of lies, that he who fashions its form trusts in it, to make mute idols? ¹⁹Woe to him who says to the wood, 'Arise!' or to the mute stone, 'Arise!' Shall this teach? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in its midst. ²⁰But the LORD is in his holy temple. Let all the earth be silent before him!"

3 A prayer of Habakkuk, the prophet, set to victorious music.

²LORD, I have heard of your fame.

I stand in awe of your deeds,
LORD.

Renew your work in the midst of the years.

In the midst of the years
make it known.

In wrath, you remember
mercy.

³God came from Teman,
the Holy One from Mount Paran.

Selah.

His glory covered the heavens, and his praise filled the

earth.
⁴His splendor is like the sunrise.
Rays shine from his hand, where his power is hidden.
⁵Plague went before him, and pestilence followed his
feet.
⁶He stood, and shook the earth.
He looked, and made the nations tremble.
The ancient mountains were crumbled.
The age-old hills collapsed.
His ways are eternal.
⁷I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction.
The dwellings of the land of Midian trembled.
⁸Was the LORD displeased with the rivers?
Was your anger against the
rivers,
or your wrath against the
sea,
that you rode on your horses,
on your chariots of
salvation?
⁹You uncovered your bow.
You called for your sworn arrows.
Selah.
You split the earth with rivers.
¹⁰The mountains saw you, and were afraid.
The storm of waters passed by.
The deep roared and lifted up its hands on high.
¹¹The sun and moon stood still in
the sky,
at the light of your arrows as they went,
at the shining of your glittering spear.

¹²You marched through the land in
wrath.
You threshed the nations in
anger.
¹³You went forth for the salvation of your people,
for the salvation of your
anointed.
You crushed the head of the land of wickedness.
You stripped them head to foot.
Selah.
¹⁴You pierced the heads of his warriors with their own spears.
They came as a whirlwind to scatter me,
gloating as if to devour the wretched in secret.
¹⁵You trampled the sea with your horses,
churning mighty waters.
¹⁶I heard, and my body trembled.
My lips quivered at the voice.
Rottenness enters into my bones, and I tremble in my
place,
because I must wait quietly
for the day of trouble, for the coming up of the people who invade us.
¹⁷For though the fig tree doesn't
flourish,
nor fruit be in the vines;
the labor of the olive fails,
the fields yield no food;
the flocks are cut off from the fold,
and there is no herd in the stalls:
¹⁸yet I will rejoice in the LORD.
I will be joyful in the God of
my salvation!

¹⁹The LORD, the Lord, is my strength.
He makes my feet like deer's feet,
and enables me to go in high places.

For the music director, on my stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

1 The word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah, the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah, the son of Amon, king of Judah. ²I will utterly sweep away everything off of the surface of the earth, says the LORD. ³I will sweep away man and animal. I will sweep away the birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and the heaps of rubble with the wicked. I will cut off man from the surface of the earth, says the LORD. ⁴I will stretch out my hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place: the name of the idolatrous and pagan priests, ⁵those who worship the army of the sky on the housetops, those who worship and swear by the LORD and also swear by Malcam, ⁶those who have turned back from following the LORD, and those who haven't sought the LORD nor inquired after him. ⁷Be silent at the presence of the Lord GOD, for the day of the LORD is at hand. For the LORD has prepared a sacrifice. He has consecrated his guests. ⁸It will happen in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, the king's sons, and all those who are clothed with foreign clothing. ⁹In that day, I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and deceit. ¹⁰In that day, says the LORD, there will be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. ¹¹Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the people of Canaan are undone! All those who were loaded with silver are cut off. ¹²It will happen at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the men who are settled on their dregs, who say in their heart, "The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil." ¹³Their wealth will become a spoil, and their houses a desolation. Yes, they will build houses, but won't inhabit them. They will plant vineyards, but won't drink their wine. ¹⁴The great day of the LORD is near. It is near, and hurries greatly, the voice of the day of the LORD. The mighty man cries there bitterly. ¹⁵That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness, ¹⁶a day of the trumpet and alarm, against the fortified cities, and against the high battlements. ¹⁷I will bring distress on men, that they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD, and their blood will be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. ¹⁸Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath, but the whole land will be devoured by the fire of his jealousy; for he will make an end, yes, a terrible end, of all those who dwell in the land.

2 Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, you nation that has no shame, ²before the appointed time when the day passes as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD comes on you, before the day of the LORD's anger comes on you. ³Seek the LORD, all you humble of the land, who have kept his ordinances. Seek righteousness. Seek humility. It may be that you will be hidden in the day of the LORD's anger. ⁴For Gaza will be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation. They will drive out Ashdod at noonday, and Ekron will be rooted up. ⁵Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! The word of the LORD is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines. I will destroy you, that there will be no inhabitant. ⁶The sea coast will be pastures, with cottages for shepherds and folds for flocks. ⁷The coast will be for the remnant of the house of Judah. They will find pasture. In the houses of Ashkelon, they will lie down in the evening, for the LORD, their God, will visit them, and restore them. ⁸I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the insults of the children of Ammon, with which they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border. ⁹Therefore as I live, says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, surely Moab will be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, a possession of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation. The remnant of my people will plunder them, and the survivors of my nation will inherit them. ¹⁰This they will have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts. ¹¹The LORD will be awesome to them, for he will famish all the gods of the land. Men will worship him, everyone from his place, even all the shores of the nations. ¹²You Cushites also, you will be killed by my sword. ¹³He will stretch out his hand against the north, destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, as dry as the wilderness. ¹⁴Herds will lie down in the midst of her, all the animals of the nations. Both the pelican and the porcupine will lodge in its capitals. Their calls will echo through the windows. Desolation will be in the thresholds, for he has laid bare the cedar beams. ¹⁵This is the joyous city that lived carelessly, that said in her heart, "I am, and there is none besides me." How she has become a desolation, a place for animals to lie down in! Everyone who passes by her will hiss, and shake their fists.

3 Woe to her who is rebellious and polluted, the oppressing city!
²She did not obey the voice. She did not receive correction. She did not trust in the LORD. She did not draw near to her God. ³Her princes in the midst of her are roaring lions. Her judges are evening wolves. They leave nothing until the next day. ⁴Her prophets are arrogant and treacherous people. Her priests have profaned the sanctuary. They have done violence to the law. ⁵The LORD, in the midst of her, is righteous. He will do no wrong. Every morning he brings his justice to light. He doesn't fail, but the unjust know no shame. ⁶I have cut off nations. Their battlements are desolate. I have made their streets waste, so that no one passes by. Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is no inhabitant. ⁷I said, "Just fear me. Receive correction, so that her dwelling won't be cut off, according to all that I have appointed concerning her." But they rose early and corrupted all their doings. ⁸"Therefore wait for me," says the LORD, "until the day that I rise up to the prey, for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour on them my indignation, even all my fierce anger, for all the earth will be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. ⁹For then I will purify the lips of the peoples, that they may all call on the name of the LORD, to serve him shoulder to shoulder. ¹⁰From beyond the rivers of Cush, my worshipers, even the daughter of my dispersed people, will bring my offering. ¹¹In that day you will not be disappointed for all your doings, in which you have transgressed against me; for then I will take away out of the midst of you your proudly exulting ones, and you will no more be haughty in my holy mountain. ¹²But I will leave in the midst of you an afflicted and poor people, and they will take refuge in the name of the LORD. ¹³The remnant of Israel will not do iniquity, nor speak lies, neither will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth, for they will feed and lie down, and no one will make them afraid."

¹⁴Sing, daughter of Zion! Shout, Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem. ¹⁵The LORD has taken away your judgments. He has thrown out your enemy. The King of Israel, the LORD, is in the midst of you. You will not be afraid of evil any more. ¹⁶In that day, it will be said to Jerusalem, "Do not be afraid, Zion. Do not let your hands be weak." ¹⁷The LORD your God is in your midst, a mighty one who will save. He will rejoice over you with joy. He will calm you in his love. He will rejoice over you with singing. ¹⁸I will remove those who grieve about the appointed feasts from you. They are a burden and a reproach to you. ¹⁹Behold, at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you, and I will save those who are lame, and gather those who were driven away. I will give them praise and honor, whose shame has been in all the earth.

²⁰At that time will I bring you in, and at that time will I gather you; for I will give you honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says the LORD.

Haggai

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, the Word of the LORD came by Haggai, the prophet, to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, ²“This is what the LORD of hosts says: These people say, ‘The time hasn’t yet come, the time for the LORD’s house to be built.’”

³Then the Word of the LORD came by Haggai, the prophet, saying, ⁴“Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies waste? ⁵Now therefore this is what the LORD of hosts says: Consider your ways. ⁶You have sown much, and bring in little. You eat, but you do not have enough. You drink, but you aren’t filled with drink. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm, and he who earns wages earns wages to put them into a bag with holes in it.”

⁷This is what the LORD of hosts says: “Consider your ways.

⁸Go up to the mountain, bring wood, and build the house. I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified,” says the LORD. ⁹“You looked for much, and, behold, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?” says the LORD of hosts, “Because of my house that lies waste, while each of you is busy with his own house. ¹⁰Therefore for your sake the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit. ¹¹I called for a drought on the land, on the mountains, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on that which the ground brings forth, on men, on livestock, and on all the labor of the hands.”

¹²Then Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD, their God, and the words of Haggai, the prophet, as the LORD, their God, had sent him; and the people feared the LORD.

¹³Then Haggai, the LORD’s messenger, spoke the LORD’s message to the people, saying, “I am with you,” says the LORD.

¹⁴The LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, ¹⁵in the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

2 In the seventh month, in the twenty-first day of the month, the Word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying, ²“Speak now to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, ³“Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Isn’t it in your eyes as nothing? ⁴Yet now be strong, Zerubbabel,” says the LORD. “Be strong, Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,” says the LORD, “and work, for I am with you,” says the LORD of hosts. ⁵This is the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit lived among you. ‘Do not be afraid.’ ⁶For this is what the LORD of hosts says: ‘Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, the earth,^a the sea, and the dry land; ⁷and I will shake all nations. The precious things of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of hosts. ⁸The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,’ says the LORD of hosts. ⁹“The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,” says the LORD of hosts; ‘and in this place will I give peace,’ says the LORD of hosts.”

^a2:6 Hebrews 12:26

¹⁰In the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the Word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying, ¹¹“Thus says the LORD of hosts: Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, ¹²“If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and with his fold touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any food, will it become holy?””

The priests answered, “No.”

¹³Then Haggai said, “If one who is unclean by reason of a dead body touch any of these, will it be unclean?”

The priests answered, “It will be unclean.”

¹⁴Then Haggai answered, “‘So is this people, and so is this nation before me,’ says the LORD; ‘and so is every work of their hands. That which they offer there is unclean. ¹⁵Now, please consider from this day and backward, before a stone was laid on a stone in the temple of the LORD. ¹⁶Through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty, there were only twenty. ¹⁷I struck you with blight, mildew, and hail in all the work of your hands; yet you did not turn to me,’ says the LORD. ¹⁸Consider, please, from this day and backward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider it. ¹⁹Is the seed yet in the barn? Yes, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree haven't brought forth. From this day will I bless you."

²⁰The Word of the LORD came the second time to Haggai in the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying, ²¹"Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, 'I will shake the heavens and the earth. ²²I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms. I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overthrow the chariots, and those who ride in them. The horses and their riders will come down, everyone by the sword of his brother. ²³In that day, says the LORD of hosts, will I take you, Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel,' says the LORD, 'and will make you as a signet, for I have chosen you,' says the LORD of hosts."

Zechariah

1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, ²"The LORD was very displeased with your fathers. ³Therefore tell them: Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Return to me,' says the LORD of hosts, 'and I will return to you,' says the LORD of hosts. ⁴Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, saying: Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'Return now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings;' but they did not hear, nor listen to me, says the LORD. ⁵Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? ⁶But my words and my decrees, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did not they overtake your fathers?

"Then they repented and said, 'Just as the LORD of hosts determined to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our practices, so he has dealt with us.'" ⁷On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, ⁸"I had a vision in the night, and behold, a man riding on a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in a ravine; and behind him there were red, brown, and white horses. ⁹Then I asked, 'My lord, what are these?'"

The angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these are."

¹⁰The man who stood among the myrtle trees answered, "They are the ones the LORD has sent to go back and forth through the earth."

¹¹They reported to the angel of the LORD who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, “We have walked back and forth through the earth, and behold, all the earth is at rest and in peace.”

¹²Then the angel of the LORD replied, “O LORD of hosts, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which you have had indignation these seventy years?”

¹³The LORD answered the angel who talked with me with kind and comforting words. ¹⁴So the angel who talked with me said to me, “Proclaim, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. ¹⁵I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for I was but only a little angry, but they added to the calamity.” ¹⁶Therefore thus says the LORD: “I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy. My house shall be built in it,” says the LORD of hosts, “and a line shall be stretched forth over Jerusalem.””

¹⁷“Proclaim further, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “My cities will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion, and will again choose Jerusalem.””’

¹⁸I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four horns. ¹⁹I asked the angel who talked with me, “What are these?”

He answered me, “These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”

²⁰The LORD showed me four craftsmen. ²¹Then I asked, “What are these coming to do?”

He said, “These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up his head; but these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it.”

2 I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand. ²Then I asked, “Where are you going?”

He said to me, “To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its breadth and what is its length.”

³Behold, the angel who talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, ⁴and said to him, “Run, speak to this young man, saying, ‘Jerusalem will be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it. ⁵For I,’ says the LORD, ‘will be to her a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory in the midst of her. ⁶Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north,’ says the LORD; ‘for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the sky,’ says the LORD. ⁷‘Come, Zion! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon.’ ⁸For thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘For honor he has sent me to the nations which plundered you; for he who touches you touches the apple of his eye. ⁹For, behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they will be a spoil to those who served them; and you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me. ¹⁰Sing and rejoice, daughter of Zion; for, behold, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of you,' says the LORD. ¹¹Many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. ¹²The LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem. ¹³Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD; for he has roused himself from his holy habitation!"

3 He showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to be his adversary. ²The LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you, Satan! Yes, the LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Isn't this a burning stick plucked out of the fire?"

³Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the angel. ⁴He answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, "Take the filthy garments off of him." To him he said, "Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with rich clothing."

⁵I said, "Let them set a clean turban on his head."

So they set a clean turban on his head, and clothed him; and the angel of the LORD was standing by. ⁶The angel of the LORD protested to Joshua, saying, ⁷"Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'If you will walk in my ways, and if you will follow my instructions, then you also shall judge my house, and shall also keep my courts, and I will give you a place of access among these who stand by. ⁸Hear now, Joshua the high priest, you and your fellows who sit before you; for they are men who are a sign: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant, the Branch. ⁹For, behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes: behold, I will engrave its engraving,' says the LORD of hosts, 'and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. ¹⁰In that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'you will invite every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig tree.'"

4 The angel who talked with me came again, and wakened me, as a man who is wakened out of his sleep. ²He said to me, "What do you see?"

I said, "I have seen, and behold, a lampstand all of gold, with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps thereon; there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are on the top of it; ³and two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on the left side of it.”

⁴I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, “What are these, my lord?”

⁵Then the angel who talked with me answered me, “Do you not know what these are?”

I said, “No, my lord.”

⁶Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, “This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel, saying, ‘Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit,’ says the LORD of hosts. ⁷Who are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you are a plain; and he will bring out the capstone with shouts of ‘Grace, grace, to it!’”

⁸Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁹“The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house. His hands shall also finish it; and you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. ¹⁰Indeed, who despises the day of small things? For these seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. These are the eyes of the LORD, which run back and forth through the whole earth.”

¹¹Then I asked him, “What are these two olive trees on the right side of the lampstand and on the left side of it?”

¹²I asked him the second time, “What are these two olive branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that pour the golden oil out of themselves?”

¹³He answered me, “Do you not know what these are?”

I said, “No, my lord.”

¹⁴Then he said, “These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth.”

5 Then again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a flying scroll. ²He said to me, “What do you see?”

I answered, “I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its breadth ten cubits.”

³Then he said to me, “This is the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off according to it on the one side; and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to it on the other side. ⁴I will cause it to go out,” says the LORD of hosts, “and it will enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who swears falsely by my name; and it will remain in the midst of his house, and will destroy it with its timber and its stones.”

⁵Then the angel who talked with me came forward, and said to me, “Lift up now your eyes, and see what is this that is appearing.”

⁶I said, “What is it?”

He said, “This is the ephah^a basket that is appearing.” He said moreover, “This is their appearance in all the land ⁷(and behold, a talent^b of lead was lifted up); and this is a woman sitting in the midst of the ephah basket.”

⁸He said, “This is Wickedness;” and he threw her down into the midst of the ephah basket; and he threw the weight of lead on its mouth.

⁹Then lifted I up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there were two women, and the wind was in their wings. Now they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah basket between earth and the sky. ¹⁰Then said I to the angel who talked with me, “Where are these carrying the ephah basket?”

¹¹He said to me, “To build her a house in the land of Shinar. When it is prepared, she will be set there in her own place.”

^a5:6 An ephah is a measure of volume of about 22 litres, 5.8 U. S. gallons, 4.8 imperial gallons, or a bit more than half a bushel

^b5:7 A talent is a weight of about 34 kilograms or 75 pounds

6 Again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four chariots came out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass. ²In the first chariot were red horses; in the second chariot black horses; ³in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot dappled horses, all of them powerful. ⁴Then I asked the angel who talked with me, “What are these, my lord?”

⁵The angel answered me, “These are the four winds of the sky, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. ⁶The one with the black horses goes out toward the north country; and the white went out after them; and the dappled went forth toward the south country.” ⁷The strong went out, and sought to go that they might walk back and forth through the earth: and he said, “Go around and through the earth!” So they walked back and forth through the earth.

⁸Then he called to me, and spoke to me, saying, “Behold, those who go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.”

⁹The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁰“Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah; and come the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, where they have come from Babylon. ¹¹Yes, take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest; ¹²and speak to him, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: and he shall grow up out of his place; and he shall build the temple of the LORD; ¹³even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on his throne; and he shall be a priest on his throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. ¹⁴The crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the LORD. ¹⁵Those who are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD; and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. This will happen, if you will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.”’”

7 It happened in the fourth year of king Darius that the word of the LORD came to Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Chislev. ²The people of Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem Melech, and their men, to entreat the LORD’s favor, ³and to speak to the priests of the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, “Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?”

⁴Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

⁵“Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month for these seventy years, did you at all fast to me, really to me?’ ⁶When you eat, and when you drink, do you not eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? ⁷Aren’t these the words which the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and its cities around her, and the Negev and the lowland were inhabited?’”

⁸The word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying, ⁹“Thus has the LORD of hosts spoken, saying, ‘Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every man to his brother. ¹⁰Do not oppress the widow, nor the fatherless, the foreigner, nor the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart.’ ¹¹But they refused to listen, and turned their backs, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear. ¹²Yes, they made their hearts as hard as flint, lest they might hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by his Spirit by the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from the LORD of hosts. ¹³It has come to pass that, as he called, and they refused to listen, so they will call, and I will not listen,” said the LORD of hosts; ¹⁴“but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no man passed through nor returned: for they made the pleasant land desolate.”

8 The word of the LORD of hosts came to me.

²Thus says the LORD of hosts: “I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath.”

³Thus says the LORD: “I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Jerusalem shall be called ‘The City of Truth;’ and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, ‘The Holy Mountain.’”

⁴Thus says the LORD of hosts: “Old men and old women will again dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand for very age. ⁵The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets.”

⁶Thus says the LORD of hosts: “If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvelous in my eyes?” says the LORD of hosts.

⁷Thus says the LORD of hosts: “Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; ⁸and I will bring them, and they will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.”

⁹Thus says the LORD of hosts: “Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets who were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, even the temple, that it might be built. ¹⁰For before those days there was no wages for man, nor any wages for an animal; neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in, because of the adversary. For I set all men everyone against his neighbor. ¹¹But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days,” says the LORD of hosts. ¹²“For the seed of peace and the vine will yield its fruit, and the ground will give its increase, and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. ¹³It shall come to pass that, as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and you shall be a blessing. Do not be afraid. Let your hands be strong.”

¹⁴For thus says the LORD of hosts: “As I thought to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath,” says the LORD of hosts, “and I did not repent; ¹⁵so again have I thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not be afraid. ¹⁶These are the things that you shall do: speak every man the truth with his neighbor. Execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates, ¹⁷and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor, and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate,” says the LORD.

¹⁸The word of the LORD of hosts came to me. ¹⁹Thus says the LORD of hosts: “The fasts of the fourth fifth, seventh, and tenth months shall be for the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts. Therefore love truth and peace.”

²⁰Thus says the LORD of hosts: “Many peoples, and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come; ²¹and the inhabitants of one shall go to another, saying, ‘Let us go speedily to entreat the favor of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts. I will go also.’ ²²Yes, many peoples and strong nations will come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of the LORD.” ²³Thus says the LORD of hosts: “In those days, ten men will take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they will take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, ‘We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.’”

9 An oracle.
The word of the LORD
is against the land of Hadrach,
and will rest upon Damascus;
for the eye of man
and of all the tribes of Israel is toward the LORD;
²and Hamath, also, which borders
on it;

Tyre and Sidon, because they are very wise.

³Tyre built herself a stronghold, and heaped up silver like the
dust,
and fine gold like the mire of
the streets.

⁴Behold, the Lord will dispossess
her,
and he will strike her power in the sea;
and she will be devoured
with fire.

⁵Ashkelon will see it, and fear;
Gaza also, and will writhe in agony;
as will Ekron, for her expectation will be
disappointed;
and the king will perish from Gaza,
and Ashkelon will not be inhabited.

⁶Foreigners will dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

⁷I will take away his blood out of
his mouth,
and his abominations from between his teeth;

and he also will be a remnant for
our God;
and he will be as a chieftain
in Judah,
and Ekron as a Jebusite.

⁸I will encamp around my house against the army,
that none pass through or
return;
and no oppressor will pass through them any
more:
for now I have seen with my
eyes.

⁹Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion!

Shout, daughter of
Jerusalem!
Behold, your king comes to you!
He is righteous, and having
salvation;
lowly, and riding on a donkey,
even on a colt, the foal of a donkey.
¹⁰I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim,
and the horse from
Jerusalem;
and the battle bow will be cut off;
and he will speak peace to
the nations:
and his dominion will be
from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.
¹¹As for you also,
because of the blood of your
covenant,
I have set free your prisoners from the pit in which is no water.
¹²Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope!
Even today I declare that I will restore double to
you.
¹³For indeed I bend Judah as a bow for me.
I have filled the bow with Ephraim;
and I will stir up your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece, and will make you like the sword of a mighty
man.
¹⁴The LORD will be seen over
them;
and his arrow will go forth
like lightning;
and the Lord GOD will blow
the trumpet,

and will go with whirlwinds
of the south.
¹⁵The LORD of hosts will defend
them;
and they will destroy and overcome with sling stones;
and they will drink, and roar
as through wine;
and they will be filled like bowls,
like the corners of the altar.
¹⁶The LORD their God will save them in that day as the flock of his people;
for they are like the jewels
of a crown,
lifted on high over his land.
¹⁷For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty!
Grain will make the young men
flourish,
and new wine the virgins.

10 Ask of the LORD
rain in the spring
time,

The LORD who makes lightnings,^a
and he gives rain showers to everyone for the plants in the field.

²For the teraphim have spoken
vanity,
and the diviners have seen a lie;
and they have told false
dreams.

They comfort in vain.
Therefore they go their way
like sheep.

^a10:1 Or, "lightning bolts", "thunderstorms", "bright rain clouds"

They are oppressed, because there is no shepherd.
³My anger is kindled against the shepherds,
and I will punish the male
goats;
 For the LORD of hosts has visited his flock, the house of Judah,
and will make them as his majestic horse in the battle.
⁴From him will come forth the cornerstone,
from him the nail,
from him the battle bow,
from him every ruler
together.
⁵They shall be as mighty
men,
treading down muddy streets
in the battle;
and they shall fight, because the LORD is with
them;
and the riders on horses will be confounded.
^{6a}I will strengthen the house of Judah,
and I will save the house of Joseph,
and I will bring them back;
for I have mercy on them;
and they will be as though I had not cast them off:
for I am the LORD their God,
and I will hear them.
⁷Ephraim will be like a mighty
man,
and their heart will rejoice as through wine;
yes, their children will see it,
and rejoice.
Their heart will be glad in
the LORD.

⁸I will signal for them, and gather
them;
for I have redeemed them;
and they will increase as they have increased.
⁹I will sow them among the
peoples;
and they will remember me
in far countries;
and they will live with their children, and will return.
¹⁰I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt,
and gather them out of Assyria;
and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon;
and there won't be room enough for them.
¹¹He will pass through the sea of affliction,
and will strike the waves in
the sea,
and all the depths of the Nile
will dry up;
and the pride of Assyria will be brought down,
and the scepter of Egypt will depart.
¹²I will strengthen them in the LORD;
and they will walk up and down in his name,"
says the LORD.

11 Open your doors,
Lebanon,
that the fire may devour your cedars.

²Wail, fir tree, for the cedar has fallen,
because the stately ones are
destroyed.

Wail, you oaks of Bashan, for the strong forest has
come down.

³A voice of the wailing of the shepherds!

For their glory is destroyed:
a voice of the roaring
of young lions!

For the pride of the Jordan is ruined.

⁴Thus says the LORD my God: "Feed the flock of slaughter.

⁵Their buyers slaughter them, and go unpunished. Those who sell them say, 'Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich;' and their own shepherds do not pity them. ⁶For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD; "but, behold, I will deliver the men everyone into his neighbor's hand, and into the hand of his king. They will strike the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them."

⁷So I fed the flock of slaughter, especially the oppressed of the flock. I took for myself two staffs. The one I called "Favor," and the other I called "Union," and I fed the flock. ⁸I cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me. ⁹Then I said,
"I will not feed you. That which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let those who are left eat each other's flesh." ¹⁰I took my staff Favor, and cut it apart, that I might break my covenant that I had made with all the peoples. ¹¹It was broken in that day; and thus the poor of the flock that listened to me knew that it was the word of the LORD. ¹²I said to them, "If you think it best, give me my wages; and if not, keep them." So they weighed for my wages thirty pieces of silver. ¹³The LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter, the handsome price that I was valued at by them!" I took the thirty pieces of silver, and threw them to the potter, in the house of the LORD. ¹⁴Then I cut apart my other staff, even Union, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵The LORD said to me,
"Take for yourself yet again the equipment of a foolish shepherd." ¹⁶For, behold, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those who are cut off, neither will seek those who are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which is sound; but he will eat the flesh of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces.
¹⁷Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock! The sword will be on his arm, and on his right eye. His arm will be completely withered, and his right eye will be totally blinded!"

12 An oracle. The word of the LORD
concerning Israel.

The LORD, who stretches out the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him says: ²"Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the surrounding peoples, and on Judah also will it be in the siege against Jerusalem.
³It will happen in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples. All who burden themselves with it will be severely wounded, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against it. ⁴In that day," says the LORD, "I will strike every horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open my eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. ⁵The chieftains of Judah will say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.' ⁶In that day I will make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they will devour all the surrounding peoples, on the right hand and on the left; and Jerusalem will yet again dwell in their own place, even in Jerusalem. ⁷The LORD also will save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem not be magnified above Judah. ⁸In that day the LORD will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem. He who is feeble among them at that day will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of the LORD before them. ⁹It will happen in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. ¹⁰I will pour on the house of David, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they will look to me whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for his only son, and will grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for his firstborn. ¹¹In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. ¹²The land will mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; ¹³the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; ¹⁴all the families who remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

13 "In that day there will be a spring opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. ²It will come to pass in that day, says the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they will be remembered no more. I will also cause the prophets and the spirit of impurity to pass out of the land. ³It will happen that, when anyone still prophesies, then his father and his mother who bore him will tell him, 'You must die, because you speak lies in the name of the LORD;' and his father and his mother who bore him will stab him when he prophesies. ⁴It will happen in that day, that the prophets will each be ashamed of his vision, when he prophesies; neither will they wear a hairy mantle to deceive: ⁵but he will say, 'I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a bondservant from my youth.’ ⁶One will say to him, ‘What are these wounds between your hands?’ Then he will answer, ‘Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.’

⁷“Awake, sword, against my shepherd, and against the man who is close to me,” says the LORD of hosts.

“Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered;
and I will turn my hand against the little ones.

⁸It shall happen that in all the land,” says the LORD, “two parts in it will be cut off and die;

but the third will be left in it.

⁹I will bring the third part into the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined,
and will test them like gold is tested.

They will call on my name, and I will hear them.

I will say, ‘It is my people;’
and they will say, ‘The LORD is my God.’”

14 Behold, a day of the LORD comes, when your spoil will be divided in your midst. ²For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city will be taken, the houses rifled, and the women ravished. Half of the city will go out into captivity, and the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city. ³Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. ⁴His feet will stand in that day on the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in two, from east to west, making a very great valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and half of it toward the south. ⁵You shall flee by the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azel; yes, you shall flee, just like you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. The LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones with you. ⁶It will happen in that day, that there will not be light, cold, or frost. ⁷It will be a unique day which is known to the LORD; not day, and not night; but it will come to pass, that at evening time there will be light.

⁸It will happen in that day, that living waters will go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea; in summer and in winter will it be.

⁹The LORD will be King over all the earth. In that day the LORD will be one, and his name one. ¹⁰All the land will be made like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon in the Negev. Jerusalem will be lifted up, and will dwell in her place, from Benjamin’s gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananel to the king’s winepresses. ¹¹Men will dwell therein, and there will be no more curse; but Jerusalem will dwell safely.¹²This will be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the peoples who have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh will consume away while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will consume away in their sockets, and their tongue will consume away in their mouth.¹³It will happen in that day, that a great panic from the LORD will be among them; and they will lay hold everyone on the hand of his neighbor, and his hand will rise up against the hand of his neighbor.¹⁴Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together: gold, and silver, and clothing, in great abundance.

¹⁵So will be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the donkey, and of all the animals that will be in those camps, as that plague.¹⁶It will happen that everyone who is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of booths.¹⁷It will be, that whoever of all the families of the earth doesn't go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, on them there will be no rain.¹⁸If the family of Egypt doesn't go up, and doesn't come, neither will it rain on them. This will be the plague with which the LORD will strike the nations that do not go up to keep the feast of booths.¹⁹This will be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to keep the feast of booths.²⁰In that day there will be on the bells of the horses, "HOLY TO THE LORD;" and the pots in the LORD's house will be like the bowls before the altar.²¹Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of hosts; and all those who sacrifice will come and take of them, and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

Malachi

1 An oracle: the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

²"I have loved you," says the LORD.

Yet you say, "How have you loved us?"

"Wasn't Esau Jacob's brother?" says the LORD, "Yet I loved Jacob;³but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness."⁴Whereas Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places;" thus says the LORD of hosts, "They shall build, but I will throw down; and men will call them 'The Wicked Land,' even the people against whom the LORD shows wrath forever.”

⁵Your eyes will see, and you will say, “The LORD is great—even beyond the border of Israel!”

⁶“A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If I am a father, then where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is the respect due me? Says the LORD of hosts to you, priests, who despise my name. You say, ‘How have we despised your name?’ ⁷You offer polluted bread on my altar. You say, ‘How have we polluted you?’ In that you say, ‘The LORD’s table contemptible.’ ⁸When you offer the blind for sacrifice, isn’t that evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, isn’t that evil? Present it now to your governor! Will he be pleased with you? Or will he accept your person?” says the LORD of hosts.

⁹“Now, please entreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious to us. With this, will he accept any of you?” says the LORD of hosts.

¹⁰“Oh that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you,” says the LORD of hosts, “neither will I accept an offering at your hand. ¹¹For from the rising of the sun even to the going down of the same, my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to my name, and a pure offering:

for my name is great among the nations,” says the LORD of hosts. ¹²“But you profane it, in that you say, ‘The LORD’s table is polluted, and its fruit, even its food, is contemptible.’ ¹³You say also, ‘Behold, what a weariness it is!’ and you have sniffed at it,” says the LORD of hosts; “and you have brought that which was taken by violence, the lame, and the sick; thus you bring the offering. Should I accept this at your hand?” says the LORD.

¹⁴“But the deceiver is cursed, who has in his flock a male, and vows, and sacrifices to the Lord a blemished thing; for I am a great King,” says the LORD of hosts, “and my name is awesome among the nations.”

2 “Now, you priests, this commandment is for you. ²If you will not listen, and if you will not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name,” says the LORD of hosts, “then will I send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them already, because you do not lay it to heart. ³Behold, I will rebuke your seed, and will spread dung on your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and you will be taken away with it. ⁴You will know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant may be with Levi,” says the LORD of hosts. ⁵“My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might be reverent toward me; and he was reverent toward me, and stood in awe of my name. ⁶The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity. ⁷For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts. ⁸But you have turned aside out of the way. You have caused many to stumble in the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says the LORD of hosts. ⁹"Therefore I have also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according to the way you have not kept my ways, but have had respect for persons in the law. ¹⁰Do we not all have one father? Hasn't one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? ¹¹Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. ¹²The LORD will cut off, to the man who does this, him who wakes and him who answers, out of the tents of Jacob, and him who offers an offering to the LORD of hosts. ¹³This again you do: you cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, because he doesn't regard the offering any more, neither receives it with good will at your hand. ¹⁴Yet you say, 'Why?' Because the LORD has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously, though she is your companion, and the wife of your covenant. ¹⁵Did he not make one, although he had the residue of the Spirit? Why one? He sought a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. ¹⁶"For I hate divorce," says the LORD, the God of Israel, "and him who covers his garment with violence!" says the LORD of hosts. "Therefore take heed to your spirit, that you do not deal treacherously. ¹⁷You have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you say, 'How have we wearied him?' In that you say, 'Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delights in them;' or 'Where is the God of justice?'

3 "Behold, I send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me; and the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, behold, he comes!" says the LORD of hosts. ²"But who can endure the day of his coming? And who will stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like launderer's soap; ³and he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer to the LORD offerings in righteousness. ⁴Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years. ⁵I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the perjurers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and who deprive the foreigner of justice, and do not fear me,” says the LORD of hosts. ⁶“For I, the LORD, do not change; therefore you, sons of Jacob, are not consumed. ⁷From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you,” says the LORD of hosts. “But you say, ‘How shall we return?’ ⁸Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me! But you say, ‘How have we robbed you?’ In tithes and offerings. ⁹You are cursed with the curse; for you rob me, even this whole nation. ¹⁰Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this,” says the LORD of hosts, “if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough for. ¹¹I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before its time in the field,” says the LORD of hosts. ¹²“All nations shall call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land,” says the LORD of hosts.

¹³“Your words have been stout against me,” says the LORD. “Yet you say, ‘What have we spoken against you?’ ¹⁴You have said, ‘It is vain to serve God;’ and ‘What profit is it that we have followed his instructions, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts?’ ¹⁵Now we call the proud happy; yes, those who work wickedness are built up; yes, they tempt God, and escape.’ ¹⁶Then those who feared the LORD spoke one with another; and the LORD listened, and heard, and a book of remembrance was written before him, for those who feared the LORD, and who honored his name. ¹⁷They shall be mine,” says the LORD of hosts, “my own possession in the day that I make, and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. ¹⁸Then you shall return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who doesn’t serve him.

4 “For, behold, the day comes, it burns as a furnace; and all the proud, and all who work wickedness, will be stubble; and the day that comes will burn them up,” says the LORD of hosts, “that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. ²But to you who fear my name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in its wings. You will go out, and leap like calves of the stall. ³You shall tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I make,” says the LORD of hosts.

⁴“Remember the Law of Moses my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and ordinances. ⁵Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes. ⁶He will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse.

THE GOOD NEWS ACCORDING TO

Matthew

A record of the 1 genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David,
the son of Abraham. ²Abraham was the father of Isaac, and Isaac the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers, ³and Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, and Perez was the father of Hezron, and Hezron the father of Ram, ⁴and Ram the father of Amminadab, and Amminadab the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon the father of Salmon, ⁵and Salmon the father of Boaz by Rahab, and Boaz was the father of Obed by Ruth, and Obed was the father of Jesse, ⁶and Jesse the father of David the king.
And David^a was the father of Solomon by her who had been the wife of Uriah; ⁷and Solomon was the father of Rehoboam, and Rehoboam the father of Abijah, and Abijah the father of Asa; ⁸and Asa the father of Jehoshaphat, and Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, and Joram the father of Uzziah, ⁹and Uzziah the father of Jotham, and Jotham the father of Ahaz, and Ahaz the father of Hezekiah; ¹⁰and Hezekiah the father of Manasseh, and Manasseh the father of Amon, and Amon the father of Josiah,

¹¹and Josiah the father of Jechoniah and his brothers, at the time of the exile to Babylon.
¹²And after the exile to Babylon, Jechoniah was the father of Shealtiel, and Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel, ¹³and Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, and Abiud the father of Eliakim, and Eliakim the father of Azor, ¹⁴and Azor the father of Zadok, and Zadok the father of Achim, and Achim the father of Eliud, ¹⁵and Eliud the father of Eleazar, and Eleazar the father of Matthan, and Matthan the father of Jacob, ¹⁶and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, from whom was born Jesus, who is called the Messiah.^b ¹⁷So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations;
and from David to the exile to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the exile to Babylon to the Messiah, fourteen generations.

¹⁸Now the birth of Jesus Christ^c happened like this. His mother Mary had been engaged to Joseph, and before they came together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹And Joseph, her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, intended to put her away secretly. ²⁰But when he thought about these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take to yourself Mary^a, your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. ²¹And she will bring forth a son, and you shall call his name Jesus^b, for it is he who shall save his people from their sins.”

²²Now all this has happened, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through^c the prophet, saying,

²³“Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son.
They shall call his name Immanuel;” which is translated, “God with us.”^d

²⁴And Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took his wife to himself; ²⁵and had no marital relations with her until she had brought forth a son^e; and he named him Jesus.

2 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men^f from the east came to Jerusalem^g, saying, ²“Where is he who is born King of the Jews? For we saw his star in the east, and have come to worship him.” ³And when King Herod heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁴And gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he asked them where the Messiah would be born. ⁵And they said to him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it is written through the prophet,

⁶“And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are in no way least among the princes of Judah:
for out of you shall come forth a
ruler,
who shall shepherd my people, Israel.”^h

⁷Then Herod secretly called the wise men, and learned from them exactly what time the star appeared. ⁸And he sent them to

Bethlehem, and said, “Go and search diligently for the young child, and when you have found him, bring me word, so that I also may come and worship him.”

⁹And they, having heard the king, went their way; and behold, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, until it came and stood over where the young child was. ¹⁰And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. ¹¹And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary, his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him. Then, opening their treasures, they offered to him gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. ¹²Being warned in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they went back to their own country another way.

¹³Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, “Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.”

¹⁴And he arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt, ¹⁵and was there until the death of Herod; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, “Out of Egypt I called my son.”^a

¹⁶Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceedingly angry, and sent out, and killed all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all the surrounding countryside, from two years old and under, according to the exact time which he had learned from the wise men. ¹⁷Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying, ¹⁸“A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children; and she would not be comforted, because they are no more.”^b

¹⁹But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, ²⁰“Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel, for those who sought the young child’s life are dead.”

²¹And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. ²²But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in the place of his father, Herod, he was afraid to go there. Being warned in a dream, he withdrew into the region of Galilee, ²³and came and lived in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, that he will be called a Nazorean.

^a2:15 Hosea 11:1

^b2:18 Jeremiah 31:15

3 And in those days John the Baptist came, proclaiming in the wilderness of Judea, saying, ²“Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near!” ³For this is he who was spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, saying,
 “The voice of one crying in the wilderness, make ready the way of the Lord.
 Make his paths straight.”^a ⁴Now John himself wore clothing made of camel’s hair and with a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. ⁵Then people from Jerusalem, all of Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him, ⁶and they were baptized by him in the Jordan river^b, confessing their sins. ⁷But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for his baptism he said to them, “You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? ⁸Therefore bring forth fruit worthy of repentance, ⁹and do not think to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham for our father,’ for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

¹⁰“And even now the axe lies at the root of the trees. Therefore, every tree that does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire. ¹¹I indeed baptize you in water for repentance, but the one who comes after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and with fire^c. ¹²His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor. He will gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire.”

he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was hungry afterward. ³And the tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread.”

⁴But he answered and said, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.’^a”

⁵Then the devil took him into the holy city. He set him on the pinnacle of the temple, ⁶and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, ‘He will put his angels in charge of you.’ and, ‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you do not dash your foot against a stone.’^b”

¹¹Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and served him. ¹²Now when he^f heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee. ¹³And leaving Nazareth, he came and lived in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, ¹⁴that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, ¹⁵“The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, ¹⁶the people who sat in darkness saw a great light, and to those who sat in the region and shadow of death, to them light has dawned.”^g

¹⁷From that time, Jesus began to proclaim, and to say, “Repent! For the Kingdom of Heaven is near.”

²³And he^a went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. ²⁴And the report about him went out into all Syria, and they brought to him all who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and torments, possessed with demons, epileptics, and paralytics; and he healed them. ²⁵And great multitudes from Galilee, and Decapolis, and Jerusalem, and Judea, and from beyond the Jordan followed him.

They were ridiculing him. ²⁵But when the crowd was put out, he entered in, took her by the hand, and the girl arose. ²⁶And the report of this went out into all that land. ²⁷And as Jesus passed by from there, two blind men followed him, calling out and saying, “Have mercy on us, son of David!”

²⁸And when he had come into the house, the blind men came to him, and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?”

They told him, “Yes, Lord.”

²⁹Then he touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith be it done to you.” ³⁰And their eyes were opened. And Jesus strictly commanded them, saying, “See that no one knows about this.” ³¹But they went out and spread abroad his fame in all that land.

³²And as they went out, behold, a mute man who was demon possessed was brought to him. ³³And when the demon was cast out, the mute man spoke. And the crowds marveled, saying, “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!”

³⁴But the Pharisees said, “By the prince of the demons, he casts out demons.”

³⁵And Jesus went about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness^a. ³⁶But when he saw the crowds, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were harassed and scattered, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest indeed is plentiful, but the laborers are few. ³⁸Pray therefore that the Lord of the harvest will send out laborers into his harvest.”

10 And he called to himself his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every sickness. ²Now the names of the twelve apostles are these. 12 At that time, Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grain fields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. ²But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said to him, “Behold, your disciples do what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath.”

³But he said to them, “Have you not read what David did, when he was hungry, he and his companions; ⁴how he entered into the house of God, and ate the show bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for those who were with him, but only for the ⁹And he departed from there and went into their synagogue. ¹⁰And behold there was a man with a withered hand. They asked him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath day?” that they might accuse him.

¹¹And he said to them, “What man is there among you, who has one sheep, and if this one falls into a pit on the Sabbath day, won’t he grab on to it, and lift it out? ¹²Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.” ¹³Then he told the man, “Stretch out your hand.” And he stretched it out, and it was restored whole, just like the other. ¹⁴But the Pharisees went out, and conspired against him, how they might destroy him. ¹⁵But Jesus, perceiving that, withdrew from there. ²²Then one possessed by a demon, blind and mute, was brought to him and he healed him, so that the mute man both spoke and saw. ²³And all the crowds were amazed, and said, “Can this be the son of David?” ²⁴But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, “This man does not cast out demons, except by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons.”

²⁵And knowing their thoughts, he^b said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. ²⁶And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? ²⁷If I by Beelzebul

³⁸Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees said to him, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from you.”

⁴¹The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for they repented at the proclaiming of Jonah; and behold, something greater than Jonah is here. ⁴²The queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, someone greater than Solomon is here.

⁴⁵Then he goes, and takes with himself seven other spirits more evil than he is, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first. Even so will it be also to this evil generation.”

⁴⁶While he was yet speaking to the crowds, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, seeking to speak to him. ⁴⁷Then one said to him, “Behold, your mother and your brothers stand outside, seeking to speak to you.”^a

⁴⁸But he answered him who spoke to him, “Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?” ⁴⁹And he stretched out his hand towards his disciples, and said, “Behold, my mother and my brothers! ⁵⁰For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.”

13 On that day Jesus went out of the house, and sat by the seaside. ²And great crowds gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat, and sat, and all the crowd stood on the beach. ³And he spoke to them many things in parables, saying, “Behold, a farmer went out to sow. ⁴And as he sowed, some seeds fell by the roadside, and the birds came and devoured them. ⁵And others fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of earth. ⁶But when the sun had risen, they were scorched. choked them. ⁸Still others fell on good soil, and yielded fruit: some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty. ⁹He who has ears^a, let him hear.”

¹⁰Then the disciples came, and said to him, “Why do you speak to them in parables?”

¹¹And he answered them, “To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but it is not given to them. ¹²For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have abundance, but whoever does not have, from him will be taken away even that which he has.

¹³Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing, they do not hear, neither do they understand.

¹⁴And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says,

‘By hearing you will hear,
and will in no way
understand;
Seeing you will see,
and will in no way perceive:

¹⁵for this people’s heart has grown callous, and their ears are dull of hearing,

and they have closed their eyes;

or else perhaps they might perceive with their eyes,

hear with their ears,
understand with their heart,
and should turn again;

and I would heal them.^b

¹⁶“But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. ¹⁷For truly I tell you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which you see, and did not see them; and to hear the things which you hear, and did not hear them.

¹⁸“Hear, then, the parable of the farmer. ¹⁹When anyone hears the word of the Kingdom, and does not understand it, the evil one comes, and snatches away that which has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown by the roadside. ²⁰And what was sown on the rocky places, this is he who hears the word, and immediately with joy receives it; ²¹yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles.

²²And what was sown among the thorns, this is he who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. ²³And what was sown on the good ground, this is he who hears the word, and understands it, who truly bears fruit, and brings forth, some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty.”

²⁴He set another parable before them, saying, “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a man ²⁸“And he said to them, ‘An enemy has done this.’

“The servants asked him, ‘Do you want us to go and gather them up?’

²⁹“But he said, ‘No, lest perhaps while you gather up the tares, you root up the wheat with them.³⁰ Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the harvest time I will tell the reapers, “First, gather up the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn.”’”

³¹He set another parable before them, saying, “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field;³² which indeed is smaller than all seeds. But when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches.”

³³He spoke another parable to them. “The Kingdom of Heaven is like yeast, which a woman took, and hid in three measures^b of meal, until it was all leavened.”

³⁴Jesus spoke all these things in parables to the crowds; and without a parable, he did not speak to them,³⁵ that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying, “I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things hidden since the beginning^c of the world.^{d,37}”

³⁶Then Jesus sent the crowds away, and went into the house. His disciples came to him, saying, “Explain to us the parable of the tares in the field.”

³⁷And he answered them, “The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man,³⁸ and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the sons of the Kingdom; and the tares are the sons of the evil one,³⁹ and the enemy who sowed them is the devil, and the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.⁴⁰ As therefore the tares are gathered up and burned with fire; so will it be at the end of the age.⁴¹ The Son of ²¹Jesus went out from there, and withdrew into the region of Tyre and Sidon. ²²Behold, a Canaanite woman came out from those borders, and started shouting, saying, “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is severely demonized!”

²³But he did not answer her a word.

His disciples came and begged him, saying, “Send her away; for she cries after us.”

²⁴But he answered, “I was not sent to anyone but the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

²⁵But she came and worshiped him, saying, “Lord, help me.”

²⁶But he answered, “It is not appropriate to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

²⁷But she said, “Yes, Lord, but even the dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters’ table.”

²⁸Then Jesus answered her, “Woman, great is your faith! Be it done to you even as you desire.” And her daughter was healed from that hour.

²⁹Jesus departed there, and came near to the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there. ³⁰Great crowds came to him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, crippled, and many others, and they put them down at his^a feet; and he healed them. ³¹So the crowd was amazed when they saw the mute speaking, injured whole, lame walking, and blind seeing—and they glorified the God of Israel.

³²Jesus summoned his disciples and said, “I have compassion on the crowd, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away fasting, or they might faint on the way.”

³³Then the^b disciples said to him, “Where should we get so many loaves in a deserted place as to satisfy so great a crowd?”

³⁴Jesus said to them, “How many loaves do you have?”

They said, “Seven, and a few small fish.”

³⁵He commanded the crowd to sit down on the ground; ³⁶and he took the seven loaves and the fish. He gave thanks and broke them, and gave to the^c disciples, and the disciples to the crowds. ³⁷They all ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over. ³⁸Those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. ³⁹Then he sent away the crowds, got into the boat, and came into the borders of Magadan^a.

16 The Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing him, asked him to show them a sign from heaven. ²But he answered them,

When it is evening, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.’ ³In the morning, ‘It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.’ Hypocrites! You know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times!^b

“⁴An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and there will be no sign given to it, except the sign of^c Jonah.”

He left them, and departed. ⁵The^d disciples came to the other side and had forgotten to take bread. ⁶Jesus said to them, “Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

⁷They reasoned among themselves, saying, “We brought no bread.”

⁸Jesus, perceiving it, said,^e “Why do you reason among yourselves, you of little faith, because you have no bread? ⁹Do you not yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up? ¹⁰Nor the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up? ¹¹How is it that you do not perceive that I did not speak to you concerning bread? But beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

¹²Then they understood that he did not tell them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees. ¹³Now when Jesus came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, “Who do men say that the Son of Man is?”

¹⁷Jesus answered, “Faithless and perverse generation! How long will I be with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring him here to me.” ¹⁸Jesus rebuked him, the demon went out of him, and the boy was cured from that hour.

¹⁹Then the disciples came to Jesus privately, and said, “Why weren’t we able to cast it out?”

²⁰So he^c said to them, “Because of your little faith. For truly I tell you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” ²¹^d among you shall be your bondservant,²⁸ even as the Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

²⁹As they went out from Jericho, a great crowd followed him. ³⁰Behold, two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, shouted, “Lord, have mercy on us, son of David!” ³¹The crowd rebuked them, telling them that they should be quiet, but they shouted even more, “Lord, have mercy on us, son of David!”

³²Jesus stood still, and called them, and asked, “What do you want me to do for you?”

³³They told him, “Lord, that our eyes may be opened.”

³⁴Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes; and immediately their eyes received their sight, and they followed him.

21 When they drew near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage,^a to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, ²saying to them, “Go into the village that is opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them, and bring them to me. ³If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and immediately he will send them.”

⁴This took place that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,
⁵“Tell the daughter of Zion, behold, your King comes to you, humble, and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.”^b

⁶The disciples went, and did just as Jesus directed them, ⁷and brought the donkey and the colt, and placed their clothes on them; and he sat on them. ⁸A very great crowd spread their clothes on the road. Others cut branches from the trees, and spread them on the road. ⁹The crowds who went before him, and who followed kept shouting, “Hosanna^c to the son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!”^d

¹²Jesus entered into the temple,^a and drove out all of those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the money changers' tables and the seats of those who sold the doves. ¹³He said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer,'^b but you have made it a den of robbers!"^c

¹⁴The blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. ¹⁵But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the son of David!" they were indignant, ¹⁶and said to him, "Do you hear what these are saying?"

Jesus said to them, "Yes. Did you never read, 'Out of the mouth of babes and nursing babies you have perfected praise?'"^d ¹⁷He left them, and went out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there. ¹⁸Now in the morning, as he returned to the city, he was hungry. ¹⁹Seeing a fig tree by the road, he came to it, and found nothing on it but leaves. He said to it, "Let there be no fruit from you forever!"

Immediately the fig tree withered away. ²⁰When the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree immediately wither away?"

²¹Jesus answered them, "Truly I tell you, if you have faith, and do not doubt^e, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you told this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' it would be done. ²²All things, whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

²³When he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority do you do these things? Who gave you this authority?"

²⁴Jesus answered them, "I also will ask you one question, which if you tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁵The baptism of John, where was it from? From heaven or from man?"

They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask us, 'Why then did you not believe him?'" ²⁶But if we say, 'From man,' we fear the crowd, for all hold John as a prophet." ²⁷They answered Jesus, and said, "We do not know."

He answered, ‘I go, sir,’ but he did not go.³¹ Which of the two did the will of his father?”

They said^b, “The first.”

Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering into the Kingdom of God before you.³² For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. When you saw it, you did not even repent afterward, that you might believe him.

³³“Hear another parable. There was a man who was a master of a household, who planted a vineyard, set a hedge about it, dug a winepress in it, built a tower, leased it out to farmers, and went on a journey.³⁴ When the season for the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the farmers, to receive his fruit.³⁵ The farmers took his servants, beat one, killed another, and stoned another.³⁶ Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they treated them the same way.³⁷ But afterward he sent to them his son, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’³⁸ But the farmers, when they saw the son, said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and seize his inheritance.’³⁹ So they took him, and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.⁴⁰ When therefore the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?”

⁴¹They told him, “He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and will lease out the vineyard to other farmers, who will give him the fruit in its season.”

⁴²Jesus said to them, “Did you never read in the Scriptures, ‘The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made the head of the corner. This was from the Lord. It is marvelous in our eyes?’^c

⁴³“Therefore I tell you, the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you, and will be given to a nation bringing forth its fruit.⁴⁴ He who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it will fall, it will scatter him as dust.”^d

⁴⁵When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he spoke about them. ⁴⁶When they sought to seize him, they feared the crowds, because they considered him to be a prophet.

22 Jesus answered and spoke again in parables to them, saying, ²“The Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who made a marriage feast for his son, ³and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast, but they would not come. ⁴Again he sent out other servants, saying, ‘Tell those who are invited, “Behold, I have made ready my dinner. My cattle and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage feast!”’ ⁵But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise, ⁶and the rest grabbed his servants, and treated them shamefully, and killed them. ⁷The king^a was enraged, and sent his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.

⁸“Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding is ready, but those who were invited weren’t worthy. ⁹Go therefore to the intersections of the highways, and as many as you may find, invite to the marriage feast.’ ¹⁰Those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together as many as they found, both bad and good. The wedding was filled with guests. ¹¹But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who did not have on wedding clothing, ¹²and he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you come in here not wearing wedding clothing?’ He was speechless. ¹³Then the king said to the servants, ‘Bind him hand and foot,^b and throw him into the outer darkness; there is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.’ ¹⁴“For many are called, but few chosen.”

¹⁵Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how they might entrap him in his talk. ¹⁶They sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are honest, and teach the way of God in truth, no matter whom you teach, for you are not partial to anyone. ¹⁷Tell us therefore, what do you think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”

¹⁸But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, “Why do you test me, you hypocrites? ¹⁹Show me the tax money.”

They brought to him a denarius.

²³On that day Sadducees (those who say that there is no resurrection) came to him. They asked him, ²⁴saying, “Teacher, Moses said, ‘If a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed for his brother.’^a ²⁵Now there were with us seven brothers. The first married and died, and having no seed left his wife to his brother. ²⁶In like manner the second also, and the third, to the seventh. ²⁷After them all, the woman died^b. ²⁸In the resurrection therefore, whose wife will she be of the seven? For they all had her.”

²⁹But Jesus answered them, “You are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God. ³⁰For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like the angels^c in heaven. ³¹But concerning the resurrection of the dead, Have you not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying, ³²‘I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?’^d God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.”

³³When the crowds heard it, they were astonished at his teaching. ³⁴But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, gathered themselves together. ³⁵One of them, a Law scholar, asked him a question, testing him^e. ³⁶“Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the law?”

³⁷He^f said to him, “‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.’^g ³⁸This is the great and first commandment. ³⁹A second likewise is this, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’^h ⁴⁰The whole Law and the Prophets depend on these two commandments.”

⁴¹Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, ⁴²saying, “What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?”

⁴⁰“The King will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.’⁴¹ Then he will say also to those on the left hand, ‘Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels; ⁴²for I was hungry, and you did not give me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me no drink; ⁴³I was a stranger, and you did not take me in; naked, and you did not clothe me; sick, and in prison, and you did not visit me.’

⁴⁴“Then they will also answer, saying, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not help you?’

⁴⁵“Then he will answer them, saying, ‘Truly I tell you, inasmuch as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.’⁴⁶ These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

26 And it happened, when Jesus had finished all these words, that he said to his disciples,² “You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified.”

³Then the chief priests^a and the elders of the people were gathered together in the court of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas.⁴ They took counsel together that they might take Jesus by deceit, and kill him.⁵ But they said, “Not during the feast, lest a riot occur among the people.”

⁶Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper^b, ⁷a woman came to him having an alabaster jar of very expensive ointment, and she poured it on his head as he sat at the table. ⁸But when the^a disciples saw this, they were indignant, saying, “Why this waste? ⁹For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.”

¹⁰However, knowing this, Jesus said to them, “Why do you trouble the woman? Because she has done a good work for me. ¹¹For you always have the poor with you; but you do not always have me. ¹²For in pouring this ointment on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial. ¹³Truly I tell you, wherever this Good News is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of as a memorial of her.”

¹⁴Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests, ¹⁵and said, “What are you willing to give me, that I should deliver him to you?” They weighed out for him thirty pieces of silver.^b ¹⁶From that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

¹⁷Now on the first day of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying^c, “Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?”

¹⁸He said, “Go into the city to a certain person, and tell him,

‘The Teacher says, “My time is near. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.”’”

¹⁹The disciples did as Jesus commanded them, and they prepared the Passover. ²⁰Now when evening had come, he was reclining at the table with the twelve disciples. ²¹As they were eating, he said, “Truly I tell you that one of you will betray me.”

²²They were exceedingly sorrowful, and each began to ask him, “It is not me, is it, Lord?”

²³He answered, “He who dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same will betray me. ²⁴The Son of Man goes, even as it is written of him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born.”

²⁵Judas, who betrayed him, answered, “It is not me, is it, Rabbi?”

He said to him, “You said it.”

²⁶As they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks for it, and broke it. He gave to the disciples, and said, “Take, eat; this is my body.” ²⁷He took a^d cup, gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, “All of you drink it, ²⁸for this is my blood of the^a covenant, which is poured out for many for the remission of sins.²⁹ But I tell you that I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on, until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Father's Kingdom."³⁰ When they had sung the hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

³¹ Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'^b ³² But after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee."

³³ But Peter answered him, "Even if all will be made to stumble because of you, I will never be made to stumble."

³⁴ Jesus said to him, "Truly I tell you that tonight, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times."

³⁵ Peter said to him, "Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you." All of the disciples also said likewise.

³⁶ Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I go there and pray."³⁷ He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and severely troubled.³⁸ Then he^c said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch with me."

³⁹ He went forward a little, fell on his face, and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from me; nevertheless, not what I desire, but what you desire."

⁴⁰ He came to the disciples, and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "What, could you not watch with me for one hour?⁴¹ Watch and pray, that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

⁴² Again, a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, "My Father, if this^d cannot pass away from me unless I drink it, your desire be done."⁴³ He came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.⁴⁴ He left them again, went away, and prayed a third time, saying the same words.⁴⁵ Then he came to the^e disciples, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. Behold, the hour is near, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.⁴⁶ Arise, let us be going. Behold, he who betrays me is near."

⁴⁷While he was still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders of the people. ⁴⁸Now he who betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, “Whoever I kiss, he is the one. Seize him.” ⁴⁹Immediately he came to Jesus, and said, “Hail, Rabbi!” and kissed him.

⁵⁰Jesus said to him, “Friend, why are you here?” Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. ⁵¹Behold, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. ⁵²Then Jesus said to him, “Put your sword back into its place, for all those who take the sword will die by the sword.” ⁵³Or do you think that I could not ask my Father, and he would even now send me more than twelve legions of angels? ⁵⁴How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that it must be so?”

⁵⁵In that hour Jesus said to the crowds, “Have you come out as against a robber with swords and clubs to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me.” ⁵⁶But all this has happened, that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled.”

Then all the disciples left him, and fled. ⁵⁷Those who had taken Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. ⁵⁸But Peter followed him from a distance, to the court of the high priest, and entered in and sat with the officers, to see the end. ⁵⁹Now the chief priests^a and the whole council sought false testimony against Jesus so they could put him to death; ⁶⁰and they found none. Even though many false witnesses came forward.^b But at last two false witnesses came forward, ⁶¹and said, “This man said, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.’”

⁶²The high priest stood up, and said to him, “Have you no answer? What is this that these testify against you?” ⁶³But Jesus held his peace. The high priest answered him, “I adjure you by the living God, that you tell us whether you are the Messiah, the Son of God.”

⁶⁴Jesus said to him, “You have said it. Nevertheless, I tell you, after this you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of the sky.”^c ⁶⁵Then the high priest tore his clothing, saying, “He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Behold, now you have heard his blasphemy. ⁶⁶What do you think?"

They answered, "He is worthy of death!" ⁶⁷Then they spit in his face^a and beat him with their fists, and some slapped him, ⁶⁸saying, "Prophecy to us, you Messiah! Who hit you?"

⁶⁹Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and a servant girl came to him, saying, "You were also with Jesus, the Galilean!"

⁷⁰But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you are talking about."

⁷¹And when he had gone out onto the porch, another girl saw him, and said to those who were there, "This man also was with Jesus of Nazareth."

⁷²Again he denied it with an oath, "I do not know the man."

⁷³After a little while those who stood by came and said to Peter, "Surely you are also one of them, for your speech makes you known."

⁷⁴Then he began to curse and to swear, "I do not know the man!"

Immediately the rooster crowed. ⁷⁵Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said^b, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." He went out and wept bitterly.

27 Now when morning had come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: ²and they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him up to^c Pilate, the governor. ³Then Judas, who betrayed him, when he saw that Jesus was condemned, felt remorse, and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, ⁴saying, "I have sinned in that I betrayed innocent blood."

But they said, "What is that to us? You see to it."

⁵He threw down the pieces of silver in the sanctuary, and departed. He went away and hanged himself. ⁶The chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, "It's not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood." ⁷They took counsel, and bought the potter's field with them, to bury strangers in. ⁸Therefore that field was called "The Field of Blood" to this day. ⁹Then that which was spoken through Jeremiah^d the prophet was fulfilled, saying,

¹¹Now Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, “Are you the King of the Jews?”

Jesus said to him, “So you say.”

¹²When he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. ¹³Then Pilate said to him, “Do you not hear how many things they testify against you?”

¹⁴He gave him no answer, not even one word, so that the governor marveled greatly. ¹⁵Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release to the crowd one prisoner, whom they desired. ¹⁶They had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas^b. ¹⁷When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus, who is called Messiah?” ¹⁸For he knew that because of envy they had delivered him up.

¹⁹While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, “Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.” ²⁰Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. ²¹But the governor answered them, “Which of the two do you want me to release to you?”

They said, “Barabbas!”

²²Pilate said to them, “What then shall I do to Jesus, who is called Messiah?”

They all said^c, “Let him be crucified!”

²³But he^d said, “Why? What evil has he done?”

But they shouted all the louder, saying, “Let him be crucified!”

²⁴So when Pilate saw that nothing was being gained, but rather that a disturbance was starting, he took water, and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, “I am innocent of ²⁵All the people answered, “May his blood be on us, and on our children!”

²⁶Then he released to them Barabbas, but Jesus he flogged^b and delivered to be crucified.

²⁷Then the governor’s soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium, and gathered the whole garrison together against him. ²⁸They stripped him, and put a scarlet robe on him. ²⁹They braided a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!”^d ³⁰They spat on him,^e and took the reed and struck him on the head. ³¹When they had mocked him, they took the robe off of him, and put his clothes on him, and led him away to crucify him.

³²As they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name, and they compelled him to go with them, that he might carry his cross. ³³They came to a place called “Golgotha,” that is to say, “The place of a skull.”^f ³⁴They gave him wine^g to drink mixed with gall. When he had tasted it, he would not drink. ³⁵When they had crucified him, they divided his clothing among them, casting lots,^h ³⁶and they sat and watched him there. ³⁷They set up over his head the accusation against him written, “THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS.”

³⁸Then there were two robbers crucified with him, one on his right hand and one on the left.ⁱ ³⁹Those who passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads,^j ⁴⁰and saying, “You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross!”

⁴¹Likewise the chief priests also mocking, with the scribes,^k and the elders, said, ⁴²“He saved others, but he cannot save himself. If he is the King of Israel, let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him. ⁴³He trusts in God. Let God deliver him now, if he wants him; for he said, ‘I am the Son of God.’” ⁴⁴The robbers also who were crucified with him cast on him the same reproach.

⁴⁸Immediately one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him a drink.^e ⁴⁹The rest said, “Let him be. Let us see whether Elijah comes to save him.”^f

⁵⁰Jesus shouted again with a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit. ⁵¹Behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. The earth quaked and the rocks were split. ⁵²The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised; ⁵³and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection, they entered into the holy city and appeared to many. ⁵⁴Now the centurion, and those

Then Pilate commanded the body to be given up. ⁵⁹Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, ⁶⁰and placed it in his own new tomb,^h which he had cut out in the rock, and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. ⁶¹Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb. ⁶²Now on the next day, which was the day after the Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together to Pilate, ⁶³saying, “Sir, we remember what that deceiver said while he was still alive: ‘After three days I will rise again.’” ⁶⁴Command therefore that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest perhaps his disciples

⁴John came baptizing in the wilderness and proclaiming the baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins. ⁵All the country of Judea and all those of Jerusalem went out to him, and they were baptized by him in the Jordan river, confessing their sins. ⁶John was clothed with camel’s hair and a leather belt around his waist. He ate locusts and wild honey. ⁷He preached, saying, “After me comes he who is mightier than I, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen. ⁸I^h baptized you in water, but he will baptize you in the Holy Spirit.”

with the wild animals; and the angels were serving him.

¹⁴Now after John was taken into custody, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the Good News^a of God, ¹⁵and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God is near! Repent, and believe in the Good News.”

¹⁶And passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁷Jesus said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you into fishers for men.”

¹⁸Immediately they left the nets, and followed him. ¹⁹Going on a little further^b, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John, his brother, who were also in the boat mending the nets. ²⁰Immediately he called them, and they left their father, Zebedee, in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him. ²¹They went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath day he entered into the synagogue and taught. ²²They were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes. ²³Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he shouted, ²⁴saying, “What do we have to do with you, Jesus, you Nazarene? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God!”

²⁵Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be quiet, and come out of him!”

²⁶The unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. ²⁷They were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, “What is this? A new teaching? For with authority he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him!” ²⁸The report of him went out immediately into all the region of Galilee and its surrounding area.

²⁹Immediately, when they had come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. ³⁰Now Simon’s wife’s mother lay sick with a fever, and immediately they told him about her. ³¹And he came and took her by the hand, and raised her up. The fever left her, and she served them. ³²At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to him all who were sick, and those who were possessed by demons. ³³All the city was gathered together at the door. ³⁴He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons. He did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew him.

⁴⁰A leper came to him, begging him, kneeling down to him, and saying to him, “If you want to, you can make me clean.”

⁴¹Being moved with compassion, he^b stretched out his hand, and touched him, and said to him, “I am willing. Be cleansed.” ^{42c}Immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean. ⁴³He strictly warned him, and immediately sent him out, ⁴⁴and said to him, “See you say nothing to anyone, but go show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”

⁴⁵But he went out, and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread about the matter, so that Jesus could no more openly enter into a city, but was outside in desert places: and they came to him from everywhere.

2 When he entered again into Capernaum after some days, it was heard that he was in the house. ^{2d}And many were gathered together, so that there was no more room, not even around the door; and he spoke the word to them. ³Four people came, carrying a paralytic to him. ⁴When they could not come near to him for the crowd, they removed the roof above him. When they had broken it up, they let down the mat that the paralytic was lying on. ⁵Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven you.”

⁶But there were some of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, ⁷“Why does this man speak like that? He is blaspheming; who can forgive sins but God alone?”

⁸Immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, said to them, “Why do you reason these things in your hearts? ⁹Which is easier, to tell the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven;’ or to say, ‘Arise, and take up your bed, and walk?’ ¹⁰But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”, he said to the paralytic, ¹¹“I tell you, arise, take up your mat, and go to your house.”

¹³And he went out again by the seaside. All the crowd came to him, and he taught them. ¹⁴As he passed by, he saw Levi, the son of Alphaeus, sitting at the tax office, and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he arose and followed him.

¹⁵It happened, that he was reclining at the table in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many, and they followed him. ¹⁶The scribes of^a the Pharisees, when they saw him eating with the tax collectors and sinners, said to his disciples, “Why is it that he eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?”

¹⁷But when Jesus heard it, he said to them, “Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners^b.”

¹⁸John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, and they came and asked him, “Why do the disciples of John and those of^c the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?”

¹⁹And Jesus said to them, “Can the groomsmen fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. ²⁰But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then will they fast in those days. ²¹No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, or else the patch shrinks and the new tears away from the old, and a worse hole is made. ²²And no one puts new wine into old wineskins, or else the^d wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost^e, and the skins will be destroyed; but they put new wine into fresh wineskins.”

²³It happened that he was going on the Sabbath day through the grain fields, and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain. ²⁴The Pharisees said to him, “Behold, why do they do that which is not lawful on the Sabbath day?”

God when Abiathar was high priest^a, and ate the show bread, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and gave also to those who were with him?”²⁷ He said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath.²⁸ Therefore the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath.”

3 He entered again into the synagogue, and there was a man there who had his hand withered.² They watched him, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him.³ He said to the man with the withered hand^b, “Stand up in the middle.”⁴ He said to them, “Is it lawful on the Sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?” But they were silent.⁵ When he had looked around at them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their hearts, he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was restored.⁶ The Pharisees went out, and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

⁷ Jesus withdrew to the sea with his disciples, and a great crowd followed^d from Galilee, from Judea,⁸ from Jerusalem, from Idumaea, beyond the Jordan, and those from around Tyre and Sidon. A great crowd, when they heard what great things he did, came to him.⁹ And he told his disciples that a small boat should stay near him because of the crowd, so that they would not press on him.¹⁰ For he had healed many, so that as many as had diseases pressed on him that they might touch him.¹¹ The unclean spirits, whenever they saw him, fell down before him, and shouted, “You are the Son of God!”¹² And he sternly warned them that they should not make him known.

¹³ And he went up into the mountain, and called to himself those whom he wanted, and they went to him.¹⁴ And he appointed twelve, designating them apostles,^e and that he might send them out to preach,¹⁵ and to have authority to^f cast out demons.¹⁶ And he appointed the Twelve:^g Simon, to whom he gave the name Peter;¹⁷ James the son of Zebedee; John, the brother of James, and he surnamed them Boanerges^h which means, Sons of Thunder;

²³So he summoned them, and said to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan? ²⁴If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁵If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. ²⁶If Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but has an end. ²⁷But no one can enter into the house of the strong man to plunder, unless he first binds the strong man; and then he will plunder his house. ²⁸Truly I tell you, all sins of the sons of men^b will be forgiven, including their blasphemies with which they may blaspheme; ²⁹but whoever may blaspheme against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin”³⁰—

³³And he answered them, saying, “Who are my mother or my brothers?” ³⁴Looking around at those who sat around him, he said, “Behold, my mother and my brothers! ³⁵For whoever does the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.”

4 Again he began to teach by the seaside. A great crowd was gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat in the sea, and sat down. All the crowd were on the land by the sea. ²Then he taught them many things in parables, and told them in his teaching. ³“Listen! Behold, the farmer went out to sow, ⁴and it happened, as he sowed, some seed fell by the road, and the birds^d came and devoured it. ⁵Others fell on the rocky ground, where it had little soil, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of soil. ⁶But when the sun had risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. ⁷Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. ⁸Others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing. Some brought forth thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times as much.”⁹He said, “Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear.”

¹⁰When he was alone, those who were around him with the twelve asked him about the parables. ¹¹And he said to them, “To you has been given^a the mystery of the Kingdom of God, but to those who are outside, all things are done in parables, ¹²that ‘seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest perhaps they should return and be forgiven^b.’”^c

¹³And he said to them, “Do you not understand this parable? How will you understand all of the parables? ¹⁴The farmer sows the word. ¹⁵The ones by the road are the ones where the word is sown; and when they have heard, immediately Satan comes, and takes away the word which has been sown in them^d. ¹⁶These^e are those who are sown on the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy. ¹⁷They have no root in themselves, but are short-lived. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately they stumble. ¹⁸And others^f are those who are sown among the thorns; these are the ones who have heard the word, ¹⁹but the cares of the^g age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. ²⁰But those which were sown on the good ground are those who hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, some thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times.”

²¹And he said to them, “Is the lamp brought to be put under a basket^h or under a bed? Is not it put on a stand? ²²For there is nothing hidden, except that it should be made known; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light. ²³If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.”

²⁶And he said, “The Kingdom of God is as if a man should cast seed on the earth, ²⁷and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he does not know how. ²⁸For the earth bears fruit: first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. ²⁹But when the fruit is ripe, immediately he puts forth the sickle, because the harvest has come.”

³⁰And he said, “To what will we liken the Kingdom of God? Or with what parable will we use for it? ³¹It’s like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, though it is less than all the seeds that are on the earth, ³²yet when it is sown, grows up, and becomes greater than all the herbs, and puts out great branches, so that the birds of the sky can lodge under its shadow.”

out of the boat, immediately a man with an unclean spirit met him out of the tombs. ³He lived in the tombs. And no one could bind him any more, not even with chains, ⁴because he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the fetters broken in pieces. No one had the strength to tame him. ⁵Always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. ⁶When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and bowed down to him, ⁷and crying out with a loud voice, he said, “What have I to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, do not torment me.” ⁸For he said to him, “Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!”

⁹Then he asked him, “What is your name?”

He replied, “My name is Legion, for we are many.” ¹⁰And he begged him much that he would not send them away out of the region. ¹¹Now on the mountainside there was a great herd of pigs feeding. ¹²They^a begged him, saying, “Send us into the pigs, that we may enter into them.”

¹³He^b gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out and entered into the pigs. The herd of about two thousand rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and they were drowned in the sea. ¹⁴Those who fed them^c fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

The people came out to see what it was that had happened. ¹⁵They came to Jesus, and saw him who had been possessed by demons sitting, clothed, and in his right mind, even him who had the legion; and they were afraid. ¹⁶And those who saw it declared to them how it happened to him who was possessed by demons, and about the pigs. ¹⁷Then they began to beg him to depart from their region.

¹⁸As he was entering into the boat, he who had been possessed by demons begged him that he might be with him. ¹⁹And he^d did not allow him, but said to him, “Go to your house, to your own, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how he had mercy on you.”

²⁴And he went with him, and a great crowd followed him, and they pressed upon him on all sides. ²⁵Now a ^bwoman, who had an issue of blood for twelve years, ²⁶and had suffered many things by many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better, but rather grew worse, ²⁷having heard the things concerning Jesus, came up behind him in the crowd, and touched his clothes. ²⁸For she said, “If I just touch his clothes, I will be made well.” ²⁹And immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.

³⁰And immediately Jesus, perceiving in himself that the power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd, and asked, “Who touched my clothes?”

³¹And his disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing against you, and you say, ‘Who touched me?’”

³²He looked around to see her who had done this thing. ³³But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

³⁴And he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be cured of your disease.”

³⁵While he was still speaking, people came from the synagogue ruler’s house saying, “Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher any more?”

³⁶But Jesus, overhearing the message spoken, ^csaid to the ruler of the synagogue, “Do not be afraid, only believe.” ³⁷He allowed no one to follow him, except Peter, James, and John the brother of James. ³⁸And they ^dcame to the synagogue ruler’s house, and he saw an uproar, weeping, and great wailing. ³⁹When he had entered in, he said to them, “Why do you make an uproar and weep? They were amazed with great amazement.⁴³ And he strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and commanded that something should be given to her to eat.

6 And he went out from there and came into his own country, and his disciples followed him.² When the Sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing him were astonished, saying, “Where did this man get these things?” and, “What is the wisdom that is given to this man, that such mighty works come about by his hands?”³ Is not this the carpenter^b, the son of Mary, and brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? Are not his sisters here with us?” They were offended at him.

⁴Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own relatives, and in his own house.”⁵ And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people, and healed them.⁶ And He marvelled because of their unbelief.

And he went around the villages teaching.⁷ And he called to himself the twelve, and began to send them out two by two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits.⁸ And he commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only: no bread, no wallet, no money in their purse,⁹ but to wear sandals, and not to put on two tunics.¹⁰ And he said to them, “Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from there. ¹¹Whoever will not receive you nor hear you, as you depart from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony against them.”¹¹

¹²So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent.¹³ They cast out many demons, and anointed many with oil who were sick, and healed them.¹⁴ King Herod heard this, for his name had become known, and he said, “John the Baptist has risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him.”¹⁵ But others said, “He is Elijah.” Others said, “He is a prophet, like one of the prophets.”¹⁶ But Herod, when he heard this, said, “This is John, whom I beheaded. And when he heard him, he was very perplexed^a, but he heard him gladly.

²¹And then a convenient day came, that Herod on his birthday gave^b a supper for his nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of Galilee. ²²And when the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those sitting with him. The king said to the young lady, "Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you." ²³And he swore to her, "Whatever you shall ask of me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom."

²⁴So she went out, and said to her mother, "What shall I ask?"

And she said, "The head of John the Baptist."

²⁵And she came in immediately with haste to the king, and asked, "I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptist on a platter."

²⁶And the king was exceedingly sorry, but for the sake of his oaths, and of his dinner guests, he did not wish to refuse her. ²⁷So immediately the king sent out a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring John's head, and he went and beheaded him in the prison, ²⁸and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the young lady; and the young lady gave it to her mother.

²⁹And when his disciples heard this, they came and took up his corpse, and placed it in a tomb.

³⁰Then the apostles gathered themselves together to Jesus, and they told him all things, whatever they had done, and whatever they had taught. ³¹And he said to them, "Come away by yourselves to an isolated place, and rest awhile." For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat. ³²So they went away in the boat to an isolated place by themselves. ³³But they^c saw them going, and many recognized him and ran there on foot from all the cities and they arrived before them^d. ³⁴And he^e came out, saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them,

He entered into a house, and did not want anyone to know it, but he could not escape notice.²⁵ For a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, immediately^d came and fell down at his feet.²⁶ Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by race. ³⁴He called the crowd to himself with his disciples, and said to them, “If anyone^b wants to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. ³⁵For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; and whoever will lose his life for my sake and the sake of the Good News will save it. ³⁶For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world, and forfeit his soul? ³⁷Or what will a man give in exchange

9 He said to them, “Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste death until they see the Kingdom of God come with power.”

²After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and brought them up onto a high mountain privately by themselves, and he was changed into another form in front of them. ³His clothing became glistening, exceedingly white,^c such as no launderer on earth can whiten them. ⁴Elijah and Moses appeared to them, and they were talking with Jesus.

⁹As they were coming down from the mountain, he commanded them that they should tell no one what things they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. ¹⁰They kept this saying to themselves, questioning what the “rising from the dead” meant.

¹¹They asked him, saying, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”

¹²He^a told them, “Elijah indeed comes first, and restores all things. How is it written about the Son of Man, that he should suffer many things and be despised? ¹³But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they have also done to him whatever they wanted to, even as it is written about him.”

¹⁴And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and scribes questioning them. ¹⁵Immediately all the crowd, when they saw him, were greatly amazed, and running to him greeted him. ¹⁶He asked them^b, “What are you asking them?”

¹⁷And one out of the crowd answered him^c, and said, “Teacher, I brought to you my son, who has a mute spirit; ¹⁸and wherever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, and grinds his teeth, and wastes away. I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they weren’t able.”

¹⁹He answered him, “Unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to me.”

²⁰They brought him to him, and when he saw him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground, wallowing and foaming at the mouth.

²¹He asked his father, “How long has it been since this has come to him?”

He said, “From childhood. ²²Often it has cast him both into the fire and into the water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us.”

Jesus^a said to them, “Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

12 He began to speak to them in parables. “A man planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a pit for the winepress, built a tower, rented it out to a farmer, and went on a journey. ²When it was time, he sent a servant to the farmer to get from the farmer his share of the fruit of the vineyard. ³They took him, beat him, and sent him away empty. ⁴Again, he sent another servant to them; and they^b wounded him in the head, and^c treated him shamefully. ⁵And^d he sent another; and they killed him; and many others, beating some, and killing some. ⁶He had one left^e, a beloved son, he sent him last to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’ ⁷But those farmers said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’ ⁸They took him, killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. ⁹What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers, and will give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰Haven’t you even read this Scripture: ‘The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made the head of the corner.

¹¹This was from the Lord, it is marvelous in our eyes?’^f”

¹²They tried to seize him, but they feared the crowd; for they perceived that he spoke the parable against them. They left him, and went away. ¹³They sent some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians to him, that they might trap him with words. ¹⁴When they had come, they asked him, “Teacher, we know that you are honest, and do not defer to anyone; for you are not partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? ¹⁵Should we pay, or should we not pay?”

But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, “Why do you test me? Bring me a denarius, that I may see it.”

¹⁶They brought it.

He said to them, “Whose is this image and inscription?”

They said to him, “Caesar’s.”

¹⁷And Jesus^g said to them, “Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”

Last of all the woman also died. ²³In the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be of them? For the seven had her as a wife.”

²⁴Jesus^d said to them, “Is not this because you are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God? ²⁵For when they will rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. ²⁶But about the dead, that they are raised; have you not read in the book of Moses, about the Bush, how God spoke to him, saying, ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’^e? ²⁷He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are therefore badly mistaken.”

²⁸And one of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together. Seeing^f that he had answered them well, asked him, “Which commandment is the greatest of all?”

³⁴When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, “You are not far from the Kingdom of God.”

No one dared ask him any question after that. ³⁵Jesus responded, as he taught in the temple, “How is it that the scribes say that the Messiah is the son of David? ³⁶David^b himself said in the Holy Spirit, ⁶But Jesus said, “Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for me. ⁷For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want to, you can do them good; but you will not always have me. ⁸She has done what she could. ¹⁰Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went away to the chief priests, that he might deliver him to them. ¹¹They, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money. He sought how he might conveniently deliver him. ¹²On the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the Passover, his disciples asked him, “Where do you want us to go and make ready that you may eat the Passover?”

¹³He sent two of his disciples, and said to them, “Go into the city, and there you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. ³²They came to a place which was named Gethsemane. He said to his disciples, “Sit here, while I pray.” ³³He took with him Peter, James, and John, and began to be greatly troubled and distressed. ³⁴He said to them, “My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch.”

³⁵He went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him. ³⁶He said, “Abba, Father, all things are possible to you. Please remove this cup from me. However, not what I desire, but what you desire.”

It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴²Arise, let us be going. Behold, he who betrays me is near.”

⁴³Immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, came—and with him a^b crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. ⁴⁴Now he who betrayed him had given them a sign, saying, “Whomever I will kiss, that is he. Seize him, and lead him away safely.” ⁴⁵When he had come, immediately he came to him, and said, “Rabbi!”^c and kissed him. ⁴⁶They laid^d hands on him, and seized him. ⁴⁷But a certain one of those who stood by drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

⁴⁸Jesus answered them, “Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me? ⁴⁹I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me. But this is so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled.”

⁵⁴Peter had followed him from a distance, until he came into the court of the high priest. He was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire. ⁵⁵Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witnesses against Jesus to put him to death, and found none. ⁵⁶For many gave false testimony against him, and their testimony did not agree with each other. ⁵⁷Some stood up, and gave false testimony against him, saying, ⁵⁸“We heard him say, ‘I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.’” ⁵⁹Even so, their testimony did not agree.

What do you think?” They all condemned him to be worthy of death. ⁶⁵Some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to beat him with fists, and to tell him, “Prophecy!” The officers struck him with the palms of their hands.

⁶⁶Now as Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the servant girls of the high priest came, ⁶⁷and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him, and said, “You were also with the Nazarene, Jesus!”

⁶⁸But he denied it, saying, “I neither know, nor understand what you are saying.” He went out on the porch.^a

Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him. ²Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. ³They were saying among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?" ⁴for it was very big. Looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back.

⁵Entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were amazed. ⁶He said to them, "Do not be amazed. You seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has risen. He is not here. Behold, the place where they put him! ⁷But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He goes before you into Galilee. There you will see him, as he said to you.'"
⁸They went out, and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had come on them. They said nothing to anyone; for they were afraid.^a

⁹Now when he had risen early on the first day of the week,^b he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. ¹⁰She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept. ¹¹When they heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, they disbelieved. ¹²After these things he was revealed in another form to two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country. ¹³They went away and told it to the rest. 1 Since many have undertaken to set in order a narrative concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us, ²even as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word delivered them to us, ³it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus; ⁴that you might know the certainty concerning the things in which you were instructed.

⁵There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zechariah, of the division of Abijah. He had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth^e. ⁶They were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. ⁷But they had no child, because Elisabeth was barren, and they both were well advanced in years. ⁸Now it happened, while he was performing the priest's office before God in the order of his division, ⁹according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the temple of the Lord and burn incense. ¹⁰And the whole crowd of people were praying outside at the hour of incense.

¹¹An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. ¹²Zechariah was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. ¹³But the angel said to him, “Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your request has been heard, and your wife, Elisabeth, will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John.^f ¹⁴You will have joy and gladness; and many will rejoice at his birth. ¹⁵For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and he will drink no wine nor strong drink. ¹⁸Zechariah said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."

¹⁹The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news. ²⁰Behold, you will be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things will happen, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

²¹The people were waiting for Zechariah, and they marveled that he delayed in the temple. ²²When he came out, he could not speak to them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple. He continued making signs to them, and remained mute. ²³It happened, when the days of his service were fulfilled, he departed to his house. ²⁴After these days Elisabeth, his wife, conceived, and she hid herself five months, saying, ²⁵"Thus has the Lord done to me in the days in which he looked at me, to take away my reproach among people."

²⁶Now in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, ²⁷to a virgin pledged to be married to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. ²⁸Having come in, the angel said to her, "Rejoice, you highly favored one! The Lord is with you!"^a ²⁹But when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered what kind of salutation this might be. ³⁰The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. ³¹Behold, you will conceive in your womb, and bring forth a son, and will call his name 'Jesus.' ³²He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father, David, ³³and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever.^b There will be no end to his Kingdom."

³⁸Mary said, “Behold, the handmaid of the Lord; be it to me according to your word.”

The angel departed from her.³⁹Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah,⁴⁰and entered into the house of Zechariah and greeted Elisabeth.⁴¹It happened, when Elisabeth heard Mary’s greeting, that the baby leaped in her womb, and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.⁴²She called out with a loud voice, and said, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!⁴³Why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?⁴⁴For behold, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy!⁴⁵Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord!”

⁴⁶Mary said,

And they were all amazed. ⁶⁴His mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue freed, and he spoke, blessing God. ⁶⁵Fear came on all who lived around them, and all these sayings were talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea. ⁶⁶All who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, “What then will this child be?” The hand of the Lord was with him. ⁶⁷His father, Zechariah, was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, ⁸⁰The child was growing, and becoming strong in spirit, and was in the desert until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

2 Now it happened in those days, that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled. ²This was the first enrollment^a made when Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³All went to enroll themselves, everyone to his own city. ⁴Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David; ⁵to enroll himself with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him^b, being pregnant.

⁶It happened, while they were there, that the day had come that she should give birth. ⁷She brought forth her firstborn son, and she wrapped him in bands of cloth, and placed him in a feeding trough, because there was no room for them in the inn. ⁸There were shepherds in the same country staying in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock. ⁹Behold, an angel of the Lord

stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. ¹⁰The angel said to them, “Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all the people. ¹¹For there is born to you, this day, in the city of David, a Savior, who is Messiah, the Lord. ¹²This is the sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a feeding trough.” ¹³Suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly army praising God, and saying, ¹⁴“Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace among those in whom he is pleased.”

¹⁵It happened, when the angels went away from them into the sky, that the men, the shepherds, said one to another, “Let us go to Bethlehem, now, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.” ¹⁶They came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby was lying in the feeding trough. ¹⁷When they saw it, they publicized widely the saying which was spoken to them about this child. ¹⁸All who heard it wondered at the things which were spoken to them by the shepherds. ¹⁹But Mary kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart. ²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, just as it was told them.

⁴²When he was twelve years old, they went up^c according to the custom of the feast, ⁴³and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents^d did not know it, ⁴⁴but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey, and they looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances. ⁴⁵When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem, looking for him. ⁴⁶It happened after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them, and asking them questions. ⁴⁷All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. ⁴⁸When they saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us this way? Behold, your father and I were anxiously looking for you."

⁴⁹He said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be doing the works of my Father?" ⁵⁰They did not understand the saying which he spoke to them. ⁵¹And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth. He was subject to them, and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. ⁵²And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man.

⁷He said therefore to the crowds who went out to be baptized by him, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? ⁸Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say among yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father;' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones! ⁹Even now the axe also lies at the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire."

¹⁰The crowds asked him, "What then must we do?"

¹¹He answered them, "He who has two coats, let him give to him who has none. He who has food, let him do likewise."

¹²Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what must we do?"

¹³He said to them, "Collect no more than that which is appointed to you."

¹⁴Soldiers also asked him, saying, "What about us? What must we do?"

He said to them, "Extort from no one by violence, neither accuse anyone wrongfully. Be content with your wages."

¹⁵As the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John, whether perhaps he was the Messiah, ¹⁶John answered them all, "I indeed baptize you with water, but he comes who is mightier than I, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire, ¹⁷whose fan is in his hand, to^b thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor, and will gather the wheat into his barn; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

¹⁸Then with many other exhortations he preached good news to the people, ¹⁹but Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias, his brother's^c wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done, ²⁰added this also to them all, that he shut up John in prison. ²¹Now it happened, when all the people were baptized, Jesus also had been baptized, and was praying. Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God!”

³⁵Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” When the demon had thrown him down in their midst, he came out of him, having done him no harm.

³⁶Amazement came on all, and they spoke together, one with another, saying, “What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!” ³⁷News about him went out into every place of the surrounding region.

³⁸He rose up from the synagogue, and entered into Simon’s house. Simon’s mother-in-law was afflicted with a great fever, and they begged him for her. ³⁹He stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her. Immediately she rose up and served them. ⁴⁰When the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. ⁴¹Demons also came out from many, crying out, and saying, “You are the^a Son of God!” Rebuking them, he did not allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Messiah.

7 After he had finished speaking in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum. ²A certain centurion’s servant, who was dear to him, was sick and at the point of death. ³When he heard about Jesus, he sent to him Jewish elders, asking him to come and save his servant. ⁴When they came to Jesus, they begged him earnestly, saying, “He is worthy for you to do this for him, ⁵for he loves our nation, and he built our synagogue for us.” ⁶Jesus went with them. I tell this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes; and to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

⁹When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned and said to the crowd who followed him, “I tell you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Israel.” ¹⁰Those who were sent, returning to the house, found the servant^b was well.

¹¹It happened soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Nain. With him were the twelve, ²and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out; ³and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod’s steward; Susanna; and many others; who provided for them from their possessions. ⁴When a great crowd came together, and people from every city were coming to him, he spoke by a parable. ⁵“The farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the road, and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the sky devoured it. ⁶Other seed fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. ⁷Other fell amid the thorns, and the thorns grew with it, and choked it. ⁸Other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit one hundred times.” As he said these things, he called out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

⁹Then his disciples asked him, “What does this parable mean?”

¹⁰He said, “To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables; that ‘seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.’^a ¹¹Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. ¹²Those along the road are those who hear, then the devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. ¹³Those on the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; but these have no root, who believe for a while, then fall away in time of temptation. ¹⁴That which fell among the thorns, these are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity. ¹⁵That in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it tightly, and bring forth fruit with patience.

²²Now it happened on one of those days, that he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples, and he said to them, “Let us go over to the other side of the lake.” So they launched out. ²³But as they sailed, he fell asleep. A wind storm came down on the lake, and they were taking on dangerous amounts of water. ²⁴So they came to him, and awoke him, saying, “Master, master, we are dying!” And he awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and it was calm. ²⁵He said to them, “Where is your faith?” Being afraid they marveled, saying one to another, “Who is this, then, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?” ²⁶They arrived at the country of the Gerasenes^a, which is opposite Galilee.

²⁷When Jesus stepped ashore, a certain man out of the city who had demons for a long time met him. He wore no clothes, and did not live in a house, but in the tombs. ²⁸When he saw Jesus, he shouted, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said,

“What do I have to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me!” ²⁹For Jesus was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For the unclean spirit had often seized the man. He was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters. Breaking the bands apart, he was driven by the demon into the desert.

³⁰Jesus asked him, “What is your name?”

He said, “Legion,” for many demons had entered into him. ³¹They^b begged him that he would not command them to go into the abyss.^c ³²Now there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they begged him that he would allow them to enter into those. ⁴⁰When^b Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him.⁴¹ Behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. He fell down at Jesus’ feet, and begged him to come into his house,⁴² for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went, the crowds pressed against him.⁴³ A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her living on physicians,^c and could not be healed by any,⁴⁴ came behind him, and touched the fringe of his cloak, and immediately the flow of her blood stopped.⁴⁵ Jesus said, “Who touched me?”

When all denied it, Peter^d said, “Master, the crowds press and jostle you.”^e ⁴⁶But Jesus said, “Someone did touch me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me.”⁴⁷ When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared to him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.⁴⁸ He said to her, “Daughter,^f your faith has made you well. ⁵³They were ridiculing him, knowing that she was dead. ⁵⁴But he,^b taking her by the hand, called, saying, “Child, arise!” ⁵⁵Her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. He commanded that something be given to her to eat. ⁵⁶Her parents were amazed, but he commanded them to tell no one what had been done.

⁶They departed, and went throughout the villages, proclaiming the Good News, and healing everywhere. ⁷Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done^f; and he was very perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead,⁸ and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again. ⁹Herod said, “John I beheaded, but who is this, about whom I hear such things?” He sought to see him. ¹⁰The apostles, when they had returned, told him what things they had done.

¹³But he said to them, “You give them something to eat.”

They said, “We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we should go and buy food for all these people.” ¹⁴For they were about five thousand men.

He said to his disciples, “Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each.” ¹⁵They did so, and made them all sit down. ¹⁶He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to the sky, he blessed them, and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. ¹⁷They ate, and were all filled. They gathered up twelve baskets of broken pieces that were left over.

¹⁸It happened, as he was praying alone, that the disciples were with him, and he asked them, “Who do the crowds say that I am?”

¹⁹They answered, “‘John the Baptist,’ but others say, ‘Elijah,’ and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again.”

²⁰He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”

Peter answered, “The Messiah of God.”

²¹But he warned them, and commanded them to tell this to no one, ²²saying, “The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.”

²³He said to all, “If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross daily^a, and follow me. ²⁴For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same will save it. ²⁵For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits his own self? ²⁶For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed, when he comes in his glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels. ²⁷But I tell you the truth: There are some of those who stand here, who will in no way taste of death, until they see the Kingdom of God.”

²⁸It happened about eight days after these sayings, that he took with him Peter, John, and James, and went up onto the mountain to pray. ²⁹As he was praying, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became white and dazzling. ³⁰Behold, two men were talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah, ³¹who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure,^b which ³²Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, but when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him. ³³It happened, as they were parting from him, that Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three tents: one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah,” not knowing what he said.

³⁴While he said these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud. ³⁵A voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is my Son, my Chosen One.^a Listen to him!” ³⁶When the voice came, Jesus was found alone. They were silent, and told no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.

³⁷It happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a great crowd met him. ³⁸Behold, a man from the crowd called out, saying, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child. ³⁹Behold, a spirit takes him, he suddenly cries out, and it convulses him so that he foams, and it hardly departs from him, bruising him severely. ⁴⁰I begged your disciples to cast it out, and they could not.”

⁴¹Jesus answered, “Faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here.”

⁴²While he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him violently. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. ⁴³They were all astonished at the majesty of God.

But while all were marveling at all the things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples, ⁴⁴“Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of Man will be delivered up into the hands of men.” ⁴⁵But they did not understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

⁴⁶There arose an argument among them about which of them was the greatest. ⁴⁷Jesus, knowing^b the reasoning of their hearts, took a little child, and set him by his side, ⁴⁸and said to them, “Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me. Whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For whoever is least among you all, this one will be great.”

⁴²The Lord said, “Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the right times? ⁴³Blessed is that servant whom his lord will find doing so when he comes. ⁴⁴Truly I tell you, that he will set him over all that he has. ⁴⁵But if that servant says in his heart, ‘My lord delays his coming,’ and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunk, ⁴⁶then the lord of that servant will come in a day when he is not expecting him, and in an hour that he does not know, and will cut him in two, and place his portion with the unfaithful. ⁴⁷That servant, who knew his lord’s will, and did not prepare, nor do what he wanted, will be beaten with many stripes, ⁴⁸but he who did not know, and did things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few stripes. To whomever much is given, of him will much be required; and to whom much was entrusted, of him more will be asked.

⁴⁹“I came to throw fire on the earth. I wish it were already kindled. ⁵⁰But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished! ⁵¹Do you think that I have come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, no, but rather division. ⁵²For from now on, there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. ⁵³They will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.”

⁵⁴He said to the crowds also, “When you see a cloud rising from the west, immediately you say, ‘A shower is coming,’ and so it happens. ⁵⁵When a south wind blows, you say, ‘There will be a scorching heat,’ and it happens. ⁵⁶You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the 13 Now there were some present at the same time who told him about the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.² Jesus answered them, “Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered these^b things?”³ I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way.⁴ Or those eighteen, on whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them; do you think that they were worse offenders than all the men who dwell in Jerusalem?”⁵ I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way.”

⁶He spoke this parable. “A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it, and found none.⁷ He said to the vine dresser, ‘Behold, these three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and found none. Cut it down. Why does it waste the soil?’⁸ He answered, ‘Lord, leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it, and fertilize it.⁹ If it bears fruit, fine; but if not, after that, you can cut it down.’”

¹⁰He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath day.¹¹ Behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and she was bent over, and could in no way straighten herself up.¹² When Jesus saw her, he called her, and said to her, “Woman, you are freed from your infirmity.”¹³ He laid his hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight, and glorified God.

¹⁴The ruler of the synagogue, being indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the crowd, “There are six days in which men ought to work. Therefore come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day!”

¹⁵Therefore the Lord answered him, “You hypocrites!^c Does not each one of you free his ¹⁷As he said these things, all his adversaries were disappointed, and all the crowd rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

¹⁸He said, "What is the Kingdom of God like? To what shall I compare it? ¹⁹It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and put in his own garden. It grew, and became a^a tree, and the birds of the sky lodged in its branches."

²⁰Again he said, "To what shall I compare the Kingdom of God? ²¹It is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in three measures^b of flour, until it was all leavened."

²²He went on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and traveling on to Jerusalem. ²³One said to him, "Lord, are they few who are saved?"

He said to them, ²⁴"Strive to enter in by the narrow door^c, for many, I tell you, will seek to enter in, and will not be able. ²⁵When once the master of the house has risen up, and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside, and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord,^d open to us!' then he will answer and tell you, 'I do not know you or where you come from.' ²⁶Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.' ²⁷He will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity.' ²⁸There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets, in the Kingdom of God, and yourselves being thrown outside. ²⁹They will come from the east, west, north, and south, and will sit down in the Kingdom of God. ³⁰Behold, there are some who are last who will be first, and there are some who are first who will be last."

14 It happened, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching him. ²Behold, a certain man who had dropsy was in front of him. ³Jesus, answering, spoke to the Law scholars and Pharisees, saying, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?”

⁴But they were silent.

He took him, and healed him, and let him go. ⁵He answered them, “Which of you, if your son^d or an ox fell into a well, would not immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?”

⁶They could not answer him regarding these things.

⁷He spoke a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the best seats, and said to them, ⁸“When you are invited by anyone to a marriage feast, do not sit in the best seat, since perhaps someone more honorable than you might be invited by him, ⁹and he who invited both of you would come and tell you, ‘Make room for this person.’ Then you would begin, with shame, to take the lowest place. ¹⁰But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes, he may tell you, ‘Friend, move up higher.’ Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. ¹¹For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.”

¹²He also said to the one who had invited him, “When you make a dinner or a supper, do not call your friends, nor your brothers, nor your kinsmen, nor rich neighbors, or perhaps they might also return the favor, and pay you back. ¹³But when you make a feast, ask the poor, the maimed, the lame, or the blind; ¹⁴and you will be blessed, because they do not have the resources to repay you. things, he said to him, “Blessed is he who will eat bread^a in the Kingdom of God!”

¹⁶But he said to him, “A certain man made a great supper, and he invited many people. ¹⁷He sent out his servant at supper time to tell those who were invited, ‘Come, for everything is ready now.’ ¹⁸They all as one began to make excuses.

“The first said to him, ‘I have bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please have me excused.’

¹⁹“Another said, ‘I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I must go try them out. Please have me excused.’

²⁰“Another said, ‘I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.’

²¹“That servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor, maimed, blind, and lame.’

²²“The servant said, ‘Lord, it is done as you commanded, and there is still room.’

²³“The lord said to the servant, ‘Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. ²⁴For I tell you that none of those men who were invited will taste of my supper.’”

²⁵Now great crowds were going with him. He turned and said to them, ²⁶“If anyone comes to me, and does not hate^b his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. ²⁷Whoever does not bear his own cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. ²⁸For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it? ²⁹Or perhaps, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, everyone who sees begins to mock him, ³⁰saying, ‘This man began to build, and was not able to finish.’ ³¹Or what king, as he goes to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? ³²Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends an envoy, and asks for conditions of peace. ³³So therefore whoever of you who does not renounce all that he has, he cannot be my disciple. ³⁴Salt is good, but if the salt becomes flat and tasteless, with what do you season it? ³⁵It is fit neither for the soil nor

15 Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming close to him to hear him. ²The Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, “This man welcomes sinners, and eats with them.”

³He told them this parable. ⁴“Which of you men, if you had one hundred sheep, and lost one of them, would not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one that was lost, until he found it? ⁵When he has found it, he carries it on his shoulders, rejoicing. ⁶When he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!’ ⁷I tell you that even so there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance. ⁸Or what woman, if she had ten drachma^a coins, if she lost one drachma coin, would not light a lamp, sweep the house, and seek diligently until she found it? ⁹When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma which I had lost.’ ¹⁰Even so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner repenting.”

¹¹He said, “A certain man had two sons. ¹²The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me my share of your property.’ He divided his livelihood between them. ¹³Not many days after, the younger son gathered all of this together and traveled into a far country. There he wasted his property with riotous living. ¹⁴When he had spent all of it, there arose a severe famine in that country, and he began to be in need. ¹⁵He went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed pigs. ¹⁶And he wanted to fill himself with the carob pods that the pigs ate, but no one gave him any. ¹⁷But when he came to himself he said, ‘How many hired servants of my father’s have bread enough to spare, and I’m dying with hunger! ¹⁸I will get up and go to my father, and will tell him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. ¹⁹I am no more worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your hired servants.’”

²⁰“He arose, and came to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. ²¹The son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’

²²“But the father said to his servants, ‘Quickly^a, bring out the best robe, and put it on him. Put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. ²³Bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat, and celebrate; ²⁴For this, my son, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.’ They began to celebrate.

²⁵“Now his elder son was in the field. As he came near to the house, he heard music and dancing. ²⁶He called one of the servants to him, and asked what was going on. ²⁷He said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and healthy.’ ²⁸But he was angry, and would not go in. Therefore his father came out, and begged him. ²⁹But he answered his father, ‘Behold, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed a commandment of yours, but you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. ³⁰But when this, your son, came, who has devoured your living with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him.’

³¹“He said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. ³²But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your brother, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.’”

16 He also said to his disciples, “There was a certain rich man who had a manager. An accusation was made to him that this man was wasting his possessions. ²He called him, and said to him, ‘What is this that I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.’

³“The manager said within himself, ‘What will I do, seeing that my lord is taking away the management position from me? I do not have strength to dig. I am ashamed to beg. ⁴I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from management, they may receive me into their houses.’ ⁵Calling each one of his lord’s debtors to him, he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe to my lord?’ ⁶He said, ‘A hundred batos^b of oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.’ ⁷Then said he to another, ‘How much do you owe?’ He said, ‘A hundred cors^c of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and write eighty.’

You are not able to serve God and wealth^b." ¹⁴The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they scoffed at him. ¹⁵He said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts. For that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. ¹⁶The Law and the Prophets were until John. From that time the Good News of the Kingdom of God is preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it. ¹⁷But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tiny stroke of a pen in the Law to become void. ¹⁸Everyone who divorces his wife, and marries another, commits adultery. He who marries one who is divorced from a husband commits adultery.

¹⁹"Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, living in luxury every day. ²⁰A certain beggar, named Lazarus, was placed at his gate, full of sores, ²¹and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table. Yes, even the dogs came and licked his sores. ²²It happened that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels to Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died, and was buried. ²³In hell^c, he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and saw Abraham far off, and Lazarus at his bosom. ²⁴He called out and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue! For I am in anguish in this flame.'

²⁵"But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that you, in your lifetime, received your good things, and Lazarus, in like manner, bad things. ²⁷“He said, ‘I ask you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father’s house; ²⁸for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, so they won’t also come into this place of torment.’

²⁹“But Abraham said to him, ‘They have Moses and the Prophets. Let them listen to them.’

³⁰“He said, ‘No, father Abraham, but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’

³¹“He said to him, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be persuaded if one rises from the dead.’”

17 He said to the disciples, “It is impossible that no occasions of stumbling should come, but woe to him through whom they come! ²It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. ³Be careful. If your brother sins^a, rebuke him. If he repents, forgive him. ⁴If he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times^b returns to you^c, saying, ‘I repent,’ you shall forgive him.”

⁵The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith.”

⁶The Lord said, “If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you would tell this sycamore tree, ‘Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you. ⁷But who is there among you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say, when he comes in from the field, ‘Come immediately and sit down at the table,’ ⁸and will not rather tell him, ‘Prepare my supper, clothe yourself properly, and serve me, while I eat and drink. Afterward you shall eat and drink?’ ⁹Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded?^d ¹⁰Even so you also, when you have done all the things that are commanded you, say, ‘We are unworthy servants. ²⁰Being asked by the Pharisees when the Kingdom of God would come, he answered them, “The Kingdom of God does not come with observation; ²¹neither will they say, ‘Look, here!’ or, ‘Look, there!’ for^a the Kingdom of God is within you.”

²²He said to the disciples, “The days will come, when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. ²³And they will tell you, ‘Look, there!’ or ‘Look, here!’ Do not go away, nor follow after them, ²⁴for as the lightning, when it flashes out of the one part under the sky, shines to the other part under the sky; so will the Son of Man be in his day.^b ²⁵But first, he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. ²⁶As it happened in the days of Noah, even so will it be also in the days of the Son of Man. ²⁷They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ship, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. ²⁸Likewise, even as it happened in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; ²⁹but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from the sky, and destroyed them all. ³⁰It will be the same way in the day that the Son of Man is revealed. ³¹In that day, he who will be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away. ⁶The Lord said, “Listen to what the unrighteous judge says. ⁷Won’t God avenge his chosen ones, who are crying out to him day and night, and yet he exercises patience with them? ⁸I tell you that he will avenge them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?”

⁹He spoke also this parable to certain people who were convinced of their own righteousness, and who despised all others. ¹⁰“Two men went up into the temple to pray; one was a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector. ¹¹The Pharisee stood and prayed to himself like this: ‘God, I thank you, that I am not like the rest of men, extortioners, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. ¹²I fast twice a week. I give tithes of all that I get.’ ¹³But the tax collector, standing far away, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’ ¹⁴I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

¹⁵Now they were also bringing their babies to him, that he might touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. ¹⁶Jesus summoned them, saying, “Allow the little children to come to me, and do not hinder them, for the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁷Truly, I tell you, whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God like a little child, he will in no way enter into it.”

²³But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was very rich.

²⁴Jesus, seeing that he became very sad,^b said, “How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the Kingdom of God!²⁵For it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle’s eye, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God.”

²⁶Those who heard it said, “Then who can be saved?”

He was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. ³He was trying to see who Jesus was, and could not because of the crowd, because he was short. ⁴He ran on ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was to pass that way. ⁵When Jesus came to the place, he looked up^a, and said to him, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house.” ⁶He hurried, came down, and received him joyfully. ⁷And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, “He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner.”

⁸Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, “Behold, Lord, half of my goods I give to the poor. If I have wrongfully exacted anything of anyone, I restore four times as much.”

⁹Jesus said to him, “Today, salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost.”

¹¹As they heard these things, he went on and told a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and they supposed that the Kingdom of God would be revealed immediately. ¹²He said therefore, “A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. ¹³He called ten servants of his, and gave them ten mina coins,^b and told them, ‘Conduct business until I come.’ ¹⁴But his citizens hated him, and sent an envoy after him, saying, ‘We do not want this man to reign over us.’”

¹⁵“It happened when he had come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by conducting business. ¹⁶The first came before him, saying, ‘Lord, your mina has made ten more minas.’”

¹⁷“He said to him, ‘Well done, you good servant! Because you were found faithful with very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.’

¹⁸“The second came, saying, ‘Your mina, Lord, has made five minas.’

¹⁹“So he said to him, ‘And you are to be over five cities.’
²⁰Another came, saying, ‘Lord, behold, your mina, which I kept laid away in a handkerchief,²¹ for I feared you, because you are an exacting man. You take up that which you did not lay down, and reap that which you did not sow.’

²²“He said to him, ‘Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked servant! You knew that I am an exacting man, taking up that which I did not lay down, and reaping that which I did not sow.²³ Then why did you not deposit my money in the bank, and at my coming, I might have earned interest on it?’²⁴ He said to those who stood by, ‘Take the mina away from him, and give it to him who has the ten minas.’

²⁵“They said to him, ‘Lord, he has ten minas!’²⁶ For I tell you that to everyone who has, will more be given; but from him who does not have, even that which he has will be taken away.²⁷ But bring those enemies of mine who did not want me to reign over them here, and kill them before me.’”²⁸ Having said these things, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

²⁹It happened, when he drew near to Bethphage^b and Bethany, at the mountain that is called Olivet, he sent two of his disciples,³⁰ saying, “Go your way into the village on the other side, in which, as you enter, you will find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat. Untie it, and bring it.³¹ If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ say to him: ‘The Lord needs it.’”

³²Those who were sent went away, and found things just as he had told them.³³ As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, “Why are you untying the colt?”³⁴ They said, “The Lord needs it.”³⁵ They brought it to Jesus. They threw their cloaks on the colt, and set Jesus on them.³⁶ As he went, they spread their cloaks in the way.³⁷ As he was now getting near, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works which they had seen,³⁸ saying, “Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord!^c Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest!”

³⁹Some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to him, “Teacher, rebuke your disciples!”

⁴⁰He answered them, “I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out.”

⁴¹When he drew near, he saw the city and wept over it, ⁴²saying, “If you, even you, had known today the things that make for peace! But now, they are hidden from your eyes. ⁴³For the days will come on you, when your enemies will throw up a barricade against you, surround you, hem you in on every side, ⁴⁴and will dash you and your children within you to the ground. They will not leave in you one stone on another, because you did not know the time of your visitation.”

⁴⁵He entered into the temple, and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it, ⁴⁶saying to them, “It is written, ‘My house is a house of prayer,’^a but you have made it a ‘den of robbers!’^b”

⁴⁷He was teaching daily in the temple, but the chief priests and the scribes and the leading men among the people sought to destroy him. ⁴⁸They could not find what they might do, for all the people hung on to every word that he said.

20 It happened on one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple and proclaiming the Good News, that the chief^c priests and scribes came to him with the elders. ²They asked him, “Tell us: by what authority do you do these things? Or who is giving you this authority?”

³He answered them, “I also will ask you one question. Tell me: ⁴the baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from man?”

⁵They reasoned with themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Why did you not believe him?’ ⁶But if we say, ‘From man,’ all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet.” ⁷They answered that they did not know where it was from.

⁸Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

⁹He began to tell the people this parable. “A ^dman planted a vineyard, and rented it out to some farmers, and went on a journey for a long time. ¹⁰At the proper season, he sent a servant to the farmers to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers beat him, and sent him away empty. ¹¹He sent yet another servant, and they also beat him, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. ¹²He sent yet a third, and they also wounded him, and threw him out.¹³ The lord of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be that^a they will respect him.’

¹⁴“But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, ‘This is the heir. ^bLet us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.’ ¹⁵They threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do to them? ¹⁶He will come and destroy these farmers, and will give the vineyard to others.”

When they heard it, they said, “May it never be!”

¹⁷But he looked at them, and said, “Then what is this that is written,
‘The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made the chief cornerstone?’^c ¹⁸Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but it will crush whomever it falls on to dust.”

¹⁹The chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on him that very hour, but they feared the people^d—for they knew he had spoken this parable against them.

²⁰They watched him, and sent out spies, who pretended to be righteous, that they might trap him in something he said, so as to deliver him up to the power and authority of the governor. ²¹They asked him, “Teacher, we know that you say and teach what is right, and are not partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. ²²Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”

²³But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them,^e ²⁴“Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription are on it?”

They answered, “Caesar’s.”

²⁵He said to them, “Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”

²⁶They weren’t able to trap him in his words before the people. They marveled at his answer, and were silent. ²⁷Some of the Sadducees came to him, those who deny that there is a resurrection. ²⁸They asked him, “Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man’s brother dies having a

For the seven had her as a wife.”

³⁴Jesus said to them, “The sons of this age marry, and are given in marriage.³⁵ But those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.³⁶ For they cannot die any more, for they are like the angels, and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection.³⁷ But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he called the Lord ‘The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’^b³⁸ Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to him.”

³⁹Some of the scribes answered, “Teacher, you speak well.”⁴⁰ They did not dare to ask him any more questions.

⁴¹He said to them, “Why do they say that the Messiah is David’s son?⁴² David himself says in the scroll of Psalms,
‘The Lord said to my Lord, ‘Sit at my right hand,

⁴⁵In the hearing of all the people, he said to his disciples,⁴⁶ “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts;⁴⁷ who devour widows’ houses, and for a pretense make long prayers: these will receive greater condemnation.”

21 He looked up, and saw the rich people who were putting their gifts into the treasury.² He saw a certain poor widow casting in two small brass coins.^d³ He said, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow put in more than all of them,⁴ for all these put in gifts^e from their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, put in all that she had to live on.”

⁷They asked him, “Teacher, so when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are about to happen?”

⁸He said, “Watch out that you do not get led astray, for many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am he^a,’ and, ‘The time is near.’ Therefore do not follow them. ⁹When you hear of wars and disturbances, do not be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end won’t come immediately.”

¹⁰Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹There will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues in various places. There will be terrors and great signs from heaven. ¹²But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you up to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for my name’s sake. ¹³It will turn out as a testimony for you. ¹⁴Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand how to answer, ¹⁵for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to withstand or to contradict. ¹⁶You will be handed over even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. They will cause some of you to be put to death. ¹⁷You will be hated by all men for my name’s sake. ¹⁸And not a hair of your head will perish.

²⁹He told them a parable. “See the fig tree, and all the trees. ³⁰When they are already budding, you see it and know by your own selves that the summer is already near. ³¹Even so you also, when you see these things happening, know that the Kingdom of God is near. ³²Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things are accomplished. ³³Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.

³⁴“So be careful, or your hearts will be loaded down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day will come on you suddenly. ³⁵For it will come like a snare on all those who dwell on the surface of all the earth. ³⁶Therefore be watchful all the time, praying that you may be able^a to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

22 Now the feast of unleavened bread, which is called the Passover, drew near. ²The chief priests and the scribes sought how they might kill him, for they feared the people. ³Satan entered into Judas, who was called^b Iscariot, who was numbered with the twelve. ⁴He went away, and talked with the chief priests and captains about how he might deliver him to them. ⁵They were glad, and agreed to give him money. ⁶He consented, and sought an opportunity to deliver him to them in the absence of the crowd. ⁷The day of unleavened bread came, on which the Passover must be sacrificed. ⁸He sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat.”

⁹They said to him, “Where do you want us to prepare?”

¹⁰He said to them, “Behold, when you have entered into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. ¹⁹He took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave to them, saying, “This is my body which is given for you. Do this in memory of me.” ²⁰Likewise, he took the cup after supper, saying, “This cup is the New Covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. ²¹But behold, the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table. ²²The Son of Man indeed goes, as it has been determined, but woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!”

²³They began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing. ²⁴There arose also a contention among them, which of them was considered to be greatest. ²⁵He said to them, “The kings of the nations lord it over them, and those who have authority over them are called ‘benefactors.’

²⁶But not so with you. But one who is the greater among you, let him become as the younger, and one who is governing, as one who serves. ²⁷For who is greater, one who sits at the table, or one who serves? Is not it he who sits at the table? But I am in the midst of you as one who serves. ²⁸But you are those who have continued with me in my trials. ²⁹I confer on you a kingdom, even as my Father conferred on me, ³⁰that you may eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom. You will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.”

He said to them, “That is enough.”

³⁹He came out, and went, as his custom was, to the Mount of Olives. His disciples also followed him. ⁴⁰When he was at the place, he said to them, “Pray that you do not enter into temptation.”

⁴¹He was withdrawn from them about a stone’s throw, and he knelt down and prayed, ⁴²saying, “Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done.”

³⁹One of the criminals who hung there insulted him, saying, “Are you not^b the Messiah? Save yourself and us!”

⁴⁰But the other answered, and rebuking him said, “Do you not even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation? ⁴¹And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward for our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong.” ⁴²And he said, “Jesus,^c remember me when you come into your Kingdom.”

⁴³And he^d said to him, “Assuredly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.”

⁴⁴It was now about the sixth hour^e, and darkness came over the whole land^f until the ninth hour.^g

⁴⁵The sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in two. ⁴⁶Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, “Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!” Having said this, he breathed his last.

⁴⁷When the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, “Certainly this was a righteous man.” ⁴⁸All the crowds that came together to see this, when they saw the things that were done, returned home beating their breasts. ⁴⁹All his acquaintances, and the women who followed with him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

⁵⁰Behold, a man named Joseph, who was a member of the council, a good and righteous man ⁵¹(he had not consented to their counsel and deed), from Arimathaea, a city of the Judeans, who was also waiting for the Kingdom of God: ⁵²this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. ⁵³He took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and placed him in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no one had ever been placed. ⁵⁴It was the day of the Preparation, and the Sabbath was drawing near. ⁵⁵The women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and saw the tomb, and how his body was placed. ⁵⁶They returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

24 But on the first day of the week^a, at early dawn, they^b came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared. ²They found the stone rolled away from the tomb. ³They entered in, and did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴It happened, while they were greatly perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling clothing. ⁵Becoming terrified, they bowed their faces down to the earth.

They said to them, “Why do you seek the living among the dead? ⁶He is not here, but is risen. Remember what he told you when he was still in Galilee, ⁷saying that the Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again?”

⁸They remembered his words, ⁹returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the Eleven, and to all the rest. ¹⁰Now they were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James. The other women with them told these things to the apostles. ¹¹These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they did not believe them. ¹²But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and looking in, he saw the strips of linen^c by themselves, and he departed to his home, wondering what had happened.

¹³Behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was sixty stadia^d from Jerusalem. ¹⁴They talked with each other about all of these things which had happened. ¹⁵It happened, while they talked and questioned together, that Jesus himself came near, and went with them. ¹⁶But their eyes were kept from recognizing him. ¹⁷He said to them, “What are you talking about as you walk?” They stood still, looking sad.^e

¹⁸One of them, named Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things which have happened there in these days?”

¹⁹He said to them, “What things?”

They said to him, “The things concerning Jesus, the Nazarene, a man who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people; ²⁰and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. ²¹But we were hoping that it was he who would redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened. ²²Also, certain women of our company amazed us, having arrived early at the tomb; ²³and when they did not find his body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. ²⁴Some of us went to the tomb, and found it just like the women had said, but they did not see him.”

²⁵Then he said to them, “O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and to enter into his glory?” ²⁷Beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. ²⁸They drew near to the village, where they were going, and he acted like he would go further.

²⁹They urged him, saying, “Stay with us, for it is almost evening, and the day is almost over.”

He went in to stay with them. ³⁰It happened, that when he had sat down at the table with them, he took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, he gave to them. ³¹Their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he vanished out of their sight. ³²They said one to another, “Weren’t our hearts burning within us, while he spoke to us along the way, and while he opened the Scriptures to us?” ³³They rose up that very hour, returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them, ³⁴saying, “The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!” ³⁵They related the things that happened along the way, and how he was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.

³⁶As they said these things, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, “Peace be to you.”

³⁷But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

³⁸He said to them, “Why are you troubled? Why do doubts arise in your hearts? ³⁹See my hands and my feet, that it is truly me. Touch me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see that I have.” ⁴⁰When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. ⁴¹While they still did not believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, “Do you have anything here to eat?”

⁴²They gave him a piece of a broiled fish. ⁴³He took it and ate

John

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ²He was in the beginning with God. ³All things were made through him, and apart from him nothing was made that has been made. ⁴In him was life, and the life was the light of men. ⁵The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn’t overcome it. ⁶There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John. ⁷He came as a witness to testify about the light, that all might believe through him. ⁸He was not the light, but was sent that he might testify about the light. ⁹The true light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world.

¹⁰He was in the world, and the world was made through him, but the world did not recognize him. ¹¹He came to his own, and those who were his own did not receive him. ¹²But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to become God’s children, to those who believe in his name, ¹³who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. ¹⁴The Word became flesh and lived among us, and we saw his glory, such glory as of the one and only of the Father, full of grace and truth. ¹⁵John testified about him. He shouted out, saying, “This was he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me has surpassed me, for he was before me.”¹⁶For of his fullness we all received, and grace upon grace. ¹⁷For the Law was given through Moses, grace and truth were realized through Jesus Christ. ¹⁸No one has seen God at any time. The only God,^a who is at the Father’s side, has made him known.

¹⁹And this is John’s testimony, when the Jewish leaders^b sent^c priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, “Who are you?”

²⁰He confessed, and did not deny, but he confessed, “I am not the Messiah.”

²¹They asked him, “What then? Are you Elijah?”^d

²³He said, “I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, ‘Make straight the way of the Lord,’^g as Isaiah the prophet said.”

²⁴(Now they had been sent from the Pharisees.) ²⁵And they asked him, “Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?”

²⁶John answered them, saying, “I baptize in water, but among you stands one whom you do not know. ²⁷He is the one who comes after me,^h whose sandal strap I’m not worthy to loosen.” ²⁸These things were done in Bethanyⁱ across the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

²⁹The next day, he saw Jesus coming to him, and said, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! ³⁰This is he of whom I said, ‘After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me, because he existed before me.’

They came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour.^c ⁴⁰One of the two who heard John, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother. ⁴¹He first found his own brother, Simon, and said to him, “We have found the Messiah!” (which is translated, Christ). ⁴²He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him, and said, “You are Simon the son of John^d. Jesus answered him, “Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.”

⁴⁹Nathanael answered him, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are King of Israel!”

⁵⁰Jesus answered and said to him, “Because I told you, ‘I saw you underneath the fig tree,’ do you believe? You will see greater things than these!” ⁵¹And he said to him, “Truly, truly,^a I tell you,^b you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man.”

2 And the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. ²Now Jesus also was invited, with his disciples, to the wedding. ³When the wine ran out, Jesus’ mother said to him, “They have no wine.”

⁴Jesus said to her, “Woman, what does that have to do with you and me? My hour has not yet come.”

⁵His mother said to the servants, “Whatever he says to you, do it.” ⁶Now there were six water pots of stone set there after the Jewish manner of purifying, containing two or three metretes^c apiece. ⁷Jesus said to them, “Fill the water pots with water.” They filled them up to the brim. ⁸He said to them, “Now draw some out, and take it to the ruler of the feast.” So they took it. ⁹When the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast called the bridegroom, ¹⁰and said to him, “Everyone serves the good wine first, and when the guests have drunk freely, then that which is worse. You have kept the good wine until now!” ¹¹This beginning of his signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

¹²After this, he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; and they stayed there a few days. ¹³The Jewish Passover was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴And he found in the temple those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, and the money changers sitting. ¹⁵And he made a whip of cords, and threw all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers’ money, and overthrew their tables. ¹⁶To those who sold the doves, he said, “Take these things out of here! marketplace!”¹⁷ His disciples remembered that it was written, “Zeal for your house will consume me.”^a

¹⁸The Jewish leaders therefore answered him, “What sign do you show us, seeing that you do these things?”

¹⁹Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”

²⁰The Jewish leaders therefore said, “Forty-six years was this temple in building, and will you raise it up in three days?”

²¹But he spoke of the temple of his body. ²²When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this^b, and they believed the Scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

²³Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in his name after seeing his signs which he did. ²⁴But Jesus did not trust himself to them, because he knew everyone,²⁵ and because he did not need anyone to testify concerning man; for he himself knew what was in man.

3 Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jewish people. ²The same came to him by night, and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with him.”

³Jesus answered him, “Truly, truly, I tell you, unless one is born again he cannot see the Kingdom of God.”

⁴Nicodemus said to him, “How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother’s womb, and be born?”

⁵Jesus answered, “Truly, truly, I tell you, unless one is born of water and spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God! ⁶That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Spirit is spirit. ⁷Do not marvel that I said to you, ‘You must be born again.’ ⁸The wind^c blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but do not know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit.”

⁹Nicodemus answered and said to him, “How can these things be?”

¹⁰Jesus answered him, “Are you the teacher of Israel, and do not understand these things? ¹¹Truly, truly, I tell you, we speak that which we know, and testify of that which we have seen, and you do not receive our witness. ¹²If I told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? ¹³No one has ascended into heaven, but he who descended out of heaven, the Son of Man^a. ¹⁴As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, ¹⁵that whoever believes in him^b may have eternal life. ¹⁶For God so loved the world, that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life. ¹⁷For God did not send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world should be saved through him. ¹⁸He who believes in him is not judged. He who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the one and only Son of God. ¹⁹This is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil. ²⁰For everyone who does evil hates the light, and does not come to the light, lest his works would be exposed. ²¹But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been done in God.”

²²After these things, Jesus came with his disciples into the land of Judea. He stayed there with them, and baptized. ²³John also was baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because there was much water there. They came, and were baptized. ²⁴For John was not yet thrown into prison. ²⁵Now a dispute arose between John’s disciples with a Jew^c about purification. ²⁶They came to John, and said to him, “Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified, look, he is baptizing, and everyone is coming to him.”

²⁷John answered, “A man can receive nothing, unless it has been given to him from heaven. ²⁸You yourselves bear me witness^d that I said, ‘I am not the Messiah,’ but, ‘I have been sent before him.’ ²⁹He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom’s voice. So this joy of mine is now complete. ³⁰He must increase, but I must decrease. ³¹He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the earth belongs to the earth, and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all. ³²What he has seen and heard, of that he testifies; and no one receives his witness. ³³He who has received his witness has set his seal to this, that God is true. ³⁴For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God; for he^e does not give the Spirit by measure. ³⁵The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into

4 Therefore when Jesus^a knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John ²(although Jesus himself did not baptize, but his disciples), ³he left Judea, and departed again^b into Galilee. ⁴He needed to pass through Samaria. ⁵So he came to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son, Joseph. ⁶Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being tired from his journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour.^c ⁷A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, “Give me a drink.” ⁸For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

⁹The Samaritan woman therefore said to him, “How is it that you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?” (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

¹⁰Jesus answered her, “If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.”

¹¹The woman said to him, “Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. From where then have you that living water? ¹²Are you greater than our father, Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, as did his children, and his livestock?”

¹³Jesus answered her, “Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, ¹⁴but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst again; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life.”

¹⁵The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water, so that I do not get thirsty, neither come all the way here to draw.”

¹⁶Jesus said to her, “Go, call your husband, and come here.”

¹⁷The woman answered and said to him,^d “I have no husband.”

¹⁹The woman said to him, “Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. ²⁰Our fathers worshiped in this mountain, and you say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship.”

²¹Jesus said to her, “Woman, believe me, the hour comes, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, will you worship the Father. ²²You worship that which you do not know. We worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews. ²³But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such to be his worshippers. ²⁴God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.”

²⁵The woman said to him, “I know that Messiah comes,” (he who is called Christ). “When he has come, he will declare to us all things.”

²⁶Jesus said to her, “I am he, the one who speaks to you.” ²⁷At this, his disciples came. They marveled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no one said, “What are you looking for?” or, “Why do you speak with her?” ²⁸So the woman left her water pot, and went away into the city, and said to the people, ²⁹“Come, see a man who told me everything that I did. Can this be the Messiah?”

³⁰They went out of the city, and were coming to him. ³¹In the meanwhile, the disciples urged him, saying, “Rabbi, eat.”

³²But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you do not know about.”

³⁴Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work. ³⁵Do you not say, ‘There are yet four months until the harvest?’ Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes and see the fields, that they are white for harvest already. ³⁶He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to eternal life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. ³⁷For in this the saying is true, ‘One sows, and another reaps.’ ³⁸I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.”

³⁹From that city many of the Samaritans believed in him because of the word of the woman, who testified, “He told me everything that I did.” ⁴⁰So when the Samaritans came to him, they begged him to stay with them. He stayed there two days. ⁴¹Many more believed because of his word. ⁴²They said to the woman, “Now we believe, not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the^a Savior of the world.”

⁴³After the two days he went out from there and went into Galilee. ⁴⁴For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. ⁴⁵So when he came into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast, for they also went to the feast. ⁴⁶Jesus came therefore again to Cana of Galilee, where he made the water into wine. There was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. ⁴⁷When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and begged him that he would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. ⁴⁸Jesus therefore said to him, “Unless you see signs and wonders, you will in no way believe.”

⁴⁹The nobleman said to him, “Sir, come down before my child dies.” ⁵⁰Jesus said to him, “Go your way. Your son lives.” The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way. ⁵¹As he was now going down, his servants met him,^b saying that his son was alive. ^c⁵²So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, “Yesterday at the seventh hour,^d the fever left him.”⁵³So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, “Your son lives.” He believed, as did his whole house. ⁵⁴This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judea into Galilee.

5 After these things, there was a Jewish festival,^e and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ²Now in Jerusalem by the sheep gate, there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew Bethesda,^f having five porches. ³In these lay a^g multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed.^{4h} ⁵A certain man was there, who had been sick for thirty-eight years. ⁶When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had been sick for a long time, he asked him, “Do you want to be made well?”

⁷The sick man answered him, “Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I’m coming, another steps down before me.”

⁸Jesus said to him, “Arise, take up your mat, and walk.”

⁹Immediately, the man was made well, and took up his mat and walked.

Now it was the Sabbath on that day. ¹⁰So the Jewish leaders said to him who was cured, “It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry the mat.”

¹¹He answered them, “He who made me well, the same said to me, ‘Take up your mat, and walk.’”

¹²Then they asked him, “Who is the man who said to you to pick it up and walk?”^a ¹³But he who was healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a crowd being in the place.

¹⁴Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, “See, you are made well. Sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you.”

¹⁵The man went away, and told the Jewish leaders that it was Jesus who had made him well.

¹⁶For this cause the Jewish leaders persecuted Jesus,^b because he did these things on the Sabbath. ¹⁷But he^c answered them, “My Father is still working, so I am working, too.” ¹⁸For this cause therefore the Jewish leaders sought all the more to kill him, because he not only broke the Sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God. ¹⁹Jesus therefore answered them, “Truly, truly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing of himself, but what he sees the Father doing. For whatever things he does, these the Son also does likewise. ²⁰For the Father has affection for the Son, and shows him all things that he himself does. He will show him greater works than these, that you may marvel. ²¹For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whom he desires. ²²For the Father judges no one, but he has given all judgment to the Son, ²³that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.

6 After these things, Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is also called the Sea of Tiberias. ²A great crowd followed him, because they saw the^a signs which he did on those who were sick. ³Jesus went up into the mountain, and he sat there with his disciples. ⁴Now the Passover, the Jewish festival, was near. ⁵Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great crowd was coming to him, said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?" ⁶This he said to test him, for he himself knew what he would do.

⁷Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that everyone of them may receive a little."

⁸One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, ⁹"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are these among so many?"

¹⁰Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in that place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. ¹¹Jesus took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to^b those who were sitting down; likewise also of the fish as much as they desired. ¹²When they were filled, he said to his disciples, "Gather up the broken pieces which are left over, that nothing be lost." ¹³So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten. ¹⁴When therefore the people saw the sign which Jesus did, they said, "This is truly the Prophet who comes into the world." ¹⁵Jesus therefore, perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again^c to the mountain by himself.

¹⁶When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, ¹⁷and they entered into the boat, and were going over the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them. ¹⁸The sea was tossed by a great wind blowing. ¹⁹When therefore they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia,^d they saw Jesus walking on the sea,^e and drawing near to the boat; and they were afraid. ²⁰But he said to them, "It is I. Do not be afraid." ²¹They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat. Immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

²²On the next day, the crowd that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except one^a, and that Jesus had not entered with his disciples into the boat, but his disciples had gone away alone. ²³However boats from Tiberias came near to the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks. ²⁴When the crowd therefore saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. ²⁵When they found him on the other side of the sea, they asked him, “Rabbi, when did you come here?”

²⁶Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly, I tell you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled. ²⁷Do not work for the food which perishes, but for the food which remains to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For God the Father has sealed him.”

²⁸They said therefore to him, “What must we do, that we may work the works of God?”

²⁹Jesus answered them, “This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.”

³⁰They said therefore to him, “What then do you do for a sign, that we may see, and believe you? What work do you do? ³¹Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness. As it is written, ‘He gave them bread out of heaven^b to eat.’”^c

³²Jesus therefore said to them, “Truly, truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread out of heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread out of heaven. ³³For the bread of God is that which comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world.”

³⁴They said therefore to him, “Lord, always give us this bread.”

³⁵Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will not be hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty. ³⁶But I told you that you have seen me, and yet you do not believe. ³⁷All those whom the Father gives me will come to me. ⁴¹The Jewish people therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, “I am the bread which came down out of heaven.” ⁴²They said, “Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he say, ‘I have come down out of heaven?’”

⁴³Therefore Jesus answered them, “Do not murmur among yourselves. ⁴⁴No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up in the last day. ⁴⁵It is written in the Prophets, ‘They will all be taught by God.’^c Therefore everyone who hears from the Father, and has learned, comes to me. ⁴⁶Not that anyone has seen the Father, except he who is from God. He has seen the Father. ⁴⁷Truly, truly, I tell you, he who believes^d has eternal life. ⁴⁸I am the bread of life. ⁴⁹Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. ⁵⁰This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, that anyone may eat of it and not die. ⁵¹I am the living bread which came down out of heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread which I will give for the life of the world^e is my flesh.”

⁵²The Jews therefore argued with one another, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”

⁵³Jesus therefore said to them, “Truly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life in yourselves. ⁵⁴He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. ⁵⁵For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. ⁵⁶He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I in him. ⁵⁷As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he who feeds on me, he will also live because of me. ⁵⁸This is the bread which came down out of heaven—not as the fathers ate^f, and died. He who eats this bread will live forever.” ⁵⁹He said these things in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

⁶¹But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said to them, “Does this cause you to stumble? ⁶²Then what if you would see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? ⁶³It is the spirit who gives life. The flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and are life. ⁶⁴But there are some of you who do not believe.” For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him. ⁶⁵He said, “For this cause have I said to you that no one can come to me, unless it is given to him by the^a Father.”

⁶⁶At this, many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. ⁶⁷Jesus said therefore to the twelve, “You do not also want to go away, do you?”

⁷⁰Jesus answered them, “Did not I choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?” ⁷¹Now he spoke of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, for it was he who would betray him, being one of the twelve.

7 After these things, Jesus was walking in Galilee, for he would not walk in Judea, because the Jewish leaders sought to kill him. ²Now the Jewish festival, the Feast of Tabernacles, was near. ³His brothers therefore said to him, “Depart from here, and go into Judea, that your disciples also may see your works which you do. ⁴For no one does anything in secret, and himself seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, reveal yourself to the world.” ⁵For even his brothers did not believe in him.^c

⁶Jesus therefore said to them, “My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. ⁷The world cannot hate you, but it hates me, because I testify about it, that its works are evil. ⁸You go up to the feast. I am not yet^d going up to this feast, because my time is not yet fulfilled.”

⁹Having said these things to them, he stayed in Galilee. ¹⁰But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he also went up, not publicly, but as it were in secret.

¹¹The Jewish leaders therefore sought him at the feast, and said, "Where is he?" ¹²There was much murmuring among the crowds concerning him. Some said, "He is a good man." Others said, "Not so, but he leads the crowd astray."

¹³Yet no one spoke openly of him for fear of the Jewish leaders.

¹⁴But when it was now the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught. ¹⁵The Jewish leaders therefore marveled, saying, "How does this man know letters, having never been educated?"

¹⁶Jesus therefore answered them, "My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me. ¹⁷If anyone desires to do his will, he will know about the teaching, whether it is from God, or if I am speaking from myself. ¹⁸He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. ¹⁹Did not Moses give you the Law, and yet none of you keeps the Law? Why do you seek to kill me?"

²⁰The crowd answered, "You have a demon! Who seeks to kill you?"

²¹Jesus answered them, "I did one work, and you all marvel because of it. ²²Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a boy. ²³If a boy receives circumcision on the Sabbath, that the Law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me, because I made a man completely healthy on the Sabbath?" ²⁴Do not judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment."

²⁵Therefore some of them of Jerusalem said, "Is not this he whom they seek to kill?" ²⁶Look, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is^a the Messiah? ²⁷However we know where this man comes from, but when the Messiah comes, no one will know where he comes from."

²⁸Jesus therefore called out in the temple, teaching and saying, "You both know me, and know where I am from. I have not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, whom you do not know. ²⁹I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me."

³⁰They sought therefore to take him; but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come. ³¹But many in the crowd believed in him. They said, "When the Messiah comes, he won't do more signs than those which this man has done, will he?" ³²The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things concerning him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him.

³³Then Jesus said, "I will be with you a little while longer, then

^a7:26 M TR add "truly"

I go to him who sent me. ³⁴You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you cannot come."

³⁵The Jewish leaders therefore said among themselves, "Where will this man go that we won't find him? Will he go to the Diaspora among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? ³⁶What is this word that he said, 'You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you cannot come'?"

³⁷Now on the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink! ³⁸He who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, from within him will flow rivers of living water." ³⁹But he said this about the Spirit, which those believing in him were to receive. For the^a Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

⁴⁰Some^b of the crowd therefore, when they heard these words, said, "This is truly the Prophet." ⁴¹Others said, "This is the Messiah." But some said, "What, does the Messiah come out of Galilee? ⁴²Hasn't the Scripture said that the Messiah comes of the seed of David,^c and from Bethlehem,^d the village where David was?" ⁴³So there arose a division in the crowd because of him. ⁴⁴Some of them would have arrested him, but no one laid hands on him. ⁴⁵The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why did you not bring him?"

⁴⁶The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this man!"

⁴⁷The Pharisees therefore answered them, "You are not also led astray, are you? ⁴⁸Have any of the rulers believed in him, or of the Pharisees? ⁴⁹But this crowd that does not know the Law is accursed."

⁵⁰Nicodemus (he who came to him before^e, being one of them) said to them, ⁵¹"Does our Law judge a man, unless it first hears from him personally and knows what he does?"

⁵²They answered him, "Are you also from Galilee? 8 but Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. ²Now very early in the morning, he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him. He sat down, and taught them. ³The scribes and the Pharisees brought^a a woman taken in adultery. Having set her in the midst, ⁴they told him, “Teacher, we found this woman in adultery, in the very act. ⁵Now in the^b Law, Moses commanded us^c to stone such.^d So what do you say?” ⁶They said this testing him, that they might have something to accuse him of.

But Jesus stooped down, and wrote on the ground with his finger^e. ⁷But when they continued asking him, he looked up and said to them, “He who is without sin among you, let him throw the first stone at her.” ⁸Again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

¹³The Pharisees therefore said to him, “You testify about yourself. Your testimony is not valid.”

¹⁴Jesus answered them, “Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is true, for I know where I came from, and where I am going; but you do not know where I came from, or where I am going. ¹⁵You judge according to the flesh. the Father who sent me. ¹⁷It's also written in your Law that the testimony of two people is valid.^a ¹⁸I am one who testifies about myself, and the Father who sent me testifies about me.”

¹⁹They said therefore to him, “Where is your Father?”

Jesus answered, “You know neither me, nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also.” ²⁰Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, as he taught in the temple. Yet no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come. ²¹Jesus said therefore again to them, “I am going away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sins. Where I go, you cannot come.”

²²The Jewish leaders therefore said, “Will he kill himself, that he says, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come?’”

²³He said to them, “You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world. ²⁴I said therefore to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am^b he, you will die in your sins.”

²⁵They said therefore to him, “Who are you?”

Jesus said to them, “Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning. ²⁶I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. However he who sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these I say to the world.”

²⁷They did not understand that he spoke to them about the Father. ²⁸Jesus therefore said to them, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and I do nothing of myself, but as the^c Father taught me, I say these things. ²⁹He who sent me is with me. The Father hasn't left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him.”

³⁰As he spoke these things, many believed in him. ³¹Jesus therefore said to those Judeans who had believed him, “If you remain in my word, then you are truly my disciples. ³²You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.”^d

³³They answered him, “We are Abraham's seed, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How can you say, ‘You will be made free?’”

³⁴Jesus answered them, “Truly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is the bondservant of sin. ³⁵A bondservant does not live in the house forever. A son remains forever. ³⁶So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. ³⁷I know that you are Abraham's seed, yet you seek to kill me, because my word finds no place in you. ³⁸I say the things which I have seen with my Father; and you also do the things which you have heard from^a your father."

³⁹They answered him, "Our father is Abraham."

Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham. ⁴⁰But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abraham did not do this. ⁴¹You do the works of your father."

They said to him, "We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father, God."

⁴²Therefore Jesus said to them, "If God were your father, you would love me, for I came out and have come from God. For I have not come of myself, but he sent me. ⁴³Why do you not understand my speech? Because you cannot hear my word. ⁴⁴You are of your father, the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks on his own; for he is a liar, and its father. ⁴⁵But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. ⁴⁶Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? ⁴⁷He who is of God hears the words of God. For this cause you do not hear, because you are not of God."

⁴⁸Then the Judeans answered him, "Do not we say well that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon?"

⁴⁹Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. ⁵⁰But I do not seek my own glory. There is one who seeks and judges. ⁵¹Truly, truly, I tell you, if a person keeps my word, he will never see death."

⁵²Then the Judeans said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and you say, 'If a man keeps my word, he will never taste of death.' ⁵³Are you greater than our father, Abraham, who died? The prophets died. Who do you make yourself out to be?"

⁵⁴Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say 'He is our God.' ⁵⁵You have not known him, but I know him. If I said, 'I do not know him,' I would be like you, a liar. But I know him, and keep his word. ⁵⁶Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day. He saw it, and was glad."

⁵⁷The Judeans therefore said to him, “You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?”

9 As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth. ²His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”

³Jesus answered, “Neither did this man sin, nor his parents; but, that the works of God might be revealed in him. ⁴We^c must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day. The night is coming, when no one can work. ⁵While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” ⁶When he had said this, he spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, anointed the blind man’s eyes with the mud, ⁷and said to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam^d” (which means “Sent”). So he went away, washed, and came back seeing. ⁸The neighbors therefore, and those who saw that he was a beggar^e before, said, “Is not this he who sat and begged?” ⁹Some said, “It is he.” Others said, “He looks like him.”

He said, “I am he.” ¹⁰They therefore were asking him, “How were your eyes opened?”

¹¹He answered, “A man called Jesus made mud, anointed my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to^f Siloam, and wash.’ So I went away and washed, and I received sight.”

¹²Then they asked him, “Where is he?”

He said, “I do not know.”

¹³They brought him who had been blind to the Pharisees. ¹⁴Now it was a Sabbath on the day^g when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. ¹⁵Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He said to them, “He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and I see.”

¹⁶Some therefore of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, because he does not keep the Sabbath.” Others said, “How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?” There was division among them. ¹⁷Therefore they asked the blind man again, “What do you say about him, because he opened your eyes?”

He said, “He is a prophet.”

¹⁸The Jewish leaders therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight, ¹⁹and asked them, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?”

²⁰His parents answered them, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; ²¹but how he now sees, we do not know; or who opened his eyes, we do not know. He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself.” ²²His parents said these things because they feared the Jewish leaders; for the Jewish leaders had already agreed that if any man would confess him as the Messiah, he would be put out of the synagogue. ²³Therefore his parents said, “He is of age. Ask him.”

²⁴So they called the man who was blind a second time, and said to him, “Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner.”

²⁵He therefore answered, “I do not know if he is a sinner. One thing I do know: that though I was blind, now I see.”

²⁶They said to him^a, “What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?”

²⁷He answered them, “I told you already, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You do not also want to become his disciples, do you?”

²⁸They insulted him and said, “You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. ²⁹We know that God has spoken to Moses. But as for this man, we do not know where he comes from.”

³⁰The man answered them, “How amazing! You do not know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes. ³¹We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshipper of God, and does his will, he listens to him.^b ³²Since the world began it has never been heard of that anyone opened the eyes of someone born blind. ³³If this man were not from God, he could do nothing.”

³⁴They answered him, “You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?” They threw him out.

³⁷Jesus said to him, “You have both seen him, and it is he who speaks with you.”

³⁸He said, “Lord, I believe!” and he worshiped him.

³⁹Jesus said, “I came into this world for judgment, that those who do not see may see; and that those who see may become blind.”

⁴⁰Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said to him, “Are we also blind?”

⁴¹Jesus said to them, “If you were blind, you would have no sin; but since you say, ‘We see,’ your^b sin remains.

10 “Truly, truly, I tell you, one who does not enter by the door into the sheep fold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. ²But one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. ³The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out. ⁴Whenever he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. ⁵They will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him; for they do not know the voice of strangers.” ⁶Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they did not understand what he was telling them.

⁷Jesus therefore said to them again, “Truly, truly, I tell you, I am the sheep’s door. ⁸All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. ⁹I am the door. If anyone enters in by me, he will be saved, and will go in and go out, and will find pasture. ¹⁰The thief only comes to steal, kill, and destroy. I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly. ¹¹I am the good shepherd.^c The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. ¹²He who is a hired hand and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away; and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. ¹³The hired hand flees because he is a hired hand, and does not care for the sheep. ¹⁴I am the good shepherd. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. I received this commandment from my Father.”

¹⁹Therefore^e a division arose again among the Jewish people because of these words. ²⁰Many of them said, “He has a demon, and is insane! Why do you listen to him?” ²¹Others said, “These are not the sayings of one possessed by a demon. It is not possible for a demon to open the eyes of the blind, is it?”^f

²²It was the Feast of the Dedication^g at Jerusalem. ²³It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in Solomon’s porch. ²⁴The Jewish leaders therefore came around him and said to him, “How long will you hold us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.”

²⁵Jesus answered them, “I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father’s name, these testify about me. ²⁶But you do not believe, because you are not of my sheep^h. ²⁷My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. ²⁸I give eternal life to them. No one is able to snatch them out of the^j Father’s hand. ³⁰I and the Father are one.”

³¹Therefore the Jewish leaders took up stones again to stone him. ³²Jesus answered them, “I have shown you many good works from the^k Father. For which of those works do you stone me?”

³³The Jewish leaders answered him, “We do not stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy: because you, being a man, make yourself God.”

They said, “John indeed did no sign, but everything that John said about this man is true.” ⁴²And many believed in him there.

11 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus from Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister, Martha. ²It was that Mary who had anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother, Lazarus, was sick. ³The sisters therefore sent to him, saying, “Lord, look, the one you love is sick.” ⁴But when Jesus heard it, he said, “This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that God’s Son may be glorified by it.” ⁵Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. ⁶When therefore he heard that he was sick, he stayed two days in the place where he was. ⁷Then after this he said to the disciples, “Let us go into Judea again.”

⁸The disciples told him, “Rabbi, the Jewish leaders were just trying to stone you, and are you going there again?”

⁹Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours of daylight? If a man walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. ¹⁰But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him.” ¹¹He said these things, and after that, he said to them, “Our friend, Lazarus, has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may awake him out of sleep.”

¹²The disciples said to him^c, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover.”

¹³Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that he spoke of taking rest in sleep. ¹⁴So Jesus said to them plainly then, “Lazarus is dead. ¹⁵I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let us go to him.”

¹⁶Thomas therefore, who is called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, “Let us go also, that we may die with him.”

¹⁷So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days already. ¹⁸Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia^a away. ¹⁹Many of the Jewish people had come to^b Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother. ²⁰Then when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, but Mary stayed in the house. ²¹Therefore Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you would have been here, my brother would not have died. ²²Even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you.” ²³Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.”

²⁴Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

²⁵Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will still live, even if he dies. ²⁶And whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

²⁷She said to him, “Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, he who comes into the world.”

²⁸And when she had said this, she went away, and called Mary, her sister, secretly, saying, “The Teacher is here, and is calling you.”

²⁹When she heard this, she arose quickly, and went to him. ³⁰Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still^c in the place where Martha met him. ³¹Then the Judeans who were with her in the house, and were consoling her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there.^d ³²Therefore when Mary came to where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, “Lord, if you would have been here, my brother would not have died.”

³³When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Judeans weeping who came with her, he was deeply moved in spirit and was troubled, ³⁴and said, “Where have you put him?”

They told him, “Lord, come and see.”

³⁵Jesus wept.

³⁶The Judeans therefore said, “See how he loved him!” ³⁷But some of them said, “Could not this man, who opened the eyes of him who was blind, have also kept this man from dying?”

³⁸So Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. ³⁹Jesus said, “Take away the stone.”

Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days.”

⁴⁰Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see God’s glory?”

⁴¹So they took away the stone^a. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, “Father, I thank you that you listened to me. ⁴²I know that you always listen to me, but because of the crowd that stands around I said this, that they may believe that you sent me.” ⁴³When he had said this, he shouted with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!”

⁴⁴The man who had died came out, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth.

Jesus said to them, “Free him, and let him go.”

⁴⁵Therefore many of the Judeans, who came to Mary and saw what Jesus did, believed in him. ⁴⁶But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done. ⁴⁷The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, “What are we doing? For this man does many signs. ⁴⁸If we leave him alone like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.”

⁴⁹But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, “You know nothing at all, ⁵⁰nor do you consider that it is advantageous for you^b that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish.” ⁵¹Now he did not say this of himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, ⁵²and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. ⁵³So from that day on they plotted to kill him. ⁵⁴Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Judeans, but departed from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim; and stayed there with his disciples.

⁵⁵Now the Jewish Passover was near, and many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves.

⁵⁶Then they sought for Jesus and spoke one with another, as they stood in the temple, “What do you think—that he is not coming to the feast at all?” ⁵⁷Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it, that they might arrest him.

12 Then six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was,^a whom Jesus^b raised from the dead. ²So they prepared a dinner for him there; and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him. ³Mary, therefore, took a pound^c of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. ⁴Then Judas Iscariot,^d one of his disciples, who would betray him, said, ⁵“Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii,^e and given to the poor?” ⁶Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the money box, used to steal what was put into it. ⁷But Jesus said, “Leave her alone, that she may keep^f this for the day of my burial. ⁸For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.”

⁹A large crowd therefore of the Judeans learned that he was there, and they came, not for Jesus’ sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. ¹⁰But the chief priests plotted to kill Lazarus also, ¹¹because on account of him many of the Jewish people went away and believed in Jesus.

¹²On the next day a great crowd had come to the feast. When they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, ¹³they took the branches of the palm trees, and went out to meet him, and were shouting, “Hosanna^g! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord,^h the King of Israel!”

¹⁷The crowd therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, was testifying about it. ¹⁸For this cause also the crowd went and met him, because they heard that he had done this sign. ¹⁹The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, “See how you accomplish nothing. Look, the world has gone after him.”

²⁰Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship at the feast. ²¹These, therefore, came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, “Sir, we want to see Jesus.” ²²Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn, Andrew came with Philip, and they told Jesus. ²³And Jesus answered them, “The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. ²⁴Truly, truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit. ²⁵He who loves his life loses^b it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it to eternal life. ²⁶If anyone serves me, let him follow me; and where I am, there will my servant also be. ²⁷“Now my soul is troubled; and what shall I say? ‘Father, save me from this hour?’ But for this cause I came to this hour. ²⁸Father, glorify your name!”

Then there came a voice out of the sky, saying, “I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.”

²⁹The crowd therefore, who stood by and heard it, said that it had thundered. Others said, “An angel has spoken to him.”

³⁰Jesus answered, “This voice hasn’t come for my sake, but for your sakes. ³¹Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out. ³²And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw everyone to myself.” ³³But he said this, signifying by what kind of death he should die. ³⁴The crowd answered him, “We have heard out of the law that the Messiah remains forever.^c Then how can you say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up?’ Who is this Son of Man?”

³⁵Jesus therefore said to them, “Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness does not overtake you. He who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going. ³⁶While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become children of light.”

Jesus said these things, and he departed and hid himself from them. ³⁷But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they did not believe in him, ³⁸that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, “Lord, who has believed our report, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?”^a

³⁹For this cause they could not believe, for Isaiah said again, ⁴⁰“He has^b blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart, and would turn, and I would heal them.”^c

⁴¹Isaiah said these things because^d he saw his glory, and spoke of him.^e ⁴²Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess it, so that they would not be put out of the synagogue, ⁴³for they loved men’s praise more than God’s praise.

⁴⁴Then Jesus shouted out and said, “Whoever believes in me, believes not in me, but in him who sent me. ⁴⁵And he who sees me sees him who sent me. ⁴⁶I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness. ⁴⁷And if anyone hears my words and does not keep them^f, I do not judge him. For I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. ⁴⁸He who rejects me, and does not accept my words, has one who judges him. The word that I spoke will judge him on the last day. ⁴⁹For I spoke not from myself, but the Father who sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. ⁵⁰I know that his commandment is eternal life. The things therefore which I speak, even as the Father has said to me, so I speak.”

13 Now before the feast of the Passover, Jesus, knowing that his time had come that he would depart from this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. ²During^g supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon’s son, to betray him, ³Because he^h knew that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came forth from God, and was going to God, ⁴arose from supper, and laid aside his outer garments. ⁵Then he poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him. ⁶Then he came to Simon Peter. He said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?"

⁷Jesus answered him, "You do not know what I am doing now, but you will understand later."

⁸Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet!"

Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no part with me."

⁹Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"

¹⁰Jesus said to him, "Someone who has bathed only needs to have his feet washed, but is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you." ¹¹For he knew him who would betray him, therefore he said, "You are not all clean." ¹²So when he had washed their feet, put his outer garment back on, and sat down again, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? ¹³You call me, 'Teacher' and 'Lord.' You say so correctly, for so I am. ¹⁴If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. ¹⁵For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. ¹⁶Truly, truly, I tell you, a servant is not greater than his master, neither one who is sent greater than he who sent him. ¹⁷If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. ¹⁸I do not speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen. But that the Scripture may be fulfilled, 'He who eats my bread^a has lifted up his heel against me.'^b ¹⁹I am telling you this now before it happens, so that when it does happen you may believe that I am he. ²⁰Truly, truly, I tell you, he who receives whomever I send, receives me; and he who receives me, receives him who sent me."

²¹When Jesus had said this, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, "Truly, truly, I tell you that one of you will betray me."

²²The disciples looked at one another, perplexed about whom he spoke. ²³One of his disciples, whom Jesus loved, was at the table, leaning against Jesus' chest. ²⁴Simon Peter therefore motioned to him to inquire who it was he was talking about.

²⁵He, leaning back, as he was, on Jesus' chest, asked him, "Lord, who is it?"

²⁶Jesus therefore answered, "It is he to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it." So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. ²⁷After the piece of bread, then Satan entered into him.

Then Jesus said to him, "What you do, do quickly."

²⁸Now no man at the table knew why he said this to him.

²⁹For some thought, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus said to him, "Buy what things we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor.

³⁰Therefore, having received the piece of bread, he went out immediately; and it was night.

³¹When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. ³²If God has been glorified in him,^a God will also glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him immediately.

³³Little children, I will be with you a little while longer. You will seek me, and as I said to the Jewish leaders, 'Where I am going, you cannot come,' so now I tell you.

³⁴A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also must love one another. ³⁵By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Jesus answered, "Where I am going, you cannot follow now, but you will follow afterwards."

Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made full. ²⁵I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. But the hour is coming when I will no more speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you plainly about the Father. ²⁶In that day you will ask in my name, and I am not saying to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf, ²⁷for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came forth from God.^b ²⁸I came forth from the Father and have come into the world. plainly and not in any figure of speech. ³⁰Now we know that you know all things and do not need anyone to question you. By this we believe that you came forth from God.”

³¹Jesus answered them, “Do you now believe? ³²Look, the time is coming, yes, and has now come, that you will be scattered, everyone to his own place, and you will leave me alone. But I am not alone, because the Father is with me. ³³I have told you these things, that in me you may have peace. In the world you have oppression; but cheer up! I have overcome the world.”

17 Jesus said these things, and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, “Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may also glorify you; ²even as you gave him authority over all flesh, he will give eternal life to all whom you have given him. ³This is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and him whom you sent, Jesus Christ. ⁴I glorified you on the earth. I have accomplished the work which you have given me to do. ⁵Now, Father, glorify me with your own self with the glory which I had with you before the world existed. ⁶I revealed your name to the people whom you have given me out of the world. They were yours, and you have given them to me. They have kept your word. ⁷Now they have known that all things whatever you have given me are from you, ⁸for the words which you have given me I have given to them, and they received them, and knew for sure that I came forth from you, and they have believed that you sent me. ⁹I pray for them. I do not pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours. ¹⁰All things that are mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. ¹¹I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them through your name which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are. ¹²While I was with them^a, I kept them in your name^b which you have given me; I have kept. None of them is lost, except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. ¹³But now I come to you, and I say these things in the world, that they may have my joy made full in themselves. ¹⁴I have given them your word. The world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. ¹⁵I pray not that you would take them from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one. ¹⁶They are not of the world even as I am not of the world. ¹⁷Sanctify them in the^c truth. themselves also may be sanctified in truth. ²⁰Not for these only do I pray, but for those also who believe in me through their word, ²¹that they may all be one; even as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be^a in us; that the world may believe that you sent me. ²²The glory which you have given me, I have given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one; ²³I in them, and you in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that you sent me, and loved them, even as you loved me. ²⁴Father, I desire that they also whom you have given me be with me where I am, that they may see my glory, which you have given me, for you loved me before the foundation of the world. ²⁵Righteous Father, the world hasn't known you, but I knew you; and these knew that you sent me. ²⁶I made known to them your name, and will make it known; that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and I in them."

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples over the brook Kidron, where there was a garden, into which he and his disciples entered. ²Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples. ³Judas then, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and the

Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. ⁴Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were happening to him, went forth, and said to them, "Who are you looking for?"

⁵They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth."

Jesus said to them, "I AM."

Judas also, who betrayed him, was standing with them. ⁶When therefore he said to them, "I AM," they went backward, and fell to the ground.

⁷Again therefore he asked them, "Who are you looking for?"

They said, "Jesus of Nazareth."

⁸Jesus answered, "I told you that I AM. If therefore you seek me, let these go their way," ⁹that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, "Of those whom you have given me, I have lost none."^b

¹⁰Simon Peter therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. ¹¹Jesus therefore said to Peter, "Put the sword into its sheath. The cup which the^c Father has given me, shall I not surely drink it?"

¹²So the detachment, the commanding officer, and the officers of the Jewish leaders, seized Jesus and bound him, ¹³and led him to Annas first, for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. ¹⁴Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jewish leaders that it was expedient that one man should perish for the people. ¹⁵Simon Peter followed Jesus, as did another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest; ¹⁶but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter. ¹⁷Then the maid who kept the door said to Peter, “Are you also one of this man’s disciples?”

He said, “I am not.”

¹⁸Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold. They were warming themselves. Peter was with them, standing and warming himself. ¹⁹The high priest therefore asked Jesus about his disciples, and about his teaching. ²⁰Jesus answered him, “I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where all the Jewish people come together.^a I said nothing in secret.

²¹Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard what I spoke to them; surely they know what I said.”

²²When he had said this, one of the officers standing by slapped Jesus with his hand, saying, “Do you answer the high priest like that?”

²³Jesus answered him, “If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you beat me?”

²⁴Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas, the high priest. ²⁵Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, “You are not also one of his disciples, are you?”

He denied it, and said, “I am not.”

²⁶One of the servants of the high priest, being a relative of him whose ear Peter had cut off, said, “Did I not see you in the garden with him?”

²⁷Peter therefore denied it again, and immediately the rooster crowed.

²⁸They led Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the Praetorium. It was early, and they themselves did not enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover. ²⁹Pilate therefore went out to them, and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

^a18:20 M TR read “where the Jews always meet” instead of “where all the Jewish people come together”

³⁰They answered him, "If this man weren't an evildoer, we would not have delivered him up to you."

³¹Pilate therefore said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law."

Therefore the Jewish leaders said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death," ³²that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying by what kind of death he should die.

³³Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, called Jesus, and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

³⁴Jesus answered him, "Do you say this by yourself, or did others tell you about me?"

³⁵Pilate answered, "I'm not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you to me. What have you done?"

³⁶Jesus answered, "My Kingdom is not of this world. If my Kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, that I would not be delivered to the Jewish leaders. But now my Kingdom is not from here."

³⁷Pilate therefore said to him, "Are you a king then?"

Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this reason I have been born, and for this reason I have come into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice."

³⁸Pilate said to him, "What is truth?"

When he had said this, he went out again to the Jewish leaders, and said to them, "I find no basis for a charge against him. ³⁹But you have a custom, that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Therefore do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

⁴⁰Then they^a shouted again, saying, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.

19 So Pilate then took Jesus, and flogged him. ²The soldiers twisted thorns into a crown, and put it on his head, and dressed him in a purple garment. ³And they kept coming up to him and^b saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!"

and they struck him with their hands.

⁴Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, “Look, I am bringing him out to you, that you may know that I find no basis for a charge against him.”

⁵Then Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate said to them, “Look, here is the man!”

⁶When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they shouted, saying, “Crucify! Crucify!”

Pilate said to them, “Take him yourselves, and crucify him, for I find no basis for a charge against him.”

⁷The Jewish leaders answered him, “We have a law, and by that^a law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.”

⁸When therefore Pilate heard this saying, he was more afraid. ⁹He entered into the Praetorium again, and said to Jesus, “Where are you from?” But Jesus gave him no answer. ¹⁰Pilate therefore said to him, “Are you not speaking to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you, and have power to crucify you?”

¹¹Jesus answered, “You would have no power at all against me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who delivered me to you has greater sin.”

¹²At this, Pilate was seeking to release him, but the Jewish leaders shouted, saying, “If you release this man, you are not Caesar’s friend! Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar!”

¹³When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called “The Pavement,” but in Hebrew, “Gabbatha.” ¹⁴Now it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, at about the sixth hour.^b He said to the Jewish leaders, “Look, here is your King!”

¹⁵They shouted, “Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!”

Pilate said to them, “Shall I crucify your King?”

The chief priests answered, “We have no king but Caesar!”

¹⁶So then he delivered him to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus.^c ¹⁷He went out, carrying the cross himself, to the place called “The Place of a Skull,^a which is called in Hebrew, “Golgotha,”¹⁸ where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the middle. ¹⁹Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. There was written, “JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.”²⁰ Therefore many Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. ²¹The chief priests of the Jewish people therefore said to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews,’ but, ‘he said, I am King of the Jews.’”

²²Pilate answered, “What I have written, I have written.”

²³Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat. Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. ²⁴Then they said to one another, “Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it will be,” that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says, “They parted my garments among them.

For my cloak they cast lots.”^b

Therefore the soldiers did these things. ²⁵But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Cleopas, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶Therefore when Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing there, he said to his mother, “Woman, look, your son!”²⁷ Then he said to the disciple, “Look, your mother!” From that hour, the disciple took her to his own home.

²⁸After this, Jesus, knowing^c that all things were now finished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, “I am thirsty.”²⁹ Now a vessel full of vinegar was set there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop, and held it at his mouth. ³⁰When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, “It is finished.” He bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

³¹Therefore the Jewish leaders, because it was the Preparation Day, so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a special one), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. ³²Therefore the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him; ³³but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. ³⁴However one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. ³⁵He who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, that you may believe. ³⁶For these things happened, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, “A bone of him will not be broken.”^a ³⁷Again another Scripture says, “They will look on him whom they pierced.”^b ³⁸After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jewish leaders, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body.^c ³⁹Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds.^d ⁴⁰So they took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, according to Jewish burial practice. ⁴¹Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb in which no man had ever yet been placed. ⁴²Then because of the Jewish Preparation Day (for the tomb was nearby) they put Jesus there.

20 Now on the first day of the week^e,

Mary Magdalene went early, while it was still dark, to the tomb, and saw the stone taken away from the tomb. ²Therefore she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have put him!”

³Therefore Peter and the other disciple went out, and they went toward the tomb. ⁴They both ran together. The other disciple outran Peter, and came to the tomb first. ⁵Stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying, yet he did not enter in. ⁶Then Simon Peter came, following him, and entered into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying, ⁷and the cloth that had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. ⁸So then the other disciple who came first to the tomb also entered in, and he saw and believed. ⁹For as yet they did not know the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead.^f ¹⁰So the disciples went away again to their own homes.

¹¹But Mary was standing outside at the tomb weeping. So, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb, ¹²and she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had

She said to them, “Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have put him.” ¹⁴When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, and did not know that it was Jesus.

¹⁵Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?”

She, supposing him to be the gardener, said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will take him away.”

¹⁶Jesus said to her, “Mary.”

She turned and said to him in Hebrew,^a “Rabboni!” which is to say, “Teacher!”

¹⁷Jesus said to her, “Do not touch me, for I have not yet ascended to the^b Father; but go to my brothers, and tell them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’”

¹⁸Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples, “I have seen the Lord!”^c and that he had said these things to her. ¹⁹When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week^d, and when the doors were locked where the disciples were,^e for fear of the Jewish leaders, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, “Peace be to you.”

²⁰When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad when they saw the Lord. ²¹Jesus therefore said to them again, “Peace be to you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you.” ²²When he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit! ²³Whoever’s sins you forgive, they are forgiven them. Whoever’s sins you retain, they have been retained.”

²⁴But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵The other disciples therefore said to him, “We have seen the Lord!”

But he said to them, “Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.”

you.” ²⁷Then he said to Thomas, “Reach here your finger, and see my hands. Reach here your hand, and put it into my side. Do not be unbelieving, but believing.”

²⁸Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!”

²⁹Jesus said to him, “Because you have seen me^a, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and have believed.”

³⁰Therefore Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book; ³¹but these are written, that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

21 After these things, Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself this way. ²Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. ³Simon Peter said to them, “I’m going fishing.”

They told him, “We are also coming with you.” They^b went out, and entered into the boat. That night, they caught nothing. ⁴But when day had already come, Jesus stood on the beach, yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. ⁵Jesus therefore said to them, “Children, have you anything to eat?”

They answered him, “No.”

⁶He said to them, “Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some.”

They cast it therefore, and now they weren’t able to draw it in for the multitude of fish. ⁷That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It’s the Lord!”

So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his coat around him (for he was naked), and threw himself into the sea. ⁸But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits^c away), dragging the net full of fish. ⁹So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish placed on it, and bread. ¹⁰Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish which you have just caught.”

¹¹Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fish, one hundred fifty-three; and even though there were so many, the net was not torn.

¹²Jesus said to them, “Come and eat breakfast.”

None of the disciples dared inquire of him, “Who are you?” knowing that it was the Lord.

¹³Then Jesus came and took the bread, gave it to them, and the fish likewise. ¹⁴This is now the third time that Jesus was revealed to his disciples, after he had risen from the dead. ¹⁵So when they had eaten their breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John^a, do you love me more than these?”

He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you.”

He said to him, “Feed my lambs.” ¹⁶He said to him again a second time, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?”

He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you.”

He said to him, “Tend my sheep.” ¹⁷He said to him the third time, “Simon, son of John, do you have affection for me?”

Peter was grieved because he asked him the third time, “Do you have affection for me?” He said to him, “Lord, you know everything. You know that I have affection for you.”

Jesus said to him, “Feed my sheep.” ¹⁸Truly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself, and walked where you wanted to. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you, and carry you where you do not want to go.”

¹⁹Now he said this, signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. When he had said this, he said to him, “Follow me.”

²⁰Then Peter, turning around, saw a disciple following. This was the disciple whom Jesus sincerely loved, the one who had also leaned on Jesus’ chest at the supper and asked, “Lord, who is going to betray You?” ²¹Peter seeing him, said to Jesus, “Lord, what about this man?”

²²Jesus said to him, “If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow me.” ²³This saying therefore went out among the brothers, that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but, “If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you?” ²⁴This is the disciple who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that his witness is true. ²⁵There are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself

Acts

1 The first account^a I wrote, Theophilus, concerned all that Jesus began both to do and to teach,² until the day in which he was received up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen.³ To these he also showed himself alive after he suffered, by many proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days, and speaking about God's Kingdom.⁴ Being assembled together with them, he commanded them, "Do not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which you heard from me.⁵ For John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

⁶Therefore, when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, are you now restoring the kingdom to Israel?"

⁷He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has set within his own authority.⁸ But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You will be my witnesses^b in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth."

⁹When he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight.¹⁰ While they were looking steadfastly into the sky as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white clothing,¹¹ who also said, "You men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who was received up from you into the sky will come back in the same way as you saw him going into the sky."

¹²Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away.¹³ When they had come in, they went up into the upper room, where they were staying; that is Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James.¹⁴ All these with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer^c, along with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

‘Let his habitation be made desolate.

Let no one dwell therein;’^b and,

‘Let another take his office.’^c

²¹“Of the men therefore who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, ²²beginning from the baptism of John, to the day that he was received up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of his resurrection.”

²³They put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. ²⁴They prayed, and said, “You, Lord, who know the hearts of all men, show which one of these two you have chosen ²⁵to take part in this ministry and office of apostle from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place.” ²⁶They drew lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the Eleven apostles.

2 Now when the day of Pentecost^d had come, they were all together^e in one place. ²Suddenly there came from the sky a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. ³Tongues like fire appeared and were distributed to them, and one sat on each of them. ⁴They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other languages, as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak. ⁵Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under the sky. ⁶When this sound was heard, the crowd came together, and were bewildered, because everyone heard them speaking in his own language. ⁷They were all amazed and marveled, saying^f, “Behold, are not all these who speak Galileans?”

⁴¹Then those who^a received his word were baptized. There were added that day about three thousand souls. ⁴²They continued steadfastly in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and prayer. ⁴³Fear came on every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.^b ⁴⁴All who believed were together, and had all things in common. ⁴⁵They sold their possessions and goods, and distributed them to all, according as anyone had need. ⁴⁶Day by day, continuing steadfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart, ⁴⁷praising God, and having favor with all the people. The Lord added to their number^c day by day those who were being saved.

3 Now Peter and John were going up into the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour.^d ²A certain man who was lame from his mother's womb was being carried, whom they put daily at the door of the temple which is called

In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk!" ⁷He took him by the right hand, and raised him up. Immediately his feet and his ankle bones received strength. ⁸Leaping up, he stood, and began to walk. He entered with them into the temple, walking, leaping, and praising God. ⁹All the people saw him walking and praising God. ¹⁰They recognized him, that it was he who used to sit begging for gifts for the needy at the Beautiful Gate of the temple. They were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him. ¹¹And as he^f held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

made him walk? ¹³The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his Servant Jesus, whom you delivered up, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had determined to release him. ¹⁴But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a man who was a murderer to be granted to you, ¹⁵and killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead, to which we are witnesses. ¹⁶By faith in his name, his name has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which is through him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

¹⁷“Now, brothers, I know that you did this in ignorance, as did also your rulers. ¹⁸But the things which God announced by the mouth of all his prophets, that the Messiah should suffer, he thus fulfilled.

¹⁹“Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, so that there may come times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord, ²⁰and that he may send Jesus, the Messiah who was ordained for you before, ²¹whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which God spoke long ago by the mouth of^a his holy prophets. ²²For Moses indeed said to the fathers, ‘The Lord your^b God will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me. You shall listen to him in all things whatever he says to you. ²³It will be, that every soul that will not listen to that prophet will be utterly destroyed from among the people.’^c ²⁴Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel and those who followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days. ²⁵You are the children of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, ‘In your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.’^d ²⁶God, having raised up his Servant,^e sent him to you first, to bless you, in turning away everyone of you from your wickedness.”

4 As they spoke to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came to them, ²being upset because they taught the people and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. ³They laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was now evening. ⁴But many of those who heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

were gathered together in Jerusalem. ⁶Annas the high priest was there, with Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and as many as were relatives of the high priest. ⁷When they had stood them in the middle of them, they inquired, “By what power, or in what name, have you done this?”

⁸Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers of the people, and elders^a, ⁹if we are examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, ¹⁰be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, in him does this man stand here before you whole. ¹¹He is ‘the stone which was regarded as worthless by you, the builders, which has become the head of the corner.’^b ¹²And there is salvation in none other, for there is no other name under heaven, that is given among men by which we must be saved!”

¹³Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they were amazed. They recognized that they had been with Jesus. ¹⁴Seeing the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. ¹⁵But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, ¹⁶saying, “What shall we do to these men? Because indeed a notable miracle has been done through them, as can be plainly seen by all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. ¹⁷But so that this spreads no further among the people, let us^c threaten them, that from now on they do not speak to anyone in this name.” ¹⁸They called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

¹⁹But Peter and John answered them, “Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, judge for yourselves, ²⁰for we cannot help telling the things which we saw and heard.”

²¹When they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people; for everyone glorified God for that which was done. ²²For the man on whom this miracle of healing was performed was more than forty years old.

²³Being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. ²⁴When they heard it, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and remain your own? After it was sold, was not it in your power? How is it that you have conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to God.”

⁵Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and died. Great fear came on all who heard it.^a ⁶The young men arose and wrapped him up, and they carried him out and buried him. ⁷About three hours later, his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in. ⁸Peter answered her, “Tell me whether you sold the land for so much.”

She said, “Yes, for so much.”

⁹But Peter asked her, “How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out.”

¹⁰She fell down immediately at his feet, and died. The young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. ¹¹Great fear came on the whole church, and on all who heard these things. ¹²By the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. They were all with one accord in Solomon’s porch. ¹³None of the rest dared to join them, however the people honored them. ¹⁴More believers were added to the Lord, crowds of both men and women. ¹⁵They even carried out the sick into the streets, and put them on cots and mats, so that as Peter came by at the least his shadow would fall on some of them. ¹⁶Crowds also came together from the cities around Jerusalem, bringing sick people, and those who were tormented by unclean spirits: and they were all healed.

¹⁷But the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy, ¹⁸and laid hands on the apostles, and put them in public custody. ¹⁹But an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors by night, and brought them out, and said, ²⁰“Go stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.”

²¹When they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. ²²But the officers who came did not find them in the prison. ²⁴Now when the^a captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these words, they were very perplexed about them and what might become of this. ²⁵One came and told them, “Behold, the men whom you put in prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people.” ²⁶Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence, for they were afraid that the people might stone them.

²⁷When they had brought them, they set them before the council. The high priest questioned them, ²⁸saying, “Did not we strictly command you not to teach in this name? Behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man’s blood on us.”

²⁹But Peter and the apostles answered, “We must obey God rather than men. ³⁰The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed, hanging him on a tree. ³¹God exalted him with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and remission of sins. ³²We are^b witnesses of these things; and so also is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him.”

³³But they, when they heard this, were cut to the heart, and wanted^c to kill them. ³⁴But one stood up in the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the Law, honored by all the people, and commanded to put the men^d out for a little while. ³⁵He said to them, “You men of Israel, be careful concerning these men, what you are about to do. ³⁶For before these days Todah rose up, making himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nothing. ³⁷After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the enrollment, and drew away some people after him. He also perished, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. ³⁸Now I tell you, withdraw from these men, and leave them alone. For if this counsel or this work is of man, it will be overthrown. ³⁹But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them^e, and you would be found even to be fighting against God!”

⁴²Every day, in the temple and at home, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming that Jesus is the Messiah.

6 Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, a complaint arose from the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily service. ²So the twelve summoned the full number of the disciples and said, "It is not appropriate for us to forsake the word of God and serve tables. ³Therefore select from among you, brothers, seven men of good report, full of the^b Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. ⁴But we will continue steadfastly in prayer and in the ministry of the word."

⁵And these words pleased the whole gathering. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch; ⁶whom they set before the apostles. When they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. ⁷The word of God increased and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly. A great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

⁸Stephen, full of grace^c and power, performed great wonders and signs among the people. ⁹But some of those who were of the synagogue called "The Libertines," and of the Cyrenians, of the Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia and Asia arose, disputing with Stephen. ¹⁰They weren't able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke. ¹¹Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God." ¹²They stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes, and came against him and seized him, and brought him in to the council, ¹³and set up false witnesses who said, "This man never stops speaking blasphemous words against this holy place and the Law. ¹⁴For we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us." ¹⁵All who sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face like it was the face of an angel.

^e7:50 Isaiah 66:1-2

⁵⁶and said, “Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!”

⁵⁷But they shouted out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed at him with one accord. ⁵⁸They threw him out of the city, and stoned him. The witnesses placed their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. ⁵⁹They stoned Stephen as he called out, saying, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!” ⁶⁰He kneeled down, and shouted out, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them!” When he had said this, he fell asleep.

8 Saul was consenting to his death. A great persecution arose against the church which was in Jerusalem in that day. They were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except for the apostles. ²Devout men buried Stephen, and lamented greatly over him. ³But Saul ravaged the church, entering into every house, and dragged both men and women off to prison. ⁴Therefore those who were scattered abroad went around proclaiming the word. ⁵Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed to them the Messiah. ⁶The crowds listened with one accord to the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard and saw the signs which he did. ⁷For unclean spirits came out of many of those who had them. They came out, crying with a loud voice. Many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. ⁸There was great joy in that city.

⁹But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who used to practice sorcery in the city, and amazed the people of Samaria, making himself out to be some great one, ¹⁰to whom they all listened, from the least to the greatest, saying, “This man is that power of God which is called Great.” ¹¹They listened to him, because for a long time he had amazed them with his sorceries. ¹²But when they believed Philip proclaiming good news concerning the Kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. ¹³Simon himself also believed. Being baptized, he continued with Philip. Seeing signs and great^b miracles occurring, he was amazed.

¹⁴Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them, ¹⁵who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit; ¹⁶for as yet he had fallen on none of them. They had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus^c. ¹⁷Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸Now when Simon saw that the^a Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, ¹⁹saying, "Give me also this power, that whomever I lay my hands on may receive the Holy Spirit." ²⁰But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! ²¹You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God. ²²Repent therefore of this, your wickedness, and ask the Lord^b if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you. ²³For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bondage of iniquity."

²⁴Simon answered, "Pray for me to the Lord, that none of the things which you have spoken happen to me."

²⁵They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Good News to many villages of the Samaritans. ²⁶But an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise, and go toward the south to the way that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza. This is a desert."

²⁷He arose and went; and behold, there was a man from

Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship. ²⁸He was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah.

²⁹The Spirit said to Philip, "Go near, and join yourself to this chariot."

³⁰Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

³¹He said, "How can I, unless someone explains it to me?" He begged Philip to come up and sit with him. ³²Now the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this, "He was led as a sheep to the slaughter.

As a lamb before his shearer is silent, so he does not open his mouth.

³³In his humiliation, justice^c was taken away.

Who will declare His generation?

For his life is taken from the earth."^d

³⁸He commanded the chariot to stand still, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.

³⁹When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him any more, for he went on his way rejoicing. ⁴⁰But Philip was found at Azotus. Passing through, he preached the Good News to all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.

9 But Saul, still breathing threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest, ²and asked for letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. ³As he traveled, it happened that he got close to Damascus, and suddenly a light from the sky shone around him.

^a8:37 TR adds “Philip said, ‘If you believe with all your heart, you may.’ He answered, ‘I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.’ Earliest ms having this verse is sixth century

⁴He fell on the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?”^b”

⁵He said, “Who are you, Lord?”

The Lord said, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. ⁶But rise up, and enter into the city, and you will be told what you must do.”

⁷The men who traveled with him stood speechless, hearing the sound, but seeing no one. ⁸Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no one. They led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. ⁹He was without sight for three days, and neither ate nor drank.

¹⁰Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias!”

He said, “Behold, it’s me, Lord.”

¹¹The Lord said to him, “Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus. For behold, he is praying, ¹²and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight.”

^b9:4 TR adds “It is hard for you to kick against the goads.” Cf. Acts 26:14

¹³But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he did to your saints at Jerusalem. ¹⁴Here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name.”

¹⁵But the Lord said to him, “Go your way, for he is my chosen vessel to bear my name before the nations and kings, and the sons of Israel. ¹⁶For I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name’s sake.”

¹⁷Ananias departed, and entered into the house. Laying his hands on him, he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord, who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me, that you may receive your sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit.” ¹⁸Immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he received his sight. He arose and was baptized. ¹⁹He took food and was strengthened. He^a stayed several days with the disciples who were at Damascus. ²⁰Immediately in the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus^b, that he is the Son of God. ²¹All who heard him were amazed, and said, “Is not this he who in Jerusalem made havoc of those who called on this name? And he had come here intending to bring them bound before the chief priests!”

²²But Saul increased more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived at Damascus, proving that this is the Messiah. ²³When many days were fulfilled, the Jews conspired together to kill him, ²⁴but their plot became known to Saul. They watched the gates both day and night that they might kill him, ²⁵but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket. ²⁶When Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join himself to the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. ²⁷But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus. ²⁸He was with them coming in and going out^c in Jerusalem, proclaiming boldly in the name of the Lord.^d ²⁹He spoke and disputed against the Hellenists, but they were seeking to kill him. ³⁰When the brothers knew it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him off to Tarsus. ³¹So the church^e throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, and were built up. They were multiplied, walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

³²It happened, as Peter went throughout all those parts, he came down also to the saints who lived at Lydda. ³³There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, because he was paralyzed. ³⁴Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed!” Immediately he arose. ³⁵All who lived at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

³⁶Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which when translated, means Dorcas.^a This woman was full of good works and acts of mercy which she did. ³⁷It happened in those days that she fell sick, and died. When they had washed her, they placed her in an upper chamber. ³⁸As Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men^b to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to us.^c ³⁹Peter got up and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper chamber. All the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. ⁴⁰Peter put them all out, and knelt down and prayed. Turning to the body, he said, “Tabitha, get up!” She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. ⁴¹He gave her his hand, and raised her up. Calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive. ⁴²And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. ⁴³It happened, that he stayed many days in Joppa with one Simon, a tanner.

10 Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment, ²a devout man, and one who feared God with all his house, who gave gifts for the needy generously to the people, and always prayed to God. ³At about the ninth hour of the day^d, he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God coming to him, and saying to him, “Cornelius!”

⁴He, fastening his eyes on him, and being frightened, said, “What is it, Lord?”

He said to him, “Your prayers and your gifts to the needy have gone up for a memorial before God. ⁵Now send men to Joppa, and get Simon, who is surnamed Peter. ⁶He lodges with one Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the seaside.^e”

⁷When the angel who spoke to him^f had departed, he called two of his household servants and a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually. ⁸Having explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa. ⁹Now on the next day as they were on their journey, and got close to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray at about noon. ¹⁰He became hungry and desired to eat, but while they were preparing, he fell into a trance. ¹¹He saw heaven opened and a certain container descending to him, like a great sheet let down^a by four corners on the earth, ¹²in which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the sky. ¹³A voice came to him, “Rise, Peter, kill and eat!”

¹⁴But Peter said, “Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean.”

¹⁵A voice came to him again the second time, “What God has cleansed, you must not call unclean.” ¹⁶This was done three times, and immediately the vessel was received up into heaven. ¹⁷Now while Peter was very perplexed in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men who were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon’s house, stood before the gate, ¹⁸and called and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, was lodging there. ¹⁹While Peter was pondering the vision, the Spirit said to him, “Behold, three^b men seek you.

²⁰But arise, get down, and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them.”

²¹Peter went down to the men,^c and said, “Behold, I am he whom you seek. Why have you come?”

²²They said, “Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous man and one who fears God, and well spoken of by all the Jewish nation, was directed by a holy angel to invite you to his house, and to listen to what you say.” ²³So he called them in and lodged them. On the next day he^d arose and went out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him. ²⁴On the next day they entered into Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and his near friends. ²⁵When it happened that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet, and worshiped him. ²⁶But Peter raised him up, saying, “Stand up! I myself am also a man.” ²⁷And as he talked with him, he went in and found many gathered together. ²⁸He said to them, “You yourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a Jew to join himself or come to one of another nation, but God has shown me that I should not call any man unholy or unclean. ²⁹Therefore also I came without complaint when I was sent for. I ask therefore, why did you send for me?"

³⁰Cornelius said, "Four days ago^a until this hour, the ninth hour^b, I was praying in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing,³¹ and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your gifts to the needy are remembered in the sight of God.³² Send therefore to Joppa and summon Simon, who is surnamed Peter. He lodges in the house of Simon, a tanner,^c by the seaside.'^d ³³Therefore I sent to you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God to hear all things that have been commanded you by the Lord."^e

³⁴And Peter opened his mouth and said, "Truly I perceive that God does not show favoritism;³⁵ but in every nation he who fears him and works righteousness is acceptable to him.³⁶ The word which he sent to the sons of Israel, proclaiming good news of peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all—³⁷that spoken word you yourselves know, which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;³⁸ even Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.³⁹ We are witnesses of everything he did both in the countryside of Judea, and in Jerusalem; whom they also^f killed, hanging him on a tree.⁴⁰ God raised him up the third day, and gave him to be revealed,⁴¹ not to all the people, but to witnesses who were chosen before by God, to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.⁴² He commanded us to proclaim to the people and to testify that this is he who is appointed by God as the Judge of the living and the dead.⁴³ All the prophets testify about him, that through his name everyone who believes in him will receive remission of sins."

⁴⁴While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word.⁴⁵ They of the circumcision who believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was also poured out on the Gentiles.⁴⁶ For they heard them speaking in other languages and magnifying God.

Then Peter answered, ⁴⁷“Can any man forbid the water, that these who have received the Holy Spirit as well as we should not be baptized?” ⁴⁸He commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.^a Then they asked him to stay some days.

11 Now the apostles and the brothers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. ²When Peter had come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with him, ³saying, “You went in to uncircumcised men, and ate with them!”

⁴But Peter began, and explained to them in order, saying, ⁵“I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a certain container descending, like it was a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners. It came as far as me. ⁶When I had looked intently at it, I considered, and saw the four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky. ⁷I also heard a voice saying to me, ‘Rise, Peter, kill and eat!’ ⁸But I said, ‘Not so, Lord, for nothing unholy or unclean has ever entered into my mouth.’ ⁹But a voice answered^b the second time out of heaven, ‘What God has cleansed, do not call unclean.’

¹⁰This was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven. ¹¹Behold, immediately three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me. ¹²The Spirit told me to go with them, without discriminating^c. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered into the man’s house. ¹³He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying to him, ‘Send to Joppa, and get Simon, whose surname is Peter, ¹⁴who will speak to you words by which you will be saved, you and all your house.’ ¹⁵As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, even as on us at the beginning. ¹⁶I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, ‘John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.’ ¹⁷If then God gave to them the same gift as us, when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand God?”

¹⁸When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, “Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance to life!”

¹⁹They therefore who were scattered abroad by the oppression that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except to Jews only. ²⁰But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists,^a proclaiming the Lord Jesus.²¹ The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord.²² The report concerning them came to the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem. They sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch,²³ who, when he had come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad. He exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they should remain near to the Lord.²⁴ For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and many people were added to the Lord.

²⁵Barnabas went out to Tarsus to look for Saul.²⁶ When he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. It happened, that for a whole year they were gathered together with the church, and taught many people. The disciples were first called Christians^b in Antioch.

²⁷Now in these days, prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.²⁸ One of them named Agabus stood up, and indicated by the Spirit that there should be a great famine all over the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius.^c ²⁹As any of the disciples had plenty, each determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judea;³⁰ which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

12 Now about that time, Herod the king stretched out his hands to oppress some of the church.² He killed James, the brother of John, with the sword.³ When he saw that it pleased the Jewish people, he proceeded to seize Peter also. This was during the days of unleavened bread.⁴ When he had arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover.⁵ Peter therefore was kept in the prison, but constant prayer was made by the church to God for him.⁶ The same night when Herod was about to bring him out, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains. Guards in front of the door kept the prison.

⁷And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side, and woke him up, saying, "Stand up quickly!" His chains fell off from his hands.⁸ The angel said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." He did so. He said to him, "Put on your cloak, and follow me."⁹ And he went out and followed him. He did not know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he saw a vision.¹⁰ When they were past the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them by itself. They went out, and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

¹¹When Peter had come to himself, he said, “Now I truly know that the Lord has sent out his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from everything the Jewish people were expecting.” ¹²Thinking about that, he came to the house of Mary, the mother of John whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying. ¹³And when Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer. ¹⁴When she recognized Peter’s voice, she did not open the gate for joy, but ran in, and reported that Peter was standing in front of the gate.

¹⁵They said to her, “You are crazy!” But she insisted that it was so. They said, “It is his angel.” ¹⁶But Peter continued knocking. When they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. ¹⁷But he, beckoning to them with his hand to be silent, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, “Tell these things to James, and to the brothers.” Then he departed, and went to another place.

¹⁸Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of

Peter. ¹⁹When Herod had sought for him, and did not find him, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. He went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there. ²⁰Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. They came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus, the king’s personal aide, their friend, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the king’s country for food. ²¹On an appointed day, Herod dressed himself in royal clothing, sat on the throne, and gave a speech to them. ²²The people shouted, “The voice of a god, and not of a man!” ²³Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died.

²⁴But the word of God grew and multiplied. ²⁵Barnabas and Saul returned to^a Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their service, also taking with them John whose surname was Mark.

13 Now in the church that was at Antioch there were some prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen the foster brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. ²As they served the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, “Separate Barnabas and Saul for me, for the work to which I have called them.”

³Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. ⁴So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia. From there they sailed to Cyprus. ⁵When they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. They had also John as their attendant. ⁶When they had gone through the whole^a island as far as Paphos, they found a certain man, a sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus,^b ⁷who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. ⁸But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith. ⁹But Saul, who is also called Paul^c, filled with the Holy Spirit, fastened his eyes on him, ¹⁰and said, “Full of all deceit and all cunning, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? ¹¹Now, behold, the hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season!”

Immediately a mist and darkness fell on him. He went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand. ¹²Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

¹³Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia. John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. ¹⁴But they, passing on from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia. They went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sat down. ¹⁵After the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, “Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak.”

¹⁶Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, “Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen. ¹⁷The God of this people Israel^d chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they stayed as foreigners in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm, he led them out of it. ¹⁸For a period of about forty years he put up with them in the wilderness. ¹⁹When he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance ²⁰for about four hundred fifty years. After these things he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. ²¹Afterward they asked for a king, and God gave to them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. ²²When he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king, to whom he also testified, ‘I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who will do all my will.’ ²³From this man’s seed, according to his promise,^a God has brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus,^b ²⁴before his coming, when John had first preached the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.^c ²⁵As John was fulfilling his course, he said, ‘What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. But behold, one comes after me the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.’ ²⁶Brothers, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, the word of this salvation is sent out to us^d. ²⁷For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they did not know him, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him. ²⁸Though they found no cause for death, they still asked Pilate to have him killed. ²⁹When they had fulfilled all things that were written about him, they took him down from the tree, and placed him in a tomb. ³⁰But God raised him from the dead, ³¹and he was seen for many days by those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people. ³²We bring you good news of the promise made to the fathers, ³³that God has fulfilled the same to us, their children, in that he raised up Jesus. As it is also written in the second psalm, ‘You are my Son.

Today I have become your father.’^e

³⁴‘Concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he has spoken thus: ‘I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David.’^f ³⁵Therefore he says also in another psalm, ‘You will not allow your Holy One to see decay.’^g ³⁶For David, after he had in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell asleep, and was placed with his fathers, and saw decay. ³⁷But he whom God raised up saw no decay. ³⁸Be it known to you therefore, brothers, that through this man is proclaimed to you remission of sins, ³⁹and by him everyone who believes is justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the Law of Moses. ⁴⁰Beware therefore, lest that come on you which is spoken in the Prophets:

a work^a which you will in no way believe, if one declares it to you.”^b

⁴²So when they went out they^c begged that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath. ⁴³Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God. ⁴⁴The next Sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of the Lord.^d ⁴⁵But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and reviled him.

⁴⁶Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, and said, “It was necessary that God’s word should be spoken to you first. Since indeed you thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles. ⁴⁷For so has the Lord commanded us, saying, ‘I have set you as a light for the Gentiles, that you should bring salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth.”^e

⁴⁸As the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of God. As many as were appointed to eternal life believed. ⁴⁹The Lord’s word was spread abroad throughout all the region. ⁵⁰But the Jews stirred up the devout and prominent women and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and threw them out of their borders. ⁵¹But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium. ⁵²The disciples were filled with joy with the Holy Spirit.

14 It happened in Iconium that they entered together into the Jewish synagogue, and so spoke that a great number of both of Jews and of Greeks believed. ²But the unbelieving^f Jews stirred up and embittered the souls of the Gentiles against the brothers. ³Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, who testified to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. ⁴But the population of the city was divided. Some sided with the Jews, and some with the apostles. ⁵When some of both the Gentiles and the Jews, with their rulers, made a violent attempt to mistreat and stone them, ⁶they became aware of it, and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, Derbe, and the surrounding region. ⁷There they preached the Good News.

⁸At Lystra a certain man sat, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. ⁹He was listening to Paul speaking, who, fastening eyes on him, and seeing that he had faith to be made whole, ¹⁰said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" He leaped up and walked. ¹¹When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the language of Lycaonia, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" ¹²They called Barnabas "Jupiter," and Paul "Mercury," because he was the chief speaker. ¹³The priest of Jupiter, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have made a sacrifice along with the crowds. ¹⁴But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they tore their clothes, and sprang into the crowd, crying out, ¹⁵"Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the sky and the earth and the sea, and all that is in them; ¹⁶who in the generations gone by allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways. ¹⁷Yet he did not leave himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling your^a hearts with food and gladness."

¹⁸Even saying these things, they hardly stopped the crowds from making a sacrifice to them. ¹⁹But some Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there, and having persuaded the crowds, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead.

²⁰But as the disciples stood around him, he rose up, and entered into the city. On the next day he went out with Barnabas to Derbe. ²¹When they had preached the Good News to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, ²²confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many afflictions we must enter into the Kingdom of God. ²³When they had appointed elders for them in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed.

²⁴They passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia. ²⁵When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. ²⁶From there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. ²⁷When they had arrived, and had gathered the church together, they reported all the things that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith to the nations.²⁸ They stayed there with the disciples for a long time.

15 Some men came down from Judea and taught the brothers, “Unless you are circumcised after the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.”² Therefore when Paul and Barnabas had no small discord and discussion with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas, and some others of them, to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question.³ They, being sent on their way by the church, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles. They caused great joy to all the brothers.⁴ When they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they reported all things that God had done with them.

⁵But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, “It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the Law of Moses.”

⁶The apostles and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter.⁷ When there had been much discussion, Peter rose up and said to them, “Brothers, you know that a good while ago

God made a choice among you^a, that by my mouth the nations should hear the word of the Good News, and believe.⁸ God, who knows the heart, testified about them, giving them the Holy Spirit, just like he did to us.⁹ He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith.¹⁰ Now therefore why do you tempt God, that you should put a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?¹¹ But we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they are.”

¹²And all the people kept quiet, and they listened to Barnabas and Paul reporting what signs and wonders God had done among the nations through them.¹³ After they were silent, James answered, “Brothers, listen to me.¹⁴ Simeon has reported how God first visited the nations, to take out of them a people for his name.¹⁵ This agrees with the words of the prophets. ¹⁹“Therefore my judgment is that we do not trouble those from among the Gentiles who turn to God,²⁰but that we write to them that they abstain from the pollution of idols, from sexual immorality, from what is strangled, and from blood.²¹For Moses from generations of old has in every city those who proclaim him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath.”

²²Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, chief men among the brothers.²³They wrote these things by their hand:

“The apostles, the elders, and the brothers, to the brothers who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia: greetings.²⁴Because we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls,^b to whom we gave no commandment;²⁵it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,²⁶men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.²⁷We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who themselves will also tell you the same things by word of mouth.²⁸For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay no greater burden on you than these necessary things:²⁹that you abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality, from which if you keep yourselves, it will be well with you. Farewell.”

³⁰So, when they were sent off, they came to Antioch, and having gathered the congregation together, they delivered the letter.³¹When they had read it, they rejoiced over the encouragement.³²Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers with many words, and strengthened them.³³After they had spent some time there, they were sent back with greetings from the brothers to those that had sent them forth.^{c 34d 35}But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming the word of the Lord, with many others also.

³⁶After some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us return now and visit our brothers in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are doing."³⁷Barnabas planned to take John, who was called Mark, with them also.³⁸But Paul did not think that it was a good idea to take with them someone who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia, and did not go with them to do the work.³⁹Then the contention grew so sharp that they separated from each other. Barnabas took Mark with him, and sailed away to Cyprus,⁴⁰but Paul chose Silas, and went out, being commended by the brothers to the grace of the Lord.^a⁴¹He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

16 He came to Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess who believed; but his father was a Greek.²The brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium gave a good testimony about him.³Paul wanted to have him go out with him, and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts; for they all knew that his father was a Greek.⁴As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered the decrees to them to keep which had been ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem.⁵So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

⁶When they had gone through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia.⁷When they had come opposite Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus^b did not allow them.⁸Passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas.⁹A vision appeared to Paul in the night. There was a man of Macedonia standing, begging him, and saying, "Come over into Macedonia and help us."¹⁰When he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to proclaim the Good News to them.¹¹Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis;¹²and from there to Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, the foremost of the district, a Roman colony. We were staying some days in this^c city.

¹³On the Sabbath day we went forth outside of the gate^d by a riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer^e, and we sat down, and spoke to the women who had come together.

¹⁴A certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one who worshiped God, heard us; whose heart the Lord opened to listen to the things which were spoken by Paul.

¹⁵When she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and stay." So she persuaded us.

¹⁶It happened, as we were going to prayer, that a certain girl having a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortune telling. ¹⁷She followed Paul and us, shouting, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you^a the way of salvation!" ¹⁸She was doing this for many days.

But Paul, becoming greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!" And it came out at once. ¹⁹But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers. ²⁰When they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men, being Jews, are agitating our city, ²¹and set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being Romans."

²²The crowd rose up together against them, and the magistrates tore their clothes off of them, and commanded them to be beaten with rods. ²³When they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely, ²⁴who, having received such a command, threw them into the inner prison, and secured their feet in the stocks.

²⁵But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. ²⁶Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were loosened. ²⁷The jailer, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸But Paul shouted loudly, saying, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here!"

²⁹He called for lights and sprang in, and, fell down trembling before Paul and Silas, ³⁰and brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

³¹They said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household."

to him, and to all who were in his house.

³³He took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was immediately baptized, he and all his household.

³⁴He brought them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his household, having believed in God.

³⁵But when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, "Let those men go."

³⁶The jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out, and go in peace."

³⁷But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us publicly, without a trial, men who are Romans, and have cast us into prison! Do they now release us secretly? No indeed! Let them come themselves and bring us out!"

³⁸The sergeants reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans, ³⁹and they came and begged them. When they had brought them out, they asked them to depart from the city. ⁴⁰They went out of the prison, and entered into Lydia's house. When they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them, and departed.

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. ²Paul, as was his custom, went in to them, and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures, ³explaining and demonstrating that the Messiah had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Messiah."

⁴Some of them were persuaded, and joined Paul and Silas, as did a large number of the devout Greeks, and not a few of the prominent women. ⁵But the Jews, being moved with jealousy, ^atook along some wicked men from the marketplace, and gathering a crowd, set the city in an uproar. Assaulting the house of Jason, they sought to bring them out to the people. ⁶When they did not find them, they dragged Jason and certain brothers before the rulers^b of the city, crying, "These who have turned the world upside down have come here also, ⁷whom Jason has received. These all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus!" ⁸The crowd and the rulers of the city were troubled when they heard these things. ⁹When they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

¹⁰The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Beroea. When they arrived, they went into the Jewish synagogue.

¹¹Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of the mind, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so.

¹²Many of them therefore believed; also of the prominent Greek women, and not a few men.

¹³But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul at Beroea also, they came there likewise, agitating the crowds.

¹⁴Then the brothers immediately sent out Paul to go as far as^a to the sea, and Silas and Timothy still stayed there. ¹⁵But those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens. Receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy that they should come to him very quickly, they departed.

¹⁶Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw the city full of idols. ¹⁷So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met him. ¹⁸Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also were conversing with him. Some said, "What does this babbler want to say?"

Others said, "He seems to be advocating foreign deities," because he preached Jesus and the resurrection.

¹⁹They took hold of him, and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by you?" ²⁰For you bring certain strange things to our ears. We want to know therefore what these things mean." ²¹Now all the Athenians and the strangers living there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

²²Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus, and said, "You men of Athens, I perceive that you are very religious in all things. ²³For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription: 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' What therefore you worship in ignorance, this I announce to you.

²⁴The God who made the world and all things in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands, ²⁵neither is he served by human^b hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself gives to all life and breath, and all things. ²⁶He made from one^c every nation of men to dwell on all the surface of the earth, having determined appointed seasons, and the boundaries of their dwellings,²⁷ that they should seek God,^a if perhaps they might reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us. ²⁸For in him we live, and move, and have our being.^b As some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also his offspring.'^c ²⁹Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by art and design of man. ³⁰The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked. But now he commands that all people everywhere should repent,³¹ because he has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has ordained; of which he has given assurance to all men, in that he has raised him from the dead."

³²Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, "We want to hear you again concerning this."

³³Thus Paul went out from among them. ³⁴But certain men joined with him, and believed, among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18 After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth. ²He found a certain Jew named Aquila, a man of Pontus by race, who had recently come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome. He came to them,³ and because he practiced the same trade, he lived with them and worked, for by trade they were tent makers. ⁴He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded Jews and Greeks. ⁵But when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was compelled by the word^d, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Messiah. ⁶When they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook out his clothing and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am clean. From now on, I will go to the Gentiles!"

⁷He departed there, and went into the house of a certain man named Titius^e Justus, one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue. ⁸Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all his house. Many of the Corinthians, when they heard, believed and were baptized. ⁹The Lord said to Paul in the night by a vision, "Do not be afraid, but 10speak and do not be silent; 10for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city.”

11He lived there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. 12But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat, 13saying, “This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the law.”

14But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, “If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked crime, you Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you; 15but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves. For I do not want to be a judge of these matters.” 16He drove them from the judgment seat.

17Then all^a laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. Gallio did not care about any of these things.

18Paul, having stayed after this many more days, took his leave of the brothers, and sailed from there for Syria, together with Priscilla and Aquila. He shaved his head in Cenchreae, for he had a vow. 19They^b came to Ephesus, and he left them there; but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. 20When they asked him to stay^c a longer time, he declined; 21but taking his leave of them, and saying, ^d“I will return again to you if God wills,” he set sail from Ephesus.

22When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church, and went down to Antioch. 23Having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of Galatia, and Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples. 24Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus. He was mighty in the Scriptures. 25This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus^e, although he knew only the baptism of John. 26He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. ²⁷When he had determined to pass over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him. When he had come, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace; ²⁸for he powerfully refuted the Jews, publicly showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Messiah.

19 It happened that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper country, came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples. ²He said to them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?”

They said to him, “No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

³He said, “Into what then were you baptized?”

They said, “Into John’s baptism.”

⁴Paul said, “John indeed baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe in the one who would come after him, that is, in Jesus.”

⁵When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. ⁶When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke with other languages and prophesied. ⁷They were about twelve men in all. ⁸He entered into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for a period of three months, reasoning and persuading about the things concerning the Kingdom of God.

⁹But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the crowd, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. ¹⁰This continued for two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

¹¹God worked special miracles by the hands of Paul, ¹²so that even handkerchiefs^a or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and the evil spirits went out. ¹³But some of the itinerant Jews, exorcists, took on themselves to invoke over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, “I adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches.” ¹⁴There were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did this.

¹⁵The evil spirit answered, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are you?” ¹⁶The man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overpowered them all, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. ¹⁷This became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived at Ephesus. Fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.¹⁸ Many also of those who had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds.¹⁹ Many of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. They counted the price of them, and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver.^a²⁰ So the word of the Lord was growing and becoming mighty.

²¹ Now after these things had ended, Paul determined in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome."

²² Having sent into Macedonia two of those who served him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while.²³ About that time there arose no small stir concerning the Way.²⁴ For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought no little business to the craftsmen,²⁵ whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, "Sirs, you know that by this business we have our wealth.²⁶ You see and hear, that not at Ephesus alone, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are no gods, that are made with hands.²⁷ Not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute; but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be counted as nothing, and that she should even be deposed from her magnificence, whom all Asia and the world worships."

²⁸ When they heard this they were filled with anger, and began to shout, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"²⁹ The^b city was filled with confusion, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel.³⁰ When Paul wanted to enter in to the people, the disciples did not allow him.³¹ Certain also of the Asiarchs, being his friends, sent to him and begged him not to venture into the theater.³² Some therefore shouted one thing, and some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most of them did not know why they had come together.³³ They brought Alexander out of the crowd, the Jews putting him forward. Alexander beckoned with his hand, and would have made a defense to the people.³⁴ But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice for a time of about two hours shouted, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

^a19:19 The 50,000 pieces of silver here probably referred to 50,000 drachmas. If so, the value of the burned books was equivalent to about 160 man-years of wages for agricultural laborers

³⁵When the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he said, “You men of Ephesus, what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great^a Artemis, and of the image which fell down from Zeus?³⁶Seeing then that these things cannot be denied, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash.³⁷For you have brought these men here, who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our^b goddess.³⁸If therefore Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a matter against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls. Let them press charges against one another.³⁹But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly.⁴⁰For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning this day’s riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we would not be able to give an account of this commotion.”⁴¹When he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

20 After the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the disciples and, after encouraging them,^c took leave of them, and departed to go into Macedonia.²When he had gone through those parts, and had encouraged them with many words, he came into Greece.³When he had spent three months

there, and a plot was made against him by Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia.⁴He was accompanied^d by Sopater son of Pyrrhus^e of Beroea; Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians; Gaius of Derbe; Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia.⁵But these had gone ahead, and were waiting for us at Troas.⁶We sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.

⁷On the first day of the week, when we^f were gathered together to break bread, Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and continued his speech until midnight.⁸There were many lights in the upper chamber where we were gathered together.⁹A certain young man named Eutychus sat in the window, weighed down with deep sleep. As Paul spoke still longer, being weighed down by his sleep, he fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead.¹⁰Paul went down, and fell upon him, and embracing him said, “Do not be troubled, for his life is in him.”

¹¹When he had gone up, and had broken bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even until break of day, he departed. ¹²They brought the boy in alive, and were greatly comforted.

¹³But we who went ahead to the ship set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there, for he had so arranged, intending himself to go by land. ¹⁴When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard, and came to Mitylene. ¹⁵Sailing from there, we came the following day opposite Chios. The next day we landed at Samos,^a and the day after we came to Miletus. ¹⁶For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

¹⁷From Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to himself the elders of the church. ¹⁸When they had come to him, he said to them, "You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you all the time, ¹⁹servicing the Lord with all humility, with many tears, and with trials which happened to me by the plots of the Jews; ²⁰how I did not shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly and from house to house, ²¹testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus. ²²Now, behold, I go bound by the Spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there; ²³except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions wait for me. ²⁴But I make my life^b an account of nothing^c precious to myself, so that I may finish my race^d, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to fully testify to the Good News of the grace of God.

²⁵Now, behold, I know that you all, among whom I went about proclaiming the Kingdom^e, will see my face no more. ²⁶Therefore I testify to you this day that I am clean from the blood of all men, ²⁷for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. ²⁸Take heed, therefore, to yourselves, and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of^f God^g which he purchased with his own blood. ²⁹For I know that after my departure, vicious wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock. ³⁰Men will arise from among your own selves, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. ³¹Therefore watch, remembering that for a period of three years I did not cease to admonish everyone night and day with tears. ³²Now^a I entrust you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build up, and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. ³³I coveted no one's silver, or gold, or clothing. ³⁴You yourselves know that these hands served my necessities, and those who were with me. ³⁵In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring you ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

³⁶When he had spoken these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. ³⁷They all wept a lot, and fell on Paul's neck and kissed him, ³⁸sorrowing most of all because of the word which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

21 When it happened that we had parted from them and had set sail, we came with a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. ²Having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail. ³When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to unload her cargo. ⁴Having found the^b disciples, we stayed there seven days. These said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. ⁵When it happened that we had accomplished the days, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, brought us on our way until we were out of the city. Kneeling down on the beach, we prayed. ⁶After saying goodbye to each other, we went on board the ship, and they returned home again.

⁷When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers, and stayed with them one day. ⁸On the next day,^c we departed and came to Caesarea.

We entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. ⁹Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied. ¹⁰As we stayed there some days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. ¹¹Coming to us, and taking Paul's belt, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit: 'So will the Jews in Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.”

¹²When we heard these things, both we and they of that place begged him not to go up to Jerusalem. ¹³Then Paul answered, “What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.”

¹⁴When he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, “The Lord’s will be done.”

¹⁵After these days we took up our baggage and went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we would stay.

¹⁷When we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly. ¹⁸The day following, Paul went in with us to James; and all the elders were present. ¹⁹When he had greeted them, he reported one by one the things which God had worked among the Gentiles through his ministry. ²⁰They, when they heard it, glorified God.^a They said to him, “You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed, and they are all zealous for the Law. ²¹They have been informed about you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children neither to walk after the customs. ²²What then?^b They will certainly hear that you have come. ²³Therefore do what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow. ²⁴Take them, and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses for them, that they may shave their heads. Then all will know that there is no truth in the things that they have been informed about you, but that you yourself also walk keeping the Law. ²⁵But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written our decision that they should^c keep themselves from food offered to idols, from blood, from strangled things, and from sexual immorality.”

²⁶Then Paul took the men, and the next day, purified himself and went with them into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them. ²⁷When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the crowd and laid hands on him, ²⁸crying out, “Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the Law, and this place. Moreover, he also brought Greeks into the temple, and has defiled this holy place!”²⁹For they had previously^a seen Trophimus, the Ephesian, with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

³⁰All the city was moved, and the people ran together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple. Immediately the doors were shut.³¹As they were trying to kill him, news came up to the commanding officer of the regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.³²Immediately he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. They, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, stopped beating Paul.³³Then the commanding officer came near, arrested him, commanded him to be bound with two chains, and inquired who he was and what he had done.³⁴Some shouted one thing, and some another, among the crowd. When he could not find out the truth because of the noise, he commanded him to be brought into the barracks.

³⁵When he came to the stairs, it happened that he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd;³⁶for the crowd of the people followed after, crying out, “Away with him!”³⁷As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he asked the commanding officer, “May I speak something^b to you?”

He said, “Do you know Greek?³⁸Are you not then the Egyptian, who before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins?”

³⁹But Paul said, “I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. I beg you, allow me to speak to the people.”

⁴⁰When he had given him permission, Paul, standing on the stairs, beckoned with his hand to the people. When there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

22 “Brothers and fathers, listen to the defense which I now make to you.”

²When they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they were even more quiet. He said,³“I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict manner of the Law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as you all are this day.⁴I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.⁵As also the high priest and all the council of the elders testify, from whom also

I received letters to the brothers, and traveled to Damascus to bring them also who were there to Jerusalem in bonds to be punished. ⁶It happened that, as I made my journey, and came close to Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from the sky a great light around me. ⁷I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’ ⁸I answered, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ He said to me, ‘I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you persecute.’

⁹“Those who were with me indeed saw the light^a, but they did not understand the voice of him who spoke to me. ¹⁰I said, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’ The Lord said to me, ‘Arise, and go into Damascus. There you will be told about all things which are appointed for you to do.’ ¹¹When I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus. ¹²One Ananias, a devout man according to the Law, well reported of by all the Jews who lived in Damascus, ¹³came to me, and standing by me said to me, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight!’ In that very hour I looked up at him. ¹⁴He said, ‘The God of our fathers has appointed you to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth. ¹⁵For you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and heard. ¹⁶Now why do you wait? Arise, be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on his name.^b”

¹⁷“It happened that, when I had returned to Jerusalem, and while I prayed in the temple, I fell into a trance, ¹⁸and saw him saying to me, ‘Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not receive testimony concerning me from you.’ ¹⁹I said, ‘Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed in you. ²⁰When the blood of Stephen, your witness, was shed, I also was standing by,^c and guarding the cloaks of those who killed him.’

²¹“He said to me, ‘Depart, for I will send you out far from here to the Gentiles.’”

²²They listened to him until he said that; then they lifted up their voice, and said, “Rid the earth of this fellow, for he is not fit to live!”

²³As they yelled, and threw off their cloaks, and threw dust into the air, ²⁴the commanding officer commanded him to be brought into the barracks, ordering him to be examined by scourging, that he might know for what crime they yelled at him like that.

²⁶When the centurion heard it, he went to the commanding officer and told him, “What are you about to do?”^b For this man is a Roman!”

²⁷The commanding officer came and asked him, “Tell me, are you a Roman?”

He said, “Yes.”

²⁸The commanding officer answered, “I bought my citizenship for a great price.”

Paul said, “But I was born a Roman.”

²⁹Immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him, and the commanding officer also was afraid when he realized that he was a Roman, because he had bound him.³⁰ But on the next day, desiring to know the truth about why he was accused by the Jews, he freed him^c, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

23 Paul, looking steadfastly at the council, said, “Brothers, I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day.”

²The high priest, Ananias, commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth.

³Then Paul said to him, “God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit to judge me according to the Law, and command me to be struck contrary to the law?”

⁴Those who stood by said, “Do you malign God’s high priest?”

⁵Paul said, “I did not know, brothers, that he was high priest. For it is written, ‘You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.’”^d ⁶But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he shouted in the council, “Men and brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. Concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!”

⁷When he had said this, an argument arose between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. ⁸For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess all of these.⁹ A great clamor arose, and some of^a the scribes of the Pharisees part stood up, and contended, saying, “We find no evil in this man. What if a spirit spoke to him, or an angel?^b”

¹⁰When a great argument arose, the commanding officer, fearing that Paul would be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.

¹¹The following night, the Lord stood by him, and said, “Cheer up^c, for as you have testified about me at Jerusalem, so you must testify also at Rome.”

¹²When it was day,^d the Jews formed a conspiracy, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.¹³ There were more than forty people who had made this conspiracy. ¹⁴They came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, “We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul.¹⁵ Now therefore, you with the council inform the commanding officer that he should bring him down to you^e, as though you were going to judge his case more exactly. We are ready to kill him before he comes near.”

¹⁶But Paul’s sister’s son heard of their lying in wait, and he came and entered into the barracks and told Paul. ¹⁷Paul summoned one of the centurions, and said, “Bring this young man to the commanding officer, for he has something to tell him.”

¹⁸So he took him, and brought him to the commanding officer, and said, “Paul, the prisoner, summoned me and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to tell you.”

¹⁹The commanding officer took him by the hand, and going aside, asked him privately, “What is it that you have to tell me?”

²⁰And he said, “The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though intending to inquire somewhat more accurately concerning him. ²¹Therefore do not yield to them, for more than forty men lie in wait for him, who have bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him. ²²So the commanding officer let the young man go, charging him, “Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me.” ²³He called to himself two of the centurions, and said, “Prepare two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, with seventy horsemen, and two hundred men armed with spears, at the third hour of the night^a.” ²⁴He asked them to provide animals, that they might set Paul on one, and bring him safely to Felix the governor. ²⁵He wrote a letter like this:

²⁶“Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor Felix: Greetings.

²⁷“This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them, when I came with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. ²⁸Desiring to know the cause why they accused him, I brought him down to their council. ²⁹I found him to be accused about questions of their law, but not to be charged with anything worthy of death or of imprisonment. ³⁰When I was told that there would be a plot^b against the man, I sent him to you immediately, charging his accusers also to bring their accusations against him before you.^c”

³¹So the soldiers, carrying out their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. ³²But on the next day they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the barracks. ³³When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. ³⁴When the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. When he understood that he was from Cilicia, he said, ³⁵“I will hear you fully when your accusers also arrive.” He commanded that he be kept in Herod’s palace.

24 After five days, the high priest, Ananias, came down with certain^d elders and an orator, one Tertullus. They informed the governor against Paul. ²When he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, “Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and that by your foresight reforms^e are coming to this nation, ³we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. ⁴But, that I do not delay you, I entreat you to bear with us and hear a few words. ⁵For we have found this man to be a plague, an instigator of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. ⁶He even tried to profane the temple, and we arrested him. ^{7a} ⁸By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him.”

⁹The Jews also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were so. ¹⁰When the governor had beckoned to him to speak, Paul answered, “Because I know that you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I cheerfully make my defense, ¹¹seeing that you can recognize that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem. ¹²In the temple they did not find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd, either in the synagogues, or in the city. ¹³Nor can they prove to you^b the things of which they now accuse me. ¹⁴But this I confess to you, that after the Way, which they call a sect, so I serve the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the Law, and which are written in the Prophets; ¹⁵having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there will be a resurrection^c, both of the just and unjust. ¹⁶Herein I also practice always having a conscience void of offense toward God and men. ¹⁷Now after some years, I came to bring gifts for the needy to my nation, and offerings; ¹⁸amid which certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, not with a mob, nor with turmoil. ¹⁹They ought to have been here before you, and to make accusation, if they had anything against me. ²⁰Or else let these men themselves say what injustice they found in me when I stood before the council, ²¹unless it is for this one thing that I shouted out standing among them, ‘Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged before you today!’”

²²But Felix,^d having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, “When Lysias, the commanding officer, comes down, I will decide your case.” ²³He ordered the centurion that he^e should be kept in custody, and should have some privileges, and not to forbid any of his friends to serve him or to visit him. ²⁴But after some days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus. ²⁵As he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, “Go your way for this time, and when it is convenient for me, I will summon you.”²⁶ Meanwhile, he also hoped that money would be given to him by Paul^a. Therefore also he sent for him more often, and talked with him.²⁷ But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and desiring to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

25 Festus therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea.² Then the high priest and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul, and they urged him,³ asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem; plotting to kill him on the way.⁴ However Festus answered that Paul should be kept in custody at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to depart shortly.⁵ “Let them therefore,” said he, “that are in power among you go down with me, and if there is anything wrong^b in the man, let them accuse him.”

⁶When he had stayed among them more than eight or^c ten days, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he sat on the judgment seat, and commanded

Paul to be brought.⁷ When he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing against him many and grievous charges which they could not prove,⁸ while he said in his defense, “Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all.”

⁹But Festus, desiring to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paul and said, “Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem, and be judged by me there concerning these things?”

¹⁰But Paul said, “I am standing before Caesar’s judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you also know very well.¹¹ For if I have done wrong, and have committed anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die; but if none of those things is true that they accuse me of, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar!”

¹²Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, “You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you shall go.”

Paul's case before the king, saying, "There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix;¹⁵ about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the Jewish elders informed me, asking for a sentence against him.¹⁶ To whom I answered that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up any man^a, before the accused has met the accusers face to face, and has had opportunity to make his defense concerning the matter laid against him.¹⁷ When therefore they had come together here, I did not delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought.¹⁸ Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such things as I supposed;¹⁹ but had certain questions against him about their own religion, and about one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.²⁰ Being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters.²¹ But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept until I could send him to Caesar."

²²Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself."

"Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him."

²³So on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing with the commanding officers and principal men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought in.²⁴ Festus said, "King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom the whole assembly of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.²⁵ But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and as he himself appealed to the emperor I determined to send him.²⁶ Of whom I have no certain thing to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him forth before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, that, after examination, I may have something to write.²⁷ For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to also specify the charges against him."

26 Agrippa said to Paul, "You may speak for yourself."

Then Paul stretched out his hand, and made his defense.²⁸ "I think myself happy, King Agrippa, that I am to make my defense before you this day concerning all the things that I am accused by the Jews,³ especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which are among Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

⁴“Indeed, all Jews know my way of life from my youth up, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem; ⁵having known me from the first, if they are willing to testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. ⁶Now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers, ⁷which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving night and day, hope to attain. Concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, O King^a! ⁸Why is it judged incredible with you, if God does raise the dead?

⁹“I myself most certainly thought that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. ¹⁰This I also did in Jerusalem. I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them. ¹¹Punishing them often in all the synagogues, I tried to make them blaspheme. Being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

¹²“Whereupon as I traveled to Damascus with the authority and commission from the chief priests, ¹³at noon, O King, I saw on the way a light from the sky, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who traveled with me. ¹⁴When we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.’

¹⁵“I said, ‘Who are you, Lord?’

“He said, ‘I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. ¹⁶But arise, and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose: to appoint you a servant and a witness both of the things which you have seen,^b and of the things which I will reveal to you; ¹⁷delivering you from the people, and from the Gentiles, to whom I send you, ¹⁸to open their eyes, that they may turn^c from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in me.’

¹⁹“Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, ²⁰but declared first to them of Damascus, at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. ²¹For this reason Jews seized me in the temple, and tried to kill me. ²²Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand to this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the Prophets and Moses said would happen,²³ how the Messiah must suffer, and how, by the resurrection of the dead, he would be first to proclaim light both to these people and to the Gentiles.”

²⁴As he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, “Paul, you are crazy! Your great learning is driving you insane!”

²⁵But he said, “I am not crazy, most excellent Festus, but boldly declare words of truth and reasonableness. ²⁶For the king knows of these things, to whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him, for this has not been done in a corner. ²⁷King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe.”

²⁸Agrippa said to Paul, “With a little persuasion are you trying to make me a Christian^{a?}”

²⁹Paul said, “I pray to God, that whether with little or with much, not only you, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except for these bonds.”

^{30b}The king rose up with the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them. ³¹When they had withdrawn, they spoke one to another, saying, “This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds.” ³²Agrippa said to Festus, “This man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

27 When it was determined that he should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band. ²Embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail to places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea; Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. ³The next day, we landed at Sidon. Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him permission to go to his friends and refresh himself. ⁴Putting to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. ⁵When we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. ⁶There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and he put us on board. ⁷When we had sailed slowly many days, and had come with difficulty opposite Cnidus, the wind not allowing us further, we sailed under the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone. ⁸With difficulty sailing along it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

⁹When much time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast had now already gone by, Paul admonished them, ¹⁰and said to them, “Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives.”

¹¹But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship than to those things which were spoken by Paul. ¹²Because the haven was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised going to sea from there, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there, which is a port of Crete, looking northeast and southeast.

¹³When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to shore. ¹⁴But before long, a stormy wind beat down from shore, which is called Euraquilo.^a ¹⁵When the ship was caught, and could not face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven along. ¹⁶Running under the lee of a small island called Cauda^b, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat. ¹⁷After they had hoisted it up, they used cables to help reinforce the ship. Fearing that they would run aground on the Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor, and so were driven along.

¹⁸As we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw things overboard. ¹⁹On the third day, they^c threw out the ship’s tackle with their own hands. ²⁰When neither sun nor stars shone on us for many days, and no small storm pressed on us, all hope that we would be saved was now taken away.

²¹When they had been long without food, Paul stood up in the middle of them, and said, “Sirs, you should have listened to me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss. ²²Now I exhort you to cheer up, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.

²³For there stood by me this night an angel, belonging to the God whose I am and whom I serve, ²⁴saying, ‘Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar. Behold, God has granted you all those who sail with you.’

²⁵Therefore, sirs, cheer up! For I believe God, that it will be just as it has been spoken to me. ²⁶But we must run aground on a certain island.”

²⁷But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven back and forth in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some land. ²⁸They took soundings, and found twenty fathoms.^a After a little while, they took soundings again, and found fifteen fathoms.^b ²⁹Fearing that we would run aground on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for daylight. ³⁰As the sailors were trying to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, pretending that they would lay out anchors from the bow, ³¹Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, “Unless these stay in the ship, you cannot be saved.” ³²Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let it fall off.

³³While the day was coming on, Paul begged them all to take some food, saying, “This day is the fourteenth day that you wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. ³⁴Therefore I beg you to take some food, for this is for your safety; for not a hair will perish^c from any of your heads.” ³⁵When he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all, and he broke it, and began to eat. ³⁶Then they all cheered up, and they also took food. ³⁷In all, we were two hundred seventy-six souls on the ship. ³⁸When they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. ³⁹When it was day, they did not recognize the land, but they noticed a certain bay with a beach, and they decided to try to drive the ship onto it. ⁴⁰Casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time untying the rudder ropes. Hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. ⁴¹But coming to a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground. The bow struck and remained immovable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves.

⁴²The soldiers’ counsel was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim out and escape. ⁴³But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stopped them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should throw themselves overboard first to go toward the land; ⁴⁴and the rest should follow, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. So it happened that they all escaped safely to the land.

28 When we had escaped, then we^d learned that the island was called Malta. ²The natives showed us uncommon kindness; for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. ³But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and placed them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand. ⁴When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said one to another, “No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped from the sea, yet Justice has not allowed to live.” ⁵However he shook off the creature into the fire, and was not harmed. ⁶But they expected that he would have swollen or fallen down dead suddenly, but when they watched for a long time and saw nothing bad happen to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

⁷Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius, who received us, and courteously entertained us for three days. ⁸It happened that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery. Paul entered in to him, prayed, and laying his hands on him, healed him. ⁹Then when this was done, the rest also who had diseases in the island came, and were cured. ¹⁰They also honored us with many honors, and when we sailed, they put on board the things that we needed.

¹¹After three months, we set sail^a in a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was “The Twin Brothers.” ¹²Touching at Syracuse, we stayed there three days. ¹³From there we weighed anchor^b and arrived at Rhegium. After one day, a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli, ¹⁴where we found brothers, and were entreated to stay with them for seven days. So we came to Rome. ¹⁵From there the brothers, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God, and took courage. ¹⁶When we entered into Rome,^c Paul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

¹⁷It happened that after three days Paul called together those who were the Jewish leaders. When they had come together, he said to them, “I, brothers, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, still was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, ¹⁸who, when they had examined me, desired to set me free, because there was no cause of death in me. ¹⁹But when the Jews spoke against it, I was forced to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything about which to accuse my nation. ²⁰For this cause therefore I asked to see you and to speak with you. For because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.”

²³When they had appointed him a day, many people came to him at his lodging. He explained to them, testifying about the Kingdom of God, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets, from morning until evening. ²⁴Some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. ²⁵When they did not agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had spoken one word, “The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah, the prophet, to your^a fathers, ²⁶saying, ‘Go to this people, and say, in hearing, you will hear, but will in no way understand.

the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord,⁵ through whom we received grace and the office of apostle, for obedience of faith among all the nations, for his name's sake;⁶ among whom you are also called to belong to Jesus Christ;⁷ to all who are in Rome, loved by God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁸First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. ⁹For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the Good News of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you ¹⁰always in my prayers, requesting, if by any means now at last I may succeed by the will of God to come to you. ¹¹For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end that you may be established; ¹²that is, that you and I may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine.

¹³Now I do not desire to have you unaware, brothers, that I often planned to come to you, and was hindered so far, that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among the rest of the Gentiles. ¹⁴I have an obligation both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish. ¹⁵So, for my part, I am eager to preach the Good News to you also who are in Rome. ¹⁶For I am not ashamed of the Good News,^a for it is the power of God for salvation for everyone who believes; for the Jew first, and also for the Greek. ¹⁷For in it is revealed God's righteousness from faith to faith. As it is written, "But the righteous shall live by faith."^b ¹⁸For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, ¹⁹because what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. ²⁰For since the creation of the world his invisible attributes, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made. So they are without excuse. ²¹Because, although they knew God, they did not glorify him as God or give him thanks, but their thinking became nonsense, and their foolish heart was darkened.

²²Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, ²³and traded the glory of the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and four-footed animals, and creeping things. ²⁴Therefore God also abandoned them in the lusts of their hearts to uncleanness, that their bodies should be dishonored among themselves, ²⁵who exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and

^a1:16 NU Vg. M TR add "of Christ"

^b1:17 Habakkuk 2:4

worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

²⁶For this reason, God abandoned them to their degrading passions. For their women changed the natural function into that which is against nature. ²⁷Likewise also the men, leaving the natural function of the woman, burned in their lust toward one another, men doing what is inappropriate with men, and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error. ²⁸Even as they refused to have God in their knowledge, God abandoned them to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fitting; ²⁹being filled with all unrighteousness,^a wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil habits, secret slanderers, ³⁰slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, ³¹foolish, promise-breakers, heartless,^b unmerciful; ³²who, knowing the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also approve of those who practice them.

2 Therefore you are without excuse, O man, whoever you are who judge. For in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things. ²Now we know that the judgment of God is in accordance with truth against those who practice such things. ³And do you think this, O man who judges those who practice such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of God? ⁴Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? ⁵But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you are storing up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; ⁶who “will pay back to everyone according to their works:”^c ⁷to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality -- eternal life. ⁸But to those who are self-seeking, and do not obey the truth, but obey wickedness -- wrath and anger, ⁹suffering and distress, on every soul of man who does evil, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

¹⁰But glory, honor, and peace for everyone who does good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. ¹¹For there is no partiality with God. ¹²For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without the law. As many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. ¹³For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be justified ¹⁴(for when Gentiles who do not have the law do by nature the things of the law, these, not having the law, are a law to themselves, ¹⁵in that they show the work of the law written on their hearts, their conscience bearing witness, and their conflicting thoughts accusing or else excusing them) ¹⁶in the day when God will judge the secrets of men, according to my Good News, by Christ Jesus.

¹⁷But if you call yourself a Jew, and rely on the law, and boast in God, ¹⁸and know his will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, ¹⁹and are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, ²⁰a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of children, having in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth. ²¹You therefore who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal? ²²You who say that one should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? ²³You who boast in the law, do you, by disobeying the law, dishonor God? ²⁴For “the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you,”^a just as it is written. ²⁵For circumcision indeed profits, if you are a doer of the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. ²⁶If therefore the uncircumcised keep the ordinances of the law, won't his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision? ²⁷Won't the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfills the law, judge you, who with the letter and circumcision are a transgressor of the law? ²⁸For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh; ²⁹but he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.

3 Then what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the profit of circumcision? ²Much in every way! Because first of all, they were entrusted with the oracles of God. ³For what if some were without faith? Will their lack of faith nullify the faithfulness of God? ⁴May it never be! Yes, let God be found true, but every man a liar. As it is written, “That you might be justified in your words, and might prevail when you come into judgment.”^b

⁵But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what will we say? Is God unrighteous who inflicts wrath? I speak like men do. ⁶May it never be! For then how will God judge the world? ⁷For if the truth of God through my lie abounded to his glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? ⁸Why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), “Let us do evil, that good may come?” Those who say so are justly condemned. ⁹What then? Are we better than they? No, in no way. For we previously warned both Jews and Greeks, that they are all under sin. ¹⁰As it is written, “There is no one righteous;

^a2:24 Isaiah 52:5; Ezekiel 36:22

^b3:4 Psalm 51:4

no, not one.
¹¹There is no one who understands.
There is no one who seeks after God.
¹²They have all turned aside.
They have together become unprofitable.
There is no one who does good,
there is not even one.”^a ¹³“Their throat is an open tomb.
With their tongues they have used deceit.”^b
“The poison of vipers is under their lips;”^c ¹⁴“Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.”^d ¹⁵“Their feet are swift to shed
blood.

¹⁶Destruction and misery are in their ways.

¹⁷The way of peace, they have not known.”^e

¹⁸“There is no fear of God before their eyes.”^f

¹⁹Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be closed, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God. ²⁰Because by the works of the law, no flesh will be justified in his sight. For through the law comes the knowledge of sin. ²¹But now apart from the law, a righteousness of God has been revealed, being testified by the Law and the Prophets; ²²even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ to all^g those who believe. For there is no distinction, ²³for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; ²⁴being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in

be just, and the justifier of him who has faith in Jesus.

²⁷Where then is the boasting? It is excluded. By what manner of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith. ²⁸For we maintain^a that a man is justified by faith apart from the works of the law. ²⁹Or is God the God of Jews only? Is not he the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, ³⁰since indeed there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith. ³¹Do we then nullify the law through faith? May it never be! No, we establish the law.

4 What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather,^b has found according to the flesh? ²For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. ³For what does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”^c ⁴Now to him who works, the reward is not counted as grace, but as debt. ⁵But to him who does not work, but believes in him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited as righteousness. ⁶Even as David also pronounces blessing on the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from works, ⁷“Happy are they whose iniquities are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

⁸Happy is the man whom the Lord will by no means charge with sin.”^d

⁹Is this blessing then pronounced on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was credited to Abraham as righteousness. ¹⁰How then was it credited? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. ¹¹He received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision, that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might also be credited to them. ¹²The father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had in uncircumcision. ¹³For the promise to Abraham and to his seed that he should be heir of the world was not through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

¹⁴For if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of no effect.

¹⁵For the law works wrath, for where there is no law, neither is there disobedience. ¹⁶For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace, to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed, not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all. ¹⁷As it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations."^a This is in the presence of him whom he believed: God, who gives life to the dead, and calls the things that are not, as though they were. ¹⁸Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, "So will your seed be."^b ¹⁹Without being weakened in faith, he considered^c his own body as^d dead (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb. ²⁰Yet, looking to the promise of God, he did not waver through unbelief, but grew strong through faith, giving glory to God, ²¹and being fully assured that what he had promised, he was able also to perform. ²²Therefore it also was "credited to him as righteousness."^e ²³Now it was not written that it was credited to him for his sake alone, ²⁴but for our sake also, to whom it will be credited, who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, ²⁵who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

5 Being therefore justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; ²through whom we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand. We rejoice in hope of the glory of God. ³Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering works perseverance; ⁴and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope: ⁵and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us. ⁶For while we were yet weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷For rarely does one die for the righteous^f. Yet perhaps for a good person someone might dare to die. ⁸But God commends his own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

⁹Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we will be saved from God's wrath through him. ¹⁰For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we will be saved by his life.

¹¹Not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord

Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation. ¹²Therefore, as sin entered into the world through one man, and death through sin; and so death passed to all men, because all sinned. ¹³For until the law, sin was in the world; but sin is not charged when there is no law. ¹⁴Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those whose sins weren't like Adam's disobedience, who is a foreshadowing of him who was to come. ¹⁵But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many. ¹⁶The gift is not as through one who sinned: for the judgment came by one to condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses to justification. ¹⁷For if by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; so much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ. ¹⁸So then as through one trespass, all men were condemned; even so through one act of righteousness, all men were justified to life. ¹⁹For as through the one man's disobedience many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one, many will be made righteous. ²⁰The law came in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace abounded more exceedingly; ²¹that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? ²May it never be! We who died to sin, how could we live in it any longer? ³Or do you not know that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴We were buried therefore with him through baptism to death, that just like Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. ⁵For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will also be part of his resurrection; ⁶knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be in bondage to sin. ⁷For he who has died has been freed from sin. ⁸But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him; ⁹knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no more has dominion over him! ¹⁰For the death that he died, he died to sin one time; but the life that he lives, he lives to God. ¹¹In the same way, consider yourselves dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus^a.

¹²Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts.

^a6:11 NU Vg. M TR add "our Lord"

¹³Neither present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. ¹⁴For sin will not have dominion over you. For you are not under law, but under grace. ¹⁵What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? May it never be! ¹⁶Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves as servants to obedience, his servants you are whom you obey; whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness? ¹⁷But thanks be to God, that, whereas you were bondservants of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching whereunto you were delivered. ¹⁸Being made free from sin, you became bondservants of righteousness.

¹⁹I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh, for as you presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to wickedness upon wickedness, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness for sanctification. ²⁰For when you were servants of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. ²¹What fruit then did you have at that time in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. ²²But now, being made free from sin, and having become servants of God, you have your fruit of sanctification, and the result of eternal life. ²³For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 Or do you not know, brothers (for I speak to men who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man for as long as he lives? ²For the woman that has a husband is bound by law to the husband while he lives, but if the husband dies, she is discharged from the law of the husband. ³So then if, while the husband lives, she is joined to another man, she would be called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she is joined to another man. ⁴Therefore, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you would be joined to another, to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit to God. ⁵For when we were in the flesh,^a the sinful passions which were through the law, worked in our members to bring forth fruit to death. ⁶But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that in which we were held; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

⁷What shall we say then? Is the law sin? May it never be! However, I would not have known sin, except through the law. For I would not have known coveting, unless the law had said, “You shall not covet.”^a ⁸But sin, finding occasion through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of coveting. For apart from the law, sin is dead. ⁹I was alive apart from the law once, but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. ¹⁰The commandment, which was for life, this I found to be for death; ¹¹for sin, finding occasion through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me. ¹²Therefore the law indeed is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good.

^a7:5 Or, "were living according to the sinful nature"

¹³Did then that which is good become death to me? May it never be! But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful. ¹⁴For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin. ¹⁵For I do not know what I am doing. For I do not practice what I desire to do; but what I hate, that I do. ¹⁶But if what I do not desire, that I do, I consent to the law that it is good. ¹⁷So now it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. ¹⁸For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh,^b dwells no good thing. For desire is present with me, but to do that which is good is not. ¹⁹For the good which I desire, I do not do; but the evil which I do not desire, that I practice. ²⁰But if what I do not desire, that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. ²¹I find then the law, that, to me, while I desire to do good, evil is present. ²²For I delight in God’s law after the inward man, ²³but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity under the law of sin which is in my members. ²⁴What a wretched man I am! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death? ²⁵Thanks be to^c God through Jesus Christ, our Lord! So then with the mind, I myself serve God’s law, but with the flesh, the sin’s law.

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus.^d ²For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made you^e free from the law of sin and of death. ³For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God did, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh; ⁴that the ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. ⁵For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. ⁶For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace; ⁷because the mind of the flesh is hostile towards God; for it is not subject to God's law, neither indeed can it be. ⁸Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. ⁹But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if it is so that the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if any man does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not his. ¹⁰If Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the spirit is alive because of righteousness. ¹¹But if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. ¹²So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. ¹³For if you live after the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. ¹⁴For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are children of God. ¹⁵For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba^a! Father!"

¹⁶The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God; ¹⁷and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; if indeed we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him. ¹⁸For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which will be revealed toward us. ¹⁹For the creation waits with eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed. ²⁰For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but because of him who subjected it, in hope ²¹that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of decay into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. ²²For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now. ²³Not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for adoption, the redemption of our body. ²⁴For we were saved in hope, but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for that which he sees? ²⁵But if we hope for that which we do not see, we wait for it with patience. ²⁶In the same way, the Spirit also helps our weaknesses, for we do not know how to pray as we ought. But the Spirit himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. ²⁷He who searches the hearts knows what is on the Spirit's mind, because he makes intercession for the saints according to God.

^a8:15 Abba is an Aramaic word for father

²⁸We know that all things work together for good^a for those who love God, to those who are called according to his purpose. ²⁹For whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. ³⁰Whom he predestined, those he also called. Whom he called, those he also justified. Whom he justified, those he also glorified.

³¹What then shall we say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ³²He who did not spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how would he not also with him freely give us all things? ³³Who could bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who justifies. ³⁴Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, yes rather, who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.

³⁵Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Could oppression, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? ³⁶Even as it is written, "For your sake we are killed all day long. We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter."^b ³⁷No, in all these things, we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. ³⁸For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I tell the truth in Christ. I am not lying, my conscience testifying with me in the Holy Spirit, ²that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. ³For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brothers' sake, my relatives according to the flesh, ⁴who are Israelites; whose is the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service, and the promises; ⁵of whom are the patriarchs, and from whom is the Christ, as concerning the flesh, who is over all, God, blessed forever. Amen.

⁶But it is not as though the word of God has come to nothing. For they are not all Israel, that are of Israel. ⁷Neither, because they are Abraham's seed, are they all children. But, "In Isaac will your seed be called."^c ⁸That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as a seed. ⁹For this is a word of promise, “At the appointed time I will come, and Sarah will have a son.”^a ¹⁰Not only so, but Rebekah also conceived by one, by our father Isaac. ¹¹For being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him who calls, ¹²it was said to her, “The elder will serve the younger.”^b ¹³Even as it is written, “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.”^c ¹⁴What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? May it never be! ¹⁵For he said to Moses, “I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion.”^d ¹⁶So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who has mercy. ¹⁷For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, “For this very purpose I caused you to be raised up, that I might show in you my power, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth.”^e ¹⁸So then, he has mercy on whom he desires, and he hardens whom he desires. ¹⁹You will say then to me, “Why does he still find fault? For who withstands his will?” ²⁰But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? Will the thing formed ask him who formed it, “Why did you make me like this?”^f ²¹Or hasn’t the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel for honor, and another for dishonor? ²²What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath made for destruction, ²³and that he might make known the riches of his glory on vessels of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory, ²⁴us, whom he also called, not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles? ²⁵As he says also in Hosea,

“I will call them ‘my people,’ which were not my
people;
and her ‘beloved,’ who was not beloved.”^g

²⁶“It will be that in the place where it was said to them,
‘You are not my

There they will be called ‘children of the living God.’”^h

²⁹As Isaiah has said before, “Unless the Lord of hosts^c had left us a seed,
we would have become like Sodom,
and would have been made like Gomorrah.”^d

³⁰What shall we say then?
That the Gentiles, who did not follow after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith; ³¹but Israel, following after a law of righteousness, did not arrive at that law^e. ³²Why? Because they did not seek it by faith, but as it were by works^f. They stumbled over the stumbling stone; ³³even as it is written, “Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and a rock that 10 Brothers, my heart’s desire and my prayer to God is for them^h, that they may be saved. ²For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.

³For being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. ⁴For Christ is the endⁱ of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. ⁵For Moses writes about the righteousness of the law, “The one who does them will live by them.”^j ⁶But the righteousness which is of faith says this, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’^k (that is, to bring Christ down); ⁷or, ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’^l (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.)” ⁸But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth, and in your heart;”^m that is, the word of faith, which we proclaim: ⁹that if you will confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.
¹⁰For with the heart one believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made, resulting in salvation. ¹¹For the Scripture says, “Whoever believes in him will not be disappointed.”ⁿ

God answer him? "I have reserved for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal."^a ⁵Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. ⁶And if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace.^b

⁷What then? That which Israel seeks for, that he did not obtain, but the chosen ones obtained it, and the rest were hardened. ⁸According as it is written, "God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, to this very day."^c ⁹David says,

"Let their table be made a snare,
and a trap,
a stumbling block, and a retribution to them.

¹⁰Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see.
Bow down their back

¹¹I ask then, did they stumble that they might fall? May it never be! But by their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy.

¹²Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fullness? ¹³For I speak to you who are Gentiles. Since then as I am an apostle to Gentiles, I glorify my ministry; ¹⁴if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and may save some of them. ¹⁵For if the rejection of them is the reconciling of the world, what would their acceptance be, but life from the dead? ¹⁶If the first fruit is holy, so is the lump. If the root is holy, so are the branches. ¹⁷But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them, and became partaker with them of the then the goodness and severity of God. Toward those who fell, not continue in their unbelief, will ⁹Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil. Cling to that which is good. ¹⁰In love of the brothers be tenderly affectionate one to another; outdo one another in showing honor; ¹¹not lagging in diligence; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; ¹²rejoicing in hope; enduring in troubles; continuing steadfastly in prayer; ¹³contributing to the needs of the saints; given to hospitality. ¹⁴Bless those who persecute you^a; bless, and do not curse. ¹⁵Rejoice with those who rejoice. taxes, for they are servants of God's service, attending continually on this very thing. ⁷Give therefore to everyone what you owe: taxes to whom taxes are due; customs to whom customs; respect to whom respect; honor to whom honor. ⁸Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

⁹For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not covet,"^{ab} and whatever other commandments there are, are all summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."^c ¹⁰Love does not harm a neighbor. Love therefore is the fulfillment of the law. ¹¹Do this, knowing the time, that it is already time for you to awaken out of sleep, for salvation is now nearer to us than when we first believed. ¹²The night is far gone, and the day is near. Let us therefore throw off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. ¹³Let us walk properly, as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and lustful acts, and not in strife and jealousy. ¹⁴But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, for its lusts.

14 Now accept one who is weak in faith, but not for disputes over opinions. ²One man has faith to eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables. ³Do not let him who eats despise him who does not eat. Do not let him who does not eat judge him who eats, for God has accepted him. ⁴Who are you who judge another's servant? To his own lord he stands or falls. Yes, he will be made to stand, for the Lord^d has power to make him stand.

⁵One man esteems one day as more important. Another esteems every day alike. Let each man be fully convinced in his own mind. ⁶He who observes the day, observes it to the Lord.^e He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks. He who does not eat, to the Lord he does not eat, and gives God thanks. ⁷For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself. ⁸For if we live, we live to the Lord. Or if we die, we die to the Lord. If therefore we live or die, we are the Lord's. ⁹For to this end Christ died,^f and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

¹⁰But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God.^a ¹¹For it is written,

“‘As I live,’ says the Lord, ‘to me every knee will bow.

Every tongue will confess to God.’”^b

¹²So then each one of us will give account of himself to God.

¹³Therefore let us not judge one another any more, but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block in his brother’s way, or an occasion for falling. ¹⁴I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself, except that to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. ¹⁵Yet if because of food your brother is grieved, you walk no longer in love. Do not destroy with your food him for whom Christ died. ¹⁶Then do not let your good be slandered, ¹⁷for the Kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸For he who serves Christ in these things is acceptable to God and approved by men. ¹⁹So then, let us follow after things which make for peace, and things by which we may build one another up. ²⁰Do not overthrow God’s work for food’s sake. All things indeed are clean, however it is evil for that man who creates a stumbling block by eating. ²¹It is good to not eat meat, drink wine, nor do anything by which your brother stumbles^c.

²²Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Happy is he who does not judge himself in that which he approves. ²³But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because it is not of faith; and whatever is not of faith is sin.

15 Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves. ²Let each one of us please his neighbor for that which is good, to be building him up. ³For even Christ did not please himself. But, as it is written, “The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me.”^d ⁴For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that through patience and through encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. ⁵Now the God of patience and of encouragement grant you to be of the same mind one with another according to Christ Jesus, ⁶that with one accord you may with one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

to you and peace from God the Father and our^a Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I always thank my God concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; ⁵that in everything you were enriched in him, in all speech and all knowledge; ⁶even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: ⁷so that you come behind in no gift; waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; ⁸who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹God is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. ¹⁰Now I beg you, brothers, through the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgment. ¹¹For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are from Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you. ¹²Now I mean this, that each one of you says, "I follow Paul," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Cephas," and, "I follow Christ." ¹³Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of Paul? ¹⁴I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵so that no one should say that you had been baptized^b into my own name. ¹⁶(I also baptized the household of Stephanas; besides them, I do not know whether I baptized any other.) ¹⁷For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to proclaim the Good News—not in wisdom of words, so that the cross of Christ would not be made void. ¹⁸For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are dying, but to us who are saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
I will bring the discernment of the discerning to nothing."^c

²⁰Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the Law scholar of this world? Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of this world? ²¹For seeing that in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom did not know God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the proclaiming to save those who believe. ²²For Jews ask for signs, Greeks seek after wisdom, ²³but we proclaim Christ crucified; a stumbling block to Jews, and foolishness to Gentiles^d, ²⁴but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God. ²⁵Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men. ²⁶For you see your calling, brothers, that not many are wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, and not many noble; ²⁷but God chose the foolish things of the world that he might put to shame those who are wise. God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong; ²⁸and God chose the lowly things of the world, and the things that are despised, and the things that are not, that he might bring to nothing the things that are: ²⁹that no flesh should boast before God. ³⁰But of him, you are in Christ Jesus, who was made to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption: ³¹that, according as it is written, "He who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."^a

2 When I came to you, brothers, I did not come with excellence of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the mystery^b of God.^c ²For I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. ³When I was with you, I was weak and afraid and I shook. ⁴My speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of^d wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, ⁵that your faith would not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. ⁶We speak wisdom, however, among those who are full grown; yet a wisdom not of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, who are coming to nothing. ⁷But we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the wisdom that has been hidden, which God foreordained before the worlds for our glory, ⁸which none of the rulers of this world has known. For had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹But as it is written, No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has imagined the things which God has prepared for those who love him.^e ¹⁰But to us, God revealed them through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. ¹¹For who among men knows the things of a man, except the spirit of the man, which is in him? Even so, no one knows the things of God, except God's Spirit. ¹²But we received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, that we might know the things that were freely given to us by God. ¹³Which things also we speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the^f Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. ¹⁴Now the natural man does not receive the things of God's Spirit, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot know them, because they are spiritually discerned.¹⁵ But he who is spiritual discerns all things, and he himself is judged by no one.¹⁶ "For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him?"^a But we have Christ's mind.

3 Brothers, I could not speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly, as to babies in Christ.² I fed you with milk, not with meat; for you weren't yet ready. Indeed, not even now are you ready,³ for you are still fleshly. For insofar as there is jealousy, strife, and factions among you, are you not fleshly, and do you not walk in the ways of men?⁴ For when one says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," are you not men?^b ⁵Who then is Apollos, and who is Paul, but servants through whom you believed; and each as the Lord gave to him? ⁶I planted. Apollos watered. But God gave the increase.⁷ So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase.⁸ Now he who plants and he who waters are the same, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor.⁹ For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's farming, God's building.¹⁰ According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each man be careful how he builds on it.¹¹ For no one can lay any other foundation than that which has been laid, which is Jesus Christ.¹² But if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or stubble;¹³ each man's work will be revealed. For the Day will declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself will test what sort of work each man's work is.¹⁴ If any man's work remains which he built on it, he will receive a reward.¹⁵ If any man's work is burned, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as through fire.

¹⁶Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and that God's Spirit lives in you? ¹⁷If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him; for God's temple is holy, which you are.¹⁸ Let no one deceive himself. If anyone thinks that he is wise among you in this world, let him become a fool, that he may become wise.¹⁹ For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He has taken the wise in their craftiness."^c ²⁰And again, "The Lord knows the reasoning of the wise, that it is worthless."^d ²¹Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours,²² whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All are yours,²³ and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

4 So let a man think of us as Christ's servants, and stewards of God's mysteries.² Here, moreover, it is required of stewards, that they be found faithful.³ But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's judgment. Yes, I do not judge my own self.⁴ For I know nothing against myself. Yet I am not justified by this, but he who judges me is the Lord.⁵ Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each man will get his praise from God.

⁶ Now these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that in us you might learn not to go^a beyond the things which are written, that none of you be puffed up against one another.⁷ For who makes you different? And what do you have that you did not receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it? ⁸ You are already filled. You have already become rich. You have come to reign without us. Yes, and I wish that you did reign, that we also might reign with you.⁹ For, I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last of all, like men sentenced to death. For we are made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and men.¹⁰ We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You have honor, but we have dishonor.¹¹ Even to this present hour we hunger, thirst, are naked, are beaten, and have no certain dwelling place.¹² We toil, working with our own hands. When people curse us, we bless. Being persecuted, we endure.¹³ Being defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the dirt wiped off by all, even until now.¹⁴ I do not write these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children.¹⁵ For though you have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet not many fathers. For in Christ Jesus, I became your father through the Good News.¹⁶ I beg you therefore, be imitators of me.¹⁷ Because of this I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every church.¹⁸ Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.¹⁹ But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord is willing. And I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power.²⁰ For the Kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.²¹ What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even^a among the Gentiles, that one has his father's wife. ²You are puffed up, and did not rather mourn, that he who had done this deed might be removed from among you. ³For I most certainly, as being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him who has done this thing. ⁴In the name of our Lord Jesus,^b you being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus,^c ⁵are to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh,^d that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.^e

⁶Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole lump? ⁷Purge out the old yeast, that you may be a new lump, even as you are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed^f. ⁸Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old yeast, neither with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. ⁹I wrote to you in my letter to have no company with sexual sinners; ¹⁰yet not at all meaning with the sexual sinners of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or with idolaters; for then you would have to leave the world. ¹¹But as it is, I wrote to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother who is a sexual sinner, or covetous, or an idolater, or a slanderer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner. Why not rather be defrauded? ⁸No, but you yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that against your brothers. ⁹Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the Kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor men who have sexual relations with men,^a ¹⁰nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor slanderers, nor swindlers, will inherit the Kingdom of God. ¹¹Such were some of you, but you were washed. But you were sanctified. But the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. ¹⁴Now God raised up the Lord, and will also raise us up by his power. ¹⁵Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them members of a prostitute? May it never be! ¹⁶Or do you not know that he who is joined to a prostitute is one body? For, “The two,” says he, “will become one flesh.”^c ¹⁷But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit. ¹⁸Flee sexual immorality! “Every sin that a man does is outside the body,” but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. ¹⁹Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which you have from God? However each man has his own gift from God, one of this kind, and another of that kind.⁸ But I say to the unmarried and to widows, it is good for them if they remain even as I am.⁹ But if they do not have self-control, let them marry. For it's better to marry than to burn.¹⁰ But to the married I command—not I, but the Lord—that the wife not leave her husband¹¹ (but if she departs, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband not leave his wife.

¹²But to the rest I—not the Lord—say, if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is content to live with him, let him not leave her.¹³ The woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he is content to live with her, let her not leave her husband^b.¹⁴ For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the brother^c. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy.¹⁵ Yet if the unbeliever departs, let there be separation. The brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called us^d to peace.¹⁶ For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?¹⁷ Only, as the Lord has distributed to each man, as God^e has called each, so let him walk. So I command in all the churches.

¹⁸Was anyone called having been circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Has anyone been called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised.¹⁹ Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.²⁰ Let each man stay in that calling in which he was called.²¹ Were you called being a bondservant? Do not let that bother you, but if you get an opportunity to become free, use it.²² For he who was called in the Lord being a bondservant is the Lord's free man. Likewise he who was called being free is Christ's bondservant.²³ You were bought with a price. Do not become bondservants of men.²⁴ Brothers, let each man, in whatever condition he was called, stay in that condition with God.

²⁵Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy. ²⁶I think that it is good therefore, because of the distress that is on us, that it is good for a man to be as he is. ²⁷Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be freed. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife. ²⁸But if you marry, you have not sinned. If a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such will have oppression in the flesh, and I want to spare you. ²⁹But I say this, brothers: the time is short, that from now on, both those who have wives may be as though they had none; ³⁰and those who weep, as though they did not weep; and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess; ³¹and those who use the world, as not using it to the fullest. For the mode of this world passes away. ³²But I desire to have you to be free from cares. He who is unmarried is concerned for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord; ³³but he who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife. ³⁴There is also a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. ³⁵This I say for your own profit; not that I may ensnare you, but for that which is appropriate, and that you may attend to the Lord without distraction. ³⁶But if any man thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and if need so requires, let him do what he desires. He does not sin. Let them marry. ³⁷But he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own heart, to keep his own virgin, does well. ³⁸So then both he who gives his own virgin^a in marriage does well, and he who does not give her in marriage does better. ³⁹A wife is bound^b to her husband as long as he lives; but if the husband is dead, she is free to be married to whomever she desires, only in the Lord. ⁴⁰But she is happier if she stays as she is, in my judgment, and I think that I also have God's Spirit.

8 Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. ²But if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he does not yet know as he ought to know. ³But if anyone loves God, the same is known by him. ⁴Therefore concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no^a God but one.⁵For though there are things that are called “gods,” whether in the heavens or on earth; as there are many “gods” and many “lords;”⁶ yet to us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we for him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we live through him.⁷However, that knowledge is not in all men. But some, being so accustomed^b to idols until now, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.⁸But food will not commend us to God. For neither, if we do not eat, are we the worse; nor, if we eat, are we the better.⁹But be careful that by no means does this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to the weak.¹⁰For if a man sees you who have knowledge sitting in an idol’s temple, won’t his conscience, if he is weak, be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols?¹¹And through your knowledge, he who is weak perishes, the brother for whom the Christ died.¹²Thus, sinning against the brothers, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.¹³Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will eat no meat forevermore, that I do not cause my brother to stumble.

Who plants a vineyard, and does not eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and does not drink from the flock’s milk? ⁸Do I speak these things according to the ways of men? Or does not the Law also say the same thing? ⁹For it is written in the Law of Moses, “You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain.”^d Is it for the oxen that God cares, ¹⁰or does he say it assuredly for our sake? hindrance to the Good News of Christ. ¹³Do you not know that those who serve around sacred things eat from the things of the temple, and those who wait on the altar have their portion with the altar? ¹⁴Even so the Lord ordained that those who proclaim the Good News should live from the Good News. ¹⁵But I have used none of these things, and I do not write these things that it may be done so in my case; for I would rather die, than that anyone should make my boasting void. ¹⁶For if I proclaim the Good News, I have nothing to boast about; for necessity is laid on me; but woe is to me, if I do not proclaim the Good News. ¹⁷For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward. But if not of my own will, I have a stewardship entrusted to me. ¹⁸What then is my reward? That, when I proclaim the Good News, I may present the Good News^a without charge, so as not to abuse my authority in the Good News. ¹⁹For though I was free from all, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more. ²⁰To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, not being myself under the law^b, that I might gain those who are under the law; ²¹to those who are without law, as without law (not being without law toward God, but under law toward Christ), that I might win those who are without law. ²²To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some. ²³Now I do all things^c for the sake of the Good News, that I may be a joint partaker of it. ²⁴Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run like that, that you may win. ²⁵Every man who strives in the games exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. ²⁶I therefore run like that, as not uncertainly. I fight like that, as not beating the air, ²⁷but I beat my body and bring it into submission, lest by any means, after I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

10 Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; ²and were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea; ³and all ate the same spiritual food; ⁴and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. ⁵However with most of them, God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. ⁶Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. ⁷Neither be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, “The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.”^a ⁸Neither let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell. ⁹Neither let us test the Christ,^b as some of them tested, and perished by the serpents. ¹⁰Neither grumble, as some of them also grumbled, and perished by the destroyer. ¹¹Now all these things happened to them by way of example, and they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages have come. ¹²Therefore let him who thinks he stands be careful that he does not fall.

¹³No temptation has taken you except what is common to man. God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the temptation also make the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. ¹⁴Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. ¹⁵I speak as to wise men. Judge what I say. ¹⁶The cup of blessing which we bless, is not it a sharing of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is not it a sharing of the body of Christ? ¹⁷Because there is one loaf of bread, we, who are many, are one body; for we all partake of the one loaf of bread. ¹⁸Consider Israel according to the flesh. Do not those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar?

11 Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ. ²Now I praise you,^a that you remember me in all things, and hold firm the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. ³But I would have you know that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God. ⁴Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head. ⁵But every woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as if she were shaved. ⁶For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it is shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered. ⁷For a man indeed ought not to have his head covered, because he is the image and glory of God, but the woman is the glory of the man. ⁸For man is not from woman, but woman from man; ⁹for neither was man created for the woman, but woman for the man. ¹⁰For this cause the woman ought to have authority on her head, because of the messengers.

¹¹Nevertheless, neither is the woman independent of the man, nor the man independent of the woman, in the Lord. ¹²For as woman came from man, so a man also comes through a woman; but all things are from God. ¹³Judge for yourselves. Is it appropriate that a woman pray to God unveiled? ¹⁴Doesn't even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? ¹⁵But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given to her^b for a covering. ¹⁶But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither do God's churches.

¹⁷But in giving you this command, I do not praise you, that you come together not for the better but for the worse. ¹⁸For first of all, when you come together in the church, I hear that divisions exist among you, and I partly believe it. ¹⁹For there also must be factions among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you. ²⁰When therefore you assemble yourselves together, it is not the Lord's supper that you eat. ²¹For in your eating each one takes his own supper first. One is hungry, and another is drunk. ²²What, do you not have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise God's church, and put them to shame who do not have? What shall I tell you? Shall I praise you? In this I do not praise you.

²³For I received from the Lord that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which he was betrayed took bread. ²⁴When he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, “^aThis is my body, which is^b for you. Do this in memory of me.” ²⁵In the same way he also took the cup, after supper, saying, “^cThis cup is the New Covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink, in memory of me.” ²⁶For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes. ²⁷Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the Lord’s cup in a manner unworthy^c will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. ²⁸But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. ²⁹For he who eats and drinks^d eats and drinks judgment to himself, if he does not discern the^e body. ³⁰For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep. ³¹For if we discerned ourselves, we would not be judged. ³²But when we are judged, we are punished by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world. ³³Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait one for another. ³⁴But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest your coming together be for judgment. The rest I will set in order whenever I come.

12 Now concerning spiritual things, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant. ²You know that when you were heathen^f, you were led away to those mute idols, however you might be led. ³Therefore I make known to you that no man speaking by God’s Spirit says, “Jesus is accursed.” No one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” but by the Holy Spirit. ⁴Now there are various kinds of gifts^g, but the same Spirit.

⁵There are various kinds of service, and the same Lord. ⁶There are various kinds of workings, but the same God, who works all things in all. ⁷But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the profit of all. ⁸For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit; ⁹to another faith, by the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, by the one^h Spirit; ¹⁰and to another workings of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discernings of spirits; to another different kinds of tongues; and to another the interpretation of tongues. ¹¹But the one and the same Spirit works all of these, distributing to each one separately as he desires.

¹²For as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ. ¹³For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all given to drink of^a one Spirit. ¹⁴For the body is not one member, but many. ¹⁵If the foot would say, "Because I'm not the hand, I'm not part of the body," it is not therefore not part of the body. ¹⁶If the ear would say, "Because I'm not the eye, I'm not part of the body," it's not therefore not part of the body. ¹⁷If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? ¹⁸But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as he desired. ¹⁹If they were all one member, where would the body be? ²⁰But now they are many members, but one body. ²¹The eye cannot tell the hand, "I have no need for you," or again the head to the feet, "I have no need for you." ²²No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary. ²³Those parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, on those we bestow more abundant honor; and our unpresentable parts have more abundant propriety; ²⁴whereas our presentable parts have no such need. But God composed the body together, giving more abundant honor to the inferior part, ²⁵that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. ²⁶When one member suffers, all the members suffer with it. Or when one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

²⁷Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually. ²⁸God has set some in the church: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracle workers, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and various kinds of languages. ²⁹Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all miracle workers? ³⁰Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with various languages? Do all interpret? ³¹But earnestly desire the greater^b gifts. Moreover, I show a most excellent way to you.

13 If I speak with the languages of men and of angels, but do not have love, I have become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal. ²If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. ³If I dole out all my goods to feed the poor, and if I surrender my body so that I may boast,^a but do not have love, it profits me nothing.

⁴Love is patient and is kind; love does not envy. Love does not brag, is not proud, ⁵does not behave itself inappropriately, does not seek its own way, is not irritable, does not keep a record of wrongs; ⁶does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; ⁷bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. ⁸Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will be done away with. Where there are various languages, they will cease. Where there is knowledge, it will be done away with. ⁹For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; ¹⁰but when that which is complete has come, then that which is partial will be done away with. ¹¹When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become a man, I have put away childish things. ¹²For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I was also fully known. ¹³But now faith, hope, and love remain—these three. The greatest of these is love.

14 Follow after love, and earnestly desire spiritual gifts^b, but especially that you may prophesy. ²For he who speaks in another language speaks not to men, but to God; for no one understands; but in the Spirit he speaks mysteries. ³But he who prophesies speaks to men for their encouragement, strengthening, and comfort. ⁴He who speaks in another language edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church. ⁵Now I desire to have you all speak with other languages, but rather that you would prophesy, and^c he is greater who prophesies than he who speaks with other languages, unless he interprets, that the church may be built up.

⁶But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with other languages, what would I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching? ⁷Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they did not give a distinction in the sounds, how would it be known what is piped or harped? ⁸For if the trumpet gave an uncertain sound, who would prepare himself for war? ⁹So also you, unless you uttered by the tongue words easy to understand, how would it be known what is spoken? For you would be speaking into the air. ¹⁰There are, it may be, so many kinds of sounds in the world, and none^a is without meaning. ¹¹If then I do not know the meaning of the sound, I would be to him who speaks a foreigner, and he who speaks would be a foreigner to me. ¹²So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may abound to the building up of the church. ¹³Therefore let him who speaks in another language pray that he may interpret. ¹⁴For if I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

¹⁵What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. ¹⁶Otherwise if you bless with the spirit, how will he who fills the place of the unlearned say the "Amen" at your giving of thanks, seeing he does not know what you say? ¹⁷For you truly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. ¹⁸I thank^b God, I speak with other languages more than you all. ¹⁹However in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in another language.

²⁰Brothers, do not be children in thoughts, yet in malice be babies, but in thoughts be mature. ²¹In the law it is written, "By men of strange languages and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people. Not even thus will they hear me, says the Lord."^c ²²Therefore other languages are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving; but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to those who believe. ²³If therefore the whole church is assembled together and all speak with other languages, and unlearned or unbelieving people come in, won't they say that you are crazy? ²⁴But if all prophesy, and someone unbelieving or unlearned comes in, he is reproved by all, and he is judged by all. ²⁵And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed. So he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is among you indeed.

²⁶What is it then, brothers? When you come together, each one of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has another language, has an interpretation. Let all things be done to build each other up. ²⁷If any man speaks in another language, let it be two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let one interpret. ²⁸But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the church, and let him speak to himself, and to God. ²⁹Let the prophets speak, two or three, and let the others discern. ³⁰But if a revelation is made to another sitting by, let the first keep silent. ³¹For you can all prophesy one by one, that all may learn and all may be encouraged. ³²The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets, ³³for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace.

As in all the churches of the saints, ³⁴let the women^a keep silent in the churches, for it has not been permitted for them to speak; but let them be in subjection, as the Law also says. ³⁵If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is shameful for a woman to chatter in the church. ³⁶What? Was it from you that the word of God went out? Or did it come to you alone? ³⁷If any man thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him recognize the things which I write to you, that they are the commandment of the Lord. ³⁸But if someone does not recognize this^b, he is not recognized. ³⁹Therefore, brothers, desire earnestly to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking with other languages. ⁴⁰Let all things be done decently and in order.

15 Now I declare to you, brothers, the Good News which I preached to you, which also you received, in which you also stand, ²by which also you are saved, if you hold firmly the word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. ³For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received:

that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, ⁴that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, ⁵and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. ⁶After that he appeared to over five hundred brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have also fallen asleep. ⁷After that he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, ⁸and last of all, as to the child born at the wrong time, he appeared to me also.

⁹For I am the least of the apostles, who is not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace which was bestowed on me was not futile, but I worked more than all of them; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. ¹¹Whether then it is I or they, so we proclaim, and so you believed.

¹²Now if Christ is preached, that he has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? ¹³But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised. ¹⁴If Christ has not been raised, then our proclaiming is in vain, and your faith also is in vain. ¹⁵Yes, we are found false witnesses of God, because we testified about God that he raised up Christ, whom he did not raise up, if it is so that the dead are not raised. ¹⁶For if the dead are not raised, neither has Christ been raised. ¹⁷If Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. ¹⁸Then they also who are fallen asleep in Christ have perished. ¹⁹If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are of all men most pitiable.

²⁰But now Christ has been raised from the dead,^a the first fruits of those who are asleep. ²¹For since death came by man, the resurrection of the dead also came by man. ²²For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. ²³But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then those who are Christ's, at his coming. ²⁴Then the end comes, when he will deliver up the Kingdom to God, even the Father; when he will have abolished all rule and all authority and power. ²⁵For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. ²⁶The last enemy that will be abolished is death. ²⁷For, "He put all things in subjection under his feet."^b But when he says, "All things are put in subjection," it is evident that he is excepted who subjected all things to him. ²⁸When all things have been subjected to him, then the Son will also himself be subjected to him who subjected all things to him, that God may be all in all. ²⁹Or else what will they do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them?^{c?} ³⁰Why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour? ³¹I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. ³²If I fought with animals at Ephesus for human purposes, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, then "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."^d ³³Do not be deceived! "Evil companionships corrupt good morals." ³⁴Wake up righteously, and do not sin, for some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame. ³⁵But someone will say, "How are the dead raised?" and, "With what kind of body do they come?" ³⁶You foolish one, that which you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies. ³⁷That which you sow, you do not sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, maybe of wheat, or of some other kind. ³⁸But God gives it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own. ³⁹All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds. ⁴⁰There are also celestial bodies, and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial differs from that of the terrestrial. ⁴¹There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory. ⁴²So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption. ⁴³It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. ⁴⁴It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is also a spiritual body.

⁴⁵So also it is written, “The first man, Adam, became a living soul.”^a The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. ⁴⁶However that which is spiritual is not first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual. ⁴⁷The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is^b from heaven. ⁴⁸As is the one made of dust, such are those who are also made of dust; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. ⁴⁹As we have borne the image of those made of dust, let us^c also bear the image of the heavenly. ⁵⁰Now I say this, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.

⁵¹Behold, I tell you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, ⁵²in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed. ⁵³For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. ⁵⁴But when this corruptible will have put on incorruption, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then what is written will happen: “Death is swallowed up in victory.”^d ⁵⁵“Death, where is your victory?

Death^e, where is your sting?”^f

⁵⁶The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. ⁵⁷But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁵⁸Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the Lord’s work, because you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

2Corinthians

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia: ²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort; ⁴who comforts us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. ⁵For as the sufferings of Christ abound to us, even so our comfort also abounds through Christ. ⁶But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer. ⁷Our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that, since you are partakers of the sufferings, so also are you of the comfort. ⁸For we do not desire to have you uninformed, brothers, concerning our affliction which happened^a in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, so much that we despaired even of life. ⁹Yes, we ourselves have had the sentence of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead, ¹⁰who delivered us out of so great a death, and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope that he will also deliver us again; ¹¹you also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift bestowed on us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on our^b behalf. ¹²For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that with pure motives^c and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God we conducted ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you. ¹³For we write no other things to you, than what you read or even acknowledge, and I hope you will acknowledge to the end; ¹⁴as also you acknowledged us in part, that we are your boasting, even as you also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus. ¹⁵In this confidence, I was determined to come first to you, that you might have a second benefit; ¹⁶and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and to be sent forward by you on my journey to Judea. ¹⁷When I

The former, "pure motives" seems to fit the context better and is a Pauline word while the other Greek variant is not therefore was thus determined, did I show fickleness? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the “Yes, yes” and the “No, no?”¹⁸ But as God is faithful, our word toward you is^a not “Yes and no.”¹⁹ For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not “Yes and no,” but in him is “Yes.”²⁰ For however many are the promises of God, in him^b they are “Yes.” Therefore also through him they are “Amen,” to the glory of God through us.

²¹ Now he who establishes us with you in Christ, and anointed us, is God; ²² who also sealed us, and gave us the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts. ²³ But I call God for a witness to my soul, that I did not come to Corinth to spare you. ²⁴ Not that we have lordship over your faith, but are fellow workers with you for your joy. For you stand firm in faith.

2 But I determined this for myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow. ² For if I make you sorry, then who will make me glad but he who is made sorry by me? ³ And I wrote this very thing^c, so that, when I came, I would not have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy would be shared by all of you. ⁴ For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be made sorry, but that you might know the love that I have so abundantly for you. ⁵ But if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I not press too heavily) to you all. ⁶ Sufficient to such a one is this punishment which was inflicted by the many; ⁷ so that on the contrary you should rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his excessive sorrow. ⁸ Therefore I beg you to confirm your love toward him. ⁹ For to this end I also wrote, that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things. ¹⁰ Now I also forgive whomever you forgive anything. For if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the presence of Christ, ¹¹ that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

¹² Now when I came to Troas for the Good News of Christ, and when a door was opened to me in the Lord, ¹³ I had no relief for my spirit, because I did not find Titus, my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went out into Macedonia. ¹⁴ Now thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and reveals through us the sweet aroma of his knowledge in every place. ¹⁵ For we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God, in those who are saved, and in those who perish; ¹⁶to the one a stench from death to death; to the other a sweet aroma from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? ¹⁷For we are not, like so many, peddling the word of God. But as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, we speak in Christ.

^a1:18 M TR read “was” instead of “is”

^c2:3 M TR add “to you”

3 Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? We do not need, as do some, letters of commendation to you or^a from you, do we? ²You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men; ³being revealed that you are a letter of Christ, served by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in tablets that are hearts of flesh. ⁴Such confidence we have through Christ toward God; ⁵not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; ⁶who also made us sufficient as servants of a New Covenant; not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. ⁷But if the service of death, written engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly on the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which was passing away: ⁸won't service of the Spirit be with much more glory? ⁹For if the service of condemnation has glory, the service of righteousness exceeds much more in glory. ¹⁰For truly that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasses. ¹¹For if that which passes away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.

¹²Having therefore such a hope, we use great boldness of speech, ¹³and not as Moses, who put a veil on his face, that the children of Israel would not look steadfastly on the end of that which was passing away. ¹⁴But their minds were hardened, for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains, because in Christ it passes away. ¹⁵But to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart. ¹⁶But whenever one turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. ¹⁷Now the Lord is the Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. ¹⁸But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord, the Spirit.

4 Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we do not faint. ²But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. ³Even if our Good News is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing; ⁴in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, to prevent the light shining from the Good News of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. ⁵For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake; ⁶seeing it is God who said, "Light will shine out of darkness,"^a who has shone in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

⁷But we have this treasure in clay vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves. ⁸We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not to despair; ⁹pursued, yet not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed; ¹⁰always carrying in the body the death of ^bJesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. ¹¹For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be revealed in our mortal flesh. ¹²So then death works in us, but life in you. ¹³But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke."^c We also believe, and therefore also we speak; ¹⁴knowing that he who raised

Jesus^d will raise us also with Jesus, and will present us with you. ¹⁵For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God. ¹⁶Therefore we do not faint, but though our outward man is decaying, yet our^e inward man is renewed day by day. ¹⁷For our light affliction, which is for the moment, works for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; ¹⁸while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

5 For we know that if the earthly house of our tent is dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens. ²For truly in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven, ³since, after we have put it on, we will not be found naked. ⁴For indeed we who are in this tent do groan, being burdened; not that we desire to be unclothed, but that we desire to be clothed, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. ⁵Now he who made us for this very thing is God, who also gave to us the down payment of the Spirit.

⁶Therefore, we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord; ⁷for we walk by faith, not by sight. ⁸We are of good courage, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord. ⁹Therefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well pleasing to him. ¹⁰For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. ¹¹Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are revealed to God; and I hope that we are revealed also in your consciences. ¹²For we are not commending ourselves to you again, but speak as giving you occasion of boasting on our behalf, that you may have something to answer those who boast in appearance, and not in heart. ¹³For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God. Or if we are of sober mind, it is for you. ¹⁴For the love of Christ constrains us; because we judge thus, that one died for all, therefore all died. ¹⁵He died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to him who for their sakes died and rose again. ¹⁶Therefore we know no one after the flesh from now on. Even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know him so no more. ¹⁷Therefore

if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away. Behold, new things have come.^a ¹⁸But all things are of God, who reconciled us to himself through Jesus Christ, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation; ¹⁹namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and having committed to us the word of reconciliation. ²⁰We are therefore ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as though God were entreating by us: we beg you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. ²¹For him who knew no sin he made to be sin on our behalf, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

6 Working together, we entreat also that you not receive the grace of God in vain,² for he says, “At an acceptable time I listened to you, in a day of salvation I helped you.”^b

Behold, now is the acceptable time. Behold, now is the day of salvation. ³We give no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our service may not be blamed, ⁴but in everything commending ourselves, as servants of God, in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, ⁵in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in watchings, in fastings; ⁶in pureness, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love, ⁷in the word of truth, in the power of God; by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, ⁸by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; ⁹as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and not killed; ¹⁰as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

¹¹Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians. Our heart is enlarged. ¹²You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections. ¹³Now in return, I speak as to my children, you also be open wide. ¹⁴Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers, for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? ¹⁵What agreement has Christ with Belial? Or what portion has a believer with an unbeliever? ¹⁶What agreement has a temple of God with idols? For we^a are a temple of the living God. Even as God said, “I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they will be my people.”^b ¹⁷Therefore, “‘Come out from among them, and be separate,’ says the Lord.

‘Touch no unclean thing.

I will receive you.’^c

¹⁸I will be to you a Father.

You will be to me sons and daughters,’

says the Lord Almighty.”^d

7 Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. ²Open your hearts to us. We wronged no one. We corrupted no one. We took advantage of no one. ³I say this not to condemn you, for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die together and live together. ⁴Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I overflow with joy in all our affliction. ⁵For even when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side. Fightings were outside. Fear was inside. ⁶Nevertheless, he who comforts the lowly, God, comforted us by the coming of Titus; ⁷and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, while he told us of your longing, your mourning, and your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced still more.

⁸For though I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it. For I see that my letter made you sorry, though just for a while. ⁹I now rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you were made sorry to repentance. For you were made sorry in a godly way, that you might suffer loss by us in nothing. ¹⁰For godly sorrow works repentance to salvation, which brings no regret. But the sorrow of the world works death. ¹¹For behold, this same thing, that you were made sorry in a godly way, what earnest care it worked in you. Yes, what defense, indignation, fear, longing, zeal, and vengeance! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be pure in the matter. ¹²So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be revealed in you in the sight of God. ¹³Therefore we have been comforted. In our^a comfort we rejoiced the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. ¹⁴For if in anything I have boasted to him on your behalf, I was not disappointed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth. ¹⁵His affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembers all of your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him. ¹⁶I rejoice that in everything I am of good courage concerning you.

8 Moreover, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the churches of Macedonia; ²how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality. ³For according to their power, I testify, yes and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, ⁴begging us with much entreaty to receive this grace and the fellowship in the service to the saints. ⁵This was not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God. ⁶So we urged Titus, that as he made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this grace. ⁷But as you abound in everything, in faith, utterance, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love from us that is in you,^b see that you also abound in this grace. ⁸I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. ⁹For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might become rich. ¹⁰I give a judgment in this: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to start a year ago, not only to do, but also to be willing. ¹¹But

^a7:13 NU P Vg. M TR read "your" instead of "our"

now complete the doing also, that as there was the readiness to be willing, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. ¹²For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what you have, not according to what you do not have. ¹³For this is not that others may be eased and you distressed, ¹⁴but for equality. Your abundance at this present time supplies their lack, that their abundance also may become a supply for your lack; that there may be equality. ¹⁵As it is written, “He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack.”^a

¹⁶But thanks be to God, who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. ¹⁷For he indeed accepted our exhortation, but being himself very earnest, he went out to you of his own accord. ¹⁸We have sent together with him the brother whose praise in the Good News is known through all the churches. ¹⁹Not only so, but who was also appointed by the churches to travel with us in this grace, which is served by us to the glory of the Lord himself, and to show our readiness. ²⁰We are avoiding this, that any man should blame us concerning this abundance which is administered by us. ²¹Having regard for honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. ²²We have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he has in you. ²³As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you. As for our brothers, they are the apostles of the churches, the glory of Christ. ²⁴Therefore show the proof of your love to them in front of the churches, and of our boasting on your behalf.

9 It is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you concerning the service to the saints, ²for I know your readiness, of which I boast on your behalf to them of Macedonia, that Achaia has been prepared for a year past. Your zeal has stirred up very many of them. ³But I have sent the brothers that our boasting on your behalf may not be in vain in this respect, that, just as I said, you may be prepared, ⁴so that I won't by any means, if there come with me any of Macedonia and find you unprepared, we (to say nothing of you) should be disappointed in this confidence^b. ⁵I thought it necessary therefore to entreat the brothers that they would go before to you, and arrange ahead of time the generous gift that you promised before, that the same might be ready as a matter of generosity, and not of greediness. ⁶Remember this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly. He who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. ⁷Let each man give according as he has determined in his heart; not grudgingly, or under compulsion; for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸And God is able to make all grace abound to you, that you, always having all sufficiency in everything, may abound to every good work. ⁹As it is written, “He has scattered abroad, he has given to the poor. His righteousness remains forever.”^a ¹⁰Now^b he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, will supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness; ¹¹you being enriched in everything to all liberality, which works through us thanksgiving to God. ¹²For this service of giving that you perform not only makes up for lack among the saints, but abounds also through many thanksgivings to God; ¹³seeing that through the proof given by this service, they glorify God for the obedience of your confession to the Good News of Christ, and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all; ¹⁴while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, yearn for you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you. ¹⁵Now thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift!

10 Now I Paul, myself, entreat you by the humility and gentleness of Christ; I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am of good courage toward you. ²Yes, I beg you that I may not, when present, show courage with the confidence with which I intend to be bold against some, who consider us to be walking according to the flesh. ³For though we walk in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh; ⁴for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty in God to the throwing down of strongholds, ⁵throwing down imaginations and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ; ⁶and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience will be made full. ⁷Do you look at things only as they appear in front of your face? If anyone trusts in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ's, so also we are Christ's. ⁸For though I should boast somewhat abundantly concerning our authority, (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down) I will not be disappointed, ⁹that I may not seem as if I desire to terrify you by my letters. ¹⁰For, “His letters,” they say, “are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is despised.” ¹¹Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. ¹²For we are not bold to number or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding. ¹³But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but within the boundaries with which God appointed to us, which reach even to you. ¹⁴For we do not stretch ourselves too much, as though we did not reach to you. For we came even as far as to you with the Good News of Christ, ¹⁵not boasting beyond proper limits in other men's labors, but having hope that as your faith grows, we will be abundantly enlarged by you in our sphere of influence, ¹⁶so as to proclaim the Good News even to the parts beyond you, not to boast in what someone else has already done. ¹⁷But "he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."^a ¹⁸For it is not he who commends himself who is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

11 I wish that you would bear with me in a little foolishness, but indeed you do bear with me. ²For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy. For I married you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Christ. ³But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve^b in his craftiness, so your minds might be corrupted from a sincere and pure^c devotion to Christ. ⁴For if he who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we did not proclaim, or if you receive a different spirit, which you did not receive, or a different "good news", which you did not accept, you put up with that well enough. ⁵For I reckon that I am not at all behind the very best apostles. ⁶Even though I am unskilled in speech, I am not unskilled in knowledge. But in every way we have made this known^d to you in all things. ⁷Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached to you God's Good News free of charge? ⁸I robbed other churches, taking wages from them that I might serve you. ⁹When I was present with you and was in need, I was not a burden on anyone, for the brothers, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my need. In everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and I will continue to do so. ¹⁰As the truth of Christ is in me, no one will stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. ¹¹Why? Because I do not love you? God knows. ¹²But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them that desire an occasion, that in which they boast, they may be found even as we.

¹³For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, masquerading as Christ's apostles. ¹⁴And no wonder, for even Satan masquerades as an angel of light. ¹⁵It is no great thing therefore if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

¹⁶I say again, let no one think me foolish. But if so, yet receive me as foolish, that I also may boast a little. ¹⁷That which I speak, I do not speak according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting. ¹⁸Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I will also boast. ¹⁹For you bear with the foolish gladly, being wise. ²⁰For you bear with a man, if he brings you into bondage, if he devours you, if he takes you captive, if he exalts himself, if he strikes you on the face. ²¹I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet however any is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. ²²Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I. ²³Are they servants of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I am more so; in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths often. ²⁴Five times from the Jews I received forty stripes minus one. ²⁵Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck. I have been a night and a day in the deep. ²⁶I have been in travels often, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from my countrymen, perils from the Gentiles, perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false brothers; ²⁷in labor and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, and in cold and nakedness.

²⁸Besides those things that are outside, there is that which presses on me daily, anxiety for all the churches. ²⁹Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation? ³⁰If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness. ³¹The God and Father of the Lord Jesus,^a he who is blessed forevermore, knows that I do not lie. ³²In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king guarded the city of the Damascenes^b to arrest me. ³³Through a window I was let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

12 It is necessary to boast^c, though it is not profitable. But I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. ²I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I do not know, or whether out of the body, I do not know; God knows), such a one caught up into the third heaven. ³I know such a man (whether in the body, or apart^a from the body, I do not know; God knows), ⁴how he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. ⁵On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. ⁶For if I would desire to boast, I will not be foolish; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, so that no man may think more of me than that which he sees in me, or hears from me. ⁷By reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations, that I should not be exalted excessively, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, that I should not be exalted excessively. ⁸Concerning this thing, I begged the Lord three times that it might depart from me. ⁹He has said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for^b power is made perfect in weakness.” Most gladly therefore I will rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest on me.

¹⁰Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ’s sake. For when I am weak, then am I strong. ¹¹I have become foolish^c. You compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you, for in nothing was I inferior to the very best apostles, though I am nothing. ¹²Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs and wonders and mighty works. ¹³For what is there in which you were made inferior to the rest of the churches, unless it is that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong.

¹⁴Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I seek not what is yours, but you. For the children ought not to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. ¹⁵I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? ¹⁶But be it so, I did not myself burden you. But, being crafty, I caught you with deception. ¹⁷Did I take advantage of you by anyone of them whom I have sent to you? ¹⁸I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? Did not we walk in the same spirit? Did not we walk in the same steps? ¹⁹Have you been thinking all this time^d that we have been defending ourselves before you? In the sight of God we speak in Christ; and all things, beloved, are for your edifying. ²⁰For I am afraid that by any means, when I come, I might find you not the way I want to, and that I might be found by you as you do not desire; that by any means there would be strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, whisperings, proud thoughts, riots;²¹ that again when I come my God would humble me before you, and I would mourn for many of those who have sinned before now, and not repented of the uncleanness and sexual immorality and lustfulness which they committed.

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. “At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.”^a ²¹I have said beforehand, and I do say beforehand, as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent,^b to those who have sinned before now, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare; ³seeing that you seek a proof of Christ who speaks in me; who toward you is not weak, but is powerful in you. ⁴For indeed^c he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives through the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him through the power of God toward you. ⁵Test your own selves, whether you are in the faith. Test your own selves. Or do you not know as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you are disqualified. ⁶But I hope that you will know that we are not disqualified.

⁷Now we^d pray to God that you do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that you may do that which is honorable, though we are as reprobate. ⁸For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. ⁹For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. And this we also pray for, even your perfecting. ¹⁰For this cause I write these things while absent, that I may not deal sharply when present, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for tearing down.

¹¹Finally, brothers, rejoice. Be perfected, be comforted, be of the same mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. ¹²Greet one another with a holy kiss. ¹³All the saints greet you. ¹⁴The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.^e

Or am I striving to please men? For if I were still pleasing men, I would

James, the Lord's brother. ²⁰Now about the things which I write to you, behold, before God, I'm not lying. ²¹Then I came to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. ²²I was still unknown by face to the churches of Judea which were in Christ, ²³but they only heard: "He who once persecuted us now preaches the faith that he once tried to destroy." ²⁴And they glorified God because of me.

2 Then after a period of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. ¹I went up by revelation, and I explained to them the Good News which I proclaim among the Gentiles, but privately before those who were respected, for fear that I might be running, or had run, in vain. ³But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. ⁴This was because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who stole in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage; ⁵to whom we gave no place in the way of subjection, not for an hour, that the truth of the Good News might continue with you. ⁶But from those who were reputed to be important (whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God does not show partiality to man)—they, I say, who were respected imparted nothing to me, ⁷but to the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcision, even as Peter with the Good News for the circumcision ⁸(for he who appointed Peter to be an apostle of the circumcision appointed me also to the Gentiles); ⁹and when they perceived the grace that was given to me, James and Cephas and John, they who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcised. ¹⁰They only asked us to remember the poor—which very thing I was also zealous to do.

¹¹But when Cephas^a came to Antioch, I resisted him to his face, because he stood condemned. ¹²For before some people came from James, he ate with the Gentiles. But when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. ¹³And the rest of the Jewish believers joined him in his hypocrisy; so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy. ¹⁴But when I saw that they did not walk uprightly according to the truth of the Good News, I said to Cephas^b before them all, "If you, being a Jew, live as the Gentiles do, and not as the Jews do, how can you compel the Gentiles to live as the Jews do?"

knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law, because no flesh will be justified by the works of the law.¹⁷ But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a servant of sin? Certainly not!¹⁸ For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a law-breaker.¹⁹ For I, through the law, died to the law, that I might live to God.²⁰ I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I that live, but Christ living in me. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me.²¹ I do not make void the grace of God. 3 Foolish Galatians, who has cunningly deceived^a you,^b before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly set forth^c as crucified? ²I just want to learn this from you. Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? ³Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now completed in the flesh? ⁴Did you suffer so many things in vain, if it is indeed in vain? ⁵He therefore who supplies the Spirit to you, and works miracles among you, does he do it by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? ⁶Even as Abraham “believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.” ⁷Know therefore that those who are of faith, the same are children of Abraham.⁸ The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the Good News beforehand to Abraham, saying, “In you all the nations will be blessed.”^d ⁹So then, those who are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham.¹⁰ For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse. For it is written, “Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them.”^e ¹¹Now that no man is justified by the law before God is evident, for, “The righteous will live by faith.”^f ¹²The law is not of faith, but, “The man who does them will live by them.”^g promise of the Spirit through faith.¹⁵ Brothers, speaking of human terms, though it is only a man's covenant, yet when it has been confirmed, no one makes it void, or adds to it.¹⁶ Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. He does not say, "To seeds," as of many, but as of one, "To your seed,"^a which is Christ.¹⁷ Now I say this. A covenant confirmed beforehand by God^b, the law, which came four hundred thirty years after, does not annul, so as to make the promise of no effect.¹⁸ For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by promise.

¹⁹What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the seed should come to whom the promise has been made. It was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator.²⁰ Now a mediator is not between one, but God is one.²¹ Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could make alive, most certainly righteousness would have been of the law.²² But the Scriptures imprisoned all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.²³ But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, confined for the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

²⁴So that the law has become our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.²⁵ But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.²⁶ For you are all children of God, through faith in Christ Jesus.²⁷ For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.²⁸ There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.²⁹ If you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed and heirs according to promise.

4 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a bondservant, though he is lord of all;² but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed by the father.³ So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elemental principles of the world.⁴ But when the fullness of the time came, God sent out his Son, born to a woman, born under the law,⁵ that he might redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of children.⁶ And because you are children, God sent out the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba, Father!"⁷ So you are no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God^d.⁸ However at that time, not knowing God, you were in bondage to those who by nature are not gods. ⁹But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, why do you turn back again to the weak and miserable elemental principles, to which you desire to be in bondage all over again? ¹⁰You observe days, months, seasons, and years. ¹¹I am afraid for you, that I might have wasted my labor for you. ¹²I beg you, brothers, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You did me no wrong, ¹³but you know that in physical weakness I preached the Good News to you the first time; ¹⁴and though my condition was a trial to you, you did not despise nor reject; but you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

¹⁵Where was the blessing you enjoyed? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. ¹⁶So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth? ¹⁷They zealously seek you, but for no good purpose; they desire to alienate you, that you may be zealous for them. ¹⁸But it is always good to be zealous in a good cause, and not only when I am present with you.

¹⁹My^a children, of whom I am again in travail until Christ is formed in you—²⁰but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone, for I am perplexed about you. ²¹Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, do you not listen to the law? ²²For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the free woman. ²³However, the son by the handmaid was born according to the flesh, but the son by the free woman was born through promise. ²⁴These things contain an allegory, for these are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children to slavery, which is Hagar. ²⁵For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia and represents Jerusalem that exists now, for she is in slavery with her children. ²⁶But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.^b ²⁷For it is written, “Rejoice, you barren who do not bear.

Break forth and shout, you that do not travail.

For more are the children of the desolate than of her who has a husband.”^c

³⁰However what does the Scripture say? “Throw out the handmaid and her son, for the son of the handmaid will not inherit with the son of the free woman.”^a ³¹So then, brothers, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the free woman.

5 Stand firm therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage. ²Behold, I, Paul, tell you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. ³Yes, I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. ⁴You are alienated from Christ, you who desire to be justified by the law. You have fallen away from grace. ⁵For we, through the Spirit, by faith wait for the hope of righteousness. ⁶For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision amounts to anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love. ⁷You were running well! But he who troubles you will bear his judgment, whoever he is.

¹¹But I, brothers, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling block of the cross has been removed. ¹²I wish that those who disturb you would cut themselves off. ¹³For you, brothers, were called for freedom. Only do not use your freedom for gain to the flesh, but through love be servants to one another. ¹⁴For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in this: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”^b ¹⁵But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you do not consume one another. ¹⁶But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not carry out the desires of the flesh. ¹⁷For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, that you may not do the things that you desire. ¹⁸But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. ¹⁹Now the works of the flesh are obvious, which are:^c sexual immorality, uncleanness, lustfulness, ²⁰idolatry, sorcery, hatred, strife, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, divisions, heresies, ²¹envyings, murders,^d drunkenness, orgies, and things like these; of which I forewarn you, even as I also forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit the Kingdom of God.

kindness, goodness, faithfulness,²³ gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law.²⁴ Those who belong to Christ have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts.²⁵ If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit.²⁶ Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, and envying one another.

6 Brothers, even if a man is caught in some fault, you who are spiritual must restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to yourself so that you also are not tempted.² Bear one another's burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ.³ For if a man thinks himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself.⁴ But let each man test his own work, and then he will take pride in himself and not in his neighbor.⁵ For each man will bear his own burden.⁶ But let him who is taught in the word share all good things with him who teaches.⁷ Do not be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap.⁸ For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption. But he who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life.⁹ Let us not be weary in doing good, for we will reap in due season, if we do not give up.¹⁰ So then, as we have opportunity, let us do what is good toward all men, and especially toward those who are of the household of the faith.

¹¹See with what large letters I write to you with my own hand.¹²As many as desire to make a good showing in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.¹³For even they who receive circumcision do not keep the law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh.¹⁴But far be it from me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.¹⁵For neither^a is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation.¹⁶As many as walk by this rule, peace and mercy be on them, and on God's Israel.¹⁷From now on, let no one cause me any trouble, for I bear the marks of^b Jesus branded on my body.

¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

Ephesians

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God,
to the saints (in Ephesus)³ who are faithful in Christ Jesus: ²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ; ⁴even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and without blemish before him in love; ⁵having predestined us for adoption as children through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his desire, ⁶to the praise of the glory of his grace,^b which he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved One, ⁷in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, ⁸which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, ⁹making known to us the mystery of his will,
according to his good pleasure which he purposed in him ¹⁰to an administration of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth, in him; ¹¹in whom also we were assigned an inheritance, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who works all things after the counsel of his will;

¹²to the end that we should be to the praise of his glory, we who had before hoped in Christ: ¹³in whom you also, having heard the word of the truth, the Good News of your salvation,—in whom, having also believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, ¹⁴who is a pledge of our inheritance, to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of his glory. ¹⁵For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is among you, and the love which you have toward all the saints, ¹⁶do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers, ¹⁷that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him; ¹⁸having the eyes of your hearts^c enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, ¹⁹and what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to that working of the strength of his might ²⁰which he worked in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places, ²¹far above all rule, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come. ²²He put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things for the church, ²³which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

2 You were made alive when you were dead in your^a transgressions and sins, ²in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience; ³among whom we also all once lived in the lust of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest. ⁴But God, being rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us, ⁵even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ^b (by grace you have been saved), ⁶and raised us up with him, and made us to sit with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, ⁷that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus; ⁸for by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, ⁹not of works, that no one would boast. ¹⁰For we are his workmanship, created in Christ

Jesus for good works, which God prepared before that we would walk in them.

¹¹Therefore remember that once you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called “uncircumcision” by that which is called “circumcision,” (in the flesh, made by hands); ¹²that you were at that time separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world. ¹³But now in Christ Jesus you who formerly were far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ. ¹⁴For he is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of partition, ¹⁵having abolished in the flesh the hostility, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man of the two, making peace; ¹⁶and might reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, by which he put to death their enmity. ¹⁷He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace^c to those who were near. ¹⁸For through him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father. ¹⁹So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you^d are fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God, ²⁰being built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ

Jesus himself being the chief cornerstone;²¹ in whom the whole building, fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord;²² in whom you also are built together for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

3 For this cause I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles,² if it is so that you have heard of the administration of that grace of God which was given me toward you;³ how that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I wrote before in few words,⁴ by which, when you read, you can perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ;⁵ which in other generations was not made known to the children of men, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit;⁶ that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the^a promise in Christ Jesus through the Good News,⁷ of which I was made a servant, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me according to the working of his power.⁸ To me, the very least of all saints, was this grace given, to proclaim to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,⁹ and to make all men see what is the administration^b of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in

God, who created all things^c; ¹⁰to the intent that now through the church the manifold wisdom of God might be made known to the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places,¹¹ according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord;¹² in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through our faith in him.¹³ Therefore I ask that you may not lose heart at my troubles for you, which are your glory.

¹⁴For this cause, I bow my knees before the Father,^d ¹⁵from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named,¹⁶ that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that you may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man;¹⁷ that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that you, being rooted and grounded in love,¹⁸ may be strengthened to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth,¹⁹ and to know Christ's love which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.²⁰ Now to him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, ²¹to him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.

4 I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called, ²with all lowliness and humility, with patience, bearing with one another in love; ³being eager to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. ⁴There is one body, and one Spirit, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling; ⁵one Lord, one faith, one baptism, ⁶one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in^a all. ⁷But to each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. ⁸Therefore he says, “When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men.”^b ⁹Now this, “He ascended,” what is it but that he also^c descended into the lower parts of the earth? ¹⁰He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.

¹¹He gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, shepherds and teachers; ¹²for the perfecting of the saints, to the work of serving, to the building up of the body of Christ; ¹³until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a full grown man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; ¹⁴that we may no longer be children, tossed back and forth and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error; ¹⁵but speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all things into him, who is the head, Christ; ¹⁶from whom all the body, being fitted and knit together through that which every joint supplies, according to the proper working of each individual part, makes the body increase to the building up of itself in love.

¹⁷This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles also walk, in the futility of their mind, ¹⁸being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their hearts; ¹⁹who having become callous gave themselves up to lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness. ²⁰But you did not learn Christ that way; ²¹if indeed you heard him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus: ²²that you put away, as concerning your former way of life, the old man, that grows corrupt after the lusts of deceit; ²³and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind, ²⁴and put on the new man, who in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

²⁵Therefore, putting away falsehood, speak truth each one with his neighbor. For we are members of one another. ²⁶“Be angry, and do not sin.”^a Do not let the sun go down on your wrath, ²⁷neither give place to the devil. ²⁸Let him who stole steal no more; but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing that is good, that he may have something to give to him who has need. ²⁹Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for building up as the need may be, that it may give grace to those who hear. ³⁰Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. ³¹Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outcry,^b and slander, be put away from you, with all malice. ³²And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, just as God also in Christ forgave you^c.

5 Be therefore imitators of God, as beloved children. ²Walk in love, even as Christ also loved you, and gave himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling fragrance. ³But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be mentioned among you, as becomes saints; ⁴nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not appropriate; but rather giving of thanks.

⁵Know this for sure, that no sexually immoral person, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the Kingdom of Christ and God.

⁶Let no one deceive you with empty words. For because of these things, the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience. ⁷Therefore do not be partakers with them. ⁸For you were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord. Walk as children of light, ⁹for the fruit of the light^d is in all goodness and righteousness and truth, ¹⁰proving what is well pleasing to the Lord. ¹¹Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even reprove them. ¹²For the things which are done by them in secret, it is a shame even to speak of. ¹³But all things, when they are reproved, are revealed by the light, for everything that reveals is light. ¹⁴Therefore he says, “Awake, you who sleep, and rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.”

¹⁵Therefore watch carefully how you walk, not as unwise, but as wise; ¹⁶redeeming the time, because the days are evil. ¹⁷Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. ¹⁸Do not get drunk with wine, which is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, ¹⁹speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs; singing, and singing praises in your heart to the Lord; ²⁰giving thanks always concerning all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father; ²¹subjecting yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ^a.

²²Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Lord. ²³For the husband is the head of the wife, and Christ also is the head of the church, being himself the savior of the body. ²⁴But as the church is subject to Christ, so let the wives also be to their own husbands in everything.

²⁵Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself up for it; ²⁶that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word, ²⁷that he might present the church to himself gloriously, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. ²⁸Even so husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ^b also does the church; ³⁰because we are members of his body.^c ³¹"For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife. The two will become one flesh."^d ³²This mystery is great, but I speak concerning Christ and of the church. ³³Nevertheless each of you must also love his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

⁹You masters, do the same things to them, and give up threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours^a is in heaven, and there is no partiality with him.

¹⁰Finally,^b be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might. ¹¹Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. ¹²For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world's rulers of this darkness,^c and against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places. ¹³Therefore, put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand. ¹⁴Stand therefore, having the utility belt of truth buckled around your waist, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, ¹⁵and having fitted your feet with the preparation of the Good News of peace; ¹⁶above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. ¹⁷And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the spoken word of God; ¹⁸with all prayer and requests, praying at all times in the Spirit, and being watchful to this end in all perseverance and requests for all the saints: ¹⁹on my behalf, that utterance may be given to me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the Good News, ²⁰for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

Philippians

1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ
Jesus;^a

To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers and servants: ²Grace to you, and peace from God, our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. ³I thank my God whenever I remember you, ⁴always in every request of mine on behalf of you all making my requests with joy, ⁵for your partnership^b in furtherance of the Good News from the first day until now; ⁶being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of Christ Jesus. ⁷It is even right for me to think this way on behalf of all of you, because I have you in my heart, because, both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the Good News, you all are partakers with me of grace. ⁸For God is my witness, how I long after all of you in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus.

⁹This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; ¹⁰so that you may approve the things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offense to the day of Christ; ¹¹being filled with the fruit^c of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

¹²Now I desire to have you know, brothers, that the things which happened to me have turned out rather to the progress of the Good News; ¹³so that it became evident to the whole praetorian guard, and to all the rest, that my bonds are in Christ; ¹⁴and that most of the brothers in the Lord, being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word^d without fear. ¹⁵Some indeed proclaim Christ even out of envy and strife, and some also out of good will. ¹⁶The former insincerely proclaim Christ from selfish ambition, thinking that they add affliction to my chains; ¹⁷but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the Good News.

¹⁸What does it matter? Only that in every way, whether out of false motives or in truth, Christ is proclaimed. I rejoice in this, yes, and will rejoice. ¹⁹For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance, through your supplication and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,²⁰ according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will in no way be disappointed, but with all boldness, as always, now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death.²¹For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.²²But if I live on in the flesh, this will bring fruit from my work; yet I do not make known what I will choose.²³But I am in a dilemma between the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better.²⁴Yet, to remain in the flesh is more needful for your sake.²⁵Having this confidence, I know that I will remain, yes, and remain with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith,²⁶that your rejoicing may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again.

²⁷Only let your manner of life be worthy of the Good News of Christ, that, whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your state, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving for the faith of the Good News;²⁸and in nothing frightened by the adversaries, which is for them a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that from God.²⁹Because it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on his behalf,³⁰having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear is in me.

2 If there is therefore any exhortation in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender mercies and compassion,²make my joy full, by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind;³doing nothing through rivalry or through conceit, but in humility, each counting others better than himself;⁴each of you not just looking to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others.

⁵Have this in your mind, which was also in Christ Jesus,⁶who, existing in the form of God, did not consider equality with God a thing to be grasped,⁷but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men.⁸And being found in human form, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, yes, the death of the cross.⁹Therefore God also highly exalted him, and gave to him the name which is above every name;¹⁰that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, those on earth, and those under the earth,¹¹and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord^a, to the glory of God the Father.

¹²So then, my beloved, even as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. ¹³For it is God who works in you both to will and to work, for his good pleasure. ¹⁴Do all things without murmurings and disputes, ¹⁵that you may be blameless and pure, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you are seen as lights in the world, ¹⁶holding up the word of life; that I may have something to boast in the day of Christ, that I did not run in vain nor labor in vain. ¹⁷Yes, and if I am poured out on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and rejoice with you all. ¹⁸In the same way, you also rejoice, and rejoice with me.

^a 2:11 See Isaiah 45:23

¹⁹But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered up when I know how you are doing. ²⁰For I have no one else like-minded, who will truly care about you. ²¹For they all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. ²²But you know the proof of him, that, as a child serves a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the Good News. ²³Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it will go with me. ²⁴But I trust in the Lord that I myself also will come shortly. ²⁵But I counted it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, fellow soldier, and your apostle and servant of my need; ²⁶since he longed for you all, and was very troubled, because you had heard that he was sick. ²⁷For indeed he was sick, nearly to death, but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. ²⁸I have sent him all the more eagerly, therefore, so that when you see him again you may rejoice, and that I may be less anxious. ²⁹Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy, and hold such in honor, ³⁰because for the work of Christ he came near to death, risking^a his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

3 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not tiresome, but for you it is safe. ²Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision. ³For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh; ⁴though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has confidence in the flesh, I yet more: ⁵circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee; ⁶concerning zeal, persecuting the church; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless.

⁷However, what things were gain to me, these have I counted

^a2:30 M TR read “disregarding” instead of “risking” loss for Christ. ⁸More than that, I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my Lord, for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and count them nothing but refuse, that I may gain Christ ⁹and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith; ¹⁰that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed to his death; ¹¹if by any means I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. ¹²Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect; but I press on, if it is so that I may take hold of that for which also I was taken hold of by Christ Jesus.

¹³Brothers, I do not regard myself as yet having taken hold, but one thing I do. Forgetting the things which are behind, and reaching forward to the things which are ahead, ¹⁴I press on toward the goal for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, think this way. If in anything you think otherwise, God will also reveal that to you. ¹⁶Nevertheless, to what we have attained, to the same continue on^a. ¹⁷Brothers, be imitators together of me, and note those who walk this way, even as you have us for an example. ¹⁸For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, as the enemies of the cross of Christ, ¹⁹whose end is destruction, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who think about earthly things. ²⁰For our citizenship is in heaven, from where we also wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ; ²¹who will change our lowly bodies into the likeness of his glorious body, according to the working by which he is able even to subject all things to himself.

4 Therefore, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand firm in the Lord, my beloved. ²I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to think the same way in the Lord. ³Yes, I beg you also, true yokefellow, help these women, for they labored with me in the Good News, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. ⁴Rejoice in the Lord always! Again I will say, Rejoice! ⁵Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is near. ⁶Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. ⁷And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

⁸Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are

^a3:16 M TR add "with the same standard, thinking the same"

just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think about these things. ⁹The things which you learned, received, heard, and saw in me: do these things, and the God of peace will be with you. ¹⁰But I rejoice in the Lord greatly, that now at length you have revived your thought for me; in which you did indeed take thought, but you lacked opportunity. ¹¹Not that I speak in respect to lack, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content in it. ¹²I know how to be humbled, and I know also how to abound. In everything and in all things I have learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in need. ¹³I can do all things through him^a who strengthens me. ¹⁴However you did well that you shared in my affliction. ¹⁵You yourselves also know, you Philipians, that in the beginning of the Good News, when I departed from Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you only. ¹⁶For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my need. ¹⁷Not that I seek for the gift, but I seek for the fruit that increases to your account. ¹⁸But I have all things, and abound. I am filled, having praying always for you, ⁴having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have toward all the saints, ⁵because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the Good News, ⁶which has come to you; even as it is in all the world and is bearing fruit and growing, as it does in you also, since the day you heard and knew the grace of God in truth; ⁷even as you learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on your^a behalf, ⁸who also declared to us your love in the Spirit. ⁹For this cause, we also, since the day we heard this, do not cease praying and making requests for you, that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, ¹⁰that you may walk worthily of the Lord,^b to please him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; ¹¹strengthened with all power, according to the might of his glory, for all endurance and perseverance with joy; ¹²giving thanks to the Father, who made you^c fit to be partakers of the Good News which you heard, which is being proclaimed in all creation under heaven; of which I, Paul, was made a servant.

²⁴Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church; ²⁵of which I was made a servant, according to the stewardship of God which was given me toward you, to fulfill the word of God, ²⁶the mystery which has been hidden for ages and generations. But now it has been revealed to his saints, ²⁷to them God was pleased to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory; ²⁸whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus; ²⁹for which I also labor, striving according to his working, which works in me mightily.

2 For I desire to have you know how greatly I struggle for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; ²that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and gaining all riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God,^a namely, Christ,³ in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden. ⁴Now this I say that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech. ⁵For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. ⁶As therefore you received Christ Jesus, the Lord, walk in him, ⁷rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in^b thanksgiving. ⁸Be careful that you do not let anyone rob you through his philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the elements of the world, and not after Christ. ⁹For in him all the fullness of Deity dwells in bodily form, ¹⁰and in him you are made full, who is the head of all principality and power; ¹¹in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of^c the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ; ¹²having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. ¹³You were dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh. He made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, ¹⁴wiping out the handwriting in ordinances which was against us; and he has taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; ¹⁵having stripped the principalities and the powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

¹⁶Let no man therefore judge you in eating, or in drinking, or with respect to a feast day or a new moon or a Sabbath day, ¹⁷which are a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's. ¹⁸Let no one rob you of your prize by a voluntary humility and worshipping of the angels, dwelling in the things which he has^a seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, ¹⁹and not holding firmly to the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and ligaments, grows with God's growth. ²⁰If you died with Christ from the elements of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to ordinances, ²¹^c"Do not handle, nor taste, nor touch" ²²(all of which perish with use), according to the precepts and doctrines of men? ²³Which things indeed appear like wisdom in self-imposed worship, and humility, and severity to the body; but are not of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.

3 If then you were raised together with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated on the right hand of God. ²Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are on the earth. ³For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. ⁴When Christ, your^b life, is revealed, then you will also be revealed with him in glory. ⁵Put to death, therefore, whatever is worldly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. ⁶Because of these, the wrath of God is coming on the sons of disobedience.^c ⁷You also once walked in those, when you lived in them; ⁸but now you also put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and shameful speaking out of your mouth. ⁹Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old man with his doings, ¹⁰and have put on the new man, who is being renewed in knowledge after the image of his Creator, ¹¹where there cannot be Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, bondservant, freeman; but Christ is all, and in all.

¹²Put on therefore, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, lowliness, humility, and perseverance; ¹³bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as the Lord^a forgave you, so you also do.

¹⁴Above all these things, walk in love, which is the bond of perfection. ¹⁵And let the peace of Christ^b rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. ¹⁶Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your heart to God^c.

¹⁷Whatever you do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father, through him.

¹⁸Wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

¹⁹Husbands, love your wives, and do not be bitter against them.

²⁰Children, obey your parents in all things, for this pleases the Lord.

²¹Fathers, do not provoke your children, so that they won't be discouraged.

²²Servants, obey in all things those who are your masters according to the flesh, not just when they are looking, as men pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing the Lord^d. ²³And whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord, and not for men, ²⁴knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord Christ. ²⁵But he who does wrong will receive again for the wrong that he has done, and there is no partiality.

4 Masters, give to your servants that which is just and equal, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

²Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; ³praying together for us also, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds; ⁴that I may reveal it as I ought to speak. ⁵Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time. ⁶Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each one.

in the Holy Spirit, and with much assurance. You know what kind of men we showed ourselves to be among you for your sake. ⁶You became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit, ⁷so that you became an example to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. ⁸For from you the word of the Lord has been declared, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone out; so that we need not to say anything. ⁹For they themselves report concerning us what kind of a reception we had from you; and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, ¹⁰and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who delivers us from the wrath to come.

2 For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit to you was not in vain, ²but having suffered before and been shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi, we grew bold in our God to tell you the Good News of God in much conflict. ³For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in deception. ⁴But even as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, who tests our hearts. ⁵For neither were we at any time found using words of flattery, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness (God is witness), ⁶nor seeking glory from men (neither from you nor from others), when we might have claimed authority as apostles of Christ. ⁷But we were like children^a among you, like a nursing mother cherishes her own children.

⁸Even so, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you, not the Good News of God only, but also our own souls, because you had become very dear to us. ⁹For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail; for working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached to you the Good News of God. ¹⁰You are witnesses with God, how holy, righteously, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves toward you who believe. ¹¹As you know, as a father with his own children, ¹²we exhorted, comforted, and implored every one of you to lead a life worthy of God, who calls you into his own Kingdom and glory. ¹³For this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that, when you received from us the word of the message of God, you accepted it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also works in you who believe. ¹⁴For you, brothers, became imitators of the churches of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they did from the Jews; ¹⁵who killed both the Lord Jesus and the^a prophets, and drove us out, and did not please God, and are contrary to all men; ¹⁶forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved; to fill up their sins always. But wrath has come on them to the uttermost.

¹⁷But we, brothers, being bereaved of you for a short season, in presence, not in heart, tried even harder to see your face with great desire, ¹⁸because we wanted to come to you—indeed, I, Paul, once and again—but Satan hindered us. ¹⁹For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is not it even you, before our Lord Jesus^b at his coming? ²⁰For you are our glory and our joy.

3 Therefore, when we could not stand it any longer, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone, ²and sent Timothy, our brother and God's fellow worker^c in the Good News of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; ³that no one be moved by these afflictions. For you know that we are appointed to this task. ⁴For truly, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we are to suffer affliction, even as it happened, and you know. ⁵For this cause I also, when

I could not stand it any longer, sent that I might know your faith, for fear that by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor would have been in vain. ⁶But when Timothy came just now to us from you, and brought us glad news of your faith and love, and that you have good memories of us always, longing to see us, even as we also long to see you; ⁷for this cause, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith. ⁸For now we live, since you stand firm^d in the Lord. ⁹For what thanksgiving can we render again to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God; ¹⁰night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith? ¹¹Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus,^e direct our way to you; ¹²and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you, ¹³to the end he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

4 Finally then, brothers, we beg and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to live and to please God, even as you are living^a, that you excel more and more. ²For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. ³For this is the will of God: your sanctification, that you abstain from sexual immorality, ⁴that each one of you know how to possess himself of his own vessel in sanctification and honor, ⁵not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles who do not know God; ⁶that no one should take advantage of and wrong a brother or sister in this matter; because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we forewarned you and testified. ⁷For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification. ⁸Therefore he who rejects this does not reject man, but God, who has also given his Holy Spirit to you.

⁹But concerning brotherly love, you have no need that one write to you. For you yourselves are taught by God to love one another, ¹⁰for indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brothers, that you abound more and more; ¹¹and that you make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, even as we instructed you; ¹²that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and may have need of nothing.

¹³But we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you do not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. ¹⁴For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus. ¹⁵For this we tell you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left to the coming of the Lord, will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁶For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with God's trumpet. The dead in Christ will rise first, ¹⁷then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. So we will be with the Lord forever. ¹⁸Therefore comfort one another with these words.

5 But concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that anything be written to you. ²For you yourselves know well that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the night. ³For when they are saying, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction will come on them, like birth pains on a pregnant woman; and they will in no way escape. ⁴But you, brothers, are not in darkness, that the day should overtake you like a thief. ⁵You are all children of light, and children of the day. We do not belong to the night, nor to darkness, ⁶so then let us not sleep, as the rest do, but let us watch and be sober. ⁷For

^a4:1 NU Vg. M TR omit "even as you are living"

those who sleep, sleep in the night, and those who are drunk are drunk in the night. ⁸But let us, since we belong to the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and, for a helmet, the hope of salvation. ⁹For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁰who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. ¹¹Therefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as you also do. ¹²But we beg you, brothers, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you, ¹³and to respect and honor them in love for their work's sake.

Be at peace among yourselves. ¹⁴We exhort you, brothers, admonish the disorderly, encourage the fainthearted, support the weak, be patient toward all. ¹⁵See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but always follow after that which is good, for one another, and for all.

¹⁶Rejoice always. ¹⁷Pray without ceasing. ¹⁸In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus toward you. ¹⁹Do not quench the Spirit. ²⁰Do not treat prophecies with contempt, ²¹but test all things; hold firmly that which is good. ²²Abstain from every form of evil.

²³May the God of peace himself sanctify you completely. May your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

²⁴He who calls you is faithful, who will also do it. ²⁵Brothers, pray for us also. ²⁶Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. ²⁷I solemnly command you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the ^b brothers.

ourselves boast about you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which you endure. ⁵This is an obvious sign of the righteous judgment of God, to the end that you may be counted worthy of the Kingdom of God, for which you also suffer. ⁶Since it is a righteous thing with God to repay affliction to those who afflict you, ⁷and to give relief to you who are afflicted with us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, ⁸giving vengeance to those who do not know God, and to those who do not obey the Good News of our Lord Jesus, ⁹who will pay the penalty: eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might, ¹⁰when he comes to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired among all those who have believed (because our testimony to you was believed) in that day.

For it will not be, unless the departure comes first, and the man of lawlessness^c is revealed, the son of destruction, ⁴he who opposes and exalts himself against all that is called God or that is worshiped; so that he sits^d in the temple of God, setting himself up as God. ⁵Do you not remember that, when I was still with you, I told you these things? ⁶Now you know what is restraining him, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season. ⁷For the mystery of lawlessness already works. Only there is one who restrains now, until he is taken out of the way. ⁸Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will kill with the breath of his mouth, and destroy by the manifestation of his coming; ⁹even he whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, ¹⁰and with all deception of wickedness for those who are being lost, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. ¹¹Because of this, God sends them a working of error, that they should believe a lie; ¹²that they all might be judged who did not believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. ¹³But we are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers loved by the Lord, because God chose you as first fruits^a for salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth; ¹⁴to which he called you through our Good News, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵So then, brothers, stand firm, and hold the traditions which you were taught by us, whether by word, or by letter.

¹⁶Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, ¹⁷comfort your hearts and establish you in every good work and word.

3 Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified, even as also with you; ²and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for not all have faith. ³But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you, and guard you from the evil one. ⁴We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you both do and will do the things we command. ⁵May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.

⁶Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks in rebellion, and not after the tradition which they received from us. ⁷For you know how you ought to imitate us. For we did not behave ourselves rebelliously among you, ⁸neither did we eat bread from anyone's hand without paying for it, but in labor and travail worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you; ⁹not because we do not have the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, that you should imitate us. ¹⁰For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: "If anyone will not work, neither let him eat." ¹¹For we hear of some who walk among you in rebellion, who do not work at all, but are busybodies. ¹²Now those who are that way, we command and exhort in the^b Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

¹³But you, brothers, do not be weary in doing well. ¹⁴If any man does not obey our word in this letter, note that man, that you have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed. ¹⁵Do not count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

¹⁶Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all.

¹⁷The greeting of me, Paul, with my own hand, which is the sign in every letter: this is how I write. ¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.^a

1 Timothy

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God our Savior, and Christ Jesus our hope; ²to Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the^b Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³As I urged you when I was going into Macedonia, stay at Ephesus that you might command certain men not to teach a different doctrine, ⁴neither to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which cause speculation,^c rather than God's stewardship, which is in faith—⁵but the goal of this command is love, out of a pure heart and a good conscience and unfeigned faith; ⁶from which things some, having missed the mark, have turned aside to vain talking; ⁷desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor about what they strongly affirm. ⁸But we know that the law is good, if a man uses it lawfully, ⁹as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who kill their father or mother, for murderers, ¹⁰for the sexually immoral, for men who have sexual relations with men,^d for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers, and for any other thing contrary to the sound doctrine; ¹¹according to the Good News of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. ¹²And I thank him who enabled me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he counted me faithful, appointing me to service; ¹³although I was before a blasphemer, a persecutor, and insolent. However, I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. ¹⁴The grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵The saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. ¹⁶However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Jesus Christ might display all his patience, for an example of those who were going to believe in him for eternal life. ¹⁷Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God^a, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

¹⁸This instruction I commit to you, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies which led the way to you, that by them you may wage the good warfare; ¹⁹holding faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust away made a shipwreck concerning the faith; ²⁰of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I delivered to Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

2 I exhort therefore, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings, be made for all men: ²for kings and all who are in high places; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and reverence. ³For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior; ⁴who desires all people to be saved and come to full knowledge of the truth. ⁵For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, ⁶who gave himself as a ransom for all; the testimony in its own times; ⁷to which I was appointed a proclaimer and an apostle (I am telling the truth^b, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

⁸I desire therefore that the men in every place pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and doubting. ⁹In the same way, that women also adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and propriety; not just with braided hair, gold, pearls, or expensive clothing; ¹⁰but (which becomes women professing godliness) with good works. ¹¹Let a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. ¹²But I do not permit a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over a man, but to be in quietness. ¹³For Adam was first formed, then Eve^c. ¹⁴Adam was not deceived, but the woman, being deceived, has fallen into disobedience; ¹⁵but she will be delivered^d through^e childbearing, if they continue in faith and love and holiness, with good judgment.

3 This is a faithful saying: if a man seeks the office of an overseer, he desires a good work. ²The overseer therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, sensible, modest, hospitable, good at teaching; ³not a drunkard, not violent,^f but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money; ⁴one who rules his own house well, having children in subjection with all reverence; ⁵(but if a man does not know how to rule his own house, how will he take care of the church of God?) ⁶not a new convert, lest being puffed up he fall into the same condemnation as the devil. ⁷Moreover he must have good testimony from those who are outside, to avoid falling into reproach and the snare of the devil.

⁸Servants, in the same way, must be reverent, not double-tongued, not devoted to a lot of wine, not greedy for money; ⁹holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. ¹⁰Let them also first be tested; then let them serve if they are blameless. ¹¹Their wives in the same way must be reverent, not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things. ¹²Let servants be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. ¹³For those who have served well gain for themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

¹⁴These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly; ¹⁵but if I wait long, that you may know how men ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. ¹⁶Without controversy, the mystery of godliness is great:

He^a was revealed in the flesh, justified by the Spirit,
seen by angels,
preached among the nations,
believed on in the world,
and received up in glory.

4 But the Spirit says expressly that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, ²through the hypocrisy of men who speak lies, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; ³forbidding marriage and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. ⁴For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it is received with thanksgiving. ⁵For it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer. ⁶If you instruct the brothers of these things, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which you have followed. ⁷But refuse profane and old wives' tales. Exercise yourself toward godliness. ⁸For bodily exercise has some value, but godliness has value in all things, having the promise of the life which is now, and of that which is to come. ⁹This saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance. ¹⁰For to this end we both labor and strive^a, because we have set our trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. ¹¹Command and teach these things.

¹²Let no man despise your youth; but be an example to those who believe, in word, in your way of life, in love,^b in faith, and in purity. ¹³Until I come, pay attention to reading, to exhortation, and to teaching. ¹⁴Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the elders. ¹⁵Be diligent in these things. Give yourself wholly to them, that your progress may be revealed to all. ¹⁶Pay attention to yourself, and to your teaching. Continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

5 Do not rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brothers; ²the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. ³Honor widows who are widows indeed. ⁴But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety towards their own family, and to repay their parents, for this is^c acceptable in the sight of God. ⁵Now she who is a widow indeed, and desolate, has her hope set on God, and continues in petitions and prayers night and day. ⁶But she who gives herself to pleasure is dead while she lives. ⁷Also command these things, that they may be without reproach. ⁸But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. ⁹Let no one be enrolled as a widow under sixty years old, having been the wife of one man, ¹⁰being approved by good works, if she has brought up children, if she has been hospitable to strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, and if she has diligently followed every good work.

¹¹But refuse younger widows, for whenever their passions lead them away from Christ, they desire to marry; ¹²having condemnation, because they have rejected their first pledge. ¹³Besides, they also learn to be idle, going about from house to house. Not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not. ¹⁴I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, and give no occasion to the adversary for reviling. ¹⁵For already some have turned aside after Satan. ¹⁶If any^d woman who believes has widows, let her assist them, and do not let the church be burdened; that it might help those widows who are truly in need.

¹⁷Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in teaching. ¹⁸For the Scripture says, “You shall not muzzle the ox when it treads out the grain.”^a And, “The laborer is worthy of his wages.”^b

¹⁹Do not receive an accusation against an elder, except at the word of two or three witnesses. ²⁰Those who sin, reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear. ²¹I command you in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the chosen angels, that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. ²²Lay hands hastily on no one, neither be a participant in other men’s sins. Keep yourself pure. ²³Be no longer a drinker of water only, but use a little wine for your stomach’s sake and your frequent infirmities.

²⁴Some men’s sins are evident, preceding them to judgment, and some also follow later. ²⁵In the same way also there are good works that are obvious, and those that are otherwise cannot be hidden.

6 Let as many as are bondservants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the doctrine not be blasphemed. ²Those who have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brothers, but rather let them serve them, because those who partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.

³If anyone teaches a different doctrine, and does not consent to sound words, the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, ⁴he is conceited, knowing nothing, but obsessed with arguments, disputes, and word battles, from which come envy, strife, reviling, evil suspicions, ⁵constant friction of people of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain.^c

⁶But godliness with contentment is great gain. ⁷For we brought nothing into the world, so neither can we^d carry anything out. ⁸But having food and clothing, we will be content with that. ⁹But those who are determined to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful lusts, such as drown men in ruin and destruction. ¹⁰For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. from the faith in their greed, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

¹¹But you, man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. ¹²Fight the good fight of faith. Lay hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and you confessed the good confession in the sight of many witnesses. ¹³I command you before God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate testified the good confession,^a ¹⁴that you keep the commandment without spot, blameless, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ; ¹⁵which in its own times he will show, who is the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; ¹⁶who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light; whom no man has seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and eternal power. Amen.

¹⁷Charge those who are rich in this present world that they not be haughty, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on ^bGod, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy; ¹⁸that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to communicate; ¹⁹laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold of that which is truly life^c.

²⁰Timothy, guard that which is committed to you, turning away from the empty chatter and oppositions of the knowledge which is falsely so called; ²¹which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with you.^d

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus^e through the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in Christ Jesus, ²to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³I thank God, whom I serve as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience. your mother Eunice^a, and, I am persuaded, in you also.

⁶For this cause, I remind you that you should stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. ⁷For God did not give us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and self-control. ⁸Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but endure hardship for the Good News according to the power of God, ⁹who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before times eternal, ¹⁰but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News. ¹¹For this, I was appointed as a proclaimer, an apostle, and a teacher^b. ¹²For this cause I also suffer these things.

Yet I am not ashamed, for I know him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard that which I have committed to him against that day.

¹³Hold the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴That good thing which was committed to you, guard through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

¹⁵This you know, that all who are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. ¹⁶May the Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain, ¹⁷but when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and found me ¹⁸(the Lord grant to him to find the Lord's mercy in that day); and in how many things he served at Ephesus, you know very well.

2 You therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. ²The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also. ³You therefore must share in hardship, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. ⁴No soldier on duty entangles himself in the affairs of life, that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. ⁵Also, if anyone competes in athletics, he is not crowned unless he has competed by the rules. ⁶The farmers who labor must be the first to get a share of the crops. ⁷Consider what I say, for the Lord will give^c you understanding in all things.

⁸Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, of the seed of David, according to my Good News, ⁹in which I suffer hardship to the point of chains as a criminal. But God's word is not chained. ¹⁰Therefore I endure all things for the chosen ones' sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. ¹¹This saying is faithful:

“For if we died with him,
we will also live with him.
¹²If we endure,
we will also reign with him.
If we deny him,
he also will deny us.
¹³If we are faithless,
he remains faithful,
for he cannot deny himself.”

¹⁴Remind them of these things, charging them in the presence of God,^a that they do not argue about words, to no profit, to the subverting of those who hear.

¹⁵Do your best to present yourself approved by God, a workman who does not need to be ashamed, properly handling the Word of Truth. ¹⁶But shun empty chatter, for they will proceed further in ungodliness, ¹⁷and their word will consume like gangrene, of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; ¹⁸men who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is already past, and overthrowing the faith of some. ¹⁹However God's firm foundation stands, having this seal, “The Lord knows those who are his,”^b and, “Let every one who names the name of the Lord^c depart from unrighteousness.” ²⁰Now in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay. Some are for honor, and some for dishonor. ²¹If anyone therefore purges himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, and suitable for the master's use, prepared for every good work.

²²Flee from youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. ²³But refuse foolish and ignorant questionings, knowing that they generate strife. ²⁴The Lord's servant must not quarrel, but be gentle towards all, able to teach, patient, ²⁵in gentleness correcting those who oppose him: perhaps God may give them repentance leading to a full knowledge of the truth, ²⁶and they may recover themselves out of the devil's snare, having been taken captive by him to his will.

3 But know this, that in the last days, grievous times will come. ²For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, ³unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, hateful of good, ⁴traitors, headstrong, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; ⁵holding a form of godliness, but having denied the power thereof. Turn away from these, also. ⁶For of these are those who creep into houses, and take captive gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts, ⁷always learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁸Even as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so do these also oppose the truth; men corrupted in mind, reprobate concerning the faith. ⁹But they will proceed no further. For their folly will be evident to all men, as theirs also came to be. ¹⁰But you did follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, steadfastness, ¹¹persecutions, and sufferings: those things that happened to me at Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. I endured those persecutions. Out of them all the Lord delivered me. ¹²Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. ¹³But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. ¹⁴But you remain in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them. ¹⁵From infancy, you have known the holy Scriptures which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith, which is in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶Every Scripture is God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness, ¹⁷that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

4 I command you therefore before God and of Christ Jesus,^a who will judge the living and the dead, and by^b his appearing and his Kingdom: ²proclaim the word; be urgent in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with all patience and teaching. ³For the time will come when they will not listen to the sound doctrine, but, having itching ears, will heap up for themselves teachers after their own lusts; ⁴and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside to myths. ⁵But you be sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, and fulfill your ministry.

⁶For I am already being offered, and the time of my departure has come. ⁷I have fought the good fight. I have finished the course. I have kept the faith. ⁸From now on, there is stored up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous

Take Mark, and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for service. ¹²But I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. ¹³Bring the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus when you come, and the books, especially the parchments. ¹⁴Alexander, the coppersmith, did much evil to me. The Lord will^a repay him according to his works, ¹⁵of whom you also must beware; for he greatly opposed our words.

¹⁶At my first defense, no one came to help me, but all left me. May it not be held against them. ¹⁷But the Lord stood by me, and strengthened me, that through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear; and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. ¹⁸And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me for his heavenly Kingdom; to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

unruly behavior. ⁷For the overseer must be blameless, as God's steward; not self-pleasing, not easily angered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain; ⁸but given to hospitality, as a lover of good, sober minded, fair, holy, self-controlled; ⁹holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict those who contradict him. ¹⁰For there are also many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, ¹¹whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for dishonest gain's sake. ¹²One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, and idle gluttons." ¹³This testimony is true. For this cause, reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, ¹⁴not paying attention to Jewish myths and commandments of men who turn away from the truth. ¹⁵To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. ¹⁶They profess that they know God, but by their works they deny him, being abominable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.

2 But say the things which fit sound doctrine, ²that older men should be temperate, sensible, sober minded, sound in faith, in love, and in patience: ³and that older women likewise be reverent in behavior, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; ⁴that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, ⁵to be sober minded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that God's word may not be blasphemed. ⁶Likewise, exhort the younger men to be sober minded; ⁷in all things showing yourself an example of good works. In your teaching show integrity, seriousness, ^aand a sound message that cannot be condemned; that he who opposes you may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us^b. ⁹Exhort servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing in all things; not contradicting; ¹⁰not stealing, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God, our Savior, in all things. ¹¹For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all mankind, ¹²instructing us to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly desires, and to live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present age; ¹³looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ; ¹⁴who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify for himself a people for his own possession, zealous for good works. ¹⁵Say these things and 3 Remind them to be in subjection to rulers and to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, ²to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing all humility toward all men. ³For we were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. ⁴But when the kindness of God our Savior and his love toward mankind appeared, ⁵not by works of righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy, he saved us, through the washing of rebirth and renewing by the Holy Spirit, ⁶whom he poured out on us richly, through Jesus Christ our Savior; ⁷that, being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. ⁸This saying is faithful, and concerning these things I desire that you affirm confidently, so that those who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men; ⁹but shun foolish questionings, genealogies, strife, and disputes about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. ¹⁰Avoid a factious man after a first and second warning; ¹¹knowing that such a one is perverted, and sins, being self-condemned.

knowledge of every good thing which is in us in Christ^a. ⁷For I have much joy^b and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

⁸Therefore, though I have all boldness in Christ to command you that which is appropriate, ⁹yet for love's sake I rather beg, being such a one as Paul, the aged, but also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. ¹⁰I beg you for my child, whom I have become the father of in my chains, Onesimus,^c ¹¹who once was useless to you, but now is useful to you and to me. ¹²I am sending back to you^d, him who is my very heart, ¹³whom I desired to keep with me, that on your behalf he might serve me in my chains for the Good News. ¹⁴But I was willing to do nothing without your consent, that your goodness would not be as of necessity, but of free will. ¹⁵For perhaps he was therefore separated from you for a while, that you would have him forever, ¹⁶no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much rather to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

¹⁷If then you count me a partner, receive him as you would receive me. ¹⁸But if he has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, put that to my account. ¹⁹I, Paul, write this with my own hand: I will repay it (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self besides). ²⁰Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Christ^e. ²¹Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say.

²²Also, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.

²³Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you, ²⁴as do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers. ²⁵The grace of the^f Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.^g away. ²For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense; ³how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation—which at the first having been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard; ⁴God also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders, by various works of power, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will? ⁵For he did not subject the world to come, of which we speak, to angels. ⁶But one has somewhere testified, saying,

“What is man, that you think of him?

Or the son of man, that you care for him?

⁷You made him a little lower than the angels.

You crowned him with glory and honor.^a ⁸You have put all things in subjection under his feet.”

For in that he subjected all things to him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we do not see all things subjected to him, yet. ⁹But we see him who has been made a little lower than the angels, Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of God he should taste of death for everyone. ¹⁰For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many children to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings. ¹¹For both he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one, for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brothers, ¹²saying,

“I will declare your name to my brothers.

In the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise.”^b

¹³Again, “I will put my trust in him.”^c Again, “Behold, here I am with the children whom God has given me.”^d ¹⁴Since then the children have shared in flesh and blood, he also himself in like manner partook of the same, that through death he might bring to nothing him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, ¹⁵and might deliver all of them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. ¹⁶For, truly, he did not come to help the angels, but to help the seed of Abraham. ¹⁷Therefore he was obligated in all things to be made like his brothers, that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make atonement^e for the sins of the people. ¹⁸For in that he

¹⁰Therefore I was displeased with this^e generation, and said, “They always err in their heart, but they did not know my ways;”

¹¹as I swore in my wrath, “They will not enter into my rest.”^f

¹²Beware, brothers, lest perhaps there be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God; ¹³but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called “today;” lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. ¹⁴For we have become partakers of Christ, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm to the end: ¹⁵while it is said,

“Today if you will hear his voice, do not harden your hearts, as in the rebellion.”^g

¹⁶For who, when they heard, rebelled? No, did not all those who came out of Egypt by Moses? ¹⁷With whom was he displeased forty years? Was not it with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? ¹⁸To whom did he swear that they would not enter into his rest, but to those who were disobedient? ¹⁹We see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

4 Let us fear therefore, lest perhaps anyone of you should seem to have come short of a promise of entering into his rest. ²For indeed we have had good news preached to us, even as they also did, but the word they heard did not profit them, because they^a were not united by faith with those who heard. ³For we who have believed do enter into that rest, even as he has said, “As I swore in my wrath, they will not enter into my rest;”^b although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. ⁴For he has said this somewhere about the seventh day, “God rested on the seventh day from all his works;”^c ⁵and in this place again, “They will not enter into my rest.”^d

⁶Seeing therefore it remains that some should enter therein, and they to whom the good news was before preached failed to enter in because of disobedience, ⁷he again defines a certain day, “Today,” saying through David so long a time afterward (just as has been said), “Today if you will hear his voice, do not harden your hearts.”^e

⁸For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of another day. ⁹There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God. ¹⁰For he who has entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, as God did from his. ¹¹Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience. ¹²For the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and is able to discern the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

¹³There is no creature that is hidden from his sight, but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do. ¹⁴Having then a great high priest, who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold tightly to our confession. ¹⁵For we do not have a high priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but one who has been in all points tempted^f like we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶Let us therefore draw near with boldness to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace for help in time of need.

5 For every high priest, being taken from

^f4:15 M reads “tried” instead of “tempted”

among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. ²The high priest can deal gently with those who are ignorant and going astray, because he himself is also surrounded with weakness. ³Because of this, he must offer sacrifices for sins for the people, as well as for himself. ⁴Nobody takes this honor on himself, but he is called by God, just like Aaron was. ⁵So also Christ did not glorify himself to be made a high priest, but it was he who said to him,

“You are my Son.

Today I have become your father.”^a

⁶As he says also in another place,

“You are a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek.”^b

⁷In the days of his flesh, he offered up prayers and petitions with loud cries and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. ⁸Although he was a Son, he learned obedience by the things which he suffered. ⁹Having been made perfect, he became to all of those who obey him the author of eternal salvation, ¹⁰named by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. ¹¹About him we have many words to say, and hard to interpret, seeing you have become dull of hearing. ¹²For when by reason of the time you ought to be teachers, you again need to have someone teach you the rudiments of the first principles of the oracles of God. You have come to need milk, and not solid food. ¹³For everyone who lives on milk is not experienced in the word of righteousness, for he is a baby. ¹⁴But solid food is for those who are full grown, who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

6 Therefore leaving the doctrine of the first principles of Christ, let us press on to perfection—not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith toward God, ²of the teaching of washings, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. ³And this we will do if God permits. ⁴For concerning those who were once enlightened and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, ⁵and tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the age to come, ⁶and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify the Son of God for themselves again, and put him to open shame. ⁷For the land which has drunk the rain that comes often on it, and brings forth a crop suitable for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receives blessing from God; ⁸but if it bears thorns and thistles, it is rejected and near being cursed, whose end is to be burned.

^a5:5 Psalm 2:7

⁹But, beloved, we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, even though we speak like this. ¹⁰For God is not unrighteous, so as to forget your work and the^a love which you showed toward his name, in that you served the saints, and still do serve them. ¹¹We desire that each one of you may show the same diligence to the fullness of hope even to the end, ¹²that you won't be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherited the promises. ¹³For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he could swear by none greater, he swore by himself, ¹⁴saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you."^b ¹⁵Thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. ¹⁶For men^c swear by a greater one, and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation. ¹⁷In this way God, being determined to show more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the immutability of his counsel, interposed with an oath; ¹⁸that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to take hold of the hope set before us. ¹⁹This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is within the veil; ²⁰where as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

7 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, ²to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, king of righteousness, and then also king of Salem, which is king of peace; ³without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God), remains a priest continually. ⁴Now consider how great this man was, to whom even Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the best spoils. ⁵They indeed of the sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the Law, that is, of their brothers, though these have come out of the body of Abraham, ⁶but he whose genealogy is not counted from them has accepted tithes from Abraham, and has blessed him who has the promises. ⁷But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater. ⁸Here people who die receive tithes, but there one receives tithes of whom it is testified that he lives. ⁹We can say that through Abraham even Levi, who receives tithes, has paid tithes, ¹⁰for he was yet in the body of his father when Melchizedek met him. ¹¹Now if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people have received the law), what further need was there for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron? ¹²For the priesthood being changed, there is of necessity a change made also in the law. ¹³For he of whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. ¹⁴For it is evident that our Lord has sprung out of Judah, about which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priests^a. ¹⁵This is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there arises another priest, ¹⁶who has been made, not after the law of a fleshly commandment, but after the power of an endless life: ¹⁷for it is testified^b,

according to the order of Melchizedek.”^c

¹⁸For there is an annulling of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and uselessness ¹⁹(for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God. ²⁰Inasmuch as he was not made priest without the taking of an oath ²¹(for they indeed have been made priests without an oath), but he with an oath by him that says of him,

“The Lord swore and will not change his mind,
‘You are a priest forever’^d.”^e

²²By so much, Jesus has become the guarantor of a better covenant. ²³Many, indeed, have been made priests, because they are hindered from continuing by death. ²⁴But he, because he lives forever, has his priesthood unchangeable. ²⁵Therefore he is also able to save completely those who draw near to God through him, seeing that he lives forever to make intercession for them.

²⁶For such a high priest was fitting for us: holy, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; ²⁷who does not need, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices daily, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people. For he did this once for all, when he offered up himself. ²⁸For the Law appoints men as high priests who have weakness, but the word of the oath which came after the Law appoints a Son forever who has been perfected.

8 Now in the things which we are saying, the main point is this. We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, ^{2a} a servant of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord set up, and not man. ³For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer. ⁴Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are priests who offer the gifts according to the Law; ⁵who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses was warned by God when he was about to make the tabernacle, for he said, “See, you shall make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain.”^a ⁶But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, by so much as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which on better promises has been given as Law. ⁷For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second. ⁸For finding fault with them, he said, “Behold, the days come,” says the Lord, “when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah; ⁹not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; for they did not continue in my covenant, and I disregarded them,” says the Lord.

^a8:5 Exodus 25:40

¹⁰“For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel.
 After those days,” says the Lord;
 “I will put my laws into their mind,
 I will also write them on their heart.
 I will be their God,

 from the least of them to the greatest of them.
¹²For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness.

 no more.”^d

¹³In that he says, “A New Covenant,” he has made the first old. But that which is becoming old and grows aged is near to vanishing away.

9 Now indeed even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service, and an earthly sanctuary. ²For a tabernacle was prepared. In the first part were the lampstand, the table, and the show bread; which is called the Holy Place. ³After the second veil was the tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies, ⁴having a golden altar of incense, and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which was a golden pot holding the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant; ⁵and above it cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat, of which things we cannot speak now in detail. ⁶Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services, ⁷but into the second the high priest alone, once in the year, not without blood, which he offers for himself, and for the errors of the people. ⁸The Holy Spirit is indicating this, that the way into the Holy Place was not yet revealed while the first tabernacle was still standing; ⁹which is a symbol of the present age, where gifts and sacrifices are offered that are incapable, concerning the conscience, of making the worshipper perfect, ¹⁰but deal only with foods and drinks and various washings; they are regulations for the flesh imposed until the time of setting things right.

¹¹But Christ having come as a high priest of the good things that have come,^a through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, ¹²nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the Holy Place, having obtained eternal redemption. ¹³For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify to the cleanness of the flesh: ¹⁴how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, cleanse our^b conscience from dead works to serve the living God? ¹⁵For this reason he is the mediator of a New Covenant, since a death has occurred for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, that those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. ¹⁶For where a last will and testament is, there must of necessity be the death of him who made it. ¹⁷For a will is in force where there has been death, for it is never in force while he who made it lives. ¹⁸Therefore even the first covenant has not been dedicated without blood. ¹⁹For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the Law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats,^c with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, ²⁰saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you.”^a ²¹Moreover he sprinkled the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry in like manner with the blood. ²²According to the Law, nearly everything is cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission. ²³It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. ²⁴For Christ hasn’t entered into holy places made with hands, which are representations of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; ²⁵nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy place year by year with blood not his own, ²⁶or else he must have suffered often since the foundation of the world. But now once at the end of the ages, he has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. ²⁷Inasmuch as it is appointed for men to die once, and after this, judgment, ²⁸so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, without sin, to those who are eagerly waiting for him for salvation.

10 For the Law, having a shadow of the good to come, not the very image of the things, ^bcan never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect those who draw near. ²Or else would not they have ceased to be offered, because the worshippers, having been once cleansed^c, would have had no more consciousness of sins? ³But in those sacrifices there is yearly reminder of sins. ⁴For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins. ⁵Therefore when he comes into the world, he says, “Sacrifice and offering you did not desire,

but you prepared a body for me;

⁶You had no pleasure in whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin.

⁷Then I said, ‘Behold, I have come (in the scroll of the book it is written of me) to do your will, O God.’”^d

⁸Previously saying, “Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you did not desire, neither had pleasure in them” (those which are offered according to the Law), ⁹then he has said, “Behold, I have come to do your will.” He takes away the first, that he may establish the second, ¹⁰by which will we have been sanctified^a through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. ¹¹Every priest indeed stands day by day serving and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins, ¹²but this one^b, when he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God; ¹³from that time waiting until his enemies are made the footstool of his feet. ¹⁴For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are being sanctified. ¹⁵The Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,

¹⁶“This is the covenant that I will make with them:

‘After those days,’ says the Lord,

‘I will put my laws on their heart, I will also write them on their mind;’^c then he says,

¹⁷“I will remember their sins and their iniquities no more.”^d

¹⁸Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. ¹⁹Having therefore, brothers, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; ²¹and having a great priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near with a true heart in fullness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and having our body washed with pure water, ²³let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering; for he who promised is faithful.

²⁴Let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good works, ²⁵not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as you see the Day approaching. ²⁶For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more a sacrifice for sins, ²⁷but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which will devour the adversaries. ²⁸A man who disregards the Law of Moses dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses. ²⁹How much worse punishment, do you think, will he be judged worthy of, who has trodden under foot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant with which he was sanctified an unholy thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? ³⁰For we know him who said, “Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay.”^e ³¹Again, “The Lord will judge his people.”^g ³¹It is a fearful thing to

but of those who have faith to the saving of the soul.

11 Now faith is assurance of things hoped for, proof of things not seen. ²For by this, the elders obtained testimony. ³By faith, we understand that the universe has been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen has not been made out of things which are visible. ⁴By faith, Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had testimony given to him that he was righteous, God testifying with respect to his gifts; and through it he, being dead, still speaks. ⁵By faith, Enoch was taken away, so that he would not see death, and he was not found, because God took him away. For he has had testimony given to him that before his translation he had been well pleasing to God. ⁶Without faith it is impossible to be well pleasing to him, for he who comes to God must believe that he exists, and that he is a rewarder of those who seek him. ⁷By faith, Noah, being warned about things not yet seen, in reverence prepared a ship for the saving of his house, through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith. ⁸By faith, Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out to a^f place which he was to receive for an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he went. ⁹By faith, he lived as a foreigner in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰For he looked for the city which has the foundations, whose builder and maker is God. ¹¹By faith he received power to procreate when he was past age, and Sarah herself was barren. He regarded him faithful who had promised.^a ¹²Therefore as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as innumerable as the sand which is by the sea shore, were fathered by one man, and him as good as dead. ¹³These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen^b them and embraced them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. ¹⁴For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own. ¹⁵If indeed they had been thinking of that country from which they went out, they would have had enough time to return. ¹⁶But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

^f11:8 M TR read “the” instead of “a”

^a11:11 Or, "By faith even Sarah herself, when she was barren, received power to conceive when she was past age, since she regarded him faithful who had promised."

^b11:13 TR adds "and being convinced of"

¹⁷By faith, Abraham, being tested, offered up Isaac. Yes, he who had gladly received the promises was offering up his one and only son; ¹⁸even he to whom it was said, "In Isaac will your seed be called;"^c ¹⁹concluding that God is able to raise up even from the dead. Figuratively speaking, he also did receive him back from the dead. ²⁰By faith, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. ²¹By faith, Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff. ²²By faith, Joseph, when his end was near, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave instructions concerning his bones. ²³By faith, Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that he was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. ²⁴By faith, Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, ²⁵choosing rather to share ill treatment with God's people, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time; ²⁶accounting the reproach of Christ^d greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he looked to the reward. ²⁷By faith, he left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. ²⁸By faith, he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. ²⁹By faith, they passed through the Red Sea as on dry land. When the Egyptians tried to do so, they were swallowed up. ³⁰By faith, the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been encircled for seven days. ³¹By faith, Rahab the prostitute, did not perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace. ³²What more shall I say? For the time would fail me if I told of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets; ³³who, through faith subdued kingdoms, worked out righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,^a ³⁴quenched the power of fire,^b escaped the edge of the sword,^c from weakness were made strong, grew mighty in war, and caused foreign armies to flee. ³⁵Women received their dead by resurrection.^d Others were tortured, not accepting their deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. ³⁶Others were tried by mocking and scourging, yes, moreover by bonds and imprisonment. ³⁷They were stoned.^e They were sawed apart.^f They were killed with the sword.^g They went around in sheep skins and in goat skins; being destitute, afflicted, mistreated ³⁸(of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts, mountains, caves, and the holes of the earth. ³⁹These all, having had testimony given to them through their faith, did not receive the promise, ⁴⁰God having provided some better thing concerning us, so that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

^c11:18 Genesis 21:12

12 Therefore let us also, seeing we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, ²looking to Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. ³For consider him who has endured such hostility from sinners against himself, so that you do not grow weary in your souls and lose heart. ⁴You have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood in your struggle against sin; ⁵and you have forgotten the exhortation which reasons with you as with children, “My son, do not take lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor lose heart when you are reproved by him; ⁶For whom the Lord loves, he disciplines,

⁷It is for discipline that you endure. God deals with you as with children, for what son is there whom his father does not discipline? ⁸But if you are without discipline, of which all have been made partakers, then are you illegitimate, and not children. ⁹Furthermore, we had earthly fathers who disciplined us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live? ¹⁰For they indeed, for a few days, disciplined us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we may be partakers of his holiness. ¹¹All discipline seems for the moment painful, not joyful; yet afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. ¹²Therefore, lift up the hands that hang down and the feeble knees,^b ¹³and make straight paths for your feet,^c so that which is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed. ¹⁴Follow after peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no man will see the Lord, ¹⁵looking carefully lest there be any man who falls short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and many be defiled by it; ¹⁶lest there be any sexually immoral person, or profane person, like Esau, who sold his own^d birthright for one meal. ¹⁷For you know that even when he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for a change of mind though he sought it diligently with tears. ¹⁸For you have not come to something^e that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and darkness, gloom, and storm, ¹⁹the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which those who heard it begged that not one more word should be spoken to them, ²⁰for they could not stand that which was commanded, “If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned^f.”^g ²¹and so fearful was the appearance, that Moses said, “I am terrified and trembling.”^h

²²But you have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable multitudes of angels, ²³to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, ²⁴to Jesus, the mediator of a New Covenant,ⁱ and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better than that of Abel.

who warned on the earth, how much more will we not escape who turn away from him who warns from heaven,²⁶ whose voice shook the earth then, but now he has promised, saying, “Yet once more I will shake^a not only the earth, but also the heavens.”^b
²⁷This phrase, “Yet once more,” signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain. ²⁸So since we are receiving a Kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks^c, through which we may offer service pleasing to God, with reverence and awe,²⁹ for our God is a consuming fire.^d

13 Let brotherly love continue. ²Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for in doing so, some have entertained angels without knowing it. ³Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them; and those who are ill-treated, since you are also in the body. ⁴Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled: for^e God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers.

⁵Be free from the love of money, content with such things as you have, for he has said, "I will never leave you or forsake you."^f ⁶So that with good courage we say,

 “The Lord is my helper. I will not fear.
 What can man do to me?”^g

⁷Remember your leaders, men who spoke to you the word of God, and considering the results of their conduct, imitate their faith. ⁸Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. ⁹Do not be carried away by all kinds of strange teachings, for it is good that the heart be established by grace, not by food, through which those who were so occupied were not benefited.

¹⁰We have an altar from which those who serve the holy tabernacle have no right to eat. ¹¹For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the holy place by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned outside of the camp.^h ¹²Therefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people through his own blood, suffered outside of the gate. ¹³Let us therefore go out to him outside of the camp, bearing his reproach. ¹⁴For we do not have here an enduring city, but we seek that which is to come. ¹⁵Through him, then, let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to Godⁱ continually, that is, the fruit of lips which proclaim allegiance to his name. ¹⁶But do not forget to be doing good and sharing, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

¹⁷Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they watch on behalf of your souls, as those who will give account, that they may do this with joy, and not with groaning, for that would be unprofitable for you.

¹⁸Pray for us, for we are persuaded^a that we have a good conscience, desiring to live honorably in all things. ¹⁹I strongly urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you sooner.

²⁰Now may the God of peace, who brought again from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep with the blood of an eternal covenant, our Lord Jesus, ²¹make you complete in every good thing^b to do his will, working in us^c that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever^d. Amen.

²²But I exhort you, brothers, endure the word of exhortation, for I have written to you in few words. ²³Know that our brother Timothy has been freed, with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see you.

²⁴Greet all of your leaders and all the saints. Those from Italy send you greetings. ²⁵Grace be with you all.^e

James

1 James,^f a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are in the Diaspora: Greetings. ²Count it all joy, my brothers, when you encounter various trials, ³knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. ⁴Let endurance have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. ⁵But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach; and it will be given to him. ⁶But let him ask in faith, without any doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven by the wind and tossed. ⁷For let that man not think that he will receive anything from the Lord. ⁸He is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

⁹But let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his high position; ¹⁰and the rich, in that he is made humble, because like the flower in the grass, he will pass away. ¹¹For the sun arises with the scorching wind, and withers the grass, and the flower in it falls, and the beauty of its appearance perishes. So also will the rich man fade away in his pursuits.

¹²Blessed is the man who endures temptation, for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life, which he^a promised to those who love him.

¹³Let no man say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God," for God cannot be tempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one.

¹⁴But each one is tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. ¹⁵Then the lust, when it has conceived, bears sin; and the sin, when it is full grown, brings forth death.

¹⁶Do not be deceived, my beloved brothers. ¹⁷Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, nor turning shadow.

¹⁸Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

¹⁹This you know^b, my beloved brothers. But let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger; ²⁰for the anger of man does not accomplish^c the righteousness of God.

²¹Therefore, putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls^d. ²²But be doers of the word, and not only hearers, deluding your own selves. ²³For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man looking at his natural face in a mirror; ²⁴for he sees himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. ²⁵But he who looks into the perfect Law of freedom, and continues, not being a hearer who forgets, but a doer of the work, this man will be blessed in what he does.

²⁶If anyone^e thinks himself to be religious while he does not bridle his tongue, but deceives his heart, this man's religion is worthless. ²⁷Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

2 My brothers, do not hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory with partiality. ²For if a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, comes into your synagogue, and a poor man in filthy clothing also comes in; ³and you pay special attention to him who wears the fine clothing, and say^f, "Sit here in a good place;” but you tell the poor man, “Stand there,” or “Sit by my footstool;”⁴ haven’t you shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? ⁵Listen, my beloved brothers. Did not God choose those who are poor in this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the Kingdom which he promised to those who love him? ⁶But you have dishonored the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you, and personally drag you before the courts? ⁷Do not they blaspheme the honorable name by which you are called? ⁸However, if you fulfill the royal law, according to the Scripture, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself,”^a you do well. ⁹But if you show partiality, you commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. ¹⁰For whoever keeps the whole law, and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all. ¹¹For he who said, “Do not commit adultery,”^b also said, “Do not commit murder.”^c Now if you do not commit adultery, but murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. ¹²So speak, and so do, as men who are to be judged by a law of freedom. ¹³For judgment is without mercy to him who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

¹⁴What good is it, my brothers, if a man says he has faith, but has no works? Can faith save him? ¹⁵And if a brother or sister is naked and in lack of daily food, ¹⁶and one of you tells them, “Go in peace, be warmed and filled;” and yet you did not give them the things the body needs, what good is it? ¹⁷Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead in itself. ¹⁸Yes, a man will say, “You have faith, and I have works.” Show me your faith without works, and I by my works will show you my faith.

¹⁹You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and shudder. ²⁰But do you want to know, foolish man, that faith apart from works is useless?^d ²¹Wasn’t Abraham our father justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? ²²You see that faith worked with his works, and by works faith was perfected; ²³and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him as righteousness;”^e and he was called the friend of God. ²⁴You see then that by works, a man is justified, and not only by faith. ²⁵In like manner was not Rahab the prostitute also justified by works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? ²⁶For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.

3 Let not many of you be teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive heavier judgment. ²For in many things we all stumble. If anyone does not stumble in word, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body also. ³Now if^a we put bits into the horses' mouths so that they may obey us, we guide their whole body. ⁴Behold, the ships also, though they are so big and are driven by fierce winds, are yet guided by a very small rudder, wherever the pilot desires. ⁵So the tongue is also a little member, and boasts great things. See how a small fire can spread to a large forest! ⁶And the tongue is a fire. The world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by hell.^b ⁷For every kind of animal, bird, creeping thing, and thing in the sea, is tamed, and has been tamed by mankind. ⁸But nobody can tame the tongue. It is a restless^c evil, full of deadly poison. ⁹With it we bless our Lord^d and Father, and with it we curse men, who are made in the image of God. ¹⁰Out of the same mouth comes forth blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. ¹¹Does a spring send out from the same opening fresh and bitter water? ¹²Can a fig tree, my brothers, yield olives, or a vine figs? Nor is salt water able to produce sweet^e.

¹³Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good conduct that his deeds are done in gentleness of wisdom. ¹⁴But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not boast and do not lie against the truth. ¹⁵This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic. ¹⁶For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed. ¹⁷But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality,^f without hypocrisy. ¹⁸Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

4 Where do wars and fightings among you come from? Do not they come from your pleasures that war in your members? ²You lust, and do not have. You kill, covet, and cannot obtain. You fight and make war. You do not have, because you do not ask.

³You ask, and do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it for your pleasures.
⁴You adulteresses^a, do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.
⁵Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, “The Spirit which he made to dwell^b in us yearns jealously”?
⁶But He gives more grace. Therefore it says, “God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.”^c ⁷Be subject therefore to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you.
⁸Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded.
⁹Lament, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to gloom.
¹⁰Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will exalt you.

¹¹Do not speak against one another, brothers. He who speaks against a brother or^d judges his brother, speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge.
¹²Only one is the lawgiver and judge,^e who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbor^f?

¹³Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow let us go into this city, and spend a year there, trade, and make a profit.”
¹⁴Whereas you do not know what tomorrow will be like. What is your life? For you are^g a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away.

¹⁵For you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we will both live, and do this or that.”
¹⁶But now you glory in your boasting. All such boasting is evil.
¹⁷To him therefore who knows to do good, and does not do it, to him it is sin.

5 Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming on you.

Lord of hosts^a. ⁵You have lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure. You have nourished your hearts^b in a day of slaughter. ⁶You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous one. He does not resist you.

⁷Be patient therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it receives the early and late rain. ⁸You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near.

⁹Do not grumble, brothers, against one another, so that you won't be judged.^c Behold, the judge stands at the door. ¹⁰Take,^d brothers, for an example of suffering and of patience, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. ¹¹Behold, we call them blessed who endured. You have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the Lord in the outcome, and how the Lord^e is full of compassion and mercy. ¹²But above all things, my brothers, do not swear, neither by heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath; but let your "yes" be "yes," and your "no," "no;" so that you do not fall under judgment.^f

¹³Is any among you suffering? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praises. ¹⁴Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord, ¹⁵and the prayer of faith will heal him who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. ¹⁶Therefore^g confess your sins^h to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The insistent prayer of the righteous is powerfully effective. ¹⁷Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months. ¹⁸He prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth brought forth its fruit.

¹⁹Myⁱ brothers, if any among you wanders from the truth, and someone turns him back, ²⁰let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save his^j soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins.

1Peter

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen ones who are living as foreigners in the Diaspora in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, ²according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, that you may obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with his blood: Grace to you and peace be multiplied. ³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy became our father again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴to an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance that does not fade away, reserved in Heaven for you, ⁵who by the power of God are guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶Wherein you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, ⁷that the genuineness of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes even though it is tested by fire, may be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ—⁸whom not having seen^a you love; in whom, though now you do not see him, yet believing, you rejoice greatly with joy inexpressible and full of glory—⁹receiving the result of your faith, the salvation of your souls. ¹⁰Concerning this salvation, the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, ¹¹searching for who or what kind of time the Spirit of Christ, which was in them, pointed to, when he predicted the sufferings of Christ, and the glories that would follow them. ¹²To them it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to you, they ministered these things, which now have been announced to you through those who preached the Good News to you by the Holy Spirit sent out from heaven; which things angels desire to look into.

¹³Therefore, prepare your minds for action,^b be sober and set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ—¹⁴as children of obedience, not conforming yourselves according to your former lusts as in your ignorance, ¹⁵but just as he who called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all of your behavior; ¹⁶because it is written, “You shall be holy; for I am holy.”^{cd} ¹⁷If you call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judges according to each man’s work, pass the time of your living as foreigners here in

For they stumble at the word, being disobedient, to which also they were appointed.⁹ But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that you may proclaim the excellence of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light:¹⁰ who once were not a people, but now are God's people, who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.¹¹ Beloved, I beg you as foreigners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;¹² having good behavior among the nations, so in that of which they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they see, glorify God in the day of visitation.^{13b} Subject yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether to the king, as supreme;¹⁴ or to governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evildoers and for praise to those who do well.¹⁵ For this is the will of God, that by well-doing you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:¹⁶ as free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as bondservants of God.

¹⁷Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.¹⁸ Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the wicked.¹⁹ For it is commendable if someone endures pain, suffering unjustly, because of conscience toward God.²⁰ For what glory is it if, when you sin, you patiently endure beating? But if, when you do well, you patiently endure suffering, this is commendable with God.²¹ For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for you^c, leaving you an example, that you should follow his steps,²² who did not sin, "neither was deceit found in his mouth."^d ²³Who, when he was cursed, did not curse back. When he suffered, did not threaten, but committed himself to him who judges righteously,²⁴ who his own self bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live to righteousness; by his stripes^e you were healed.^f ²⁵For you were going astray like sheep; but now have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer^g of your souls.

they may be won by the behavior of their wives without a word;² seeing your pure behavior in fear.³ Let your beauty be not just the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on fine clothing;⁴ but in the hidden person of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God very precious.⁵ For this is how the holy women before, who hoped in God also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands: ⁶as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose children you now are, if you do well, and are not put in fear by any terror.

⁷You husbands, in like manner, live with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor to the woman, as to the weaker vessel, as being also joint heirs of the grace of life; that your prayers may not be hindered.

sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring you to God; being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit;¹⁹ in which he also went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison,²⁰ who before were disobedient, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, while the ship was being built. In it, few, that is, eight souls, were saved by means of water.²¹ This is a symbol of baptism, which now saves you—not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,²² who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.

4 Forasmuch then as Christ suffered^a in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind; for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin; ²that you no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of God. ³For enough time in the past has been spent^b doing the will of the Gentiles, and having walked in lewdness, lusts, drunkenness, orgies, carousings, and abominable idolatries. ⁴They think it is strange that you do not run with them into the same excess of riot, blaspheming: ⁵who will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. ⁶For to this end the Good News was preached even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed as men in the flesh, but live as to God in the spirit. ⁷But the end of all things is near. Therefore be of sound mind, self-controlled, and sober in^c prayer. ^{8d}Above all things be earnest in your love among yourselves, for love^e covers a multitude of sins. ⁹Be hospitable to one another without grumbling. ¹⁰As each has received a gift, employ it in serving one another, as good managers of the grace of God in its various forms. ¹¹If anyone speaks, let it be as it were the very words of God. If anyone serves, let it be as of the strength which^f God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

If it begins first with us, what will happen to those who do not obey the Good News of God? ¹⁸“If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will happen to the ungodly and the sinner?”^e ¹⁹Therefore let them also who suffer according to the will of God in doing good entrust their souls to him, as to a faithful Creator.

1 Simeon^e Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ. ²Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, ³seeing that his divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own^f glory and virtue; ⁴by which he has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. ⁵Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge; ⁶and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control patience; and in patience godliness; ⁷and in godliness brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. ⁸For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹For he who lacks these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins. ¹⁰Therefore, brothers, be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble. ¹¹For thus you will be richly supplied with the entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

¹²Therefore I will be ready always^g to remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth. ¹³I think it right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you; ¹⁴knowing that the putting off of my tent comes swiftly, even as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me. ¹⁵Yes, I will make every effort that you may always be able to remember these things even after my departure. ¹⁶For we did not follow cunningly devised tales, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. ¹⁷For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”^a ¹⁸We heard this voice come out of heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.

¹⁹We have the more sure word of prophecy; and you do well that you heed it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the morning star arises in your hearts: ²⁰knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of private interpretation. ²¹For no prophecy ever came by the will of man: but men spoke from^b God, being moved by the Holy Spirit.

2 But false prophets also arose among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction. ²Many will follow their immoral^c ways, and as a result, the way of the truth will be maligned. ³In covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words: whose sentence now from of old does not linger, and their destruction is not asleep^d. ⁴For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them down to the lower parts of hell,^e and committed them to chains^f of darkness, to be reserved for judgment; ⁵and did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah with seven others, a proclaimer of righteousness, when he brought a flood on the world of the ungodly; ⁶and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, having made them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly; ⁷and delivered righteous Lot, who was very distressed by the lustful life of the wicked ⁸(for that righteous man dwelling among them, was tormented in his righteous soul from day to day with seeing and hearing lawless deeds): ⁹the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptation and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment; ¹⁰but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise authority.

Daring, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries; ¹¹whereas angels, though greater in might and power, do not bring a railing judgment against them before the Lord. ¹²But these, as unreasoning creatures, born natural animals to be taken and destroyed, speaking evil in matters about which they are ignorant, will in their destroying surely be destroyed, ¹³suffering the penalty as the wages of evil; people who count it pleasure to revel in the daytime, spots and blemishes, reveling in their deceit while they feast with you; ¹⁴having eyes full of adultery, and who cannot cease from sin; enticing unsettled souls; having a heart trained in greed; children of cursing; ¹⁵forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Balaam the son of Beor,^a who loved the wages of wrongdoing; ¹⁶but he was rebuked for his own disobedience. A mute donkey spoke with a man's voice and stopped the madness of the prophet. ¹⁷These are wells without water, and mists driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved^b. ¹⁸For, uttering great swelling words of emptiness, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by licentiousness, those who barely^c escape from those who live in error; ¹⁹promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for a man is brought into bondage by whoever overcomes him.

²⁰For if, after they have escaped the defilement of the world through the knowledge of our^d Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in it and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. ²¹For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. ²²It^e has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog turns to his own vomit again,"^f and "the sow that has washed to wallowing in the mire."

3 This is now, beloved, the second letter that I have written to you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by reminding you; ²that you should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through your apostles: ³knowing this first, that in the last days scoffers will come, mocking^g and walking after their own lusts, ⁴and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming? from the beginning of the creation.”⁵For this they willfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth formed out of water and amid water, by the word of God;⁶by which means the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished.⁷But the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same^a word have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.⁸But do not forget this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.⁹The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, as some count slowness; but is patient with you^b, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.¹⁰But the day of the Lord will come as a thief^c; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are in it will be disclosed^d.¹¹Therefore since all these things will be destroyed like this, what kind of people ought you to be in holy living and godliness,¹²looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, which will cause the burning heavens to be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat?¹³But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells.

¹⁴Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for these things, be diligent to be found in peace, without blemish and blameless in his sight.¹⁵Regard the patience of our Lord as salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you;¹⁶as also in all of his letters, speaking in them of these things. In those, there are some things that are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unsettled twist, as they also do to the other Scriptures, to their own destruction.¹⁷You therefore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware, lest being carried away with the error of the wicked, you fall from your own steadfastness.¹⁸But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. those who would lead you astray. ²⁷As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you do not need for anyone to teach you. But as his^a anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you^b remain in him. ²⁸Now, little children, remain in him, that when he appears, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. ²⁹If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone also^c who practices righteousness is born of him.

3 Behold, how great a love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God; and such we are.^d For this cause the world does not know us^e, because it did not know him. ²Beloved, now we are children of God, and it is not yet revealed what we will be. ^fWe know that, when he is revealed, we will be like him; for we will see him just as he is. ³Everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure. ⁴Everyone who sins also commits lawlessness. Sin is lawlessness. ⁵You know that he was revealed to take away^g sins, and in him is no sin. ⁶Whoever remains in him does not sin. Whoever sins hasn't seen him, neither knows him.

⁷Little children, let no one lead you astray. He who does righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. ⁸He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Son of God was revealed, to destroy the works of the devil. ⁹Whoever is born of God does not commit sin, because his seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. ¹⁰In this the children of God are revealed, and the children of the devil. Whoever does not do righteousness is not of God, neither is he who does not love his brother. ¹¹For this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; ¹²unlike Cain, who was of the evil one, and killed his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his works were evil, and his brother's righteous. ¹³Do not be surprised,^h brothers, if the world hates you. ¹⁴We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. He who does not loveⁱ remains in death. ¹⁵Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him^j.

¹⁶By this we know love,^a because he laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. ¹⁷But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and closes his heart of compassion against him, how does the love of God remain in him? ^{18b}Little children, let us not love in word only, neither with the tongue only, but in deed and truth. ¹⁹And by this we will^c know that we are of the truth, and persuade our heart^d before him, ²⁰because if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. ²¹Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness toward God; ²²and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do the things that are pleasing in his sight. ²³This is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he commanded us^e. ²⁴He who keeps his commandments remains in him, and he in him. By this we know that he remains in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. ²By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit who confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, ³and every spirit who does not confess^f Jesus is not of God, and this is the spirit of the Anti-Christ, of whom you have heard that it comes. Now it is in the world already. ⁴You are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world. ⁵They are of the world. Therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them. ⁶We are of God. He who knows God listens to us. He who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

⁷Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God, and knows God. ⁸He who does not love does not know God, for God is love. ⁹By this God's love was revealed in us, that God has sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. ¹⁰In this is love, not that we have^g loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son as the atoning sacrifice for our sins. ¹¹Beloved, if God loved us in this way, we also ought to love one another. ¹²No one has seen God at any time. God remains in us, and his love has been perfected in us.

¹³By this we know that we remain in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. ¹⁴We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as the Savior of the world. ¹⁵Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he in God. ¹⁶We know and have believed the love which God has for us. God is love, and he who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him. ¹⁷In this love has been made perfect among us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because as he is, even so are we in this world. ¹⁸There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment. He who fears is not made perfect in love. ¹⁹We love^a, because he first loved us. ²⁰If a man says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen. ²¹This commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should also love his brother.

5 Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God. Whoever loves the Father also loves the child who is born of him. ²By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and do his commandments. ³For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments.

His commandments are not grievous. ⁴For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: our^b faith. ⁵Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? ⁶This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and the blood. It is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. ⁷For there are three who testify^c: ⁸the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and the three agree as one. ⁹If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for this is God's testimony that he has testified concerning his Son. ¹⁰He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. ¹¹The testimony is this, that God gave to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. ¹²He who has the Son has the life. He who does not have God's Son does not have the life. ¹³These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life^a.

¹⁴This is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us. ¹⁵And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him.

¹⁶If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and God will give him life for those who sin not leading to death. There is a sin leading to death. I do not say that he should make a request concerning this. ¹⁷All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not leading to death. ¹⁸We know that whoever is born of God does not sin, but he who was born of God protects him, and the evil one does not touch him. ¹⁹We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. ²⁰We know that the Son of God has come, and has given us an understanding, that we know him who is true, and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

⁴I rejoice greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, even as we have been commanded by the Father. ⁵Now I beg you, dear lady, not as though I wrote to you a new commandment, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. ⁶And this is love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, even as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it. ⁷For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess that Jesus Christ came in the flesh. ²Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be healthy, even as your soul prospers. ³For I rejoiced greatly, when brothers came and testified about your truth, even as you walk in truth. ⁴I have no greater joy than this, to hear about my children walking in truth.

⁵Beloved, you do a faithful work in whatever you accomplish for those who are brothers and strangers. ⁶They have testified about your love before the church. You will do well to send them forward on their journey in a manner worthy of God, ⁷because for the sake of the Name they went out, taking nothing from the pagans^d. ⁸We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow workers for the truth.

⁹I wrote something to the church, but Diotrophes, who loves to be first among them, does not accept what we say. ¹⁰Therefore, if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words. Not content with this, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and those who would, he forbids and throws out of the church. ¹¹Beloved, do not imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. He who does good is of God. He who does evil hasn't seen God. ¹²Demetrius has the testimony of all, and of the truth itself; yes, we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true.

⁵Now I desire to remind you, though you already know this, that Jesus,^e having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. ⁶Angels who did not keep their first domain, but deserted their own dwelling place, he has kept in everlasting bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day. ⁷Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, having, in the same way as these, given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire.

⁸Yet in like manner these also in their dreaming defile the flesh, despise authority, and slander celestial beings. ⁹But Michael, the archangel, when contending with the devil and arguing about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him an abusive condemnation, but said, "May the Lord rebuke you!" ¹⁰But these speak evil of whatever things they do not know. hidden rocky reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you, shepherds who without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn leaves without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; ¹³wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever. ¹⁴About these also Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, “Behold, the Lord came with ten thousands of his holy ones, ¹⁵to execute judgment on all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.” ¹⁶These are murmurers and complainers, walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaks proud things), showing respect of persons to gain advantage.

¹⁷But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁸They said to you that “In the last time there will be mockers, walking after their own ungodly lusts.” ¹⁹These are they who cause divisions, and are sensual, not having the Spirit. ²⁰But you, beloved, keep building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit. ²¹Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life. ²²On some have compassion, who are in doubt,^a ²³and some save,^b snatching them out of the fire, and on some have mercy with fear^c; hating even the clothing stained by the flesh.

²⁴Now to him who is able to keep you^d from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory in great joy, ²⁵to the only^e God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord,^f be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen.

I wish you were cold or hot. ¹⁶So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of my mouth. ¹⁷Because you say, ‘I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing;’ and do not know that you are wretched^d, miserable, poor, blind, and naked; ¹⁸I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich; and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and eye salve to put on your eyes, that you may see. ¹⁹As many as I love, I rebuke and discipline. Be zealous therefore, and repent. ²⁰Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with me. ²¹He who overcomes, I will give to him to sit down with me on my throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with my Father on his throne. ²²He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”

4 After these things I looked and saw a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, like a trumpet speaking with me, was one saying, “Come up here, and I will show you the things which must happen after this.”

²Immediately I was in the Spirit. Behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting on the throne. ³And the one who sat there^b looked like a jasper stone and a sardius. There was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald to look at. ⁴Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. On the thrones were twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white garments, with crowns of gold on their heads. ⁵Out of the throne proceed lightnings, sounds, and thunders. There were seven lamps of fire burning before the^c throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. ⁶Before the throne was something like a sea of glass, similar to crystal. In the midst of the throne, and around the throne were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. ⁷The first living creature was like a lion, and the second living creature like a calf, and the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth living creature^a was like a flying eagle. ⁸The four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around and within. They have no rest day and night, saying, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come!”

⁹When the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to him who sits on the throne, to him who lives forever and ever, ¹⁰the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives forever and ever, and throw their crowns before the throne, saying, ¹¹“Worthy are you, our Lord and God,^b to receive the glory, the honor, and the power, for you created all things, and because of your desire they existed, and were created!”

5 I saw, in the right hand of him who sat on the throne, a scroll written inside and on the back^c, sealed shut with seven seals. ²I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll, and to break its seals?” ³No one in heaven^d, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the scroll, or to look in it. ⁴And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the scroll, or to look in it. ⁵One of the elders said to me, “Do not weep. Behold, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome so that he can open the scroll and^e its seven seals.” ⁶I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven^f Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth. ⁷Then he came, and he took it out of the right hand of him who sat on the throne. ⁸Now when he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. ⁹They sang a new song, saying, “You are worthy to take the scroll, and to open its seals: for you were killed, and redeemed us for God with your blood, out of every tribe, language, people, and nation, ¹⁰and made them a kingdom^g and priests to our God, and they^a will reign on earth.”

¹¹I saw, and I heard^b the voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousands of ten thousands, and thousands of thousands; ¹²saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who has been killed to receive the power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and blessing!”

¹³I heard every created thing which is in heaven, on the earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them, saying, “To him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb be the blessing, the honor, the glory, and the dominion, forever and ever!”^c

¹⁴The four living creatures were saying, “Amen!” The ^delders fell down and worshiped.^e

6 I saw when^f the Lamb opened one of the seven^g seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, “Come!”^h ²And I looked,ⁱ and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow. A crown was given to him, and he came forth conquering, and to conquer.

³When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come!”^j ⁴Another came forth, a fiery red^k horse. To him who sat on it was given power to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another. There was given to him a great sword.

⁵When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, “Come!”^l And I looked, and behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a balance in his hand. ⁶I heard something like a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A choenix^m of wheat for a denarius, and three choenixes of barley for a denarius! famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth was given to him.

⁹When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been killed for the Word of God, and for the testimony^a which they had. ¹⁰They called out with a loud voice, saying, “How long, Master, the holy and true, until you judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?” ¹¹A long white robe was given to each of them. They were told that they should rest yet for a little longer, until their fellow servants and their brothers, who would also be killed even as they were, should complete their course.

¹²I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became as blood. ¹³The stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree dropping its unripe figs when it is shaken by a great wind. ¹⁴The sky was removed like a scroll when it is rolled up. Every mountain and island were moved out of their places. ¹⁵The kings of the earth, the princes, the commanding officers, the rich, the strong, and every slave and free person, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. ¹⁶They told the mountains and the rocks, “Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, ¹⁷for the great day of their^b wrath has come; and who is able to stand?”

7 After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree. ²I saw another angel ascend from the sunrise, having the seal of the living God. He called out with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea, ³saying, “Do not harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the bondservants of our God on their foreheads!” ⁴I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel: ⁵of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand, of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand, ⁶of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand, ⁷of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand,

⁹After these things I looked,
and behold, a great multitude,
which no man could number, out of every nation and of all tribes, peoples, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands.
¹⁰They shouted with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation be to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

¹¹All the angels were standing around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before the^b throne, and worshiped God, ¹²saying, "Amen!
Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might, be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

¹³One of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are arrayed in white robes,

who are they, and from where did they come?"

¹⁴So I said to him, "My lord,
you know."

He said to me, "These are the ones who came out of the great tribulation. They washed their robes, and made them white in the Lamb's blood. ¹⁵Therefore they are before the throne of God, they serve him day and night in his temple. He who sits on the throne will spread his tabernacle over them. ¹⁶They will hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither will the sun beat on them, nor any heat; ¹⁷for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne shepherds them, and leads them to springs of waters of life. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

8 When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. ²I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them. ³Another angel came and stood over the altar, having a golden censer. Much incense was given to him to offer up, with the prayers of all the saints, on the golden altar which was before the throne. ⁴The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand. ⁵The angel took the censer, and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it on the earth. There followed thunders, sounds, lightnings, and an earthquake.

⁶The seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. ⁷The first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth. One third of the earth was burnt up,^a and one third of the trees were burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

⁸The second angel sounded, and something like a great mountain burning with fire^b was thrown into the sea. One third of the sea became blood, ⁹and one third of the living creatures which were in the sea died. One third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch, and it fell on one third of the rivers, and on the springs of the waters. ¹¹The name of the star is called “Wormwood.” One third of the waters became wormwood. Many people died from the waters, because they were made bitter.

¹²The fourth angel sounded, and one third of the sun was struck, and one third of the moon, and one third of the stars; so that one third of them would be darkened, and the day would not shine for one third of it, and the night in the same way. ¹³I saw, and I heard an eagle,^c flying in mid heaven, saying with a loud voice, “Woe! Woe! Woe for those who dwell on the earth, because of the other voices of the trumpets of the three angels, who are yet to sound!”

9 The fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from the sky which had fallen to the earth. The key to the pit of the abyss was given to him. ²He opened the shaft of the bottomless pit, and smoke went up out of the shaft, like the smoke from a great^d furnace. The sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the pit. ³Then out of the smoke came forth locusts on the earth, and power was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power. ⁴They were told that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those people who do not have God’s seal on their foreheads. ⁵They were given power not to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion, when it strikes a person. ⁶In those days people will seek death, and will in no way find it. They will desire to die, and death will flee from them. ⁷The shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for war. On their heads were something like golden crowns, and their faces were like people's faces.⁸ They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions.⁹ They had breastplates, like breastplates of iron. The sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, or of many horses rushing to war.¹⁰ They have tails like those of scorpions, and stings. In their tails is their^a power to harm men for five months.¹¹ They have over them as king the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew is "Abaddon,"^b and in Greek, he has the name "Apollyon."^c ¹²The first woe is past. Behold, there are still two woes coming after this.

¹³The sixth angel sounded. I heard a voice from the four^d horns of the golden altar which is before God, ¹⁴saying to the sixth angel who had one trumpet, "Free the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates!"

¹⁵The four angels were freed who had been prepared for this hour and day and month and year, so that they might kill one third of mankind. ¹⁶The number of the armies of the horsemen^e was two^f hundred million^g. I heard the number of them. ¹⁷Thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; and the heads of lions. Out of their mouths proceed fire, smoke, and sulfur. ¹⁸By these three plagues were one third of mankind killed: from the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur, which proceeded out of their mouths. ¹⁹For the power of the horses^h is in their mouths, and in their tails. For their tails are like serpents, and have heads, and with them they harm. ²⁰The rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, that they would not worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk. ²¹They did not repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries,ⁱ nor of their sexual immorality, nor of their thefts.

the sky, clothed with a cloud. A rainbow was on his head. His face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. ²He had in his hand a little^a open scroll. He set his right foot on the sea, and his left on the land. ³He shouted with a loud voice, as a lion roars. When he shouted, the seven thunders uttered their voices. ⁴When the seven thunders sounded, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from the sky saying, “Seal up the things which the seven thunders said, and do not write them.”

⁵The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his right^b hand to the sky, ⁶and swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there will no longer be delay, ⁷but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as he declared to his servants, the prophets. ⁸The voice which I heard from heaven, again speaking with me, said, “Go, take the^c scroll which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land.”

⁹I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little scroll.

He said to me, “Take it, and eat it up. It will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey.”

have the power to shut up the sky, that it may not rain during the days of their prophecy. They have power over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire.⁷ When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them.⁸ Their dead bodies will be in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their^a Lord was crucified.⁹ From among the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations people will look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be placed in a tomb^b.¹⁰ Those who dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and they will be glad. They will give gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.¹¹ After the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who saw them.¹² I heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" They went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies saw them.¹³ In that hour^c there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified, and gave glory to the God of heaven.¹⁴ The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe comes quickly.

¹⁵The seventh angel sounded, and great voices in heaven followed, saying, "The kingdom of the world now belongs to our Lord and to his Christ, and he will reign forever and ever!"

the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. ²She was with child. She screamed out in pain, laboring to give birth. ³Another sign was seen in heaven. Behold, a great fiery red dragon,^a having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven crowns. ⁴His tail drew one third of the stars of the sky, and threw them to the earth. The dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child. ⁵She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. Her child was caught up to God, and to his throne. ⁶The woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that there they may nourish her one thousand two hundred sixty days.

⁷There was war in the sky. Michael and his angels made war on the dragon. The dragon and his angels made war. ⁸They did not prevail, neither was a place found for them^b any more in heaven. ⁹The great dragon was thrown down, the ancient serpent, he who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. ¹⁰I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now is come the salvation, the power, and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ; for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night. ¹¹They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony. They did not love their life, even to death. ¹²Therefore rejoice, heavens, and you who dwell in them. Woe to the land and the sea, because the devil has gone down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has but a short time."

¹³When the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male child. ¹⁴Two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, so that she might be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. ¹⁵The serpent spewed water out of his mouth after the woman like a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the stream. ¹⁶The earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon spewed out of his mouth. ¹⁷The dragon grew angry with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, who keep God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus^c. ¹⁸He^d stood on the sand of the sea.

The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority.³ One of his heads looked like it had been wounded fatally. His fatal wound was healed, and the whole earth was amazed and followed the beast. ⁴They worshiped the dragon, because he gave his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, “Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?” ⁵A mouth was given to him speaking proud words and blasphemies. There was given to him authority to act^b for forty-two months. ⁶He opened his mouth for blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name, and his dwelling, those who dwell in heaven. ⁷It was given to him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them. The sound which I heard was like that of harpists playing on their harps. ³They sing a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand, those who had been redeemed out of the earth. ⁴These are those who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed^c from among men, the first fruits to God and to the Lamb. ⁵In their mouth was found no lie, for they are blameless.^d

He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb. ¹¹The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. Revelation 15

¹³I heard the voice from heaven saying^a, “Write, ‘Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.’”

“Yes,” says the Spirit, “that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them.”

¹⁴I looked, and behold, a white cloud; and on the cloud one sitting like a son of man,^b having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. ¹⁵Another angel came out from the temple, crying with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, “Send forth your sickle, and reap; for the hour to reap has come; for the harvest of the earth is ripe!” ¹⁶He who sat on the cloud thrust his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

¹⁷Another angel came out from the temple which is in heaven. He also had a sharp sickle. ¹⁸Another angel came out from the altar, he who has power over fire, and he called with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, “Send forth your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for it’s grapes are fully ripe!” ¹⁹The angel thrust his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. ²⁰The winepress was trodden outside of the city, and blood came out from the winepress, even to the bridles of the horses, as far as one thousand six hundred stadia.^c

15 I saw another great and marvelous sign in the sky: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them God’s wrath is finished. ²I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who overcame the beast, his image,^d and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God. ³They sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying,

“Great and marvelous are your works, Lord God, the Almighty!
Righteous and true are your ways, O King of the ages.^e ⁴Who would not fear you, Lord, and glorify your name?

For you only are holy.

For all the nations will come and worship before you.
For your righteous acts have been revealed.”

⁵After these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. ⁶The seven angels came out of the temple^a who had the seven plagues, clothed with pure, bright linen, and wearing golden sashes around their chests.

⁷One of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. ⁸The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power. No one was able to enter into the temple, until the seven plagues of the seven angels would be finished.

16 I heard a loud voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out the seven^b bowls of the wrath of God on the earth!”

²The first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth, and it became a harmful and evil sore on the people who had the mark of the beast, and who worshiped his image.

³The second one poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man. And every living thing in the sea died.

⁴The third poured out his bowl into the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. ⁵I heard the angel of the waters saying, “You are righteous,^c who is and who was, the Holy One,^d because you have judged these things. ⁶For they poured out the blood of the saints and the prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They deserve this.” ⁷I heard the altar saying, “Yes, Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are your judgments.”

⁸The fourth poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given to him to scorch men with fire. ⁹People were scorched with great heat, and they^e blasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues. They did not repent and give him glory.

¹⁰The fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was darkened. They gnawed their tongues because of the pain, ¹¹and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores. They did not repent of their works.

¹²The sixth poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates. Its water was dried up, that the way might be made ready for the kings that come from the sunrise. ¹³I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, something like frogs; ¹⁴for they are spirits of demons, performing signs; which go forth to the kings of the whole inhabited earth, to gather them together for the war of the great day of God, the Almighty.

¹⁵“Behold, I come like a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his clothes, so that he does not walk naked, and they see his shame.” ¹⁶He gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew, Armageddon.^a

¹⁷The seventh poured out his bowl into the air. A loud voice came forth out of the temple^b, from the throne, saying, “It is done!” ¹⁸There were lightnings, voices, and peals of thunder; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since man was on the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty. ¹⁹The great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. ²⁰Every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. ²¹Great hailstones, about the weight of a talent,^c came down out of the sky on people. People blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for this plague is exceedingly severe.

17 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, “Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters, ²with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality, and those who dwell in the earth were made drunk with the wine of her sexual immorality.” ³He carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored animal, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. ⁴The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of her sexual immorality. ⁵And on her forehead a name was written, “MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.” ⁶I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw her, I wondered with great amazement. ⁷The angel said to me, “Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. ⁸The beast that you saw was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss and to go into destruction. Those who dwell on the earth and whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world will marvel when they see that the beast was, and is not, but is to come. ⁹Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits. ¹⁰They are seven kings. Five have fallen, the one is, the other has not yet come. When he comes, he must continue a little while. ¹¹The beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goes to destruction. ¹²The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour. ¹³These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast. ¹⁴These will war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings. They also will overcome who are with him, called and chosen and faithful.” ¹⁵He said to me, “The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages. ¹⁶The ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the prostitute, and will make her desolate and^a naked, and will eat her flesh, and will burn her utterly with fire. ¹⁷For God has put in their hearts to do what he has in mind, and to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God should be accomplished. ¹⁸The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth.”

18 After these things, I saw another angel coming down out of the sky, having great authority. The earth was illuminated with his glory. ²He shouted with a mighty voice, saying, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and she has become a habitation of demons, a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean bird, and a prison of every unclean and detestable beast.” ³For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality, the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from the abundance of her luxury.”

⁴I heard another voice from heaven, saying, “Come out of her, my people, that you have no participation in her sins, and that you do not receive of her plagues, ⁵for her sins have reached to the sky, and God has remembered her iniquities. ⁶Return to her just as she returned, and repay her double as she did, and according to her works. herself, and grew wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning. For she says in her heart, 'I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will in no way see mourning.'⁸ Therefore in one day her plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for the Lord God who has judged her is strong.⁹ The kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and lived wantonly with her, will weep and wail over her, when they look at the smoke of her burning,¹⁰ standing far away for the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For your judgment has come in one hour.'¹¹ The merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise any more;¹² merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, all expensive wood, every vessel of ivory, every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble;¹³ and cinnamon, spice, incense, perfume, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle, sheep, horses, chariots, slaves and human lives.¹⁴ The fruits which your soul lusted after have been lost to you, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous have perished from you, and you will find them no more at all.¹⁵ The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand far away for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning;¹⁶ saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls!¹⁷ For in an hour such great riches are made desolate.' Every shipmaster, and everyone who sails anywhere, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood far away,¹⁸ and exclaimed as they looked at the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What is like the great city?'¹⁹ They cast dust on their heads, and shouting, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her great wealth!' For in one hour is she made desolate.

²⁰ "Rejoice over her, O heaven, you saints, apostles, and prophets; for God has judged your judgment on her."²¹ A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down, and will be found no more at all."²² The voice of harpists, minstrels, flute players, and trumpeters will be heard no more at all in you. No craftsman, of whatever craft, will be found any more at all in you. The sound of a mill will be heard no more at all in you.²³ The light of a lamp will shine no more at all in you. The voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will be heard no more at all in you; for your merchants were the princes of the earth; for with your sorcery all the nations were deceived.²⁴ In her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on the earth.”

19 After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, “Hallelujah! Salvation, glory, and power belong to ^aour God: ²for true and righteous are his judgments. For he has judged the great prostitute, who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.”

³A second said, “Hallelujah! Her smoke goes up forever and ever.” ⁴The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, saying, “Amen! Hallelujah!”

⁵A voice came forth from the throne, saying, “Give praise to our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, the small and the great!”

⁶I heard something like the voice of a great multitude, and like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of mighty thunders, saying, “Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns! ⁷Let us rejoice and be exceedingly glad, and let us give the glory to him. For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready.” ⁸It was given to her that she would array herself in bright, pure, fine linen: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

⁹He said to me, “Write, ‘Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.’” He said to me, “These are true words of God.”

¹⁰I fell down before his feet to worship him. He said to me, “Look! Do not do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of Prophecy.”

¹¹I saw the heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it is called Faithful and True. Be gathered together to the great supper of God,^b ¹⁸that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, and small and great.” ¹⁹I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army. ²⁰The beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who worked the signs in his sight, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. ²¹The rest were killed with the sword of him who sat on the horse, the sword which came forth out of his mouth. All the birds were filled with their flesh.

20 I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. ²He seized the dragon, the ancient serpent, which is the devil and Satan,^c and bound him for a thousand years, ³and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years were finished. After this, he must be freed for a short time. ⁴I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as did not worship the beast nor his image, and did not receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand. They lived, and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. ⁵The rest of the dead did not live until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. ⁶Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over these, the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with him one thousand years.

⁷And after the thousand years, Satan will be released from his prison, ⁸and he will come out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war; the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. ⁹They went up over the breadth of

They will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

¹¹I saw a great white throne, and him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. There was found no place for them. ¹²I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne^b, and they opened books. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. ¹³The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and hell^c gave up the dead who were in them. They were judged, each one according to his works. ¹⁴Death and hell^d were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. ¹⁵If anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

21 I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth have passed away, and the sea is no more. ²^e I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready like a bride adorned for her husband. ³I heard a loud voice from the throne^f saying, “Behold, the tabernacle of God is with man, and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God.^g ⁴He will wipe away from them every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more. The first things have passed away.”

⁵He who sits on the throne said, “Behold, I am making all things new.” He said^h, “Write, for these words are faithful and true.” ⁶He said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give freely to him who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life. ⁷He who overcomes, I will give him these things. SALVATION

God created us and wants to have a personal relationship with us. Our sins separate us and we stand condemned. Because he loves us he has provided a way to bring reconciliation with him. The way he has provided is through faith in his atonement, in the finished work of his Son, the promised Messiah. He gave up his life willingly, taking the punishment for our sins, past, present, & future, so that we can have fellowship with a Holy God for eternity.

Here is how to invite Messiah Jesus (Hebrew: Yeshua) into your heart and life as an act of faith to receive His blood of atonement. Pray this and mean it to the best of your ability:

“Dear Heavenly Father, I realize that I am a sinner in need of a Savior. I believe that Messiah Jesus died on the cross to pay the penalty for my sins. I ask you, Jesus, to cleanse me of sin with your blood of atonement and come into my heart and life. Thank you, Jesus!”

Grow in the knowledge of the Lord, and in your walk with him. Be transformed from a self-centered life to a God-centered life. As you surrender your own plans and will for your life, the Holy Spirit will guide you in every aspect of your life to fulfill the specific plan that God has for you. Put the word and your faith into action. The Messiah is our supreme example. Read the bible daily, and locate a congregation that believes that the bible in its entirety is the inspired word of God. Encourage one another, even more as you see the day approaching.

Assurance of Salvation

“Truly, truly, I tell you, he who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life and does not come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life.” John 5:24

yet now has reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without blemish and blameless before him, Colossians 1:22

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 John 1:9

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give eternal life to them. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. John 10:27

Sins Forgotten

As far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us. Psalm 103:12

Behold, for peace I had great anguish, but you have in love for my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption; for you have cast all my sins behind your back. Isaiah 38:17

‘I will remember their sins and their iniquities no more.’ Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. Hebrews 10:17-18 {Jeremiah 31:34}

A Spiritual Journey

Forgetting the things which are behind, and reaching forward to the things which are ahead, Philippians 3:13

TRUST / FAITH

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways be mindful of him, and he will make your paths straight. Do not be wise in your own eyes; Fear the Lord and turn away from evil. This will bring health to your body and nourishment to your bones. Proverbs 3:5-8

Behold, God is my salvation. I will trust, and will not be afraid; Isaiah 12:2a

Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him. Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way, because of the man who makes wicked plots happen. For evildoers shall be cut off, but those who wait for the Lord shall inherit the land. Psalm 37:7,9

God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Therefore we will not be afraid, though the earth trembles, though the mountains are shaken into the heart of the seas; though its waters roar and are troubled, though the mountains quake with their surging. Psalm 46:1-4

Let me hear of your loving kindness in the morning, for I trust in you. Let me know the way in which I should go, for I lift up my soul to you. Psalm 143:8

He himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion, and they woke him up, and told him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are dying?" And he awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" The wind ceased, and there was a great calm. He said to them, "Why are you so afraid? How is it that you have no faith?" Mark 4:38-39

...the genuineness of your faith, ...is more precious than gold... 1 Peter 1:7a above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. Ephesians 6:16

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. Philippians 4:6

We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to his purpose. Romans 8:28

You are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world. 1 John 4:4

These things I have spoken to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you have tribulation, but take courage; I have overcome the world. John 16:33

having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance among the saints, Ephesians 1:18

We desire that each one of you may show the same diligence to have the full assurance of hope until the end...imitators of those who through faith and patience inherited the promises. Hebrews 6:11 that, being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Titus 3:7

In my Father's house are many dwelling places. If it were not so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you. John 14:2

looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ; Titus 2:13

Christ in you, the hope of glory Colossians 1:27b

Not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for adoption, the redemption of our body. Romans 8:23

For we, through the Spirit, by faith wait for the hope of righteousness. Galatians 5:5

For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with God's trumpet. The dead in Christ will rise first, then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. So we will be with the Lord forever. 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed. 1 Corinthians 15:52

But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells. 2 Peter 3:13

He will wipe away from them every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more.... Revelation 21:4

LOVE

God is Love

1John 4:16

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.' ...and... 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'

Mark 12:29 /Deuteronomy 6:4-5; Leviticus 19:18

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also must love one another. John 13:34

A friend loves at all times Proverbs 17:17

Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. John 15:13 but God demonstrates His own love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. Romans 5:8
